LETTERS to editor

Editor: Recent talk in Pender Harbour area concerning the distribution of hampers of food collected by the IWA to be distributed to needy families has resulted in some misconceptions.

Kiwanis pick governor

Harold Wilson, accompanied by his wife, attended the Pacific Northwest Kiwanis Convention at Eugene, Ore., last weekend.

Highlight of the convention was the selection of the convention cities for 1961 at Vancouver and 1962 at Spokane. Monday night some 1200 were served a hot chicken barbecue, complete in half an hour.

Main speakers during the convention were the governor of Oregon and Editor Hoyt of the Denver Post.

The Sunshine Coast Club was signally honored at the Sunday evening opening service at the Methodist Church, when the speaker, Rev. Mr. Foreberg in summing up what makes a good club stated he had visited a great many clubs but had never met such friendly co-operative members as at the Gibsons club. He believes this the greatest asset any club can have, a genuine friendly spirit.

Jack Frost of Scappoose, Ore. was elected governor for the coming year and Charles Longley of Vancouver is the new lieutenant-governor.

This district is the only real International District and shows a healthy growth in new clubs and members.

Name gladioli

"Evangeline" was the name of the delicately beautiful gladioli, grown by John Corlett, that received much comment at Gibsons Garden club gladioli show, held this year in Mr. and Mrs. Webb's spacious garden.

Perhaps the show lacked something in quantity but nothing in quality. Several tall ones were very fine and there were also some fine miniatures.

Following their usual practice the club again agreed to waive the August meeting in favor of their display at the Fall Fair. The begonia raffled at the fair was won by Roderick Moorcroft. Next meeting will be held in United Church Hall at 8 p.m. on Sept. 22.

Hector Macleod

Hector Macleod, 77, a retired printer and prominent worker in the St. John's United church at Wilson Creek, died August 23. He leaves his wife, Margaret; two sons, John H. of Wilson Creek and Robert L. of Vancouver, also a daughter, Ms. Emily Quigley of Roberts Creek.

He also leaves three sisters, 11 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Mr. Macleod was born in Scotland and had lived in Vancouver 13 years before moving to Wilson Creek. He was a member of the International Typographical Union. A private funeral was held August 25 at Graham Funeral Home.

LEAVES FOR ENGLAND

Charles Gosling left about Aug. 14 to the south coast of England. He has passed this information on to the Coast News so his friends will know what has happened to him.

The Johnston twins of Sechelt, sons of Magistrate and Mrs. Andy Johnston were presented with medals for service in the UNEF, the United Nations Expeditionary Force in Gaza, the troubled area between Israel and Egypt. A letter written by Ron which mentions brother Roger described the incident as follows: "Incidentally General Burns presented Roger and I with our medals and pictures were taken of us receiving the UNEF medal. General Burns, a Canadian, is the commander-in-chief of all UN forces and has spent many years in the Middle East."

A continuation of interesting segments from their letters will follow next week. Owing to space being required for Fall Fair results this week the picture above takes the place of this week's article.

Soames has water profit

The annual meeting of the Soames Point Waterworks district, as held at the home of the Carsons, Soames Point, on Sat., Aug. 15. The financial statements for the year ended June 30 showing assets, after depreciation, of $7,967.10 and a surplus of revenue over expenditure of $401.55 were presented to the meeting and approved. This district provides water for all residents between Soames Creek and Hopkins boundary and the system comprises a three inch main, an intake and pump house on Soames Creek and a 9,000 gallon tank at an elevation of 180 feet on the hill behind the creek.

A new trustee, Mr. Doug Court was elected for a three year term to take the place of Mr. Geoff Trant who resigned after serving in the capacity for 12 years. Mr. Trant was responsible for organizing the district and has also served as manager for the same period. The meeting accepted his resignation with regret and expressed sincere thanks for his services.

The three trustees, Mr. Dale, Mr. Wicklund and Mr. Court were empowered to appoint a new manager and, at a later meeting, Mr. E.D. Hoops, who has served for the last two years as honorary treasurer, was appointed manager. Mr. T. Humphries was appointed honorary auditor and Mr. Leonard of Granthams, maintenance man.

It was reported to the meeting that improvements were urgently needed at the intake and that a new tank should be installed without delay and the meeting gave its approval for the trustees to arrange for these improvements to be made as quickly as possible and, if necessary, to borrow funds for the purpose.

