RESOLUTION CARRIES

At Last Saturday Evening's Meeting

OF THE MINERS' UNION

Calling On the British Columbia Government to Move in the Matter of Fuel

At the regular meeting of the Miner's Union on Saturday evening last a strong resolution was adopted bearing on the fuel situation and the government asked to intervene in the matter, out of justice to the working man, who after all is perhaps the most seriously pinched in the coke shortage. An address embodying the resolution has been forwarded to the local Premier. The following is the text of the address:—

Greenwood, B.C., Sept. 9, 1907

To The Right Honorable Richard McBride, Premier of British Columbia, Victoria, B.C.

Sir,—Whereas the enlargement of some of the smelters in this district has caused a proportionate increase in the amount of coke required, and

Whereas, the coal and coke companies have not met the increased demand, although their plants are extensive enough, as is shown by the fact that two hundred and forty ovens at Carbanado have not been in operation during the past year and a half, and

Whereas, taking the British Columbia Copper Company as an example, since it is largely within the jurisdiction of our local Union, the coke shortage at their smelter amounted to 2,750 tons during the month of August, causing the Company to lay off to an average of 100 men to the entire month, and entailing a loss of $10,800 in wages to the employees, and

Whereas, the shut down occasioned by the coke shortage are detrimental to the development and prosperity of the Province, as workingmen cannot afford to remain where they cannot secure steady employment, and married men are forced to abandon their homes to seek for work, or to burden themselves with debt, inorder to live,

Be it therefore, Resolved, that we the Members of "Greenwood Miners' Union, No. 22, W. F. M. are of the opinion that the Provincial Government, having large areas of coal lands in reserve, that it would be well for them to place these coal areas in such a state of development that they could control all such situations arising in the future, and exercise its right to investigate the cause of the coke shortage, and to take steps to insure a steady and sufficient supply of coke to all the Smelters in the Province, so that Canadian industries, and Canadian workingmen may not be hampered in developing the resources of the Province."

Committee,
R. A. Matheson.

GREENWOOD IN EVIDENCE.

A Greenwood man, according to the Empire, made the first mineral location at Prince Rupert. Here is the item, from the "Empire" of August 31st:

"William Hanna, a prospector from the Boundary country has the distinction of recording the first mineral claim at the mining recording office at Prince Rupert. His declaration was handed in on Wednesday, August 21st, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon. The claim he recorded is located on an island near Kennedy Island.

CHANGE IN TRAIN TIME.

Beginning with Sunday last a change in C. P. R. train time went into effect as below:—

Train No. 41 for Midway leaves Nelson at 9.45 instead of at 8.10 as before, and leaves Midway at 17. instead of at 15.00.

Train No. 42 leaves Midway at 14-50 instead of 15.10, will be allowed 35 minutes for transfere at Robson, and arrives at Nelson at 22.30 instead of at 22.05.

On the Phœnix branch the north-bound train leaves Phœnix at 14.40 instead of at 15.50 as before. The southbound train leaves Eholt at 16.00 instead of 14.05.

A consequent change was wrought in our local mail service.

ENLARGING THEIR QUARTERS.

Messrs Bubar & McKay find their present livery stable accomodations too narrow for an expanding trade, and are enlarging the same.

The have extended the ground floro back to the alley, and will excavate the basement up to the Copper Street line. This will give them stabling sufficient for 30 horses. A cement floor will be laid in the basement and cleanliness and drainage thus be secured.

FRUIT LANDS

They Are Going Fast

The Kettle Valley Irrigated Fruit Lands Company (Ltd.), is receiving many inquiries for the lands recently put upon the market. Already over 200 acres have gone in small holdings and other buyers are in sight. Many of the purchasers ask to have the land cleared and planted and in some cases taken care of, all of which the company is prepared to do.

The acreage set out last spring is doing wonderfully well although the planting seemed rather late. It is now quite evident that the company will achieve what it richly merits—success. We trust the present is but the beginning of their enterprise on the same line.

SUDDEN DEATH

The sudden death of Mr. E. A. Hain, postmaster at Midway, Wednesday evening last is sad news to a large circle of friends. From reports received it would appear that when in company with another gentleman, the deceased returned to the post office after dinner fire was discovered blazing within. The other party hastened to give the alarm and Mr. Hain went in to try and extinguish the flames. When help arrived a few minutes later they found the fire extinguished and Mr. Hain lying on the sidewalk in the throes of death. The event has cast a gloom over the community where the deceased has long lived and was universally respected. Mr. Hain was a prominent member of the Knights of Pythias, and a genial gentleman.

The funeral will take place on Sunday next at 11 o'clock at Midway under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias.

WORTHY OF THOUGHT.

