THREE MEN KILLED BY A GRIZZLY.

On the 18th September, says the San Jose Independent, three men, whose names are unknown, but who had been keeping a dairy on the San Benito ranch, came to their death in a most horrible manner. On Thursday, one of their cows strayed away and was lost. On the next morning, before breakfast, two of them started out to take a look for the missing animal. After travelling up the ravine for some distance, they discovered the cow lying among the brush. Thinking she was asleep they went up to start her home; but it appears the cow had been killed by a grizzly, who was at this time lying at her side. As the men approached the bear leaped upon the foremost one, and throwing him to the ground, tore out his entrails, and then seizing the second, caught his head in his mouth, and bit it entirely off, mangling it fearfully. The bear then resumed his position by the body of the dead cow. The man who was first attacked did not die immediately, but had enough strength left to drag himself a short distance from the spot.

In the meantime the man left at the camp, having prepared breakfast, went out to call up his companions. Finding their trail he followed it until he saw the cow lying in the bushes; and thinking he would drive her home, he approached the spot, when the bear, springing upon him, instantly killed him, mangling him in the most horrible manner. The surviving victim, who was lying in the brush at a short distance from the scene, witnessed his approach and death, but was so terribly wounded that he was unable to give any warning.

SCENES AT THE BURNT DISTRICT AT OTTAWA.

To the Editor of the Witness.

Sir,—I had thought that no new scenes at fires could surpass those I have already encountered during my 30 years' experience of them; but my observations in the Ottawa district for the last few days—in fact in as many hours as former years—I encountered sights that for misery and desolation exceeded all I have ever previously experienced. Towards Bell's Corners, for miles, not a habitation was to be found. At one place I observed a man sitting on a charred pine log with flannel shirt, pants and shoes only, no hat or covering for his head. His story was short: "A few hours ago," said he, pointing to the smouldering embers, "there stood three barns, two of them filled with grain. There stood the cow shed and there the stables—now you can see the carcases of eight cows, forty sheep and nine hogs." Then, turning round and pointing across the road, he said, "There stood our home—now all is gone, the fruits of 30 years' hard labor. In yonder swamp are my wife and bairns, with no more clothing than now cover myself; but, thank God, our lives are all spared, and within this breast is left a good Scottish heart, so I know we shall not want; but the danger of the swamp still taking fire troubles me. I have begun a sort of pit to get into as a last resort in case the swamp should take fire."

Alfred Perry.

Welsh Surnames—The frequent occurrence among the Welsh of suggestively Jewish surnames is due to the fact that it was at one time the custom among the people for the son to assume the christian name of his father as his own surname. The son of Levi Williams took Levi for his surname, sinking the paternal Williams. In like manner arose such names as Solomon, Davids, and in a few instances even Moses, as the cognomens of undeniably Welsh families. Afterward the practice of assuming the father's christian as a surname fell completely into disuetude, but it has lasted long enough to leave a very enduring mark upon Welsh family names.

Always—Two precocious little damsels at Troy, N. Y, were overheard the other night, on the sidewalk, exchanging notes on the Franco-Prussian war. "I know," said No. 1, "that France will beat, because the little Prince is with him." "Go away with you," chimed in No. 2. "I know a mighty sight better. The Dutch will whip; for my pa is a Frenchman and ma is a Dutchman. They fight every night, and ma always licks."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

To the Electors of Lytton-Yale District.

Gentlemen,—

In reply to a request of many of the Electors that I would accept the nomination as candidate for the representation of Lytton and Yale District in the Legislative Council of British Columbia, and rest on their support at the coming election, I accept and declare myself on the situation.

As my political opinions are known throughout this colony, particularly as regards the question of Confederation, it will suffice for me to say that for years I have been and am to-day one of its warmest and faithful supporters, provided that the fundamental and express terms of our Union contract were equitable with other Provinces within the Dominion. The conditions which form the basis of the political, admits of two important issues to be submitted to the wisdom and intelligence of the country, to be decided by the ballot box—Customs Tariff and Responsible Government.

Clause 7 of the Terms:—"It is agreed that the existing tariff and excise duties shall continue in force in British Columbia until the railway from the Pacific connects with that of Canada, unless the Legislature of British Columbia should decide sooner to accept the Tariff and excise laws of Canada.

