Well-Known Cannery Manager Retires

G. S. McTavish Bids Farewell to Northern Coast

(BY OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

Rivers Inlet.—On 13th inst. the numerous employees at the B. C. Canning Company's Cannery and Sawmill assembled at the cannery store for the purpose of tendering a few farewell words to Mr. G. S. McTavish, their genial manager, who resigns his post after many years of faithful service, during which time he has won the esteem of both his employers and employees.

On the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. McTavish, to whom word had been dispatched, Mr. McPhee, manager of the sawmill, proceeded on behalf of the assembly to bid farewell in the following well chosen words:

"Mr. and Mrs. McTavish, we the employees of the B. C. Canning Company have assembled here this afternoon for the purpose of bidding you farewell.

"In so doing, we wish to present you with a small gift as a token of remembrance.

"We sincerely hope that all your undertakings will be as successful in the future as they have been in the past, and that you may both live to enjoy a long life of prosperity, good health and happiness."

Then followed the presentation of a solid silver tea set, suitably inscribed.

Mr. and Mrs. McTavish both replied, expressing their extreme gratitude and appreciation of the kindness and goodwill extended to them.

Mr. McTavish, who is without doubt one of the best known and most highly respected cannery men on the northern coast, came to Canada in the year 1879 and was for thirteen years in the employ of the Hudson Bay Company at York Factory and Fort Churchill in the far north.

In 1892 he entered the service of the B. C. Canning Company at Rivers Inlet, in the capacity of accountant, which position he held for five years, when he was appointed to the management of the Aberdeen cannery on the Skeena River.

Returning to Rivers Inlet in 1900, Mr. McTavish took over the management of the cannery and sawmills, which post he has now resigned.

Mr and Mrs. McTavish left by the "Camosun" on the 17th inst. for Victoria, where they have a beautiful home.

St. Petersburg, Russia, Nov. 20. A general strike of factory hands throughout the whole of Northern Russia has commenced with cessation of work by 65,000 employees.

Americans Flee From Mexico City

TAMPICO REPORTED FALLEN

British Cruisers Leave For Mexican Waters

Mexico City, Nov. 19.—Communications with the coast are being threatened and Americans are taking flight to Vera Cruz.

Tampico is reported to have fallen.

Three British armoured cruisers have been despatched from Barbadoes under sudden orders. The Constitutionists are demanding the credentials of all foreigners and numbers of Americans continue to flee from the city.

Vera Cruz, Nov. 19.—The hurried exodus of American citizens from Mexico City continues. Forty persons, mostly women and children, arrived here today.

The fugitives report that only a few Americans remain in the federal capital.

Spain must refrain from taking any steps in connection with Mexico. "The solution of the Mexican problem," says an influential journal, "must be left to the United States alone.

250 Killed in One Town

Lima, Peru, Nov. 19.—Official reports from the province of Ayumareas, state that 250 bodies have been taken from the ruins of the city of Chalhuanca, one of the ten towns destroyed by the recent earthquake.

New York, Nov. 19.—Wm. S. Braun who rose from section hand to presidency of the New York Central lines has resigned at the age of sixty years.

Railway Company Acquires More Land

No Stringency in Bella Coola

Since the visit of Mr. Britton, the right-of-way agent for the Pacific & Hudson Bay Railway Co., the company has purchased another large tract of land in the valley, which may be taken as evidence that satisfactory arrangements regarding a railroad right-of-way through the settlers lands is assured.

Several other large tracts have recently changed hands at good prices, and surveyors have been busily engaged for some time past.

It is understood that two or more subdivisions will be placed on the market in the early spring, and numerous enquiries are being received from persons who intend making this place their home in the near future.

New residences are constantly being constructed and there is not a vacant house in the town.

Kimsquit Indians Found Guilty of Manslaughter

Jury Strongly Recommend Mercy—Sentence Will Be Pronounced Shortly

Vancouver, Nov. 20.—Stickine Joe, the Kimsquit Indian, like his companion George Wilson, was found guilty of manslaughter by the jury in the Assize Court on Monday evening, he having been accused of the murder of Watchy Guss.

George Wilson had been previously tried for the murder of Charles and Emma Wilson and George Paul, the jury on that occasion failing to reach a verdict, rendering necessary a new trial, the jury in this instance bringing in a verdict of manslaughter.

