A Budget of Interesting News From Many Quarters.

(SPECIAL TO THE CLAIM.)

New York, May 17.—During the riots caused by the strike of the longshoremen over one hundred people were injured.

Butte, Mont., May 17.—Harry Cole, who was suspected of being implicated in the recent train robbery, was shot and killed while trying to escape. Timothy Cole made an impassioned address calling on the mob to avenge the killing of his brother. Five thousand men followed him and stormed the jail, but made an unsuccessful search for the policeman who did the shooting. The mob then broke into a large gun store and secured all the guns but no ammunition. Twenty sticks of dynamite were exploded shattering the windows for several blocks around. Quiet was finally restored about midnight, after the arrest of Timothy Cole and others was made.

Madrid, May 17.—The Queen of Spain gave birth to a son on Friday May the 10th. The Pope telegraphed his congratulations and gave the Apostolic benediction to the sovereign, the heir, and to the people.

New York, May 17.—Mrs. Howard Gould will soon begin action for divorce.

St. Catherines, May 17.—The police authorities have stopped the 'moving picture' performance showing the different scenes in the recent Thaw tragedy.

Messina, Italy, May 17.—New craters have opened in Mounts Aetna and Stromboli and both are in active eruption.

Bucharest, May 17.—The arrest of an anarchist here has disclosed a plot against the life of King Charles.

San Francisco, May 17.—The street car rioters have quieted down somewhat and a partial street car service restored. The company claims they have gained a victory over the strikers.

Boise, Idaho, May 17.—It is expected that the work of selecting a jury for the Moyer-Haywood case will be completed by the end of the week.

Santa Barbara, May 17.—Thirty-two persons killed and a great number injured by the wrecking of a Southern Pacific excursion train carrying a large crowd of Mystic Shriners en route home from the Los Angeles convention.

New York, May 17.—A procession of 50,000 Socialists marched through the streets denouncing the action and remarks of President Roosevelt, and expressing their sympathy with Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone. Roosevelt's statement was to the effect that E. H. Harriman should be classed with Moyer and Haywood as "undesirable citizens."

New Westminster, May 17.—The largest shingle mill in Sapperton has been burned and the loss is estimated at $15,000.

San Francisco, May 17.—At last they have been able to complete the empanelling of a jury to sit on the case of Abe Ruel, charged with misappropriating funds during the earthquake disaster. The trial will proceed immediately.

Belleville, Ont., May 17.—The H. Corby distillery was destroyed by fire recently. The loss will be $250,000.

Ottawa, May 17.—The Imperial Conference has accepted Sir Wilfrid Laurier's proposals in regard to the establishment of an Atlantic and Pacific service between Great Britain and Australia, and to the Orient across Canada. This will shorten the trip from London to Australia by five days.

Local and General News.

Skagway is to have a curfew bell.

Mrs. Hicks has taken charge of the Royal dining rooms.

Fresh Garden Seeds and Onion Sets at C. R. Bourne's.

Lowney's Chocolates arriving constantly at C. R. Bourne's.

The Atlin Trading Company has a full line of Gold Seal hip gum boots.

The La France, the first boat to go down the Yukon this season left La Barge last Saturday.

Mrs. E. Hinchcliffe left Atlin last Thursday on a combined business and pleasure trip to the coast cities. She intends coming back to camp shortly after navigation opens.

Holmes Pineo has cast in his lot with Mr. C. R. Bourne, our local druggist. Holmes has already served part of his apprenticeship to the business, and intends, under Mr. Bourne's supervision, to complete the study.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Jules Eggert, who slipped on the ice some weeks ago and broke her arm, has resumed her household duties again. The injured arm is in commission but care will have to be exercised for a time.

Under the "Provincial Elections Act" the following to be Commissioners for taking affidavits in the Supreme Court: Hugh Molyneux, James Regan and John Gibson, of Atlin; Geo. Kerr, M. R. Jamieson, Ed. Sands, W. Sweet and F. Little, of Discovery; G. Adams and S. H. Plumb, of McKee; H. Pyman, of Spruce.