I am in favor of the Dominion Tariff on these grounds:—That it is equitable; that it will save at least $130,000 per annum to the Colony, whereas with the continuation of the existing tariff that amount and more would yearly slip into the Dominion treasury in support of a false political plea, called protection, whereas there is nothing to protect, and that in order to save not only the sum of $130,000 to the colony, but also that it will serve as a preventive to any unnecessary political agitation hereafter.

Clause 14 of Terms:—"The conditions of the Executive authority and of the Legislature of British Columbia shall, subject to the provisions of the British North American Act, 1867, continue as existing at the time of union until altered by the authority of the said Act, it being at the same time understood that the Government of the Dominion will readily consent to the introduction of Responsible Government when desired by the inhabitants of British Columbia. It being also understood that it is the intention of the Governor to amend the existing constitution in order to have the majority of the members of the Legislative Council elective."

I am not in favor of any such amendment as referred to in the latter part of Clause 14; but I will support as one of the conditions of union the introduction of a free form of government on a responsible basis, giving to the people, with union, the management of their own local affairs.

Our popular local parliament to constitute one chamber, composed of twenty members; six of whom having the confidence of the people, will represent the Government, their tenure of office depending on their having a majority in the House. Any form of government for British Columbia, whose institutions is not free and responsible, I will oppose.

In respect to inter-oceanic communication by rail, this great enterprise has always found in me one of its earliest and most faithful advocates; and as the Dominion Goverament, as a condition, undertake to secure the commencement simultaneously, within two years from the date of union, of the construction of a railway from the Pacific towards the Rocky Mountains, and the completion of such road within ten years from date of union, I believe it to be the duty of the country to observe that this stipulation in the union contract is faithfully fulfilled.

I will make no remark at present as regards the other terms of our political contract, believing that they will be unobjectionable to the country.

The abolition of Road Tolls on flour of colonial manufacture, if not the entire removal of the gate at Clinton, I will most willingly support, other local issues to be dealt with through local legislation.

In conclusion, I pledge myself to support the political principles above mentioned, study the interests and requirements of my constituents, and endeavor to promote the general welfare and prosperity of British Columbia; and in order to more fully explain those principles, I hope to meet you at an early day.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours faithfully,
ROBT. SMITH.

THE CARIBOO SENTINEL

SATURDAY, OCT. 8, 1870.

OMINECA—The late news from Germansen creek has not caused much excitement here, and there has only been a few departures so far. The disappointment consequent upon the comparative failure of Vital creek and surrounding country as a gold field makes miners cautious before venturing again upon a long journey, and there seems to be a general desire to await further news from the new creek. John Lovell, trader, of Lightning creek; W. Nelson and McDonald, of the Victoria co., Lowhee creek, and J. Boyle and W. Patch, of the Kelly co., left Quesnelmouth last week for the new creek. John Waddily and party, who had been prospecting on Fraser river, and it is said had gone as far as Tete Jaune Cache, returned to Quesnelmouth just as the news from the new creek arrived there. They have also gone to the new diggings.

BARNARD'S express arrived yesterday, with Hon. R. W. Carrall, and Mr. J. H. Turner. Mrs. W. Davison and Mrs. J. Reynard also arrived from Quesnelmouth. An Eastern mail came by this express. Tompkins' Anvil Chorus Battery fired a salute in honor of the return of Hon. Carrall. There were no passengers by the downward express of last Saturday.

SILVER.—A silver-bearing vein about two feet wide and traceable in a distance of 100 yards, has been discovered near Hope. A piece of the ore assayed at New Westminster returned silver at the rate of 720 oz. to the ton and another piece yielded at the rate of 216 oz. to the ton. The vein is situated between two lofty mountains about two miles below Hope and six miles from Fraser river.

ASSAULT—Jacob Jenkins was brought up before the Magistrate on Thursday charged with assault and battery on Mr A. Townsend at Vanwinkle, Lightning creek. Complainant did not wish to press the charge, and the prisoner was discharged on payment of costs, $22 50, and giving bail to keep the peace in the sum of $200. John Davis and B. Edwards were accepted as sureties.

BY the departure of Mr Robert Patterson, late of the Wake-up-Jake, who leaves by today's express, Barkerville loses a valued citizen, who possessed the esteem of all classes of our residents. Mr Patterson intends visiting his home in Scotland, and his many friends in Cariboo will heartily wish him a pleasant journey.