Said Mr. Hamar Greenwood, a Canadian by birth, and member for York in the British House of Commons, at a Canadian Club luncheon in Vancouver recently:-

"Since the defeat of Russia the international danger zone has been shifted from northern India to the Pacific coast of North America.

THIS BANKER TALKS

Glowingly of British Columbia

AND ITS GREAT RESOURCES

But Does Not Shy at the Oriental Question as he Might if Here Permanently

Mr. Arthur M. Samuel, a prominent banker of London, Eng., who had been making a tour of the Dominion with a view to making investments, left today for home after a fortnight's stay in Britsh Columbia. He frankly admitted that the vast resources of the country proved a revelation and that his preconceived opinions formed in England had undergone remarkable transformation. Agreeing with many recent visitors, Mr. Samuel regards cheap labor—oriental labor—as the salvation of this province. In this view he occupies a different standpoint from that taken by organized labor.

"All the glowing accounts I have been reading about the prosperity of Canada are not exaggerated," said Mr. Samuel to a province reporter at the Hotel Vancouver yesterday. "I am most favorably impressed with the wonderful resources possessed by the various provinces, but especially that of British Columbia. My observations have already taught me the colossal ignorance I had hitherto entertained about this great country, and I flatter myself I was as well informed as the average Englishman.

Know Little Of Canada.

"The quicker the moneyed classes at home are enlightened about the Dominion the better if capital is to flow over for investment. Of course, the educational work carried on by the Dominion Governmet is helpful but these efforts could easily be redoubled with immense profit to all concerned. The buildings about to be erected in the Strand will help the good cause along. The information which the Canadian officials over there disseminate should be of the most detailed character. England is a country where the leaven of education works slowly because even to-day despite your glorious aid in the South African war Canada is only a name to millions of our population.

"Cheap labor and cheap coal are the two factors which must be kept in view if British Columbia is to become the banner province of the Confederation. Look what the material resources of Britain have done in making her a world-wide power. They are one of the foundations of England's greatness. And future historians will draw the same parallel respecting British Columbia.

Orientals for Rough Work,

"My honest opinion is that organized white labor is very short-sighted in opposing the immigration of cheap labor. In a new country somebody must do the spade work and this especially applies here where there is admittedly insufficient white men for manual labor I really think that the white laborer is standing in his own light. Of course I do not favor making this a Chinese or Japanese province, but I firmly believe that the barriers should be so lowered as to permit of the unrestricted entry of enough Orientals to carry out the vast undertakings planned for this province. Such a policy will raise the status of the white labor without lowering wages. Sooner or later the Pacific coast will be the seat of great manufacturing industries. The conditions are so favorable that no other result could occur.

Rediscounts in Labor.

"Cheap labor is all the more essential here especially when you are face to face with a stringency in the money markets—a stringency felt in London and which will become more acute during the next three years. Canada has an excellent banking system. I was so favorably impressed with the earning powers of some of your banking institutions that I shall certainly buy shares in a number of them before returning to England."

During his stay here Mr. Samuel also made a careful study of the possibilities of the canning, lumber, coal and metalliferous mining industries. "London," said he in conclusion, "is and will continue to be, the financial center of the world. Are you aware that millions of dollars of Canadian commercial paper discounted by your own banks is shipped over by them annually and rediscounted by Lombard street bankers."—The Province.

TUG-OF-WAR

Sunday next at Phoenix a team from the Mother Lode will try conclusions with one from Grand Forks, at a tug-of-war for a purse of $450. Both teams are in fine condition and the friends of the Greenwood team feel confidence that their favorites will win. The victory will in no event be an easy one.

AT THE SUNSET

In Deadwood Camp.

The Anaconda News of the 11 inst. has the following very interesting story of the progress of events at the Dominion Copper Coy's property in Deadwood Camp—the Sunset.

Ever since 1901 this property has shipped a considerable amount of ore annually, the total shipments to date amounting to 102,534 tons. However, it is in the last two months that the Sunset has commenced to take a prominent place among the big producers of the Boundary, having been fifth on the low grade shipping list for several weeks. Shipments are now being made at the rate of 250 tons per day.

All of the ore being mined at present is coming from the large "glory hole" on top and small quarries in the sides of Sunset hill. The ore from the main quarry is trammed a short distance and dumped directly into the bin through an opening midway between the top and bottom of the structure. A 2,000 candle power electric arc light has been put up on the edge of the quarry, furnishing excellent light for the night shift

Work has been started on four new quarries at lower points than the original. Two of these form additional levels in the main opening, one being on the level of the railroad and one at a point intermediate between this and the floor of the main "glory hole." The third new quarry is on the south side of the big ore bin, and the fourth on the north side; both being on the level of the Canadian Pacific tracks. The ore from these lower quarries is trammed to a point near the ore bunkers, where it is loaded into a skip and hoisted to the top of the bin, being thence distributed to any desired point through a series of chutes. A 50 h. p. electric hoist has been installed above the ore bin for this purpose.

