Hospital Affairs
Feature Session

Women's Institute Room at the Hospital Ready for Patients—Will Collect Tinfoil—Convention Delegates Named.

The October meeting of Creston and District Women's Institute was in charge of the president, Mrs. J. E. Hayden, with quite a good turnout of members, and the hospital committee reports providing the features item of the afternoon's deliberations.

Committee announced that the necessary furniture for the Institute room in the hospital had been placed in the Institute room, which is being re-papered match the furnishings, which work Dr. Olivier was assuming responsibility for. Feathers to be used in the make of pillows for the hospital were asked for, and it was announced a start had been made at collecting tinfoil from cigars, cigarettes, etc., for which a market was available and that about 14 pounds had already been assembled.

For the schools, committee Mrs. Hendy reported that some supplies were needed to replenish the first aid kits at both the public and high school, and she was given authority to make the necessary replacements. Authority was also given to purchase a wreath to place on the monument on Armistice Day.

For the Kootenay-Boundary Institutes' conference at Nelson at the middle of November Miss Edith Crawford, secretary, was named institute delegate; Mrs. Cherrington, official delegate, while the past president, Mrs. R. Stevens, who is a member of the central executive will also attend.

The tea hostesses were Mrs. W. H. Crawford, Mrs. Telford and Mrs. W. E. Long, and the freewill offering for crippled children's work was about $2.

Wynndel

Public school inspector Manning paid his half-yearly official visit to Wynndel school last week.

Mrs. DeWitt and family, who have been holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. Lunt, returned to their home at Vulcan, Alberta.

Father Choinel of Cranbrook was here for Roman Catholic Church service on Saturday.

Mrs. R. Uri was a Nelson visitor at the weekend.

Miss E. Hook of Spokane spent the weekend here, a guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady.

A meeting of the Kill Kare Club was held to consider the purchase of shares in the proposed new community hall and it was decided to acquire eight shares in the hall. A meeting of the baseball club for the same purpose resulted in the adoption of a motion to also purchase eight shares.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalbom and P. Cockle were auto visitors to Cranbrook on Sunday and report quite an improvement in Mrs. Rudd's condition.

Misses D. Moon, and E. Davis of Erickson apple packing staff, and Miss Lena Benedetti of Creston packing staff, returned home this week. Work in the sheds at those points is completed.

A splendid opportunity to secure furniture and other household effects will present itself to-morrow (Saturday) when O. J. Wigen is having an auction sale of his entire lot of furniture, etc., at his ranch at 2 p.m. W. J. Truscott will auctioneer. Nine months credit will be given.

A meeting of the school ratepayers was held last week at which tenders to purchase old schoolhouse were opened. There was only one bid, that of J. B. Winlaw, and it was accepted. The bid was $200, but building is not to be moved until after Christmas.

Canyon City

Messrs. Wickholm, Hewitt and Taplin have been busy the past few days putting on a siding of shingles on the side and front of the community hall, which very much improves the general appearance of the building.

Due to an unlooked for change of dates the Georgia Singers and Players were here on Thursday afternoon instead of Friday evening. As very short notice was given of the change the turnout was not as large as formerly.

W. Ridd and H. Young got back on Friday from a few days' motor visit with Mr. Ridd's old friends in the Waldo and Baynes Lake district.

Gordon Vance and John Tompkins will spend the next few months at Goat-fell where they have taken a skidding contract in connection with the C. O. Rodgers logging operations.

Albert and Gunner Nelson will try out their luck at trapping this season. They have a license for a line on the mountain east of Canyon.

Now that the apple harvest and spud digging is complete fall ploughing is receiving attention. The wet weather of the past ten days has put the land in good shape.

The residence of Jock McRobb is greatly improved in appearance with the erection of new verandah and new siding on the entire house.

Rebuilding operations on the Wear-moth bridge is along towards completion, and when the job is done the new bridge will not be more than 60 feet long as compared with the former 200-foot wooden structure. The fill at either end does away with about 140 feet of bridge, but the new work has not improved the grade very much.

Newspaper accounts of the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Halstead of Canyon, which took place at their former home at Myrtle, Manitoba, on October 4th. Mr. and Mrs. Halstead were married at Sunshine, Morris township, Huron county, Ontario, in 1880. For twelve years they farmed near Goderich, Ontario, and then moved to Roland, Manitoba. Later they were at Myrtle, and in 1912 went to Winnipeg, where they remained until 1923, when they came to Canyon. Of their family of ten, seven are living and were all present at the anniversary celebration, along with twenty grandchildren. 45 immediate relatives sat around the banquet table, at the conclusion of which there were the usual toasts and a presentation of an address and the gift of a purse of gold from the family. Many other beautiful gifts of gold and others appropriate to the occasion were presented by relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Halstead are both enjoying excellent health and their many friends here join with those in other places in extending them heartiest congratulations and look forward with pleasurable anticipation to their return to reside at Canyon where they both enjoy a well deserved popularity.

