Vol. V. GREENWOOD, B.C., SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1899. No. 20

THE CITY COUNCIL.

THE new municipal council for the City of Greenwood held its first meeting on Monday evening. No business was transacted. The mayor and aldermen present declared their intentions and an adjournment was ordered until Monday evening next, when the city's business will receive serious consideration. Before the meeting of the new council the old council met with Mayor Wood in the chair and Aldermen Galloway, Paton, Barrett and Phelan present. Several accounts were passed and then the final adjournment was carried.

Police Magistrate Hallett made his appearance, armed with seven typewritten declarations. His worship, Mayor Hardy, signed one, and Aldermen Naden, Galloway, Sutherland and Campbell individually signed one. The declaration was taken from the Municipal Elections act and is as follows:

"I—, (alderman or mayor as the case may be), do declare that I am a British subject, possessing the qualifications by law required and that I am not in any way disqualified from holding the office of a municipal (mayor or alderman as the case may be) and I have not nor will I have while holding office, any interest directly or indirectly in any contract or services connected with the corporation except such as I may lawfully have under the provisions of the Municipal Clauses act in that behalf. I have not by myself or any other person, knowingly employed any bribery or corruption or intimidation to gain my election, and I will faithfully perform the duties of my office, and will not allow any private interests to influence my conduct in public matters."

After taking the oath of office Mayor Hardy briefly addressed the council. He paid a compliment to Mayor Wood and declared his intention of supporting any measure of public interest, irrespective of whether it was introduced by an alderman supporting his election or not. He would endeavor to the best of his ability to give satisfaction. He hoped that all would be as good friends as they were a few months ago. Considerable warm feeling was engendered during the election, and he hoped some people who feel sore would see the error of their ways, regain their senses and work in the best interests of the city. He thought that there would be no business to bring before the council to-night.

Alderman Naden felt that he was classed by the mayor among those who should regain their senses. He never knew he lost his. He intended to do his duty in the interests of the city without regard to the election campaign.

Alderman Galloway did not think he lost his senses and did not expect that the mayor would act other than in an impartial manner. He hoped that the business of the council would not be conducted in too formal a manner, but that aldermen would be left free to suggest measures that would promote the city's interest.

Alderman Sutherland would use every effort to promote the interests of the city, and Alderman Campbell made a similar declaration.

On motion of Alderman Naden, seconded by Alderman Campbell, a unanimous vote of thanks was tendered the retiring mayor. Ex-Mayor Wood thanked the council for its unanimous expression of good will. He hoped that Mayor Hardy would have as pleasant a time in the chair as he had and that greater success would attend the work of the new council.

On motion of Alderman Galloway, seconded by Alderman Sutherland, the council then adjourned.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

IF THE electors who have the opportunity would vote to leave one or two of the resigned members at home, the last would be heard of the resignation business. When Chas. E. Tisdall puts the country to the expense of a new election because a clerk in his store sold a provincial police constable a box of cartridges worth 70 cents, the resignation business becomes a perfect farce. Equally ridiculous is the reason offered by R. Hall for his resignation. His company sold a ton of coal to government house and the coal was paid for by the people of the province through the government, consequently he must resign. Mr. McPhillips, another of the Victoria members has also resigned. He is anxious to remove any possible doubt as to his disqualification by reason of a transaction between his law partner and the late government. Mr. Barnard prosecuted for the crown at an assize court held one week before the election, but payment for this service was made subsequently. The fee was received by Mr. Barnard on his personal account. Mr. McPhillips does not believe the transaction affected his standing as a member and Mr. Bodwell agrees with him, but the resignation business is contagious, and in view of the heavy penalties attached to sitting and voting illegally, he decided to resign and stand for re-election.

Mr. McPhillips makes the fifth member who resigned his seat for similar reasons. All the bye-elections cost the province money and disturb the work of the legislature. We would suggest that the finnicky members be taught a lesson. The people of Victoria might leave Mr. McPhillips at home. He ought to receive some punishment for making an eight-hour speech in the legislature.

The bill enabling Messrs. Prentice and Deane to sit during the session was passed last week and received the assent of the governor. The opposition endeavored to obstruct the passage of the bill, but Fighting Joe was too much for them.

The bill preventing aliens from holding placer claims has passed through committee. Members on both sides supported the measure.

