Mr. and Mrs. Whitesides were visitors at Cranbrook a couple of days the early part of the week.

Jimmy Doolan of Cranbrook was here a few days this week, relieving Jack Cameron during the latter's trip to the divisional city.

A Ford party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cameron, Conductor Balment and C. M. Loasby are the first to try out the new road to Kuskanook making the run across on Friday night They report the highway in fair shape and good progress being made on the construction of the wharf.

Alice Siding

The C.P.R. cattleguards in this locality are resplendent in a new coat of whitewash which the section crew applied the latter part of the week. Some of the delapidated guards have been replaced by new ones.

Walter Carr, who has been working on the office staff of the smelter at Trail for a couple of years, is home on an extended vacation.

Ploughing operations are general everywhere, and things are in good shape for planting as soon as a streak of warmer weather happens along.

F. W. Ash got back from Cranbrook on Saturday, where he had been for a week with Mrs. Ash, who is a hospital patient in that city. She continues to make a nice recovery from her operation.

The United Farmers had a well-attended emergency meeting at the Union packing shed on Saturday afternoon, to hear and address from C. E. Barnes, president of the B.C. Fruitgrowers Association, on the 'New Co-Operative Movement in B.C." President Littlejohn occupied the chair, and the meeting adopted a resolution favoring linking up with the province-wide co-operative organization as outlined by Mr. Barnes both here and at Creston the day previous. The meeting also went on record as favoring five-year contracts with growers.

The Fordson tractor and its operator, Jimmy Lockhead, has been smashing cultivation and continuous operation records at the R. B. Staples ranch the past month. The tractor has shown its ability to operate without any stop for fixing of any sort for 70 hours at double discing operations, during which time 110 acres of area was cultivated.

The May meeting of the United Farmers will be held on Tuesday night, and hereafter the meetings will be but once a month—the first Tuesday.

The United Farmers announce a meeting for Saturday night, April 30, to which all those who wish to secure powder under the new government regulation are invited to come and sign up blank forms for the quantity they require so that the supply for Erickson may come along in one shipment. The new bungalow which is being erected for Mr. and Mrs. Langston on the Canyon-Porthill road holds the camp record for high altitude location being just a little further up in the ethereal blue than the home of Geo. Jacks, which runs it a close second.

Stace Smith Dead

Just as we go to press to-day (Thursday) word comes of the death at Nelson on Wednesday, of Stace Smith, who left the Valley about a year ago to reside at Victoria. So far as we can learn death was due to the hardening of the arteries, from which he suffered quite acutely for some months prior to selling his ranch at Alice Siding last year. He came from Victoria to Nelson about ten days ago on a visit to his daughter, the family home still being at the capital. The late Mr. Smith had been a long-time resident in Creston Valley, coming here from Salmon Arm in 1908, and locating on the place he sold early last year to Wood & Norris. Deceased was sixty years of age, and leaves to mourn his demise a family of five daughters and [illegible] A [illegible] body [illegible] (Friday).

Red Cross Campaign

Organization Well Underway For Big Effort In Saskatchewan.

With organizations well underway in the northern part of the province and active preparations being made for the southern half, indications are that Saskatchewan will give a good account of itself during the Red Cross Membership Enrollment week, June 5 to 11.

Full direction and complete authority to carry out plans has been vested by the Provincial Executive of the Red Cross Society in a Special Membership Enrollment Committee consisting of Commissioner W. F. Kerr, Regina, chairman; D. H. McDonald, Fort Qu'Appelle, first vice-president; F. C. Grant, Moose Jaw, manager of the Bank of Hamilton, and treasurer of the local branch; Col. Cross, M.L.A., Regina, and Col. Jas. McAra, Regina, president of the Provincial Command G.W.V.A. The active direction of the campaign in the southern part of the province is placed in Commissioner Kerr's hands, while W. F. Marshall, of Saskatoon, is responsible for the north.

The rural municipality is being made the unit of organization in the country districts. For some time past an organizer has been in the field in the northern part of the province arranging for the appointment of chairman and secretaries for the campaign committees in the several rural municipalities and already committees have been set up in over forty municipalities. It is proposed to place two or three more organizers in the field in the near future.

In addition to organized Red Cross branches, active support is being asked for and very largely obtained from former Victory Loan workers as well as reeves, secretaries and councillors of rural municipalities. Saskatchewan enrolled over 10,000 life members of the Red Cross during the war and personal letters are being sent out to each soliciting their assistance.

Pre-campaign literature is being extensively used. A small four page folder making preliminary announcement of the enrollment campaign has been issued. Another four page leaflet has been prepared setting forth the relations existing between the Red Cross and the returned soldiers in Saskatchewan, a supply of which will be forwarded to each one of the 170 branches of the G.W.V.A. in the province.

Commissioner Kerr has addressed the annual conventions of the G.W.V.A., the School Teachers' Association and the Saskatchewan Registered Nurses' Association in the last two months, all of whom unanimously endorsed the peace time program of the Red Cross, and pledged their support.

The objective in Saskatchewan is the enrollment of every adult at the annual fee of one dollar and all boys and girls as junior members at 25 cents. The entire proceeds of the campaign among the junior members will be applied to the relief of crippled children whose parents are unable to afford remedial measures.

