THE MESSAGE TO LORD STRATHCONA

The following is a copy of a cablegram from Hon. Mr. Fielding to Lord Strathcona, the High Commissioner for Canada, London:

"It is evident that some British journalists and public men have received entirely erroneous impressions concerning the reciprocity agreement. Reciprocity trade relations with the United States has been the policy of all parties in Canada for generations. Many efforts have been made to secure a treaty, but without success. Sir John Macdonald's National Policy tariff, 1879, contains a standing offer of reciprocity with the States, covering a large portion of the products included in the present arrangement. The unwillingness of the Americans to make any reasonable arrangement led to much disappointment in Canada. Sir Wilfrid Laurier several years ago gave expression to this, and said Canada would not again take the initiative in negotiations. Now that the Americans have entirely changed their attitude, and have approached Canada with fair offers, our government takes the position that we should meet them fairly, and that in making such an arrangement as is now proposed we are realizing the desires of our people for half a century, and also that in promoting friendly relations with the neighboring republic we are doing the best possible service to the empire.

"Canada is seeking markets everywhere for her surplus products, subsidizing steamship lines and sending out commercial agents. Would it not be ridiculous in the pursuit of such a policy to refuse to avail herself of the markets of the great nation lying alongside? The expressed fear that it will seriously affect imports from Great Britain is groundless; the greater part of the agreement deals with natural products, which Great Britain does not send us. The range of manufactures affected is comparatively small, and in most cases the reductions are small. It appears to be assumed in some quarters that the tariff rates agreed upon are a discrimination in favor of the United States and against Great Britain. There is no foundation for this. In every case Great Britain will still have the same rate, or a lower one. Canada's right to deal with the British preference as she pleases remains untouched by the agreement. The adoption of the agreement will lead to some further revision of the Canadian tariff, in which the Canadian Parliament will be entirely free to fix the British preferential tariff at any rates that may be deemed proper. You are free to use this in any way you think best."

FREE ADMISSION RULES REVISED

In the senate at Ottawa Sir Richard Cartwright has introduced a bill to amend the Chinese immigration act. It gives the government power to make regulations further defining merchants, students and others entitled to free admission to Canad.

Merchants, tourists and others bearing certificates of identity will hereafter have to establish their status to the satisfaction of the controller at the port of entry. In all cases of those applying with certificates entitling them to free entry, the burden of proof as to identity is placed upon the Chinese.

There are some additions to the free list. Members of the diplomatic corps and council will be allowed to bring in their suites and servants without tax. Chinese born in Canada will be allowed to bring in their wives and minor children free. If over 21 years of age, the son of a Chinese merchant who has been doing business in Canada, and has died, will be allowed free entry for the purprse of carrying on the business previously carried on by his father. Chinese born in Canada may return free at any age. Heretofore this privilege was granted only to minors.

BATTLES ICY TRAILS TO SAVE HIS SISTER'S LIFE

Mail advices from Yukon tell of a terrible race for life to fetch a doctor. It was Dick Armstrong, a well known northern "mucker," who traveled for four days with the temperature between 60 and 70 degrees below zero to get a doctor for his sister, who was believed to be dying. He picked up relief dog trains wherever he could. When he arrived at Dawson his face was frozen in spots as white as marble and one of his kness had taken on the same stiff chill. Two dogs died during the journey. His sister recovered before his return. During the four days Armstrong covered 230 miles, mostly over broken trails.

Wedding Bells

The marriage of Mr. Herb Sawrey of Phoenix to Miss Florence Minnie Hart, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hart of this city, took place at the residence of the bride's parents on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Sissie Hart, who acted as bridesmaid, and Walter Williams was best man to the groom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Calvert of Crand Forks, who amid a profusion of ferns and flowers, that formed a bower overhead, pronounced the happy couple man and wife.

The bride was attired in a beautiful cream silk dress and wore upon her head a wreath of cream roses to match, while the groom was dressed in the usual conventional frock suit of black.

Supper was served to the guests present and the couple were the recipients of a number of beautiful and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Sawrey will make their home in Phoenix, for which place they left at 4 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Mr. Sawrey is an electrican and is known to be a very estimable young man, while Miss Hart is well known here as a very charming young lady. The Times extends congratulations. Those present were: Miss Emma Luskie, Wm. Jackson, of Phoenix, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. W. McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Lester McKenzie, Mr. Naukervis, Miss Evangeline Phillips, Stanley Hart.

WRENCHED HIS BACK.

Sid Oliver Goes Gunning and Meets With an Accident.