Boy drowns

An inquest will be held Wednesday night at RCMP headquarters in Sechelt into the drowning of 18 year old John Fraser Watson of West Vancouver. He was fishing off the Porpoise Bay wharf with his younger sisters aged 10 and 7 who saw him fall in. They ran for help. Artificial respiration over a period of three hours was without success. He was summering in Sechelt with his mother, Mrs. Constance Watson and sisters. The two sisters, Christy and Lynn ran to the nearest help and Laddie Taylor responded and after diving, he recovered the body.

Sechelt area aids firemen

The fire chief and members of the Sechelt Volunteer Fire Brigade thank residents of West Sechelt, Selma Park, East and West Porpoise Bay and to business firms in these areas who so generously responded to their recent drive for funds.

The amount raised was in excess of $700 which reflects a considerable improvement over the amount raised last year. With the addition of the grant from the Village of Sechelt the firemen hope to be able to build a hose tower, purchase new equipment and cover their operating expenses for another year.

Fire Chief Parrish is at present on leave of absence and Assistant Chief Robilliard is acting chief.

During the past seven months the brigade has responded to eight calls and with one exception all fires were extinguished without damage. During this period there were three calls for the inhalator and five calls for the ambulance which was recently donated by the Sechelt Kinsmen Club.

In order to partially meet the cost of operation the following scale of charges has been authorized for the ambulance. Twenty cents per mile and $1.50 per hour for the driver. The same charge is made for an attendant is one is required.

DIVERS FIND MOTOR

Bob Nygren and Mike Fromager of Peninsula Divers recovered an outboard motor at Gospel Rock. It belonged to Jacob Kunz, of Mission City. His boat capsized on Derby Day.

Imposter to be interviewed

The world's most notorious imposter, who once performed major surgery as a bogus medical officer aboard a Canadian destroyer, is now engaged in what he calls "the greatest caper of them all."

Ferdinand Waldo Demara Jr., who seldom uses his own name, will interrupt this latest piece of rascality and come out of hiding for a brief appearance on CBC "Close-Up" Wednesday, Sept. 2 at 10 p.m.

FDT on the CBC television network.

The interview was filmed in an undisclosed city in the United States. Demara did not discuss his present activities but somewhere, probably in the United States, a big, cheerful, hard-working man is not what he seems to be.

Demara tried to explain to Pierre Berton why he has impersonated, with sometimes extraordinary success, Catholic priests, doctors, prison reform-

Now it can be told --

The fancy dress and pet parade, a part of this year's Sunshine Coast Fall Fair on Saturday afternoon almost had a performance which would have been outstanding.

But — and there was a big but involved. Two of the performers refused to go along with the idea and did as little as they could to co-operate. It started when Cloe Day and brother-in-law Hugh Cameron from Calgary with other assistance strived to get three donkeys to the scene of the pet parade. They tried to get Ma, Carmen, and Pa, Don Jose, along with their new son, Pompelung to the scene of the crime that was to be committed. Ma and Pa objected so strenuously the perpetrators had to renounce their scheme. Pompelung went along quietly in the station wagon available.

The scheme which was foiled, was to have Carmen and Don Jose, well used to making noises at specified times to give their performance by helping Piper Eric Thomson.

Those present know what happened. Piper Thomson had the field all to himself and he played his pipes unmolested, victor with his head unbowed.

LICENSE EXAMINER

It was announced that the examiner for drivers' licenses from the Motor Vehicle Branch will be at the Legion Hall in Sechelt from August 24 to 28 inclusive.

FALL FAIR DRAW

Fall Fair door prize winning numbers were Blue (Friday) 231 and Red (Saturday) 193. There is a $10 prize on each of these ticket numbers so the holders of them can phone Mrs. M. LeFeuvre at Gibsons 95F and claim their prize.

ers and college officials.

His most startling imposture was his eight-month career at a surgeonlieutenant in the Royal Canadian Navy, during which he served as medical officer on a destroyer and performed emergency operations on several South Korean soldiers while the ship was patrolling off the coast of Korea. Demara was unmasked after newspaper in Canada carried stories of his heroism and his charity work in a Korean village.

Chronic patient care

Talk in British Columbia about hospital for chronic cases recalls to mind that this problem is by no means new in hospitalization. Some eight or nine years ago, Dr. F.D. Mott, who had a great deal to do with the organization of the Saskatchewan Hospital Services Plan, which predated the B.C. plan by some few years expressed his views on the situation of the chronic patient and hospitals.