Creston Athletic Club Reorganized

Junior and Senior Boys and Girls Classes Organizing—Instruction One Night Each Week—Will Need Some Equipment.

The gymnasium meeting on Tuesday night got away to a good start when the enthusiasts assembled, lined up the winter's program and had a round table discussion of the many matters that concern the success of this branch of athletics.

It was decided to reorganize Creston Athletic Club to get the athletic endeavors all in one body. Of this particular announcement will be made later. In the meantime lists will be opened for the enrollment of both juniors and seniors—both boys and girls—with the dividing line at 16 years and over.

The committee for this purpose is Misses Edith Cook and Marguerite Crawford and Messrs. A. L. Palmer, Rev. R. E. Cribb and Irwin Orcutt. Anyone wishing to enroll can give their names to this committee. The season is expected to run for the next five months and the fees decided upon are $2 for juniors and $4 for seniors, with the meetings temporarily set for Tuesday, Girls' night, Juniors 7.30 to 8.30, and Seniors 8.30 till 10 o'clock. The Junior and Senior boys at the same hours. Wednesday nights.

It is the desire of those interested in the success of the gym work to put in some equipment that has been sorely needed in the past and to that end the fees have been set and it is more than likely that the feeling of the townsfolk may be tested out by the presentation of a subscription list to them in the near future.

The need of a gymnasium instruction is great, and while not working to put any burden upon the community the management feels that, given support the Creston gym classes will justify themselves and prove another move towards making citizens of worthy physique and character, and also putting Creston Valley on the map of the athletic world. We have some new record breakers among our young people and who is to say what may yet be developed.

Our old friend Mr. Orcutt will be in charge as instructor, and those who were so fortunate as to see the result of his work at the athletic evening in May last will, doubtless, be glad to know that he will be connected with this work. Trinity United Church hall will be the meeting place.

A varied programme is in view for the season. Calisthenics, games, stunts and various drills are contemplated, and being a community proposition should furnish a first-class meeting place for all, irrespective of creed, politics, or any of the little things that make differences within such a happy community, as Creston.

Mrs. Z. Geroux

Native of Quebec, Had Lived in Kitchener Past Twelve Years—Burial at Creston—Many Out to Pay Last Respects.

Although her passing was not unexpected none the less regretted is the death of Mrs. Zenon Geroux, which took place at an early hour on Sunday morning after an illness that has extended over more than a year, at her home at Kitchener, with burial in Creston cemetery on Tuesday morning.

Deceased, who was in her 58th year, was a native of Olympe, Quebec, and in 1890 was married to Mr. Geroux at St. Andre, in the same province, and they continued to reside in eastern Canada until 1912, when the family moved to Saskatchewan, where they remained until 1916, when they moved, this time to Fernie, and from there they came to Kitchener early in 1918, where deceased has been a continuous resident ever since.

The funeral was from Holy Cross Church, Creston, with Father Choinel in full charge of the services at church and grave, and six Kitchener friends officiating as pallbearers, G. A. Hunt, A. LaPage, Harry Redmile, Alex. Ellis, Ernest Driffl and Cyril Senesael. There was a very large turnout of friends and acquaintances to pay a last tribute of respect, and floral remembrances also bespoke a well deserved popularity of deceased.

In addition to a husband, three sons, Victor of Calgary, Alberta; Ernest of North Dakota; and Omer of Cranbrook; and three daughters; Mrs. St-Denis, Kitchener; Mrs. Vial, Ross Spur; and Mrs. Foisy of Kitchener, survive and in their great bereavement they have the sympathy of all.

When the horde of gold-seekers rushed into Southern California and overwhelmed with a tide of lawlessness the Spanish settlers there, the elements of great drama were at hand. It is this era that America's master story-teller has chosen for his finest story. An epic production has been made of it—with the love story of the young American and the Spanish beauty played against a narrative of unusual thrills and magnificence.

What Does Your Work Mean To You?

In the current issue of a well known magazine there is an article, bearing the title, "Do You Ever Get Off On the Wrong Foot?" which discusses the problems of people who at some stage in their career come to the conclusion that they are square pegs in round holes. In a word, that they do not fit; that they have made a mistake in the choice of their business occupation or professional calling, and, as a result, are not making the progress they feel they should make and their abilities entitle them to make.

On the other hand, a daily newspaper is at present running a series of short sketches of men who in their boyhood or early manhood had ambitions along certain lines, but circumstances, environment, fate, call it what you will, decided otherwise, and instead of being what in those other days they "wanted to be," they have achieved success in radically different walks of life.

In this present period of world-wide depression, a temporary period when we are for the first time feeling and suffering the real aftermath of the Great War, doubtless many people are asking themselves the question: Have I got off on the wrong foot? Am I a square peg in a round hole? Should I make a change, abandon the business, trade or profession in which I am or have been engaged and try something new and different?