Sid Oliver has a lame back. He has been hobbling around for the past week resembling a man of the hunchback order. Now, Sid's ailment is not caused from an over-indulgence in hard labor, for everyone who knows Sid will readily admit that he is long on executive ability and superintending the other fellow.

The trouble with Mr. Oliver's back was caused by a coyote. Sid being the game warden of this neck'o-the-woods thought he had a perfect right to take a long distance shot at the mongrel, which he proceeded to do, wounding the animal which made a speedy get-a-way to some rocks up Boundary creek. Not to be out-done by a coyote, the Game Warden followed, and in his efforts to rid the country of the pest—and incidentally to collect the bounty—he fell from a cliff, wrenching his back. Mr. Oliver, however, will soon be on the job again with his spinal column in perfect shape to meet all comers in his line of business.

Kettle Valley Railway.

The Kettle Valley Railway Co. has arranged for the purchase of some 50 acres of meadow land in the southwest portion of Penticton and near the Okanagan river divisional yard and station. It is understood there will be built there a spur line constructed from the yards to the lake where the new yards will be built a distance of about a mile. The site secured by the railway for its yards is about the best that could be procured in Pentincton. With a minimum of labor the land acquired can be made as level as a billiard table.

The president of the Kettle Valley railroad has under construction a large residence in Pentictou and expects to spend a considerable part of his time there.

Tennis Dance.

The Lawn Tennis club gave their annual winter dance on last Friday evening. There was about forty couples present, and a very enjoyable time was had by those attending. Refreshments were served by the ladies in the hall. Great credit is due the committee for the success of the evening which was composed as follows: R. G. Hargraves, J. T. Beattie, C. C. Purdy, F. H. Meyers, Mrs. McAllister, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. McLaine.

Another Boxer Rising.

Probability of another Boxer uprising in China to add to the horrors of the plague and famine is reported in London in dispatches to the Pall Mall Gazette. The Gazette correspondent cables that Buddhist priests throughout all stricken districts are taking advantage of the situation to preach an uprising. They blame the "foreign devils" for the plague, and are urging a war of extermination.

The Ault & Wiborg Co., of Toronto, are now manufacturing a calendar which is equal in every particular to those produced in the United States. The entire work is the production of skilled Canadian mechanics, and those of our business men who present a calendar each year to their customers will do well to correspond with this firm and get samples and prices.

HEEDING THE CHAFF.

The haste with which Canadian railways follow the example of the United States companies in evolving a new scale of charges for berths in sleeping cars is conclusive proof of the community of interests which exists between these combinations of capital on both sides of the line. The Railway Commission hastened also to approve of the new schedule, probably because the public as a whole was not deeply interested. Only a small proportion of the population cares about the prices of sleeping accommodations on a train. But everyone is affected by the freight tolls. The cost of living for the whole population is intimately associated with the subject of freight charges. The Railway Commission has been giving learned consideration to the chaff and allowing the kernels to be neglected.

IMMIGRATION.

The outlook for immigration to Canada from Great Britain was never more promising. Inquiries at the office of the superintendent of immigration at Ottawa from London and all parts of the British possessions are much greater than ever before at this season of the year. Booking agents also report that inquiries at their offices are exceedingly heavy. In some cases steerage accommodations on steamers are sold out until May. Scotland cabin bookings are also heavy. There seems to be a great interest among all classes in everything pertaining to Canada. Hundreds of lectures have been delivered by officers of the immigration department and the halls have always been filled to capacity. There seems to be more interest in Canada across the water than ever before.

HARD TO SATISFY.

There are indications that the people of Canada are being nauseated by the constant roars of protest from farmers' organizations. When it is remembered that agricultural classes as a whole have been the beneficiaries of more coddling and pampering and babying and general paternal attention than all the rest of the population combined, it might be reasonable to suppose that they would give as well as take. But they are determined to grab all the time. Can they not be induced to believe that other elements in the community have some license to live and do business?

The hotel keeper is entitled to every protection that his license gives him. He pays a large sum yearly for the privilege of quenching the thirsts of the multitude, and he should be surrounded by such protection that will keep others from encroaching upon his right who pay nothing for the privilege of doing so.

A farm near Pincher Creek, Alberta, cultivates a 1000 acres of land, sowing it to wheat. The herd of milch cows on the estate consists of one animal, and she furnishes so little milk that the family buys its butter at the grocery store in town. That is modern farming with a vengence, but it meets with the approval of the grain growers. There is no place for butter, or milk or eggs, or poultry, in the schemes of the Manitoba soil destroyers.

Selling liquor without a license is a crime in British Columbia, and yet it is practiced in Greenwood just across the bridge of sighs.

