

BETWEEN YOU & ME...

THERE are some things that are better left unsaid but then there are those among us who just have to tell the truth as we see it. And that leads right into what I witnessed when attending the Klondyke Night in Pender Harbour.

She was playing the pin ball machine and wore a long green dress. She had red hair and a nice smile. She had a partner at the other end of the machine who was—of all things, helping her to cheat. The lady in the green sheath was Mrs. Eddie Wray while Mrs. Marie Roy was busy poking the little balls into the many holes.

"There are strange things done 'neath the midnight sun." But seems there could be weirder done by the ladies who frequent these Klondyke Nights. There could be one saving feature about this expose and that is, neither of the ladies in question were even trying to collect for their high numbers and they were doing it quite openly and to top it off there were bearded miners and frock coated gamblers like Jim Marsh, standing by and watching the whole proceedings.

While I staggered around the gold nuggets and dodged bullets from Bill Peiper's sixgun, I noted the kid on the music box, he was really hammering that ragtime tune. Harry Race was the fellow and he was getting more kick out of playing than the hanging judge was with his verdicts.

Alan Stuart got himself a five-buck fine because he had shaved since the edict against it was handed down several weeks ago. During these doings the attorney-general or prosecuting attorney or what have you, complete in long coat and beard, was screaming for the maximum penalty every time one of the beardless ones appeared.

Mary Bergenham was getting a kick out of a dance with Teddy Osborne who was just getting a kick.

I glued onto one of the best looking gals in the hall and she was really nice. She gave me a big smile and that Klondyke look.

I figure right away that maybe I'm not so bad after all, and started in to straighten my tie and slick back the few hairs. Then someone comes along and looking straight at my new girl friend, says, "Hi, Ed. Where in heck've you been this last while."

I take another look at this smasher and find out it's Ed Green, who had just arrived, complete with negligee and what ever these women wear.

Mrs. Maggie Wray was having fun going the rounds. She is rated one of the best along the bayous of Pender Harbour. Her smile was easy to look at. I can see why she is so popular with everyone.

Dan MacDonald held sway at the Crown and Anchor but when I took a look at the percentage winners for the house I thought I had better stay with the darts game being run by Dan'll Boone Sam Anderson. How com Dan'll got so far north?

Jeff Brewster was busy with the ladies and his stand, the Lucky Dip, while Bill Matier, from his forty years in the Harbour, looked down through the ages and chuckled, "Man, you shoulda seen some of the times we had here." I would have just loved to.

Jack Cummings was boasting about his winning the longest beard contest. Grabbing the prize by its neck he headed through the crowd to the open country beyond. Only four kids, eleven men and a tame bear were knocked kicking as he left. Ernie Cotton got the tables turned as they hung him for breaking rules. They yanked him from behind the judge's table to do it too. And so ended one of the bright evenings for the Pender folks. They are grand people to do an

Parade Highlight is Crowning of Queen

GIBSONS—May Queen Elect Doris Farnham will receive the crown of authority on Wednesday in the school grounds. Honors will be paid the new queen at 1 p.m. while she is attended by her retinue which will consist of the following:

Attendants will be Norma Turner and Sharon Tyson, while flower girls will be Peggy Tuley and Beverly Younie. Walter Brown has been nominated as Crown Bearer.

The crowning will highlight the Kinsmen May Day Parade which is due to start at the Indian Reserve just before noon on Wednesday. Parade Marshal Reg Godfrey urges all entrants in the parade to be in their places early as they may have to come in at the end of the list thereby passing an opportunity to take their rightful place.

It is hoped that local merchants will provide the necessary for prizes and awards. Many have offered their services while 10 had offered to enter floats in the parade.

It is expected that nearly every business will be represented by the time the parade starts. The Shell Oil Company will offer prizes in classes yet to be appointed.

It is hoped this will be one of the best parades of recent years. Much time and effort has gone into the arranging of entrants and floats.

A monster ball in the School Hall will end the day's festivities. Sponsored by the Board of Trade the dance proceeds will be used in helping construct a children's beach.

Firemen Have Changed Hours

GIBSONS — There will be no more Sunday afternoon fire brigade practices.

According to a recent decision, Sunday afternoons will now be free for the volunteer firemen. In their stead will be meetings every Monday and Thursday at the site of the proposed hall, at 7 p.m.