In addressing the jury, Mr. Justice Morrison said there was clearly much drinking among the Indians on the night of the shooting. Drunkenness was not an excuse for crime, but it might easily lead the jury to say that a man might not be guilty of murder, but rather of manslaughter, in such a case as this. There was also much conflicting evidence regarding the happenings on that night, and it was plainly apparent that there had been so much drink taken that most of the witnesses were not clear as to what really did happen.

In bringing in a verdict of manslaughter the jury strongly recommend that the court show mercy in sentencing the accused men. Sentence will shortly be pronounced by Justice Morrison.

South African Strike Spreads

Durban, Nov. 20.—The strike of East Indian laborers has spread to the south coast and practically all of the one hundred and fifty thousand workmen of East Indian blood in Natal had laid down their tools at noon yesterday.

The ill-feeling among the East Indians has been considerably augmented by two incidents. The first was the death by flogging of a coal mine laborer, the second being the arrest of two thousand East Indians who attempted to cross from the Transvaal into Natal.

The situation is considered critical.

Conservatives Preferred

Vancouver, Nov. 19.—According to Mr. W. Pascoe, friend and business associate of Mr. H. H. Stevens, M. P., Conservatives will be given the preference by contractors who will build the government dock on Burrard Inlet.

Mr. Pascoe addressed a meeting of the Ward VII Conservative Association and said that about 350 carpenters would be employed on the construction of the dock wharf and that Conservative carpenters would be preferred. The men would be employed the first week in January.

Two Children Burned

Prince Rupert, Nov. 20. Two Indian children of Hagueltet, near Hazelton, have been burned to death. The parents attended church, leaving the children locked in the house. The fire was quickly discovered, but it had made such progress that it was impossible to enter the building.

San Francisco, Nov. 19. Fresh eggs have reached 70 cents a dozen, the highest price since the Yukon mining days, when they sold for a dollar a piece.

All Ready For Parcel Post

Ottawa, Nov. 19.—Everything is practically in readiness for the bringing into force of the parcels post. The post office department has been engaged during the greater part of the summer and fall gathering data and information upon which they could work out a scheme that would be just and equitable to all concerned and yet could be operated without too great a deficit on the part of the government.

The big matter to be decided upon now is the rates. It is not necessary to introduce a bill in Parliament to bring the parcels post into effect. Last Parliament gave the Postmaster-General the necessary power and all that is required is a departmental order from him. This order, it is learned, will be issued January 1. The rates are expected to be slightly higher than those which prevail in the United States.

Federal Bye-Election

Ottawa, Nov. 19. New Brunswick will likely be the scene of a federal bye-election during the winter. It is understood that Mr. O. S. Crockett of York, will be appointed to the supreme court of New Brunswick shortly after parliament meets.

Premier Borden Not Ill

Ottawa, Nov. 19.—The Evening Citizen says: The story sent broadcast to the effect that Rt. Hon. Mr. Borden is ill is dissipated in letters received by cabinet ministers this week from the Premier. He is in West Virginia, enjoying himself on the golf links and having a real holiday. He will not return to Ottawa till the middle of December.

Hard Time Social at Mackenzie School

An enjoyable entertainment was held at the Mackenzie School on the evening of Friday 14th, Colonel Lindsell presiding, when a hard time social, arranged by the ladies of the town was attended by a large gathering of the people of the lower end of the valley besides several from Hagensborg.

A splendid program was rendered by local artists; the instrumental selections by Mr. G. Lindsell (banjo) and Mr. A. Creighton, being particularly well received. Miss Pecknold is a gifted artist and with Miss Blayney added much to the evening's enjoyment by charmingly rendered elocutionary efforts.

The dialogue, in which the leading part was taken by Mr. Sutherland, was distinctly amusing, and is worthy of special mention.

All the artists acquitted themselves creditably and frequent encores were demanded. The following is the program:

Chairman's Remarks - Col. Lindsell.
Instrumental - Mrs. S. Le C. Grant.
Solo - T. C. Colwell.
Instrumental Banjo - Mr. G. Lindsell.
Recitation - Miss Pecknold.
Instrumental Cello - Mr. A. Creighton.
Solo - Mr. H. Sutherland.
Instrumental Banjo - Mr. G. Lindsell.
Reading - T. C. Colwell.
Instrumental - Mrs. S. Le C. Grant.
Solo - Miss Pecknold.
Instrumental - Mr. A. Creighton.
Recitation - Miss J. Blayney.
Dialogue - Refreshments.

