Junior Athletes Display Ability

Sirdar Talent Has Prominent Part in Evening's Activities at Parish Hall—Hopes for Real Gymnasium are Entertained.

The Parish Hall was the scene of great interest on Thursday evening. It was occasioned by the athletic display given by the juniors under the supervision of Messrs. Truscott and Orcutt of Creston, and assisted by a squad from Sirdar under the leadership of Mr. C. Price.

The evening was a most successful one judging by the attendance and the very enthusiastic applause which met the efforts of the various performers.

It would be hard to pick out the particular stars of the evening as the performers were all so good. The human wheels by the boys tumbling squad was quite a novel turnover. The Elephant Walk by the girls' squad was encored and provided great amusement for the spectators and to make the count right only two went into the ark—the others shipwrecked. An outstanding feature was the pyramid by the Sirdar girls.

The boxing exhibition of Ferguson and Bourdon in the 100 lb. class showed great effort and training. Little Lewis Truscott and Maizie Ferguson at 5 and 7 years respectively showed considerable aptitude at elevated work upon the shoulders of the instructors.

Such impossible feat, as walking upon the knees with the feet forward and from that position performing the head over heels backwards, was exemplified by Mr. Orcutt in an apparent lack of joints. The camel walk, in which Messrs. Orcutt and Truscott packed the load, gave four of the boys a great ride.

Great flexibility was shown by Nellie McCabe of Sirdar in a couple of back arches, and the physical drill by the Sirdarites was nicely done. The flip-ups by the Creston squads showed great ability in rising to the occasion from an impossible position. Ruby Palmer and Donald Truscott also took an elevated position when the instructors took them for a ride.

As a laughter bringer the burlesque boxing put on by two of the Sirdar girls would be hard to beat. The human balance by Messrs. Truscott and Orcutt with Donald Truscott as a make weight showed considerable ability on the part of Mr. Orcutt in holding up his end of things as he carried upon his wrists a weight of some 360 pounds.

The march by the Creston girls was well done, being exact and well timed and certainly reflected great credit upon their instructor, W. Truscott. The boxing by the Sirdar boys was good and showed great spirit and good sportsmanship. As a windup to the athletics for the evening the Creston boys gave a pyramid squish which certainly gave the audience a thrill that was hard to beat.

In a brief, but much to the point address, Colonel Mallandaine put before the meeting his appreciation of the evening's activities and the necessity for continued application to bring forward boys and girls worth while with development along physical lines which would fit them better for the world of work that lies just a few years ahead of them.

W. Truscott expressed his thank to the assisting instructors, Irwin Orcutt of Creston and Charles Price and his squad from Sirdar; and to the United Church for the free use of the church basement for training; and to the drill squads themselves for their precision and attention to the instructors. The speaker then brought forward his thoughts upon the great need of a gymnasium for the community, properly equipped, built and serviced—somewhere for all ages to get the very necessary training and development, taking many off the streets and making real citizens of no mean country. This community has great talent and it should be developed even though it be at some sacrifice. Though the evening's performance was more than expected the speaker insisted that the possibilities were but partly demonstrated. After all expenses are deducted will net $40. Those in the various events were:

Yahk Again Defeated

Tuesday night Creston High School baseball team made the trip to Yahk and for the second time this season defeated the Yahk team, this trip by 11 to 9 score in a contest that went ten innings. Creston got away to an early start and at the end of the fourth inning were leading 6 to 0. In the next few frames Yahk had the best of the scoring and at the end of the eighth were in the lead 9 to 6. In the ninth Creston managed to even up the count and in the extra

C. B. Twigg of Creston, local provincial horticulturist, was here on an inspection trip last week.

Strawberries are coming into bloom and with the showery weather of the past week plants are looking fine.

The government grader was over the roads last week and the main road is much improved by the work done, but the side roads would have been better left alone. Instead of having the nice dry road as fixed by gravelling last year the road is now soft, rutty and muddy, and the stones torn up by the grader are still lying in the road to make travelling worse.

inning annexed two more counters to make the final score 11-9. The local team was made up entirely of high school players and were, consequently, considerably outmatched in both size and weight. This is the second defeat Creston students have handed Yahk. At Creston, on Easter Monday, the high school talent put over a win by a 16-4 margin.

The West Helps the East

The reduced volume of wheat production in Western Canada last year, coupled with the serious tie-up in grain shipments owing to the absence of a profitable export market, has at least had the effect of opening the eyes of Eastern Canada to certain facts which formerly they did not realize, or at all events were loath to admit did exist.

For a long period of years, even in fairly recent years, the opinion was voiced throughout the eastern portion of the Dominion that the West imposed quite a drain on the East, that the East was taxed to provide immigration, transportation, and other services for the West, and for which the East received no adequate return.