SECHELT—A challenge to all boards of trade on the peninsula and to Sechelt in particular was thrown out by E. Parr Pearson when he addressed Sechelt Board of Trade Monday.

Speaking on tourists and what other communities are doing toward bringing the holiday dollars within their grasp, Mr Pearson scored the lack of initiative here. He contended that the Peninsula is lacking in publicity. "We should do much more toward informing the American tourist of our great attractions," he said.

PEPPAR TO GIVE TALK

GIBSONS Farmers' Institute general meeting will be held Monday, June 5, in the Community Hall at 8 p.m.

Guest speaker will be A. H. Peppar, vice-president of the B.C. Farmers' Institutes, who will discuss "Health From the Soil." It is believed this is one of the most interesting subjects ever to face the Peninsula.

A hearty invitation is proffered to all.

Prominent Vet Passes to Rest

GAMBIER. — Captain Neil McLeod, prominent member of the Howe Sound Island fraternities, was laid to rest May 12. Manager of East Vancouver club of the Army, Navy and Airforce Veterans, he was an honorary member of the Gambier Island unit. He played a prominent part in establishing the latter.

Known to all as Skipper McLeod, he was one of the most respected and probably the best loved man in the B.C. provincial command of the veteran organization. He gave much of his time to good and was prominent in any work having to do with "boys' work." He did much toward raising the money for presentation to the Boys' Brigade of their beautiful camp at Brigade Bay on Gambier.

The funeral was held at the Chapel of Chimes, Vancouver, under the auspices of Unit 68 of the Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans in Canada. Over five hundred people attended the service with Chaplain Berry officiating. Among the notables attending including representatives from nearly all ex-servicemen's organizations, were the following: Brigadier Sutherland-Brown, C.M.G., D.S.O.; Harold Winch, leader of HM opposition in the legislature; Major George Styles, President B.C. Provincial Command; Dominion First Vice-President Percy Sanford representing President A. H. Wickens, K.C., of Moose Jaw; Major John Heath, M.B.E., M.C., representing Unit 276; Captain Francis Drage, J.P., Fourth Vice-President of the Provincial Command; Henry Warburton, J.P., secretary B.C. Provincial Command, and President Woods of Unit 12, Victoria.

In his service Chaplain Berry stated that Skipper McLeod is not dead, that he is still with us. There is no doubt that the soul of Skipper McLeod still goes marching on.

Children's Swings Receive Council O.K.

GIBSONS—Village Council went on record as completely approving work of the Kinsmen Club in offering to provide swings for children in the municipal playground. Permission to start construction was granted.

A letter received by the club conveys the village thanks for the unit's interest in children.

He contended the economic future of the Peninsula depended to a very large extent on the tourist industry. He, having just returned from a tour of the Northern States, suggested that we are far behind in our promotional campaign. "We must get our message over to the tourist in order for them to even think of coming here," he said.

Grand hotels and expensive auto courts are out of the question. "What we need and what will follow an influx of tourists is economical auto camps where a family can do a little of their own cooking." He compared the activity on the peninsula in the old days when families used to come here for the week, to now, when only a few of the potential many arrive.

"Information and publicity is the answer to our lack of visitors," he claimed. Pointing out that Sechelt could someday become a trading centre he cited the case of Mission City which is now the shopping centre for a great area. He believed the same destiny lay ahead for Sechelt.

Mr Pearson pointed out that many summer homes and homes catering to visitors were not, for the last two years, filled to capacity. He pointed to this as proof of a dwindling trade and urged boosting for an increase.

Reg Jackson took exception to the speaker's contention, when he drew attention to "the prohibitive cost of building camps now."

The garage man recalled his many years in the tourist trade and suggested that building camps was out of the question judging by the present trade potential.

Mr Pearson thought if the flow of tourists was boosted there would be a need for further camps and people with the money backing would then naturally follow.

Outcome of the meeting and discussion was the Board appointing Mr Pearson, Andrew Jackson and Raymond Deacon as a publicity committee, charged with promoting advertising and public relations in connection with tourists.