THE MAIL SERVICE.

NOTWITHSTANDING the visit of Inspector McLeod and the promise of better service in the future, the people of Boundary Creek are still enjoying some delightfully interesting irregularities in connection with the delivery and conveyance of her majesty's mail. A business letter sent from this office to Cascade City on December 19th, reached its destination on January 14th, or, as our correspondent aptly puts it, the letter took 26 days to make a distance of 37 miles. Fortunately it was adorned with a three-cent stamp. It would be really too bad if the new two-cent stamp with the high sounding "We hold a vaster empire than has been," should find a resting place on a letter that was carried less than 1½ miles per day. In the days of the more modest empire and the ordinary three-cent stamp, a faster service was occasionally provided. The Rossland mail has also been very irregular for several weeks, but this is perhaps caused by the difficulty in crossing the Columbia river on account of ice. Altogether mail to and from the Boundary Creek country is handled in a very unsatisfactory manner, and it should be part of the duties of the inspector to attend to the matter. Every week petitions and complaints are being sent in to the department and no attention is being paid to them. It is of the highest importance that the letter service at least should be regular.

COMMERCIAL ASSOCIATION.

Several important matters were considered at the Wednesday evening meeting of the Greenwood Mining and Commercial association. President Anderson was in the chair. With the exception of the president and secretary of the association, who were elected at the first meeting, the following officers were elected: President, J. Anderson; vice-president, Robt. Wood; secretary-treasurer, W. S. Keith; executive committee, W. L. C. Gordon, D. Ross, D. A. Cameron, Mayor Hardy and Ralph Smailes.

D. Bannerman, J. Fisher and J. M. N. Hill were elected members of the association.

The Hon. Wm. Mulock, postmaster-general, acknowledged the receipt of letter regarding the securing of a daily eastern mail via American lines, and promised to give the matter his early and serious consideration. A similar letter was received from Hon. Wm. Patterson, minister of customs. Hewitt Bostock, M. P., also acknowledged receipt of letters and promised to push both matters upon his arrival at Ottawa.

Mr. Wood drew attention to the treatment accorded the Snodgrass stage line by the postoffice department. All Mr. Snodgrass asked for hauling the mail to and from Grand Forks on alternate days was an equitable rate, based on the contract price, which would amount to $50 per month. The department allowed him only $25 a month, and now wished him to carry the mails on alternate days free, because the department allowed him to change the Penticton time schedule. The route was an unusually expensive one, and Mr. Snodgrass has made up his mind to cease hauling mails on alternate days unless the department offers reasonable remuneration.

Several members of the association pointed out the importance of maintaining the daily mail service, and it was decided to telegraph the postmaster-general, urging such steps as will insure the continuance of a daily mail.

The question of securing a resident gold commissioner was then discussed. It was pointed out that the gold commissioner resides at the outskirts of the district, nearly ninety miles from the center of business; that 75 per cent. of the commissioner's business comes from Boundary Creek, and that the present arrangements entailed a great deal of expense and inconvenience. The committee on local requirements were instructed to prepare a memorial to the government, urging the appointment of a gold commissioner for this district.

A meeting of the association will be held next Wednesday evening, when important questions will come up for consideration.

Several Greenwoodites are going to take in the Rossland carnival. Among those who leave for the Kootenay capital on Monday are J. Edwards Leckie and Ronald Harris. Mr. Harris may go east from Rossland.

THE NELLIE COTTON.

Some magnificent looking ore is being taken from the Nellie Cotton shaft in Greenwood camp where several men are at work. This claim and the Mystic were recently bonded by Mr. Porteous of Montreal. The shaft on the Nellie Cotton is down 35 feet all in ore. At 50 feet it is the intention to crosscut the ledge, which is supposed to be similar to the other big Greenwood camp ledges. The ore assays well and Mr. Smith, who left for Toronto in connection with this and other properties, took with him some excellent specimens from the property.

Professor Montgomery.

Prof. H. Montgomery, M. A., mineralogist and geologist at Trinity university, Toronto, was in the city last week. He is president of the Minnehaha company, Camp McKinney, and had just returned from a visit to the company's property. Professor Montgomery was well pleased with the outlook. He believes that the Minnehaha will make a big dividend-payer. He visited several of the mines in Boundary Creek and was greatly interested in the wonderful variety of ores to be found here. He believes that Boundary Creek is going to be one of the greatest mining districts in the world.