Now, apparently, this view is no longer held, for we find such an outstanding Ontario paper as "Toronto Saturday Night," which more or less reflects the financial viewpoint of the city in which it is published, featuring an article which opens with the following paragraph:

"Behind the dark curtain of wheat—the emphasis which has been placed on failure of the last crop to move—the controversy over marketing methods with the resultant propaganda—is to be found the true economic status of the Canadian west. A clear and unbiased examination of the facts—the facts alone dissociated from the passions aroused by factional contention—is vital to east and west alike. Upon such knowledge only can the confidence of the manufacturer in his commitments for the summer and fall months of the year be founded. There is no disputing the fact that the balance between prosperity and a curtailed volume of trade rests upon the West's purchasing power."

The admission, or recognition, contained in that last sentence is certainly refreshing and welcome to the people of Western Canada. Its recognition by the East must undoubtedly mean the rapid development of a better understanding between the vast sections of the Dominion which lie to the east and west respectively of the Great Lakes. And such better understanding is vital to the welfare of Canada.

The second fact which the experiences of the past twelve months have brought forcibly to the attention of the whole country is that the volume of freight traffic provided for our two great transportation systems by the grain shipments of the prairie provinces is an important, yes, a vital factor, in maintaining their net profits at a satisfactorily high figure. Not so long ago, the railway managements contended that rates for western grain carriage fixed by the Railway Commission were so low that there was no margin of profit for them in this class of business; that, in fact, there was a loss taken in the movement of western grain, which loss had to be made up out of other earnings. This, therefore, also constituted something of a grievance in the eyes of eastern shippers.

Now, however, both railways have frankly attributed the drop in their profits, in not merely the gross but the net profits, is to the heavy decline in grain shipments. In other words, they have admitted the profitable nature of the western grain business from a railway transportation standpoint.

These things are deeply significant. It is well known that freight rates on grain in Western Canada are much lower than they are on railways in western grain areas of the United States, and to that extent the Western Canadian farmer has an advantage over his United States competitor in world markets. It is, however, gratifying to know that such advantage is not gained by imposing actual loss upon the transportation companies of this Dominion.

To the West, too, it is gratifying to know that it is a vital factor in promoting the prosperity of the manufacturing industries of the East. That is as it should be. The West desires to help Canada forward. It is anxious that the settlement of its broad acres and the fertility of its soil should result in big and profitable business for the East. The West prefers Canadian-made goods above all others, and it is a source of real gratification to our people to realize that we have it in our power to confer the benefits of increased business and prosperity upon our fellow Canadian citizens east of the Great Lakes.

Out of the troublous times and somewhat bitter experiences of the last season there has come the happy realization, both east and west, of our dependence on each other; of our common interest in the welfare of each other; in our joint pride and concern in the progress and prosperity of our common country.

The United States will show the best features of its "billion dollar poultry industry" in an exhibit to be sent to the World Poultry Congress in London this summer.

Not so many years ago, farmers regarded sweet clover as a persistent weed; now they cultivate it for hay and pasturage and to improve the soil.

Reduce the Acid

Sick stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are over-stimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour. All acid kills acid instantly. The best form is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, because one harmless, tasteless dose neutralizes many times its volume in acid. Since its invention, 50 years ago, it has remained the standard with physicians everywhere.

Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always know what to do. Crude and harmful methods will never appeal to you. Go prove this for your own sake. It may save a great many disagreeable hours. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acid. Each bottle contains full directions—any druggist.

Pian Daring Venture

Group Of Japanese Business Men Sponsoring Air Line Across Pacific

A project of inaugurating a regular passenger and air line between Japan and the United States and Canada to shorten the distance between the continents to three days is reported to have been organized by a group of Japanese business men and financed at a capitalization of $75,000,000. Four huge airships, resembling the Graf Zeppelin, which encircled the globe last year, are expected to be employed for the regular air trips.

The Japanese government has been officially asked for the necessary permits and those behind the enterprise say they propose to go right ahead with their preparations.

Seki Hoshino, noted Tokyo business man and one of the promoters, says the plan was projected last year shortly after the visit of the German dirigible. The single fare for a passenger, he said, would be $1,500.

"It may take us a year or two to complete organization," said Mr. Hoshino. "International agreements will have to be negotiated. But we are absolutely serious in this undertaking. It is a daring venture, but we believe that it is feasible and we are prepared to go right ahead with it."

RHEUMATIC VICTIM FOR SIXTEEN YEARS

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Restored Her Health

Rheumatism is a disorder of the blood. Wet, cold weather may aggravate it but that is not the cause. Bad blood charged with uric acid is the reason. Re-build the blood and rheumatism will disappear. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enrich and purify the blood and that makes good health. Mrs. John C. McPherson, St. Mary's, Ont., writes:—"For sixteen years I was a victim of rheumatism. For eleven years I was unable to walk. Massage and chiropractic treatment failed. I was utterly discouraged till I heard how strongly Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were recommended for cases like mine. I began their use and in a few weeks the pain lessened, my appetite and color improved, and now I am able to do light housework. It is wonderful what these pills have done for me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do one thing but they do it well—they enrich and purify the blood. This rich blood banishes rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia and neuritis and promotes health and strength. The Pills are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Fair Booklet Issued

Under the title "Hints for Exhibitors," the provincial department of agriculture has issued a booklet that deals with exhibits and the preparation of exhibits for the World's Grain Exhibition and Conference that will be held in Regina July 25 to August 6, 1932. Copies may be secured by applying to the department. Hon. W. C. Buckle, Minister of Agriculture, is chairman of the executive Saskatchewan committee.