Possibly at this time farmers particularly may be inclined to indulge in such questioning as they contemplate the many vicissitudes which agriculture has undergone during the past two years as a result of climatic conditions, marketing difficulties, and a selling price for their products below the actual cost of production. The present outlook may not look promising to them, any more than it does to the city wage-earner. The question, however, which both classes must consider is whether, after all, any change would be better.

For example, if the man engaged in agriculture really likes farming and a rural life, and that degree of independence resulting from the fact that he is his own boss, preferring these to the limitations of a salaried position in town or city, the paid servant of others, and breathing the air of congested centres of population, then he has not made a mistake; he is not a misfit. Nor is the city man in the wrong place if on his part the open-air life and activities of the farm and the less strenuous life of rural communities makes no appeal to him.

Possibly in both city and country, and with men in all occupations and callings in life, some part at least of their dissatisfaction with their own condition is to be found in their failure to fully grasp all the opportunities of their present vocation.

In the magazine article to which reference has already been made, the story is told of a man in middle life who, dissatisfied with his position and the progress he was making, came to the parting of the ways. An orphan, forced to make his way at the age of thirteen, he took a humble position in a food commission warehouse. In course of time he became a salesman, acquired a family and a house worth four thousand dollars, and at forty-two was working long hours every day for forty dollars a week. An opportunity presented itself to become produce manager in a newly organized business at fifty dollars a week, but he was required to invest two thousand in the business. He mortgaged his house to raise the money, and took on the new job. But the promoter of the business was inexperienced, and in ten months it failed, with the result that this man lost his money and ruined his health by worry. He then took stock of "himself." He realized he knew a little about a whole lot of vegetables, but did not know everything there was to know about any one of them. So, on the advice of a friend, this man went back to his old job and worked two years more during which time he made close and expert study of one particular vegetable for which there was an all-year-round demand. He learned where the best varieties were grown, and by whom; refrigerating methods; packing methods; costs; who bought that particular variety of vegetable; ways to use it; everything. Then he launched into business in a rented dark basement dealing exclusively in that one particular vegetable. Today he heads a huge and profitable business and is worth hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The point is just this: Is the dissatisfied agriculturist farming in any old way in haphazard fashion, sowing any kind of seed, good and clean or not; using any kind of scrub cattle, indifferent breeds of poultry, or other farm stock? Is the dissatisfied city artisan, or clerk, or business man, just drifting along, doing what comes to his hand, without giving much heed to the method of doing it? Is the carpenter, for instance, content to be merely a "saw and hammer" man instead of studying and striving to become efficient and an expert in his work? Is the merchant plodding along lines of least resistance but making no mental effort to study the requirements of his particular field and the needs, even the fads, of his customers?

In a word, are we treating our present occupations in life merely and solely as a means of physical existence in life, or are we finding some real pleasure and satisfaction in the work itself? If the former is our approach to our work we will, of course, be dissatisfied with it and with ourselves, and ultimate failure must result. If, on the other hand, the work itself means something to us, and we take a keen interest in it, study it and its possibilities, constantly strive for its improvement, then satisfaction will result, leading to contentment and a reasonable measure of success.

The Aeroplane and Geodesy

Problem Of Survey Work In Remote Districts Has Been Solved

The aeroplane has solved one of the problems of the Geodetic Survey of Canada. In those districts which are traversed by neither roads nor railways, travel is slow and at times almost impossible. Obstruction is met everywhere in measuring the points in the great triangulation net which is gradually covering the whole of the Dominion. By means of the aeroplane most of those difficulties have been set aside.

Soviets Take That Method To Raise Money For Treasury

Soviet dumping of wheat and other products abroad at a time when the supplies are urgently needed in Russia itself is in the nature of "tax" collection under the Russian system, says the Financial Post, which continues:

"In Soviet Russia, the word taxation has no such meaning as Western minds attach to it. Holding private ownership to be unethical, the government itself is officially the owner of all property. Consequently, there is none for it to tax. Proclaiming private profits to be opposed to human welfare, it officially permits the accumulation of no incomes which might be taxed. It is obliged, therefore, to obtain its revenue from the actual products of the mines, forests, and farms which it operates or to take as taxes the produce of those who still operate privately—mainly the unsocialized peasants. But since it cannot operate a treasury directly with wheat and lumber, it must sell these articles in the outside world.

"This is what it is doing to the extent even of leaving its own people on the verge of starvation. Officially they are permitted to eat only what is distributed to them by the government, and the heavy purchases of machinery abroad mean that the people at home must be kept to the very lowest limit of supplies."

CANADA TO BE REPRESENTED AT CHICAGO SHOW

Chicago, Ill.—Canada is again expected to make an impressive showing in the International Grain and Hay Show, to be held at Chicago, November 29 to December 6, in connection with the International Live Stock Exposition. Already entries are being received, some from the most distant parts of the earth. Three samples of wheat have arrived from New South Wales, according to the management.

Distinction for having made the first entry in the rye and wheat classes of the exposition this year goes to a Saskatchewan grower, James A. Paur of Langham. In the rye classes of the 1929 exposition, Paur's sample ranked high.