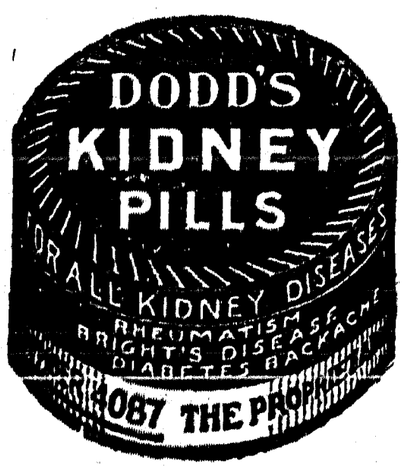
The principal reason why coins are struck and not cast is that molten metals contract on cooling. Thus counterfeit coins, which are always cast, show fatal variations in size, which authentic shaped coins do not.



CAN THE DEAF BE MADE TO HEAR?

This question can be answered both ways. If the deafness is due to Catarrh, success is general if the sufferer persists in the use of Catarrhozone, and thereby drives Catarrh out of the system. Penetrating through the passages of the ear, the soothing vapor of Catarrhozone relieves the inflammation, destroys the Seed of Catarrh and thereby allows nature to reassert herself. For Catarrhal Deafness, pain over the eyes, plugged nostrils and other symptoms associated with Catarrh, use Catarrhozone. You'll be more than pleased with the quick improvement in your condition. Two months' treatment, One Dollar, sold everywhere, or the Catarrhozone Co., Montreal.

Agricultural Instruction In Manitoba

Large Grant Devoted to Instruction In Agriculture.

An especially interesting feature of the grant to the province of Manitoba made under the Dominion Agricultural Instruction Act which amounted, according to the report on the working of the act for 1919-20, to $77,113, is the allotment of $20,000 to extension schools, of $13,000 to aid in the teaching of home economics, and a like amount to the encouragement and development of boys' and girls' clubs. Thus, nearly two-thirds of the grant is devoted directly to instruction in agriculture for the youth of both sexes. Twenty thousand dollars went towards meeting the expenses of a well-established and thorough going agricultural representative system. The balance of $11,000 helps towards dairy work, beekeeping, cost of the Killarney demonstration farm, and to soil analysis and survey. How well home economics has been encouraged is proven by the fact that the women's institutes, which held during the year five-day courses to the number of 390 in home economics, including dressmaking and millinery, increased in number and membership, respectively from 17 and 750 in 1914 the year the act came into force, to 120 and 4,800 in 1919. Under an arrangement that exists between the provincial departments of agriculture and education, whereby boys' and girls' clubs and school fairs are carried on co-operatively, in 1919, 220 central clubs and 1,200 branch clubs had sprung into being with a membership of 26,500. At the school fairs, held practically by all the clubs, entries were made of 887 pigs, 871 calves, 356 sheep, 255 colts, 4,433 chickens, 9,792 specimens of cookery, 9,433 of vegetables, 5,000 samples of canning, 1,000 of dairy products, 1,600 of wood-working, and 2,250 of record keeping work. In all, there were about 28,000 exhibits of actual school work. Of the nearly 30,000 club members, it is well worth noting, that fewer than 2,000 failed to carry their projects through and to make exhibits.

Farmers Are Optimistic

Prospects Generally for a Favorable Crop Season Are Good.

The open weather last fall enabled farmers to do more work than usual on their land, and much is ready for seeding. What the total crop area will be it is hard to say at present. It is generally believed that it will not be larger than last year—if as large—when the area in crop in Alberta was nearly eight million acres, in Saskatchewan nearly seventeen million acres, and in Manitoba somewhat more than six million acres.

There are, however, several districts where a considerably larger area will be put into crop as compared with last year. For example, farmers near Mcleod in Southern Alberta say they will have a hundred per cent. greater acreage in crop than last year. A much larger area of land was summerfallowed than usual last year and this will be put into crop. In the Lloydminster and Battleford areas a considerable number of new settlers will have their land in crop for the first time, while the older settlers generally will seed larger acreages. Farmers generally are optimistic as to their prospects during the coming season.

Registration of Grimm Alfalfa

Seed Grown by Western Canada Farmers Can Now be Obtained.

The first registration of Grimm alfalfa seed grown in Canada has been made by Don H. Bark, of the Irrigation Investigation Branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Brooks, Alberta.

Mr. Bark has been advised by Mr. L. H. Newman, secretary of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association, that the Grimm alfalfa seed grown by six different farmers near Brooks is being registered and that he is sending them certificates of registration. The fields of these growers were inspected last year and the seed offered for registration as Grimm. As a result of the registration, farmers will now be able to have registered seed grown from this stock. This marks a tremendous stride forward for the Brooks district. Seed growers and distributors have been clamoring for this seed for years, and will now be able to procure the pure Grimm alfalfa seed in Alberta.

Money in Hog Raising

Brood Sows Nearly As Valuable As Good Shorthorns.