Miller's Worm Powders can do no injury to the most delicate child. Any child, or infant in the state of adolescence, who is infested with worms can take this preparation without a qualm of the stomach, and will find in it a sure relief and a full protection from these destructive pests, which are responsible for much sickness and great suffering to legions of little ones.

Fingerprints Are Radioed

Photographs. Also. Exchanged. Between Berlin and Buenos Aires

The police of Berlin and Buenos Aires successfully exchanged photographs and fingerprints by radio.

The prints of a criminal's ten fingers were sent in eight minutes and were received with a clearness which readily permits indexing and identification.

The radio transmission of photographs however, has not yet been so successful, but pen and ink drawings from photographs can be transmitted perfectly. Berlin radioed to Buenos Aires a sketch of its chief of police, and Buenos Aires sent a sketch of its chief of police to Berlin. Both were reproduced excellently.

Establish Reference Monuments

During the summer of 1929, the Geodetic Survey of Canada, Department of the Interior, established fundamental reference monuments in fourteen towns and cities of Saskatchewan and Manitoba. The sites, usually in improved city parks, were granted by the municipalities. Each pier bears a bronze plate on which is inscribed the elevation, latitude, and longitude of the monument as established by the Geodetic Survey.

One advantage the Senators will enjoy now is that for whatever happens they will have a woman to blame it on.

No Moths In Arctic

Woolen Mittens Seventy-Eight Years Old Are Like New

Clothes moths are unknown in the Arctic. Let a pair of white woolen mitts, hanging in the office of O. S. Finnie, at Ottawa, testify. Mr. Finnie is director of the North West Territories and Yukon Department of the Interior.

They were knitted—these mittens—in England, 80 or 90 years ago. A bundle of them was purchased by the outfitters of Captain Sir Leopold McClintock, commander of one of the ships that went north, in search of Sir John Franklin.

They were fastened up in a cask and cached on Dealy Island, in 1852, exactly 78 years ago.

Last spring, Inspector Joy came upon the mittens, and he used them. They are back in civilization, and look like new.

The Budget Pleases

In connection with the budget brought down at Ottawa Thursday last the Review has pleasure in submitting the opinion of the Vancouver Daily Province, British Columbia's most influential Conservative newspaper. Here it is:

"What does it do? It puts a countervailing duty on many farm products from foreign countries which impose duties on similar farm products from Canada. It proposes important changes in the iron and steel tariffs, with the general purpose of strengthening the British preference. It reduces the sales tax from 2 to 1 per cent. It increases the duty on New Zealand butter from 1 to 4 cents a pound. It admits British tea free of duty altogether. It imposes a general ad valorem duty on fruit and vegetables, the effect of which is not entirely clear at this writing. It makes certain changes, but comparatively unimportant ones, in the incidence of the income tax. It changes the duties, up or down, but generally with the intention of helping the British preference, on a great many items of the existing tariff schedule. On the whole, this first budget of Mr. Dunning's moves in the direction of higher protection than Canada has ever known. On the whole, consequently, it moves further away from the ancient Liberal dogma and principle of free trade.

"How will it be received? If there were no such thing as party politics in the world, we should have to say that it would be well received everywhere in Canada. Something like this is what Canadians have been hoping would come out of Ottawa. Mr. Dunning says it is an expression of the spirit in which Canada will approach the Imperial Economic Conference. Mr. Bennett says it is stolen thunder from the Conservative party. But what do these statements really mean, divorced from their respective implications of partisanship, except that the parties may be hard put to it to make a party quarrel of this instrument. We seem at least to have achieved the aim of generations and to have the tariff out of politics. When the two parties seem so much agreed on the tariff that they fight as to which owns it, the tariff is no longer a political issue. But, of course, it may not be left in so happy a position.

"Perhaps, in no ungrudging mood, that is the just praise of this budget. The salient feature of it is the imposition of countervailing duties—a new feature in Canadian tariff-making. Mr. Dunning insists that these duties were not conceived as retaliation against the adverse tariffs of the United States. It is the part of Mr. Dunning to put it so. But who doubts that these duties have been created with the United States in mind, and who doubts that if it had not been for the present tariff tendencies of the United States, there would have been no need to make a countervailing tariff schedule in Canada? Call it retaliation, or call it defense, or call it protection for the Canadian farmer—what does it matter? Public opinion of Canada will approve this kind of policy. A like approval, we are very certain, will be accorded to Mr. Dunning's valiant attempt to do something by way of his budget for the improvement of our trade with the sister nations of the Empire."

Watching Mr. Pattullo

Another political development that is being awaited with much interest is the gathering of British Columbia Liberals at Kamloops at the end of the month for the purpose of selecting a permanent leader of the party in the province.

Following the defeat of the McLean administration in 1928, T. D. Pattullo was named temporary leader at a meeting of the Liberal members-elect, and the meeting on the 31st is for the purpose of confirming Mr. Pattullo in the position, or naming a permanent successor.