MR. J. H. Turner, of the firm of Turner & Tunstall, Victoria, arrived yesterday on a visit to Cariboo, and expresses much gratification with the journey up-country and the appearance of Barkerville. On behalf of the inhabitants of the creek and upper country we may say that the gratification is heartily reciprocated.

CARIBOO MARKETS—In our last report of prices current we gave the range of fresh butter from 80c. to $1. The figures should have been 65c. to $1. The production of colonial butter for the Cariboo market this year has been unusually large, and it has been selling by wholesale as low as it costs to lay down imported butter in the market.

TURK'S teams from Yale arrived on the creek on Wednesday and left on Thursday, for Quesnelmouth. Mr. Turk reports that the machinery for the Kurtz & Lane Mining Company left San Francisco on the 17th ult., and that he has been verbally engaged to bring it to the creek from Quesnelmouth.

M.L.C.—A social party discussing the merits of the various probable candidates for the next election, were asked to explain the meaning of the foregoing letters, when one of the quidnuncs replied, "Oh, it means a muckle lang-legged calf!"

At the Annual Meeting of the W. C. Fire Brigade, held last evening, W. Davison was elected Captain, vice Oppenheimer who declined re-election; J. Denny, 1st Lieutenant; Geo. Byrnes, 2d Lieutenant; and J. P. Taylor, Treasurer.

WILLIAM CREEK HOSPITAL, Sept. 30, 1870.

To JAS. WICKHAM and HENRY HAVELOCK, Esqs.

GENTLEMEN,—On behalf of the Cariboo Hospital and myself, I beg most sincerely to thank you, as representatives of the Grand Jury of this district, for the handsome check for $1117 75 handed to me this morning.

This very liberal subscription—the amount far exceeding my expectation—contributed alike by miners and townspeople of all denominations—shows plainly the feeling entertained for the welfare of this Institution, and for which I am sure you have satisfactorily thanked all and each, and will allow my name to endorse.

To you, Sirs, the Acting agents, my thanks are doubly due for the trouble you have taken and the time you have devoted to the task. Still you tell me the labor had pleasure in it. I am vain enough to believe what you say, and to lay some of the flattering unction to my heart, knowing as you did the summum bonum would be on my side, inasmuch as the services were rendered, and there was no vision of an Adeline likely to beset your path, consequently the remark banishes every obligation and greatly relieves your humble servant, for the obligation has become a gratification—a gratification to be indebted to gentlemen who, for themselves and the subscribers, can so delicately confer a substantial favor.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient and obliged,
THOMAS BELL.

THE CARIBOO SENTINEL

SATURDAY, OCT. 8, 1870.

MINING INTELLIGENCE.

WILLIAM CREEK.

The Flume co. cleaned up over 50 oz. last week from the Forward ground, and are getting good returns from the bedrock flume. The Cornish co. recommenced piping this week.

The Cariboo co. having got their diggings cleaned, are working on pay again, and washed up 50 oz. on Thursday. The Caledonia co. washed up 25 oz. for the week. The Prince of Wales are doing well. The Ballarat co. continue taking out good pay, having washed up 110 oz. last week, notwithstanding a loss of three shifts' work by the breaking of the ditch. The operations of this company have also been retarded during the present week from a similar cause, and from having tapped some old diggings, which necessitated a suspension of work in their upper ground for a few days. The Summer co. are preparing to put in a flume.

MINK GULCH.

The Perseverance co. have good pay in sight but are troubled with boulders.

STOUT GULCH.

The Mucho Oro co. washed 47 oz. for the week, and the Taffvale co. declared a dividend of $50 to the interest.

CONKLIN GULCH.

The Lone Star co. are getting on well with their new shaft, which is down about 50 feet. The worst part of the ground has been passed, and it is expected there will be no difficulty in completing the shaft. The Indian Queen co. are making small wages

FRENCH CREEK.

The North American co. have got their diggings opened with a full breast and are getting good pay. The Clark and Great Eastern cos., in conjunction, are sinking a shaft in the lower part of the latter co's ground.

VALLEY MOUNTAIN.