Ore Beneath Waste Dump

A considerable body of good ore has been discovered beneath the waste dump from the old shaft, and preparations are being to mine the same. A tunnel has been started from the foot of the hill, from which a raise will be made some 60 ft to the surface. This will form a chute which will greatly faciliate the work of removing the immense quantity of waste covering the ore. As soon as a sufficient portion of the old dump is removed, a quarry will be started from a point near the ore bin.

An 18 drill electric compressor was installed in June, and has been running some two months. The machine works very smoothly and is giving the best of satisfacton. Three 2 man and and two Murphy drills are being used to break down the present output.

THE CRESCENT.

The steam drill compressor for the Crescent arrived at Phoenix Saturday last and is being put in position this week. In about two weeks the machinery will be ready for operation when the working force will be increased.

LONDON AND OTTAWA

Are Interested in the Outcome

THE VANCOUVER RIOT.

Of Last Saturday Evening When the Whites Mixed up With the Colored Races.

From all reports Vancouver stirred up trouble last Saturday evening, the echoes of which are being heard in Ottawa, London, and even the Orient.

The influx of Asiatics into British Columbia of late has reached alarming proportions and white labor evidently decided that it was up to it to call attention to the situation in a significant way. Instigated doubtless by the success which attended the recent "drive" of Hindus in Bellingham, a mob of white men raided the Chinese and Japanese quarters last Saturday evening and although no very serious damage was done the breaking of windows and a few injuries to both whites and foreigners has brought to civic and federal governments the fact that something must be done to relieve conditions.

The Chinese and Japs fearing a repetition of the attack have apparently armed themselves to resist any further attempts on their persons and property and only a careful police patrol and strong public opinion will be able to prevent later and more serious trouble. Messrs. McPherson and Galliher, of the Commons, have hurried to Ottawa to make representations to the Government. Should another shipload of brownies arrive meantime it is feared that the indignation of the whites could not be restrained.

Some arrests have followed the demonstration of Saturday and Sunday, many of them being Orientals charged with carrying concealed weapons.

The embarrassment of the situation is chiefly in the relations that exist between Japan and England and incidentally Canada and what the final outcome will be is doubtful. These relations grow out of existing treaties in reference to which, Hon. R. W. Scott, Secretary of state, in a recent interview said :—

'The treaty between Canada and Japan ratified by the Canadian parliament at its last session was perfectly clear as to the rights of the Japanese in Canada.

The treaty says: "The subjects of each of the high contracting parties shall have full liberty to enter, travel or reside in any part of the dominion and possessions of the contracting parties, and shall have full protection for their persons and property."

"The treaty was not adopted in a hurry," said Mr. Scott. "It was in force between Britain and Japan three years before we became a party to it. It was given full consideration before we adopted it. The opposition in parliament blamed us because we did not become a party to it earlier than we did. There was no protest from British Columbia or anywhere else against Canada passing the treaty.

"British Columbia benefits now and will benefit still further as time goes on by the trade between Canada and Japan. But at all events Canada ratified the treaty."

Although it is to be sincerely hoped that this affair may arranged without endangering national relations, it is equally important that British Columbia be saved to the white man, whose rights are paramount.

UNJUST ASPERSION

The declamation of Ida Creech-Hazlett on the street Friday evening last suggests that there ought to be a limit within which such speakers should be confined. This is entirely outside the subject matter of discussion. One person has the same right to believe in Socialism as another has to reject it. Neither has the right to find fault with the other. But when the discussion of any subject involves matters personal then a limit should be set—a limit both moral and legal. The speaker should set the higher limit of the two, that moral, by his own sense of justice and a decent regard for another's rights and privileges. There are great truths doubtless involved in socialism but intemperance of attack always obscures, and not emphasizes an issue.

We submit that the report of Mrs. Creech-Hazlett's discourse, if true, does injustice to herself, her cause and to those who may be unfortunate enough to be called on to locally represent capital.

Incendiarism of the Creech-Hazlett type can be productive of no good, simply pernicious to public welfare.

Time was, when "fair-play" was a British boast, but that sense must now be dead, or the rank and file of local socialism be largely un-British, if some of the utterances of this one of earth's greatest abominations—a woman demagogue—were not not at least secretly condemned. In fact, if applause be the measure of an audience's acceptance of a speaker's utterances, then its faintness on the occasion betrays the disapproval of many who heard it.

