TUG CHEHALIS WAS CUT IN TWO

By Steamer Princess Victoria of C. P. R. Fleet.

NINE PERSONS WERE DROWNED.

Capt. Griffin, of Princess Victoria, Charged With Manslaughter.

Young Woman Brutally Murdered at Wellington—Judge Townsend Killed in Railroad Wreck—Canada's Foreign Trade is Increasing—Trembling Russia—Sifton's Doukhobors Again—Will Investigate the Chehalis Disaster.

[SPECIAL TO THE CLAIM.]

Vancouver, B. C., July 23.—The tug Chehalis, which had been chartered for a three weeks trip to Blunder Harbor, by a party of Vancouverites interested in the oyster beds in that locality, was run down and sunk by the S. S. Princess Victoria in Burrard inlet narrows at noon on Saturday last. The Chehalis was passing out through the narrows at an 8 knot speed, closely followed by the C. P. R. liner at a 15 knot speed. The Chehalis was suddenly struck by the rapidly running incoming tide and thrown across the channel. Before the Victoria could be stopped she struck the Chehalis, cutting her in two and drowning nine of the party of fifteen on board. The following is a list of the drowned: Dr. H. Hutton, of London, England (an oyster expert); Mrs. R. H. Bryce, Vancouver; Hilda Mason, aged 10, Vancouver; Barnett Benwell, aged 9, Vancouver; P. J. Chick, Vancouver; Wm. H. Crawford, deck-hand, Vancouver; and two Japanese firemen and one Chinese cook.

The Princess Victoria immediately stopped, threw over a number of life preservers and lowered five boats, which picked up six survivors as follows: Capt. House, J. O. Benwell, commission merchant of Vancouver; C. A. Dean, engineer; P. G. Shallcross; R. H. Bryce and H. N. Rich.

Vancouver, B. C., July 24.—Capt. Griffin, of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's steamer Princess Victoria, was arrested here today on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the running down of the tug Chehalis and the drowning of nine persons in the Burrard inlet narrows on Saturday. He was subsequently released on bail.

Ottawa, July 26.—Upon the application of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company the Federal Government will appoint a commission to investigate the sinking of the tug Chehalis in the Vancouver narrows on Saturday last by the C. P. R. steamer Princess Victoria. The commission will probably consist of Judge Morrison and two assessors, one from Vancouver and one from Victoria.

Wellington, B. C., July 24.—The residents of this town were greatly agitated on Saturday afternoon last when it became known that Miss Mary Jane Dalton, aged 22, had been brutally murdered while defending her honor. Robert Featherstone, head sawyer at the South Wellington sawmills, has been placed under arrest on a charge of having committed this most atrocious crime.

Nelson, B. C., July 24.—As the result of an accident which occurred on the Great Northern railway on Saturday evening last, Judge W. B. Townsend, formerly mayor of New Westminster, B. C., is dead. W. B. Smith and W. D. McKinnon, both of Kaslo, were also killed. A number of other persons were more or less injured.

Ottawa, July 25.—The department of trade and finance has just issued a bulletin which states that Canada's foreign trade for the financial year ending June 30th last amounted to $552,000,000, which was an increase of $31,000,000 as compared with the returns of 1905.

Winnipeg, July 25.—The royal insurance commission opened its investigation today into the affairs of the Great West Life Insurance Company. Nothing of a sensational nature has so far been developed.

St. Petersburg, July 26.—Civil war is now said to be on in Russia. The government, after its war to the knife with the douma's proclamations, has gone steadily ahead with its programme for repression by force, while the progressists have been standing on guard.

Warsaw, July 26.—Colonel Salamatoff, of the gendarmes of this city, was stabbed to death on Wednesday. The assassin escaped.

Moscow, July 26.—The massing of troops in this city continues, the railroad lines are carefully guarded and the whole country is under semi-martial law.