The Discovery co. cleaned up 30 oz. for the week. Some more claims have been taken up below the Fiddler co.'s ground.

LOWHEE CREEK.

The Victoria co. made over wages for the week, and the present week a prospect of four bits to the pan has been struck in the lower drive. The Lowhee Quartz co. have let a contract to Mr Lumley for a tunnel to intersect the ledge.

BEGGS GULCH.

The Welsh co. are making wages. The Golden Hope co. are running a tunnel in the centre of the flat, looking to a continuation of the lead from the Skym ground. The tunnel is in 300 feet and not far from bedrock. The Jim co. are making over wages.

KEITHLEY CREEK.

The Young co. are making over wages. The Monte Christo co. are doing well.

HARVEY CREEK.

A great portion of this creek has been staked off in consequence of the Minnehaha co. having struck good pay. Nick Bailey has also struck 9 oz. to a 4-feet set. Bailey's diggings are in the creek, about 15 feet deep and are worked by means of an open cut. The ground is bad to work, owing to the frequency of boulders. The open cut is in the centre of the creek, and on turning toward the hill with a four-feet set Bailey got the prospect. The claim is about a mile from the mouth of the creek.

LIGHTNING CREEK.

Mining operations on this creek are still in a preliminary condition. None of the new companies have yet advanced their works to the main object of their labors—"the lead"—but the steady application of labor and improved mode of work everywhere observable must result in success if it is to be found at all in the deep ground. The Vanwinkle co. are down 47 feet with their shaft. The South Wales co. are sinking a wheel-pit. Work in the Eldorado tunnel, which is being lowered, goes on well. The Gladstone co. are sinking for drainage for their bedrock drive. The Fail-me-Never and Mount Hollow companies are getting a little pay. The Great Western co. are making wages. The Whirlpool co. have been driven out by water. It is said the Dunbar co. are doing well in the new ground just opened.

ANDERSON CREEK.

The Warren co. are putting up new machinery for their new shaft in the flat.

THE Colonist states that Lane and Kurtz Mining Company stock was put on the San Francisco market and met with great success. Col. Lane has also telegraphed the Colonist that he will ship machinery of the third capacity, pumping 1700 gallons per minute.

MINING COURT.

(Before Hon. H. M. Ball, Gold Commissioner and County Court Judge.)

WEDNESDAY, October 5.

WM. HERON vs. J. S. THOMPSON—Suit to show cause why defendant, who is administrator of the estate of the late A. McPherson, who was a watchmaker, should not pay $120 assessments, paid by plaintiff for McPherson to the Ottawa company.

Plaintiff alleged that McPherson had been a member of the Ottawa co.; that he (plaintiff) had paid assessments for him on the understanding that he would not press for repayment; that ample time would be given to do so, but now plaintiff claimed that although he never would have sued McPherson, he ought to be acknowledged as a creditor of the estate of deceased on account of said assessments.

The defence was that plaintiff offered to pay the assessments and would reimburse himself from the profits of the mine. Defendant, who was secretary and a member of the company, was present when the company was reorganised, and McPherson said he would like to remain in the company, but he could not pay assessments. Plaintiff said he would settle the assessments. Defendant had several conversations with McPherson, who said he would not have anything to do with the company only that Heron kept up his assessments.

The Gold Commissioner said that as plaintiff would not have sued McPherson when alive, he did not see why he could claim payment now that he was dead. Judgment for defendant.

COUNTY COURT.

(Before H. M. BALL, Esq., Judge.)

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 5.

J. CHASSOT vs. A. F. ROBINSON AND J. H. TODD—In this case it appeared that the defendant first-named was indebted to plaintiff in the sum of $234, and that the last-named defendant, as the administrator of the estate of the late John McLaren, had sold an interest in the Ballarat company for $1600, on account of which interest the first-named defendant had worked for 41¾ days, whereupon the plaintiff brought suit to show cause why the last-named defendant should not pay plaintiff, who held a judgment against the first-named defendant, the debt of the judgment debtor. The case was postponed until the next day for the production of witnesses.