Other successful Canadian exhibitors at the last exposition, who are expected to take part this year, were George Avery of Kelso, Sask., who had reserve championship on a two-rowed barley sample at the 1929 show; W. G. Gibson of Ladner, B.C., and William Darnbrough of Laura, Sask., who had champion and reserve champion respectively on field peas; Joseph H. B. Smith of Wolf Creek, Alberta, and S. Lacombe of Birtle, Manitoba, who ranked first and second with samples of Red Spring Wheat; Eddie J. Shank of Athabaska, Alberta, who won a blue on an early oats sample, and many other provincial exhibitors whose samples placed creditably high in the competition.

A well known Canadian, Dr. G. I. Christie, president of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, Ont., and a director of the International Live Stock Exposition, is in charge of the International Grain and Hay Show. Through him Canada will be invited to send a judge of the small grain classes. The Grain and Hay Show will also have the active support of the various Canadian seed growers' associations as well as the provincial departments of agriculture.

Added incentive for Canadian farmers to participate in the 1930 International Grain and Hay Show will be generous cash prizes offered to Canadian winners by the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Producers Limited; the Canadian National Railways; the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the governments of Quebec, Ontario, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia. To the Albertan winning a grand championship in either wheats or oats, the Calgary Board of Trade offers a round trip railway ticket and sleeping car fare to the 1931 International Grain and Hay Show.

B. H. Heide, secretary of the International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago, says: "Growers should not be discouraged from taking part this year because of possible decreased quality of their samples owing to unfavorable growing conditions last summer, which since the situation was general to the North American continent, will, I believe be generally reflected in most all of the samples submitted."

Forming Farin Boards

Prarie Provinces Stand Ready To Help Farmers Financially

Winnipeg, Man.—All three prairie provinces stand ready to assist western farmers in their financial predicament brought on by low prices of grain and livestock. Saskatchewan has had a debt-adjustment-bureau in force for some time and Manitoba now has set up a parallel board to aid needy farmers and to effect fair distribution of credit and collections.

The newest entry into the list is Alberta's agricultural development board, whose formation has been announced.

Embargo On War Munitions

President Hoover Will Not Permit Shipment Of Arms To Brazilian Rebels

Washington, D.C.—President Hoover has issued a proclamation placing an embargo on the shipment of munitions of war to Brazil except for the Federal Government at Rio De Janeiro. In taking this step, the president acted upon the request of S. Gurgel Do Amaral, Brazilian ambassador, and lined up the United States Government definitely against the rebel forces in the southern republic.

Until this proclamation was issued the Brazilian revolutionists were free to procure arms and munitions in the United States from private manufacturers. So far as the state department is advised, however, no shipments have actually been made to the rebels.

While secretary Stimson described the Brazilian ambassador as optimistic, the fact that his government requested an embargo on the shipment of arms to the rebels was generally construed as indicating that the authorities at Rio De Janeiro recognize that the uprising constitutes a grave threat to the Federal Government.

Postpone Return Flight

Capt. Errol Boyd Will Not Attempt Trip This Year

London, England.—Captain J. Errol Boyd and Lieutenant Harry P. Connor, who were planning to make a return flight across the Atlantic early next month, have definitely postponed the attempt until next spring.

The two men who flew to England from Harbor Grace, Nfld., 10 days ago, had been planning to use their monoplane "Columbia" for the first round-trip north Atlantic attempt.

When the airmen eventually make the return flight they will do so as owners of the "Columbia," for Sherwin Cottingham, aviation enthusiast in Montreal, has bought the veteran plane from Charles A. Levine and presented it to Boyd and Connor on condition that they do not fly the Atlantic again this year.

Boyd and Connor plan to sail for Canada, October 21, returning to England in the spring.

Asking Six-Hour Day

Railroad Men Want Shorter Hours With Same Rate Of Pay

Cleveland, Ohio.—The seven railroad labor unions of Canada and the United States have taken the leadership of organized labor in the movement seeking a six-hour working day without reduction of pay.

Officials of the railroad unions estimated that the proposed six-hour day would put to work 50,000 men now unemployed in the railroad industries.

The campaign for the shorter working day will be planned in detail at a meeting of 700 representatives of the railroad unions in Chicago, Nov. 12.

Automobile Production Down

Fewer Cars Produced In September Than Any Month In the Year

Ottawa, Ont.—Canada produced fewer automobiles in September than in any month this year, it was shown in a report published recently by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The total was 7,957 cars, being 19 per cent. lower than for August, and 42 per cent. lower than for September, 1929.

Likewise production figures for the first nine months of the year showed substantial reductions over 1929 totals. To the end of September, Canadian plants produced 135,622 cars, compared with 233,853 cars for the same period last year. This reduction amounts to 41 per cent.

