NO DELUGE OF CHEAP GERMAN GOODS ON CANADIAN MARKET

That Germany is no longer an important force in international commerce and need not be feared to cause any deluge of cheap German goods on the Canadian market is stated in an authoritive special dispatch from Berlin, by a special correspondent of iron and steel interests, who was sent over to Germany to personally investigate economic conditions. The dispatch, which gives the investigator's report, says in part:

"German's iron and steel industry is threatened with temporary extinction. The recent tremendous political upheavals in Germany, with Bolshevism for the moment rampant in Westphalia, Germany's Pittsburg district, can have no good results; but they may serve to paint in clear outlines an important fact which has been known to close students of European industrial affairs for a year, but which the average business man in Canada does not seem to have grasped—namely, that central Europe, including the once mighty Prussian empire, is a spent force in international commerce. As an iron and steel producer, in the international sense, Germany no longer counts.

"Those who have looked for a deluge of cheap German goods in Canadian and American markets may safely lay aside their fears. The air-tight blockade of the British navy during the war inflicted incalculable damage in German's industrial sphere and forced the country to exhaust its supplies of finished and raw materials. The existing economic blockade resulting from the virtual extinction of the purchasing power of the mark is almost equally disastrous. Except vitally necessary food, much of which is sent by relief organizations, very few imports are coming in to the country. The trade of the great port of Hamburg has dwindled to a tenth of its pre-war volume.

"German iron and steel production has been reduced to less than a third of its pre-war output. Dutch shipbuilders at Rotterdam are obliged to import American plates at high prices despite the fact that the centre of the once great German iron and steel industry is only 120 miles away with a water haul down the Rhine thrown in. As a result of the war, Germany has been reduced from second to third place among the iron producing nations of the world, being supplanted in second position by Great Britain, the United States being first."

LANGLEY WILL SPEND $15,725 IN ROAD WORK

MURRAYVILLE, Langley.—An extensive programme of road work on the main highways throughout the municipality is to be carried out during the coming summer as a result of the largest road appropriations for some years which were passed by the Langley Council at its last meeting. The total expenditure on road work, as approved by the council, amounts to $15,725. Most of the work will be done by day labor but a few of the larger road jobs will be awarded by contract.

TO REPAIR GORGE BRIDGE

VICTORIA—At a joint meeting of the Esquimalt and Saanich councils it was decided to proceed at once with the repairing of the bridge over the Gorge. It was decided to accept the offers of the government to donate $1,000 towards the cost of the repairs while each of the municipalities will also contribute $500.

MAY LICENSE PLUMBERS

That the city is seriously considering the advisability of either insisting upon the registration or licensing of all plumbers carrying on their trade in the city was stated at the meeting of the civic building committee last Monday, following receipt of a written opinion from City Solicitor Jones that the city had the power to do so. In fact, the city some years ago formerly licensed plumbers but the bylaw was repealed during the days of the building boom when it was found that a sufficient number of licensed plumbers could not be secured to keep pace with the work.

START WORK ON AVENUE THEATRE NEXT WEEK

All bookings of road shows and local engagements at the Avenue theatre, which had extended pretty well all through the summer, have been cancelled with the exception of one local show next Tuesday night, and arrangements are being made by Mr. Alfred Williams, construction engineer, to start work next week on the addition and remodelling of the Main street playhouse. In all about $85,000 is to be spent in the improvements which comprise an addition with a frontage of 25 feet to the south side of the theatre and its complete remodelling both interior and exterior, so that when the playhouse is reopened next September it will have a seating capacity of 1,800 and will be able to handle the biggest road shows travelling. Architect Franklin Cross, Credit Foncier building, has been busy preparing the plans and Mr. Williams will supervise the construction details. Most of the work will be done by day labor owing to the intricate nature of the alterations.

PENTICTON BANK TO COST ABOUT $30,000

PENTICTON—It is announced that the construction of the new local branch for the Bank of Hamilton is to be proceeded with this summer. The new bank building will be a handsome one, designed along similar lines to the big city branches. It will occupy a fine site at the south-east corner of Main street and Westminster Avenue and the cost will probably run about $30,000.

Tenders are also to be invited shortly for an addition to the existing premises of the Bank of Montreal. The addition is to be erected on the north side of the present bank building and with the fittings and additional vault accommodation, will entail an expenditure of about $10,000. The plans have been prepared by Architect R. B. Bell of Vernon, with whom is associated Messrs. Swan and Augustine of this city, who will supervise the construction.

BIDS FOR NEW GARAGE WILL CLOSE ON MAY 19

WILL PLAN ADDITIONS FOR COMOX HOSPITAL

Architect Wm. Frederick Gardiner, 701 Vancouver Block, has been appointed architect for the projected alterations and additions to the St. Joseph's Hospital at Comox, B. C. He is to start soon on the preparations of the plans which are intended to provide additional accommodation for at least 50 beds in addition to new and larger administration quarters.

This hospital has ben greatly overcrowded for some time and seriously hampered in its work of caring for the sick and injured from the Comox and northern Vancouver Island district owing to lack of sufficient accommodation. Mr. Gardiner announces that it will be about June 1st before the detail plans are ready to call for tenders on this work.

INVITE BIDS TO BUILD SIX COURTENAY HOMES

COURTENAY, B. C.—Municipal Clerk Robert McCuaig is inviting tenders for the construction of six dwellings under the provisions of the Soldier Housing Act, to be erected on various locations in this town. Separate tenders for each house are not wanted and no tender will be considered unless for the entire six dwellings. Tenders will be received up to noon of Monday, May 17, and each tender must be accompanied by an accepted check for a sum equal to ten per cent. of the tender.

STREET IMPROVEMTNTS TO COST $78,630 PASSED

With a view to getting as much of the year's programme of street improvements under way as early as possible while the weather is favorable, City Engineer Fellowes submitted to the civic board of works at its last meeting, a list of streets on which he recommended work to be started at once. The city engineer explained that earlier in the spring he had a large list of streets prepared for improvement but these exceeded the year's appropriation for street work which was cut to $85,000. Consequently, having to curtail his original programme, Mr. Fellowes explained that he had selected a number of leading streets in each ward, the improvement or surfacing of which would do the greatest benefit to that particular district. These be recommended to be passed so that the work could be got in hand at once.

The total amount involved in the entire list for hard-surfacing is $71,927, while the estimate for levelling and trimming up the streets to take the hard-surfacing is approximately $6,703.60, making a total for this road work of $78,630. The engineer's recommendation was approved and the work authorized to be proceeded with.

Even Japan wants to know something about B. C. Ready-Made houses now, for Mr. S. Ukida, local Japanese consul, has received a request from his government for all data possible as to the cost of construction. The scarcity of lumber and other building materials in Japan together with the high cost of living, has caused the people on Nippon to look with favor on the type of dwelling that can be built of B. C. lumber.
