Remarks irk firemen

Editor: In the last issue of your paper, there was a news article in which Mr. Dixon, waterworks superintendent, criticised the RCVFD for the amount of water used by the department during practices in June.

Sir, we take great exception to such nonsense. Was this man at any of the practices? Does he know what is involved to be a volunteer fireman? In order to maintain efficiency one has to practice and strangely enough, use water!

As a point of information, during June we had a total of three practices which involved water. One we assembled at the propane tanks and used sea water! The next practice we used water out of the creek and the third we spent on a familiarization trip up Lockyer road (there are no hydrants in that area). Completing the evening we did use some 400 gallons of water. The total usage for the month, out of the hydrants at the most would be 800 gallons. Most homes use that amount, in the same period, just sprinkling lawns!

Being critical is man's privilege, but it's us who should be critical. Do the public know that we pay rent on all the hydrants, flush the hydrants, and also clean the brush from around the hydrants?

It is not our fault that the water system is inadequate, although we, fail to understand why, as it is a new system. For example one of the biggest fire hazards in Roberts Creek is the community hall. Most of the time the hydrant which would supply the water to this location, does not have enough pressure to supply our antique pumper, consequently it is of no use.

In conclusion we feel that we are doing our best, perhaps all those who feel that we are using too much water, could attend at one of our practices. We meet every Monday night for three hours and we would appreciate learning how to save water and put out fires. Meanwhile without water we remain, Your faithful Roberts Creek Volunteer Fire department.

DIXON ALL WET

In regard to the recent article in the paper, in which Mr. Gordon Dixon, water works superintendent, called on the Regional District board to help him get Roberts Creek firemen to be less generous in the use of water during practice periods.

I could see no problem here whatsoever, all Mr. Dixon would have to do, is to get in touch with the Roberts Creek Fire department, and request they be less generous, instead of them receiving the word third and fourth hand by some employee of the Regional board, not his water works department.

Just to keep the record straight, of the three fire practices held in June, on June 10 water was drafted from Roberts Creek with our portable pump to top up our tanks. On June 17 no water was used whatsoever. On June 24 approximately 800 gallons was used from the regional water.

It is my opinion that if 800 gallons in a one month period can create a water problem, we are in dire need of a new system or new management of the old system. My suggestion to Mr. Dixon would be to stop belittling the volunteers and do his job by maintaining the leaking hydrants in our area, which we have complained about on numerous occasions and to communicate with all fire departments when regional district water is not available, so we as firemen will not be losing time hitting dry hydrants. —Fire Chief Glen Kraus.

Must improve water line

Work which must be done to the Chapman Creek supply line in order to fill the expanding demands on the Regional District water system were outlined by Gordon Dixon, works superintendent at the recent meeting of the Regional District board. (See editorial on Page two.)

Here is what Mr. Dixon told board members:

In the past few weeks of pleasant weather we have had an opportunity to observe the effects of our efforts to upgrade the distribution system and gauge the greater demands that our increasing number of users are making on the system.

Improvements made this year have provided an improved supply to all areas. The result is that people have more water available to them so consequently they are using more. It is important to note that nearly all our new customers are large permanent homes and are putting in lawns and gardens. This results in higher water use. Due to the increased demand we have experienced difficulty in keeping the reservoir full, even though this is probably not our peak day demand for this summer.

If we are to be sure of being able to supply the expected demands in the summer of 1975 we should start to replace the supply main to Chapman Creek. In the Dayton and Knight Report of April, 1974, which the Board has recently accepted, the main was described as old and in poor condition and its replacement should be considered essential.

The portion of the main which could be replaced easily is the present 3500 feet of 10 inch wood stave which is closest to the reservoir. However, due to its steeper grades the replacement of the 10 inch wood stave would not result in an increase flow of water.

Also, the 10 inch line is mostly buried and is in relatively better condition than the 12 inch main closer to the intake. The 10 inch line will probably give a few more year service.

School Road sewer planned

If you have noticed heavy cement sewer pipes lining the lower part of School road they are intended to replace the present worn-out and smaller system, many years old.