He maintained something would have to be done about the chronic patient in order that hospital beds could be freed for use of patients who really needed hospital care.

Chronic patients usually require some attention but not necessarily the full equipment and staff of a big hospital. They could be placed in a type of hospital where the minimum care they need could be supplied at much less cost.

Recalling the Saskatchewan situation at the time Dr. Mott was in that province on behalf of the Rockefeller Foundation, the general complaint was that doctors having no place to put chronic patients of necessity ordered them to expensive hospitals where they occupied costly bed-space in a condition which was described as overcrowded.

Much the same is occurring in British Columbia. The doctor can hardly be blamed for protecting himself and his patient by ordering the patient for hospital regardless of overcrowding. If there were facilities available where chronic patients could be taken care of, possibly the pressure on bed space and the need for building more and larger hospitals could be eased.

What is the reason for the governmental hospital authorities in British Columbia fighting shy of a system which would in the long run cut hospital expenses and save the taxpayer some money?

Who caught who off base?

The action of Premier Bennett in judging the report of Shrum Royal Commission into B.C. Power Commission matters before its general release is in keeping with his unorthodox methods of governing.

Usual practice is for governments to issue the report and let the judging of it rest with other than those people vitally concerned. True, the people concerned have an interest in the report but it would be in better taste if others formed their own opinion, rather than have an opinion expressed for them, even by a premier.

Premier Bennett's action in offering his judgement coupled with the manner in which he apparently used part of it to prove a point has resulted in discounting his version among people who prefer to do their own thinking. His keenness in striving to prove H. Lee Briggs as the chief culprit is not fair to Mr. Briggs or to the power commission and its users. Mr. Briggs is recognized as one of the top men in Canadian electric power circles and his appointment to the federal energy board is in no sense a political appointment any more than the appointment of James Sinclair to the B.C. energy board.

In commenting on opposition leaders' remarks of the premier's interpretation, Mr. Bennett said they resorted to one of the oldest political dodges, the one that says when caught off base, cry foul. Is it possible the report caught Mr. Bennett off base and he is crying foul in his own peculiar fashion?

Anglican Prayer book revision to be studied

Two of the six and a half days of the 20th session of the General Synod of the Anglican Church of Canada will be occupied with examination of the first complete revision of the Prayer Book since the Anglican Church accompanied the early settlers from the British Isles to Canadian shores.

The synod meeting will be held at Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Que., from Sept. 1 to Sept. 9.

A partial revision of the English Prayer Book of 1662, begun in 1911, has been in use by Canadian Anglicans since 1922, but it was recognized that this first Canadian edition of the Book of Common Prayer was only the first step towards providing worshippers with a service book suitable to modern times.

Since 1943 a Prayer Book Revision Committee has worked over the book from cover to cover. In 1955 an unfinished draft was presented to the last General Synod, which gave it general approval, and referred it back to the committee for completion of the work.

The aim of the revision, according to the preface of the 1959 draft, "has been to set forth an order which the people may use with understanding and which is agreeable with Holy Scripture and with the usage of the primitive Church" — without making any alterations which would imply any change in the doctrine of the Church.

The revision has brought the language of the Prayer Book closer to modern everyday use. On the whole both regular and occasional services will tend to be briefer. The provision for the ministry to the sick includes forms for laying-on-of-hands and anointing. Brides no longer have to promise to obey their husbands.

