VOL. 12.

ATLIN, B. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 1905.

NO. 299

TELEGRAMS.

Gunshui Pass, April 3rd:—All is quiet. The heavy curtain spread by the Japanese effectually conceals the strength of the Russian positions. Contradictory reports are being received from Chinese fugitives, which indicate that there is a constant movement of the Japanese to the north-west, as though with the intention of effecting a turning movement at Kirin to cover the beginning of an attack on Vladivostok. Chinese report that the construction of a railroad from Sin Min Tin to Mukden has begun.

Harbin:—Business is paralyzed. The majority of the female population is leaving Harbin. It is believed that the Japanese are preparing a bold turning movement, probably to the eastward. The Russian cavalry are operating widely in order to avoid a repetition of the surprise of Mukden.

Zeigler, Ills., April 5rd:—A fearful explosion has occurred in the Joseph Leiter Coal Mine, where 20 miners have been killed and 78 injured.

London, April 3rd:—Owing to a slight operation, the Prince of Wales will be confined to his room for a few days.

St. Petersburg, April 3rd:—Prince Henry of Prussia reached Tsarkoesele this morning. His sudden appearance for a personal interview with the Emperor, following his brother's speech at Taugier, has created a sensation.

Sakarhoff says there has been no relaxation in the preparations to continue the war. There will be no new mobilization. 140,000 troops have already started for the front, and these are to be followed by a portion of this year's conscripts.

Tokio, April 3rd:—There is much suffering among the Chinese in the vicinity of Mukden. Scores of villages have been destroyed in the recent fighting, by which 100,000 families have been rendered homeless and destitute.

Harbin, April 4th:—Affairs at the front generally are quiet, excepting for skirmishes by General Mstchenko's Cossacks. Reports have been received that there is a movement of the Japanese flying column northward through Manchuria, in the direction of Tsitsihar.

The loss of commissariat stores at Mukden, Hussitai, Tie Pass, Kailinan and Chang Tufu has been a heavy deprivation to the Russian army.

St. Petersburg, April 4th:—Numerous arrests continue to be made of parties for supposed connection with Terrorist schemes to assassinate Governor General Trepoff.

Victoria, B. C., April 4th:—Hon.

Green admits that there has been irregularities in the Lands and Works Department. Oliver's Select Committee to investigate the Kitimat land question has commenced proceedings.

Ottawa, April 5th:—The Dominion Government has put off the extension of the Province of Manitoba until after the Autonomy Bill is passed and Ontario consulted. The Manitoba Government demands a definite answer at once and says: "Ontario, which now reaches James Bay, ought not to be consulted."

Lahore, India, April 5th:—A violent earthquake here has caused serious loss to life among natives and Europeans and great damage to buildings.

St. Petersburg, April 5th:—The prospects of a general upheaval in city and country are increasing daily. Radical forces, acting in unison, are awaiting a signal which is believed will be given shortly after the Russian Easter.

Southern Pacific Will Run to Seattle.

San Francisco:—Within 90 days the Southern Pacific will run trains to Seattle over the Northern Pacific line. The consent to the right-of-way was obtained from J. J. Hill by E. H. Harriman.

Cassie Will Do Time.

Mrs. Chadwick has been sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. Many people could not make out of the banks and others in fifty years.

Boxing.

Marion Hart, the man who whipped the negro heavyweight, Jack Johnson, will meet Jim Jeffries for the championship. The purse will be a large one.

The Rise and Fall.

The lowest and highest temperatures recorded for the week are as follows:

Apr. 1	20	36
2	28	35
3	22	30
4	25	44
5	25	46

Don't be afraid of sunshine; it gives bloom and color. "Where the sun does not enter, the doctor must," is an old Japanese proverb.

A Maine woman, annoyed by her husband's snoring, quietly anointed the sleeper's nostrils with mutton tallow, and thereafter slept in peace, the bearings of his nose being well lubricated. Those New England women are inventive.

Mining News.

Atlin Hydraulic Men Not to Employ Japs.

[From the Daily Alaskan.]
There is no truth in the report from Atlin that the hydraulic men of that district have combined for the purpose of employing Oriental labor in their mining operations. That is the declaration of J. A. Fraser, the gold commissioner, and A. C. Hirschfeld, the editor of The Claim, of Atlin.

Mr. Fraser said: "It would be impossible for the hydraulic companies to form a combination to employ Oriental labor, for the reason that every hydraulic lease that has been issued in that district since I became commissioner, contains a clause which provides specifically that Oriental labor cannot be employed. These leases include some of the property that will be worked on a large scale this year. The earlier leases, those issued by my predecessor, did not contain that clause."