Next came a sale of rag balls, followed by refreshments. While refreshments were being served, a celebrated palmist made wonderful readings for those who so desired, and few there were who did not wish to have exemplified the powers of that wonderful science.

Towards the close of the evening fines were imposed on the large majority of those present for reasons ludicrous as numerous. The total amount derived from the entertainment was $50, which will be devoted to church work.

The work of leveling and fencing the Mackenzie school grounds is now practically completed and the grounds present a distinctly altered appearance.

The water was over the streets in the town again last Saturday, since when an attempt has been made to block the mouth of the creek where it leaves the river by felling a few trees.

Whether this is the work which Mr. Baxter was expected to sanction, we cannot say.

Bowser on the War Path

Mr. Bowser is gunning for big game, and nothing less than the resignation of a certain supreme court judge will satisfy his vengeful spleen.

There are innumerable instances where a man's position, both officially and socially, has been the price required by Mr. Bowser for having dared to hold an opinion of his own, but few people would have imagined it possible for Mr. Bowser to allow a supreme court judge to be publicly vilified without a chance to defend himself, and all in order that he (Mr. Bowser) and a fellow member from Vancouver might be revenged.

Is this action of Mr. Bowser a threat to the judges of what will happen should any of them dare do other than the will of a select coterie of Mr. Bowser's own friends?

Chief Justice Hunter admits having made a practice of the very acts which Mr. Bowser calls fraud. What is Mr. Bowser going to do about this?

Maybe, in order to oblige his fellow member from Vancouver, Mr. A. H. B. Magowan, who so politely describes the supreme court bench as consisting of "two lunatics, a fool and a fugitive from justice," maybe, Mr. Bowser will fire the whole bunch, and replace them by that celebrated brand, "Bowser's own."

Mr. Justice Clement himself says, "that no other conclusion can be drawn from this disgraceful episode than that the Attorney-General must have been actuated by personal ill-will, a desire to be revenged upon me for my strictures in the Japanese immigration case, when he allowed such an attack to be made, under cover of parliamentary privilege, upon a judge, without giving that judge an opportunity to furnish his constitutional defender with his side of the story. Either personal ill-will or a most amazing exhibition of partisan uncharitableness towards one whom without cause he chose to consider a political enemy."

Looking at the matter from long range, we are inclined to agree with Mr. Justice Clement.

In September, 1909, Justice Clement, tried the case of Magowan vs. Heap, in which the son of Mr. A. H. B. Magowan, M.P.P., was plaintiff, the member himself being a witness on his son's behalf. The case was dismissed, hence the reason for Mr. Magowan's grievance against the judge. Probably had Justice Clement smothered his own convictions and given judgment in favor of Mr. Magowan's son, nothing would have been heard of the present disgraceful proceeding.

Just a Reminder

Once upon a time there was a certain Liberal postmaster (of course there were about 10,000 others, but we are speaking of Bella Coola,) who, because he would not take oath that he had at election time never done other than quietly cast his vote, was discharged, from his position on the grounds that he was an active partisan.

As evidence, it was alleged that this unworthy person had even been guilty of displaying in his store the picture of both the candidates for election. This was sufficient and off came his scalp.

As to whether his successor was ever asked to take a similar oath we have no information, but we are prepared to say that he was not.

It is a terrible thing for a postmaster to take any interest in politics, and of course even worse if he allows his premises to be used for the displaying of political posters.

We assume however that, since the change of government, it is quite in order for Conservative Club meetings to be held in post offices. (See last week's Courier.)

Of course it does not follow that politics will be discussed at the post office at Atnarko at 1 p.m. today when "All members are earnestly requested to attend in good time as much important business has to be discussed."

We can quite understand how, after a few remarks by the chairman, mainly on the all absorbing topic of "whence the holes in tripe," the genial secretary will submit a resolution advocating the speedy organization of a local sewing circle, with the additional attraction of instruction, by specially trained experts, (including the members of the executive) in the subtle arts of the "Tango."

Anyway, we want to say, "Go to it" if the post office is a convenient place to hold Tory confabs—we say again, "Go to it." But don't lose the postmaster his job—that's all.

A Lands Department

Many Conservative papers in Canada are now working themselves up over a matter which concerns them very slightly, viz: the recently announced land policy of Hon. Lloyd George.