The contract for this job was awarded the J. B. Excavating Company Ltd. at a cost of $38,924. There were two bids submitted. The other was from Fiedler Bros. Ltd. at $52,009. Council awarded the contract to the lowest bidder.

Photo contest

There is less than a week in which to get your baby pictures entered in the Sea Cavalcade photo contest.

There are three categories to be judged, happiest, saddest and funniest. The cutest overall winner may be picked from any of these categories.

All pictures should be sent to Kathy Whiting, 1108 Franklin road or to Sea Cavalcade, Box 1001, Gibsons post office. Pictures must be snapshot size and babies must be resident of the Sunshine Coast, from birth to three years old and one picture only per baby.

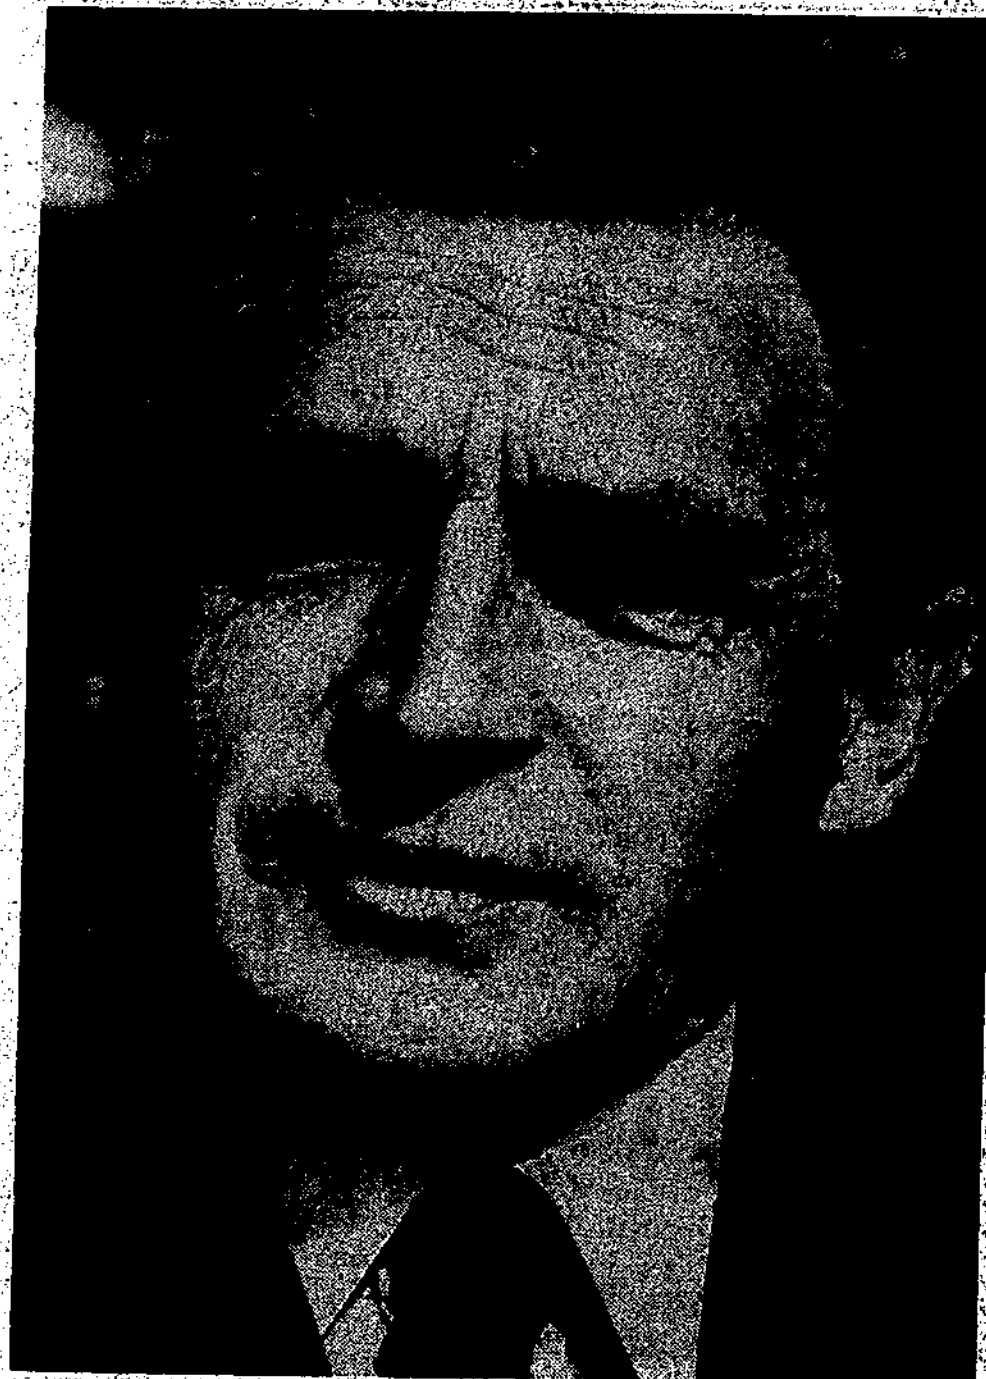

Further information can be obtained from Miss Whiting at 886-9890 or Mrs. Diane Quigg at 886-9190. Results will be announced July 31.

MAN FOUND DEAD

Guy Wooten, 42, of Elphinstone road, Granthams, was found dead Monday in his home. RCMP investigated and found a rifle close by.

WHAT BETTER monument to vandalism could be desired than to leave the above Pioneer Park scene as it is with a sign erected revealing that vandals did this, a morbid type of vandal.

Liberal winner!

JACK PEARSALL

Liberal candidate in the federal election Monday who regained the Coast-Chilcotin seat for the Liberals in a campaign described as decidedly low-key.

With three outlying polls to hear from, with no chance of their changing the voting trend, Mr. Pearsall obtained 10,252 votes. Lorne Greenaway, Progressive-Conservative, tallied 9,980 votes and Harry Olausen, NDP coming third with 8,692 votes. Mr. Olausen was the sitting member seeking re-election.

Committee recognized

The new Sunshine Coast Resources Committee has received official notification from Victoria that the Sunshine Coast area committee formed under the terms of Bill 84, the Community Resources Act, is recognized.