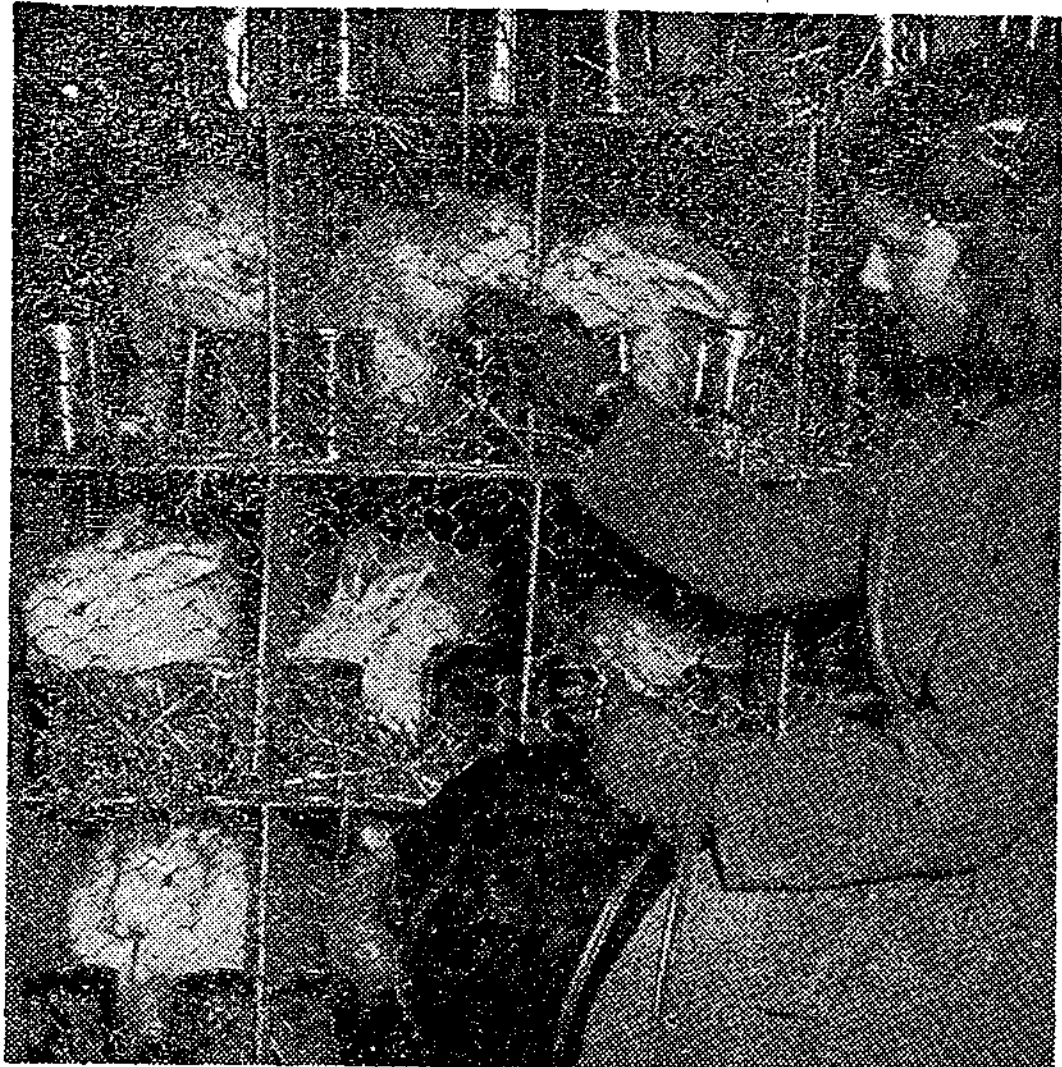

Beaches Will Have Boards

GIBSONS — Recusitation boards will be on the beaches between Pender Harbour and Hopkins Landing by May 24.

This decision was made by the Kinsmen Club when final arrangements for stencilling instructions were made recently.

This culminates a long schedule of effort in which every Kinsman helped. The boards are sturdy in construction and easily operated. Complete instructions as to their use will be posted where every board is placed. The work of conveying them to the various beaches will also be volunteer labor provided by the club.

W. A. Peterson has been in charge of construction throughout.

SIR.—Would you please publish the following.

