Fun on Victoria Day

On Monday, May 24th, the citizens of Creston will endeavor to entertain a large crowd of visitors from the neighboring towns. Preparations are now being made for a series of athletic sports and other events that will ensure a splendid day's amusement. The principal event will be the return baseball match between the Y.C.L. and Creston, but the children of the town will be assured of a real good time, as races and other spirited events will be arranged for the edification of their parents, and to the great enjoyment of visitors. It is proposed that the children assemble at about ten o'clock and that young and old parade to the ball ground, where patriotic songs will mark the opening of the day's proceedings. An effort will also be made to include several horse races by the Indians. Next week's Review will contain a full program of the day and all are asked to lay themselves out for a good time. This must not be misunderstood as Creston's day of celebration. It is understood that Creston will celebrate in fitting style on Dominion Day, July 1st, its usual day.

The Erickson Civilian Rifle Association will open the season on Saturday next, with a spoon shoot, this being the first of a series which they intend to hold this season. As the membership is a very large one, and it is desirous that as many members as possible can get through their shooting on Saturday, it is requested that all members intending to compete will be at the range at 2 o'clock prompt. Those members who are unable to attend on Saturday, will be allowed to shoot during the evenings next week.

Knights of Columbus

INAUGURATION CEREMONY AT CRANBROOK

A council of the Knights of Columbus, a Catholic order, which has a strong membership roll, both in Canada and the States, was instituted at Cranbrook on Monday. The initiation ceremony commenced at 8 a.m., when Mass was celebrated at St. Mary's church, the whole of the candidates attending. After Mass, at 10.30, the candidates were assembled in the auditorium, when the 1st degree members were advanced. After lunch the initiation of the 2nd and 3rd degree members was proceeded with. The ceremony concluded with a banquet at the Cranbrook hotel. Altogether there were about 150 members present. Several gentlemen from Creston were initiated. Many of the toasts were drunk in clear cold water.

Geo. S. Coleman, proprietor of the Waldorf Hotel, Ymir, has been acquitted of both charges of attempted murder and theft, preferred against him by one Henry Sann. The cases were heard before Justice Martin at the recent assizes.

Provincial Constable Wilson has returned from Nelson, where he has been on official business at the Nelson Assizes, the criminal list of which is now concluded. The prosecution has failed in every instance to convict.

To encourage rifle shooting in Canada, the Dominion Rifle Association has decided to pay one-fourth of the railway fare of all competitors who attend the D. R. A. meeting in Ottawa.

Fred. Walker, an old-timer here, arrived in town the latter part of last week. He is a professional piano tuner for several of the best makes of pianos. His services were quickly requisitioned as umpire for the ball game between Yale-Columbia and Creston, in which position he gave every satisfaction.

Swan Swanson, perhaps one of the best known railroad contractors of the northwest, has, as we have reported previously, been paying considerable attention to Creston. His large tract of land is now being ploughed, and he has also purchased other pieces which have been slashed and cleared. This week he purchased, through his agent here, A. W. Coulter, six acres from Frank Johnson, and all the men who have been brought from Dryden, Ont., have been put to work clearing this land. It is Mr. Swanson's intention to make a home for himself, and a splendid residence will go up in the very near future.

F. W. Godfrey and wife were visitors to our town on Monday. Mr. Godfrey represents R. P. Rithet & Co., Victoria, the well-known wet goods wholesalers, who are pushing the much talked-of King George IV. brand.

"PINE CATS" BEAT "BUZZARDS"

CRESTON TEAM OUTCLASSED IN GAME WITH Y.-C.L.