The civilized world stands aghast at the terrible conditions of plague and famine in Manchuri. But it is not time for empty sympathy; it is a time for action. It is the plain duty of every country of the globe to cooperate in sending relief to the unfortunate Chinese.

There is probably less known violations of the law in Greenwood than any other town in the country. But there seems to be a class of lawbreakers here whose violations go unnoticed. Where does the fault lie that they go unpunished.

In 1910 there were 57 lynchings in the United States as compared with 190 in 1894 and all but five of the total for last year were negroes. Apparently the method of mob violence is becoming a less popular method of enforcing so-called justice and it is not going out of fashion any too soon.

It is now asserted that wrecker Travers, of Farmers' Bank notoriety, was insane. It may not be true, but it is not likely that it will make much difference. Kingston penitentiary is a good place for him in any event. The pity is up to the present he is the only one among the group of get-rich-quicksters who has come in for punishment.

Lent 1911.

My Dear Friends:

On March 1st we shall have a distinct call from God to set apart six weeks for extra devotions and true turning to Him. I wonder whether we shall hear and heed the call, or whether we shall drift on in our life as if no call had come. Anyway the call is to us, and we cannot be as though the call had not been given. Year by year the church on God's behalf invites you to our Lent, and happy those who turn it into proper use. The season grows more solemn as it progresses, and ends with the commemoration of Christ crucified, and we seem to hear Him say, "Is it nothing to you all ye that pass by?"

There will be two short extra services during the weeks—one on Tuesdays at the hall, Wood's block, at 5 p. m. and the other at St. Jude's church on Thursdays at 8 p. m. But I would like to give you all a special invitation to our evensong at St. Jude's on Sundays at 7:30 p. m, beginning March 5th, when I propose to give a special course of sermons on the Service of the Holy Communion—the principal service of our church—illustrated with pictures. These pictures are not magic lantern pictures, but painted especially for this course in Sepia, explanatory of the different parts of our service. It is hoped that none of these addresses will be missed for two reasons. First, because the thread of them would be broken and interest marred, and second, because it is an opportunity of a life time, for I don't suppose they will ever be repeated in Greenwood.

M. F. HILTON, Vicar.

Supreme Hours.

You will find, as you look back upon your life, that the moments that stand out—the moments when you have really lived—are the moments when you have done things in a spirit of love. As memory scans the past, above and beyond all the transitory pleasures of life there leap forward those supreme hours when you have been enabled to do unnoticed kindnesses to those around about you, things too trifling to speak about, but which you feel have entered into your eternal life.

Burrell on Reciprocity

This is how Martin Burrel', M. P., regards the reciprocity bargain:

"The abolition of the duties on fruit comes as unexpected, disastrous and unjustifiable blow to the fruit industry of British Columbia in particular, and indeed to Ontario as well. In British Columbia their has been tremendous investment in fruit lands. The whole industry is in the construction stage and is being developed under expensive and somewhat difficult conditions. Our great natural market on the Canadian prairies is being rapidly exploited by Washington and Oregon in spite of the existing tariff. The whipping out of the tariff means fiercer competition in the Canadian market with absolutely no equivalent, as the great fruit states south of the line supply every market within their own borders and are heavy exporters. The government is absolutely unjustified by facts in proposing the free entry of United States fruits."

Interest in the Farmer.

Grocers cannot expect the farmers to deal with them and support them if they take no interest whatever in their affairs. Merchants should interest themselves in good roads, securing farm help, advising farmers how to prepare their products to meet the market requirements, etc., and if they do this, which is nothing more than their duty, and to their own advantage they will do more to check the enormous drain in the country through the mail order houses than by anything else.

This seems to be the only natural way to cope with the question. It would lift the trade to a higher level, and it would interest all to boost the town and its neighborhood, and make each feel that he is an important cog in the machinery wheel and part and parcel of the entire social fabric.

B. C. Estimates For 1911

For public works of various descriptions, Cranbrook district receives $100,000, Fernie $117,500, Kaslo $75,200, Grand Forks $55,000, Greenwood $50,000, Slocan $75,000, and Ymir $102,000.

Hospital, educational and kindred votes in general show slight increases throughout the province.

To Phoenix city $1000, and to Rossland (special grant) $6000, Nelson magistrate $500, Nelson jail $5,700.

