Intitute Witnesses Good Health Play

Division 3 School Pupils Stage Feature Successfully—Having Flower Show—Make Donation Solarium Work.

The regular meeting of Creston and District Women,s Institute was held on Friday afternoon, May 8th, with a splendid turnout of members and quite a large number of visitors. The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Hayes, but disappointment was encountered on account of Mrs. (Rev.) R. E. Cribb being unable to be present and give a talk on "Gardening in the Yukon."

An interesting feature of the session was a tabloid play by pupils of Division 3 of the public school, under the direction of Miss Wade, which told the story of "How to Maintain Good Health," while another group very effectively told the "Story of Canada by Provinces." The children taking part were Ruth Davis, Doris Hendy, Doris Beninger, Jessie Spratt, Maisie Ferguson, Iona Hills, Helen McCreath, Ruby Palmer, Beryl Palmer, Phyllis Lowther, Maggie Brady, Irene Brady, Gladys Davies, Leona Schmidt, Mary Ross and Gladys Perdue.

A contribution of $5 will be sent the Solarium to help defray the cost of maintaining the Wynndel child which is taking treatment there. It was decided to have the annual flower show, and arrangements for this was left with the directors. It was also decided to operate a refreshment booth at the schools' track meet on May 16th. A hospital tag day for May 23rd was also discussed.

The tea hostesses were Mrs. Lowther, Mrs. Laithwaite, Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. Mallandaine and the tea collection for the Crippled Children's Hospital amounted to $2.

Hemming tea towel—A. Posnikoff 1st, M. Cribb 2nd, V. Watson 3rd, E. Morrow 4th.

The judging was done by Mrs. Best and Miss Alice Embree and considerable trouble was encountered in awarding the prizes so uniformly well done was most of the work.

About the best softball game Wynndel has witnessed was here on Monday evening, Canyon Cougars vs. Wynndel Tigers. The game ended in a tie, 18 all. In the extra inning Canyon scored an extra run and won out by just that one run margin. The locals were almost discouraged when the umpire allowed a foul ball to go as fair, giving Canyon two runs, but the sporting spirit was uppermost and they played a good game to the end.

The visitors are due to arrive shortly after 4 o'clock, and at 4.30 there will be a parade of both American and Canadian Legion members to the monument where the address of welcome will be delivered by Col. E. Mallandaine, V.D., and will be replied to by C. E. Canada and World Disarmament

During this present period of world-wide business depression some people, good people too, are heard to thoughtlessly remark that the only way out will be another great war: that such a struggle will be the ultimate outcome of the world's existing difficulties. Such a statement should be the last to pass the lips of any person. Another war, instead of being a cure, would be the final world catastrophe.

Many contributing causes there may be to the economic trails of today, but the main source of all the trouble is to be found in the Great War, 1914-1918. That titanic struggle laid the foundations for what has since taken place. In fact, all students of history fully realize that our present experiences are but a repetition of those which followed the Napoleonic wars. Another great war would have exactly the same results, only worse, because modern world conditions only serve to intensify and prolong such disturbances when they do occur.

Instead, therefore, of even thinking "war," the peoples of all nations should think and talk of nothing but permanent peace, and direct all their energies to the consummation of that ideal.

What is the great financial burden resting on the shoulders of the Canadian people today? It is the debt created by the Great War. The public debt of Canada created in the upbuilding of this Dominion from before the time of Confederation down to 1914 calls for annual interest payments of only $12,893,000, or only 3½ per cent. of our national expenditures, and approximately $1.30 per head of our population. On the other hand, interest charges on the public debt created since 1914 amount to $108,857,000, or 27% of our annual expenditures, and more than $10.00 per head of population in each and every year.

But this is not all of the war burden. In addition to this 27% for interest on the war debt, Canadians are required to devote another 12.40% of all expenditures for services arising out of the war, such as pensions, after care of soldiers, etc. That is, out of every $100 expended by the Government of Canada each year, $39.42 is directly attributable to the Great War. This is the burden which ties the hands and cripples the efforts of our national government.

Of every $100 expended by the United States $60.00 is spent because of war, past, present and future. The war expenditures of Great Britain are in like proportion, or possibly even heavier.

In a recent speech before the International Chamber of Commerce, meeting in Washington, President Hoover declared that the present world depression is largely due to "the destruction of life and property, the great tax burdens, and the social and political instability which resulted from the Great War," and he declared that one major accomplishment which international co-operation could effect in reducing tax burdens, removing a primary cause of unrest, and establishing greater confidence for the long future, was "the limitation and reduction of armaments." President Hoover proceeded to back up his assertion with these startling facts and figures:

"The world expenditure on all arms is now nearly five billions of dollars yearly, an increase of about 70% over that previous to the Great War. We stand today with nearly 5,500,000 men actively under arms and 20,000,000 more in reserve. These vast forces, greatly exceeding those of the pre-war period, still are to be demobilized, even though twelve years have passed since the Armistice was signed, because of fear and of inability of nations to co-operate in mutual reductions. Yet we are all signatories to the Kellogg-Briand Pact, by which we have renounced war as an instrument of national policy, and agreed to settle all controversies by pacific means."

