St. Pierre helps Olaussen

The following message from Paul St. Pierre was written on Oct. 31 and received by the Coast News at 11 a.m. Nov. 7:

I would like to congratulate Mr Harry Olaussen who conducted a very fair campaign. I am meeting him in West Vancouver in my home to give him what advice I can. I hope he will find Ottawa as rich and rewarding a place to work in as I did.

The people in Coast Chilcotin did me a great honor in electing me in 1968. It was a privilege to serve them. I have no regrets and I would not have done anything differently than I did.

It is of course, geographically a very difficult riding to serve but it is a great part of the country. I only hope Mr. Olaussen will try, in some way, to bridge the communication gap between the National Parliament and the people here at home.

St. Pierre said he regretted that the country was now in a minority government situation. "Under these circumstances the bureaucracy rather than the elected representatives are going to hold increased power. As for the election results the people are never wrong."

It has been four years of dealing with some magnificent people, my own Liberal Party Campaign Workers and those of other parties too.

Union obtains hall property

Howe Sound Pulp Employees Society has closed a deal on the former Marine Services building and property on the highway opposite the transport company premises, according to reports. It is expected that the premises will be ready for occupation by the first of the year.

Some changes will be made to the building such as insulating the inside and stucco outside. A bank loan plus money already banked and an increase in union dues are expected to finance the purchase and additional work.

CHOIR VISITS HOSPITAL

Fifteen members of Gibsons United Church choir, led by Mrs. B. Underwood, leader and Mrs. M. Freer, as pianist, visited St. Mary's Hospital extended care unit Sunday Oct. 29. They provided about one hour's music in a hymn sing

OCTOBER WEATHER

October provided precipitation amounting to 2.36 inches which is the lowest October total for 12 years. Back in 1964 the total was under three inches but in 1967 a record total of 12.22 inches was recorded. The ten year average is 6½ inches. High temperature for October was 61 on Oct. 14 and the low 30 degrees on Oct. 30. There were six sunless days.

Sewage report outlined

The Regional Board committee meeting Nov. 2 to receive a report from Martin J. J. Dayton, P. Eng., on a sewage disposal study for the Sechelt area, included the Sechelt Village council, Chief Henry Paull Teddy Joe and Derwyn Owen of the Indian Council.

Mr. Dayton presented Agris Berzins, P. Eng., who had prepared the study to the board. Mr. Dayton outlined the report and answered questions He followed his presentation with a series of slides showing modern methods of sewage disposal both on land and by disposal in deep water. The board decided the report, which they had not had an opportunity to read, should not be released for general publication until after their next meeting.

Mr. Dayton advised the board that he would be prepared to attend a public meeting or meetings to discuss the study and answer questions, if at a later date following publication of the report they considered there was sufficient interest.

Sea Cavalcade requires $7,000

Sea Cavalcade 1972 raised $4,924 plus a 1971 balance of $363 which provided $5,287. Expenses for 1972 totalled $5,232 which left a surplus of $55 for 1973's Sea Cavalcade.

Did you like the 1972 Sea Cavalcade? Next year the hope is for a bigger and better event and next year's budget will require $7,000. This means $6,950 must be raised.

A variety of dances, fashion shows, clam bakes and other events are planned throughout the year and strong public support will help another successful year. So if you want to see a better Sea Cavalcade for 1973 turn out for the various functions which are being arranged.

Students plan regular clean-up

(By DEBORAH McNEVIN)

Picking up garbage is what 14 students can now be seen doing around Elphinstone. The Trashman's club is a new organization formed by Perry Bradshaw.

These 14 students will form pairs, and take turns picking up garbage on the school grounds.

Perry Bradshaw, Linda Day, Kevin Honeybunn, Melvin Gokool, Kathy Fisher, Debbie Willis, Betty Topham, Deborah Mc Nevin, Karen Spencer, Rodney Smith, Walter Dempster, Laurie Montgomery, Vina Christmas and Pat Goodwin are the members of this club.

Mr. Maddock Jones is the teacher-sponsor. The oraganization will begin their activities with a mass clean-up on Wed.,

Sechelt's provisional budget seeks $130,000

Sechelt council's provisional 1973 budget calls for an income of approximately $130,000 of which $60,000 is earmarked for the school board. Subtracting amounts allocated to reasonably fixed expenses council expects to have about $20,000 for disposal as council selects.

The problem of an advance poll was also discussed at Wednesday night's meeting last week and the aldermen were of the opinion that as advance polls were for fishermen and others who could be absent on voting day there was no need for a Sechelt advance poll.

W. J. Mayne will be the municipal election returning officer and will accept nominations at his office Monday, Nov. 20 up to 12 noon. Election day will be Sat., Dec. 9 with voting from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the Legion Hall.

The problem connected with the lane starting at Inlet Ave., and on the water side of Cowrie St. has been left to Mayor Ben Lang who will interview those concerned to get their views. What is proposed will likely be the cancellation of the present registered lot plan so the area can be re-subdivided. It is likely that the whole proposition will cost about $2,000 with council assuming some of that cost. Ald. Norman Watson was of the opinion the new plan was a good solution.

Ald. Harold Nelson will be in charge of getting this year's Christmas tree installed. Council members will also take part in the Nov. 11 Cenotaph ceremony.