The Port Hill and Yale-Columbia combination was too strong for the Creston baseball team last Sunday. The big crowd of the Creston bunch, however were shown some good ball that offset the pangs of defeat. The local team won the toss and batted first, and it looked as if they would surely romp away from the "Cats" if they could keep up the lick of the first innings, they scoring three runs for seven batters. In the first innings for the "Cats," Creston's weakness at fielding was apparent, and the former were five up when the third man went out. When the local team took their innings, they appeared to be demoralized. Those who were fortunate enough to get in a good strike were unfortunate enough to be caught out, and those who tried to steal bases, got it where the chicken got the axe when the parson came to dinner. At the end of the fourth innings, the score read: Cats 10, Buzzards 5, and for the next two innings, Creston held down the home team, but they did not flatter their supporters by increasing their score as the game certainly warranted at this stage. A heavy downpour of rain and a blustering wind drove the spectators to shelter when Creston started the fifth innings. The game was still continued and at the end of the sixth the "Cats" had scored three more runs, mainly on flukes. It was then agreed between the two captains that the game should be called off owing to the inclemency of the weather, good ball being out of the question. The game, at the conclusion, stood: Pine Cats 18, Buzzards 5.

NOTES ON THE GAME.

[By Jay-Bar.]

Baseball uniforms do not make baseball players.

Like every other accomplishment in life, perfection is attained by practise.

After the struggle Geo. Mead offered to bet a hundred bucks that the same team from Crestor (with one change) could trim the men across the border.

Teddy Malone, to my way of thinking, was the best pitcher of the two. He was a bit erratic in the first innings, but he justified his position later and should keep his job as pitcher.

Jimmy Long made a superb catch that brought him to his haunches, but to the delight of the Creston fans he hugged it and received merited applause. It was the catch of the day.

The Creston captain should drive it into the noddles of his men that one coach at each base is generally found sufficient. Several good opportunities were lost through too many yelling instructions to the rattled runner.

Creston players and rooters took the licking like the good sports they are. I never heard one uncomplimentary remark.

When next the two teams meet, which is likely to be at Creston on the 24th inst., a big "gate" is assured.

The umpire gave the greatest of satisfaction to the teams and spectators.

The "Cats" have a swell catcher. He caught several magnificent balls at difficult angles.

The Port Hill pitcher has a system of winding that reminds one of an automatom doing physical culture stunts. It may be pretty, but effective—I don't think.

On the day's play, Port Hill was the best team, particularly at fielding. The Creston boys mustn't get hot when people remark "butterfingers." It should spur them on to achieve better results.

The local rooters all sported the club's colors, upon which were inserted "We are from Creston—we're here because we're here." Rather sad, wasn't it?

These two old war-horses, Jack and Charlie Ruscroft, played a game that materially helped the Americans to victory.

The best bat on the Port Hill side was G. Bale, the Y.C.L. bookkeeper. As a coach, too, he has the faculty of commanding at the right moment, and what's more, being obeyed.

Young Jack Cameron played a good all-round game for a junior, and doubtless he will be given a regular place in the team, but he should learn to keep cool at critical times.

"Foxy" Merrill rather disappointed the crowd. True he was suffering from a game mitt and a weak ankle, but he made up for a lot by his coaching.

Roy Telford and Ernie Ryckman struck me as being players of ability. Until the rain came, and the ball and grass became slimy, they were faultless at first and third bases.

Owing to some unfortunate misunderstanding, the hotels did not cater for the large crowd from Creston. But the Port Hill ladies magnanimously came to the rescue and fed the hungry excursionists.

They say there is more than one way of killing "Cats." Now, boys, you have tried one—try the other—practise faithfully, and good luck to you.

The world will forgive a man's error in trade
And straightway forget it forever;
The same of an error in morals is true,
But an error in centrefield—NEVER.

Port Hill, take notice. Creston folk are accustomed to eating three squares a day. What was the matter that we all went hungry last Sunday? Fifty-odd people arrived at Port Hill, dusty and feeling fit to chew a steer. After we got round we found there was a feeling of indignation that nothing had been done to make provision for the visitors. But, the ladies, bless 'em, were trying to entertain the hungry crowd. They succeeded, with no thanks to the "enterprising" party who caters for the travelling public. Creston excursionists have many kind stories to relate of the hospitality of the Port Hill ladies, who came to the rescue.

Good sport is reported by three of our most recent visitors, in the angling line. Messrs Madill, organizer of the "Chosen Friends," J. W. Johnston, of the E. Morris Co. Vancouver, and G. Pope, of Calgary, took a trip to Goat River last Monday, on the advice of the scribe, and they personally, the next morning, had all kinds of lies to tell about what "they didn't catch," and the truth about what they did secure. Suffice it to say, we had a "glorious" blow-out on trout last Tuesday morning, and we learn now that we are not the only ones who indulged in the dainty, thanks to the luck of our visitors. None of the chosen friends report that they were Mau(e)ill, or that there was "Too much Johnson."

