Fire aid revived

An effort will be made to interest outside points in the use of the Gibsons fire department in areas which want to organize for such purpose.

The subject was brought up by Commissioner Ballentine at Tuesday's Village Commission meeting when he intimated he would try and line up Soames Point district and others interested if they would make their intentions known.

The village clerk was requested to arrange for the purchase of property one mile off the North road and about two miles from Gibsons for the purpose of using it as a garbage disposal area.

This area has been inspected by members of the village commission and found to be suitable.

The problem of fireworks was discussed briefly and some sort of bylam mill be explored for the purpose of controlling them.

Mr. G. Fahrni, chairman of the school board discussed the sewage problem at the schools in Gibsons. Involved was the construction of a sewer from the school area down the School road to the shoreline below Marine Drive and along to an outlet north of the Bal Block.

Accounts totalling $1,272.35 were reviewed and ordered paid This amount was divided between roads, $1,064.47 and thewater department, $207.88

Considerable discussion arose during committee reports on the handling of the Recreation Commission. Commissioner Crowhurst, reporting on the last meeting of the Recreation Commission said the way it operated was "amazing". No proper minutes were kept and everything was done in a haphazard way. It was suggested by Commissioner Ballantine that the matter be drawn to the attention of the Rereation Commission headquarters but no action was taken.

Fred Bunyan

Fred Bunyan, aged 19 years was found dead on Monday evening Oct. 29. in his father's home at Gibsons.

Fred came to Gibsons with his family when he was 8 years of age. He had attended school here, and in 1955 joined the Canadian Navy,

Early in his training, he suffered head injuries in a fall. He was invalided home. Since then he has worked on the Peninsula and until a week ago worked for the T. Eaton Company in Vancouver.

He leaves his father, Capt. John Bunyan of Blackball Ferries, his mother a young brother John and a young sister Susan.

The funeral service was held in the Anglican Church, ST. Bartholomew's, at 2 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 1.

Halfmoon Bay

The Badminton Club is in full swing at Halfmoon Bay with a record number of members playing each week. The junior group are shaping up well under the direction of Mr. Doug Foley.

Mr. and Mrs. Dill Grundy have returned after a two week visit to Vancouver.

Mrs. Bride Hare. long time resident of Halfmoon Bay died in Victoria last week. She leaves her husband William Hare, and one brother Jim, in London, England. Mrs. Hare born near Dublin, Ireland never lost her soft Irish brogue, and will be missed by the community. Her lovely garden will remain as a memorial.

Official Centennial symbol is released

The official symbol of the B.C. Centennial committee was released today for use by all B.C. newspapers and local Centennial groups to indicate official responsibility for making 1958 B.C.'s "biggest year ever."

It is hoped all the 91 weekly and 11 daily papers in the province will adopt the official crest for masthead use during Centennial year. It will be carried on all official documents also. The crest is protected by Legislative Act and may only be used with written permission of the B.C. Centennial committee. Any unauthorized use is subject to penalties provided by the act.

Reason for the crest go deeper than mere advertisement. An every centennial celebration, jubilee, coronation celebration or other all - encompassing event, counterfeit activities have shown up.

The official crest will guard against such things as merchants mistakenly buying advertising in souvenir publications which are actually in no way connected with official planning for the 1958 100th birthday of the province.

The dignified crest does its big job in a simple manner. Cyril Connorton, artist foreman at the Queen's Printer, was asked to submit some proposed designs to the committee. After a dozen false starts he arrived at the design chosen by the committee. Every line bespeaks the province it represents.

"The trees," said Mr. Connorton, "are our heritage. The water is symbolic of the seacoast and our mountains are shown too. The initials B.C. are on top, they can't be played too highly, and the dates of our first hundred years are also shown prominently."

All these surround the provincial emblem of the crown and Union Jack above a glowing sun.

OES plans sale of work

A harbinger of Christmas and gift giving is the Order of the Eastern Star Tea and Sale of Work, Nov. 9 at the School Hall in Gibsons.

Dozens of attractive articles for the home and Christmas tree will be on the fancy work counter where Mrs. Zoe Eades and Mrs. G. Cumming and their co–workers will be kept busy. Mrs. Doris Drummond will have her assortment of cards and fancy wrapping needs, while co-conveners Mrs. M. Newman and Mrs. M. Swan and staff will have a selection of home cooking.