Miss Velma Cresswell,
Secretary, Gibsons Landing
High School Student Council.
Dear Miss Cresswell,

I was very pleased to receive your letter. It was nice of the students to pass this resolution and I greatly appreciate the thought of your so doing.

The reason I have not written before is that I was waiting to learn the result of the bylaw. I am glad it passed and that you will get your schools.

You will, I am sure, make good use of your new facilities. I am equally sure that it will assist you all in becoming the kind of Canadians that will serve well this country of ours.

There is one thing I would like to say to the students and I know they will take it in the spirit in which it is meant. Education is all important, but even more important is freedom. There are many aspects of freedom, freedom to work as you see fit, freedom to worship as you may, freedom to live as you will, but the most important freedom is freedom of speech. Your fathers and my father fought for that freedom, and our forefathers fought down throughout the countless years for this the greatest of freedoms. Without freedom of speech there is no other freedom, and through freedom of speech agreements can be reached and almost insoluble difficulties solved. Throughout your lives guard well that freedom, it is your greatest heritage. It is your greatest safeguard.

With all my good wishes and may God bless you all,

Sincerely

unique recipe — and especially tasty! It's a type of souffle that never fails. The flavor is out-of-this world. It's colorful too — with chopped red pimiento and chopped green peppers.

It goes well with Chef's Salad, which is our favorite. Use French Dressing to point up the flavor. Serve this combination with Italian bread which has been sliced not quite all the way through in thick slices. Between slices spread the bread with a combination of finely chopped garlic and butter. Heat in the oven until very warm.

MACARONI PUFF

- 1 15-oz. tin cooked macaroni in cream sauce with cheese
- ½ cup soft bread crumbs
- 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper
- 2 eggs, separated
- ¼ teaspoon salt

Combine macaroni, crumbs, pimiento, green pepper and beaten egg yolks. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold into mixture. Pour into greased casserole and bake in a moderate oven (350°F) 45 minutes. Serves 3-4.

These Are Our Opinions

MONDAY, MAY TWENTY-SECOND, NINETEEN FIFTY

Sound Long and Loud

SECHLT Board of Trade has, at long last, taken the first concrete move in what can easily end in prosperity for the Peninsula.

In its three-man publicity committee the Board has the nucleus of a snowball that can build and build until it brings tourists and business here. Headed by ex-newspaper man Ernie Pearson, the committee is already on the right path with plans laid for a map folder which can easily rate with any put out by some of the big-time tourist organs. The committee is being practical about it also—it will cost them little, if anything.

From the springs of Tia Juana on the Mexican border to the glacial parks of Jasper National, the key to business—tourists to us, lies in the spreading of information. What good is it to us, that we on the Peninsula are living on one of the loveliest spots on the coast, and only we know it?

It has long been conceded that the only industry which can really survive on this garden spot of ours is that of the tourist. Tourists go where the appeal is greatest. Do you know where most appeal comes from? From posters, pamphlets and brochures also the greatest of them all, word of mouth.

This Peninsula has taken one or two half-hearted swings at getting out a pamphlet but it always died a natural death—in some cupboard of some committee chairman in some cove along our coast.

The New Sechelt committee is starting right. Even now—the group is only a week old, it is working out ways and means of distributing literature to the tourist world. That is the first thought and the proper one.

If this group is given the proper support there is absolutely no reason why the Sechelt Peninsula should not become as well known as Banff or the Annapolis Valley. We have everything to offer here.

We are rich in rugged beauty and scenic grandeur. Our summer climate is second to none. We are short of hotels and summer camps but they will naturally follow.

It is absolutely useless to sit back and say, "Why get tourists to come here, we have nowhere to put them." Get the summer visitor coming here by the thousands, and hotels and camps will follow. They are natural followers of desire or need.

From Pender Harbour to Hopkins Landing are many homes and private boarding houses which are only too willing to cater to the visitor. And yet, some of these homes, "the majority," Ernie Pearson said, were looking for more trade during the last two years.

Does that mean we need more camps and hotels or does it mean we need more tourists?

Sechelt Board of Trade believe the need is for more visitors.

We believe with the Board of Trade. We will willingly do anything in our power to help the Board achieve its purpose.

