THE BRITISH COLUMBIA REPRESENTATIVES.

Judging from the specimens we have seen in Ottawa up to this time, British Columbia has sent a strong and able body of men to represent her in the Dominion Parliament. To say that they are intelligent, shrewd, thoughtful and gentlemanly men would be little. They are this and more. They have very strong, clear, and enlightened purposes, it is evident, which they are resolved to carry out. These are not selfish, narrow or sectional, but of broad views, and looking towards a great national policy, and the realization of the grand future of the Dominion. The interests of the Pacific province will, we should judge, be perfectly safe in their hands; but, whether it is that the vast distance they have had to travel to reach the capital has given them a better idea than most men of the vastness of this country, or their own intellectual development, they rise above the pettiness of mere provincialism and grasp most firmly the thought of a united nation Canada one, and her interests one, from ocean to ocean. The two Senators, Carroll and Macdonald, are magnificent specimens of men, physically as well as intellectually, and we shall be much surprised if they do not make their mark in the wider political arena they have entered. The Hon. Dr. Carroll we have known before, and to him more than to any other man perhaps in British Columbia is due the honour of raising in that Province the desire for Confederation, and of carrying it out to a successful issue with prudence and tact without difficulties of a political, financial or social kind arising. The incoming of British Columbia to the Dominion is a unique specimen of wise, patriotic, and far-seeing statesmanship. Mr DeGarmo has every appearance of high intellectual force and of great firmness of character, without any of that asperity of manner or unreasoning doggedness which causes those excellent qualities to become noxious. Mr Wallace has all the characteristics of a successful merchant, prudence united with liberality, and willingness to venture where reasonable chances of success have first been fully weighed. Mr Nathan backs also the business man. Gay in spirit and off-hand in manner, with a certain dash of the bean and financier in him, he evidently knows what he is about. Mr. Nelson has a pleasant carefulness, thoughtfulness and reserve about him which leads one to judge that he has had to use such qualities before and may require to do so again. They augur well for his success as a working member of the House of Commons. If these are representative men of the British Columbian people we cannot help entertaining a high and favorable opinion of our Pacific brethren. The selection of such men leaves no room to doubt that the time is not far distant when British Columbia will become as rich and powerful as her vast and varied resources entitle her to be. We are not in a position to judge whether the Pacific province has sent her best men here, but evidently she has sent good men and true; and this is a matter not always, nor as much as it ought, to have been considered by constituents. We should have in the Senate and Commons the best men who can be obtained.—[Ottawa Free Press.]

THE REGISTRATION OF VOTERS.