It is agreed that it would be impracticable for the hydraulic men to form a combination now, for the reason that they are scattered to the four corners of the world. If it had been formed, it is not likely that it would be known in Atlin, as none of them are in there now.

A. C. Hirschfeld, who came north on the Princess May and left for Atlin, knows nothing of such an agreement and he is in touch with many of the hydraulic companies.

Atlin Feels Tanana Boom

Stampede To The Little Delta Is Greater Than That Of The Discovery of Fairbanks.

This week two of our Boulder Creek pioneer prospectors have decided to pull out for the Tanana; we wish them luck, but still think that a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. We may see them back again as was the case of many, in fact all, who left here for Alaska.

Late wires from Fairbanks say: Outfits are leaving here daily; no such excitement has occurred since the discovery of Fairbanks, as the one occasioned by late reports from the Little Delta.

Already three townsites have been established, and buildings are growing like mushrooms. The stampede has depleted Fairbanks of all its floating population; it is of the wildest kind, some of the stampedees are actually taking in machinery.

The strike is, according to reports, better than that of Cleary Creek; the whole district is being staked.

Open Up Our Quartz Mines.

Mr. J. H. Conrad has now 60 men working on the Petty Group of mineral claims at Carcross.

Mr. Conrad, in an interview, remarked that he had as good a showing as he had ever seen in all his travels.

Copper to Pay No Royalty.

An order-in-council is being prepared to remit the royalty on copper for a period of ten years. It Wilfred Laurier ordered that the royalty be taken off.

THE ATLIN CLAIM PUBLISHING CO.

A. G. HIRSCHFELD, Editor-Proprietor.

A permanent exhibit of our quartz and ores at the Government Building would be of great advantage to the District, and we are glad to see the matter taken up by the Board of Trade. It is apparent to all that a first-class exhibit of samples from our mines and prospects would be welcomed by visitors enquiring after our quartz resources, and would at once interest prospective investors.

One of the chief attractions in San Francisco is the State Mining Bureau Exhibit at the Ferry Building. The great resources of the State of California are at once apparent.

Perhaps the most vital importance of such an exhibit here would be the ease with which the collection could be sent to expositions, where now it is hardly practicable. British Columbia, the greatest mineral province on the Pacific slope, is today unrepresented at the Lewis and Clark Fair, at Portland, because of the expense and difficulty which attends the collection and dispatch of exhibits. With a collection at hand, Atlin would ever be ready to exhibit.

We hope that the Government Agent will see his way clear to give space in the Government Building, and we wish the Board of Trade well in starting the scheme. When arrangements are completed, our quartz men will have the opportunity to have their mines and prospects well advertised.

Donations to Our Hospital.

The trustees of St. Andrew's Hospital are pleased to acknowledge receipt of a donation of $11.27 from the Atlin Musical and Dramatic Society, being the balance in hand upon the winding up of the affairs of said society.

They also wish to acknowledge receipt of a donation recently, with the promise of more, from Mr. Archie W. Shiels, who was formerly secretary-treasurer of the institution, and of the assignment to them for the benefit of the Hospital of certain sums due him by Mr. Wm. Beavis before his departure.

Newly Arrived.

Among the arrivals this week were:—Mr. and Mrs. Jules Eggert, Mr. Hornell, S. M. Blodgett, E. P. Queen, D. G. Stewart, Dave Hastie, Bob Wallace, Louis Cinaca, J. Regan, A. S. Cross, G. H. Couric.

Truth is sometimes worse than fiction.

CORRESPONDENCE.

(The Claim is not responsible for views expressed by correspondents.)

The Fritz Miller Memorial.

Editor Atlin Claim,

Dear Sir:—In last Saturday's Claim appeared the final conclusions of committee of the Miller Memorial Fund. A great many of your readers do not understand why the amount collected should be divided, thereby making two memorials, when, at the first meeting held for that purpose, you will remember, it was distinctly understood that a public subscription should be started for a fitting memorial to be placed to the memory of the dead discoverer.

After the money was freely contributed, a large amount, or nearly half of it, was from relatives and close friends of the deceased gentleman. I understand Mrs. Miller herself has not been consulted in this important matter, especially when the committee in charge has seen fit, in their wisdom, to take a large amount of the money and use it for a purpose never intended.