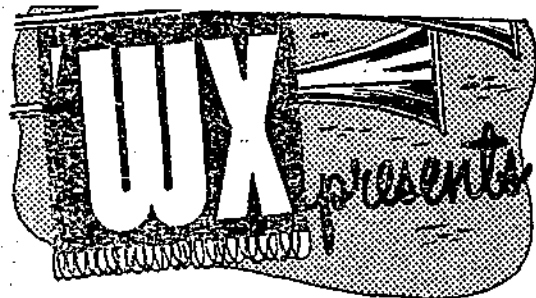

We offer any help we may have — any knowledge we may have — any influence with outside sources — we do have, that will in any way help the committee to put over its story of the beauties and glories of Sechelt Peninsula. We believe, as the committee does, that word must go forth from these hills and valley from dark pitied bays and fiords of Pender Harbour, from the warm, friendly waters of Porpoise Bay, from the Hills beyond the swimming spots at Hopkins Landing, until they strike the ear of every person on this continent who has a dollar to spend on pleasure.

WE ALWAYS feel as though we had a special interest, as if we were responsible or something, when we hear of one of our local children who have made good use of their talents. We are pleased to pass on this information so that many of his friends and school mates will know about it also.

Bobby Aylward, the son of Constable and Mrs. W. Aylward, who went to school here when his father was on this station, has been judged the best boy actor in the drama festival which was open to the schools of central Vancouver Island and held in Duncan last week. Miss Eleanor Hewitt, adjudicator for the department of education, Victoria, was high in her praise of Bobby and said that he would go a long way in the field of drama if he so wished. The winning play was The Ghost Story in which Bobby played the part of George, thereby winning a scholarship to the University of B.C. to the summer school of drama.

Of course Bobby comes by his talent honestly as the saying goes, his mother is an outstanding pianist and a very capable director. We notice that she was director of the P-TA play presented at the festival, and his father, Constable Aylward, is an actor of great ability. The Aylwards were a great loss to us when they left here. However we did get the P-TA started and Mrs Aylward was first secretary. Also we had a very nice girls' choir started which is so ably being carried on with a new group of children. So good for you Bobby. Later on we may be proud to say we knew Bobby Aylward, he went to school here.

Also another boy known to us who has shown ability and will be going places soon is Hugh Creighton, one of the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Creighton, who have their summer home at Selma Park. Hugh is corporal of pages in the legislative assembly in Victoria, and is getting first-hand information on how governments are run in "this country," and very wonderful education for any young boy. He is also the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. W. Youngson.

Ten dollars more was added to the St Hilda's Parish Hall building fund through a social evening at the home of Mrs Thelma Brooker here recently. Those enjoying the evening which was an effort of the De Ponsier circle to raise funds were Mrs T. Brooker, Mrs Jack Redman, Mrs Harry Billingsley, Mrs C. Blanchard, Mrs Laycock with Darlene, Mrs Betty Williams with Margaret, Mrs Duncan McColl, Mrs Jack Nelson, Mrs Ruth Collison, Mrs Ernie Pearson, Miss Beryl McClean and Mrs C. Lucken and Doreen Doyle.

Had a call from Brigadier Gillingham of the Salvation Army known to us for some time. We are very interested in the good works of the Army. Tells us that a campaign for funds will be under way soon on the Peninsula. We help with this every year. It's a good cause, the Army does a lot of good. So watch for a canvasser Won't you and give generously.

Wish more of the residents would support the local movies. Mr and Mrs West are making a good try and giving us a show and the hall it's like Vancouver when the lights are low anyway and the seats are very comfortable but still the same old few faithful fill them. If these young people are to carry on they must get a better attendance. Mr West addressed the audience last week and explained that it costs about thirty-five dollars to run a good picture and when there is a poor attendance he stands a great loss.

A western which a great number of us do not like costs much less and therefore pays better so how about it. Give these young people a break. Mr West is a war veteran and certainly deserves all we can do for him. He surely has tried to help himself.