Members have combed their homes and attics with a fine comb to arrive at the varied assortment of articlesfor Mrs. E. Wardil's stall, and the Post Office operated by Mrs. O. Skinner should prove amusing.

An attractive walking handkerchief rack will be Mrs. J. Stewart, a decoration piece vying with the other decorations fashioned by the skilful hands of Mrs. V. Smales. Delicatesan conveners will be Mrs. E. Wakefield and Mrs. A. Gordon Mrs. E. Moscrip will be in charge of the kitchen and Mrs. C. Coe the tea tables. A fruit cake made by Mrs. K. Franski will be raffled by Mrs. H. Lau and other raffles by Mrs. D. Jonas. Mrs. M. Truman made the posters.

Mrs. R. Kolterman will be at the door and Mrs. C. Anderson, candies. The worthy matron, Mrs. M. McColl will be on hand towelcome the guests and to introduce a member from Grand Chapter who will open the affair, which is convened hy Mrs. Leslie Jackson with co-convener Mrs. K. Franski.

Tea planed

At the last meetnig of the Headlands Service Club in the home of Mrs. Adams, plans were laidfor a Chrysanthemum Tea in the United Church Hall Nov. 22. A home cooking and delicatessen table will include a specialty of home made mincemeat.

Wisning ticket on the raffle of the ladies' sweater and dressed doll will be drawn on Sat., Nov. 17.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Granl

Social held at church

The United Church Hall, tastefully decorated with Autumn leaves and late fall flowers, was the scene of a happy social evening, Wednesday, Oct. 17, by members of the Women's Association.

Guests were served dessert with tea or coffee, and enjoyed a social hour with old friends and making new ones.

Mrs. Jules Manil, convener of the program committee, arranged a varied program. Rev. D, Donaldson was chairman.

Contributors to the program were: Contralto solos, Mrs. S. Potter; duet, Mr. and Mrs. Burritt; solos by Mr. and Mrs. Burrit; accordion solo, Danny Secord; violin solo, Donald Ritchey: solos by Mr. Atlee and Mrs. Vernon; piano solos by Lynn Vernon; and accompanists were Mrs. Atlee, Mrs. Hazel Evans, and Lynn Vernon.

Mr. Humphries expressed thanks of the Women's Association to the artists. Mr. N. MacKenzie thanked Mrs. Manil for arranging the program.

SISTERS' HOMES ABLAZE SAME STREET SAME DAY

Prompt action by neighbors saved the homes of two Sechelt sisters from total destruction by fire last Tuesday, when the J. Lumsden and R. Clarke homes close to each other took fire about 2½ hours apart.

Jack Redman noticed the fire at the Lumsden home, and ran to a neighbor to phone the fire department.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Middlemas, who had heard Jack at the Lumsden house, ran over. They broke a window pane and pushed a garden hose into the living room and sprayed water until thearrival of the fire brigade. There was considerable fire damage to the interior of the house, and much smoke and water damage to the contents. Friends were prompt with assistance. and the living room had been greatly repaired and even repainted by Friday. An electric iron left on is believed to be the cause of the fire.

The Ray Clarke home took fire from the basement furnace and again neighbors discovered the fire and turned in an alarm. Both the Lumsdens and the Clarkes had been at Mrs. Morrison's for dinner. Ray Clarke was in Vancouver awaiting admittance to hospital for surgery at the time.

The fire department, which had but shortly returned the truck to its garage, were promptly on the scene. They were hampered in their work by the presence of so many cars and onlookers, but they did succeed in putting out the fire. The moke and water damage was also bad in the Clarke home.

Insurance was carried on the Clarke home by the owner, but none on the contents. The Lumsdens had no insurance.

Library needs help

Help is wanted!

No money goes with the job but there are ompensations. If you can talk convincingly enough you might catch the imagination of some child and open a new world to it. If you like children and like telling stories to children, you are needed.

The place where this interesting work is done is in the Gibsons Public Library and the time would be Saturday mornings. The audience would be children waiting to hear a story — a story which could leave them quite happy.

Last winter Mrs. McKibbin and Mrs. Wortman aided by Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Lowden and Mrs. Propp kept the children happy. This season Mrs. McKibbin started the story sessions last Saturday but some assistance is required as there are two sections, one up to eight years and the other from eight years old up.