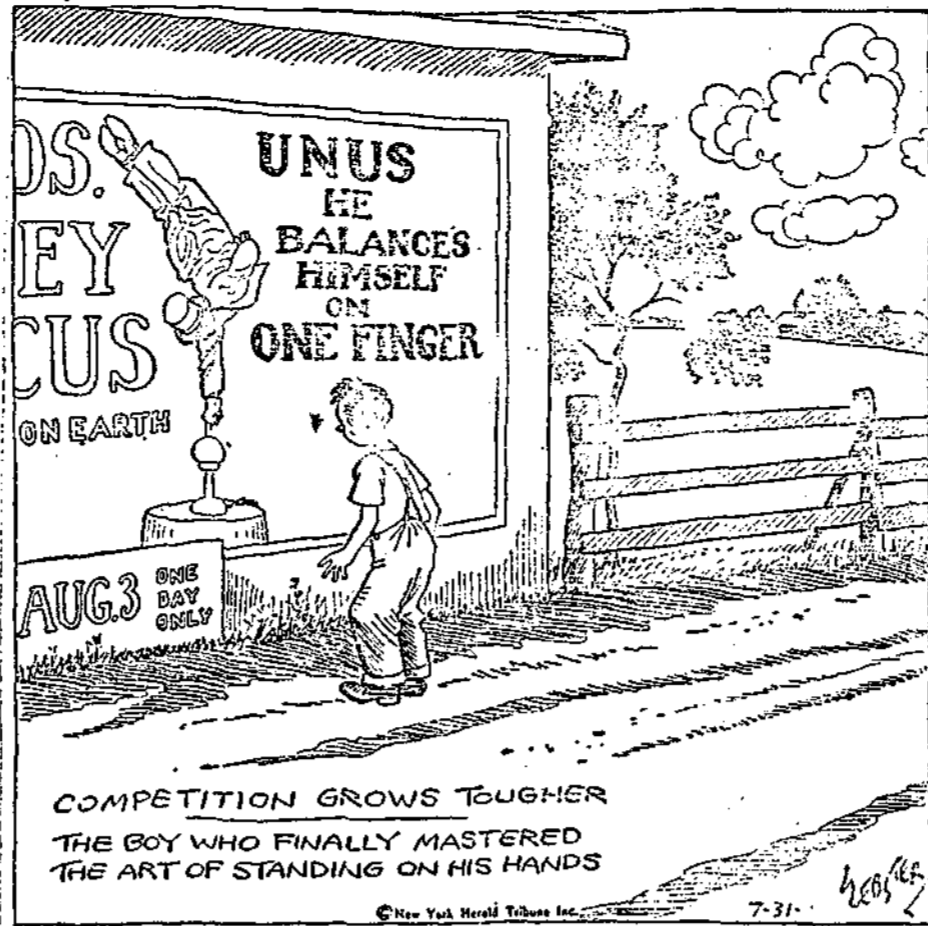

At the 1955 General Synod it was suggested that a change in doctrine was implied by the use of certain phrases in the consecration prayer in the Communion service, and by the provision of explicit optional prayers for the dead in the burial office.

The questioned phrases in the consecration prayer have been altered, but the prayers for the dead remain.

In a statement on Prayer Book Revision, Rt. Rev. Howard Clark, Bishop of Edmonton, who is chairman of the Central Revision Sub-Committee, said "In view of the fact that such intercessions are found in every recent revision except the Irish, they may be considered not so much a change in the doctrine of the Church as a development in its practice. The fact is that neither in the Church of England nor in the Anglican Communion as a whole, has there been an official declaration for or against such intercessions."

In several other cases changes proposed in 1955 have been abandoned.

Life's Darkest Moment

Letters to the editor

Editor: For some years we have enjoyed and appreciated the friendly atmosphere engendered by the permanent residents of Gibsons and the welcome given on our return each summer.

It is quite impossible to convey individually our sincere gratitude and appreciation to all the many permanent and summer residents on the occasion of our recent fire on Tuesday, August 18. We feel most indebted to the early morning fisherman for the alacrity with which he roused the family and neighbors and we are sure that we speak for all the nearby residents on the beach when we single out the work of the Gibsons Volunteer Fire Services for particular praise. In addition we would like to express similar sentiments to all those who worked so hard to save our belongings and to prevent spread of the fire to neighboring houses and property. The early arrival of the representative of the Canadian Red Cross Society was to us, concrete evidence of the practical aid given by this organization in time of disaster.

We would like to say to one and all "Thank you for a magnificent effort." It is most gratifying at such a time to realize the spirit of neighborly cooperation and friendliness which exists in this area.

Grant assists radio series

Vancouver radio station CKWX has made a grant of $8,000 to the University of British Columbia to develop and broadcast a series of experimental radio programs.

The communications division of the UBC extension department, headed by Alan Thomas, will produce the series over a period of eight months beginning in September in co-operation with CKWX.

Arrangements for the grant to UBC were made by the late F. H. Elphicke, former manager of CKWX. The Leon and Thea Koerner Foundation has also made a grant to the extension department to support the series.

Active planning of the programs, which will explore the character of modern city life, has begun under the direction of Bill Ballentine, a UBC graduate and former president of the UBC radio society.