In England; the land has been in the hands of the few, the titled gentry, who have been left entirely to themselves to manage themselves, so that the necessity for a Department of Lands or a Minister of Lands has really never been felt, though with the advancing wave of democracy which has characterized the last few years of Liberal government in Great Britain, many people have come to think that such a department is required at even this late date.

In this respect British Columbia is far ahead of the Mother Country.

We have yet some land left. We have a Department of Lands and forsooth a Minister of Lands also. The duty of this Minister of Lands, as far as can be detected by the ordinary individual, seems to be to ascertain where lie the choicest tracts of land, so that the speculator may be given his chance. To formulate laws governing his particular department, to decide disputes between the land speculator and the actual settler, the latter invariably being given the cold shoulder. To decide who shall hold timber or coal claims, and who shall not, always of course giving attention to the political complexion of the applicant.

If public land is to be sold, he alone sanctions the sale. In all such matters he is the people's chosen agent. It is not often that we buy land, but when it is necessary he does, or rather he should do, the buying, and for this kind of work we pay him a handsome salary. We furnish him with a Deputy Minister, a deputy to the deputy, a large staff of clerks and clerks to the clerks and house them all in elaborate offices.

We also maintain large branches of this department, for instance, the surveying branch.

As the speculator is interested in the sale of provincial lands by our Minister, so are we interested in the purchase of lands by him for the province, especially as such deals generally involve large sums of public money.

Of late, two such purchases have been made, the Songhees Reserve in Victoria and the Kitsilano Reserve in Vancouver, but strange though it may seem, our highly salaried Minister of Lands seems to have had nothing to do with either of these deals, although it would appear as though this were exactly what we paid him for.

The purchase of the Songhees Reserve cost the tax-payers of the province $105,000 over and above the actual purchase price, and in the case of the Kitsilano Reserve, $80,000 was paid to agents outside of the Department of lands, for services which should have been rendered by the Minister of Lands.

In a couple of years $185,000 of the people's money has been handed out to parties who are not in the least entitled to it.

Why our Minister of Lands did not buy these reserves himself will always remain a mystery. Evidently while he has proved himself particularly expert in the sale of lands to speculators, he is conscious of his own deficiencies as a buyer.

However that may be, the fact remains that the public treasury was mulcted to the tune of $185,000, (of which J. S. Matson, proprietor of several Conservative papers, received $75,000) for the very service which we maintain the Hon. W. Ross and his immense department.

England of the necessity of defending us."

Which will Canada prefer, the hopelessness of Mr. Borden, or the clear cut confidence of Sir Wilfrid Laurier?

Hon. George Eulas Foster tells us that while he was in China he saw the Chinese Parliament increase its sessional indemnity without consulting the people. We have all heard that "for ways that are dark and tricks that are vain, the heathen Chinese is peculiar," but we are also quite sure that the Chinamen cannot teach the present outfit at Ottawa anything about doing things without consulting the people, least of all such a trifling matter as a salary grab.—Halifax Daily Echo.

A Conservative voter in East Middlesex writes to the Victoria Times to say that he cast his vote for the Liberal candidate because that gentleman "stood by those true Conservative principles brought into birth by Mr. Foster and Mr. Borden, namely, those of a Canadian navy." The writer also asserts that if the election had been held one week later the majority normally given Conservatives in the district would have been more than cut in two, that it would have been wiped out altogether. And the result in South Bruce seems to confirm this assertion.

Liberals are People's Hope

Sir Wilfrid Laurier disagrees entirely with those who hold that the present alarming increase in the cost of living is an inevitable adjunct of "prosperity." He says the increase can be stopped by lowering the tariffs and by grappling with the trusts who rob the farmer on the one hand and the consumer on the other. In this matter it is common knowledge that the people can look with hope only to the Liberal party. It is gratifying, therefore, to see that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is leading his party with such splendid energy into the fight.—Montreal Telegraph.

The broiler door is so roomy and well arranged that a rich juicy steak or toast can be done to turn without the usual tiring, stooping necessary with common ranges. This and many other exclusive convenient features increase the pleasure of kitchen work and should be insisted upon in the range you buy.

The poker-hole door in the front of the Kootenay range is in just the right place for poking down the ashes and stirring up the fire.

Kootenay Ranges are sold everywhere by good dealers who back up our guarantee on this splendid range—McClary's