At the time when the Registration of Voters took place last year much inconvenience was created, and sorely was it felt by the electors of this district, in consequence of the absurd, vexatious and unreasonable provisions of the two Acts passed at the previous session of the Legislature—namely, "The Qualification and Registration of Voters Act, 1871," and "The Election Regulation Act, 1872," which had reference to this district and affected the convenience of the electors or the means of qualification of which they were possessed. It was found that these Acts were obscurely drawn, ambiguously worded, and worked most harshly upon this section of the province. The payment of registration fees by persons otherwise duly qualified was felt to be not only a nuisance, but an injustice, and had it not been for the accident of a number of printed forms of claims to vote having been sent up from Victoria to private parties here and applied to electors free of charge, and the knowledge of the necessity of electing representatives to the Legislature both able and willing to cause an amendment to be made to the law as it then stood on this and many other subjects, probably not more than one-half of those on the present register would have placed their names there. It was also felt that in a district like this, where most of the inhabitants quitted their living, made their fortunes or lost their money and health in the precautions and uncertain search for gold, where the urgent necessities of their occupation called them from one creek to the other, that the clause which compelled them to cast their votes where their qualification existed, and where their votes had been registered was a nuisance, "a delusion and a snare," and in too many cases operated as a virtual disqualification of the voter. The possession of a free miner's license, without having a claim actually recorded, was also felt to be a sufficient qualification, for it is a well known fact that a miner may be in possession of two or three claims on one day, and inside of the short space of a week be a gentleman at large, trudging about the mountains looking for a new location; and if this happens to occur about the time of registration, his right to vote is gone, and he who has taken out a mining license for the express purpose of coming within the letter of the law, and located a claim on the top of Mount Agnes or the bottom of Ground Hog Lake, where there is no fear of a jump for want of proper representations, will take his place, and encircled and fortified with all the "passion and circumstance" of being a registered voter, under these indisputable qualifications will walk up to the "Captain's Office" and record his vote with the utmost serenity. There is no use now, however, of carping and growling at the absurdities of this obscure and incomprehensible piece of legislation. Suffice it for us to know that the nuisance remains at any rate for this season unmitigated in consequence of the Act passed during last session having been referred to Lord Lindsay for his sanction. Why this Act, above all others so immediately necessary, should have been referred, or what there could have been in it to render such a step expedient, is more than even a lenient imagination can conceive. The old Act provides that every male of the age of 21 not otherwise disqualified, being a British subject, able to read English, or if a natural-born British subject the language of his country, having resided in the colony for six months prior to making his claim, "who shall have a freehold estate in possession, situate within the said district for which his vote is to be given, of the clear value of $250, above all charges and incumbrances affecting the same, or shall be a householder within such district, occupying any house, warehouse, counting-house, office, shop, or other building or premises, of the clear annual value of $40; or shall pay for lodgings the sum of $10 annually, or for board and lodging the sum of two hundred dollars annually, within such district as aforesaid; or who shall hold a duly recorded pre-emption claim to not less than one hundred acres within such district as aforesaid; or a free mining license upon which a claim has been duly recorded within such district as aforesaid, shall, being duly registered under the provisions of this Act, be entitled to vote at the election of a member or members of the Legislative Council."

He must further be possessed of the qualification on which he claims to be registered for three months previously. All persons not on last year's register, or who do not retain the same qualification or continue in the same place of abode, or whose names have been inserted on the register in respect of payment for lodging, or for board and lodging, or in respect of free miners' certificates, must send in their claims to vote, otherwise their names cannot be inserted in the register. It would appear that those qualifying upon freehold, leasehold and household property, provided they do not change their qualification or abode, will still retain their votes without a new registration. Such is the law so far as we can find out from a tolerably careful perusal of this masterpiece of ambiguity. Such as it is we give it for the information of our readers; and before ending this article we must call upon all those whose votes would be forfeited by a change of qualification, &c., and those who are not on the register who are entitled to be there, or whose qualification last year will not be good for this one, to place their names on the New Registry without delay, so that they will be enabled to elect a representative to the Legislature who will have both the will and ability to do something towards abating such nuisances as this, and who in other respects will represent the constituency in a creditable manner and with a full sense of the weight of responsibility that rests upon him.

EDITOR CARIBOO SENTINEL.—Sir.—Permit me, through the medium of your paper, to notify the electors of Cariboo that I have resigned my honorable position as their representative in the Legislative Assembly of this Province.

I will not attempt to explain or justify a step that I have taken after much serious and, I must add, painful consideration, for I feel that the verdict of the people of Cariboo will neither be harsh or ungenerous when they pronounce upon my conduct.

In tendering them my sincere and heartfelt thanks for the kindness shown and the confidence placed in me—kindness I can never forget, confidence I have not betrayed—I may be permitted to hope that the gentleman to be selected to fill the seat vacated by me will prove my equal in earnestness and my superior in ability in protecting and promoting the interests of the Province at large and the constituency of Cariboo in particular.

Although my own voluntary act, it is with extreme reluctance I yield back a trust dearly prized, jealously guarded, and, I know and feel, wholly unsuited by me; and as I hope and intend, should life continue, to see very many, if not all, of my Cariboo friends again, I will only say farewell for a while!

Your obdt servant,
CORNELIUS BOOTH.
Victoria, V.I., April 21, 1872.

THE CANADIAN TARIFF.

EDITOR SENTINEL.—In writing my letter of the 18th ult., on the Canadian Tariff, I had no idea of entering into a controversy as to whether the Canadian or British Columbia Tariff is best suited to this Province as a whole. Undoubtedly the Canadian is, for by it the province saves some $68,000 a year, but the great bulk of that saving is confined to a few articles, as you exhibit in your last Saturday's article on the subject.