There is a pronounced rebound in favor of hogs throughout Ontario and Eastern Canada. The short-sighted policy of many farmers last fall in selling their brood sows is bringing its natural reward in disappointment to those now unable to take advantage of an exceptional demand for breeding stock. Brood sows are today reported to be selling, in some districts, to within $5.00 of good grade shorthorns. The following items are contained in the last reports on farm conditions made by the Ontario Department of Agriculture:—

"Brant (county) says that good Shorthorn grade cows at an all-day sale brought only about $95.00 while brood sows fetched around $90.00. Small pigs are unusually scarce on this market this spring and run from $12.00 to $16.00 a pair, according to age."

"Brood sows are in good demand at auction sales according to Kent, Simcoe and Peel representatives, the last quoting prices ranging from $75.00 to $125.00."

When the sacrifice of sows was at its height last fall, packers, realizing the inevitable effect, issued reiterated warnings to farmers. Because of the information then issued the worst in a sweep to the abattoirs was stemmed. Many farmers must now realize how valuable that information was to them. This quick rebound in hogs only confirms the business creed of those closest to the livestock industry that the "in-and-outer," especially in hog breeding, is his own worst enemy.

She Followed Instructions.

Among the instructions which a mistress had given her new maid from the country was one to bring in a glass of milk each evening at 7 o'clock. The first evening Jane brought in the glass clasped tightly in her hand.

"Don't do that again; it's bad etiquette, Jane," ordered the mistress. "Always bring it in on a tray."

Next evening Jane appeared with a tray full of milk in her hand.

"Excuse me, ma'am," said the maid. "Do you want a spoon, or will you lap it up?"

High Price For Pure Bred Stock.

Two records were made at the spring livestock show at Edmonton recently. Sedate Dale, a Shorthorn bull bred by A. M. Steed, of Lethbridge, was sold for $900, which is the highest price paid for a bull at an auction sale in Canada this year, and thirty cents a pound, live weight, was paid for the prize steer in the calf feeding contest. This steer was shown by Norman Williams, of Vermillion, Alberta.

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. Education in Alberta

Rapid Growth of Educational Facilities of the Province.

One hundred and seven school districts, covering an area of eighteen hundred square miles, were formed in Alberta in 1920, an indication of the rapid growth of the educational facilities of the province. At the end of 1920 there were 3,553 schools, or nearly six times as many as in 1906. During the past fifteen years an average of about two hundred additional schools have been formed per year, and attendance at schools has increased from 24,245 to 121,567. The amount of Government grants to schools increased from $170,315 in 1919 to $1,018,068 in 1920.

HOW RHEUMATISM CAN BE OVERCOME

Not By Rubbing, But By Enriching ing the Blood.

Rheumatism is a disorder of the blood. It attacks people when the blood is overcharged with acid and impurities, thus setting up inflammation in the muscles and joints. Wet weather or cold weather may start the tortures of rheumatism, but it is not the cause. The cause is in the blood. Victims of this malady have every reason to fear the first dull ache in the limbs and joints, followed by sharp pains through the flesh and muscles; these are the symptoms of poison in the blood, which will shortly leave the victim painracked and helpless. Liniments, hot applications and rubbing may give temporary ease, but cannot possibly root the trouble out of the system. That can only be done by enriching the blood. This new blood drives out the poisonous impurities, and the rheumatism disappears. If you are a sufferer from this painful malady, begin the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and see how soon the pain and stiffness of the joints fade away. Among those who have benefitted by the use of these pills is Mr. Freeman Irving, Baxter Harbor, N.S., who says: "Some time ago my blood was in a terrible condition, leaving me very much run down, and with boils breaking out on my body. To add to my misery rheumatism set in, and I not only suffered greatly from the pain, but could only get around with the greatest difficulty. After trying several medicines without much success, I decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, as they had been warmly recommended to me. I think I used nine boxes altogether, but the results met my every expectation, as both the boils and the rheumatism disappeared. Naturally I feel that I cannot praise the pills too highly."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

To Learn Railroading

Chinese Coming to Make Study of Canadian Railroads.

For the purpose of studying railroad operation, six Chinese students are coming to Canada to spend three years in the service of the C.P.R. according to a statement made by G. M. The students will arrive on the steamer Empress of Russia, due shortly.

The powders are so easy to take that the most delicate stomach can assimilate them and welcome them as speedy casers of pain, because they promptly remove the worms that cause the pain, and thus the suffering of the child is relieved. With so sterling a remedy at hand no child should suffer an hour from worms.

Picturesque Dress Of Dark Red Taffeta

By Marie Belmont.

The quaint modes of Victorian days are recalled in this lovely dress. It is originated in dark red taffeta. No sleeves are united with the tight-fitting bodice, but around the armholes and the neck line a tiny ruche of white lace is attached. The chief decorations on this dress are bands of very tiny black beads. This trimming outlines the bodice and is also used with good effect on its lower part. The skirt is somewhat longer than those that have been so fashionable, and undoubtedly anticipates the new length. It is elaborated with ruches of taffeta and bands of beads.

Quaker Minister Is Grateful to Tanlac

Rev. Parker Moon

Nearly everybody in Southwest Missouri either knows or has heard of the Rev. Parker Moon, who for a full half century has devoted his life and talents to Sunday school and organization work for the Society of Friends or Quakers.