Beachcombers grilled

It was a busy Saturday afternoon for the cast of the Beachcombers who entertained at the Twilight Theatre in an invitational double - feature showing of two episodes of CBC's Sunday evening's half-hour family TV feature.

The TV celebrities were introduced from the stage by Phil Keatley the unit's executive director. On stage were Rae Brown (Molly Carmody) apron and all, who took time off from doling out free ice cream bars to the kids in the lobby; Bruno Gerussi, as Nick the Greek, wheeler - dealer Beachcomber was introduced as the best dressed beachcomber on or off the set; Pat John, the Indian lad as Jesse, sporting a white toque with dangling eagle feather, was loudly applauded; Robert Clothier as Ol' Relic, the villian of the piece, was suitably booed, and a big hand went to Bob Park as Molly's grandson Hugh. Unable to be present were other principals, including Frank Wade (Col. Spranklin) and Nancy Chapple, (Margaret, Molly's granddaughter).

During intermission, the cast was kept busy fielding a barrage of questions asked by the young audience. One in particular, concerning the old 1930 replica of a Model A sports coupe that has been seen about the village. Phil explained the original Ford coupe had to be returned to its owner in Vancouver.

Mike Bolton, set director, and members of his crew then produced a reasonable duplicate of this important prop. After much search over the area, the rusty remains of a similar vintage Ford, although not the identical model, was found in an old barn.

It took Mike and his crew four days and nights of intensive round-the-clock work to cut down, completely rebuild and recondition the old car and have it on location, all set to go, at Molly's Reach.

In paying tribute to Bolton and his men Keatley said you couldn't have told the mock-up from the original model. This was only one of several emergencies to be met by the ingenuity and fast thinking of the entire technical crew, including John Smith, who operates the company's work boat, Persephone.

The projection of the two episodes, Jet Boat and Partners on the big theatre screen was dramatic — color, action and sound all perfect. The show was enjoyed by the 165 youngsters at the 3 o'clock matinee. It was unfortunate that more grown-ups did not turn out to see the second screening at five o'clock.

Spring vote for Centre

A joint statement from Gibsons and Sechelt municipal councils following a meeting of the two councils issued at Tuesday night's meeting of Gibsons council forecast a recreation referendum in the spring.

Here is the statement which Mayor Walter Peterson released:

"Both councils propose to assemble cost information and priorities to place before their respective ratepayers, and having done this, are in agreement to holding a Recreation Referendum in the spring."

The statement means that both councils intend to inform ratepayers of the situation in each village in relation to financial priorities so they can make up their minds about taxpayer requirements.

Something council con do with help from the federal government Local Initiatives Program was brought up by Mayor Walter Peterson His suggestion was the clearing of Dougal Park with the aid of money provided by federal programs. Ald. Winston Robinson was given the job of looking into the proposal.

A preliminary plan for a motel at the corner of Hillcrest and North Roads opposite the B.C. Tel office, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Connell was approved by council.

Jolt hidden in Ho! Hum!

The result of that Ho-Hum Election most certainly jarred the somnolence out of political events and has given out voluble TV experts a very wide field of conjecture over which to wander aimlessly. It has been a field day for them but Prime Minister Trudeau has closed off further conjecture as to what he will or will not do. His choice of action was logical. The fact is that no one political party has a clear mandate at this point. Therefore with such equality why give up?

The Conservatives under Prime Minister Diefenbaker did exactly that in the 1962 election. This situation followed 1958 when the Conservatives had 208 seats with a majority of 151. Then in the 1962 election the Conservatives were cut to 118 seats, 15 short of a majority. The Liberals held 97 seats so Diefenbaker carried on until 1963 when 128 Liberals were elected and 96 Conservatives.

Mr. Trudeau has the right to remain in control until beaten in the house — as long as he thinks he can carry the day with what legislation he has. No party wants a national election for some months.

Grits an 1848 party label

While in the area of national politics perhaps the problems presented by enquirers can be dealt with. They want to know how the term Grit became associated with the Liberal party.

It arose when Clear Grit was used to label an advanced wing of the reform party of Canada West which originated in discontent with the moderate policies adopted by the Baldwin-Lafontaine ministry in 1848.

Someone dropped the remark that "we want only men who are clear grit." It was popularized by George Brown in the old Toronto Globe.

The editor's early association with politics occurred in Winnipeg in the Sir Redmond Roblin era. A Tory card handed around posed a young boy's question: "Pa! What is a Grit!" Pa's reply was "Something to be trod on." So there you have Manitoba type politics in 1910-12, the days of real mud-slinging editorials.

Lighter moments!

A doctor's new secretary was having trouble with his notes on a case which read: "Shot in the lumbar region." Completely frustrated she finally figured it out and typed on the report: "Wounded in the woods."

Locksteads first report from legislature

Don Lockstead, MLA

The first session of the B.C. Legislature under the leadership of Premier Barrett is completed and, home for a two-day breather, I take this opportunity to give the people of Mackenzie constituency my first report as your M.L.A.

First, some personal observations on the legislature. I am sure that you would all be pleased with the serious manner in which your new government has set to work. I am also sure that you will all approve of the new, open atmosphere which prevails in the Parliament Buildings in Victoria. Cabinet Ministers, M.L.As. and department heads are all working to their fullest capacity in their efforts to meet with individuals and delegations.