BOOST THE TOWN YOU LIVE IN

It pays to boost. When you boost your town you are boosting yourself. A knocker injures nobody so much as he does himself. A booster helps nobody more than he does himself. A community of boosters is a valuable asset to any district. Boost! boost!! boost!!! Boost for the town you live in, or if you do not feel like boosting, step aside and make room for a more worthy citizen. And if it hurts you to see the town advancing, it will be more to your advantage to get out than to sit around and knock. "No good sensible working bee listens to the advice of a bed-bug." On the subject of business and community advancement, which are you? It is impossible to boost one town to the disadvantage of other towns in the district. The go-ahead town helps the district and every town in the district. It helps the district by helping itself—by attracting people and business to it. The individual that works hardest intelligently climbs highest, morally and commercially. The sluggard is always in the sump, morally and otherwise. So it is with communities.—Walker's Weekly.

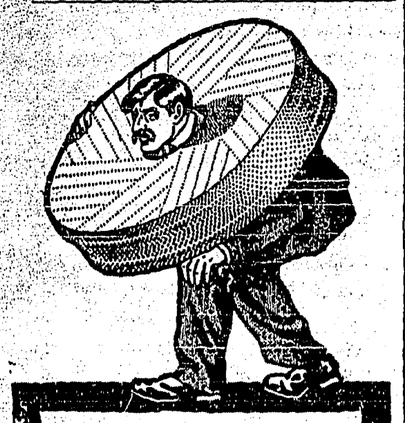
We are here primarily to make a million and incidentally to advertise the resources of the town and district. It is our aim to see that Creston gets a square deal in all matters, and we shall scourge the wicked and canonize boosters. There are no strings on the editor and he alone will dictate our policy and take the medicine. Everybody with the price can take this paper, and nothing extra is charged for reading the ads. Tell us the gossip and the scandal, we need it in our business. Bring in your ads

To the stranger we will say: Don't pay any attention to knockers of the district. Take a stroll out into the suburbs and converse with the ranchers. They are the men who are making the name of the district through practical paying results. We can truthfully say they are the most enthusiastic bunch of boosters we have ever met. It tells the tale. Landseekers are now plentiful, and it is a crying shame that the town harbors a few lazy cofs who are ofttimes the first men that the strangers converse with. We reiterate: Don't take any stock in their assertions; go for a walk and talk to the ranchers. You will find them a highly intelligent body of men, who are making a success of the fruit growing business, and they will gladly give you the benefit of their experiences.



The Man With A Millstone About His Neck

The millstone is lack of special training. It holds one man down to hard work and small wages while others, properly trained, go ahead. But every man and woman who is laboring under such a burden can easily rise to a better position and increased earnings and can find out how for the asking.

To find out how, simply write the I. C. S., stating the position you wish to gain. In return, an institution with 17 years of successful experience in training thousands of others for advancement will tell you how it can fit YOU for a better-paying position. No risk to run. No books to buy. Isn't such a chance for advancement worth this much to you?

There are two ways of spending your dollar: you can spend it at home, gain an easy conscience, make another friend and perhaps get the dollar back to-morrow; or you can send it away, feeling that you have sinned, offend the home merchant, and forever lose the dollar and the blessed influence for good to yourself and neighbor.

Chicken stealing still continues in town. We remark in our "leader" at the head of the first column on page 2, that it is our program to "scourge the wicked." Now we have an idea who the culprits are, and we want to inform them that we have enough sand in us to bawl them out in this paper and take the consequences. We give the citizen this conservative tip. There are several men in town who are too lazy to work and too foxy to steal in broad daylight. They do not spend a cent at a store or at a restaurant. It is known they haven't a cent in the world, yet they exist and look well on the fare. Where do they get their grub? We have a pretty good idea.

The same old game—"The Indians scalp their enemies. The white man skins his friends." The editor of the Prospector must have had other things in his upper stope when he wrote those words of wisdom, for he later remarks: "The only objection to Shrubb's victory over St. Yves is that he presented the spectacle of an Englishman running away from a Frenchman."