"Uncle Parker," as he is more familiarly known, came from fine old rugged Quaker stock, and there is not a better known or more highly respected citizen in that part of the state. In referring to his remarkable restoration to health by Tanlac, he said:

"About five years ago I suffered a general breakdown. My principal trouble was nervous indigestion. My appetite was very poor and my food seldom agreed with me, and I had to live on a very restricted diet. I suffered a great deal from headaches and dizzy spells; I had severe pains across the small of my back and was badly constipated most of the time. In fact, I was so weak and rundown I was not able to attend to my duties.

"This condition made me very nervous and I could not sleep at night. Frequently I would lie awake most all night and was in that condition more or less for five years. My physician said he could not do anything for me and suggested a change of climate. I then moved to Texas and went back and forth three times but did not get the relief I had hoped for. Finally, I got so bad off I was not able to get around with any degree of comfort. I was also told I had heart trouble.

"I had read about Tanlac and, as it had been very highly recommended to me, I decided to try it. I got a bottle and had taken only a few doses until I could notice a marked improvement in my condition. I noticed especially that I was not troubled any more with sour stomach after eating, which was a great relief.

"I kept on taking Tanlac until I fully regained my health. My appetite is splendid; I enjoy my meals and I do not find it necessary now to take any laxative medicines of any kind. I can sleep much better and am not nearly so nervous.

"I take great pleasure in recommending Tanlac to anyone who needs a good system builder, or who suffers with stomach trouble. I have recommended Tanlac to a great many of my friends and am pleased to reach others by giving this statement for publication."

Germany seems to be undergoing rapid color changes. A few weeks ago things were reported "black." Then we were told the people were feeling "blue." They acted as if they had a streak of "yellow" in their make-up, although investigation showed they were in "pink" of condition to stand the financial strain. The latest is that they are turning "Red." But there's one shade to which they are immune. They never act "white."—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

CRESTON, B.C., FRIDAY, APR. 29

O.U.G. Will Sell Union's Output

With the exception of looking after the trade in the Crows Nest Pass territory, the selling of the fruit and vegetables of Creston Fruit Growers Union customers for 1921 will be done by the Okanagan United Growers, on the distinct understanding that next year the local Union will join up with a co-operative selling organization that will include all points in British Columbia, and that commencing next year the local Union will operate on five-year contract basis.

Briefly stated this is the outcome of the meeting of Creston Fruit Growers Union shareholders on Friday afternoon, which attracted a thoroughly representative attendance, and was presided over by President W. V. Jackson.

The policy of having the O.U.G. do this year's selling was adopted at a directors' session previous to the general meeting, and was assented to by the shareholders by almost a unanimous vote.

The decision to link up with the prospective all-B.C. co-operative association followed upon the address of E. C. Barnes, president of the B.C. Fruit Growers Association who was the chief speaker at the meeting, on the "New-Co-Operative Movement in B.C."

The details of the new organization have not been fully worked out, but will be complete and ready for endorastion by the end of the year. Mr. Barnes outlined them in a general way, the aim being to control the distribution and marketing of at least 75 per cent. of the entire fruit output of B.C.

Must Control 75 Per Cent.

Until absolute control of this quantity of the entire orchard out put of the province is assured the profitable operation of the fruit industry is very much at stake. This year control of almost the entire berry crop of the province will be in the hands of the O.U.G. and the probable success or failure of the bigger undertaking may be guaged from this year's berry selling.

Mr. Barnes presented the case briefly and in convincing and businesslike fashion, as well as answering numerous queries as to market prospects for 1921, and well deserved the very hearty vote of thanks tendered him at the conclusion of his talk.

In opening Mr. Barnes drew attention to the extensive movement both in Canada and the United States of the producers to devise methods whereby they could market their crops at a profit, the more striking examples being the United Grain Growers in the Canadian west and the farmers of the middle states of the republic to the south. Right now a committee of seventeen representative U.S. agriculturalists were in conference endeavoring to evolve a plan whereby the entire agricultural output of the States could be marketed co-operatively.

Co-operation effectively applied would eliminate all unnecessary middlemen, avoid needless and unwise competition and prevent waste in handling. Without united action of some sort every grower was an independent shipper, and unorganized were easy prey for the buyer who is always eager to get products at the lowest prices. And if united action by the individual growers were necessary to maintain uniform prices, how much more needful is it for the couple of dozen fruit selling agencies throughout B.C. to work in harmony with each other if these same desirable uniform prices are to be maintained. In discussing middlemen Mr. Barnes made it quite clear that the wholesaler was a very necessary factor in the expeditious marketing of fruit.

Co-Operation's Five Essentials

In conducting any successful co operative organization there are five essentials: Capital, volume, control of distribution, uniform standard of pack and quality, and stability. Capital should include ample funds to carry on with through emergencies which are bound to be encountered. Volume of business always ensures a lower handling cost.

On control of distribution Mr. Barnes spoke at some length. In 1919 B.C. had its biggest crop and the only thing that saved the marketing situation was two factors: Eastern Canada and the Eastern States had a light crop, and a great deal of the British Columbia fruit froze on the trees.

Prospects are that the 1921 crop will exceed that of 1919 by at least 40 per cent., giving an output 50 per cent. in excess of what the prairie market can absorb. In other words half this year's B.C. apple crop must be marketed other than at prairie points. With these facts staring growers in the face it is at once evident that unless much closer co-operation in distributing the crop is established the return of the disastrous policy of selling on consignment cannot be averted. The life-saving policy must be adopted of protecting ourselves on the prairie selling and dveloping a market elsewhere for the surplus, and due to the higher freight rates growers must be prepared for much smaller net returns on fruit shipped to further-away points.