More than usual interest centres on the convention due the fact that B.C. papers of Conservative persuasion have quite diligently circulated the story that Mr. Pattullo is to quit provincial politics to enter the federal arena.

The Review has no inside, or any other kind of, information as to Mr. Pattullo's intentions, but having, in mind the credit generally accorded him for shrewdness in matters political, it will not be amiss to observe that should Mr. Pattullo decide to transfer his activities to dominion affairs, it can be taken as pretty much of a certainty that the King government is due to sweep the country on its forthcoming appeal for return.

If the gait the Tolmie government is travelling the past two years is maintained there can be no doubt as to who the people will prefer when opportunity to choose presents itself at midsummer, 1932, and Mr. Pattullo is just a little too bright to pass up the substance of two years hence if there is anything shadowy about his adventure into federal activities in 1930.

It's Just Too Bad

It's unfortunate when we hear of anything that proves to us that we have misplaced our confidence; quite often it costs money to make a wrong guess.

There is no guesswork when you give your PLUMBING and HEATING contracts to us.

Your Plumbing contract should be awarded to a reliable firm to ensure satisfaction. Cheap plumbing fixtures, poorly installed, are not only a source of constant annoyance, but a menace to health.

When building for permanency, eliminate chance by availing yourself of the best advice, material and workmanship. Come in and let us talk it over.

We are also building Septic Tanks, Concrete and Steel Tanks, and they are guaranteed to give the very best of satisfaction.

In our Tinsmith we can supply you with whatever you need. Tanks are built to order, Eavestroughing, Conductor Piping, etc. Also Soldering of any kind of metal.

In our General Blacksmith Shop we can assure you of satisfaction on whatever repair work you may bring there. We have mechanics in this shop who have had a good many years of practical experience in that kind of work. And do not forget that it is much cheaper to have a broken casting Oxy-Acetylene Welded than to buy a new one, and it is just as strong.

As we by now will be starting building our well-known STEEL SPRAY TANKS we wish you would be kind enough to give in your order to assure prompt delivery.

GRAND THEATRE SATURDAY, MAY 10

In connection with the failure of the league baseball season to open at Creston on Sunday last no blame can be attached to the Creston club officials. When the league was organized at Bonners Ferry about the middle of April everyone understood the opener would be at Creston on May 4th with Bonners Ferry opposing. However, when the schedule of games came to hand early last week this document showed the May 4th game set for Bonners Ferry. Manager Telford got in touch with Bonners by telephone and had every reason to believe that the U.S. town was agreeable to having the initial contest played here. However on Friday the league officials ruled the opening must take place at Bonners, but in spite of this Mr. Telford made an auto trip to Bonners on Saturday still hoping the original opening arrangement could be maintained, but as both Creston and the Idaho town had advertised games at home for the 4th there was nothing to do but abide by the league head's ruling and Creston play away from home last Sunday.

The game at Bonners Ferry resulted in a defeat for Creston by a margin of 9 to 4, but the locals are out to reverse this at the big opening game on Sunday afternoon at Exhibition Park, commencing at 3 o'clock. Outside of disappointing quite a number of fans who motored in from Yahnk, the delay has been beneficial as the Creston grounds are now in fine shape for the opening contest. The diamond and outfield have received needed attention and the grandstand has been shifted to a point directly behind the catcher, roofed and screened in and will provide great accommodation for spectators.

Important Letters Now In Dominion Archives

Canada Has Most Of Letters Signed By Sir John A. MacDonald

The first public document signed by Sir John A. MacDonald has been added to the voluminous collection of his papers gathered together by Dr. A. G. Doughty, curator of the Dominion archives. It is an affidavit signed by Sir John on October 6, 1834, upon his appointment as a poll clerk in the Upper Canada election in Prince Edward county. He was 19 years old at the time.

With the receipt of this letter, the Dominion archives now houses most of the important letters written by the first premier of Canada. Among the papers is the first draft of the British North America Act, in Sir John's handwriting.

Canadian Pacific Offer Attractive Summer Tours

Is your vacation anytime between May 15th and September 30th? If so, why not take one of two very interesting tours—at reduced rates—offered by the Canadian Pacific? Consider first the Eastern Tour and what it has to offer. It will enable the tourist to visit Ontario—with its famous lake resorts, Old French Canada—with its picturesque "habitants," and the Maritime Provinces—with the interesting fisherfolk and their equally-interesting craft. The tourist may travel to these places entirely by rail, or may choose to travel some of the way over the cool waters of the Great Lakes on a great white Canadian Pacific Great Lakes Steamship.