Some of the people who say they will send a check to us when they get round to it must be travelling in the wrong direction.

Lest ye forget. The provincial law requires that trout under six inches in length be thrown back into the stream where they are caught. The Dominion law says that trout under eight inches in length are to be returned to the water. If our local anglers drive the provincial law into their heads there will be no kick coming, providing always that they act up to it.

THE CULPRIT NAILED.

One winter's evening in the city of Belfast, when a water inspector was going his round, he stopped at one of the mains on a busy street to turn off the water, owing to some repairs. He had just put the handle on the tap and began turning when a hand was placed on his shoulder. Looking round, he was confronted by a tipsy gentleman, who said in a drunken tone:

"So I have found you at last, have I? It's you that's turning the street round, is it?"

J. W. Johnston, representative of E. Morris & Co., stationers, Vancouver, was in town several days this week. Whilst here Mr. Johnston visited several of the ranches, and also looked over some town lots, and it is quite possible that he may buy several lots, as he is of opinion that Creston is a town with a bright future, and that money spent on land here is a good investment.

Facts About CRESTON.

Climate

The climate of the Creston district is so mild in winter that seldom does the mercury touch zero, and in summer the weather is very warm which is so beneficial for the cultivation and coloring of fruit. Cool evenings, however, are a persistent factor for the enjoyment of repose. The early springs are very favorable for gardening and budding fruit trees. The autumns are very long and the weather is of an ideal Indian summer. Violets and wild strawberries bloom as late as November.

Soil

The soil is an alluvial clay on a clay subsoil. This does not apply, however, to the entire valley, as the lower bench lands are of a black vegetable mould, while the land in the vicinity of Erickson is of a sandy character. Four-fifths of the entire valley is free from stones and gravel. The land is practically level and mostly covered with timber. Fine Government roads are plentiful, one being thirteen miles in length. Soil to suit any kind of vegetation may be secured in this valley.

Moisture

Moisture is plentiful, as it rains every month and is sufficient for bountiful crops of every description.

Products

The famous strawberry fields of Creston outclassed every other district in British Columbia last year for production, quality and prices. In addition to this we raise hay and all kinds of vegetables, apples, peaches, pears, plums, cherries, nectarines and grapes as well as all the smaller bush fruits, which grow in abundance.

Markets

While there is a splendid local demand for products, the principal markets for the Creston district are the big centres of the Crows' Nest Pass and all cities as far east as Fort William and Chapleau, and as far north as Athabasca Landing. We are absolutely the closest producing point to the markets, therefore we receive higher prices by reason of our products reaching the markets in shorter time and better in condition than can be done by any other district.

Transportation

Creston is well favored in the matter of transportation. The C. P. R. passenger trains call here twice daily, going east and west. The eastbound passenger and express passes through here at 12.12 p.m., therefore allowing berries and fruits to be picked in the forenoon and shipped in a refrigerator car with no further handling of fruit until the markets are reached. The G. N. runs trains into Creston. The railroads pass through the Creston Valley, and fruit may be loaded at eight points along the line.

Progress

The progress of the Fruit Growing Industry of the district has been very rapid. Five years ago there was 150 fruit trees shipped to the Creston district, while in the spring of 1908 about 48,000 were received at this point. There were also several hundred thousands of strawberry plants and berry bushes shipped in. We have a rural telephone system, which will shortly be connected with Nelson and Cranbrook, it being already connected with Spokane. A system for waterworks and also for generating electric power has been installed at Goat River Falls. Electricity will also aid in opening up some of our large mines. We have two Graded Schools with an attendance of 80 pupils, three large general stores, gent's furnishings, Canadian Bank of Commerce, photograph gallery, 3 restaurants, 2 hotels, hardware store, tinshop, jewelry store, 2 barber shops, poolroom, 2 laundries, blacksmith, furniture store, tailor, building contractors, harness and saddlery store and two livery stables. The professional men are a doctor and government surveyor.

The Social advantages are, Catholic, Anglican, Presbyterian and Methodist churches, several fraternal lodges and three halls.