Girl Guides start season

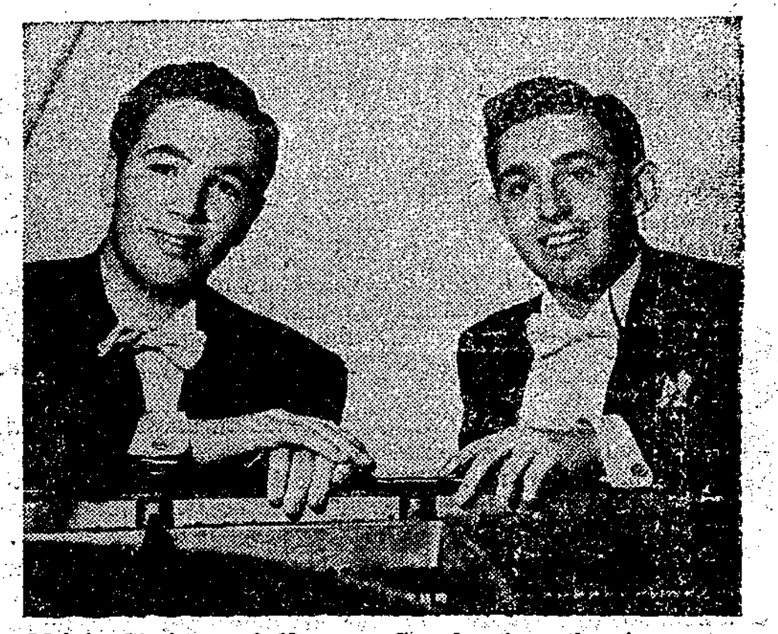
by Irene Stronstad

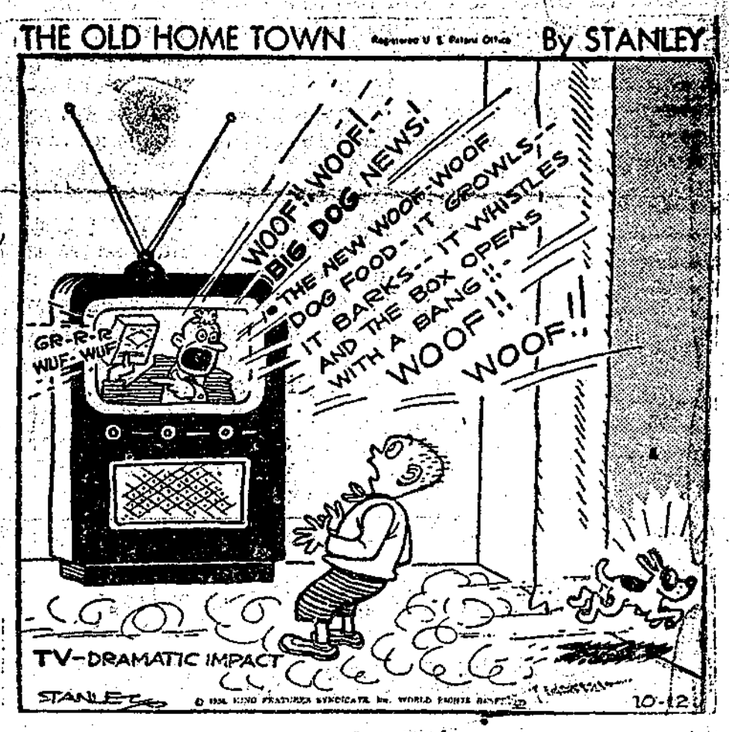
The Girl Guides got off to a good start this fall, and now have 20 Guides attending. They are divided into four patrols with Leaders Pat Wilson, Arlene McCartney, Sylvia Wilson and Mary Secord supervising. The girls look forward to many events in the forthcoming year, which they will organize and take part in, with the help of their leaders and local association.

On Friday, Oct. 19, Miss Warren and Mrs. Baumsteel of Vancouver arrived here for a special meeting to instruct the Port Mellon and First Gibsons company onthe proper procedure of conducting a meeting. The Guides and Leaders had a wonderful time, an both profited by the meeting.