Various Ontario resorts at the lakeside provide fishing and bathing and, in fact, all summer sports. Niagara Falls, the beauty of which attracts so many people from all parts of the world, is only one of the many other salient features of this tour. One may, on this eastern excursion, visit Old French Canada. There the traveller will see the many picturesque Catholic shrines that are scattered along the shady Quebec country roads—the "habitants" rolling past on their quaint wagons drawn by oxen. In Montreal the visitor will be awed by contrasts. There, drawn up at the dock, is the latest ocean liner—a product of the new world, whilst—almost under its very shadow is the Bonsecours Market, where the French "habitants" sell their farm-produce just as do their relations in the old land. Then again—the excursionist may resolve to pass on as far as the Maritime—as far as St. Andrews where golfers and artists meet. In proportion to its size, there are more magnificent homes and more prominent visitors in St. Andrews than any other town in Canada.

There is Digby, Nova Scotia—the fishing centre; Parrsboro—the Postern Gate of Nova Scotia; Yarmouth and Weymouth—two more shipping centres and Old Orchard, Maine—a famous bathing resort.

PACIFIC COAST

Another fascinating excursion is that to the Pacific Coast. This allows of opportunities for the excursionist to see the majestic scenery associated with the Canadian Rockies, to see beautiful Lake Louise, to enjoy a round of golf over the famous course at Banff Springs, or to stay a week or so at the Emerald Lake Chalet—enjoying the fresh mountain air and the scenery that is offered. One of the chief features of this tour in the nature of a side-trip, is a twenty-four hour motor detour which takes the visitor by way of the famous Banff-Lake Louise region, through the Kicking Horse Pass to the Yoho Valley, perhaps the most glorious and varied motor trip that has ever been offered on this continent. Then on by train through picturesque British Columbia with its multitudinous industries to Vancouver. After Vancouver—Victoria, the capital of the province, renowned for its scenic resemblance to the Old Country. At this city, the famous Colwood Golf Course, the Dominion Astronomical Observatory—with the second largest telescope in the world, and Butchart's sunken garden, are the chief attractions. At Victoria, two famous excursions are offered—a ten day cruise to Alaska and a seven day cruise of the West Coast of Vancouver Island. To those whose vacation period is short, the famous Canadian Pacific "Trans-Canada Limited" will prove valuable for speedy travel. It is equipped with de luxe all-steel sleeping cars, solarium lounge, women's lounge and bath, men's bath, smoking room, buffet with soda fountain, observation lounge and a valet service. It is finer and faster than ever, and the equipment of each train entails an investment of over a million dollars.

Early English Legal Documents Date Back 700 Years

A collection of more than 400 Early English legal documents, some of them dating back 700 years, has been presented to New York University by Judge Moses H. Grossman in the name of Frederick Brown, real estate operator and philanthropist.

Among the collection is a 12-foot parchment "pipe-roll," made of a series of skins sewed together and originally kept in a metal tube. It records that a sheriff, Richard Pyle of Southampton County, collected Crown revenues in 1638 "from the Jews for protection from being defrauded from the knights," and "from the knights for license to defraud the Jews."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MAY 11

JESUS ACCLAIMED AS KING

Golden Text: "Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest."—Matthew 21:9.

Lesson: Matthew 20:29 to 21:46.

Devotional Reading: Hebrews 1:8-12.

Explanations and Comments

Preparations For the Triumphal Entry, 21:1-6.—When Jesus and the crowd with Him approached Bethphage, on the Mount of Olives, not far from Jerusalem, he sent two disciples on ahead to make preparations for entering the city, bidding them find in the village an ass tied, and a colt with her, which they were to loose and bring to Him. If the owner objected they were merely to say "The Lord hath need of them," and he would send them. The horse was the symbol of war; the ass the fitting symbol of the Prince of Peace.

The Triumphal Entry, 21:7-11.—The disciples followed instructions and brought the ass. They put their loose outer robes upon it for Jesus to sit upon, and the multitude with them spread their garments in the way or cut branches from the trees and spread them down for Jesus to travel over. "Some have ridiculed the idea of spreading branches on the road as offering incredible obstructions and dangers; and yet the orthodox custom in Russia, in a funeral procession, is to spread the route with branches of fir."—W. A. Grist. Because of John 12:13, it has been generally supposed that the branches were palm branches, although John only mentions the fact that the people came out from Jerusalem to meet Jesus bearing branches of palm. We know from Revelation 7:9 that palms were carried as symbols of victory and rejoicing.

John tells us that many people, excited by the news of the raising of Lazarus (which he records), hurried from Jerusalem to meet and do honor to Jesus, while following with Jesus was this other multitude of Galileans on their way to Jerusalem to keep the Passover. Both crowds united in crying, "Hosanna to the Son of David."

Dairy Production Higher

According to L. A. Gibson, provincial dairy commissioner, the winter dairy production in the province of Manitoba for the first two months of 1930 has been the highest in the history of the province, an increase for January of 0.9 per cent. and February 6.4 per cent. over 1929.

Children's Croupy Colds Quickly Relieved

Take a saucepan or pitcher of water; place it on a spirit stove or lamp. Add half a teaspoonful of Catarrhazone to a pint of water which is brought to a boil. Let the steam from the kettle fill the room so that medicated air is breathed in by the child. The distressing cough is relieved. The inflammation is reduced. Good results are quickly noticeable from using Catarrhazone in this manner. Even for small infants this treatment is ideal. Every good druggist sells Catarrhazone in 50c. bottles.