Cabinet Ministers are accessible and I have had no difficulty in meeting with any of them to discuss the particular problems of my constituency. To those people who have worked for many years to see an N.D.P. government in B.C. I would like to say that if you could be with me in my meetings with the caucus, or with the various delegations, or in the sessions of the legislature itself, you would be very proud of your government and premier and you would feel, as I do, that all your effort and sacrifice has been worth while.

There has, of course, been some criticism of the government in the press. This is as it should be in a democratic society. However, to date most of the adverse criticism has been for keeping our campaign promises. It has been suggested that the emergency session this fall was not necessary. That is easy to say if you are not one of those people who are affected by legislation such as Bill 3 or Bill 4.

These bills, guaranteeing a minimum income of $200 per month to senior citizens and to handicapped persons were long overdue. We promised the people of B.C. that we would, if elected, move as quickly as possible to give assistance to these groups of people, and we have done so. It was in support of Bill 3 that I made my first speech in the legislature and I am proud to be associated with this progressive legislation — a first for North America.

In my address I urged the Hon. Mr. Levy to instruct the civil service to give all possible help to these persons who are eligible under the new law, in their efforts to establish elegibility. I know from experience the frustration which can be caused by bureaucratic red tape or by lack of understanding of procedures which must be followed. I have received Mr. Levy's assurance that all possible help will be available and I wish to hear from anyone in my constituency who is experiencing any difficulty in this regard.

We have been criticized for our minimum wage legislation another election promise. I fully support the legislation and the promise to raise the minimum wage to $2.50 per hour over the next 18 month period. Does it make sense to have people receive more for welfare than they can get from working? The concept of the minimum wage has been accepted by Canadians for many years. We must, however, be realistic about what constitutes a level that will guarantee some dignity of labour.

We are also being criticized for not having as yet done some things, and I know that there are many urgent problems facing many groups of people in B.C. Many of these problems are complex, however, and we would be doing no service to plunge too quickly into legislation without sufficient time for consultation and study. It is our plan to have intermediate and extended health care under the B.C. Hospital Service. It is our plan to have every phase of health care under one department, instead of under three separate authorities as is the present case. You will understand that these changes will require time and study, however, and I ask for your patience.

In education, perhaps the most complex area under study now, we have made available some interim assistance, making immediate help available for school districts with critical problems. I am pleased so far, with the responsible attitude expressed by school boards and teachers alike. There has been no rush to take advantage of the government's offer in an irresponsible sense. Instead, it is my concern that school boards in my constituency should not be over-cautious in their requests. I am aware that there are some areas of need, and I am relying upon our local school boards to make these needs known. Certainly we must not neglect the needs of our children.

In the Powell River district, concern has been expressed about the proposals to bring in a compulsory building code. My personal position on this matter has not changed. I believe that there should be no building code implemented without the fullest consultation between all concerned groups, and that there should be no legislation without the approval of the overwhelming majority of the people to be affected by such legislation.

Another issue of local concern is the matter of the condition of the highway 101 north of Sechelt. I have been in consultation with the Hon. Mr. Strachan, who has been most cooperative in the matter. Although we find the highways budget to be already $35 million overspent by the previous government, it is obvious that work on the Sunshine Coast highway must proceed, and we have set aside $104,000 for the immediate improvement of the road with plans to complete the paving as soon as it is possible to do it in the coming spring.

This is, necessarily, a brief report and I will be reporting to you in more detail on many matters which are now in the works as soon as I can do so. In the meantime, please continue to keep me informed. I have been snowed under by hundreds of letters since the election, and I do have my problems attending to all of them, but I will do it. I do read my mail and I do answer it as promptly as possible. Please be patient if you have to wait a little while for a reply. We are very busy on your behalf.

Warm greeting at Honolulu

October 6 was a big day for Old Age Pensioners on the Sunshine Coast. They filled a bus which took them to the airport for their Wardair jet 707 to Hawaii. Excitement was high on the smooth flight 35,-000 feet over the blue Pacific.

They were greeted in Honolulu with the warm Aloha and kisses and beautiful carnation and frangipangi leis in a temperature of 80 degrees. Then they were taken to their lovely hotel, each room having its own balcony. After a good look out to see the multi-color-night's sleep, they awoke to ed surf and palm trees wafting in the brilliant sunshine.

They had a full week and also went on tours, sightseeing, and enjoying the Hawaiian bus drivers' historical knowledge o all they saw, also the singing and humor. They also went shopping, and appeared in Hawaiin dress.

The spirit was truly great. They all enjoyed the trip, and the warm temperature took away many aches and pains. On October 13 they flew home gain, saying their Alohas to the island of Oahu as the pilot flew the plane so all could see where they had been. Many will want to return some day.

Baptist Bible club organized

An after-school Bible Club will start Wed., Nov. 8 at 3:15 p.m. in Bethel Baptist Church, Mermaid and Trail, Sechelt, and will continue weekly.

All children of the area are welcome to hear Bible, missionary and flash card stories, object lessons, singing and handcraft.

This is being held by a non denominational club so that children may have a weekday club especially designed and arranged for them. Child Evangelism Fellowship material will be used.

Rev. and Mrs. W. N. Erickson, who have recently come to pastor Bethel Baptist Church Sechelt, will be in charge. For information, contact Rev. Erickson at 886-7449.

EGGS — WHICH END UP?