NAZARIE EUCINAS vs. GIACOMO AMORETTI—This was a suit to recover $48 75 for moneys paid on defendant's behalf and for work done in fixing aparajos, etc. Defendant is a packer, and had engaged plaintiff to look after his horses, etc., during the last winter, for which plaintiff was to receive his board. There had been a settlement between the parties at Guichon's house, Quesnelmouth, and plaintiff subsequently presented the account now sued for. Defendant alleged that the settlement at Guichon's was final, but that plaintiff had asked defendant for an aparajo next morning, which was refused, and plaintiff then made threats towards defendant. Neither party produced any proof beyond their own statements of the matter, whereupon the Judge said that he would give judgment for the defendant, because the plaintiff had not presented his account when the settlement at Quesnelmouth was made, and plaintiff admitted such settlement.

Plaintiff had obtained judgment by default on a previous summons in this matter, and the Judge decided that as the present hearing had been given at the request and for the convenience of the defendant (who had paid no attention to the first summons), each party would now pay their own costs.

Mr Barnston for plaintiff; Mr Walkem for defendant

GEO. BYRNES vs. M. C. DAVIS—Suit to recover $70, balance due on a promissory note to Fisk and Greenbaum. Judgment for plaintiff with costs.

CAMERON & AMMS vs. JOHN PUTZ AND E. HARPER—Suit to recover $156, balance due for blacksmith work.

It appeared that Harper had a contract from the Eleven of England co., of Lightning creek, and that Putz and Anton Galster had agreed to work for Harper and take the chances of obtaining wages after all the debts were paid, Harper having first told them that he thought the contract price was too low and he would not make anything by it. After paying the debts and reserving a sum for payment of plaintiff, Putz and Galster received $3 per day for their work. The sum reserved as stated had been demanded by and paid to previous creditors of Harper, who confessed judgment. Plaintiffs' counsel contended that Putz was responsible for the debt, inasmuch as he had become a co-partner in the contract of Harper by taking his chances for a share of the probable profits.

The Judge gave judgment accordingly, saying that Putz had legally made himself a co-partner, because instead of working for wages, which he could have claimed before the debts were paid, he had agreed to take his chances for payment after the debts were paid.

THURSDAY, October 6.

J. CHASSOT vs. A. F. ROBINSON AND J. H. TODD—To-day it appeared that the interest of McLaren had been sold only on conditions which had not been completed, and no transfer had been made. The Judge ordered that the money due to Robinson from the interest should be paid into court for the benefit of plaintiff when the interest shall have been sold.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

Florence, Sept. 23—Rome is now completely occupied by the Italian troops. The Pope has been permitted to retain his guard and the rest of the army is dispersed. The prisoners taken by the Italian troops on the capitulation of the Papal army number about 9300, consisting of about 4800 Italians and 4500 foreigners. Garibaldi is still a prisoner in the island of Caprera. Italian troops are cruising about to prevent his escape to France.

Beaunais, Sept. 24, via Tours 25th—A great battle again all day yesterday, north of Paris, between Point Aise and Isle Addam. It is reported that the peasants are cutting off the convoys with supplies in the rear of the Prussians.

Camp, near Metz, Sept. 24—At noon on the 23d the French sallied forth in considerable strength against the Prussian right. The battle lasted until 7 o'clock p.m., when the Germans, receiving support, assumed the offensive and drove the enemy within their lines. On the 27th, a still more desperate attack was made. The French advanced in long lines of infantry, supported by artillery and cavalry, and covered by the cannon of the forts. Once the French gained a temporary advantage, carrying the outworks of the Prussian lines, but were finally forced to retire under the forts. No details of the result.

Berlin, Sept. 25—Official despatches say, by the capture of Toul, there fell into our hands 159 officers, 2240 men, 120 horses, 1 eagle, 157 guns, large supplies and munitions of war.

London, Sept. 25—The telegrams reporting fighting and pillaging in Paris are discredited here. It is believed the report was originated by Prussians to operate on the minds of the rest of the French people.

London, Sept. 26—A special correspondent at Rouen sends to-day particulars of the action reported from Pontray. It was an important action and resulted in the complete defeat of the Germans. The action was fought on the line of the Orleans railway, beyond Ephany, a station 16 miles from Paris. A column of 10,000 Prussians, advancing from Spence, two miles on the plateau of Longumean, attacked the French forces, which were inferior in number but occupying a strong position. The French retreated under cover of the woods and drew the Germans on until they were brought within range of masked batteries, which opened on them suddenly with tremendous effect. The Prussian column was cut, and the French, charging on their flanks, drove the fragments in hurried retreat down the steep and rapid descent beyond the town of Loutiberg towards Corbets and Louis. There the Germans attempted to make a stand and re-form, but the French artillery, which had been brought up by cross roads, here opened on them again with more effect than before and the retreat was converted into a rout. The German troops fled in all directions, throwing away their arms. The French captured all their artillery, two regimental colors and from 600 to 700 men, who surrendered in a body and were sent to Chartres next day.