As to capital Mr. Barnes pointed out the simplest way to secure finance was to adopt the policy of having growers sign a five year selling contract. How efficacious this plan is was illustrated in the case of the California raisin growers who floated a $2,500,000 loan on Wall Street on the strength of a stack of five year growers' contracts—and this after California financial interests had refused any financial aid whatever on the old non-contract style of doing business.

Next Year One Big Association

To control distribution, as well as other marketing features, Mr. Barnes pointed out that the original idea was to organize all the selling agencies in B.C. into one great big co-operative selling concern. However, when those interested set themselves to the task of formulating a working policy for this one big union-selling organization they came to the conclusion it could not be perfected in time to handle the 1921 crop, and as the situation is so urgent it was decided to utilize the services of the Okanagan United Growers with such extensions of their marketing policy as may be necessary to cope with a province wide selling proposition which to be successful must be able to command the selling of at least 75 per cent. of the entire 1921 crop of B.C.

In consenting to this arrangement the O.U.G. stipulates that the agreement only holds for this year; in the intervening twelve months plans will be laid for the big co-operative concern, and the selling agencies which this year take advantage of the O.U.G. offer will be counted on as partners in the big provincial organization.

The O.U.G. proposition to Creston Fruit Growers Union is that the Okanagan United Growers will take care of the marketing of all the fruit and vegetables the local Union has to sell. It will place at the disposal of the Creston shipping agency the services of its extensive corps of representatives which are located in every worth while centre in Canada as well as at some points in the U.S.—these including the representatives of the Groweas Selling Agency which is the O.U.G.'s own brokerage firm, the O.U.G. charge for its services being 5 cents a box on all apples, with a different but similarly modest charge on berries and vegetables.

Prices Must be Maintained

Mr. Barnes assured that the sale of Creston fruit would receive exactly the same attention as that given fruit originating at any and every other point, assuming that no assurance as to abstention from price cutting was necessary, as the lowering of prices on fruit from any one point would instantly lead to a break in the market and a consequent necessity for a similar reduction on fruit from all other centres to meet such cut. He assured that the Growers Selling Agency handled a line of American fruits such as oranges, bananas, etc., and thus had an all-year round connection with the trade.

In concluding his remarks Mr. Barnes by request submitted prices the O.U.G. had got on apples last year; these, he claimed, exceeding anything secured by other selling agencies either in B.C. or across the line. The average for No 1's was $2.59; 2's, $2.23; 3's, $1.45; with a general average for wrapped stuff of $2.44, with orchard run touching $1.98.

On his trip through the Kootenay Mr. Barnes stated he had only visited two points: Robson and Willow Point, and at both places they had decided to join up with the O.U.G.; while at Grand Forks a similar preference was evidenced. With Creston affiliated, along with these just mentioned, and conjoined with the regular O.U.G. centres in the Okanagan, control of 65 per cent. of this year's crop was assured, and he had no hesitation in saying that before his organization tour was complete he would readily secure the desired 75 per cent.

Following Mr. Barnes, Manager Loveday stated that in the agreement with the O.U.G. the Crow line territory would be sold to direct by the Creston Union, and he made it quite clear that the charges by the O.U.G. as well as any other brokerage expense would be met out of the commissions the grower paid to the Creston Union for handling his stuff.

Mr. Loveday also impressed on those present the necessity of having the contracts signed by May 1st in order that orders might be placed for boxes, paper and other supplies. Too, it was desirable to have the contracts signed so that needed arrangements could be made to enlarge the Creston warehouse to provide for grading machines and the establishment of central pack which he figured would be necessary in view of the crop already in prospect.

Contract-Signing Satisfactory

President Jackson announced that already almost sufficient signed contracts had been turned in to assure the Union a successful season this year, and that the success of this year would render it that much the easier to book growers up for five years commencing with 1922.

Those opposed to the new selling plan did not voice their opposition, except in one instance. One member pointed out that the O.U.G. had acted as the selling agency in 1916 with results that were decidedly unsatisfactory, and that so far as this particular member was concerned no opportunity was going to be given the O.U.G. to repeat the failure of 1916.

In an open discussion of matters generally W. G. Littlejohn called attention to what he considered an unfair policy in the pooling of berries; the present system not giving the grower of early berries the return he was entitled to. Mr. Littlejohn also thought the control of the orchard or domestic pack of apples was rather lax.

In the discussion of contract signing and otherwise the charge that the United Farmers at Erickson had failed to live up to a promise to have Messrs. Loveday and Jackson address a U.F. meeting on the matter, was emphatically denied by Secretary Birney and President Littlejohn, and the outcome of this interchange of views was that Mr. Barnes was invited to address the Erickson U.F. at a special meeting the following afternoon. In this discussion, too, it was postively stated that the newly created Erickson Co-Operative Association had no intention of embarking in the fruit selling business in connection with any of its operations.

Profitable Apple Market Assured

C. E. Barnes, president of the B.C. Fruitgrowers Association, who spoke here on Friday afternoon on the "New Co-Operative Movement in B.C.," appears quite optimistic regarding the 1921 apple crop being marketed at reasonably profitable prices to the grower, despite the fact that there is every indication that this year's yield will be 40 per cent. larger than the bumper crop of 1919.