My position is that general merchandize, and by the term general I mean the almostnumerable number of articles contained in the three great divisions of trade—viz., dry goods, groceries, hardware and crockery. I believe that on nearly every article in that large catalogue the duty is advanced 2½ per cent., except blankets, which is 5 per cent., and candles 2 cents per lb. less. But on a great many articles the duty is advanced more than 2½ per cent. In hardware we find shovels 15 per cent. more, rope 10 per cent. more, iron 5 per cent. more, machinery, pumps, &c., 5 per cent. more, and coal oil nearly 200 per cent. more. I take it that the excess of duty on those articles over 2½ per cent. will about counterbalance the saving we have of 5 per cent. on boots and shoes.

In the face of these facts, Mr. Editor, I cannot see how the Canadian Tariff will have a tendency to reduce the price of such merchandise in Cariboo. If the rate of duty had remained the same, with the road tolls abolished, then we could expect that the articles above mentioned would be sold correspondingly cheaper; but the advance on one hand being just about equal to the reduction on the other, no change can reasonably be expected so far as these articles are concerned.

With regard to provisions, it may be different; but even had the road tolls discontinued the Canadian Tariff would not have had any very perceptible effect, as by it the reduction on a sack of flour would only be three bits, on butter 6 cents per lb., on cheese 2 cents, on rice &c., on bacon and ham 3 cents per lb. Neither will the increase of duty under the Canadian Tariff on cattle and malt have the effect of raising the price of either our beef or beer in this market.

Referring to your item about the present price of flour, you will please remember that the exorbitant rate of freight, and not the duty, existing last fall is the prime cause of flour being 19 cents per lb. For the past two years flour has sold from 12½c. to 16c. per lb., with road tolls on; with them off, of course, it would be sold that much less. With cheap freights, road tolls off, and a lower duty, we may reasonably expect the price of provisions to fall, whether they be foreign or provincial.

Weather wet and windy.

VICTORIA.

Victoria, May 9.—A young man, son of Mr. Promis, aged 16 years, while walking along the wharf yesterday, was taken with an epileptic fit and fell into the water, narrowly escaping drowning. He was saved by an Indian.

A telegram from Ottawa says James Graham, Esq., of the H. B. Co., was there and on his way to Victoria; also a private telegram received in town yesterday from Ottawa says that the duties on tea and coffee will be taken off on 1st July.

The Prince Alfred is due here to-day or to-morrow morning. Among the passengers we notice Mrs. R. F. Peckitt, Mr. Boscowitz, Straus, and Ellerbeck; F. L. Fitzgerald, formerly of H.M.S. Sloop, to relieve Commander Egerton and Lieut. Diggle, of H.M.S. Boxer; Z. Hough, H. Hough.

A son of Mr. James Cowper, of James Bay, aged 17, died very suddenly of disease of the heart yesterday.

The Idubo is announced to sail from Fort Langford for this port on 11th.

CANADA.

Ingersoll, Canada, May 8.—A fire last night nearly destroyed the entire business portion of the city. One woman was burned to death. Loss half a million dollars.

Ottawa, May 9.—Sir Francis Hincks gave notice in the House last night that the Government would bring in a bill repealing the duties on tea and coffee, to take effect on 1st July, and stated that this action was consequent upon the repeal of these duties by the United States Government.

UNITED STATES.

New York, May 7.—A Washington special says that the President and Secretary Fish decided that Granville's proposition was unacceptable, and that we can't recede from the case as presented at Geneva, and a dispatch was telegraphed to Schenck to that effect.

Gen. Huribut, Minister to Columbia, just returned on leave of absence, brings an extraordinary treaty which he negotiated with that country.

Washington, May 7.—It is reported that the President has decided to remove the Assistant Secretary of State on the ground of inability to keep diplomatic secrets. It is alleged that quite recently several important State secrets have transpired through him.

San Francisco, May 9.—The action on the streets this morning is decidedly more confident. There is a pretty general expectation of a strong reaction in stocks. Operators say that in four or five days the rage for stock speculation will not be as great as it has been, and "wild-cat" stock will be harder to dispose of at any figure, and that there will be a steady demand for stock in all mines having real merit. The Banks have shut down on stock brokers who have been carrying time contracts for customers. This will break a good many small outside operators.