The series will include documentaries, music programs, round table discussions and reports of current and civic affairs. News and reviews of Vancouver theatre, radio and television productions will be included as well as book reviews.

Original creative material by Vancouver authors, composers and artists will also be broad-

What does Acadia mean?

The name Acadie (in English Acadia) was given by France to her Atlantic seaboard possessions in the New World. The origin of the name has never been definitely traced. Indians of the Abnaki, Malecite and Micmac bands inhabited this area and the name is not unlike others of Micmac parentage. The map compiled by Gestaldi in 1548 showed the territory as Larcadie and after 1604 when the first settlement was established, it was normally referred to as Acadie.

Who was the first Manitoba Chief Justice to be born in that province?

The present chief justice — the Hon. John E. Adamson. Mr. Adamson was born at Nelson (now Morden), Man., in 1884, and received his education in local public schools and at St. John's College, University of Manitoba. He was called to the provincial bar in 1910 and practised law until 1922. When he was appointed a justice of the Manitoba Court of King's Bench in 1922, he was the first native son of the province to achieve this honor. In 1948 he was elevated to the Court of Appeal and in January 1955 he became the first native Manitoban to serve as chief justice of the province.

When did the first Canadian coins appear?

The first Canadian coins, silver 5-sol and 15-sol pieces, were struck in 1670 by Louis XIV of France for his colonies in North America. The 15-sol piece has become one of the rarest of all Canadian coins and today is worth about $600. The first official Canadian coins to be produced in Canada appeared in 1908, the year the mint was established in Ottawa. Before that, all Canadian coins since the conquest had been struck at either the Royal Mint at London or the Heaton Mint in Birmingham, England.

cast. New techniques for report-cultural activities will be explored, Mr. Thomas said.

A number of correspondents, many of them UBC graduates, currently living in overseas centers, have agreed to act as correspondents for the series and to send taped documentary reports for broadcast.

The correspondents, located in such centers as Berlin, Vienna, Singapore, Hong Kong, London and Hamburg, will compare civic development in those centers with that of Vancouver.

Mr. Thomas said program directors would attempt to build a continuous relationship with the audience by encouraging suggestions for programs. "We also hope to set up a board of advisers representing political, religious, business and professional organizations," he added. The new series is part of the ing civic affairs and presenting expanding communications division of the UBC extension department. Several courses in communications were given as part of the summer school of the arts. Courses included speech for broadcasting and a film production course directed by CBC Television producer Ron Kelly.

Roberts Creek items

By Mrs. M. Newman

Mr. and Mrs. R. Johnson are visiting their daughters Mrs. M. Pozzobon, Kamloops, and Mrs. D. Eden, Watch Lake. Returning next week, they will be accompanied by their daughter Eileen, who has been the guest of her sisters during the summer vacation.

Ruthie Phare suffered bruises and a broken arm when she fell from a window in her home, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chappelle and children arrived at their summer cottage here winding up a summer of travel which took them across Canada. Returning through the U.S. they reached Yellowstone Park the night of the recent earthquake and but for Mrs. Chappelle's fear of bear, would have camped with the group of campers who lost their lives in the slide. They made their camp in another part of the park and suffered only a rude shaking.

Children of Roberts Creek school are reminded that the Credit Union Lady, Mrs. R. Johnson, will be on hand Wednesdays as usual to collect their Credit Union savings. To date the local children have done extremely well in building funds for a rainy day.

Miss Rosella Wright has returned to Vancouver after spending the weekend as the guest of Mrs. H. Galliford.

Vacationing in their cottage on Beach Avenue are the John Richardsons of West Vancouver, where Mr. Richardson is a municipal councillor. Also on vacation are their daughter and her husband, the Edgars, with their three children. Mr. Edgar is the principal of Pauline Johnson school.

Mrs. Janet Munn has had to give up her duties in the Robert Stephen home and enter St. Mary's Hospital. Mr. Stephen is visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. Leek.

The Gilbert Funnells, back from an inland trip, report they visited Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Campbell and found them both well and both sorry they left Roberts Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Pike also were recent visitors at the Campbell home in Summerland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fellowes and family have arrived to spend the remainder of the summer at their home here.

Miss Sheila Smith was a weekend visitor at the Creek.

After spending two weeks with friends along the Coast, Mr. and Mrs. B.L. Trent and family have returned to Penticton.