Winning the prizes at whist were ladies' first, Mrs Geo Taylor; gents' first, Mr F. We very much enjoyed the two plays by the children of the district. The little tots in Mother Goose Isle were lots of fun and the nonchalant attitude of Steve Wheeler had everyone in stitches with laughing. Such a lot of patience must have gone into the training of these little people and Mrs. McColl is to be congratulated on a job well done. Then the Ginger Bread man which was under the supervision of Miss Elsie Turner was very much enjoyed. The singing was very good and Roger Lucken gave a very wonderful performance. His voice was very distinct and heard even at the back of the hall. Carol Forst as the baker's wife and Raymond Stockwell as the baker were very good also. The Queen as portrayed by Diana McColl and the King by Henry Newcomen were really good and the King's Coachman, Henr Stronsheim did his part without a hitch although difficult. The chorus of maids and footmen was outstanding. We do hope we see more of this kind of thing. Mr. Jack Gowan, a capable MC with Mrs. E. Lee at

ROBERTS CREEK

By M. M.

MR. AND MRS. C. A. Shaw have as their guests their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Shaw and their daughter Lexa, who motored out from Winnipeg for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Case have sold their general store to Mr. and Mrs. J. Blott. The new owners will take over at once. We understand that Mr. and Mrs. Blott have had many years' experience in merchandising, and although Roberts Creek will be sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Case and Queenie, we extend a hearty welcome to the newcomers.

A very attractive new house is being built on the Hall Road; it will be occupied, we are told, by Mr. Clemens of New Westminster.

The V.O.N. dance held at the Community Hall last Saturday was well attended. Music was supplied by Chuck and his melody makers.

Among the weekend visitors to Roberts Creek were Mrs. G. Gordon of Vancouver and Mrs. J. H. McIntyre of West Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin McLean have returned to their home at Elphinstone on Beach Avenue for a few weeks before moving permanently to West Vancouver. We are glad to hear Mr. McLean's health is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Robson and small son of Vancouver have rented Mrs. Bernards home on Beach Avenue.

Mr. J. H. Kennedy has returned to his home after a few days in Vancouver. Also noticed returning on the Monday night boat were Mr. and Mrs. Case, Mrs. H. Lincoln and Miss Jerry Jervis.

There seemed to be a large crowd pouring in and out of Mrs. Edmunds home on Tuesday when the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Legion Branch 219 held a rummage sale.

There was a variety of articles on display at bargain prices. Any one so minded could have garbed

"DOCTOR" Tommy Smith is back on duty again this year at the first aid station.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Parrish were here over the week-end, visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Valentine.

There were lots of fishermen out over the week-end, most of them came back with some nice salmon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Collins left on May 18 for a trip to New York to visit with their daughter Betty.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy James were at Abbotsford for a few days, staying with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, and granddaughter.

The beautiful weather brought lots of visitors up on the week-end. Seen were Mr. and Mrs. C. Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Alpen Arthur and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Tudge and Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kinniston, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Jamieson and three daughters, they were visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Collins.

Sorry to learn that our postmaster, Mr. Harry Thompson, is in hospital. Here's to a speedy recovery and home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Show with Marilyn, Don and Eddie were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Dan McLeod.

themselves from the skin out, also refurnished their house. Tea was served in charge of Mrs. Hughes, and a substantial sum realized on the event.

Residents along Beach Avenue are playing "Clap Hands—Postman Comes" these days. A new rural delivery route is being established there. This, along with the new electric lights, will make us superior people up the hill feel not so superior.

APPRECIATION

Your School Board wishes to thank the ratepayers of this School District for reaffirming the recent By-law, the School Representatives, and those who donated their time and cars and assisted in other ways, and especially Mr. J. E. Parker, Mr. Ken Whitaker and Mr. N. R. McKibbin who helped us so ably with publicity.

The Board wishes to assure the ratepayers that the building programme will be expedited with the greatest energy and it is hoped that all schools will be ready for occupancy by September 1951.

The Tommy Davis twins still confined to St. Paul's.

Some very tense moments getting the results of the school by-law voting from all points up the line were spent last Thursday in school board office. It was quite an interesting hour as the results came in. It was close, but no complaints, we have the vote in the affirmative, and that's all that was necessary. Now we will have to wait for the customary one month, then the preliminaries, it will be a while before we can do very much, but the future looks a little more rosy, and hopeful, don't think the folks who voted yes will ever be sorry. Firmly believe that no one will ever have to carry a burden too heavy for them. Somehow these things always work out for the best, and I'm sure deep down many a person who so bitterly voted "No" will one day look with pride on the new buildings. So it would be a fine thing for every one to now get behind the school board, bury their differences, and work for the common good.