Which end up may not be too important to the average egg user. But, to the 400 million or more potential chicks and turkey poults which hatch in Canada's incubators each year, it's an important question. Research shows that small end up in storing gives the best hatching results.

Pioneer Girls organized

Tuesday, Oct. 24 found five guides and 22 young girls ready to launch the Pioneer Girls program at Calvary Baptist Church in Gibsons.

Pioneer Girls is incorporated as a non-profit service organization in 1943. The program is used by churches of many denominations and by hundreds of independent churches in Canada and the U.S.A. It is a Christ-centered weekday activity and achievement program for girls. There are no color, race or denominational barriers in Pioneer Girls. The club is open to all girls in the community.

Pioneer Girls has three distinct programs and reaches girls in grade three through high school. The three divisions are Pilgrim, grades 3 through 6, Colonist, grade 7 through 9, and Explorers, grade 10 through high school. Pilgrim and Colonist are the two programs that Calvary Baptist will work with.

Club meetings will be held Tuesday's from 3:30 to 5 p.m. at the church. The Pioneer Girls work is headed up by a committee of women, Mrs. Mildred Erickson chairman, Mrs. Darlene McQueen and Mrs. Arlys Peters.

Guides working with the Pilgrims are Mrs. Kay Owen Chief Guide, Mrs. Mary Madison and Mrs. Eleanor Wolverton. Guides working in the Colonist Section are Mrs. Joan Rigby Chief Guide and Mrs. Evelyn Cooper.

For further information regarding enrolling your daughter in Pioneer Girls, contact the committee chairman at 886-7449, or, either of the Chief Guides Mrs. Owen at 886-2008, or Mrs. Rigby at 886-7600.

Display carvings

An exhibition of oil paintings of Eskimos and Indians in the Art Gallery Shop, Sechelt, opening Tuesday, Nov. 7 for two weeks, has a study by Mrs. J. Warne of the carver Tyrone Joseph carving. With it the exhibition will show a selection of his work on loan for this show.

Among the Indian paintings is one of a basket weaver and with this there will be a showing of the basketry of the Lillooet women on loan also. In addition Mrs. Warne will have some small pastels of children.

Volunteer workers have announced their winter hours as 11:30 to 3, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, and 10 to 4 Fridays and Saturdays. For Friday, Nov. 10 and 17, Mrs. Warne will have the gallery open from 7 to 9 p.m.

Long distance rate structure is announced

A new long-distance rate structure designed to encourage customers to dial their own long-distance calls became effective Nov. 5, the B.C. Telephone Company has announced Gordon F. MacFarlane, B.C. Tel's corporate development vice-president, said the new rate concept, proposed by the company in September, has been approved by the Canadian Transport Commission. He said the CTC has also approved similar rate proposals by other member companies of the Trans-Canada Telephone System.

Nearly all customers who dial their own calls will not be required to pay a three-minute charge. They will pay only for each minute they talk.

Customers who dial their own calls will pay a lower rate than customers who have their calls placed by an operator.

Customers who dial their own calls at night and on Sundays will get substantially larger discounts than customers who place calls through the operator during the same time periods.

Mr. MacFarlane said the new rate structure will increase the price of some long-distance calls and will reduce the price of others. Increases and decreases will offset each other, so that no net increase in long-distance revenue will result.

It will also eleminate the 25-cent surcharge now levied on collect calls, calls charged to a third number and calls on which the operator is requested to call back with time and charges information.

October Reno trip tops

Special trips to Reno are popular and local residents have enjoyed them in spite of an overnight layover there. Roberts Creek's Elphinstone Recreation Group organized a complete SMT bus load under auspices of Butterworth Tours of Vancouver.

The tour left Sechelt at 5:45 a.m. Oct. 28 with passengers from Halfmoon Bay, Sechelt, Wilson Creek, Roberts Creek and Gibsons, plus two additional pickups in Vancouver

The bus travelled through Seattle Portland then after an overnight stop at Eugene, Oregon, moved through the mountains to Klamath Falls.

This stretch of the journey had a fall of snow and the trees were like a scene from a Christmas card. Then on through rocky, hilly ranch country through the north-east corner of California and finally arrived at their destination at 5:30 p.m., in time to check into a motel and then downtown for dinner and a whirl at the slot machines or blackjack tables or whatever you fancied.

The tour included a trip to Lake Tahoe, Virginia City and Carson City. In the latter place, which is the capital of Nevada, they were celebrating Nevada Days and a big parade was in progress. Three days were spent in Reno and on the fourth bright and early the return journey started. Everyone reported an enjoyable time and none seemed to have trouble getting rid of their money, all stating they left it all behind. Perhaps at some future date they will return and check to see if it is still there.

The party was fortunate to have Dick Gray as the driver, who besides being an excellent driver kept the passengers in a congenial mood. Everyone on the bus was from the same area and more or less knew everyone else.

Mainly about people

(By ED THOMSON)

In th cozy surroundings of the Gibsons home on Sargent road before they left we talked with Ross and Grace Gibson who are now in their new home at Sydney, B.C.

Ross was a former member of the B.C. Provincial Police and later the RCMP and Royal Canadian Navy and Grace a nurse with extensive qualifications.

Grace Gibson is particularly happy as they were given their choice of a new posting by the B.C. Ferry Authority where Ross has been employed for the past five and a half years.