Tours, Sept. 27—The following dispatch from the Prefect of the Department of the Loire, dated Orleans to-day, has just been received by the Minister of War: The generals here, seeing they cannot resist the overwhelming forces of the enemy, commanded by Prince Albert, have just evacuated Orleans in good order.

Tours, Sept. 27—Dispatches from Lille have the following news, received there by carrier pigeons from Paris, dated 23d: The division of Gen. Moodhay attacked the heights south of Paris, which were occupied by Prussians. The battle began at 3 a.m.; after sustaining a sharp Prussian fire for some time our troops captured the redoubts of Manling. We occupy them now. The Garde Mobile behaved well. The enemy's loss is great. The same day a considerable force of French made a reconnoissance and drove the enemy from the village of Drouey. The same day Gen. Bellemere, commander of St. Denis, attacked the village of Pesefets, one mile north of St. Denis, which the Prussians have occupied in considerable force. The enemy was driven out of the village, and the French troops returned to St. Denis unmolested.

London, Sept. 28—Mont Meday is reported semi-officially to have been captured.

Epenal, Sept. 28—The Prussians attacked Stains yesterday but were repulsed.

Mundelsheim, Sept. 28—The surrender of Strasbourg was signed at 2 this a.m. 451 officers and 17,000 men laid down their arms at 8 a.m. The place was immediately occupied by the besiegers.

London, Sept. 28—A Berlin correspondent writes on the 26th as follows: We offer a statement of the Prussian successes thus far—not including those from Laon—from August 2, which shows:—One Marshal, 36 Generals, 3359 officers, 106,950 privates, 10,280 horses, 56 eagles, 102 mitrailleurs, 887 field and fortress guns, over 400 wagons and trains, several pontoon and railway trains, with an immense quantity of supplies in ammunition, provisions, equipments, etc. The total loss of the French in killed, wounded and prisoners exceeds 180,000 men.

London, Sept. 29—A Hamburg correspondent writes on 27th that the reserve corps of 180,000 men passed through Frankfort to reinforce the Prussians in France.

Berlin, Sept. 29, Midnight—The greater portion of the French officers, prisoners in Germany, have signed a bitter protest against Napoleon. They charge him with treason and betrayal of the interests of the French people from the commencement of the war. Negotiations for the entry of the South German States into the North German Confederation have failed.

London, Sept. 29—The Russian papers advocate arming to prevent Prussian aggressions and aspirations of conquest.

Paris letters say the Imperialists have faith in the restoration of Napoleon's empire, and it is Bismarck's determination to restore him.

The blockade of the Elbe has been renewed by the French fleet.

New York, Sept. 25—Startling news of the massing of an immense Russian army on the frontiers of Prussia is conveyed this morning in a special from a London correspondent. It is stated in addition that the Russian Minister at the Court of Berlin has been instructed to demand of the Prussians a full explanation of her purposes and policy in continuing the war with France. There is great uneasiness in Berlin and London.

THE LATEST.

By the arrival of the express yesterday we learn from a telegram to Yale that the Prussian army before Paris had been repulsed by the French, who had planned an ambuscade, which proved a success. The surprise of the Prussians resulted in confusion and fight. The Crown Prince was in command, and, it is said that his artillery was fired upon the retreating Prussians for their cowardice. The French, under cover of their artillery, followed the retreating column and inflicted great loss upon the enemy. Six divisions of the Prussian army, it is said, were engaged.

CARIBOO AMATEURS—The amateur Thespians announce another performance for Saturday evening next, for particulars of which see advertisement. We understand that the Liquidation Scheme is likely to succeed, forty seven tickets having already been sold, leaving only thirteen to be taken.

