DIED FROM EXPOSURE.

R. H. Miller, a C. P. R. Draughtsman, Meets With a Sad Death Near Reck Creek.

R. H. Miller, a draughtsman with J. A. Odell, the C. P. R. engineer at Rock Creek, died at Rock Creek Monday afternoon. He lost his way the night previous on the trail leading to Beaver creek, and was found unconscious on Monday morning.

The C. P. R. engineers have a camp on Beaver creek; while Mr. Odell and Mr. Miller, his draughtsman, lived at Rock Creek. One of the surveyors from the Beaver creek camp came down to Rock Creek Sunday morning. In the afternoon he returned, Mr. Miller going with him a portion of the distance. Mr. Miller started back for Rock Creek, but it is supposed he afterwards changed his mind and made an effort to follow his companion to the Beaver Creek camp. He probably lost the trail and wandered about until completely exhausted. He afterwards regained the trail but was evidently too weak to make any progress. He was found early Monday morning in an unconscious condition and was brought back to Rock Creek. A messenger was sent to Greenwood for Dr. Oppenheimer, but the unfortunate man died before the doctor reached there.

Dr. Jakes, the coroner, and Dr. Oppenheimer went to Rock Creek Tuesday with the intention of holding an inquest if considered necessary.

Mr. Miller was a native of Ottawa, Ont., where he has a sister living. He was about 40 years of age and was in the employ of the C. P. R. in the Kootenay for a number of years. A telegram was sent to his sister, but as the wires are down no reply has been received. The funeral will not take place until word is received from his sister.

Resumed Business.

J. J. Caulfield has purchased Mr. Howe's interest in the hardware store. The business in the future will be conducted under the firm name of Caulfield & Lamont. Mr. Wilson, of the Nelson Hardware company, will be manager. Mr. Caulfield was among the pioneer merchants of Boundary Creek, and his many friends will be glad that he has resumed business in the city.

GREENWOOD AND DISTRICT.

Mrs. J. W. Nelson is recovering from her recent severe illness.

F. H. McCarter of the Grand Forks Miner spent Sunday and Monday in the city.

County court will be held for the first time in Greenwood next Saturday. His Honor Judge Spinks will preside.

J. C. Haas will return from Spokane on Thursday, a mining deal requiring his personal attention before going east.

W. B. Paton & Co. have erected a neat office next to the Canadian Bank of Commerce. They intend doing a mining, real estate and insurance business.

The 1,000 feet of hose, reel, hydrants and other fire apparatus, ordered from the Gutta Percha and Rubber company, Toronto, has reached Bossburg and will be here in a few days. An effort will be made to lay the water-pipe to Government street immediately.

The stages recently acquired by the Columbia Townsite Co. are coming through to Columbia from Bossburg and Marcus, and the Snodgrass stage line has changed its time-table to meet the change on the other end. Mails and passengers arrive here daily about 2 p. m.

The Townsite company is making arrangements with the Canadian Pacific Railway company to cut a channel for Boundary creek through the upper portion of the town. The work will likely be undertaken by one of the C. P. R. contractors, and it is expected that it will be completed before high water next spring.

Like many schemes which the coast merchants suggested, not in the public interest but for selfish purposes, the alien exclusion placer mining bill is likely to prove a boomerang. The enforcement of the act will discourage the argonauts from going into the Atlin Lake district and the amount of supplies sold in the coast cities will be lessened thereby.

GREENWOOD, B.C.

A. Howson, a well-known Slocan mining man, is examining properties in the district.

Joseph MacKay, traveling agent for the Vancouver News-Advertiser, paid Greenwood a business visit last week.

J. W. Snodgrass, of the stage line, was kicked by a horse at Columbia on Sunday. He will be laid up for some time.

W. J. Lee of Butte, Mont., will start a weekly paper in Greenwood about February 1st. His plant arrived on Sunday.

A masquerade ball was held in Barrett's hall on Monday evening. There was a large attendance and many pretty costumes.

Mr. Breslau, of the firm of Ostroski, Breslau & Co., Davenport, Wash., is visiting with Mr. Ostroski of the Greenwood Mercantile Co.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Murray, Midway, died on Saturday last and was interred in the Midway cemetery on Sunday.