Along with this information came a $300 grant for organization expenses. The committee chaired by Mrs. A. McSweeney is gratified that it has received recognition directly from the minister.

The committee is now in process of arranging its constitution so it can register under the Societies Act.

Bill 84 received final reading in the legislature before adjournment and based on the reporting in the provincial

Hansard, the bill was modified in places and made more definite or cleared up in meaning in other areas.

Sunday poor day for drivers

Two minor injuries were reported as the result of car accidents during the July 1 week end, RCMP report. There were 27 violations of the Motor Act from which there were 28 charges laid. Most of them occurred Sunday.

There were four Friday, two Saturday, 20 on Sunday and one on Monday's holiday. The record shows no fatalities.

Water and expansion!

When Mr. Dixon, Regional District works superintendent aroused the ire of Roberts Creek Volunteer Fire Department by complaining they were using too much water for practice purposes, Mr. Dixon managed to bring attention to the water situation generally.

Without attempting to weigh the merits or demerits of the argument between the firemen and Mr. Dixon it would be a good time to give some consideration to the general water system. During the average year August has usually been a month when those in authority kept a close eye on the water supply in order to make sure enough would be available in the event of an emergency and to make sure the average householder did not run short of water.

At the same meeting of the Regional board where Mr. Dixon asked the board to help him cool down the Roberts Creek firemen and their use of water, Mr. Dixon also presented a report of the situation of the main bringing water down from Chapman Creek reservoir area to lower levels. This main is ancient to say the least. Water engineer Martin Dayton in his report to the board last April described the main as old and in poor condition and its replacement should be considered essential.

