DECORATION OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS IS ART OFT NEGLECTED

Decoration is an art which appeals to the senses rather than to the intelligence, according to Mr. John R. Aiven, a New York architect, in his paper read before the New York State Association of Architects. Its function is to please the eye by providing in the surroundings of every-day life a relief from the dullness of an undecorated room and for want of variety. The effect decoration should have upon the beholder ought to be restful and satisfying. If a scheme of decoration presents puzzles as to its meaning, there is assuredly some want of continuity in its arrangement or some serious defect in the design.

At the same time there is no reason why there should not be matter for thought in the details put together to make a decorative scheme compete. Restfulness is most desirable in domestic decoration, the decorative ornamentation has to serve as a background to the lives of the people who occupy the rooms, and it ought to have a great appropriateness. If it asserts itself or claims an undue amount of attention, it is wanting in some of its chief essentials and is untrue to its best traditions.

In a public building with its more ample proportions and greater spaces, a richer and more sumptuous style of adornment is permissable. It is not a place where people live nor one where they require something in the way of their individual temperaments, and consequently it can be treated with greater freedom in the decoration than a domestic interior.

In the decoration of a public building the artist is still under obligation to keep all the parts of his work in proper harmony. In fact, his responsibility is increased on account of the greater spaces. The delicacy of touch and feeling which would give an exquisite daintiness to an ordinary room would make a large public room look black and colorless. Many men who could manage a small undertaking tastefully and with commendable judgment have gone hopelessly astray in treating large spaces.

Most essential in all decoration is that the decorator adapts himself to the surroundings and expresses the purpose of the room he is decorating in the colors and ornamentation he uses, and that all of his scheme is carried out in the same style or ornament as expressed in the architecture of the building.

To secure harmonious results and individuality requires a careful study of every single undertaking, and only by a thorough knowledge of the history of ornament and architecture is it possible for the decorator to arrive at results that distinguish the true decorator from the average painter.

Y. W. C. A. BUYS LOTS AND PLANS NEW ADDITION

Through a deal which has just been closed by the executive of the Young Women's Christian Association, two lots situated immediately to the north of the present Y. W. C. A. building have been purchased by that institution and eventually, as soon as financial arrangements can be made, it is planned to erect a large new wing on these lots to form an addition to the present Y. W. C. A. hostel.

The two lots in question were purchased on behalf of the Y. W. C. A. by Mr. Frank L. Murdoff. The property faces on Burrard street and is at present occupied by two private dwellings which the Y. W. C. A. board plans to convert into additional hostel accommodation pending the arrangements for the construction of the new wing. When the addition is planned it is proposed to have it include a swimming pool, a gymnasium larger than the present one, and a number of rooms, there being a great demand for the latter.

STARTS FIRST TWO OF NUMBER OF DWELLINGS

In an effort to help relieve the housing shortage which is becoming more acute in the city, the Modern Construction Company, Rogers building, a recently organized concern which includes a number of realty owners who plan to improve their property, has commenced work on the erection of the first two of what is planned to comprise a considerable number of moderate priced homes in the suburbs. The company will build on its own property in each instance and sell the house and lot complete when finished as it has been found that this is the best way to dispose of building lots these days.

Permits have been taken out at the city building inspector's office for the erection of the first two of these new residences. They are to be erected on lots situated at 2805 and 2811 Third avenue, west. Plans have been prepared by the company's own architect which are capable of considerable variation for individual dwellings. Each of the new houses now being erected is to be 26 by 40 feet in size, one and a half stories, and will cost about $4,000 each. They will have concrete foundation, full basement and hot air heating.

TENDERS INVITED FOR A BANK AT WILLIAMS LAKE

WILLIAMS LAKE, B. C.—A new two-story bank building is to be erected here by the Canadian Bank of Commerce, which recently commissioned Architect Wm. Frederick Gardiner, 701 Vancouver block, Vancouver, to prepare the plans for the new structure which will be one of the most modern for its size in the Cariboo district. The building will be two stories in height with a frontage of 24 feet and a depth of 44 feet. It will be equipped with concrete vaults and the usual bank fittings of the most modern kind.

Architect Gardiner is now calling for tenders for the erection of the branch bank.

ASK BIDS FOR BUILDING OF NEW HARDY BAY ROAD

Tenders are being invited by the provincial public works department for the construction of the new Hardy Bay-Coal Harbor highway, Vancouver Island. Bids will be received up to noon of July 12 for completion of this work which will fill a gap in the island highways that will be much appreciated by the travelling public. Plans, specifications, contract and forms of tender can be seen at the office of the district engineer, court house, Vancouver, at the office of the district engineer, Courtenay, or at the public works department, Victoria. Bids may be submitted separately for the construction, re-construction and the bridges, of which there are several necessary on the section to be covered. The usual ten per cent. deposit is required and a twenty per cent. bond will also be asked of the successful bidders.

TO WIDEN CONNAUGHT BRIDGE BY DAY LABOR

The civic building committee has decided to ask the city council to reconsider its decison not to proceed wth the widening of the Connaught Bridge. The council last Monday, following the decisive verdict of the ratepayers on the money bylaws, decided not to accept the tender of Boyd & Jackson to carry out the widening of the bridge at their bid of $10,001. The members of the civic building committee believe the work could be carried out cheaper under the day labor plan and recommended to the city council that City Engineer F. L. Fellowes be instructed to proceed with the work along the original plans under the day labor arrangement.

Funds for the work are already available in an unexpended bylaw balance left over after the construction of the Connaught bridge originally. Permission to use whatever sum was necessary of this balance was given the city by the provincial executive by order-in-council recently. The widening of the temporary span by another eight feet is urgently needed to relieve the dangerous congestion of motor traffic which exists there during the rush hours.

BIDS FOR WOODS LAKE SCHOOL ARE INVITED

The minister of public works is inviting tenders for the erection and completion of a two-room school and outbuildings at Woods Lake, in the North Okanagan electoral district. Tenders will be received up to noon of Wednesday, July 7. Plans and specifications, contract and forms of tender may be seen at the offices of J. Mahony, government agent, court house, Vancouver; L. Norris, government agent, court house, Vernon, B. C.; E. C. Shanks, secretary of the school board at Woods Lake, or at the department of public works, Victoria. The usual ten per cent. deposit must accompany all tenders.