W. C. McDougall of Columbia was in the city this week en route to the Similkameen district, where he has some promising mining properties.

James McCreath of Nelson, B. C., has purchased the Lion Bottling works from the Boundary Creek Milling and Lumber company. He intends enlarging the plant.

Mr. Ralph Smailes, manager for Rendell & Co., left on Sunday for Toronto and Montreal. He is going to buy extensively for the firm and expects to be away about four weeks.

J. A. Odell of Spokane is organizing a company to develop the Tip Top claim in Skylark camp. This claim was recently purchased from J. C. Haas, H. R. Elliott, G. T. Hodgson and H. M. Lamb. There is a 16-foot shaft on the property sunk on the ledge.

The town was flooded with commercial travelers this week, nearly a score of big wholesale houses on the coast and east being represented. They feel confident that Boundary Creek is going ahead with a rush, are leaving no stone unturned in order to secure the trade.

Mr. A. M. Rice proposes getting out a pamphlet that will give a full report of Boundary Creek district, and will insert folder map showing all locations to date. Any parties who have data in connection with claims would do well to see Mr. Rice so as to get as correct a map of the district as possible. By applying at the postoffice you can communicate with him.

W. F. Tye, chief engineer for the C. P. R. was in the city for several days this week. He stated that they expected to have the road completed by the 1st of June next. The road would be finished before that time were it not for the fact that there are several bridges to be constructed in the vicinity of Arrow lakes. Those bridges can only be built from the end of the track and building them one at a time is slow work.

GOVERNMENT DOES RIGHT.

THERE is a material difference between the Semlin government and the Turner government. If the Turner government did wrong it stuck to wrong and used specious arguments to prove its course was right. The Semlin government makes an effort to do what is right, even at the expense of consistency. Some time ago THE TIMES pointed out the injustice of refusing to pay Mrs. Flood a month's salary for taking charge of the Greenwood school in the absence of a certificated teacher. The government pointed to the section of the school law forbidding the employment of teachers without provincial certificates. THE TIMES did not quarrel with the law, but pointed out that under the unusual circumstances Mrs. Flood ought to be paid the salary. The government reconsidered the matter and sent Mrs. Flood a cheque for the month's salary. It is to be distinctly understood, however, that this course is not to be taken as a precedent. There are special cases where the rigid observance of the law works a hardship, and the government is entitled to credit for having pursued the right course.

ALDERMANIC QUALIFICATIONS.

THE city council of Grand Forks consider the observance of the provisions of the Municipal Elections act necessary to the proper administration of municipal affairs. Mr. White, who was elected at the head of the poll in one of the wards, found that his property had not been registered the six months required by law and promptly resigned. The resignation was accepted by the council and another election ordered. Nominations were held on Friday last and the election on Monday. Ex-Mayor Jeff Davis and Robert Harvey were the candidates. The provisions of the Municipal Elections act are applicable to and in force in all cities of the province. Even Greenwood cannot escape the consequences of violating any of the clauses. It is the duty of the council to take such steps as will remove any possible doubt regarding the qualifications of any of its members. The public interest is paramount to that of the individual. It would be the worst kind of folly to jeopardize the city business by allowing any alderman not properly qualified to take his seat.

CORRESPONDENCE.

THE BOUNDARY CREEK TIMES publishes communications on matters of public interest, but disclaims any responsibility for the opinions expressed in this column.

McKinley Reefs.
FAIRVIEW, B. C., Jan. 13, 1899.
TO THE EDITOR: An interview with Mr. Fox, of the firm of Fox & Ross, mining brokers, Toronto, which appeared in your issue of the 7th inst., has been shown me, and as Mr. Fox has seen fit to attack the McKinley Reef company, to whom I sold the Last Chance and Flying Dutchman claims, I hope you will give space to a few words in reply.

I have before me a copy of the preliminary prospectus of The McKinley Reef Gold Mining company, and can state positively that it contains no statements which are calculated to mislead. Every detail of the company's undertakings is plainly stated, and the report upon the properties gives the public all that can be known of them until they are further developed. Mr. Fox visited Camp McKinley at a time when the ground was covered with deep snow, and when the surface showings could not be seen, so that his statements to your representative must have been founded on hearsay only. Then, too, Mr. Fox is not a mining man in any sense of the word, and therefore could not form an intelligent opinion of a mineral claim even if the conditions had been such that he could have made a proper examination. His statement that "there is not the slightest possibility of the Cariboo vein running through the Flying Dutchman" is of itself sufficient evidence that Mr. Fox is entirely ignorant of the subject which he discusses with such assurance. No competent mining man would make such a statement after having seen the property.