Parachute Opens Itself

Was Pronounced Success In Test At Curtiss Field Recently

An automatic parachute which opens of its own accord after a jump, was demonstrated successfully at Curtiss Field by John Runger, a professional parachutist. Runger, his hands tied behind him, jumped from a plane at 2,000 feet. He landed safely in a tree.

So pleased was Runger with the chute that he said he would jump from 20,000 feet with one. It was invented by John Ruby.

DO YOU SUFFER FROM CONSTIPATION?

Countless remedies are advertised for constipation. Many relieve for the moment but they are habit forming and must be continued. Others contain calomel and dangerous mineral drugs, which remain in the system, settle in the joints and cause aches and pains. Some are harsh purgatives which cramp and gripe and leave a depressed after effect.

Avoid lubricating oils which only grease the intestines and encourage nature's machinery to become lary. A purely vegetable laxative such as Carter's Little Liver Pills, gently touches the liver, bile starts to flow, the bowels move gently, the intestines are thoroughly cleansed and constipation poisons pass away. The stomach, liver and bowels are now active and the system enjoys a real tonic effect. All druggists 25c and 75c red pkgs.

Long after the dust raised by Jim's car had vanished, the old lady still watched the road at the point where he and Charmian had turned to wave.

"Well," she sighed, "I kind of wish I knew how it'll all end. I can't help being fond of Jimmy. He's a good boy, and he'll make some woman a splendid husband—that is, if she's not too fantastical in her way of thinking. Sometimes I believe that all there is the matter with him is just being tied too close to Wickfield. There he was, all ready to go to Harvard along with Billy Knowles, and that fool of a Sarah Bennett took on so about his leaving her that he gave it up and went into the bank instead. What Jim needs is a fresh outlook, but dear knows when he'll get it unless his mother should be removed by a merciful Providence, and she's uncommon healthy."

At this point Grandma's thoughts were interrupted by Lizzie Baker's Persian cat, which, being vigorously chased by the Merrys' Gypsy, took refuge in a horse chestnut tree across the way.

"No need of you standing there glaring at her, Gypsy," admonished Grandma. "The good Lord knew what he was about when he gave pussy her claws. That's it, you dig up a bone and go along home peaceable, there's a good dog. I expect that cat'll die of heart failure some day."

Grandma nodded for a moment, and when her eyes opened her thoughts had returned to Charmian, Jim Bennett, and their problems.

"If Jimmy could only get so's he'd see things the way she does—poetry, and sunrises, and small-paned windows in old houses," she mused, "it would be all right. . . . Now that young doctor, he understands without explaining. . . . If Charmian let the biscuits burn while she watched a sunset (though come to think of it

Read How This Medicine Helps Her

Cardston, Alberta—"I am fifty-eight years old and the mother of eighteen living children. We live on a farm and I am a very healthy mother considering that I have such a big family to work for. The druggist first told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have depended on it for many years. When I had this picture taken, the photographer was telling me about his wife's ailments and after I told him about the Vegetable Compound he went to the drug store and bought her two bottles."—Mrs. BERTHA SALLENBACH, Sr., Cardston, Alberta.

she never did do such a thing), why he'd just laugh about it. He's good-natured, and not too fussy about what he eats. I've no doubt he'd make her a more suitable husband than Jimmy Bennett would. He's more her sort . . . and yet—Good land alive!" she broke off suddenly, "here comes Lizzie Baker on the run! I wonder is the Town Hall burning. I haven't seen her run for fifteen years!"

CHAPTER XI.

What's happened?" asked Grandma, as her old friend puffed into the room and sank down breathless on the nearest chair. "You shouldn't run at your age, Lizzie, heavy as you are. Have you had bad news?"

Miss Lizzie rocked violently for a moment, while she wiped her streaming face with a corner of her apron. "I don't seem to have a handkerchief," she gasped. "Maybe I dropped it on the way."

"This seems to be your day for dropping things," smiled Grandma. "I saw your petticoat come off less'n an hour ago."

"I hope to goodness no one else saw it," replied Miss Lizzie. "Since I got so fleshy my petticoats all need new bands, and I ain't had time to fix 'em. I had a piece o' string run through that buttonhole, and it went and busted on me. I was thankful I hadn't got as far as the meat market where I was goin', or 'twould have been all over town by now. Well, Grandma, I've got some news—more news than Wickfield's seen since Noah boarded the Ark: Edgar Purdie is suing Luella Moore, over to South Wickfield, for breach o' promise! He's got evidence that he give her a costly present and she won't return it after refusin' to be his wife! Now what do you think o' that?"

"I think Luella's got more sense than I gave her credit for," responded Grandma. "A woman that's smart enough to get any sort of present out of Edgar Purdie, deserves to keep it. Did you hear what 'twas he gave her, Lizzie?"

Grandma was so absorbed that she didn't notice a near-dog-fight across the street.