According to Mr. Barnes authentic information is already to hand that the apple crop in both eastern Canada and the eastern U.S. will be light—1920 having been a big year in both those districts as well. Granted this is the case there will be a healthy demand for the apples from Washington and Oregon at eastern U.S. centres which should about supply a market for much of the fruit shipped onto the Canadian market when the eastern crop is normal.

Other factors that militate against any abnormal export of American fruit is the Canadian duty of 30 cents a box which along with the unfavorable exchange rate which is equivalent to another 20 cents, gives the B.C. producer a margin of 50 cents a box in any American competition that may have to be met.

While equally promising is the fact that for 1921 there is every assurance that the O.U.G. through which Creston Fruit Growers Union will market its output, will control the marketing and distribution of not less than 75 per cent. of the entire B.C. apple shipments.

As to berry prices, however, Mr. Barnes was not quite so hopeful. As yet the jam factories have shown no eagerness to talk contracts, much less to enter into any of them, while there is a considerably increased area under berries this season, all of which has come through the winter splendidly, and gives promise of large if not record yields.

The one comforting feature to the berry situation is that for this year, with the exception of the Keatings district, the entire British Columbia berry crop would be distributed and marketed through the O.U.G., and this control of almost 90 per cent. of the total crop should mean much in stablizing the market and the maintenance of uniform—though not anywhere near the high prices that prevailed during 1919 and 1920.

According to Mr. Barnes most every point in the Okanagan is having its troubles financing due to having so much money tied up in boxes, paper, etc., which were not used last year, and which had to be carried over. The O.U.G. branch at Kelowna had $21,000 tied up in boxes alone, and at one or two points the burden was so heavy that even at this date the selling agencies had not been able to pay the growers in full for fruit marketed.

Some figures from a complete statement of prices obtained by the O.U.G. last year, which was submitted to Friday's meeting, should be of interest. According to it the Okanagan's heaviest shipper is the McIntosh Red, with Jonathan, Wagner, Rome Beauty, Yellow Newton, Wealthy, Winter Banana, Winesap, Delicious and Spitzenberg the next largest.

Prices obtained on these varieties of No. 1 grade are as follows: McIntosh Red, $2.68; Jonathan, $2.54; Wagner, $2.47; Rome Beauty, $2.49; Yellow Newtown, $2.78; Wealthy, $2.33; Winter Banana, $2.71; Winesap, $2.34 Delicious, $3.46; Spitenberg, $2.79.

Canada And Its Coal

The sound national and economic policy for any country is unquestionably to be found in a decision and determination by its people to buy the products of their own country which are available in preference to similar products of any other country. They should adopt such a policy not because of any prohibitive embargo that may be placed by Governments upon importations from other lands—which may lead to mopopolistic tendencies and unduly high prices at home—but because it is good national business to keep a country's money at home, working in and for the country, and assisting to develop its resources and industries.

There are always some articles of produce and manufacture which a country cannot itself provide. These, of course, must be imported from other countries which do produce these things. In turn, that country has to buy something it cannot provide at home. Thus is international trade created. And, as is well known, international trade is paid by exchange of commodities rather than in cash. Gold comes into play in international trade when one country imports much more largely from another than it sells to such country. This balance of trade as between two countries also operates to fix the rate of exchange between them. When, therefore, one country buys from another country largely in excess of its sales to such country, it not only has to ship gold to make up the shortage in sales, but it frequently happens it has to pay a premium in exchange rates.

The fact will, or at least should, be appreciated that it is good national business—and what is good in this case for the nation as a whole is good for each individual—for a country to confine its import trade as largely as possible to these things it cannot itself provide, and not to import what it can just as well produce itself.

Let us apply this theory, or principle, which is undoubtedly sound, to Canada and to one particular article of which Canada can easily supply her own needs. We refer to coal. Canada is rich in coal, richer than most countries. There are large deposits in Nova Scotia, on our Atlantic seaboard, and in British Columbia, on our Pacific coast. The Prairie Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan are also richly endowed in this respect, particularly Alberta. According to a recent statement by the Mines Branch of the Province of Alberta, fifteen per cent. of the world's unmined reserves of known coal lie in Alberta. The world recognizes the British Isles as one of the greatest coal mining and exporting areas, a miners' strike there disturbs industry and transportation all over the world, yet it is officially stated that, notwithstanding Britain's richness in coal, 70 per cent. of the coal reserves of the British Empire are to be found in the Province of Alberta.

Notwithstanding this great wealth at our very doors, Canadians continue to import tens of millions of dollars' worth of coal every year from the United States, despite the fact of an overwhelming adverse balance of trade against us as between these two countries, and the further fact that there are many things which we ourselves do not and cannot produce and must buy from the south. Approximately $18,000,000 were paid last year by the people of Manitoba alone for United States coal, to which at least another $2,000,000 had to be added to cover exchange when paying this huge coal bill.