Lake Winnipeg Tragedy

Two Fishermen Drown When They Leaped From Burning Tug Boat

Winnipeg, Man.—From the blazing deck of the tug "Magnus," four fishermen leaped into the chill waters of Lake Winnipeg, near Gimli. Two were drowned, and the other pair were dragged, half-dead, from the icy water by another tug which rushed to the rescue. The "Magnus" sank after a gasoline explosion shattered the craft from stem to stern.

The dead:

Captain William Bjarnson.

Engineer Joe Bell.

The rescue tug "Goldfield," summoned by frenzied blasts from the ill-fated "Magnus," siren, saved Martin Johnson and Ole Kardell, surviving members of the crew. Bodies of Captain Bjarnson and Engineer Bell have not been recovered. The tiny gasoline-propelled launch-tug had caught fire below deck soon after it left Gimli on October 22, but the blaze was not discovered for some time, until it was too late to halt progress of the flames.

The "Magnus," owned by the Armstrong Gimli Fisheries Company, was northbound for the fishing waters at the far end of Lake Winnipeg. The tug, laden with fishing supplies for the winter, will be a total loss.

English Firms Would Bring Own Workmen To Canada

Ottawa, Ont.—Admission to Canada of a limited number of skilled textile workers is being sought by an English firm which has purchased a textile plant at Carlton Place. The mill, which has been closed for some time, will be reopened shortly and will employ 360 hands.

The company wishes to bring from its home plant about 25 people. They will work on the manufacture of woollen coatings and other cloth of a kind never before made in this country.

Nurses Save Child's Life

Belleville, Ills.—Nurses at St. Elizabeth Hospital sitting in two-hour relays with a finger pressed tightly against an incision in the external jugular vein of Josephine Jarvis, 9, of Lebranon, Ills., probably have saved the little girl's life. Flying glass from the windshield of the Jarvis car, driven by her mother, severed the vein and a branch of the facial artery, when the Jarvis car and another collided.

DISCUSS QUESTION OF VITAL MOMENT TO PROVINCES

London, England.—Before the Imperial Conference committee, under Lord Sankey, Lord High Chancellor, Canada is making a stand for provincial rights. Hon. Maurice Dupre, Canadian Solicitor-General, supporting the views held by Premiers Ferguson and Taschereau, on Ontario and Quebec, respectively, holds the provinces must first be consulted before any amendments can be made to the British North America Act. The question arose in the consideration by the committee of the recommendations of the 1929 conference on operations of dominions laws.

In effect, the Canadian delegate's stand pursued to its logical conclusion would lead to an interprovincial conference or some other mode of consultation before final action on the report of the 1929 conference.

The 1929 conference, composed of legal experts from the various dominions, was a belated aftermath of the status resolutions of the 1926 Imperial Conference. The 1929 gathering studied the conflicts in Dominion legislation and British legislation and finally recommended an Imperial act be passed nullifying the effect of the Colonial Laws Validity Act.

Critics of these recommendations claim they go further than mere repeal of the Colonial Validity Act: that in effect they authorize an amendment to the Canadian constitution. Premiers Ferguson and Taschereau both took the ground that as Canadian confederation was a pact between the provinces, the constitution cannot be amended without the consent of the provinces. Hon. Maurice Dupre is understood to be supporting this view in the committee deliberations.

How the provinces are to be consulted has not yet been determined. There is a belief that the principle and precedent involved in the matter are of greater importance than the actual issues at stake.

British Airship Workers Worried

Disaster To R-101 May Mean Reduction In Staff

Cardington, England.—Eight hundred workers of the Royal Airship works here and their families are undergoing an anxious time pending decision of the future of airship development following the disaster to the R-101.

Officials of the works met secretly and the fact they also kept their conclusions, if any, to themselves, served to increase the apprehension. It is rumored there is a proposal to cut labor down by 20 per cent. immediately and, in the circumstances, the workers are profoundly anxious to see an early commencement of the official air ministry enquiry into the R-101 disaster, delay in which is beginning to result in newspaper criticism.

Shamrock Reaches Home

Battled With Bad Weather and Stormy Seas All the Way Across

Southampton, Eng.—Battered by terrific seas encountered on her way across the Atlantic, the "Shamrock V," arrived minus her original steering wheel which was washed away when she was 24 hours out of Bristol, Rhode Island.

Captain William Greenock, who brought the America's Cup challenger home, said that the yacht ran into bad weather practically all the way over. At times the boat was held to a standstill.

"It was no pleasure cruise," he said. "I don't think the weather could have been more unkind for we struck a bad patch just after leaving America."

The Shamrock will be taken to a shipyard for the winter. All aboard were reported well.

Opposed To British Policy

Jerusalem, Palestine.—The National Council of Palestine Jews after a meeting which lasted eight hours, decided unanimously to reject the British statement of policy in Palestine and not to participate in the proposed legislative council.