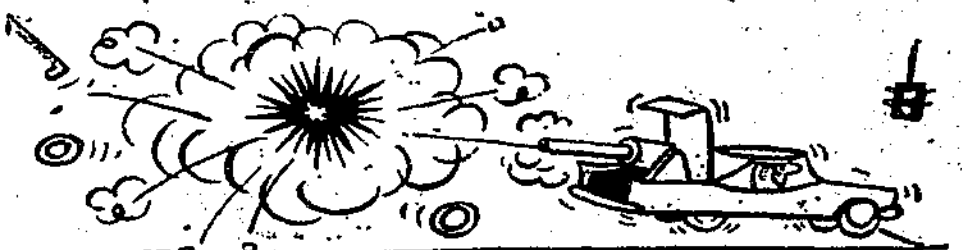

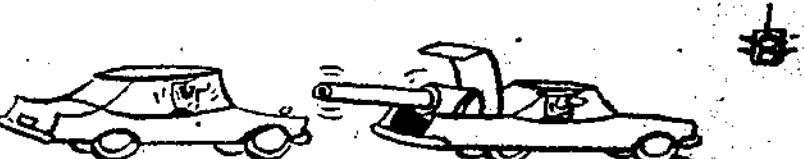

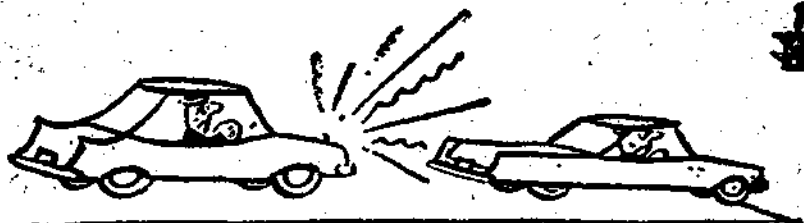

Mr. Dixon, looking ahead one year urges the board to start replacing some of the Chapman Creek line as quickly as possible. The board consented and decided to order the piping for fall delivery. Growth of the number of water users is increasing if one considers the number of subdivisions becoming available to the public. These subdivisions will put greater pressure on the area water supply and if you recall the record figure involving home construction on the Sunshine Coast covering the last six months here could be a supply problem sooner than expected.

There were 368 new homes built in the Regional District during the first six months of the year but not all of them would be on the water line which does not extend to Halfmoon Bay area. Sechelt is using Regional District water and 41 homes were in process of building between January and June.

One can understand Mr. Dixon's attitude towards wasteful usage of needed water but his concern with the operations of the Roberts Creek firemen is a byplay on the situation. Its rights and wrongs are not the purpose of this editorial. Even if the firemen had not taken umbrage at his remarks this editorial would have appeared.

His attitude towards the water situation concerns the immediate future and unless something is done about the Chapman Creek pipeline, more than Roberts Creek firemen will have something to say about the water supply. So Roberts Creek firemen you just happen to be in a situation which riles you. It will most likely draw more attention to the future of our water supply.

BEEP! BEEP! BEEP!

Debunk education jargon!

Addressing the annual meeting of the Vanier Institute in Winnipeg recently a speaker urged that myths be taken out of learning so people could grasp what education is.

Speaker at the annual meeting was professor Anthony Burton, Faculty of Education University of Manitoba. He is now with the Canadian International Development agency as a consultant in education to the Government of Peru.

He said that the word learning has been taken over by psychologists and educators who talk about it in ways that most people cannot be bothered to understand. We should demythologise learning as an idea, so as to talk about it in ways that can be grasped by most people.

Professor Burton said that at best, we focus on developing the individual until he is fully grown, a sane, healthy, law-abiding, mated, self-supporting adult. At worst we incarcerate the magician-lover for 12, perhaps 15 years and then give him a charioteer's license although no one really knows how to judge whether he can drive.

Professor Burton asked: 'Why is it that so many of our sane fall victims to mental illness and nervous breakdowns? Why do the healthy slide into obesity, drugs and the alcohol habit? Why are the lawyers so rich and yet the prisons are so full of the poor? Why do the mated so often drift apart? Why do so many people with good jobs and high wages find it impossible to support themselves without contracting crippling debts?