W. T. Smith left on Tuesday for Toronto in connection with some big mining deals he is negotiating. J. C. Haas has also gone east on mining business.

J. Dorsey, proprietor of the leading hotel at Gladstone, B. C., is in the city. He reports that Gladstone is steadily growing. The Burnt Basin mining district, of which Gladstone is the commercial center, is rapidly coming to the front.

A large boiler which was being hauled to the Old Ironsides mine cut through the soft snow during the recent thaw and slid down the mountain side. After considerable difficulty it was brought back to the road and hauled to the mine.

Messrs. Johnson and O'Brien of Rossland are working on their properties in Deadwood camp. They own the Burns, Phœnix, Platte and Standard. The Burns adjoins the Buckhorn, and the Standard is an extension of the Mother Lode.

The meeting of the Boundary Creek Mining and Milling company, called for Thursday last, was adjourned because of the absence of Hector McRae, who represents the syndicate controlling the majority of the stock. Mr. McRae was unable to be present and the meeting will be held next month.

Dr. G. M. Foster was in Greenwood on Saturday. The railway hospital for this section is to be erected in the next few weeks and Dr. Foster will be in charge. The location of the hospital is across the creek near the contractors' warehouse, and the building will be 75 feet by 28 feet. W. Ferris has charge of the work.

A PRECEDENT.

In view of the complications that are likely to arise because of the lack of qualifications of two of the aldermen elect, who have so far refrained from taking the oath of office, the procedure in a similar case in Rossland will prove interesting reading. Alderman Barrett (not our own Alderman Barrett) was elected during the recent election in Rossland. A search of the records in the land registry office revealed the fact that Mr. Barrett had not the necessary qualifications, because of delay in registering his property. Alderman Barrett at once tendered his resignation. Commenting upon the matter, the Rossland Miner says :

"The withdrawal of Mr. Barrett will necessitate a new nomination for his successor from the Third ward. The nomination will be held some time within the next ten days. If only one candidate be nominated, he will go into office by acclamation. If more than one be nominated, an election in the Third ward must be held. There has been a general impression that since Mr. Barrett has withdrawn, his opponent in the late election, Eli Lavalley, will therefore be installed into office without further ceremony. This is a mistake. The whole proceedings of electing a new alderman from the Third ward must be carried out as if no past election had been held."

Over one hundred laborers are now in Welch's camp near Tillman's mill. They are busy clearing the right-of-way preparatory to grading.

SUBSCRIPTION, $2.00 PER YEAR, IN ADVANCE.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1899.

TWICE-A-WEEK TIMES.

Owing to the delay in hauling freight from Penticton, we were unable to change the size of THE BOUNDARY CREEK TIMES as early in the year as we announced. The necessary supplies reached the office this week, however, and next week our subscribers will be furnished with THE TIMES in the regular newspaper form. In order to keep pace with the growth and development of the city and district, we have also decided to issue THE TIMES twice a week in the future. The days of publication will be Wednesday and Saturday. The subscription price will remain the same, and the advertising rates will be only slightly increased. In order to meet the extra expense, the rule that all subscriptions are due in advance must be made imperative. The publication of a twice-a-week paper entails considerable additional labor and expense, and the fact that it is possible to do so in this city shows what rapid strides Greenwood and the surrounding district have made since THE TIMES was first issued. Outside of the larger cities, where dailies are published, Kamloops is the only other town in British Columbia that has more than a weekly paper.

As soon as the Robson-Boundary Creek railway is completed and telegraphic communication secured, we expect that Greenwood will be a city of several thousand inhabitants, and that the twice-a-week paper will give place to a daily. The increased attention which has been given to the mining resources of the district, the very great encouragement which those developing properties have received, and the general appearance of prosperity and activity that marks the city and district, all force one to the conclusion that Greenwood, the metropolis of the Boundary Creek district, is going to be the largest and busiest city in the interior.

THE BOUNDARY CREEK TIMES was issued in Greenwood before there was business enough to justify the existence of a newspaper. A twice-a-week paper is in advance of the present business and population, but we must have sufficient confidence to take chances on the future. No business man will make a grave mistake by banking on the future of Greenwood and making the necessary provision for largely increased trade.