There is no camp in the country where a person interested in a certain claim cannot hear disparaging remarks about other claims. Even the now famous Cariboo was unmercifully derided by many who claimed to know, during various stages of its development, and even after it became a dividend payer.

The Last Chance is one of the earliest locations in camp, and its position makes it certain that if the Cariboo vein continues beyond the limits of the property owned by that company (of which there is no doubt) it will run into the claims owned by the McKinley Reef company, and it is for the purpose of developing these claims, thereby catching the lead, that the company acquired the property. Yours truly,
SEPHEN MANGOTT.

RESIGNATION CRAZE

EX-PREMIER TURNER RESIGNS

Three Victoria Constituencies Left Vacant—The Government May Carry Two—Alien Exclusion Bill Passes and Receives Assent of the Lieutenant-Governor.

VICTORIA, Jan. 21.—Ex-Premier Turner is no match for the Hon. Joseph Martin. The latter is alluring the white-haired Victoria politician and his followers into paths of political trouble and they fail to see his purpose. The mantle of Machiavelli has fallen on "Fighting Joe's" shoulders. He has plenty of dash and courage and Speculation. He takes desperate political chances. There is a very strong impression that the attorney-general is responsible for the resigning craze. Members on both sides have resigned, but the resigning government members are in safe constituencies and the resigning opposition in doubtful ones. The result is that the Semlin government has a good chance to get a safe working majority without dissolution. It is quite possible that the government may win two out of three seats in Victoria, where Messrs. Turner, McPhillips and Hall have all resigned. There was a rumor to the effect that Messrs. Semlin and Hume were going to tender their resignations. One because his farm hand sold hay to a government road gang and the other because some supplies were sold to government employees from his Nelson store. Now that three Victoria constituencies have been opened nothing is heard regarding the resignation of the premier and provincial secretary.

If the government win either one or two of the Victoria seats there will be a redistribution. The Semlin government will have a good working majority in the house and they will not take any chances unless forced to do so. The resignations absorbed the attention of the majority of the politicians last week. The Alien Exclusion bill passed and received the assent of the lieutenant-governor. The provisions of the act apply only to placer mines, and there is no intention to include quartz mining. Jas. M. Martin, the member for Rossland-Boundary Creek, made a forcible speech, approving of the measure, but strongly disapproving of any legislation tending to exclude Americans from locating and developing quartz mines in the province. The bye-elections in Victoria will be held February 2, nominations three days earlier. Messrs. Turner, Hall and McPhillips are again in the field, and Colonel Gregory, T. W. Paterson and Alderman Stuart are the government candidates.

James Hunter, one of Rossland's leading merchants, is again in the city.

GREENWOOD AND DISTRICT.

County court will be held at Midway on Monday.

Mrs. M. J. Phelan has returned from a two-weeks' visit with Mrs. Wenrick near Midway.

J. A. Odell, the C. P. R. surveyor, came in from Rock Creek with the remains of R. H. Miller.

Travel is increasing daily, all the stages being loaded with passengers upon their arrival.

Real estate is again moving freely. The Townsite company have recently sold several lots in the upper portion of the city to intending residents.

Vancouver people have bonded the Granite and Banner claims in Camp McKinney from James Lynch for $15,000. The bond is for 90 days.

D. C. McRae, Geo. R. Naden, J. Edwards Leckie, Ronald Harris and several other Greenwoodites are over in Rossland enjoying the carnival.

Chas. E. Tisdall, who resigned his seat in the legislature because his cleak sold a police officer 70 cents' worth of cartridges, has been returned by acclamation.

Mr. McLeod, the purchasing agent for the railway contractors is again in the city. Goods are arriving in large quantities and are being stored in the Greenwood warehouse.

Owing to the large number of people coming into the district the vacant houses in Anaconda are being rapidly tenanted. It is almost impossible to get houses or rooms to let in Greenwood.