TOTEM FLASHES

Totem sellers very busy last week running up and down hills with anxious buyers looking at our view properties. This week demands they look at something more on level, till strength renewed. Meantime they like to show you this semi-waterfront 2 bedroom house. Owner demands action, $1,000 down will keep him out of our hair and down your neck for the balance.

Remember!!! You have a date for August 30th. Everyone will be there. Sunshine Guaranteed.

Back to school special — two family duplex. Share the bath-room, fight with your neighbor. Monthly revenue is worth the $750 it costs for possession. Full price is $11,500, easy payments. Owner is easygoing and will consider your offer.

One SQUARE ACRE, near the crossroads, no better investment for your future. Low taxes, low price, $475.

BIG Chief Totem back on job with many new ideas from other reservations. Found selling SUNSHINE COAST at very high rate of interest, sound investment, VERY EASY.

The FISH are REALLY BITING at Northwest Bay — catch them at your doorstep. Level acre fronting on the bay. It's different, nothing fishy about the price though. $2395.

WOODWORKERS - be your own boss, be in the chips, sell to the natives and tourists. Woodworking shop, new house and 19 acres on the main highway. Only $1,000 down, and you're in business.

16 acres on the main highway just out of Gibsons. DIVIDE AND CONQUER. It's wooded and level, it's a bargain at $3500. Owner removing timber as his dividend.

ITEMS OF INTEREST: only 3/4 inch rain in July, same so far in August — A PLEASANT SUMMER.

Great future in store for Roberts Creek, and $650 will give you a 5 acre chunk of it. Mind you, it's a little out of the way, but the price is right.

Brand new ULTRA MODERN HOME on the waterfront at Welcome Beach. Down to the last detail in everything. Its beautiful setting suits us to a "T." How about you? At tractively priced too.

Here are these darn two lots again. We never give up but we are tired of looking at them. Why they did not sell last week for $900 we will never know. They have water, they have view. OKAY — owner says $875 for quick sale.

Of interest to the Coast and Kootenay's, was the marriage of Mabel Lillian Conrad, and Ernest Whitman Preiss, on Saturday, August 15th, at the home of the bride's cousin Mr. V. G. Reynolds, Rev. D. Donaldson of Gibsons officiating.

The bride is the daughter of George J. Conrad and the late Mrs. Conrad of Balfour, B.C. and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Preiss of Vancouver.

The bride wore an off-white brocade sheath dress and matching accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis. For something old the bride wore an amethyst and pearl Lavelier belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Clara Reynolds, who returned from Bermuda to attend the wedding. The maid of honor, Miss Olive Grant, wore a sheath of blue silk shantung accented by a corsage of pink roses.

The best man was Gil Reynolds of Vancouver and the toast to the bride was proposed by James Miller of Vancouver.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a green linen sheath dressmaker suit, green hat, off-white accessories and a corsage of red roses and stephanotis. After a motor trip to the States and the Kootenays, the couple will reside in Port Mellon.

The maid of honor, Miss Dorcen Hermanson, was charming in a model gown of white silk sprinkled with pink roses. Styled with harem skirt and sashed in deeper pink, with matching floral head band, her bouquet of carnations matched the deep pink of her sash. The flower girl, Francesca Moore, was dainty in her soft pink frock and wreath of roses in her hair, her bouquet was a miniature of the bride's.

Mrs. Fleming chose a smart afternoon gown in navy blue for her daughter's wedding, her accessories were white with tiny blue chapeaux, her corsage red roses. The groom's mother, Mrs. Clayton's gown was avocado green with beige hat and accessories, complimented with a corsage of yellow roses. Best man was Keith Dunlop, ushers Bernard Heskings and Laurie Carlson.

FIRE HAZARD

whether on the highway or in the woods - BE CAREFUL!

A carelessly dropped match, cigarette, or even pipe tobacco ash can lay waste to a forest that took a hundred years or more to grow — require another century to replace.