Washington, May 8.—House Committee on Tariff Bill, after a lengthy discussion, struck out of Bill duties on tea and coffee.

Washington, May 9.—Our Minister to Madrid will soon be withdrawn. No successor will be appointed until Spain is more disposed than now to act with justice and according to treaty obligations. Although war is not regarded as even probable, there is an increasing desire that our navy be placed in an efficient condition, and the authorities before long may order the navy yards to place all available vessels in a sea-going condition.

EUROPEAN.

Edinburgh, May 7.—A deputation of clergymen of the Scotch Church sail to-day for America to attend the General Assembly.

be held in Detroit. Much interest is felt in the result, which is the first acknowledgment of the Church in America.

Berlin, May 7.—Bismarck is indisposed. His physician orders rest or the consequence may be serious.

The new fortifications of Strasburg will cost £7,000,000 sterling.

Paris, May 6.—The Univers admits that the main body of the Carlists in Spain was defeated and lost 700 men, and that Carlos fled to the mountains, but denies that he was pursued by Government troops.

Berlin, May 8.—The Emperor will soon go to Ems to drink the waters. Bismarck retires to his estate, and will abstain from active business for several months.

London, May 8.—The Echo to-day has a complimentary criticism on the performance of the Atlantic boat crew of New York. The London boatmen all regard the crew as very able, and a great struggle is certain on 10th June.

Paris, May 8.—The journals insist that the late battle will not decide the fate of the Carlists rising, and deny that any Carlist leaders have returned to France. They say that the revolutionist forces are masters of the Bay of Biscay and other important points. The friends of Carlos say he has 7,000 well armed and experienced men.

London, May 8.—The World's special says a majority of Erie Railroad shareholders have combined to make Tom Scott President of the American Board, and Scott telegraphed that there is sufficient assurance that the combination is considered successful.

London, May 9.—The rate of discount in the Bank of England has been advanced to 5 per cent.

Paris, May 9.—Marshall Bazaar surrendered himself on Tuesday night to stand his trial by a court-martial.

Madrid, May 9.—This evening official dispatches from the north state the insurrectionists have disappeared and only a small band now remains at Saragossa. The Carlists in Navarre, 329 in number, have surrendered and the remainder dispersed. The Government agent at Pamplona telegraphs that Carlos has crossed the frontier, accompanied only by a priest, and is now in France.

OUR CANADIAN LETTER.

MONTREAL, April 2, 1872.

ENTER SENTINEL:—During the month to March I have spent my time travelling through Western Canada, the section designated as the "garden of Canada" and so far as scenery and general appearances go, I have little doubt properly so termed; however from personal observation I can say nothing, as I have been in the midst of winter ever since leaving sunny California in February, snow, frost and wind, with everything tending to make things disagreeable to a person not engaged in active business. The thermometer below zero last month was the rule rather than the exception, and now in April, though to-day the sun shines bright (except through an occasional snow shower), "winter still lingers in the lap of spring" to such an extent that I think the latter will have a hard job to get rid of her unpleasant burden.

Coming from Toronto to Montreal on Saturday night and Sunday last, I had the infinite pleasure of being over 28 hours making a trip of 323 miles through as bitter a snow storm as I ever wish to see, consequently spending Easter Sunday on the beautiful Grand Trunk line—that is, it might have been beautiful under more favorable circumstances—besides, for variety, having a sweet passage to make from one train to another at 12 o'clock on Saturday night round a wrecked freight train thrown off by one of the unfortunately by no means uncommon broken rails. The storm continued on Monday, no trains reaching or leaving Montreal all day and the streets being several feet deep with snow, which the sun is now melting into a state of slush which renders gumboots the most desirable articles for pedestrians wear. To be sure every one tells me that such a winter has not been known in Canada for years, with which poor consolation I suppose I must be content, while realizing the fact that climates as severe as Cariboo can be found in other and more southern climes. But enough about the weather.