He said that we grow up at a price. We are always the victims of a grotesque confidence trick played upon us by the way of life in which we are raised. We learn given ways of thinking, knowing, feeling and behaving, and these are the ways common to most people around us.

'We have two problems in Canada. We cannot get what we need and we are tricked into believing that what we get is what we want.

'It is a myth that schools produce good charioteers. Most people that we meet, are not all that good at what they do and such competence as they do have was not learned in school but on the job. Most of what we learn is not learned in school.'

Finding out you've been cheated is bad. Finding out it's legal is even worse.

Most deals are good deals but too often unsuspecting consumers have been taken for a ride by unscrupulous businesses. What seemed like a fair deal turned out to be a raw deal and to make matters worse it was legal. Now all that's changed because of the Trade Practices Act — the first of its kind in Canada. It's designed to stop "sharp" practices and in doing this it also helps honest businesses who've had to put up with unfair competitors for too long.

Now the law can help you stand up for your rights.

The Trade Practices Act is now law in British Columbia and will be administered by the Department of Consumer Services.

Its aims are quite simple: to stop misleading and deceptive practices quickly and to help consumers recover their losses if someone has taken advantage of them.

By familiarizing yourself with the Act you'll become an informed consumer making it far more difficult for you to be the victim of an illegal practice. And if you should become the victim, the Act will help open the doors to the court so you can stand up for your rights.

Consumer transactions defined.

Doing business in the marketplace of the 70's is often more than just the straight sale of merchandise. So the Trade Practices Act also defines the leasing of goods, the supplying of services and the granting of credit, as consumer transactions. This definition applies where you've entered the deal after July 5, 1974. Only dealings governed by real estate, insurance and securities legislation are exempt.

Types of illegal business practices.

Two basic types of practices are prohibited by the Act: deceptive and unconscionable.

Deceptive practices include everything from a dishonest sales pitch to misleading advertising and phone solicitations or exaggerated repair estimates. In other words if it's misleading, or has the tendency to mislead — it's deceptive.

Let's say you were told your new car will get "30 miles to the gallon" when in fact you'll probably have difficulty in getting 20 miles to the gallon — that's deceptive.

Another example is T.V. repairs. You're told you need a new $75 picture tube when all your set needs is some minor adjustments.

If the court agrees that you've been misled, then you have a right to recover any loss or damages suffered and the deceptive practice will also be stopped — for good.

An unconscionable practice is one that involves high pressure tactics and slippery, tricky deals. You've been conned, the business in question knows it and the court won't enforce the "bargain". Or to put it more politely, if the agreement is so highly unreasonable as to be unfair, or the circumstances surrounding the transaction are overly harsh, the court may declare the entire transaction to be unconscionable. If so, the supplier cannot enforce the contract but you may sue him if you have suffered any loss.

An example might be an elderly consumer who has literally been badgered into a long-term contract. Another possible situation may be, where you are led to believe you are renting a colour T.V., but in fact you are committed to buy the set from the start.

These are only a few examples of the type of selling tactics and other misleading practices that are the target of the Trade Practices Act. To help you the Act lists examples covering a broad range of deceptive acts or unfair schemes.

Who's in charge?

A Director of Trade Practices will be appointed to handle consumer complaints and investigate possible wrong-doings by suppliers.

The director will have a number of options available in order to settle a dispute.

First of all, an attempt will be made to discuss the matter with both sides and amicably resolve the matter. We're confident the great majority of cases can be handled this way.

If it appears the law has been broken, the director can ask the supplier to sign an agreement promising to abide by the Act and, for example, give the consumer back any money lost in the transaction.

If the supplier refuses, the director can ask the courts to settle the matter quickly and fairly.

Putting an end to "caveat emptor".

"Let the buyer beware" is a saying that's thousands of years old and the Department of Consumer Services will do everything possible to help you become aware of deceptive and unconscionable practices so that you will know when someone is trying to take advantage of you.