It is far better to build good bodies than to mend bad ones.

"COME ON IN, SON, AND

meet the manager!"

When you take over the farm, one of these days, you'll want to talk to him. You can discuss your affairs in a friendly way, as I have done. And you'll find he knows a lot.

He knows we farmers need bank credit—sometimes to put in a crop, sometimes to take off a harvest. If we need market information, he can get it for us.

Remember when we electrified the farm? Our bank manager made me the loan. He's backed us up that way for years, helping us to improve our stock, increase production.

And that's what our bank manager is there for—to help you and me to manage. He's a good man to know.

THE TUMULT and the shouting dies, the captains and the kings depart—and so with the passing of the school bylaw lets all settle down to the business of being friends once again. Mother's Day with its fantastic and ever-growing commercial mockery, has been wrapped up and forgotten for another year. I have passed another milestone, dozens of huge blackfish have been seen cavorting and frolicking in the bay. Once these big fellows get going they put on quite a display. There must be a reason for their appearance down here at this particular time of the year, so, if any of our local fish experts can help out, we would be glad to know why.

I see the Brewers have gone back east, which won't affect Mr. Kennedy in Victoria, because the Brewers I refer to are Percy and his wife. It's hard to figure out where you would like to spend the remainder of your days in retirement, and so, after a look around Wilson Creek and Davis Bay, they have taken a run out eastwards and will decide when and if they return to the coast.

I had a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cottam and their two youngsters. They were just scouting around, making sure of some place to spend a month later on. Jim is crazy over fishing, and spent best part of his time on the water but the steelheads and cut-throats must have known he was around, because they weren't.

Our old friends and ex-neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morley, are spending an early holiday at the home of Mrs. Hill, sister of Harry, renewing old acquaintances and wishing he was back with us again. With the assistance of Mr. Ted Norburn he built his previous home (the Dowling residence). Not bad for two oldsters whose combined ages reach over the 155 mark.

I see our indefatigable community worker, Jack Whittaker, has made still another contribution to the community centre. Through his efforts a machine will be installed at the hall which will enable the members to organize groups to learn square dances. It is hoped many will take advantage of this latest acquisition. The hall will be open to any member at any time they wish, free.

The flashlight pictures taken at a recent whist drive held at the community hall are now finished and those who ordered pictures of their choice please contact Robbie, or apply at the store. There are 100 on hand, but 80 are ordered, so get your order in before it is too late.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyness, parents of Mrs. "Betty" McPeake, who have had a fairly good rest whilst at the bay, have left for home in Enderby.

Just received word from the local sick visiting committee that Mrs. Andy Johnston is steadily improving, although at present confined to bed. We are all pulling for her speedy recovery and hope she will be around very soon.

I noticed "Carola" boarding the Mariner after spending the weekend looking over her "Wonderland" children's summer camp. Mrs. Forst you will remember was advertising manager and also found time to write a column for Roberts Creek in the Coast News (first in the field).

Maybe this is a good time to remind the members of W.C.C.C. to bring in your spare Nabob coupons, or any other such tokens you may have around the house, we can use them all.

The ladies of the Community Centre held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Jack McNutt. I don't know what took place but you can rest assured plans for future social activities were given a good going over by this progressive group.

Mrs. Bert Wright has taken a week off from her household chores to visit her family in Vancouver and expects to be absent about one week. Hope she feels much better when she returns to the bay.

Saw Gael McPeake taking a fresh air course under the watchful eye of mama. Gael has improved greatly from her recent illness. Also good reports from the Norburn household. Mrs. N. is able to spend a couple of hours daily out of her bedroom. Keep it up Ma.

Then on polling day I had the pleasure of a few words with Mrs. Critchell who, despite her recent incapacitation, looks just as well as she says she feels, which of course is good.

This will be the fourth week-end in this month that I have sent in a column of events and happenings at Davis Bay. Up to now it seems they have been consigned to the wastepaper basket. How bad can it get. However, one more splurge and only because I keep thinking each week we shall see something in the press about our little community.