Secretary Phillips, of the Grand Trunk Pacific, while in Vancouver, recently said it was nothing but newspaper talk that the company would abandon Prince Rupert for North Vancouver as the western terminus. "It looks as if Vancouver was getting anxious over its own position," said Mr. Phillips, who asked in reply if it was reasonable to suppose that the Grand Trunk Pacific would abandon a point it had already done so much to improve? "It is ridiculous," said Mr. Phillips.

Quite a number of Atlinites may be seen working in their gardens these fine days. Judge Young and A. S. Cross have a lay on a piece of ground fronting Second street. Nat Wheeling is busy in two places. Charlie Bourne has his seeds in and is awaiting events. Sam Johnson figures on planting Conemara yams and bananas. A. M. Ross is going to raise something even if its only a disturbance.

The Nugget hotel dining rooms at Discovery, have been re-opened under the management of Mrs. S. Cash. This lady's skill as a cook is well and widely known throughout the entire district. The dining room and kitchen have been overhauled and renovated and present a 'spick and span' appearance.

John McLennan, who had his eye injured at the beginning of the year, and removed last February, left for Vancouver last Thursday afternoon, where he will have the eminent eye specialist Dr. Campbell treat him. Mr. Arthur Dick will accompany him to the coast, and W. B. Couroy will see them as far as Cariboo. It was thought necessary by Drs. Harrison and McConkey that Mr. McLennan should have the specialist look after him in order to preserve the sight of the remaining eye. A subscription list was started around and promptly and generously responded to. Dr. Harrison and Sam Johnson walked over as far as Taku with the travelers. John's many friends will eagerly await news of his arrival at Vancouver and his condition while there. All will join in a heartfelt hope that he will return to camp in a good working condition at an early date.

Messrs. Auld, McCulloch, Stanley, Johnson and Clarke, who have been drifting all winter at the mouth of Gold Run, have put out a very large dump, showing they were not wasting time underground. The prospects taken from time to time would indicate that the boys have a 'good thing.' We sincerely hope this will be the case. They will sluice the dump into the Run and then continue drifting operations during the summer, sluicing into Pine creek. Mr. Burnett, who is just below them on the point, will be starting to work soon.

John Riplinger, formerly comptroller of Seattle, and republican candidate for mayor, at the last election has been charged with embezzlement of $20,000 of city funds.

The Rev. John Watson, D.D., famed as "Ian McLaren," the pseudonym under which he wrote "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," and other stories, died suddenly while on board train en route to Mount Pleasant, Ia. An abscess caused blood poisoning of the brain.

Longboat, the famous Indian runner has brought Canada's name to victory and to fame by capturing the Boston Marathon. He broke the course record, covering the distance, 25 miles, in 2.24.20 1-5. Longboat came home alone, and his time was more than five minutes faster than the record of 2 hours 29 minutes 23 3-5 seconds, established by John Caffery, of Hamilton, when he won this race for the second time in 1901. He finished strong and in no way distressed, though the effort was probably pretty nearly the limit of his powers. His supremacy was never challenged at any point except about the 21st mile, where Charlie Petch, the eighteen-year-old Toronto boy was leading him.

The death of Dr. Drummond deprives Canada of a singularly gifted son. His kindly muse was both robust and homely. Many of his 'Habitant' poems are permanent additions to Canadian literature. His books are looked upon as an essential part of any camp equipment. He wrote of Canadians for Canadians. His field was his own. As a sympathetic interpreter of French-Canadian rural life he stands unapproached. His untimely death came as a grievous shock to the whole nation.

Drummond's last poem, read at St. Patrick's Day banquet.

His eye may never see the blue
Of Ireland's April sky,
His ear may never listen to
The song of lark on high;
But deep within his Irish heart
Are cloisters, dark and dim,
No human hand can wrench apart,
And the lark still sings for him.
We've bowed beneath the chastening rod,
We've had our griefs and pains,
But with them all we still thank God
The Blood is in our veins;
The ancient blood that knows no fear
The Stamp is on us set,
And so, however foes may jeer,
We're Irish yet! We're Irish yet.

Victoria Day.

The 24th of May will soon be upon us. What thoughts it brings back to the mind. Memories of the frolics and amusements of our youthful days, and later the participation in the outdoor games and manly sports of our country and time. The old school jingle: "The 24th of May is the Queen's birthday, if we don't get a holiday we'll all run away," is still ringing in our ears.