A. T. Kendrick of Northport, reached Greenwood this week. He is interested in Greenwood real estate and it is possible that the large firm of which he is manager may begin business here.

Several lawyers and litigants went over yesterday to Grand Forks where court was held by Judge Spinks. There are several cases to come up at Greenwood to-day, one being a jury trial in which D. McVicar is suing Mackenzie, Mann & Co. for breach of contract on the Rawhide tunnel.

Thos. Roderick has been doing an assessment on the Myrtle in Greenwood camp, owned by R. M. McEntire, and Walter Sterling of Vancouver. A good ore body has been uncovered. The Myrtle is a fractional claim lying between the Old Ironsides and Idaho, is wedge-shaped, about 200 feet long and 24 1/2 feet at its widest point. The fraction may yet prove very valuable, as the ore being taken from the Brooklyn shaft is similar to that in the Ironsides and may be the same ledge. If this proves true, the Ironsides lead runs through both the Myrtle and the Idaho.

C. N. Collins has returned from a business trip to Spokane.

Cyril J. Eales is erecting a neat residence on Long Lake street. Mr. Corrigan has the contract.

The Elkhorn brewery is vatting a large quantity of beer. The proprietors of the brewery do not intend placing any beer on the market until it is properly seasoned.

Mrs. Henderson of Duncans, a sister of Mrs. Ralph Smailes and John Bell, died at Duncans, on Thursday last. The sad news reached Greenwood by a telegram Friday morning.

The snow is rapidly disappearing on the road between Greenwood and Midway. Unless more snow comes, freighters will have great difficulty in handling the large quantities of goods for Greenwood.

A largely-attended meeting of the residents of Midway was held in McNicol's hall on Tuesday night, when resolutions dealing with the Townsite company were passed and ordered to be sent to the shareholders of the company.

It is reported that the contract for extending the Corbin telegraph system to Republic has been let and work will be begun at once. The line will be extended immediately to Greenwood, if a charter can be secured from the Dominion government.

Two petitions are being circulated throughout the district. The one asks for a gold commissioner for the Boundary Creek district, and the other urges that a government agent be appointed for the district south of Pentictou. Both petitions are receiving the signatures of every one.

The country around Twenty Mile creek, which runs into the Similkameen about thirty miles north of Fairview, has attracted considerable attention from prospectors. Numerous locations have been made. The ledges are large and assays as high as $300 have been secured. The values are principally in copper.

Dr. R. W. Jakes and Dr. Oppenheimer held a post mortem examination on the remains of F. H. Miller. The doctors came to the conclusion that death was due to apoplexy. The doctors' decision in the matter shows that Mr. Miller did not lose the trail but fell unconscious while endeavoring to reach the Beaver creek camp.

W. C. McDougall, who left for Similkameen this week, is going to put men to work on the Opulence and adjoining properties on Keremeos creek. These claims are owned by Messrs. Riley, Sproutie and others. There are big ledges of native copper and sulphides, carrying high copper values. Assays as high as $152 have been secured.

The most promising mines in the Boundary Creek district, according to Spokane advertisements, are the Tip Top in Skylark camp and the Fitzhugh Lee in Copper camp.

Hon. J. Fred Hume, minister of mines, has resigned his seat in the legislature because a government official stopped at the Hotel Hume in Nelson and his board was paid by the government. Next!

The funeral of the late Robert H. Miller will take place from Guley's undertaking parlors to-day at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Grover, the English church clergyman at Grand Forks will conduct the services.

H. B. Madden intends erecting an hotel on the lots adjoining the McElmon-Luckenbel building on Copper street. The hotel will be called the Pacific. Application is being made to the license commissioners for a liquor license.

It is reported that the British American Corporation has purchased the La Fleur-Comstock claims across the line from Central camp. The Northport Smelter company is the nominal purchaser, and the price is $32,500 cash. These claims were famous because of the wild rush made to locate them when the reservation was thrown open.

Professor Henry Montgomery of Trinity college has given the Rossland Miner an interesting interview regarding Boundary creek. He sums up the situation by stating that "there will be some great mines and a number of them around Greenwood. That town will be a Butte rather than a Cripple Creek."