Relief Activities

Hon. Howard McConnell Reviews Relief Work In Saskatchewan Drought Areas

Details of relief activities in the dried-out areas of Saskatchewan undertaken by the Provincial Government and by the municipalities affected, with governmental aid, are given in a statement issued for publication by Hon. Howard McConnell, Provincial Treasurer and Minister of Municipal Affairs in the Saskatchewan Government. Text of the statement follows:

"In connection with relief given to farmers in the dried-out areas of our province last year, the Provincial Government distributed $919,000. This was made up as follows:

- 1.—Freight paid by province on fodder shipped to such areas $450,000
- 2.—Relief roads built by province in such areas $350,000
- 3.—Relief provided by Government for flour, fuel and fodder together with seed grain in Local Improvement Districts in such areas $119,000

Total $919,000

"The rural municipalities in such areas contributed $1,954,000 for the relief of farmers in such areas, particulars of which are as follows:

- 1.—Sums advanced by municipalities to farmers within their borders for relief purposes to purchase flour, fuel and fodder $1,750,000
- 2.—Sums advanced by municipalities to farmers resident within their borders for seed grain $204,000

Total $1,954,000

"Urban municipalities received from the Government for unemployment relief, $50,000. The Provincial Government guaranteed the repayment to the banks of all loans made by the banks to such municipalities to enable them to dispense such relief.

"This year again, the major portion of the municipalities suffering drought last year, are again experiencing adverse conditions. The position of a great many of the people residing in such areas is serious. To assist the farmers in these areas this coming fall and winter, the Government is spending approximately $1,500,000 in relief road camps, between forty and fifty such camps having been already established. Further, to assist many municipalities, the Government is advancing this year, next year's municipal road grants. In some municipalities where the situation requires more than ordinary attention, but where road camps were not established, the Government is contributing to such municipalities an extra grant. The Government appreciates that such road camps do not completely solve the situation in these municipalities, but they do permit the residents in these areas to receive $1,500,000 on account of such road work. These camps will be continued until freeze-up. On account of adverse conditions, the Government is not asking for any contributions from such municipalities toward such road work.

"Further, to assist the farmers of these dried-out areas, the Government is again, this year, paying one-half of the freight on all hay and fodder shipped into these areas by the railways, the railways paying the other half of the freight. The portion of such freight chargeable to the Government this year, will approximate $500,000.

"Requests have been made on behalf of a great many of the municipalities in the dried-out areas that the Government, with the assistance of the railways, supply coal free of all freight charges, to the residents of such dried-out areas. The Government approached the railways with a request that the railways absorb one-half of all the freight charges on Saskatchewan-mined coal shipped to the dried-out areas for relief purposes, agreeing to pay the other half of such freight. The railways, however, were unable to agree to this proposal. The Government has decided, therefore, to assume one-half of all freight charges on coal mined in Saskatchewan and shipped to the rural municipalities in the dried-out areas on their order, for relief purposes in such rural municipalities, this policy to take effect immediately.

"The expenditure incurred and to be incurred by the Government this year for Dry Skin—Minard's Liniment.

ISSUES STATEMENT

Hon. Howard McConnell, Provincial Treasurer and Minister of Municipal Affairs in the Saskatchewan Government.

year in granting relief to the residents of the dried-out areas, will approximate $2,500,000. The Government is receiving from the Federal Treasury the sum of $500,000 for relief purposes in the dried-out areas. This $500,000, it will be seen, will only take care of a small portion of the money which the Government has spent this fall and is spending for such relief in such areas.

"The Federal Government is further assisting Saskatchewan in the matter of unemployment by a further contribution of $1,000,000 to be used in assisting to pay for certain public works to take care of unemployment in the municipalities of this province. For every dollar that the Federal Government puts up, the Provincial Government must contribute one dollar and the municipality receiving such assistance must pay two dollars. In other words, if the contribution of $1,000,000 from the Federal Government is spent, then the total amount that the Provincial Government must contribute will be $1,000,000, while the municipalities must contribute $2,000,000, thus making a total of $4,000,000.

"This year, as last year, the Government again proposes to continue to guarantee the banks against loss for loans made by them to the municipalities in districts where, on account of crop failures or other adverse conditions, such assistance is necessary. Further details in connection with the administration of relief will be worked out in due course.

"The Government wants to emphasize that all public works proposed by municipal authorities, must be planned to provide the maximum amount of employment with the minimum expenditure of materials on such works. Any project which does not keep this in mind, cannot be entertained by the Government. It wishes to emphasize again, that the relief to be distributed is to be distributed only to those municipalities whose resources are insufficient to enable them to provide for their own unemployment. This is a fundamental principle laid down by the Federal Government and will not be departed from."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

NOVEMBER 2.

Golden Text: "Now when they beheld the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus."—Act 4:13.

Lesson: Mark 8:27-29; Luke 22:31-34; John 18:25-27; 21:15-17.

Devotional Reading: Philipians 2:1-11.