I'd like to tell you of a mishap which occurred a few days ago to Mr. White who, whilst en route to Garden Bay from Vancouver with a payroll, had the misfortune to be confronted with engine trouble in his boat. He drifted back possibly 200 yards when he became caught on the rocks close to the sandbar. His engine gave a final spurt but the propeller came off second best with another rock that wrote "finis" to his present efforts. He jumped over the side almost shoulder deep and tried in vain to push the craft from its position into deeper water. Mrs. B. Wright went down to the waters edge to see what was going on and before she knew, she was being given hundreds of dollars in cash and cheques, also a watch which by this time were sodden with the water, and his wallet looked like a wet rag. She received instructions to dry, which she did in the oven as she laughingly remarked, It's the first time I ever had over a thousand dollars worth of "Doe" in my oven.

The story has a good ending. Everybody was satisfied with the old clothes and underwear which Mr White was forced to borrow from Mr Wright, size didn't matter. Well Jacksons took the boat under their wing and everybody is happy. But should this catch the eye of Mr White he will be glad to know his air-taxi ticket is dried and safely stowed away in case he should need it.

FOR HEALTHY TEETH

Scientific research has discovered methods whereby it is hoped a large percentage of dental decay will be eliminated. But until these new methods have been thoroughly tested and brought into widespread use, one of the best methods of maintaining good dental health is the regular use of the toothbrush. Twice-yearly visits to the dentist are also a "must" for good dental health.

Halfmoon Bay

By MURIEL WELSH

HALFMOON Bay is mourning the passing of one of its best loved residents, Mrs. J. E. King. She is survived by her husband, three sons, James of Kel-sey Bay, Gordon of Gibsons Landing, Donald of Halfmoon Bay, and one daughter Mrs. Doris Rocchio, of Harrison Lake, and six grandchildren. Funeral services conducted by Rev. Green were held at the family residence at noon, May 1, and was attended by her many friends the length and breadth of the Peninsula. Pall bearers were J. Cooper, Ed Pratt, W. Scott, W. Kolterman, J. Burrows and Ed Lewis. Commitment was at Gibsons Landing. The sympathy of the entire Peninsula goes to the bereaved family in their loss of a loving wife and a wonderful mother.

The many beautiful floral tributes gave testimony to the high regard in which the late Mrs. King was held.

The Bingo held at Marian Hall last Saturday evening to help raise funds for the local Auxiliary to the VON, was well attended. In addition there was Cards and a Dutch auction.

Ed Pratt made a wonderful auctioneer and the teapot and child's coat was won by Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Wilf Scott winning the wonderful cake, just in time for Wilf's birthday.

Coffee, tea, pie and ice cream was served under the able con-venership of Mrs. J. Burrows and Mrs. E. McCurdy.

Friends of Mr. Bill Hunter will be sorry to hear that he is under the weather and confined to his bed. He is slated to see his medi-cal man in town some time this week. Chin up, Bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Tait accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Orma Beasley, and grand-daughter Blanche Beasley, are motoring to Kelowna on Wed-nesday next. They will stay with their daughter and family for a couple of months. Glad to report that Orma is much improved since she has been here for a month's holiday.

While here she attended the Grand Chapter Meeting of the Eastern Star held at Roberts Creek on Thursday last.

Wedding bells rang for Miss Pat Berry of West Sechelt on Friday last, when she became the bride of Mr. Alec Gibson who is a direct descendant of the origi-nal owner of Gibsons Landing, B.C.

WHERE DO MANAGERS COME FROM?

A dozen men operate lathes. A dozen clerks stand behind store counters. A dozen stevedores handle freight Sooner or later, one operator, clerk or stevedore is going to demonstrate to management that he is capable of handling more responsibility.

That's his right—his privilege, to try for it if he wishes.

Pretty soon his extra effort is going to bring him promotion, and, as a consequence of promotion he will be provided with further opportunity to prove his worth.

That's where managers come from—from the lathes, the store counters and the ranks of workers generally.

Some stay on the first, third or fifth steps, and do an important job. They are the foremen, superintendents, department heads, buyers. Some still keep going.

The most far-sighted and imaginative climb to the top.

This constant movement of men upward is one reason why Canadian business has an ever-fresh point of view. Some one is always bringing a new idea on up with him.

That's the way our system works. And it's only under a system like ours that initiative and enterprise are given an opportunity to develop. Then everybody benefits.