How to Cure Chronic Colds and Bronchitis

Bluevale, Ont., May 4, 1910.
"I was sick for two years with a chronic cold and bronchitis and a consequent run-down condition. I received no benefit from doctors, and had to give up work. VINOL was recommended and from the second bottle I commenced to improve—I gained in weight and strength, my cold and bronchial trouble disappeared, and I am at work again. I want to recommend VINOL to anyone who is in need of such a medicine."—THOMAS HIGGINS.

It is the combined action of the curative elements of the cods' livers aided by the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron contained in VINOL which makes it so successful in curing stubborn colds and bronchitis.

VINOL is a constitutional remedy for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and pulmonary troubles, not a palliative like cough syrups.

Try a bottle of VINOL. If you don't think it helped you, we will return your money.

The Marrying Mania

A handsome woman who had been so unfortunate as to find occasion to divorce not one, but several husbands, was returning from Nevada. In Chicago she happened to meet her first husband, for whom, by the way, she has always entertained a real affection. "Upon my soul, if it isn't Charlie!" Then after a wistful expression of regret had come to and been banished from her countenance, she added: "Old chap, I've often wondered where you were and what you were doing. It was too bad we didn't get on better together. I hope your experience hasn't been as unpleasant as mine. I'm just sick of marrying strangers!"

Woman's Power Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the whole world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R.V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N.Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

If a person called and wanted a 50-cent room, paying for it in advance, the man in charge showed him to a room, where the guest found a 50-cent bottle of whisky wrapped in a towel. The guest took the bottle and departed, the witness said. Very few rooms were entered for any other use, it developed in the testimony. It was withdrawn at the last moment by request of the estate. The 125-page manuscript of "A Double Barrelled Detective Story," was sold to a dealer for $790. The Damper Lever of a
MAGNET

is where it ought to be—at the front, readily reached without groping in the dark or taking unnecessary steps. A turn of the lever instantly changes the draft so the fire is quickened or checked, at will. Turned on, McClary's Magnet Wood Furnace produces the strongest heat in a few minutes; and the nickelled steel tubes radiate this heat for hours after the draft is shut off. Because of this stored heat McClary's Magnet Wood Furnace is economical and a continuous roaring fire is unnecessary. The heat that goes up the smoke pipe of ordinary wood furnaces, goes into the register pipes of the Magnet. Like the position of the damper, the Magnet Wood Furnace is right all through. Right in principle, right in construction; right in materials. See the Magnet at the McClary agent's in the nearest town. Write to nearest McClary branch for booklet, giving a detailed description. MINES AND MINING

The Phoenix Amalgamated mine, which is being operated by the Canadian Consolidated Mining and Smelting company, made its first shipment of ore last week for two years to the Trail smelter. The shipment amounted to 4000 tons of gold-copper ore. Arrangements have been under way for some time to place this mine on a shipping basis, and a tramway has been placed in working order. Other necessary improvements will be made in the near future.

Another property making its first shipment for some years was the Sweet Grass in the Slocan. This mine is under operation by J. C. Moon and associates and was recently the scene of a strike of high grade silver ore.

W. E. Zwickey, manager of the Rambler-Cariboo mine, reports that a strike of six feet of steel galena, running 170 ounces of silver to the ton has been made on that property. The new discovery is at the 1000 foot level and is regarded as proof that the veins on this property continue to depth with their values increased rather than impaired.

The coppers have started, and sharp advances are beginning to be recorded. As yet the buying is not very eggressive, but there are very few stocks being offered at current prices. Holders of coppers will make a mistake to sell at these prices. There has been a long drawn out period of liquidation, and notwithstanding the prospect of an increase of production this year, the metal is almost sure to sell higher within a few months.

Straws show which way the wind blows. It is a fact that four months ago the Vancouver business offices which displayed ore exhibits in their windows could be counted on the fingers of one hand, while today nearly every second window in the business district has samples of ore displayed among the advertising cards of "snaps" in real estate.

The British Columbia Copper company held its annual meeting last Tuesday at Charlestown, W. Va. The books closed Feb. 3 and were opened the day after the meeting. The company's annual report for the fiscal year which ended Nov. 30 showed cash on hand to the amount of something like $256,000.

He states he will probably come personally to look over the field during the year.

HELEN KELLER
The World's Most Remarkable College Graduate

The story of Helen Keller's life is the biography of two wonderful women—the blind, deaf and dumb girl, who for over twenty years has fought against awful odds; and the kind, ingenious and patient teacher who has led her charge into the sunlight of knowledge and of kinship with humanity.

In 1886, when Miss Annie Sullivan was called to Tuscumbia, Ala., to assume the care of Helen, the child had been living for nearly five years in the mental darkness that followed her treble affliction resulting from convulsions. The task of education seemed well-nigh hopeless, for the one sense through which the child's mind was to be awakened to consciousness was her sense of touch. But in June, 1904, eighteen years later, Miss Keller graduated from Radcliffe with distinction, and received her degree of B. A.