The Brownie Flying-Up ceremony will be held Nov. 2nd at 7:30 p.m. in the School Hall with both Brownies and Guides participating. This year the Guides will welcome nine Brownies into the company. Mothers and fathers and interested friends are welcome to attend and to join later for refreshments



Melvin Stecher and Norman Horowitz piano duo, have played together since June 1951. They have been featured in 84 performances at Radio City Music Hall in New York and have toured United States and Canada where they have many bookings awaiting them. They travel with their own pianos in their own special van. These two musicians will be available to the Sechelt Peninsula's Overture Concert Association now being formed.



Meet the panel on 'Who's the Guest', that new weekly variety-quiz show on CBC Television. It is the job of newspaper columnist Frank Tumpane (left), singer-showgirl Colleen Delaney, and actor-comedian Sammy Sales to guess the identity of the guests. The guests are people well known in the entertainment field and after their identity has been disclosed they brighten up the show by doing a couple of numbers.

IT'S UP TO YOU!

Your school board awaits you.

It has prepared numerous meetings throughout the Sechelt School District at which you can attend to hear what your board has done since the last annual meetings.

If you have a gripe, take it to the meeting you can attend and let them have it. If you have a pat on the back take it along, too and pass it on to the board, with both barrels, loaded either with gripe or praise, or both if you feel that way.

It is your privilege. Accept it.

A DATE TO REMEMBER

Some would call it a milestone and others the opening of a door to a new era so take your choice and decide for yourself what happened at Powell River last Friday night when a switch was operated to turn power into the new B.C. Electric line from Cheekye to Powell River.

The opening of a door into a new era might be the better of the two ideas expressed above and there is no doubt about it being a new era. The line built and the power it will transport will be greater than any this coastal area has had previously.

The new era angle can be explained in another way and it is hoped to the advantage of every housewife. Mr. Grauer B.C.E. president, in his speech at Powell River when the line was opened officially made an interesting comparison, which merchants and housewives alike should consider.

He asked what will the new B.C. Electric system mean in our homes? Present average residential consumption amounted to 1500 to 2000 kilowatt hours per year, he said while the equivalent figure for Vancouver customers is more than 4000 kwh, a figure which is growing 10 percent yearly.

This means that people of this coastal area have barely reached the 50 percent mark in possible uses of electrical energy. Now we come to a direct and deliberate plug for the housewife, the merlhant and of course, B.C. Electric. The housewife should and will use more power if the merchants of the various communities will show initiative in revealing to the housewife the varied types of household goods powered by electricity. It will not make B.C. Electric cross if the load becomes heavier because Clowhom plant is to be raised to the 40,000 kilowatt level to operate as a standby plant in the event of a breakdown or to help carry some of the load in the area that can be served by Clowhom.

One should remember that if it was not for power this editorial would not appear in print. It would also mean that considerable more wastage would occur in our food supply and a great deal more work would have to be done manually. Can you remember when the housewife scrubbed each piece of wash on a wash-board? Many today cannot. That is how electricity is changing our thinking and our life.

With an assist from our power supply we shall next week give readers of The Coast News a chance to read the complete speech made by Mr. Grauer. We think it of sufficient interest to warrant such treatment.

Letters to the editor

Editor: We are constantly reading in our papers about boils in large hospitals and their cause and course.

Everyone has probably read that the overcrowding in our hospitals is a big cause. But I have never seen in print a contributing factor that I believe is most important: That is the frequent short term use of anti-biotics by the patient who feels that his doctor was giving him medicine for too long a time. This is a practice that starts harmlessly enough with the patient taking the medicine until symptoms subside, and then holding the medicine until another illness comes along that they think may be an infection and they take a couple more and so on.

The danger is that the bacteria are not completely killed in 2 days and because the infection is not treated long enough, the bacteria become resistant to the particular drug and in time, in some instances they actually thrive on the drug. One can see that infection treated in this haphazard way soon become impossible to control with any medicine, and the bacteria are free to be transmitted to another victim, by now being 2-3 times as potent a before treatment.s

Physician's orders must be strictly followed if we are to expect the drugs to keep working for us and not against us.

John Playfair.

Editor: I am sure that the publishing of the letter from the Public Utilities Commission in a recent issue will come as a revelation to most of your readers, indicating as it does the abdication of one of its essential duties.