I have been much pleased with the evidences of rapid progress and prosperity manifested in the principal cities of Ontario, especially Toronto, Hamilton and London. Ten years ago, I am informed, manufacturing interests were but in their infancy, while now they are assuming gigantic proportions while the rapid extension of railway communication in all directions constantly keep on the increase. In one wholesale clothing manufacture at Hamilton, I saw packages ready for shipment to Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Manitoba, Norway House, Fort Edmonton, and British Columbia. There are many articles which I have no doubt will now be largely imported into our province from this section. Shovels, and other mining tools, which are largely manufactured in Hamilton, should certainly compete with American articles paying duty; so with clothing, boots, and shoes, &c., &c. There was one branch of industry which rather surprised me in Hamilton, the manufacture of sewing machines, of which there are several large steam factories turning out an enormous number annually. Agricultural implements, machinery of all sorts, carriages, waggons, and many other articles, are being extensively manufactured at many different points, but I will not attempt to weary your readers with more details.

Nor need I attempt to describe the commercial metropolis of Canada, Montreal, with its stately and magnificent cathedrals, banks and warehouses, especially as at this season of the year a visitor can form a very poor judgment as to the changes which another month and the opening of navigation will bring about.

From all that I can learn, the coming season will witness a vast emigration to the mining regions about Lake Superior. It is estimated that from 20,000 to 30,000 men will seek their fortunes in that direction, many of whom, were there only cheap means of transit, would doubtless ultimately find themselves on our own Pacific slope. However, as the Government here is, I believe, determined to carry out the terms of Union to the best of their ability, despite the opposition of Messrs. Blaikie, Mackenzie, and the Globe, the time, I trust, is not far distant when those means will be available to all.

In political matters, there is very little going on at present. Parliament, as you are aware, meets on the 11th inst., having been delayed till that time to allow the little unpleasantness between Great Britain and Uncle Sam about the Washington Treaty to be so far arranged as to allow that great bone of contention to be brought up for ratification or rejection by Canada, so far as the Fishery and Canal clauses are concerned, but from the present stage of the Grauville-Fish correspondence it seems very doubtful whether anything can be done this year or not. Should the Treaty not be brought up for discussion the session will, I think, be very short, and in my case the season is getting so late that matters must be hurried through as fast as possible. The Ministry are scattered now in all directions from Ontario to Nova Scotia, but in a few days all will be at their posts ready for the session's work. The members from British Columbia, are likewise a good deal scattered, some in Ottawa, some in Montreal, some in New York; but I presume another week will find them all at the capital.

I shall not attempt now to speculate on the course which the Opposition intend to pursue in this session, besides you will know all about the parliamentary proceedings by telegraph long before this letter reaches you. It is, however, generally conceded that the Government is certain of a large majority, but as the general election is so close at hand the "outs" must adopt some grievance as a battle cry at the polls, and the Globe and its fellow towers are now sounding the alarm by taking every opportunity to pitch into Sir John and his Cabinet.

I suppose you have received, or will receive, at the same time as this copies of the Toronto Mail, which is to be the organ of the Ministry. It has made a very creditable opening, and a large capital has been subscribed to carry it on. No expense or pains will, I believe, be spared to make it a success as a journal, and a rival even to the Globe itself.

BARNARD'S EXPRESS left here on Sunday, the 5th inst., carrying a mail, express, and the following passengers:—From Barkerville—H. M. Bell and — Neufelder, to Quesnel; James Steel and Duncan McDermid, to Blue Tent; T. Fletcher and W. Hitchcock, to Yale, and J. Ardell; — Ross, and another passenger from Vancouver to Yale.

THE MAIL AND EXPRESS.—We are requested by Barnard & Co.'s agent to state that the early departure of the mail and express after arrival has been owing to the almost impassable state of the road between Quesnel and this place, and the necessity of making a circuitous route. In two weeks at latest this inconvenience will be overcome.

BENEFITS OF THE CANADIAN TARIFF.—Mr. W. Reunis is selling off at cost, to make room for a new importation, his large and varied assortment of dry goods and clothing of all descriptions, first-class hats, gentlemen and ladies' boots, shoes and slippers; also, a splendid lot of moerschau and briar-root pipes. All hands are invited to call and see for themselves.