Explanations and Comments

Peter's Great Avowal, Mark 8:27-29.—"Who do men say that I am?" Jesus suddenly asked His disciples when on their way to Caesarea Philippi. "John the Baptist," they answered—so Herod the tetrarch had said, Matthew 14:2; "and others, Elijah (Matthew 7:10; Mal. 4:5, 6); but others, One of the prophets." "But who say ye that I am?" Jesus next questioned. "A photographer makes his sensitive plate, exposes it to just the rays of light that he chooses, dips it into the proper solutions, and holds it up to the light to see if his picture is there. What else did this Great Teacher do on that day but hold up these souls to the light to find out if the reflection of the Son of God were fastened there?"—J. M. Stiffer. And Peter answered for all the disciples, "Thou art the Christ."

Peter's Over-Confidence, Luke 22:31-34.—"Simon, Simon," Jesus solemnly said, "behold Satan asked to have you, that he might sift you as wheat." And then Jesus assured Peter that He had prayed for him that his faith might not fail. "And do thou, when once thou hast turned again (recovered from thy failure), establish (encourage) thy brethren." "Then Jesus sadly foretold Peter's yielding to the temptation awaiting him; before the crowing of the cock, before the dawn of day, Peter would three times deny that he knew his Lord.

Peter's Sin, John 18:25-27.—After the arrest of Jesus, Peter followed Him to the palace of the high priest and was standing in the inner quadrangle before a brazier of coals warming himself, when he was asked if he were not one of Jesus' disciples, and he denied that he was. One of the servants of the high priest, a kinsman of the one whose ear Peter had cut off at the arrest in the Garden of Gethsemane (Matthew 26:51), said to him: "Did I not see thee in the Garden with Him?" Again Peter denied, and immediately he heard the cock crow. "In that moment Simon Peter was etched into an everlasting picture."—F. W. Norwood.

"It would be awful kissing you good-bye," answered his wife demurely.

"For that," he said, putting his arm about her, "you shall have another!"

"Gay," he continued with mock severity, "we're downright silly. I wouldn't have believed we could behave so. And I suppose you're right. We've sponged on Mr. Bartlett long enough. Say, let's ask the old man up to supper. It would tickle him to death."

So Simeon Bartlett was their first guest. He arrived panting, after the hard pull up the foot path that led from the wood road.

"I take this kindly, ma'am," he said, sinking down breathless on the porch, and mopping the dampness from his brow with a huge handkerchief. Although evening was approaching he carried his umbrella. Indeed, he seemed almost afraid to give it up when Gay offered to relieve him of it.

"Never travel without it, ma'am," he repeated. "Shouldn't hardly feel at home if it wa'n't along. Well, well, this looks real cosy, don't it? Built this place for my old woman, ma'am, before I got so confounded fleshy. Time was when I could come up that path without battin' an eyelash, same as Nick here. A good boy, Nick. You didn't make no mistake when you picked him out."

"She didn't do the picking," laughed Nick. "I picked her, and then didn't give her time to think about it."

"Well, well," chuckled the old man, "just you take care that she don't regret it. By gorry! this ain't by any chance your honeymoon, be it?"

Gay blushed; but Nick only laughed at their guest's embarrassing interrogation.

"We hadn't been married ten minutes when you met us, Mr. Bartlett." In an instant the old man was serious.

"You ain't runnin' away from your folks, be you?" he asked soberly. "If so, it's my advice for you to go straight home and make it up. I—"

"You needn't worry a minute about that," Nick interrupted, and Mr. Bartlett brightened perceptibly.

"Tain't a good thing to quarrel with yer folks," he continued, sinking back comfortably in his chair. "I wouldn't advise it ever, though they's times when families act awful pernickity. But it's no way to begin life—runnin' off an' gettin' married secret like. Tain't a good thing to remember. You got to think o' that, boy. Everything you do now—every darn mean thoughtless little act'll come back to you when your work's done, and you got time to set down and think it over. Once when I wa'n't more than six year old I cheated at an egg race. 'Twas at a Sunday School picnic. I didn't hardly know I was cheatin' till afterward; but I took the prize (it was a whistle, ma'am, hung on a red silk cord), and I ain't never been able to forget it. Well, I'm glad you ain't quarreled with yer folks."

"We have none to quarrel with," said Nick.

"Not—neither of you?"

Nick shook his head. He boldly put an arm about his wife and drew her closer. "So you see," he said to Mr. Bartlett, though his eyes sought Gay's, "we seem to belong together."

"That's right," responded the old man. "That's the way to feel; and don't you ever let nothin' come between you. Don't lie. If the time comes when you make a fool o' yourself, Nick, you just own up, and if yer wife loves you she'll forgive an awful lot. The good book says that the peace o' God passeth all understandin', but I don't b'lieve it's a mite more wonderful than the love o' woman. What a woman'll put up with—Well, I'll say this, son: you're a good boy, but you prob'ly ain't one third good enough for her."

"I fear I'm not," agreed Nick readily; but Gay laughed, and asked if her husband was to get all the good advice.