And all the time the Alberta mines were hungering for the coal orders that Manitoba people were placing in the United States. The working capacity, with present equipment, of Alberta mines is 12,000,000 tons per year, yet because of lack of orders only 7,000,000 tons were mined last year. It would have been good business for Manitoba to have purchased all its coal in Alberta and, by distributing the $20,000,000 it paid to the United States, provided steady employment for Canadian miners, thus helping to settle prevailing unrest, and at the same time creating a larger purchasing market for the manufacturers, wholesalers and jobbers of Manitoba.

According to a statement made before the Parliamentary Fuel Committee at Ottawa on April 13th by S. J. Cook, chief of the mining division of the Railway Commission, coal production in Nova Scotia, and mines working only to half their capacity in Alberta, Canadians in 1920 imported 15,902,632 tons of bituminous coal from the United States, or nearly three million tons more than in the preceding year.

This is bad business for Canada all round. Quantity production means cheaper production, and by keeping Canada's coal mines working to capacity the production cost per ton will be lowered, because steady employment for miners, without costly layoffs, means a lower wage charge per ton actually produced. Buying Canadian coal means keeping Canada's money in Canada, to be used in Canada's business, employing and paying Canada's own workers, developing Canada's resources, and adding to the turnover and prosperity of every line of Canada's commercial activity.

A customs tariff will not bring about the desired result, but, acting in their individual and collective capacity, the business men and cititzens of Canada can do if they will. They will be terribly shortsighted if they fail to take advantage of the opportunity which lies open to them.

What One of the Best Known Travellers in Canada Says

"Now I am going to give you an unsolicited testimonial, as they say in the patent medicine advertising. Heretofore I have had a profound contempt for patent medicines, particularly so-called liniments. Perhaps this is due to the reason that I have been blessed with a sturdy constitution, and have never been ill a day in my life. One day last fall after a hard day's tramp in the slush of Montreal, I developed a severe pain in my legs and, of course, like a man who has never had anything wrong with him physically, I complained rather boisterously. The good little wife says: "I will rub them with some liniment I have. Go ahead," I said, just to humor her. "Well, in she comes with a bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT and gets busy. Believe me the pain disappeared a few minutes after, and you can tell the world I said so."

Old Fort Ellis and Sioux Indians

Crossing the Plains to Fort Carlton
Summer 1875.

By O-GE-MAS-ES (Little Clerk).

(Copyrighted)

Gradually some other clerks came in en route to their different appointments. H. B. Round, an Englishman for Peace River, Scott Simpson for British Columbia, Count Von Beneki (Von. Bernstoff his correct name according to Isaac Cowie), an ex-Dragoon officer from Prussia who had got into trouble with Von Bismark and was therefore suffering semi-exile. Fort Qu'Appelle was to be our starting point and there we all went, a brother of Mr. McDonald leader of the party. Mr. Chief Trader, Ewen McDonald, was bound for Isle la Crosse, he having his family with him. Our chief guide was a young French halfbreed named Jeune Homme. A splendid rider and an experienced plainsman. We had travelled together the previous winter and were chummy. Our first night out from Ellis we only made some ten miles and just about bedtime I and Jeune Homme sneaked out of camp, caught and saddled our ponies, and rode back to the fort, where my dogs had been chained up to the pickets. Cautiously entering by a side gate I soon had them loose with the aid of a new file, but had hard work checking their transports at seeing me again. Next day Mr. Ewen remarked in a dry manner, "So your dogs followed after all?" and I-innocently agreed to this.

Our trip to Qu'Appelle was uneventful, but my surprise was great on reaching there to note the beauty of the site, and to add to the picturesqueness of the scene there were some fifteen hundred tepees of Plain Crees in the lovely valley and buffalo were reported only a day or twos ride to the souwest. Mr. MacLean was in charge, better known in later years as Fort Pitt MacLean, for in 1885 he and his family surrendered themselves to Big-Bear's band. A Mr. McKinlay joined us here, fresh in from the plains and ordered to Peace River. The days passed busily as a large brigade of loaded carts were being sent to Carlton under our escort.

The valley was a stirring place, and it was a fascinating study for me to watch the Indian braves and note the dancing, gambling and love-making which went on merrily. Little Fox, second war chief of the Crees, was here, and really the most magnificent looking man I ever saw. Eagle featured, over six feet in height, he was splendidly mounted on a handsome sorrel horse which looked like a thoroughbred. A Henry rifle across his saddle bow, a splendid bow strengthened at the back with buffalo sinew, a quiver full of iron pointed and feathered arrows over his shoulder, dressed from head to foot in buckskin richly ornamented with porcupine quills, he truly looked the ideal warrior from one of Fenimore Cooper's novels. I gazed at him with admiration and walking up to him held out my hand. He looked down, smiled at the little clerk and gave me two fingers for a salute. At this time it was said the Crees could put seven thousand fighting men in the field. What a contrast from today, when there are only a few broken remnants of his tribe left.

All our arrangements were ready for a start next day and I was chuckling over the fact of still having my dogs with me. But, alas, that evening news arrived that Chief Factor McDonald was coming, and the flag was hoisted from the staff. My heart sank, and as he drove into the fort he spotted me and sarcastically remarked, "So you thought you were clever in stealing your dogs, but this time they will stay here." I was furious and that evening we had an awful row and I was threatened with all sorts of penalties if I did not shut up. There was no recourse and the dogs stayed, but they fretted and did not thrive after the separation, and next winter the three brothers died. It took me years to get over this what I considered a high-handed piece of injustice.