"It was beads," replied Miss Lizzie promptly. "A long string o' fancy yellow beads that cost the deacon a week's pay or more. Oriental, he called 'em; though Sarah Bennett, who see 'em with her own eyes, says they don't look one mite better than what you can get at the five-and-ten cent store up in Portland. Seems the deacon carried 'em with him when he asked her; and like a fool he give 'em to her first. Guess he thought they'd sort of pave the way for intentions; and accordin' to him she seemed real pleased—said, yellow was her favorite color, and let him fasten 'em around her neck himself, so—What you laughin' at, Grandma?" broke off Miss Lizzie, as the old lady suddenly gave way to mirth.

"I was only thinking how silly Edgar Purdie must have looked when he fastened those beads around Luella's neck. Go on, Lizzie. Did he ask her then?"

"I presume he did, it bein' what you might call the proper moment; but accordin' to him she sort of put him off. And here's where the trouble commences—trouble, for Luella, I mean. She let him kiss her! Of course he went off thinkin' it was good as settled; but when he drove clear to South Wickfield next evenin' for a little love makin' after the children was in bed, she'd changed her mind! They had words, and he asked for the beads back and she wouldn't give 'em up—said he'd made her a present o' 'em, and so fur's she know there wasn't no string tied to it. He come away madder'n a wet hen, and vowin' to get the law on her. And next mornin' he put the case in Lawyer Garfield's hands. He's suin' for two thousand dollars and possession of the beads. They say Gam Garfield tried to calm him down, and means to settle it out o' court if Luella's reasonable. Now did you ever hear the beat o' that?"

"No," replied Grandma soberly, "I never did. But what'll Ed Purdie do with those beads if he gets 'em back, I'd like to ask? He can't wear 'em himself, Lizzie, and they wouldn't be any special use in a missionary barrel, which every one in Wickfield knows is the only charity he ever gives to, and that only because he can get rid of his wornout clothes and credit for being charitable at the same time."

"I dunno but what a string o' beads would be more use to the heathen than that old silk hat the deacon found up attic and donated, last time we packed a barrel," answered Miss Lizzie. "It took up a powerful lot o' room, though I put a cracked butter dish inside it, and some woolen stockings. Savages are partial to beads, so I've always heard, so like as not the heathen are, too; and the beads would cover a little of their nakedness, which a hat wouldn't."

Grandma's lips twitched with amusement as she replied: "Somehow, Lizzie, I don't think Ed Purdie is counting on giving those beads to the heathen. Luella Moore isn't the only pebble on the beach, as they used to say, and if she won't have him, he's likely to look further. Maybe he'll ask you."

In her indignation Miss Lizzie tried to rise, but as she was what they call "fleshy" in Wickfield, and the chair was a small rocker with arms, which showed a tendency to rise with her, she sank back helplessly and said: "I'm ashamed of you, Grandma Davies! Why, I wouldn't take Ed Purdie, not if he was covered entirely with beads like the bag that city woman carried to the strawberry festival!"

"There! there!" soothed the old lady. "I didn't mean to get you all stirred up. If he did ask you, Lizzie, it would be the only sensible thing he's done since he asked his first."

"Well," sighed the caller, relenting enough to smile at this tribute. "I dunno but what you're right, though so fur's I know, no man has ever agreed with you. P'raps it's just as well, I've always thought a proposal would be a terrible embarrassing thing to live through."

Grandma's eyes twinkled. "So it might be, Lizzie, under certain circumstances," she admitted. "You got to go this quick?" as Miss Lizzie made another effort to leave the chair. "If Charmian was only home I'd ask you to stay to dinner; but I guess we won't have much but a pick-up. She's gone over to South Wickfield with Jim Bennett to collect a mortgage or something."

"I seen 'em start." With a firm wrench Miss Lizzie extricated herself, and arose. "I'm glad that Jim has come to his senses and dropped that Darling girl. He ain't taken her out but once since the strawberry festival, and then his mother invited her to supper and he had to beau her home. And she leaves town the last o' the week. I declare, Grandma, it'll be a load off my mind, havin' her go. That green hat is a blot on the landscape, and when I see that young doctor of yours walkin' home with it after mail time last night, I decided 'twas time to do something about it, or my name's not Lizzie Ann Baker."

"Did he walk clear to the house with her?" questioned Grandma eagerly.

"That he did! And lallygagged around the gate for fifteen minutes. Mrs. Merry says she's a vampire, whatever that is—nothin' respectable, I'll be bound. I meant to look it up in the dictionary, but I clean forgot. Dear me suz! I wish Ed Purdie would ask her!"

"My stars!" breathed Grandma, awed before this inspiration. "I wonder he hasn't thought of it himself, Lizzie. There's no fool like an old fool; and those yellow beads would have been real becoming to that Darling girl. Thanks for bringin' me the news, my dear; but don't you run so fast again or it's likely to be a matter of life and death — to you."

Made Long Journey

Tern Banded In Labrador Was Seen In Southern Africa

A common tern, member of the gull family, was banded in northern Labrador by Oliver H. Austin, Jr., in July, 1928. Fourteen months later it was seen and examined at the southern tip of Africa on the Indian Ocean, 9,000 miles away, which is thought to set a record.