A word to the advertiser: Changes must be in the hands of the printer early Monday morning to insure their appearance in Wednesday's paper.

THE B. C. MINE.

Messrs. A. H. Harrison and E. E. Barchard, who recently sold the B. C. mine, returned from Rossland on Saturday evening. They leave for a visit to England in a few days but expect to return about the end of April.

It is reported that the McQuaig syndicate, which bonded this property, have organized a company with a capital of $1,500,000. Montreal people over subscribed for the stock by several hundred thousand shares. Five hundred thousand shares were placed in the treasury and the entire number were purchased at 50 cents a share, giving $250,000 for development purposes. This and Graves' smelter company are among the most successful flotations in connection with British Columbia mining. They show that Montreal capitalists have at last turned their attention to Boundary Creek mining properties.

The New Chief of Police.

Greenwood is fortunate in securing the services of Chief John McLaren. He is a better man than the city could expect. Having long police experience in Winnipeg and Vancouver, he has learned to keep his place and do his duty. A chief of police requires a big body and a good deal of common sense. Chief McLaren has both. Those who are anxious that Greenwood should be an orderly city, will find the new chief a good-natured fellow who attends to his own business and is not at all anxious to meddle with other people's affairs. The vicious, the tinhorns, and people of that ilk, will find that the road to Grand Forks offers greater inducements than an acquaintance with the chief of police.

A Temperance Story.

A good story is told in connection with the recent cold weather. Contractor McDonnell from Summit met Messrs. White and Wilson near Cascade City. The thermometer registered 48 below zero and quit. Mac asked the travelers if they had any liquor. They answered in the negative. "Well, I have," said the big contractor and pulled a bottle from his sleigh. Mac's face was a study when he noticed that the whiskey was frozen. "It serves me right," he muttered in a sad and frozen tone, "for buying my whiskey at Grand Forks. I'll get it at Greenwood in the future."

King Rees and bride were visitors with Mrs. J. P. Flood this week. Mr. Rees will have charge of the books at both the Cascade and Grand Forks meat markets.

Crosscutting at the 100-foot level on the Morrison mine has been suspended on account of water. A tunnel is now being run. It will give a depth of about 170 feet. When in the proper distance an upraise will be made to tap the present shaft. There are two shifts working on the Morrison. Bunk houses and all necessary buildings have been erected on the property.

The Oro Denoro.

Mr. McIntosh, the foreman of the Oro Denoro in Summit camp, was in the city buying supplies last week. He reports that the bunk houses are completed. Several men have arrived from Rossland to continue work on the property. A slight error was made in the holiday number of THE TIMES in connection with this property. It was stated that the Oro Denoro had been bonded by the King Mining company. This company owns the property. Mr. H. Luekman, the well-known mining man, recently experted the Oro Denoro and his report is extremely flattering.

MINING SHARES.

Thanks to the confidence which those who control Boundary Creek joint stock companies have in their properties, it is difficult to secure shares in many local companies. During the last few weeks many inquiries were made for Winnipeg, but there is practically none on the market. There was quite a flurry in Boundary Creek Mining and Milling company's stock and several thousand shares changed hands at ten cents. A few weeks ago it could not be sold for two cents. The sudden rise is due to the fact that new men have taken hold of the company and are doing good work on the properties. Old Ironsides and Knob Hill are still favorite buys in eastern cities. The Morrison stock is also sought after. The shares of the King company, owning the Oro Denoro in Summit camp, are selling rapidly. Many brokers are opening offices here and by spring it is expected that there will be as much excitement in the buying and selling of mining stocks as was connected with the Rossland boom two years ago. Several new companies are being organized.

COMPETITIVE FREIGHT RATES.

Mr. C. G. Dixon, generai freight and passenger agent of the Spokane Falls and Northern railway, takes exception to certain criticisms appearing in the Cascade Record concerning shipments via the Great Northern and his line. He has written a letter to the Record, in which he claims that the quickest route for coast goods is by the Great Northern and his line. He makes comparisons as follows:

"Taking shipments into Cascade City via Bosburg, with its wagon haul of less than thirty-five miles, and compering this route with that via Penticton, with transfer at Okanagan Landing from rail line to steamer and again at Pentiction for a wagon haul of 120 miles, with transfers by teams and the uncertainty of weather conditions, I would consider comparisons to be in our favor.