The commission says officials of the Sechelt Transportation company could not see how they could reduce passenger fares by two-and-a-half cents when passenger tolls were taken off the First Narrows Bridge.

I had always understood that it was the duty of the PUC to protect the public interest and to issue orders to govern the same but I seem to have been at fault in my viewpoint when we have the PUC calmly submitting representations from the Sechelt transportation company.

The provincial government took off passenger tolls on the First Narrows bridge to benefit the public but the PUC instead of using the powers it possesses to see that we derive this benefit, seem very agreeable that the Sechelt company receive this free gift, which even they would not contend would belong to them.

It should be made clear that the Sechelt company is an innocent party in the matter.

The three corporate bodies of Powell River, Sechelt and Gibsons should take up this matter with the responsible authorities at Victoria, where I think, they would get speedy action as I am led to believe they have no idea that a private company is reaping the sole benefit from the lifting of tolls on the First Narrows Bridge.

C.S. Cassidy.

Mrs. W. Lawson was in Vancouver to take care of her grandchildren while their parents were holidaying in the Cariboo.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovell were in Vancouver to attend the wedding of Miss Margaret Bean and Mr. Alexander Garrick on Sat. Oct. 27 in Blessed Sacrament Church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vassallo and David spent the weekend at the Warwick home with Mrs. Vassallo's parents.

Gifts of all sorts suitable for tiny tots to grandma's were displayed at Mrs. Edith Forbes home on Tuesday afternoon, when members of the W.I. combined a delightful social hour with their annual shower for the bazaar to be held Thursday Nov. 15. Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Keen assisted serving refreshments.

The Reg Godfreys have returned from a holiday in Seattle.

Mrs. D. Crowhurst had her grandchildren Barbara and David Hall visiting over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sowden's grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sweet of Vancouver and their month old daughter Carolyn were visiting for a few days. Mrs. Sowden has since been in Vancouver visiting her family.

Mrs. Vi Madsen with Karen and Lynne have returned from a holiday in Tiajuna, Mexico. Highlights of the trip include a visit to Las Vegas, to the Grand Canyon and the Zion National Park in Utah. They also spent a week with Mrs. Kokx, formerly Erla Hausch in Joshua Trees.

Mrs. Bob Clarkson has returned from a tour of England with memories of the beautiful English country-side, and of the seaside resorts. While there, she took a special interest in the cathedrals and abbeys of England, visiting among others, Lincoln, York and Lichfield cathedrals, Kenilworth and Warwick castles and Glastonbury Abbey, concluding her trip with a visit to Paris.

FIND A HAVEN

To see flowers blooming in October is a new and delightful experience for Mrs. Rena Foster and Mrs. Vi Beattie, who are now living ot Gypsy Towers. For many years Whitehorse was their home, then with the urge for a kinder climate combined with the spirit of adventure they bought a Fargo "pick-up" and headed south. They travelled many miles, some of them quite rough and rugged, and they saw many places in their search for a delightful spot to settle in.

The search ended at Gower Point, they bought "Gypsy Towers" and are anticipating a pleasant change from the sub-zero temperature of the Yukon.

Visit ghost town

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson on their holiday to Yellowstone National Park visited many places of interest, including Viginia City, Mont., where for the past 50 years time has stood still.

Once a thriving frontier town, it is now a ghost town with a population of only 320 but it holds a great attraction for tourists. The old buildings are in a good state of preservation complete with hitch-racks, oil lamps and false fronts.

The stores are exactly as they were at the turn of the century, the shoe store with its display of high button boots, the dress shop showing hoop skirts and feather boas, the old barber shop with the named shaving mugs, and the livery stable with the stage coach awaiting. Each setting is made more realistic with life-like wax figures of the people of that day.

BROOKS — STRONG

A wedding of interest to residents of Halfmoon Bay and Roberts Creek took place at 2 p.m. Sept. 29 at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Sapperton, when Miss Eileen Strong, daughter of Mrs, Olivia Strong of New Westminster and Mr. Russell Brooks, Son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hawes Brooks, residents of Halfmoon Bay, exchanged vows.

The bride was charming in her waltz length gown of soft gold brocaded satin, with hat shoes and gloves en tone. She carried a white Bible mounted with bronze baby roses.