Simeon Bartlett chuckled. "I don't aim to advise a lady," he said gallantly, "but if I was urged I'd say don't tie him too close to yer apron strings, ma'am. Give him plenty o' rope to run on; and don't mind when he notices a pretty face. It's agin natur for a young feller like Nick not to see 'em, and it's a darn sight safer if he ain't afraid to mention 'em to his wife. Just so you're sure he loves you, you ain't got a thing to worry about. Jealousy, ma'am, has made more unhappiness than strong drink; though I ain't on speakin' acquaintance with either, you might say, always bein' sure o' my old woman, and signin' the pledge at twelve year old. Do I smell chowder, ma'am?"

"That sounds," laughed Gay, "like a gentle hint for supper. Shall we have it here on the porch?"

"That would suit me fine, ma'am. Me and my old woman used to eat here summer evenin's. Sometimes the hermit thrushes would sing for us. We called 'em our orchestra; and a darn sight prettier music it was then what comes out o' the brass band over to Meller's Falls."

"We'll agree on that," said Nick. "They sang the night we came here. I told Gay it was a bridal chorus, sung specially for us."

"And I don't doubt it was, sonny," said the old man gently. "You run along now and help your missus dish up supper. You don't need to make company o' me; and I ain't one that b'lieves a man's place is on the front porch while his wife is rastlin' with the kitchen stove or the dish pan."

"Nor am I," said Nick, rising to obey. "You can ask Gay if I'm not a champion dish-washer."

It was a festive little supper, and Simeon Bartlett pronounced his hostess a "first class cook," a tribute that brought the happy color into Gay's cheeks, and a proud light to her husband's eyes. Later, when the world was drenched in moonlight, they escorted Mr. Bartlett home.

"I've had a real good time," he said in parting. "Don't know as I've enjoyed anything so much since my old woman went away. Stay as long as ever you're a mind to, but not a minute longer. I know how 'tis. Once I had that longin' to see new things myself; but it's long years now since home seemed the best place of all. Gorry! if it wa'n't for all the things I've got to remember, I'd a'most envy you, startin' out with the whole o' life before you. Goodnight, youngsters; and don't you go forgettin' the good advice I give you."

He chuckled, but Nick said soberly: "I shan't forget, sir."

"Nor shall I," Gay promised. She laid a gentle hand on the old man's. "If I don't make Nick happy it won't be because I forgot your warnings, and—I thank you."

"You're a good girl," he answered, patting her hand before releasing it. "You've given a lonely old man a happy evening."

"What a dear he is," said Gay, as they rode away. She felt suddenly reluctant to leave this kind old friend, standing alone before a house that showed no welcoming lights.

Nick looked at her tenderly.

"You're something of a dear yourself, Gay. I could see that you took old Simeon's heart by storm. Poor old chap! His wife's been dead for years, but he always speaks as if she had just left him. I'm glad we thought to have him up for supper."

"It was you who thought of it," said Gay. "You think of everybody." She moved closer, to rest her cheek against his arm. "Nick."

"Well?" Nick questioned, as no words seemed forthcoming.

"I've been wondering."

"Wondering what?" He looked at her amusedly. "It seems to be difficult to say."

"It is. —Nick—I think you're wonderful!"

"Is that all?" Nick queried, with a slow smile.

"No. There's a problem been troubling me all evening. I can't face it alone, and—"

"Of course you can't—you've got me to face it with you! But, my dear girl, I thought it was to escape such things as problems that we came away. Anyhow, we won't face it till we're back at camp. I'm going to take you the long way round. It's a glorious night to ride."

It was so glorious that they forgot the flight of time. It was late when they reached the cabin, but despite the hour they sat down together on the porch, and Nick reached for his wife's hand, twisting the slender wedding ring around her finger.

"You've guessed this was my mother's, haven't you? She told me to keep it till I found the one girl in the world. I used to think I'd never use it—or not for years and years. No settling down for me! I was to be a vagabond, you know—traverse the earth—conquer the world! Oh, Gay, what a kid I was, even a week ago!"

She stirred uneasily.

"And aren't you now?"

"My dear, how can I be a kid? I'm a married man!"

He was laughing; but Gay said soberly: "But—but I like having you a kid, Nick. You're only twenty-one. It—it's that."

"Oh!" said Nick. "I see. I'd forgotten the problem. Trot it out, young lady, and we'll go to it; though you've no moral right to produce the abominable thing on a quest for freedom." (To Be Continued.)

WHEN PAIN COMES...

Two hours after eating

WHAT many call "indigestion" is very often nothing but excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food sours. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes acids instantly. The best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained the standard anti-acid with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali will neutralize instantly many times as much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this more pleasant way. A small bottle is sufficient to show its merit.

Be sure to get genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for more than 50 years in correcting excess acid. 50c a bottle; any drugstore. Complete directions for its many uses are enclosed with every bottle.

The Genuine Milk of Magnesia is always a liquid—never a tablet. Look for the Phillips' name on the bottle.