Service Centres will be opened at several locations in the province to receive and act on complaints. The centres will be staffed by counsellors, researchers, investigators, specialists when necessary and volunteers — all ready to help you. They'll be located in areas where you shop, close to public transportation and equipped with library/resource facilities.

Get in on the act.

One of the most important aspects of the Act is that it makes it easy to help yourself.

The Act catalogues traps for the unwary, loopholes and common abuses to watch for and what you can do about them... and there is a lot you can do. You can pursue a complaint on your own, and if necessary, go to court on it. You can ask the judge to stop the illegal practice and to help other consumers in addition to yourself who may have lost money due to the same sharp practice.

So learn all you can about the Act and don't forget to use the valuable services of organizations like the Consumers' Association of Canada, Better Business Bureaus, the newspaper help columns as well as the Department of Consumer Services.

Now responsible consumers and honest businesses can stand up for their rights. With the help of the Trade Practices Act you've got what it takes to get yourself a fair deal.

If you're interested in learning more about the Act just write to the Department of Consumer Services in Victoria, B.C. Be sure to specify whether you're a consumer or business so you'll get the pamphlet that concerns you most.

Chapman Creek

The 12 inch portion is 3100 feet long and in very poor condition, with most of it exposed. There is no road access to any of it. By replacing the 12 inch main, we could increase our supply from 1.5 million G.P.D. to 2.2 million G.P.D. which is the capacity of our present intake. The present 10 inch line has a capacity of 2.2 million G.P.D. if we can keep it in an operating condition and it is at least readily accessible should repairs be necessary.

I wish to propose that 2500 feet of the 12 inch main be rebuilt. This would replace the most worn out portions of the line. The remaining 500 feet portion is closest to the intake and may never have to be replaced with high pressure pipe. When a new intake is located at a higher elevation the natural location for the supply main would follow the present route to a place 500 feet from the intake where it would leave the creek bank and head off across a flat area by a relatively cheaper and shorter route. If we construct the new main to that point with high pressure pipe we will be providing for the future main, and also providing access to within 500 feet of our present intake. We will increase our flows from 1.5 million gallons per day to in excess of two million gallons.

In Dayton & Knight's Report Plan A recommended a 14 inch main. This would serve the existing area to 1983 with three million G.P.D. Plan B specified a 16 inch main. This would serve an expanded area to 1985 with four million G.P.D.

14 inch pipe costs approximately $2.00 a foot less than 16 inch pipe, and the construction costs are relatively the same.

The costs of the main replacement would be:

14" - 2500' at $13/ft. $32,500
Clearing & laying pipe 30,000

16" - 2500' at $15/ft. $37,500
Clearing & laying pipe 30,000

$67,500

The most favourable time to build the main is September or October. If the spring is as wet as this past year, construction would be very difficult. Supply of materials is slow at present, but a three month delivery time would have the pipe here before fall.

Therapy van

Linda Martin, occupational therapist with CARS will be at the wheel of the occupational therapy van, when it visits the Sunshine Coast, between July 15 and July 19.

Miss Martin will be treating patients through referral by their family physicians and will be located at St. Mary's Hospital July 17, 18 and 19. Purpose of the van, which travels the area twice a year, is to keep patients with arthritis independent in their own homes.

Careful assessment of each patient's functional abilities and disabilities is Step No. 1 for Miss Martin. Then, when necessary, she will make working splints to fit the patient's joints, providing needed support and reducing pain.

THE TRUTH THAT HEALS

On the Christian Science radio program, advertised in the Coast News to-day, people tell of their experiences in relying more on God's unchanging love and less on themselves and how this has eased them out of shyness that would hinder progress.

For more information or free literature on Christian Science, please contact the Assistant Committee on Publications for the Sunshine Coast Ph. 885-9773.

A NEW SERVICE to waiting ferry traffic is being provided by Gibsons Kinsmen at Langdale. They are serving hot dogs, hamburgers, coffee, pop, etc. to motorists waiting in line outside the terminal. All profits from the project go to their swimming pool project.