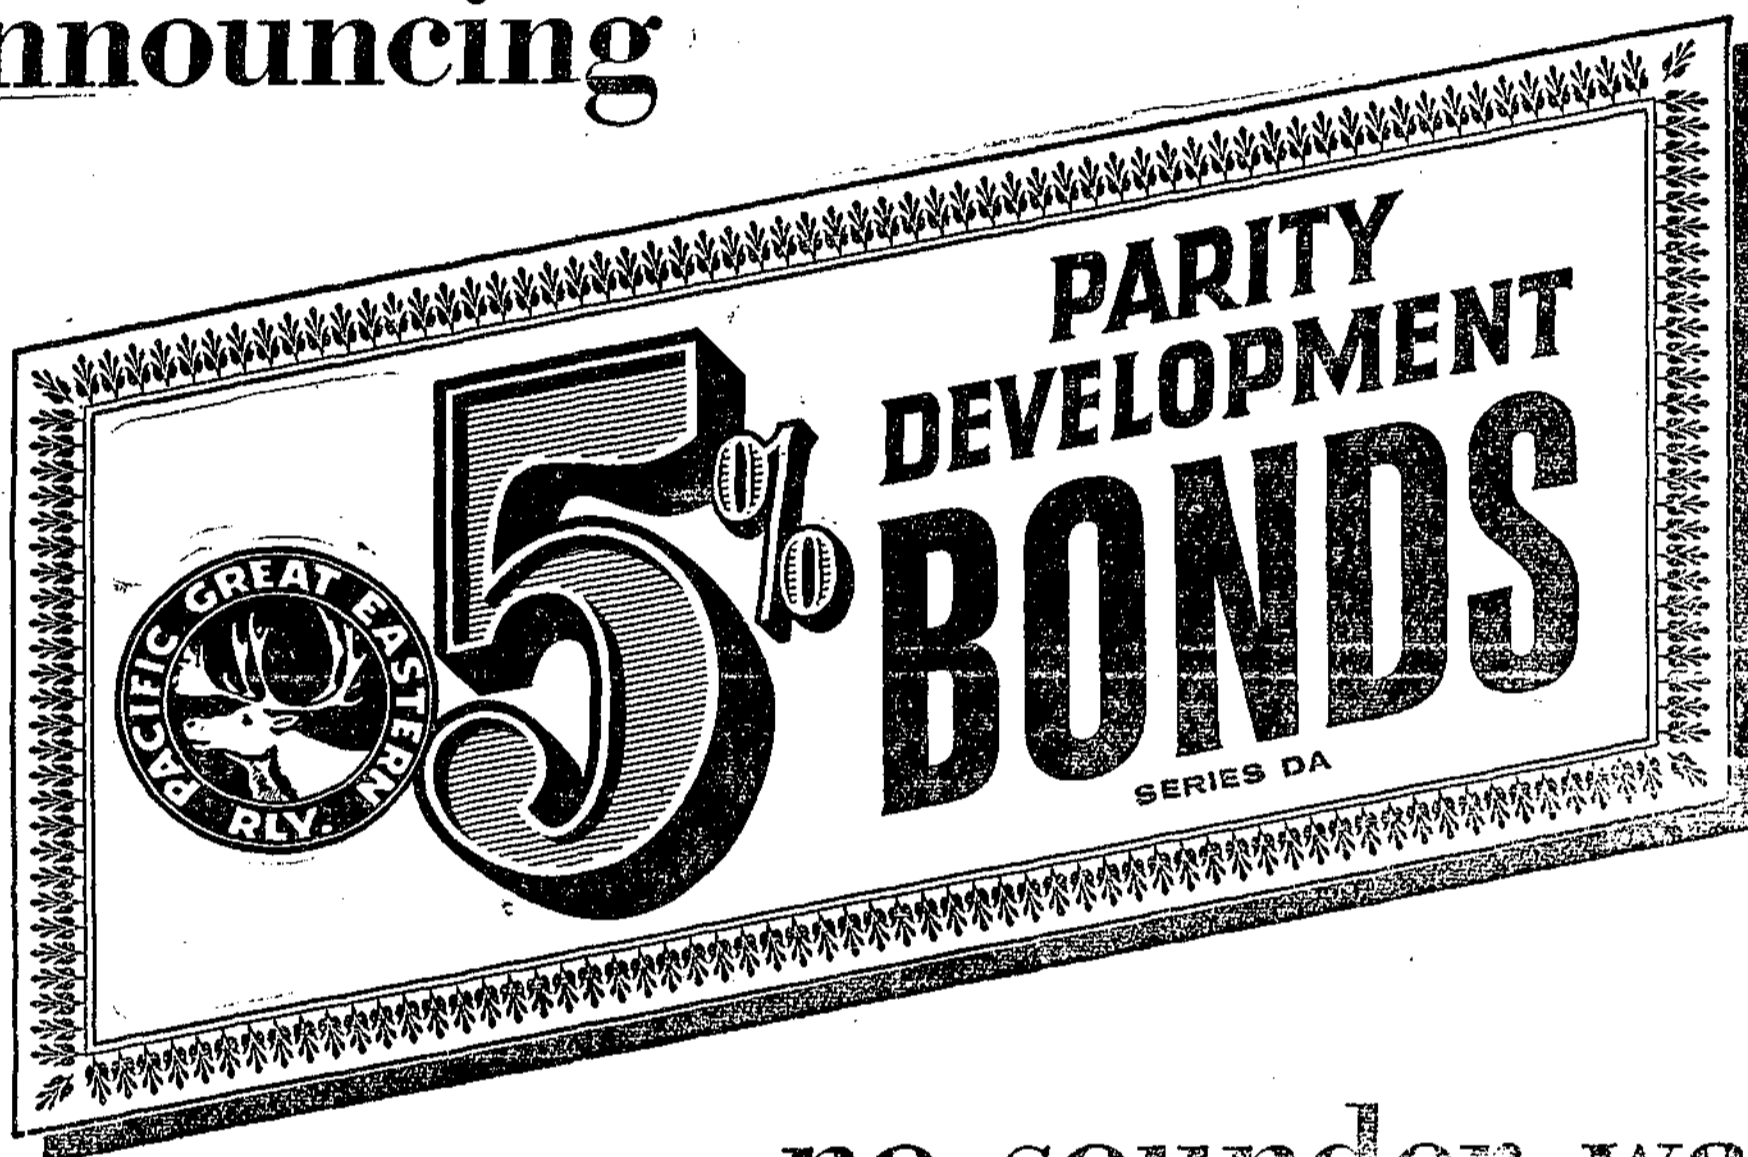

In this area only a prolonged rainfall will lessen the extremely hazardous condition.

So when woods travel is restricted because of fire danger — help protect lives and jobs — observe the closure regulations.

Halfmoon Bay notes

By PAT WELSH

There is a tree shaded trail between Redroofs and Halfmoon Bay. Just past the bridge there is a small clearing on the right hand side. Beside the path is a black painted piece of board. Painted in white letters is the caption "Aldergrove Animal Cemetery." Looking upwards one sees a white cross, about two feet high nailed to an old tree stump, beneath it is another piece of board painted black and lettered in white is the Lord's Prayer. In several crevices of the stump are tiny white crosses. Upon questioning some small boys playing nearby the writer learned that a hummingbird flew through a boat window, and, terribly lacerated, the tiny bird died. A teenager found it and gave it burial. Thus Aldergrove Animal Cemetery was founded.

The two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Robinson of Halfmoon Bay were christened by Canon Alan Greene, D.D., on Aug. 18. David Earl were the names bestowed on the two year old elder son, Donald John on the younger. Godparents for both boys were Mr. C. Ayer uncle of the boys, while their grandfather, Mr. Gordon Ayer of Kitimat stood proxy for Miss Dorothy Gray, a friend of Mrs. Robinson's who is holidaying in California.

There was a family tea after the ceremony with a christening cake. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Robinson of Middle point, paternal grandparents and Mr. Gordon Ayer, maternal grandparent, of Kitimat and Mr. C. Ayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Spence and twin daughters Donna and Doreen are guests of the Archie Rutherford's and Louise. Mrs. Spence is Mrs. Rutherford's sister. They flew here from Ottawa and will return home this weekend.

Mrs. Ethel Edwards, formerly of Dauphin, Man., now resident of Vancouver, weekended with the Frank Lyons at Irishman's Cove. Mr. and Mrs. Alan Greene were the weekend guests of Canon and Mrs. Alan Greene, D.D. Mr. and Mrs. Russell weekended with Mrs. Russell's parents the Bill Thoms. Mrs. Russell is the former Gerry Thom. The Russells are leaving for Burns Lake next week where Mr. Russell will teach. The cruisers Lodestar and Cappen with Mr. and Mrs. W. Vaughan, Ronnie, Bob and Doug, Mr. and Mrs. W. Jones and Mr. F. Bacon, aboard spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Macdonald and family who occupy the Ken Argue cottage at Redroofs.