Ross Gibson is the great grandson of Capt. (English Army) George Gibson, the founder of this village. Born at Watkins Landing (now Twin Creeks) his parents moved to Ontario, where he received his early schooling. On their return to Gibsons, Ross attended high school in a little shabby grey building now demolished. Here, he gives much credit to Stan Trueman, his teacher, whom he recalls as a progressive and dedicated teacher.

Ross signed up with the Royal Canadian Navy at the outbreak of war in '39, transferred to the Atlantic training establishment in Dartmouth, N.S., and met Grace who was on duty as a nursing sister in Halifax. They kept in touch with each other until the end of the war, when they were happily married.

Ross served with the Canadian Navy on the North Atlantic run for the duration. He was posted to several ships, including the HMCS Uganda, a British light cruiser, turned over to the Canadian navy at the beginning of hostilities and later named Quebec. He was on this ship when she made the voyage around Cape Horn to take up station with the United States Naval task force that bombed Japan. Ross came back to civvy street in '45 retiring with the rank of petty officer.

He then signed up with the B.C. Provincial Police, then found himself merged with the RCMP after the takeover of the Provincials in 1950. With his bride he was posted to the Eastern Artic, where her experience as R.N. came in handy. The 6½ year stint with the Mounted Police saw them posted at Port Harrison, Northern Quebec, where he was a member of the patrol that moved an Eskimo group to Cornwallis Island, a desolate region that had not seen a native in more than 200 years.

He completed this tour of duty at Resolute Bay, several hundred miles from the north pole, as navigator and pilot of a sturdy, Peterhead Glasglow built patrol boat. Then followed a turn of duty at Pictou and Truro later on to Ottawa, where later he retired from the force with rank of sergeant.

Grace served three years at the Canadian Naval Training establishment, Cornwallis and at Halifax and Camp Hill Military Hospital. She was in charge of the first Canadian Registered VON unit at Pictou and opened the first RCMP nursing health centre at Ottawa. She earned her degrees in public health and psychiatrics at Dalhousie University with further post graduate work in TB, at Hamilton, later posted to the TB unit at Shaughnessy Military Hospital and the Indian mission hospital at Nanaimo.

Three incidents Nurse Spicer (Grace's maiden name) recalls most vividly; the first was the Springhill mining disaster, where she stood with the hastily summoned medical team at the pithead to receive the battered bodies of the entombed miners as they were brought up from the depths of the explosion and fire-wracked colliery.

Both the Gibsons were present at the Halifax riot at the end of World War Two, when navy personnel on being refused shore leave plus the closing of beer parlors and liquor stores, broke out in open insurrection, battered down the doors of liquor commission warehouses and outlets, then went on a rampage that left the downtown Halifax area in a shambles of looted stores, streets covered ankle deep in broken glass and debris.

The Gibsons returned home in '67, where in the continuing spirit of service they soon contributed much to the overall activity of the community. Fundamentally, Ross and Grace are home-loving folk and enthusiastic gardeners as the well laid out flower borders, rose arbor, kitchen garden and many unusual imported trees and shrubs testify. Ross also has a prized collection of early eskimo soapstone and ivory tusk carvings from Cape Dorset along with original oil paintings and an extensive collection of colored slides.

Mrs. Gibson collects willow tree ware and limoge as her well filled cabinets indicate, now all carefully packed with other household effects ready for shipment to Sidney.

Ross was a lay reader and member of the executive committee at St. Bartholomews, where presentation of a beautifully framed color print of the church alter, was made by the Rev. David Brown on behalf of the congregation. The padre voiced the regrets of his parish in the loss of the Gibsons. The ladies auxiliary of the church and the Canadian Legion also presented going away gifts to Grace.

Ross takes much satisfaction in having headed up, as a Centennial project, the restoration of the old village graveyard, transforming this neglected spot into a little gem of a memorial park.

He is also more-than-pleased with the new location of Gibsons museum, of which he was the hard working chairman.

Ross, always interested in youth activity, was vice-president of Sunshine Coast Boy Scouts association and a member of the executive of Branch 109 of the Canadian Legion.

B.C. TEL

THE NEW LONG DISTANCE RATE STRUCTURE

which was explained in depth in our newspaper advertisement in September, 1972 and in a folder delivered with your September bill,

HAS BEEN APPROVED BY THE CANADIAN TRANSPORT COMMISSION

and became effective on November 5th, 1972.

You will receive a folder with your statement explaining the new rate structure in detail. Please keep it in your directory for future reference.

In the meantime, here are the highlights:

ON CALLS WITHIN THE B.C. TEL OPERATING TERRITORY

Customer Dialed Calls (DDD)

are station to station calls you dial yourself.

You pay a lower rate if you dial your own calls instead of placing them through an operator. One minute minimum rates apply all day (24 hours) every day including Sunday.

You can save 25% to 50% on evening, night and Sunday calls which you dial yourself.

—There is a 25% discount on calls between 6 p.m. and 11 p.m. weekdays and 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Sunday.

—There is at least a 50% discount on calls between 11 p.m. and 8 a.m. any night (maximum cost 23 cents per minute).

In exchanges where DDD is not yet available, calls that could otherwise be dialed direct will be handled by the operator at the customer-dialed rate.

Operator Handled Calls

The three minute minimum charge remains in effect on calls placed through an operator.