Yorkton, Man., July 26.—Hundreds of religiously demented Doukhobors paraded the streets of this town last night in a semi-nude condition. They sang songs, yelled, harangued, danced and raised a tremendous hub-bub until finally rounded up by the mounted police, who hustled them to their homes.

Ottawa, July 26.—The last cabinet meeting in connection with the work of the late session of the Dominion House will be held today. Premier Laurier leaves tomorrow for Arthabaskaville.

Vancouver, B. C., July 26.—The C. P. R. liner Princess Beatrice sailed for Skagway last night with a big passenger list and a heavy cargo of freight. The steamer Cottage City sails on Saturday.

Khark, Russia, July 26.—An Associated Press correspondent arrived here today from St. Petersburg and found all the railroad and stations en route heavily guarded with troops. While all is quiet at present there is a tremendous undercurrent of excitement. Many newspapers have been confiscated and all printing offices are forbidden to publish literary contributions.

Ottawa, July 26.—Judge Henderson, of Vancouver, has been appointed a commissioner to investigate all the official transactions of Shipping Master McPhaiden of the port of Vancouver. The reports of the recent cases of shanghaiing at Vancouver are understood to be the reason of the enquiry.

GENERAL NEWS.

A man named George Simonds suicided at Seattle on Saturday last by shooting himself through the head.

A treaty of peace between Guatemala and Salvador was signed aboard the U. S. warship Marblehead last week.

The U. S. dry dock Dewey, which had been towed more than half way round the world, arrived in safety at Manila last week.

The Japanese government has given out that it is Japan's intention to nationalize all her industries, beginning with her railroads.

A Halmero despatch of the 20th stated that Mt. Stromboli was in a state of eruption and that smoke was issuing from the crater of Mt. Aetna.

At Washington last week President Roosevelt issued an order directing that eight hours shall constitute a day's work on all public works, instead of ten and twelve hours which had been the rule heretofore.

The city of Yokohama, Japan, suffered a heavy loss of life and property last week from fire. At last reports thousands of buildings had been destroyed and the fire was still raging. Only meagre details of the loss of life were reported.

A late Larado, Mex., despatch said: Circulars have been posted here warning all foreigners and especially Americans to quit Mexico. The slogan is Mexico for Mexicans. The government is expecting a gigantic labor strike and this movement against foreigners is said to be preliminary.

At St. Petersburg last week an attempt was made to assassinate Count Todleben, aid-de-camp to the czar. The Zemvovsky guards also served notice on Col. Minn, their commander, that they intend to assassinate him for having ordered them to kill their fellow soldiers during the revolt at Moscow.

The Russian commission which was appointed to investigate the conditions and circumstances attending the surrender of Port Arthur, have recommended that General Stoessel be sentenced to death for cowardice, that General Falk be sentenced to twenty years hard labor in the galleys, that General Reus be expelled from the army and that Admiral Alexiff be reprimanded. The commission refused to hear Japanese officers who offered testimony on behalf of General Stoessel.

A despatch of the 21st inst. from Paris said: A celebration was held yesterday at the tomb of Emile Zola in honor of the acquittal of Captain—now Colonel—Dreyfus. It called out a large concourse of people. Zola was a champion of Dreyfus and for his brave stand at a time when it required bravery to speak up for the accused man, he was made to suffer much. The exoneration of Dreyfus and the turn of the tide in his favor has caused the people to remember this and hence the outpouring to do him honor in the name of Dreyfus. Col. Dreyfus attended the services and when recognized was cheered for several minutes.

Mining Notes.

Telford and McDonell, Boulder creek, had a very satisfactory clean-up on Saturday last.

Gus Anderson, who is ground sluicing on Boulder, has six men employed and has prospects of a good clean-up.

Claude Sawyers, of Boulder, with one man, has finished ground sluicing and has got his boxes in shape for working bedrock.

The McKee Amalgamated Co. cleaned-up on Monday and secured gold to the value of about $7,000 for a twenty days' run.

Nelson, Shaffer and Rogers are sluicing bedrock on their Boulder ground and have prospects of extra good values being obtained.