Mr. McDonald was not through with me yet as he detained the steady ponies we had ridden from Ellis and substituted a wild bunch of untrained one's just in from the plains, saying in his sarcastic way that wild clerks should have wild horses. I was no rider and consulted my friend Jeune Homme about the prospect. He counselled courage and lent me his Indian saddle with small stirrups. There was no doubt I was in an awful funk, and when everything was being hitched up next morning I dallied behind and was the last to mount my wild steed. The brigade, a good half mile long, had crossed the bridge over the Qu'Appelle River when my mare was roped and led up, and I rather foolishly got on her inside the square. The ropes were taken off, but she simply stood trembling while Mr. McDonald and the spectators were grinning with amusement at the prospect of seeing the young Canuck bucked off. I gave her a crack with the whip, when up she went in the air, then three times round the square like a Jack Rabbit. At the last round I heard a yell and crouched on her neck, the bar over the big gate swept my hat off. On she flew after the party, jumped into the river, swam across and circled the brigade several times before they reached the opposite hill. Wonderful to say I kept my seat that day, but some little time afterwards she bucked me off right in front of Mrs .McDonald, much to her and the children's amusement and my own mortification. However, before we reached Fort Carlton she was tame enough.

Sunday came and a rest day was called. Count Von Beneki electrified us all by appearing in full dress with a top hat and was paying attention to a young woman who was with Mrs. McDonald. Needless to say the hat did not last long and was promptly made a football of, and in consequence we were challenged individually and collectively to a duel with either swords or pistols, he having both with him, and very handsome weapons. This we naturally refused, but Round, who was skilled in boxing, counter-challenged him with the gloves. This he accepted and was knocked out in short order. Poor Beneki was ordered to New Caledonia, somewhere near where Fort George is now. I heard from him twice, and then we lost track of each other.

Debate on Militarism

Eight Thousand Canadian Cadets Will Be Trained By Militia Department.

Ottawa.—During the debate on the militia estimates in the House of Commons the estimate of $450,000 for cadet services came up. Hon. Mr. Guthrie said 8,000 cadets would be trained during the summer.

O. R. Gould (Assiniboia declared there was a "war party" in Canada supporting these estimates. He opposed militarism under present conditions. He deplored the fact that the war party in Canada would lead the country into such large and extraordinary expenditures.

Brig.-Gen. Griesbach (Edmonton) declared that in his section of the country nearly all militia men had enlisted as soon as they could.

The war had proved the previously trained men the best in the war. In 1914, 1899 and 1884 militia estimates had been criticized "with no greater intelligence" than was shown by critics today. Members had then asked "where is the enemy" General Griesbach praised the military spirit in Canada.

"If Canada had contained many people such as the Hon. Member for Brome and the Hon. Member for Assiniboia, then this country would have curled its tail between its legs when danger appeared," General Griesbach declared.

Mr. Guthrie declared the estimates to cover national defense were in all $17,241,000 or $2.15 per head. The U.S. defense outlay was over $13 per capita. The modest program put forward should meet with approval. Pay lists, food and clothing were more than 100 per cent. higher now than a few years ago.

Dr. Peter McGibbon (Muskoka) declared the opposition had used the same arguments in 1914 that they were using now. Great Britain was not ready for war until 1915 or 1916. The trained French troops had saved civilization in those days.

Child Burned To Death.

Winnipeg.—Playing in a haystack with his 4-year-old brother, the year and a half old son of Hugo Bergner, residing a short distance from this city, was burned to death. While playing in the hay the boys had evidently set it on fire.

F. Howland, of Howland & Waitz, was a business visitor here from Kaslo the latter part of the week. The firm has a 250,000 tie contract with the C.P.R., which they are manufacturing from a timber area the firm owns in close proximity to Kaslo. W. H. Farrel, at one time bookkeeper for Creston Mercantile Co., is in charge of the firm's operations.

The Banff orchestra attracted a crowd that comfortably filled the available floor space of Mercantile Hall on Monday night. Due to there being no special train to bring in the Sirdar and Wynndel contingents the attendance, however, was hardly equal to their first appearance here, the latter part of March. Everyone speaks highly of the supper, which was served by Caterer Norris.

As a result of Mr. Barnes' address at the Union quarterly meeting last Friday growers have not been backward in coming forward to sign their 1921 contract with the Union. With the prospect of this year's apple crop being 50 per cent. in excess of the banner yield of 1919 plans are being made for the extension of the Union warehouse in town to accommodate the bigger busines, as well as to make room for central packing.

Congregations that well filled Christ Church were in evidence both morning and evening for the initial services of Rev. H. Varley, the new resident rector. After evensong he and Mrs. Varley were guests at an informal reception in the Parish Hall where an opportunity was afforded parishioners of meeting the new vicar. Rev. Mr. Varley took both services in creditable fashion and it seems certain both he and Mrs. Varley will be popular with members of the congregation.

Father Cocola, who is credited with having christianized the Creston Indians shortly after coming to minister to them in the very early 90's, paid his former parishioners a visit the latter part of the week, and was given a rousing reception. This is Father Cocola's first call since 1914 when he also spent a couple of days here.