COUNTY COURT FEES.—Complaints are being daily made at the delay in the reduction of these fees, and the Government is, we believe, losing money by the delay. Two Grand Jury reports have already enlarged on this grievance. Will it be necessary for another Grand Jury to complain?

MINING INTELLIGENCE.

WILLIAM CREEK.

The Ballarat co. will commence work in the diggings next week.—The Forest Rose co. washed up 150 oz. on Thursday for the first half of the week. The ground in this claim is looking very rich, and to all appearances the channel is running back into the hill.

THE MEADOWS.

The Lane & Kurz co. were in 40 feet last Sunday, and are about 50 feet to-day from the shaft.

LOWREE CREEK.

The Black Bull co. continue taking out dirt. This company will wash the dirt taken out during the winter, and in the dump box also, as soon as water can be obtained. Big washers up may be expected.—The Victoria co. are getting on better looking ground. The Brown co. are rocking.

JACK OF CLUB CREEK.

The Two Brothers co. will be down about 60 feet to-day.—The Two Sisters are not doing much at present, having partially lost the pay.

FRENCH CREEK.

The Ambrose co. are meeting with much water and very difficult ground; progress necessarily slow.

EAGLE CREEK.

The Walkem co. contractors will finish the 500 feet, included in their contract some time early next week; still in clay.

LIGHTNING CREEK.

The Caledonia co.—This company, which has been newly formed, have commenced tunnelling in the old Perth ground, looking for a continuation of the old Dunbar lead. The Gem co. are making over expenses, four men working.—The Ross co. washed up 107 oz and $10 and is looking as well as ever this week. The Eldorado co. have commenced a new tunnel near the lower end of their ground, and are working in their old diggings as well and making about expenses.—The Lightning co. have stopped work until after the freshet. The South Wales co. have their machinery completed, and the diggings were pumped out on Wednesday last. The machinery works well, and are now working in the diggings (about 800 feet to work).—The Van Winkle co. have got bed rock in their drain, and are running along successfully.—The Point co. are digging down bed rock in the drive to get into the channel.—The Victoria co. pumped the water from the shaft to within 20 feet of bottom and stopped, not being able to make more headway.—The Vancouver had their diggings pumped out and were working in the face when they were driven out by water.—The Clark co. have found paying ground, and are now running a drift to obtain air.—The Eleven of England have run on to the rim of the Lightning channel and found gold. They are still cutting down rock, having struck the channel on top high a level. The rim is 180 feet from the shaft.

AMADOR CREEK.

The Taylor co. will have their machinery up and expect to be at work in their diggings on Monday.

MR. BOOTH'S RESIGNATION.—We publish elsewhere Mr. Booth's notice of resignation. Many of Mr. Booth's friends will regret his retirement from the political arena, in which he gave promise of acquiring some distinction.

MR. BARNSTON, BARRISTER AT LAW, is a candidate for the suffrages of the electors of this district, and will publish his address to the electors in the next issue of the SKYLINE.

DO NOT LOSE THIS OPPORTUNITY, ALL WHO WANT TO SAVE MONEY.—C. A. Noltemeyer sells Boots and Shoes of all descriptions, for Men, Ladies and Children, at remarkably low prices—almost at San Francisco rates. His own made boots always on hand. REPAIRS neatly done. Leather, Shoe Findings, and Groceries at lowest possible prices. Remember the Railroad Boot and Shoe Store, Barkerville.

SODA CREEK.

Soda Creek, May 7.—During the past week we have had from 12 to 20 degrees of frost each night.

Yesterday the steamer Victoria went down to the Soda creek Mills and shipped 15 tons of flour.

Twenty-five head of beef cattle passed up bound for Barkerville.

Miners for Ominea having animals packed with provisions pass daily.

Thermometer last night 12 below freezing.

YALE.

Yale, May 7.—The Onward on her last up-trip brought 90 tons freight and 30 passengers. Amongst the passengers were Chief Justice Begbie and Mr. A. R. Robertson, G. W. Watt and R. McLennan, C.P.R. Surveyor. The Onward will make three trips this week.

Two of Barnard's specials left on Saturday at 3 p.m. with 16 surveyors, being reinforcements for two parties.