Molyneux and Beattie, Boulder, clean-up the beginning of the week and secured 102 ounces for a short run. Their ground gives promises of good returns.

J. H. Black, who recently purchased the discovery claim on Boulder creek, has six men shovelling-in bedrock and has prospects for a very successful season.

Hy. Morris, who is working a lay on the Mon-Union ground on Boulder, has four men at work and has got things in shape for the operation of his hydraulic plant. He is on good pay and expects satisfactory returns.

The Societe Miniere hydraulic plant continues to move a large yardage of gravel on their Boulder creek holdings and they confidently expect that the next clean-up will amount to several thousands of dollars.

Messrs. Dixon & Schulz this week completed the hauling of over 200 tons of freight to Tar Flats for the Atlin Consolidated Mining Co., who have a large staff of men engaged installing their electrical and steam plants at that point.

Early this week the Northern Mines Limited cleaned-up 300 oz. for eight days work of their steam shovel and eight men on Spruce creek. The manager, R. D. Featherstonhaugh, informs us that supplies which he ordered from Vancouver in February last have only just been shipped. Although the shovel-men are quite new to the work, the company's plant is in very good running order and future clean-ups give promise of greatly exceeding the values so far secured.

The following is an extract from the June number of the B. C. Mining Exchange:

The Hon. R. McBride, Minister of Mines, and the Hon. R. F. Green, Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, returned early this month from their annual tour of inspection of the interior of the province, and it is gratifying to be able to note that they found conditions in general in a highly satisfactory condition. Particularly so was this the case with regard to the mining industry. The bright promise of the commencement of the current year is being more than fulfilled as the months go by, and, record year for British Columbia's mineral output though 1905 was, it will have to yield its laurels to 1906. The satisfactory statements as to the progress of our banner industry which were given to the press by the Minister of Mines on his return are more than borne out by the reports which daily pour in from various camps, both old and new—reports which tell of the opening of new properties, the bonding of partially developed showings, the resumption of operations on mines which have long lain idle, the installation of machinery and the enlargement of plant. The most casual glance through our columns will convince the reader of the progressive and healthy tone now characteristic of provincial mining. It is now an industrial proposition—no longer a stock gambler's speculation.

It cannot be questioned by any man of intelligence that these annual visits to the different districts by ministers of the crown—visits which have been a regular feature since the present provincial administration assumed office—are an immense factor for good in the development and government of the country. There is nothing like seeing with your own eyes; and the reports of subordinate officials, no matter how carefully or faithfully compiled, can never place the condition and needs of a district before the ruling authorities in so clear and adequate a form as does a personal visit by these same ruling authorities. It is a most regrettable thing, in a vast country like Canada, that so few of her leading statesmen feel it incumbent on them to acquire a personal knowledge of the enormous territories whose affairs they have been elected to administer. It would be a very good thing for more than one province of Canada, as well as for the Dominion as a whole, if the example set in this respect by the present government of British Columbia were to become more fashionable.

ROYALTY ON SILVER.

Wynton town promises to be one of the "best" burghs in the province of British Columbia. Out of a population of fourteen, July 15th, twelve attended, morning service. Among those present was his honor Dr. H. E. Young, M. P. P., who acted in the three-fold capacity of bugle shepherd, presenter and bather. Having rounded the little flock into the dining room of the Gould & Simpson hotel, without note or even hymnal, he led them in singing "Nearer My God to Thee," after which the Atlin sky pilot (Rev. A. M. Ross) made a bold attempt to fill Rev. Dr. Pringle's shoes. The shoes were a trifle large, but afterwards one old timer (who had not been to church for nine years) agreed that the words of the youth were at least worth the old man's consideration. At the close of the service the Dr. took the hat and with monastic authority demanded that each man should shell up. The response to his request amounted to seven dollars and fifty-one cents. How the Yankee copper got there could not be ciphered; why the Dr. kept it is still a mystery. Was it the latter's commission or Government royalty on silver?—Wynton correspondent.