Calls placed by an operator will cost more than a comparable call you dial yourself.

There is a 25% discount on overtime charges only (each minute in excess of the initial three minutes) on operator-handled calls from 6 p.m. to 8 a.m. weekdays and all day Sunday.

Calls made from hotel telephones, coin telephones, radio telephones, and toll stations; calls made to Zenith numbers and calls charged to credit card numbers will be rated as operator-handled calls. There is no longer a 25 cent surcharge for collect calls, calls charged to a third number and calls where the operator is asked to report back with time and charges.

NOTE: The three-minute charge and the existing rates will be retained for customer-dialed calls between the following communities:

Bowen Island-West Vancouver, Haney-Port Coquitlam, North Vancouver-Whalley, Port Coquitlam-Whalley, Agassiz-Chilliwack, Bowen Island-Deep Cove, Whalley-Whytecliff, Bowen Island-North Vancouver, Bowen Island-Vancouver, Christina Lake-Grand Forks, Grand Forks-Greenwood, Whalley-West Vancouver, Castlegar-Trail.

All operator-handled calls between these points including person-to-person calls will be charged at the new rates.

CALLS TO MOST POINTS IN CANADA, OUTSIDE B.C.

The Canadian Transport Commission has approved a new rate structure for calls between B.C. and most other points in Canada.

The new rate system is similar to that approved for B.C. Tel's operating territory. The only differences are:

—There is a 30% discount on customer-dialed calls placed between 6 p.m. and midnight weekdays and from 8 a.m. to midnight on Sunday.

—There is a 50% discount on customer-dialed calls placed between midnight and 8 a.m. any day. (Maximum cost 30 cents per minute.)

—These discounts apply on overtime charges only on operator-handled station-to-station calls.

—No discount is applicable on person-to-person calls at any time.

NO CHANGE IS PROPOSED AT THIS TIME IN RATES FOR CALLS TO POINTS OUTSIDE CANADA.

If you require further information, please call your nearest B.C. Tel office, ask for your Customer Service Representative.

As a school boy in Medicine Hat, Alta., Al Cherny studied classical violin and played in the school orchestra. Then, one day he heard some old time fiddling. From then on he was hooked on old time fiddling, performing on CHAT Radio in Medicine Hat then on CKNX, Wingham, Ont., and the International Old Time Fiddling Contest in Shelburne where he twice captured both the old time and novelty classes during two successive years. Now he's on CBC-TV's Tommy Hunter Show.

Wedding

BROWN — BRAKSTAD

A double ring ceremony was held at Brighouse United Church. Richmond B.C. on Oct. 7, uniting Martha Lois Astrid Brakstad daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Lars Brakstad of Gibsons B.C. to Neil Francis Brown son of Mrs. Frances Craig, Richmond B.C. Rev. J. D. Murdock, Richmond B.C. officiating.

The bride given in marriage by her father and mother was gowned in an ice blue satin floor length gown with bell sleeves and empire waist with a finger tip veil. She carried a white bible with orchids and carnations.

Maid of honor, Miss Lynda Williams cousin of the groom wore a mauve long gown, Jr. flower girl Miss Patti Irvine niece of the bride, wore a short mauve lace over satin dress they carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations.

Best man was Mr. James Craig brother of the groom.

A reception was held at the grooms family home 722 No. 4 Rd. Richmond B.C. Mr. James Craig gave the toast to the bride

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ron Irvine and Patti; Mrs. Kelly and Mr. Bob Kelly, all of Gibsons; Mr. and Mrs. G. E Williams and Gay of White Rock; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Schule of Nanaimo; Mr. and Mrs. C. Magnusson of Edmonton, Alberta.

The young couple will make their home in Richmond B.C.

Goose visits Brakstad home

The Brakstad's Canada goose returned to its familiar haunts on Gibson's lower bay. Early one morning last week, Carol and Lars were awakened by a familiar honking outside their window. It was their winter boarder, waddling importantly up over the new shoreside ramp.

On catching sight of them he lunged forward with a great flapping of wings and stretched out his neck to have his head stroked. After a hearty breakfast and with more flapping of wings and loud honkings it took off.

Two years ago they responded to the plaintive call of their feathered friend as he lay exhausted and storm-tossed in their doorway. They took the bedraggled goose in beside the fire where, after a potent mixture of brandy and mash it made a remarkable recovery and with three days of resting in the Brakstad's basement, was fit again for the great outdoors.

This is the third winter the Canada goose has returned to the area. An increasing number of maverick mallards are also returning to their favorite winter feeding ground — this in spite of the cutting off of their sheltered spot in a creek between Smittys' and Esso marinas with the extension of the shore esplanade.

Both Brakstads are hoping their wintering feathered friends will have a better time of it this year, free from the cruel beatings to death by sticks and stones by village louts and their dogs. The other day as the mallards came in to be fed at nightfall, Carol in her usual manner faced an elderly man and his full grown son busily stoning the birds.

Craft Fair riot of color

A riot of color and beehive of activity describes the third annual three-day Craft Fair by Roberts Creek Parents Auxiliary in Roberts Creek Hall, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Ernie Burnett presented his disply of the wood carver's art, and David and Karen Livingston's booth of hand carved toys and furniture included an old fashioned baby's cradle, inlaid with mother-of-pearl.