The Sunshine Coast RCMP Centennial Trophy for the Pinto baseball league, presented to the most sportsman-like player on the Sunshine Coast was won by Gary Knowles, a member of the L & K Loggers team. The presentation was made at the conclusion of the divisional all-star game, on Baseball Day, July 1 at Brothers Park.

A big thank you from Gibsons Athletic association goes to the coaches, scorekeepers, umpires and all others who helped during the season.

WALLET FOUND IN WATER

A wallet in a jacket found floating in the floats area of the Municipal wharf was found by Fred Barker and turned in at the Coast News. The owner of the wallet was located and it was returned to him.

The food basket

Chicken is a low cost, high-quality protein food. It appeals to weight-watchers because of its low-calorie count (200 per half cup boned roast chicken.) It is also a source of minerals and vitamins.

When buying chicken, compare the price of whole chickens and chicken parts. If whole chickens are lower in price per pound, purchase these and cut them up yourself. If a recipe calls for chicken breast, you may substitute other less expensive chicken parts. Try these delicious chicken recipes.

Chicken Sukiyaki

Sauce:
¾ cup soya sauce
½ cup water
2 tbsp. orange juice
1 tbsp. sugar
½ tsp. salt

Combine ingredients, bring to a boil and cool. Divide sauce in half.

3 lbs. chicken legs or 3 whole chicken breasts
2 tbsp. oil
1½ cups diagonally sliced celery
8 small onions, thinly sliced
8 green onions, 1-inch pieces
3 cups sliced mushrooms (about ¾ lb.)

Bone legs or breasts, remove skin and cut chicken in 2 x 1 x ½-inch pieces. Cook half the ingredients at a time. Sauté chicken in oil 1 to 2 minutes, add celery and cook 1 minute. Add remaining vegetables and sauce and continue cooking about 7 minutes more. Repeat with remaining ingredients. Serve immediately with rice.

Chicken Mexicali

2½ - 3 lb. fresh cut up chicken
2 tbsp. vegetable oil
1 cup tomato sauce (7½ oz. tin)
1 tsp. chili powder
5 drops tabasco sauce
2 tbsp. vinegar or lemon juice
1 tsp. salt
½ cup water
½ tsp. oregano
¼ tsp. garlic powder
½ cup minced onion
2 cups shredded medium cheddar cheese

Witnesses to hold assemblies

Nearly one million delegates will be on hand at assemblies throughout North America starting in June and ending in August. This includes 18 gatherings in Canada from Nanaimo to St. Johns. Sessions will be in French, Greek, Italian and English according to the predominance of the delegates. Convention manager William Johnson heads a staff of upwards of 3,000 volunteers now busy preparing for the Vancouver event.

Grants to assist Scout Jamboree

Besides hundreds of dedicated men and women pitching in to help make the 2nd Provincial Scout Jamboree at Sooke this summer a roaring success many branches of the provincial government have been providing their services.

In addition to a grant of $14,900 from the Provincial Secretary the Hon. Ernest Hall there have been gifts in kind including expert advice on the water system for the campsite.

The Highways department has aided in improving accessibility to the campsite. The B.C. Forest Service is advising on fire prevention methods and training scout personnel for these duties. Other departments have provided technical advice.

Manpower to improve the tenting areas has been supplied by the Human Resources Employment Project since early 1974. The Capitol Region Student Plan has engaged in clearing land, improving the water front and building trails.

SPIRITUAL REVOLUTION

A century ago, in announcing Himself to be the Messenger of God awaited by all the world religions, Baha'u'llah, founder of the Baha'i Faith, declared the unification of mankind in one people and one universal social order to be the Will of God in this age.

He asserted that the revelation of this divine purpose had set in motion forces within both man and society that will in time transform human existence. Baha'u'llah's declaration of His Mission was rejected by the rulers of society to whom He addressed it in the latter half of the nineteenth century.

Humanity was therefore left to struggle with those forces of which He had spoken, but left to do so, in a context not of search for global unification, but rather of attachment to national, racial, cultural, class or political loyalties. The fruit is the world we live in.

