THE MIDWAY CELEBRATION.

VICTORIA DAY.

Pinafore closed successful day.

An excursion train of six coaches left Greenwood about 9 A. M. containing crowds from Grand Forks Phoenix and Greenwood.

The day at Midway was fine, and the whole valley and mountains were a beautiful green.

The crowd was bent on having a good time, some seeing the sports, some picnicing and many dancing. The sports were the usual horse races, but not enough Indians in it to make it exciting.

The special excitement of the day was the broncho busting, which brought everybody to the grand stand. The rider busted two bronchos without a mishap.

Ice cream and lemonade was in demand, and the booths did a rushing business.

The Anaconda Smelter

Three large copper bottoms taken from the settlers from time to time, are now being broken up into pieces for re-smelting. The head engineer Mr. Irish undertook to break these without dynamite, by dropping a heavy weight upon them from the top of the matte elevator. It worked fine. The third drop of the ton weight broke the largest sow in two.