The regular express left on Monday morning with mails and following passengers: Jas. Amms, J. Gerald, Col. Lane, Jas. Alkenhead, Thos. Alkenhead, Hood, and Curry, for Barkerville; A. S. Bates for 150-mile house.

There is in town a large boiler and the machinery for a grist and saw mill, belonging to Mr. A. S. Bates, which he intends erecting at the 150 mile house.

Mr. R. McLennan left this morning for the scene of his labors. It is his intention to go over the route to Bute Inlet through the Chilcotin country to ascertain if it is a practicable route for the C. P. R. R.

The prisoners sent for trial last month were brought up before Chief Justice Begbie yesterday. The body of the murdered Chinaman not having been discovered, the jury could not bring in a verdict of murder. The elder Indian was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for stealing the property of the Chinaman; the other was remanded in case of the body being found, or more conclusive evidence being obtained.

Teaming is now chiefly to Savona's Ferry. Teaming to Soda creek will not commence in earnest for about ten days. Several bull teams are preparing for a start.

VICTORIA.

Victoria, May 6.—The following telegram was received yesterday from the Secretary of the San Francisco Cricket Club: "The Cricketers, 13 in number, will leave for Victoria on 20th May per steamer Prince Alfred.

The Driard House, the most imposing structure probably the province can at present boast of, was formally opened to the public on Saturday. Flags representing different nationalities were hung in festoons from the top of the building to the balcony over the door, thence across the street, and had a very pleasing effect. In the evening the building was handsomely illuminated and presented a grand appearance. In every window lights were placed, and from the tops of the tall chimneys oil flags issued, brilliantly illuminating the whole surrounding city. When night set in a ball and concert was held in the dining room, and was largely attended.

Victoria, May 7.—The steamer California was met by the North Pacific three miles from Olympia, bound up, on Sunday night. She will arrive here to-day.

The St. Andrew's Society will hold their annual gathering on July 4th.

It is rumored that it is intended to erect in this city a Temple for the believers in Spiritualism, and that subscriptions will be asked from the public within a few days for that purpose.

UNITED STATES.

San Francisco, May 5.—The funeral of the late F. S. Pioche was attended by almost the entire French population and many other citizens. The remains were placed in the vault of the Masonic cemetery.

A number of capitalists, miners and business men leave for Shill Creek this week.—Dispatches received on Friday speak of extensive discoveries of silver ore carrying considerable gold in that district.

The steamer from Panama has arrived. She touched at Cape St. Lucas and took on a number of refugees engaged in the late rebellion. Late news does not confirm the capture of Mazatlan.

Sentie, May 6.—A stabbing affray occurred yesterday at Port Gladlay between two drunken men, in which one received a probably fatal wound.

Swinomish, May 6.—A shooting affray took place recently on Swinomish Island between a man named "long" Brown and an Indian. The Indian fired at Brown, who dodged the shot and then shot the Indian, who died during the night.

The Eastern news is very meager, chiefly composed of proceedings of Cincinnati Convention. From appearances at last accounts Horace Greeley will probably be nominated for President of the United States by that body.

EUROPEAN.

London, May 4.—The Times of this morning urges President Grant to send to Geneva a communication which shall supersede the original American Case containing claims for consequential damages.

It is reported that Dr. Livingstone is at Cuibara.

The Empress Augusta arrived at Windsor Castle on May 2d.

The London Telegraph of 22d April, in an editorial on American indirect claims, says America is no longer in doubt as to our resolve in the matter. Concession with us has reached its utmost limit.

Madrid, May 6.—Carlos, with only 200 adherents, passed through Nonzia fleeing to France, having been completely defeated yesterday. Thirty-eight of his troops were killed and 747 captured. The insurrection is at an end.

London, May 5.—The Times says the nomination of Horace Greeley is futile and his election hopeless, but it admits Grant's chances for re-election makes a Democratic nomination certain.

The Post believes Greeley will be successful if nominated and endorsed by either of the other Conventions to be held, but thinks this impossible.

The Telegraph says the nomination is directly contra to England, because Greeley is hostile to the Treaty of Washington and a bigoted protectionist.

The Daily News doubts his fitness for the position.