There is not on earth to-day a social system which can be said to serve man's needs. There is none in which human identity does not seem endangered. There is none which appears to possess real moral authority. This is as true of socialistic societies as it is of capitalistic ones; as true of cultures based on Christian values as it is on those founded on Islam or Buddhism.

All quiet on library front

All is well between Sechelt's council and the Library board. At Wednesday night's council meeting last week, members of the board expressed their felings over some remarks at a previous meeting about old ladies, uttered by Ald. Norman Watson.

Publication in a news story of these utterances roused their ire so some members attended council and heard Ald. Watson maintain he did not say anything about age.

Now that members of the Library board have caught up with the situation between Victoria Library officials and Ald. Watson, the board members are prepared to go ahead in getting the library reorganized and in operation, with the aid of a $900 government grant which will be matched by council.

Fresh vegetables in food supply

July Food Outlook by Food Advisory Services, Agriculture Canada, Ottawa.

PORK: Supplies are expected to continue to average above year-earlier levels.

BEEF: Slaughtering may average close to levels of one year ago.

EGGS: Production may have peaked in June, but supplies will continue to be overabundant.

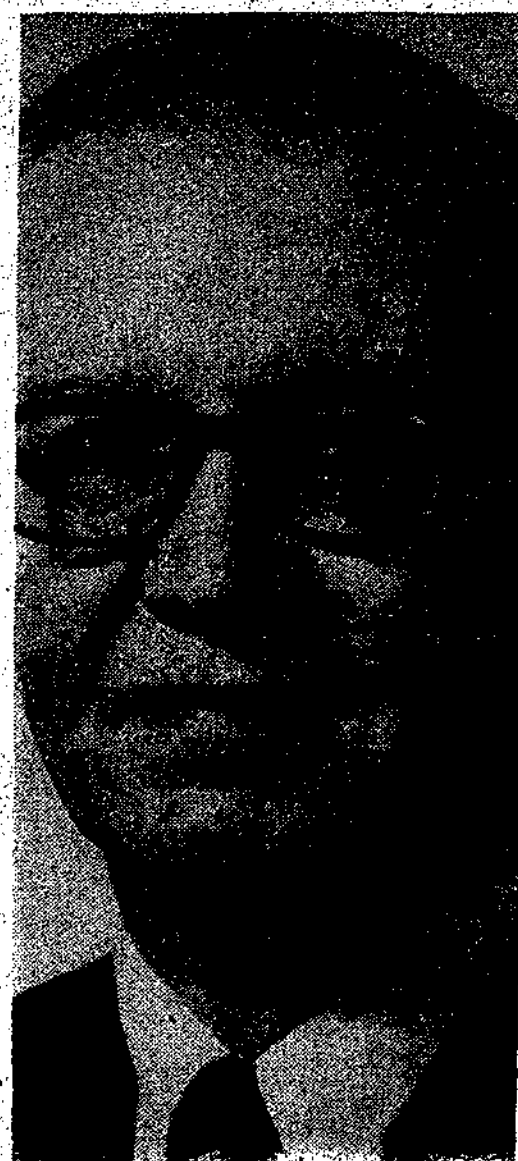

POULTRY: Supplies of broiler chickens should be ample, while roaster chickens should be plentiful. Turkey supplies will continue to be overabundant.

FRUIT: Strawberries will be available during the month in ample supply. A wide selection of other fresh fruits will be available in adequate supply during mid to late July. These include apricots, cherries, currants, gooseberries, loganberries and raspberries.

VEGETABLES: There will be a wide range of domestically produced vegetables in adequate supply available during July. These include green beans, beets, cabbage, cucumbers, lettuce, parsley, peas, radishes, shallots and spinach.

MEETING CANCELLED

Owing to the scheduled council meeting having very little business to handle and the lack of sufficient aldermen to constitute a quorum, Tuesday night's meeting was cancelled.

Drawings by youths praised

Charcoal drawings by local youth on exhibit last month in Gibsons Public Library have drawn considerable favorable comment. They were drawn by six students ages from 11 to 15 and were pupils of Mrs. Joan Warn.