This was the Livingston's first appearance at a Craft Fair. They arrived in this area a month ago, from Victoria, where for ten years David was a carpenter, who recently turned wood carver. He displayed an interesting array of his own hand-made tools.

The colorful display of ceramics by Mrs. J. H. (Nell) Whaites of Sechelt, one of the exhibitors at the first fair three years ago, was again on hand. The candle-makers, Randy and Bob Morgan, Yvonne and Charlie Irwin and Diane Borogno, offered a fine display of hand-moulded gift candles and carded wool garments. This group along with others put on an interesting demonstration of candle making for school children

Rug braiding and hooking was well displayed by Mrs. Christmas and Mrs. Mabel Grauman and others in the art of rug making and leather tooling. The Ladies Auxiliary exhibited for the first time, a table of home-craft items. In the centre aisles youngsters of all ages were busily modelling clay plaques, bows and animals

Co-convenors, Mrs. J. Tucker and Mrs. S. M. Henry were well pleased with the number of demonstrations and sale of home crafted goods. Attendance was slightly higher than former years. Assisting them were auxiliary members Vera Stens, Janette Flumerfelt, Ricki Liepsig, Melba Baker, Gail Hairsine Carmen White, Heather Boyling, Molly Almond and others.

SCOUTS JOIN HIKE

Members of St. Hilda's First Sechelt Scout Troop participated in the Scout Hikathon on the North Shore Sunday from Lynn Valley.

Those taking part were Scott and Bob Drane, Mark Whyte, Neil Clayton, Carl Montgomery, Edward Segouin and Jim Smith. They were accompanied by Scoutmaster Lorne Christie and Ivan Smith district chairman of the Sunshine Coast Boy Scouts. To all those who pledged, the Scouts express their thanks.

Letters to Editor

Editor: I have jjust read A View from Soames Bluff, which appeared in last week's issue of Coast News, and hope that everyone concerned will read it and take to heart what the writer says.

Some time ago, I saw depicted in the Coast News a Developer's Dream of what the Bay area would look like in years to come, complete with high rises all along the shore. My immediate reaction came in the words of an old time radio comedian, "What a revoltin' development."

Now, apparently, they propose to throw in an artificial island for good measure.

How sacriligious can they get!

—(Miss) M. THATCHER,

Editor: On behalf of the C.N.I.B., I would like to thank a great many people for the marvelous response to our cam paign.

Your paper, for free spot advertising helped to bring it to the attention of the public before the campaign even started. To every canvasser, may I say the response to our project has given us considerably more than $1,000.

Thank you all very much from the C.N.I.B. and to all individuals. and businesses that so willingly helped our cause. Irene Jardine, Chairman Gibsons

★ Your Horoscope ★

Horoscope for the next week

By Trent Varro

ARIES - March 21 to April 20
"Look back" to December of 1970. If you made a "mistake" at that time, you have the opportunity to correct it now. If conditions were good for you personally, they should be even better now.

TAURUS - April 21 to May 20
There's a very worthy and solid foundation that you have set up in the past, that has the "strength of Gibraltar." Loved ones will help you immensely in building this 'deal' into an even stronger fortress.

GEMINI - May 21 to June 20
Your horoscope for this week indicates much "action" and luck going on all around you. This is no time to sit back and wait. The light is green for "go!" Treat others with kindness.

CANCER - June 21 to July 21
The "little storm" in your horoscope right now, just could blow up into a tornado. If you are wise, you'll remain quietly in the background of any controversial disputes with others.

LEO - July 22 to August 21
The whole month of November should be one of the "high lights" of 1972 for all Leo individuals. Luck, charm, personality and gain of all description is surrounding your solar sign.

VIRGO - August 22 to Sept. 21
A trip or vacation of some sort is indicated that would probably prove most enjoyable. This is a wonderful time to relax and enjoy yourself. If you go on a trip, check everything at home carefully before leaving.

LIBRA - Sept. 22 to Oct. 22
Don't allow yourself to become distracted from the goal you have set for your future. This is an excellent time to set your sights high and "think" in a positive manner. You'll receive much help.

SCORPIO - Oct. 23 to Nov. 21
Important people are watching you now. Be sure that they see the "best" and not the "worst" of your capabilities. You have a splendid chance for advancement in business. Make the most of it.

SAGITTARIUS Nov 22 Dec 20
There's a strong aspect in your chart highlighting security, benefits, home and property. Be aware of where you are going, and lay plans carefully. Investigate all details with care.

CAPRICORN - Dec. 21 Jan. 19
Buying and selling is still most important this week. Bonds, stocks and securities all come under some very favourable conditions, but be thorough in your checking all aspects before taking any action.

AQUARIUS - Jan. 20 - Feb. 18
Let others know that you are "aware" of conditions as they are. Be realistic in your outlook on life and try to understand the actions of those around you. Be honest with yourself.

PISCES - Feb. 19 to Mar. 20
Literary and communication media are again under most favourable aspect. Advertising and public relations work also come within this beneficial cycle. Be fair in dealing with others.

SAM to visit area soon

The director of the provincial government Operation SAM, Andy Heatherington, visited the area Nov. 1. SAM is the program in effect throughout the province where a travelling team with crushing equipment compress old car bodies, fridges, and other solids and stack them ready for removal.