Brides matron was her sister Mrs. Doris Scott in a waltz length gown of grey brocade with touches of avocado green in bow, shoes, hat and gloves, her corsage red roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John William Strong and the best man was Mr. Tag Nygard. An afternoon gown in a wine shade with pink hat and gloves, black shoes and hand bag was worn by the bride's mother, with pink roses for her corsage.

The groom's mother was chic in a smart afternoon gown of navy blue, hat, shoes and gloves in matching tones, her corsage red roses.

The reception was held at Fardons Hall, New Westminster, where the bridal party received the many guests. Mr. Stafford, uncle of the bride, proposed the toast, to which the groom ably responded. Servers were the bride's sister Miss Isobel Strong, her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Anna Strong and Mrs. Aileen Strong, her cousins, Mrs. Marion Langelle and Mrs. Peggy McLean.

After rutting her cake the happy couple left for their honeymoon, the bride wearing a dress of beige wool, top coat of brown with matching accessories, her corsage yellow baby orchids. The honeymoon was spent motoring through the Cariboo country. Upon their return they will take up residence in Halfmoon Bay.

Guests from Halfmoon Bay included the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.H. Brooks, Joan and Ronald, Mr. and Mrs. Tag Nygard, Judy and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jorgensen, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hansen and Tova, Mrs. Evan MacDougall, Donna and Kindree, and Mr. Simpson of Buccaneer Bay.

From New Westminster, the bride's mother. Other out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Strong, Miss Isobel Strong Mr. and Mrs. C. Scott, Tony and David, Mr. Robert Denner Mrs. Elsie Scott, Mrs. W. Medlicott, Mrs. R. Langwill, Miss Peggy McLean, Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Boven. Miss Edith Lowell, Mr. Roy Hesla, Mrs. Raynald Townson. Mrs. Henry Dollar. Mrs. J.B. Gerow, Mrs. J.M. Gerney, Mr. and Mrs Robert Earl, Miss Lilian Badger, Mr. and Mrs. U. Hinds, Mrs. B. Dawson.

SECOND AWARD

It wos reported last week from Sechelt thae Mrs. F. Turner was presented with a Canadian Legion auxiliary 25 year pin and that this was the first 25 year pin presented in the Peninsula area. Apparently this is not the case because Mrs. D. Crowhurst was presented with her 25 year pin in 1955

Mrs. Bushfield leaves Gibsons

Mrs. Frank Bushfield, who left this month to make her home in Vancouver, received many tokens of friendship and good will from her many friends in Gibsons.

Mrs. Bushfield takes with her not only the farewell gifts, she takes also memories of 16 busy and eventful years working for the community.

Her husband, the Rev. Frank Bushfield accepted the pastorate of Gibson Memorial United Church in 1940, coming from Vancouver. Both he and Mrs. Bushfield were enthusiastic and untiring in their efforts for the betterment of the church and the community.

During his five years as pastor, much work was done on the church, and much of the actual work was done by him personally. Such improvements included the building of the upper and lower halls, also the kitchen and washroom. In 1943 the plain glass windows were replaced by memorial windows, one of which is in memory of their eldest son, P.O. F. Campbell Bushfield of the R.C.A.F. who gave his life on active service in the Second World War. Their two other sons saw war service, one with the United States Army and the other with the Canadian Navy.

Mrs. Bushfield took a great interest in all branches of the church, being church organist soloist, and junior choir leader besides being superintendent of the Sunday School and president of the W.A. During the war years she was an ardent worker for the Red Cross and the Womens Institute.

Since her husband passed away in April 1954, Mrs. Bushfield has remained at the family home, Cedarcrest, but now feels the need to be nearer her family. With her leaving, the community loses a good citizen.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of a dear friend
Al Jackson
Passed away 23 Oct. 1955.
Christine & Andrew Johnston

CARD OF THANKS

Sincerest gratitude to all who rallied to our aid Monday, Oct. 22, and during the rough day following. Thanks humbly to the storekeepers in the village, friends, seighbors and family who replenished our empty shelves and cupboards. We can't thank, only remember always the two fellows who worked night asd day with us to restore the house as much as is possible at present.

Bette and Jack

May we, through your paper, express our thanks to the firemen, all our friends and family who helped so much after our house fire on Monday evening.

Gladys and Ray Clarke.