This fairy tale of education, this romance of the conquest of obstacles, is a superb triumph of concentration. At her entrance examination in June, 1900, as if Nature had not sufficiently handicapped her efforts, she had to submit to two additional trials. The questions were given her in the American Braille system of writing for the blind, with which Miss Keller was only slightly familiar, having learned the English Braille—the two systems being as different as two distinct systems of shorthand. This delay in puzzling out the translation of the questions was further aggravated by the fact that her little Swiss watch with raised figures had unfortunately been left at home, so she had no means of gauging the time, yet her typewriter clicked out the answers and she "passed" with flying colors in every study.

During her college course, in many studies Miss Sullivan repeated the lesson while Helen's fragile fingers feathering their way over her mentor's face, translated the muscular motions of speech into ideas. She studied English, Latin, French, Greek, German, political economy, logic, higher mathematics, chemistry and all the other myriad phases of college wisdom, through her wonderful fingers.

She uses the typewriter in five languages, has learned to speak with clear articulation, can swim, row, play cards, chess and basketball; dance, and perform a hundred other seemingly impossible tasks. Her memory is many fold, her temperament sunshiny and happy; her mind is wonderfully broad, subtle and flexible, and her book, "The Story of My Life," being great as a biography, is the most fascinating study of the problem in psychology as a revelation of the human mind and personalities.

Piping Hot Water Always Ready for every occasion, with the Kootenay Steel Range, without "driving" the fire or wasting fuel. The generous firebox is built so that the water heats very rapidly as it passes through the water front, and gives a plentiful supply. One bath usually empties the boiler heated by an ordinary range with the result that the rest of the family must wait for more water to heat. Not so with the boiler attached to the water front of a

KOOTENAY Steel Range

because the Kootenay never fails to heat as much water as is required and as fast as it is used. The nearest McClary Agent will make clear to you the reasons why you ought to own a Kootenay. 56

Wolves Infest Island

The rapid increase of timber wolves towards the north end of Vancouver Island, and the serious inroads these animals are making among the deer and smaller game has resulted in the despatch by Game Warden Bryan Williams of two experienced hunters and trappers to investigate conditions and adopt the best means presenting themselves in dealing with this pest, by which even the Wapiti herds are now threatened. The increase in the bounty to $15 has not been sufficient to induce the inaugurating of any vigorous or systematic campaign against the wolves, and they now overrun the island mountain districts.

Farewell Concert

The Cornish singers gave their farewell concert for the reason at the Norden hotel Monday night and departed for Phoenix Tuesday morning where they are employed in the mines at that place.

This organization is composed wholly of miners, and their reputation as songsters is well known in this vicinity. Among them there are a number of voices that are musical to a degree, and would put to shame many alleged professional singers. Their renditions Monday night was highly enjoyed by those who were fortunate enough to be present. During the summer months they will practice, and expect to add some more good voices to the chorus, and will be prepared to give the lovers of that which "soothes the savage breast," a grand musical festival next winter.

BURN CAUSED OPEN SORE

Zam-Buk Worked a Wonderful Cure

Some times a bad burn, a deep cut, or some similar injury, sets up a more permanent injury, in the form of an open discharging sore. In such cases Zam-Buk will be found of unequalled value.

Mr. J. Nixon, of 901 William Ave., Winnipeg, a blacksmith at the C. P. R. shops, had his foot badly burned by some molten metal falling upon it. He says: "The burn was a very bad one, and after the first few days it left an open sore, which showed marked signs of blood-poisoning. It discharged freely and caused me terrible agony. For three weeks I suffered acutely and could get no ease At last I obtained a preparation from the doctor, which seemed to stop the discharging and made me quite hopeful, but finally the wound became as bad as ever.

"I was then advised to use Zam-Buk, and from the first application the balm gave me relief. The inflammaiton was thoroughly checked, and the poisonous matter cleared away in a very short time after beginning with Zam-Buk. Healing then began, and in less than two weeks the wound was thoroughly healed."

One of the main lessons of this case lies right here—try Zam-Buk first for any injury, sore, skin disease or wound. It is equally good for piles, blood poisoning, festering wounds, chaps, cold sores, children's eruptious, scalp sores, varicose ulcers, chilblains, etc. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price. You are warned against harmful substitutes and inferior preparations, which yield a bigger margin of profit and are sometimes pushed as being "just as good." Nothing is just as good.