Surely the citizens of Atlin will bestir themselves to mark the passing of the day so celebrated, so famous, and so revered from its associations. The arrangement of some few sports or contests among the juvenile members of the community would take but little time or expense and would tend to keep up the traditions and customs of our native land.

The B. C. Legislature.

In commenting on the British Columbia legislature and the work done, The Week, of Victoria, says: "Rarely, if ever, in the history of the B. C. legislative assembly has a session been more thoroughly devoted to business. It is also worthy of comment that the tone of the debates has been uniformly upon a high level, the only exception to this is in the case of Comrade Hawthornthwaite whose recent political affiliation finds him unchanged, an Ishmaelite, whose hand is against every man, the vaporing demagogue who sometimes accidentally says a good thing, but who in the main works off volumes of hot air to no purpose; a veritable twentieth century Gratiano, with his grain of wheat to his bushel of chaff, "and his infinite deal of nothing."

Men who have made their mark on the session, and thereby enhanced their reputation, are Dr. Young, the new provincial secretary, H. B. Thompson, the junior member for Victoria; W. J. Bowser, H. C. Brewster, and the socialist member for Grand Forks, Mr. McInnis. All these have made notable contributions to parliamentary debate and will do more in the future. In the ministerial rank the premier, while less active than usual, has proved himself the natural leader of his party on more than one occasion, and is becoming at once more dexterous and more serious in the handling of important questions. The finance minister has borne the brunt of the battle and has revealed unexpected qualities of firmness and statesmanlike grasp in more than one difficult situation. It is no disparagement of his colleagues to say that at the present moment Mr. Tatlow is the strong man of the party. The leader of the opposition and his capable assistant, the member for Delta, whilst lacking the vim which has distinguished them in previous sessions have done well and have proved themselves as skillful and resourceful as ever in debate and in the handling of parliamentary rules, no doubt they are not a little proud of having scored one or two points over the government in the interpretation of rules, a triumph for which they are largely indebted to the able support of the member for Yale. Altogether the province is to be congratulated on having a thorough business government and a decidedly able opposition. Thanks to both the statute book is enriched by the University Bill, a greatly improved Land Act, a Railway Bill, and an infinite number of important private bills which will speedily contribute to the development of the province. If anything could justify the verdict of the constituencies recorded on February 2nd, it is the record and conduct of the session of parliament just closed.

What Premiers Are Paid.

The best paid colonial premier is the newest—General Botha, who is to draw £4,000 a year from the Transvaal government.

The following is a list of the other premiers' salaries given in the House of Commons on Tuesday by Mr. L. V. Harcourt, who was answering questions for the colonial office:

Australia.....	£2,100
Natal.....	1,346
Queensland.....	1,300
Victoria.....	1,400
N. S. Wales.....	1,570
Canada.....	1,200
West Australia.....	1,200
South Australia.....	1,000

Tasmania.....	950

Dr. Jamieson, the prime minister for Cape Colony, receives no salary. Sir H. Campbell-Bannerman, as premier, receives no salary; but as first lord of the treasury he is paid £5,000 a year.

Hotch-Potch.

Despise the pessimist who sees nothing but the defects and blunders of mankind; and the scold whose pleasure it is to complain of all things as they are.

Dr. Alex. Bell, inventor of the telephone, says it is only a matter of time till airships are perfected and a speed of from 100 to 200 miles an hour obtained. Such a consummation is devoutly to be wished. Just fancy! a few of us in Atlin could syndicate and get a ship, thus putting it in our power to make "week end" visits to the outside, or to take a run over to Skagway for afternoon tea, and to a ball at Whitehorse in the evening. Oh! how delightful. Hurry up, professor.

Here's a 'hot number' in the story line: "I have at home," said the man, "a rattlesnake whose life I once saved, and I haven't the slightest doubt that it realizes it. I ran across it when it was stretched out stiff and cold and freezing to death. Taking it home, I thawed it out, and to my surprise it seemed quite tame, so I permitted it to remain in the house, and it roamed where it pleased. One night last week I was awakened by my wife who had heard a noise down stairs. I listened, and sure enough there was some sort of struggle going on beneath us. Snatching up a revolver, I crept downstairs and into the room. Imagine my surprise! By the dim light from the street I saw that snake with its body tightly wrapped around a burglar and its tail sticking out of the window, rattling for a policeman."