But these demonstrations against men, and not for belief, are the things that instead of hurrying the day when labor and capital shall become righteously related, will hurry the day when capital will become cruel enough to employ men of less intelligence but of a more respectful attitude.

False invective and unjust criticism never yet won a cause, but it has doomed many a worthy one to long delay and even death.

THE TIMBER QUESTION

A question vital to the interest of mineral claim holders within the Canadian Pacific land grant appears to be looming up on the horizon. It appears that the Canadian Pacific if not selling, claims the right to sell the timber on these claims without regard to the interests of those holding the claims. Although the Government does not convey to the owner of a mineral claim the right to the timber it does give him permission to use such timber on the claim as may be needed for mining purposes, and it has hitherto given him the right to first purchase of the surface ground. Of course the railway land grant has taken away the latter prerogative for such claims as are within its belt, but some provision should have been made, if it were not, for the conservation of the timber for mining purposes. If the new departure is to stand good, mining men will presently find that when the time arrives when they will need the timber to carry on mining operations their claims will be stripped of timber and their property littered with tree tops and branches that will be a menace to them unless they go to the expense of clearing the ground. Even if the conveyance of the land to the railway carry with it the timber, it ought to be the case that the mineral owner should have a prior right to purchase the timber that may be on his claim.

The struggle between men and corporations appears to be daily widening and the rights of the individual are being steadily narrowed.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Vesuvius has been a trifle lazy of late but is again busy, and her ash man has been getting in his work.

The price of coal is going up in the east. The coal barons must have heard that somebody was getting higher wages.

Judge McEwen of Chicago must be taking his vacation. At a recent sitting of his court it took him twenty minutes to grant twenty divorces.

Argentine appears to be getting ready for another turn of the revolutionary wheel. The Peace conference is in session and South America is uneasy.

Bellingham has taken a radical way of killing competition to white labor. The mob drove the Hindus back across the line. Years ago Tacoma took similiar action against the yellow peril.

King Edward wouldn't countenance the vileness of one of the songs of a Marienbad theatre and so withdrew. Such a protest will do more to purify the stage than many sermons and much printer's ink.

The protests that the Kootenay and Boundary have been making against the export of coke are not supposed to include that shipped to Northport, whose smelting plant is essentially a Canadian industry although building up an American town.

Because he remonstrated with them for playing poker the companions of a Pennsylvania miner filled his eyes, nose and mouth with turpentine. Crazed with their playful treatment the victim took to the woods and the perpetrators of the inhuman act went into hiding.

That flyer in stocks which Rev. Jno. H. Morris, of Pittsburg, took cost his congregation $300,000. He traversed the road from mining and milling to coal and clay, from that to fire-brick and thence to silver. But the companies were all failures. A church basement evidently does not make good offices for such promotions.

DOCTORS IN TURN FAILED BUT ZAM-BUK CURED.

Magistrate F. Rasmussen, writing from his residence, 211 Marquette St., Montreal, says: "I take genuine pleasure in informing you of the great good I have derived from Zam-Buk. For many years I was troubled with a serious eruption of the skin, which was both unsightly and painful. Not one, but several doctors in turn were consulted, but I was unable to get any permanent relief. Some time back I noticed a report from a Justice of the Peace who had been cured of a chronic skin disease by Zam-Buk, and I determined to give this balm a trial. After a thoroughly fair test, I can say I am delighted with it. While everything else I tried—salves, embrocations, washes, soaps and doctors' prescriptions—failed absolutely to relieve my pain, three boxes of Zam-Buk have worked a complete cure. In my opinion this balm should be even more widely known than it is, and in the hope that my experience will lead other sufferers to try this herbal healer, I have no objection to you publishing this letter. Yours truly, (Signed) F. RASMUSSEN, Justice of the Peace.

Summer eczema, rashes, sunburn patches, children's heat sores or babies' chafing sores, cuts, burns, bruises, insect bites and stings and other injuries and diseases yield to Zam-Buk. MADE MEN'S FASHIONS UNIFORM.

One Other Achievement of an International Tailoring System.

In days gone by the man who went from Canada to New York found that his clothes were "passe"—were not in good style on Fifth Avenue. The man who traveled from the west to Montreal also felt distinctly "outre" in matters of dress.

The establishment of Semi-ready Wardrobes in all the chief towns and cities of Canada has made mens fashions uniform throughout Canada. The frequent visits of the Semi ready chief designer to New York has also conquered the first-mentioned disadvantage for the traveller. When about to travel one can visit the Semi-ready Wardrobe and have a suit delivered finished in two hours. It is in correct style wherever he may go.

P. W. George & Co., will be pleased to show you how what "Semi-ready" tailoring profits the wearer.