LOWHEE TRAIL—On Tuesday last work was commenced for a new trail to Lowhee creek. It is to start from Harper's road and continue upward toward the Jenkins claim, where it will cross the creek and pass the Mucho Oro ground. We understand that it is intended to be made wide enough for a sleigh road.

STORAGE AND COMMISSION—Mr F. Neufelder, of Richfield, has increased his storage facilities by the addition of another building to his premises, and is now prepared to receive all kinds of merchandise and produce for storage and commission.

LATE news confirms the reported loss of the British turret ship Captain. The vessel foundered in a gale off Cape Finisterre, the most westerly part of the coast of Spain. Capt. Coles, together with 500 officers and men perished.

YESTERDAY the Victoria co., Lowhee creek, washed up 20 oz. for two days' run. Some large pieces of gold were in the wash up, indicating a decided change in the quality of the pay stratum.

MR. T. Manife, of Williams Lake, and Mr. Hawke, of Soda creek, arrived on the creek yesterday by private conveyance.

AT a meeting of the Spruce co. on Monday, Mr W. Tucker was unanimously elected foreman and Mr D. Kurtz secretary.

THE down express will close to-day at 4 p. m. and the post-office mail at 3 p. m.

MEMORY presides over the past: FELL'S COFFEE over the present. The first lives in a rich temple hung with glorious trophies, and lined with tombs; but FELL'S COFFEE has but one shrine, and that is every breakfast table. Its aroma walks the earth like a spirit, and can be found for sale at every respectable dealer's in British Columbia. Beware of spurious imitations.

TO THE LITTLE ONE.

[BY THE BARD OF LOWHEE.]

Come, come—little one, come!
Your cheeks are like roses to-day;
And your eyes are as bright
As the pretty sunlight,
That drives the bad fairies away.

Look, look—little eyes, look!
Emblems of the bright life you live!
Though you can't read a book,
You can read a fond look
That none but a mother can give.

Sing, sing—little voice sing!
For angels and summer birds sing;
And the wild bird's sweet note
Is the music God wrote,
The sweet, welcome music of spring.

Run, run—little feet, run!
And smooth may life's path ever be!
May the one that weds you
Be as loyal and true,
As true as your mother to thee!

Grow, grow—little one, grow!
And light be life's troubles and few!
Like the tiny alarms,
That are soothed in her arms,
Those arms that are heaven to you.

Go, go! through weal and woe
May honor and truth be your guide!
May her day dreams of thee,
What her sweet babe should be,
Be fulfilled unto thee,
O child of a mother's fond pride!

THE PRINCESS WASA, NAPOLEON'S FIRST BETROTHED—THE AUSTRIAN EMPEROR'S DESIGNS.

Had not the original plans of Napoleon in regard to his marriage been frustrated by the Austrian Court, his life might have taken a very different course, and there might now be no necessity of his despairingly bewailing the fact that through foreign counsels he has allowed himself to be ruined. He wished to marry his cousin, the Princess Wasa, granddaughter of the Grand Duchess Stephanie of Baden, and had already offered her his hand on the occasion of a visit to Baden-Baden. His suit was accepted, but with the condition that Prince Wasa, the father of the Princess, who lived in Vienna apart from his wife, should give his consent. Napoleon thereupon turned to the Emperor of Austria with the request that he should undertake the wooing of the bride from Prince Wasa but he received an answer to the effect that this was not permitted by the laws of etiquette, inasmuch as the Prince was only a colonel in the Austrian army.

This, however, was merely an excuse, since Franz Joseph was determined to prevent the proposed match at any price. He, therefore, continued to influence Prince Wasa to positively refuse his consent; and, while Napoleon still hoped on, a match between the Crown Prince of Saxony and the Princess was quickly brought about by the intrigues of the Austrian court. Napoleon was very deeply moved and exasperated at this, and upon first learning that this, his darling project, had been frustrated, he gave utterance to the memorable words, "The princes of Europe shall have cause to think of me."

It is true that at a later day the Emperor of Austria had only too much cause for regretting the share which he had taken in this affair; but for Napoleon the result was much worse from having perhaps the only real heartfelt desire he ever experienced repressed in this rude way. Even though the woman whom he had desired to make Empress of the French had by no means distinguished herself for eminent qualities, yet her modest, bashful, almost dependent nature would have been a guarantee that she would never have endeavored to overstep the limit of her duties.