When such a public subscription is given for a specific purpose, it is unfair to the donors that one or two men with an adverse sentiment should put forth their best efforts to defeat its object.

The high transportation rates for an article of this kind, and skilled labor which would necessarily have to be employed here, and with all said and done, the whole amount collected will be used up by the time a fitting mark of respect be placed in position to mark the grave of the discoverer of Atlin.

Yours truly,
 J. KIRKLAND.

Boulder Creek.

J. Beaton and J. McDonald are leaving Monday for the Tanana. They have been working on Boulder for four years and have made a good clean-up.

C. D. Lawson, Jack Dunham and Charley Taylor have quit their winter workings on Boulder. They are all satisfied with their season's work.

Harry Morris is hauling machinery to Boulder Creek. He is taking over the management of the Garrison property and making ready for this season's work.

Black & Grant are doing as well as usual and continue on good pay.

To Be Successful.

Be a man. Pay your debts. Be honest. Keep every promise. Be kind to the needy and unfortunate. A man's word is his capital; if his word is good, he'll come out all right. Money goes, but a man's reputation stays behind; never forget that. Be methodical and cautious.

The oldest inhabitant of Lynn, Mass., now 103 years old, attributes her long life in large part to her resolute abstention from gossip about her neighbors. Kind nature has provided that the habitual gossip shall not live long.

Dr. Young, member for Atlin, is not only a bright representative, but one of the sprucest members of the House. He affects a flower in his button-hole.—The Week, Victoria.

Winter Sport.

This is the Fourth Ice Boat Sailing on Atlin Lake.

The 'Idaho' is the latest addition to the ice boat fleet. It is owned by a syndicate, the members of which are J. H. Richardson, E. M. N. Woods and W. E. Had- don. The boat is built on the lat- est designs from Idaho. The own- ers challenge all-comers.

Curling.

Reputation, always a factor in sport, has a larger place than in any other game. Let a man be known as a crack curler and every time he loses it is charged to "luck," while every time he wins, it's "skill"; but of course it is a poor rule that won't work both ways. The new player may have the eyes of a sharpshooter, and be a born judge of weight and distance, but every time he makes a good shot there'll be a whisper of horse- shoes in the air,—that is, if he at- tempts to skip. So long as he is satisfied to play lead or second he will be rewarded with a patroniz- ing "Thank you, Mr. —, you played a very nice game." With subtle compliment, he will be led to believe that in the course of a century or so he will be able to play like the truly great man he has been playing for, and who on an average makes about one shot in six. It shows human nature in all its various phases. There you see that touch of human nature that makes the whole world kin, fanned till it has made of the curlers one large family, with all the little lik- ings and loves, jests and jealousies and familiarities, that make family relations so bright and brittle.

In His Own Right.

Mr. Roosevelt has been president for the last three and a half years be- cause the Republican National Con- vention of 1900 deemed it good politics to nominate him for vice- president on the ticket with Presi- dent McKinley. He has been the proxy or executor, if you will, for the dead Ohioan. He will now be president because he has been chosen for the job by the sovereign peo- ple of the United States. He will be president in his own right in a peculiar sense. His majorities of the popular vote and in the electoral college were so large that no man or no combination of men can claim credit for his election. He will have no political debts to pay. His obli- gations will be solely to the great masses of the common people who gave him their votes.—The Daily Alaskan.

Hints for the Eyes.

Keep soap and dust out of the eyes.
Shade the eyes from the full glare of sun- light.
When the eyes are weak, sleep all that is possible.
As you value your sight, avoid all quick eye doctors.
Never read or use the eyes for fine work during twilight.
Whenever an eye is injured, call in an ex- perimented oculist at once.
Never expose the eyes needlessly to dust or flying particles of any kind.
Have an abundance of good, steady light for any work you may have on hand.
Let the light come to your eyes from one side or from above, not from in front.
Do not work in a poor light, and avoid a glaring light, as it may be as bad as too little light.
Do not use a flickering light for reading or sewing. Use a lamp with a large burner and use good oil.
When the eyes are hot and heavy, bathe them in cold or tepid water, and do not confine them too closely to any sort of work.
When the eyes ache or are easily fatigued, use them as little as possible, and look up frequently from the work to rest them.
When reading, hold the head erect and at a distance from the light, and do not bend the head over the work any more than is possible.
Avoid poorly printed books with poor paper and poor type, and do not read when riding in cars or carriages, nor when conva- lescent from a protracted illness, nor when the whole body is in a weakened state.
—Health.