"Again, considering the Brooklyn route as a possible one, I presume every one is familiar with the present method of handling business via Revelstoke and Arrowhead. The Canadian Pacific boats have been withdrawn from service below Nakusp, therefare shipments are routed from Revelstoke in the following manner:

"From Arrowhead via boat to Nakusp, from Nakusp to Roseberry via rail, from Roseberry to Slocan City by boat, from Slocan City to Robson by rail, and transferred at the latter point to boat again for Brooklyn, thence via wagon road to Cascade City.

"Allow me to repeat a portion of the article reserred to: 'You can fool part of the people all the time and all the people part of the time, but you cannot fool all the people all the time.'

"How long will Boundary Creek merchants consent to act as catspaws to pull Canadian Pacific chestnuts out of the furnace of troubles outlined above?"

REDUCTIO AD ABSURDUM.

The resigning craze at Victoria is is bringing the legislature into contempt and disrepute. It is anything but creditable that members elected to seriously consider problems of vital importance. should spend their time in making the Independence of Parliament act a farce. A late dispatch says that Hon. J. H. Turner, leader of the opposition has declined to take his seat until he can find out from his branch store in Nelson whether, by any chance, a clerk there sold a few goods to a government road party. Colonel Baker, of East Kootenay, stated from his place in the house to-day that possibly his agents at Cranbrook may have sold a cow, a horse or a feed of hay to a government official, and therefore he would not sit pending inquiries. Hon. J. F. Hume, minister of mines, is in the same box as regards his store at Nelson, and apparently there are more to follow.

GOVERNMENT AGENT.

The unjust redistribution bill by which Boundary Creek district was made a portion of the Rossland constituency is responsible for an anomalous state of affairs, which works a great hardship to this section of the country. The Boundary Creek district is supposed to be a portion of the Rossland constituency, but so far as the expenditure of money is concerned it is still under the control of the government agent at Vernon. We have not one word to say against Mr. Leonard Norris, the government agent. He is, however, a public servant, and while he is anxious to do justice to Boundary Creek dirtrict, his hands are tied by the stronger influences in the vicinity of Vernon. The district lying south of Penticton will not receive proper consideration until it has representation and officers of its own. Until such representation is granted, a government agent for this district ought to be appointed and money appropriated to meet the special public requirements of our important mining district. It is unfair to Boundary Creek to ask it to depend on a government agent residing in a different constituency for its share of appropriations. A still greater hardship would be inflicted on the district by placing it under the control of the government agent at Rossland. Rossland and Boundary Creek are separated by two or three precipitous ranges of mountains and it would almost be impossible for a government agent at Rossland to keep in touch with the requirements of Boundary Creek, even if he were anxious to do so.

BUILDING OPERATIONS.

J. O'Brien is erecting a three-story building on his lot between the International hotel and the Fashion livery stable. Several lodging houses are being built to meet the demand. J. B. Desrosier is erecting a large two-story building on Gold street for this purpose. An extension is being built to the Palace livery stable. Several small residences are under construction. During the warm weather good progress was made on the Naden-Flood block and Cameron's hotel.

CUSTOMS INSPECTOR.

Customs Inspector J. C. Clute is visiting the offices in the district. He was interviewed in Greenwood by a committee of the board of trade relative to the establishment of a customs office here. Mr. Clute is favorably impressed with the importance of having an office in the commercial metropolis of the district.

Sidney M. Johnson, P. L. S., will join the large number of Greenwoodites who are going east. He leaves on Sunday and expects to be away about four weeks.

Ralph Smailes of Rendell & Co., Geo, R. Naden of the Bealey Investment Co., and D. C. McRae of Smith & McRae, leave for Rosslad to-day or to-morrow..

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

Mayor Hardy, Police Magistrate Hallett and Alderman Naden met as the board of police commissioners on Tuesday afternoon and appointed John McLaren chief at a salary of $100 per month. The meeting was a rather lengthy one and there was considerable unanimity of opinion among the commissioners respecting important questions connected with police matters. All commissioners were of the opinion that a good man should have the appointment, and a good salary ought to be paid. Mayor Hardy's only objection to Mr. McLaren was that he was an outside man.

Ald. Naden—You sent out for a bookkeeper, Mr. Mayor.

The Mayor—I couldn't get a suitable man here.