The Regional Board requested the services of SAM when the program was instituted last year. It is hoped the team of four men with their equipment will move into the area within the next four weeks. They will work at the garbage dumps and at some existing accumulations of car bodies. Details of location of sites to which old automobiles may be depsited will be advertised in subsequent editions of this paper.

Point of Law

(By a Practicing Lawyer Copyright)

What is a lawsuit? What is involved in suing someone? What is meant by taking legal action? What is a charge?

The first two questions mean practically the same thing. The third question may refer to a procedure where no-one, as such, is actually sued (see below under petitions and originating notice).

A legal action in the provincial courts may be commenced by: 1. summons, 2. petition and 3. originating notice.

A summons is the most common method and, in this case, one or more persons called defendants are being sued. The lawsuit may be for a definite sum of money claimed as being owed, or it may be for an unstated sum of money, such as general damages for an injury (for example, as arising out of a car accident), for defamation of character, etc.

Where an unstated sum of money is claimed, if the person or persons suing, the plaintiffs, are successful, the judge will assess the amount to be paid. Of course, there may be a lawsuit by way of summons where no money is claimed. For example, a dispute over the ownership of an interest in land, or some chattel.

A smaller number of lawsuits are commenced by a document called a petition, a divorce action, adoption proceedings, etc. the parties are termed petitioner and respondent.

A rare way of proceeding is by the originating notice. This is a more summary type of lawsuit - such as a wife claiming an interest in land registered in her husband's name only. Sometimes no-one is is sued, like an action to determine the validity of a will.

In all cases the document is normally prepared and signed by a lawyer but it is of no effect until issued by the court registry, that is, stamped, sealed, dated and a copy filed. It is then ready for service on the defendant or respondent or other party.

What is notice of motion? This is a document that is issued after an action has been started by one of the methods discussed above. Its purpose is to give notice of an application to court to settle some dispute prior to trial, such as adding another plaintiff or defendant or, in some cases, an application for judgement. The document must, in most cases, be served on the solicitors for the other party or parties.

What is an originating notice of motion? There is no such thing.

How is a legal action terminated? Either by a judgement or a discontinuance. A judgement settles the dispute - unless there is an appeal but sooner or later there will be a final judgement. A discontinuance is a document filed by the solicitor of the party commencing the action in which the solicitor requests that the action be terminated. It is most often filed when an out-of-court settlement has been reached.

In many cases, the action is, in effect, in abeyance due to the failure of one of the parties to pursue his legal remedies. However, where there have been no proceedings for one year, the party wishing to proceed must serve on all other parties a notice of intention to proceed at least one month before any further proceedings may be commenced.

A charge refers to criminal proceedings where there is no plaintiff, the parties being a prosecutor and a defendant.

Good crowd follows rugby

Rugby ins a game which is not stopped by the elements, but so far the Gibsons team has not had to put up with any adverse weather. Saturday afternoon the sun came through the clouds and Gibsons went out to meet the Trojans. The field was wet but the footing was good and after one tackle in the mud one wasn't conscious of the dampness.

The game got underway with the referee's whistle for the Trojans but Gibsons seemed to be wallowing in the mud. The Trojans pressed Gibsons in their own end but were unable to score until their inside center drop-kicked the ball through the uprights from about 20 yards out giving them a 3-0 lead. This seemed to awaken the Gibsons side as they began to play good team rugby. Bob Johnson after some good passing ran by several Trojans and put the ball down for Gibsons first try. John Crosby split the uprights to give Gibsons the lead 6-3.

The Gibsons side continued to hold the edge in play and shortly before the half Gibsons was awarded a penalty kick. John Crosby succeeded in making the kick and the score at the half was 9-3 for Gibsons.

The second half saw Gibsons come out running and it soon became apparent that the Trojans could not keep up the pace.

Shortly after the opening kick-off, Gibsons was again pressing and on a play which involved some good passing and running, John Crosby put the ball down in the end zone. The conversion attempt was unsuccessful. Score 13-3. Shortly after John Crosby added 3 more on a penalty kick. Score 16-3.

Gibsons continued to maintain a good offensive and bottled the Trojans up. Then on a pop kick over the Trojan three line Bob Emerson ran into the end zone and fell on the ball. John Crosby added the convert. Score 22-3.

In the final minute of play Bob Emerson again scored on an excellent run. John Crosby added the two point conversion for his 16th point of the day. The game ended Gibsons 28, Trojans 3.

Once again there was a good crowd. Gibsons next game is in town Nov. 11, 12 o'clock at UBC. They then return home on the 18th to meet SFU.

This club cannot be sponsored and operating costs are maintained through donations and functions put on by the club. Nov. 25 the club is holding a dance at Roberts Creek hall. Tickets can be purchased from any team member.

The future is in our hands.

Most Canadians believe in that thought. Others believe in it, but won't lift a finger to do anything about it. Not all fingers are born equal. That's why, if we want to keep this country together, some need more lifting than others. So what do we do about it?

There is a lot we can do. First thing, we should start caring and understanding. Not just about our own neighborhood, but about all of Canada. We've got to help all those people and parts of Canada that need it most.

There is a have Canada and a have-not Canada. The have-nots from coast to coast need our help. If all of us start caring and understanding our fellow Canadian, surely we'll come together. If we don't, we'll come apart. Do we want to have Canada, or have-not Canada? Only we have the answer.

Canada. Stand together. Understand together.