MAKE HOME HAPPY.

Though we may not change the cottage;
For the mansion tall and grand,
Nor exchange the little grass plot
For a boundless stretch of land;
Though we have no means to purchase
Costly pictures, rich and rare;
Though we have no silken hangings
On the walls so white and bare,
We can make home happy, we can
make home gay;
Where the will is, always there will be a way.

We may fill our homes with music
And with sunshine brimming o'er,
If against all vain intruders
We but firmly close the door;
Yet the shadow, should it enter,
Must sincere affection find;
Then we'll reap the choicest blessings
From the poorest lot assign'd.

We can make home happy, we can
make home gay;
Where the will is, always there will be a way. —Exchange.

An Appeal to Naturalists.

To the Editor of THE ATLIN CLAIM:
SIR,—The Natural History Society has undertaken the work of establishing a wild flower garden in this city. We have secured a most eligible site in Beacon Hill Park, and the city authorities have promised to make us two small rocky ponds.

Our aim is to secure a representative collection of the many beautiful wild flowers and shrubs native to this province.

We now appeal to anyone who is interested in the flora of his particular locality to help us. We want this fall only those subjects that will thrive on rocks and in dry situations, as we shall not have water until next season.

Our funds are limited and we cannot offer to pay for plants, but will gladly pay freight charges. It is a labor of love on our part, and we shall be glad to hear from anyone able and willing to help us in the good work.

EDWARD A. WALLACE,
President Natural History Society of British Columbia.
Victoria, B. C., July 14, '06.

The following is a rather funny conversation to hear at an after-dinner chat in a mining camp:

Cheechaco—Did you ever cut hay with a scythe?

Hayseed Juggler—Yes, when I was back to home.

Cheechaco—How many acres can you cut in a day?

H. J.—Well, I remember one cut in one day I cut four acres of timothy hay which averaged four ton to the acre. I could have cut twice the quantity in the same time only it wasn't a very good day for cutting hay and besides, when leaving the field in the evening, I noticed that the blade of the scythe had been put on backwards.

The following letter, which was accompanied by a postal money order for $25.00, was this week received by Gold Commissioner J. A. Fraser, secty-treas. of the board of trustees of St. Andrew's Hospital:

To J. A. Fraser, Sec.-Treas. Board of Trustees of St. Andrew's Hospital, Atlin, B. C.

DEAR MR. FRASER,—I hope you will accept, with my best wishes for its welfare, a small contribution which I now enclose in aid of the Atlin Hospital, an institution which I think is so well worthy of support, and which has been so great a boon to many in the Atlin district. I cannot let this opportunity pass without expressing my admiration for the excellent work done by the nurses, who have done so much towards alleviating the suffering of all those who have been at any time occupants of the hospital. Trusting it may continue to flourish and be able to carry on its good work, believe me, with kind regards to Mrs. Fraser and yourself, and all old friends,

Sincerely yours,

RUPERT A. JACKSON.

Trial Trip of Steamer Glengarry.

The first of the week Mr. W. J. Smith, builder and owner of the steamer Glengarry, signed on a large crew for the trial trip of his boat, which has lately been remodeled and re-fitted. A start was made about 10 a.m. for Torey inlet and the lake was crossed in record time against a head wind. A stop was made at the mouth of the inlet to wood-up and the usefulness of the numerous crew of handy men was demonstrated in an advantageous manner. After a run down the inlet and lunch a landing was made and the party went ashore and enjoyed a few hours ramble on the hillsides. Dinner and the return trip in the evening were thoroughly enjoyed by all aboard and the home wharf was reached about 10 p.m. The Glengarry behaved well and proved herself to be a very comfortable, staunch and reasonably fast craft. The crew, who were loath to accept their discharge upon arrival in port, spoke well of their cruise and one and all were loud in their praise of the good fare supplied by and the courteous treatment of Capt. Smith.