The tern, or sea swallow, is usually smaller than the gull. Its bill is more slender, its feet not so strong, and its flight more graceful and dashing. The common tern is pure white with a cap and mantle of bluish gray and is sometimes hunted for its feathers. The all-white species live on Pacific islands; those with darker coats are widespread.

Father! replenish with Thy grace This longing heart of mine; Make it Thy quiet dwelling-place, Thy sacred, inmost shrine! Forgive that oft my spirit wearies Her time and strength in trivial cares; Enfold her in Thy changeless peace, So she from all but Thee shall cease. —Angelus Silesius.

God is Alpha and Omega in the great world; endeavour to make Him so in thy little world. Make Him thy evening epilogue and thy morning prologue; practise to make Him thy last thought at night when thou sleepest, and thy first thought in the morning when thou awakest; so shall thy fancy be sanctified in the night, and thy understanding rectified in the day. So shall thy rest be peaceful, thy labors prosperous, and thy death glorious.—Quaries.

Creston Meat Market

Local and Personal

W. B. Martin, C.P.R. agent, is taking his usual two weeks vacation this month, getting things in shape to move into his new home on the former Elstone ranch. In his absence H. L. Robison of Kingsgate is in charge of the depot.

The Garfield ranch is making quite heavy shipments of strawberry plants this spring. A nursery at Brooks, Alta., is being supplied with about 80,000. These are of the Mastadon variety, which are grown with great success on the Garfield place.

Weather statistics for April show the 6th and 23rd to have been the balmiest of the month with the mercury getting up to 78 in the shade. The chilliest spell was on the 10th, when the mercury registered 28 above zero. The rainfall for the month was just under 1 1/4 inches.

Dr. Roy Lillie of Blairmore, Alberta, was a business visitor here on Thursday last, looking after business affairs of his father, Dr. O. Lillie. He reports his father still having indifferent health and that his mother is also none too well, and their return to Creston is very doubtful.

Jas. Norgrove, the well known Cranbrook painter and decorator, has been here a few days this week and during his stay has decked Creston Meat Market building out in a new coat of paint, and has changed the Kootenay garage building over to the colors of the Imperial O-I Company.

Dick Chandler, who is handling the sales department of the Kootenay garage, reports disposing of half a dozen Chevrolets since joining the garage staff. The buyers were A. E. Towson and E. Hulme of Wynndel; Bert Young, Erickson, and Rev. R. E. Cribb, John R. Miller and A. Wickstrom.

During April 127 auto license plates were issued from the Creston office of the provincial police, which included seven new cars and four new trucks. 17 drivers' licenses were issued, 7 chauffeurs' licenses, 7 transfers, 1 salesman's license, and one permit to minor to operate motor vehicle.

Mrs. H. H. Taylor and Mrs. M. J. Boyd are Cranbrook visitors this week where they are attending the annual conference of the W.M.S. of Kootenay presbytery. Mrs. Taylor is the provincial delegate, and Mrs. Boyd represents the W.M.S. of St. Stephen's Church.

At the inaugural meeting of the directors of Creston Co-Operative Fruit Exchange on Monday night Jas. Compton was named president; John Hall is vice-president; and J. W. Hamilton re-elected secretary-treasurer. For 1930 Creston will have no director on the Associated Growers of British Columbia. With Creston operating on its own pool it was thought unnecessary to have representation.

Orchardists should not miss the growers meeting on Friday night next in Trinity United Church basement at which F. M. Black, chairman of the committee of direction, and Mr. McDowall, another member of the committee, will speak. This is an excellent opportunity to get all the information you want about the provincial pool and other matters handled by the interior tree fruit committee.

Before coming to Cranbrook last year Mr. Labelle was in the hotel business at Kaslo.

A special meeting of Kootenay presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Canada was held on Thursday last with the moderator, Rev. J. McLean-Bell, of Cranbrook presiding. The call of Trail congregation to Rev. F. St. Denis was sustained and induction set for May 21st, at which Rev. P. McNab, pastor of Creston Church, will be one of the speakers. Final consideration of a call by the Nelson church to Rev. Jas. Youngson, at present in Scotland, will be made at Trail on the 21st.

Socially and financially the bulb show at Trinity Church hall under Women's Institute auspices on Friday afternoon was a splendid success, the cash intake running to $45. Col. Mallandaine opened the show in his usual happy fashion and with a big turnout no trouble was experienced in disposing of the aprons, home cooking and cut flowers. The prize given by Mrs. Hayes for the best apron in the show was won by Mrs. M. E. Joyce, and a rug worked by Mrs. Compton and Mrs. Hayden was raffled, with Mrs. S. A. Speers holding the winning ticket.

Kaslo Kootenayan: H. C. Ingram, of Regina, government inspector of air students, arrived in Kaslo on Tuesday afternoon, pilot MacPhee going down to Kootenay Landing by airplane to bring him up to Kaslo. Yesterday the air students, who have put in their allotted time, were put through their paces by Inspector Ingram. Those taking the examination yesterday were J. F. Warren, L. W. Bladon, R. E.