Much anxiety is being caused to many temperance reformers by the manifesto published in favor of alcohol by a large number of doctors. They fear that it means a set-back to the cause of total abstinence.

Those who signed the manifesto include Professor T. McColl Anderson, Glasgow University; Sir William H. Bennett, Sir James Critchton-Browne, Sir Dyce Duckworth, Dr. Hutchinson, Professor W. D. Halliburton, King's College; Dr. E. Owen, and Dr. Fred T. Roberts. They state explicitly that:

"In disease, alcohol is a rapid and trustworthy restorative;

"That in many cases it may be truly described as life-preserving owing to its power to sustain cardiac and nervous energy, while protecting the wasting nitrogenous tissues; and

"That as an article of diet, they hold the universal belief of mankind that the moderate use of alcoholic beverages is for adults usually beneficial, is amply justified."

"Keep your temper, laddie," said an old Scotchman to a rather fiery tempered son. "Never quarrel with an angry person, especially a woman. Mind ye, a soft answer pays best. It's commanded—and forbye it makes them far mader than anything else you could say."

A man entered a famous restaurant and asked for coffee. After he had finished his repast he called the waiter, and said: "Waiter, this coffee has its good points and its bad points. One of its good points is that it has no chicory in it." "Yes, sir," replied the waiter, quite gratified. Visions of a handsome tip floated before his mind's eye, and he rubbed his hands gleefully. "But," resumed the customer, "it's bad point is this—it has no coffee in it."

Few objects in modern life are more pitiable than the young husband who simply cannot settle down; yet nothing in life will set him thinking quite so ardently as to discover—after coming upstairs on tiptoe at three a.m. for the eleventh time in succession—his girl wife only just letting her hair down, and greeting him right cheerily with:

"No, I've not been sitting up for you, laddie. I've only just got in myself. Reach down the malted chocolate out of the medicine cupboard; one cheering cupful will send me to sleep."

Ed. Helgrin & Co., are putting in a large flume 15 feet by 5 feet to carry the high water, at a cost of $1,200. This will save the steam shovel owned by the Northern Mines, Limited, from interment. What a strange thing is human nature. This most approved type of a money-losing machine has been run for the past two seasons and the only satisfaction gained by the owners thereof, has been to hear their whistle blow, and to bury their more practical neighbors up with tailings. One would imagine the shareholders of such a money glutton would watch its submersion with vindictive glee.

We are glad to see J. Anness and R. Small finishing up their outer dump as it was in considerable jeopardy from high water.

J. Dick & Co., and A. McCrimmon & Co., have out the champion dumps on the creek this year. We hear they are turning out well, and judging from the smile on Alec's usually serene countenance, as he packs the pan from the clean-up, we would say his at least is satisfactory.

E. F. Pollock has assumed the management of Pillman's Imporium. We congratulate 'Pills' on obtaining the services of such a competent and experienced man to handle his fast increasing business. Pillman and Pollock will supply our wants and needs to keep us alive and give us decent burial should we be so unfortunate as to require it.

It is rumored that Pat Foley's dump is paying away and beyond his most sanguine expectations. We sincerely hope it is true, no one will begrudge Pat the good luck. The only wish is that it extends to others in the camp.

Tom Swanson and Ole Hultgren have men hired to slice their dump in order to get it out of the way before high water comes. They are working on the principle "an ounce in hand is worth a hundred down the creek."

The Spruce Creek Power Company, W. C. Hall, manager, has turned on the water and commenced operations in earnest for the season.

We have been wondering if the matrimonial epidemic which has visited the camp recently is the outcome of the fact that the worthy member for the district is the Minister of Education.

'Griff' Thomas and Sam Bond have been waging war during the past week for the ownership of some tailings. Now they may be seen peacefully and industriously shoveling into the same sluice box--and no lawyer has a mortgage on the clean-up. Surely we are getting wise. Let brotherly love continue.