Ald. Naden—Exactly. Will you tell us of a good local man that would make a good chief?

Mr. McLaren's qualifications for the position were briefly told by the police magistrate. Mr. McLaren had been chief of police at Vancouver for six years and was the best chief Vancouver ever had. He has had the best of police training and is, in Mr. Hallett's opinion, the best officer in British Columbia. He was only afraid that the city could not keep him, but if Mr. McLaren was chief for two months only he would get things on a proper basis and materially help the commissioners in their work.

The appointment was made and then the question of night watchman came up and provoked a lengthy discussion. Mayor Hardy wanted A. H. Lawder appointed to the position. Police Magistrate Hallett wanted to place the responsibility with the chief and thought he should be consulted regarding the selection of his officers. He suggested that Mr. Lawder be kept on temporarily as at present. If, at the end of the month, the chief was satisfied with Mr. Lawder, the board could then make the appointment permanent.

Police Magistrate Hallett's suggestion was adopted and the salary for night watchman fixed at $75 per month. The board then had a conference with the chief and adjourned until January 31st.

Dr. R. W. Jakes returned from Grand Forks on Friday last. He used every effort to save the life of Chas. Van Ness, but pneumonia had too strong a grip before the doctor was called in. The remains were taken east for interment.

GOOD WORDS FOR B. C.

The London, England, Bullionist last month published a very appreciative criticism of the new provincial government in British Columbia. The article declares that the new government have undoubtedly got the confidence of the electorate as a whole and are gaining ground every day. When they entered into office they found things in a frightful state of confusion and a floating debt of something like a million dollars. The men now at the head of affairs, from a business point of view, are much more capable and energetic than the members of the old government. There is no doubt that a certain favored few will not have the same opportunities for enriching themselves at the expense of the public as has formerly been the case, but this will not be any loss to the province as a whole, or to bona fide business corporations operating therein.

NEW FREIGHT ROUTE.

H. E. McDonnell, C. P. R. freight agent, returned from Cascade this week, after making arrangements for freighting Boundary Creek goods from Brooklyn. Mr. McDonnell has placed six four-horse teams on the route. All freight over the C. P. R. from eastern points will be shipped to Brooklyn. The rate from Brooklyn will be one and a half cents, the same as from Penticton, Marcus or Bossburg. The freight teams will be kept on the Penticton route so that goods arriving there from the coast or elsewhere will be hauled to their destination. Mr. McDonnell returned to Nelson on Thursday.

Percy Godenrath, the traveling correspondent of the Spokesman-Review, is in the district again. He went to Camp McKinney on Wednesday.

Greenwood Brickyard.

H. H. Brotten & Co., have established an important industry in Greenwood in the shape of a well-equipped brickyard. During the last year contractors and builders had the greatest difficulty in securing brick for chimneys, and a brick building was an impossibility. In the future it is quite possible to erect buildings with home-made brick. Brotten & Co's yard is at the upper end of the townsite, where excellent clay can be secured. Already 50,000 brick have been made, and in about ten days a kiln of 80,000 will be burned. Mr. Brotten is an experienced brickmaker. It is the intention of the firm to be shortly in a position to supply orders for any quantity.

Not a Low-Grade Camp.

For many years, when the mining men of this section were attempting to attract the attention of capitalists to this district, they would invariably meet with the answer "your ores are low-grade." The work done within the past year on the best known properties in this district has shown that such is not the case. The ores of Boundary Creek were not understood until recently; also it may be safely said that the permanency of the ore bodies was not established until within the last year. Recent purchases by capitalists employing the best expert talent have amply justified the belief of the pioneer mining men of Boundary Creek that there would be a large percentage of profit in handling the ores of this camp.

The Atlantic Bond.

The Atlantic in Kimberley camp was bonded by Bruce White of the Slocan Star mine and Messrs. Wilson and Burns, of P. Burns & Co. The price is $20,000. Of this amount $500 was paid in cash and the balance will be paid during the year. The deal was arranged by E. A. Bielenberg. The new owners will begin working the property at once.

Not Correct.

The report from Grand Forks, dated December 10, to the Spokesman-Review, stating that a liquidator had been appointed to wind up the business of the B. C. Mercantile company of Cascade is without foundation. The manager of the company has gone to Spokane and will likely make matters interesting for the Review for publishing such unreliable news.