Nevertheless, in the face of such a declaration from President Hoover, and also in the face of a huge national deficit of over $800,000,000 which is enforcing economies in practically every department of government, the United States budget for 1932 provides for an increase of $26,000,000 in prospective outlays on military-naval expenditures.

Canada, too, is a signatory to the Kellogg-Briand Peace Pact, and as such this Dominion is steadily reducing its expenditures for defence purposes; we have no offensive services. Expenditures for National Defence by Canada are the smallest of any country in the world having anything like the same population or degree of wealth. They total only 5.06% of our annual expenditures; in other words, about two dollars per head of our population.

While, therefore, this Dominion is not at all blameworthy for the present state of world armament, the Canadian people should be staunch supporters of further disarmament everywhere as a step towards permanent peace. As a people we cannot remain indifferent to the attitudes of other nations, and unless a general reduction in armaments takes place another world tragedy will be enacted, and into it we may again be drawn as active participants, and in any event cannot escape its disastrous effects.

Week End Cruises

Cunard Line Will Inaugurate Week-End Cruises From New York To Nova Scotia

In an effort to further increase the popularity of Nova Scotia as a tourist country among Americans the Cunard Line announces that their now famous "Week-end Cruises" scheduled for the months of July, August and September, will include a call at a Nova Scotian port.

The statement that was issued by Arthur Randles, general passenger traffic manager of the Cunard Line in Canada, also pointed out the fact that not only will the "Week-end Cruises" call there, but those of the special summer cruises under the auspices of the National Tours, will also make Halifax a port of call. The co-operation of the Nova Scotian authorities has been secured and every effort will be made to see that passengers on these cruises are given as much time ashore as possible to view the many attractions which the maritime provinces have to offer.

"This will be the first time," said Mr. Randles, "that three giant express liners of the size of the "Berengaria," "Aquitania," and "Mauretania," have called at Halifax, except that the "Aquitania" and "Mauretania" occasionally visited the ancient port during the war. The first sailing of the "Week-end Cruises" to call at a Nova Scotia port will be "Aquitania," July 3rd, from New York. These cruises will be carried on throughout the summer until the last sailing of the "Mauretania" leaving New York on September 18th, while the National Tours cruises will commence on July 27th with the "Transylvania" and finish with the sailing from New York on August 31st of the "Cameronia."

Until July there are scheduled four "Week-end Cruises" from New York, the first leaving New York on May 2nd in the "Aquitania," calling at Bermuda. The second cruise will be that of the "Mauretania," leaving New York on May 15th, calling at Nassau in the Bahama Islands. The third cruise is that of the "Berengaria," leaving New York on May 29th and calling at Bermuda, to be followed by a cruise of the "Mauretania," on June 5th to Nassau. The "Week-end Cruises" to Nova Scotia will then follow. The cruise of the "Berengaria" is also unique in the fact that it is the largest liner ever to visit Bermuda."

"These week-end cruises, the first of which have proven so popular, are drawing capacity bookings. On board the attractions include dances, moving pictures, lectures, deck sports, and every type of ship entertainment and the extremely low rates available make them very attractive.

"The reason for these cruises is to familiarize the vast number of people on this side of the Atlantic who have never had the pleasure of sailing in an ocean liner, and to give them the opportunity of making a trip on one of the "Big Three" with little or no time away from their business.

The calls at Nassau and Bermuda allow passengers to do some sightseeing or enjoy the local attractions such as trips in the glass-bottomed boats at Paradise Beach, and sea bathing.

Officials of the Cunard Line expect that the call at the Nova Scotia port at the best time of the year will enhance the popularity of these week-end cruises.

Elgar's Rousing March Clears Brooklyn Store At Closing Time

You may not have realized it, but one of the matters to which department-store executives have devoted a great deal of thought is how to get rid of their customers at closing time without actually pushing or shoving them out. A gentleman who wandered late one afternoon into Abraham & Straus', in Brooklyn, New York, reports a neat way they have of doing it there. He saw it work. At five-thirty a gong rang: immediately from loudspeakers scattered along the walls issued the rousing strains of Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance." Ladies lingering over bargains straightened, seized their parcels, and in no time were swinging briskly along toward the exits. The floorwalker he questioned, was enthusiastic about the idea, said it was the best they'd ever had for the purpose, and, incidentally, paid a high tribute to Elgar. His march, the floorwalker said, cleared the store faster than anything else they had been able to find by extensive experiments.

Plans Round Trip Flight Over Ocean

Commander MacMillan and Pilot Will Attempt Hop In June

In the role of trans-Atlantic flyer whose goal is the first round trip crossing of the North Atlantic by airplane, Commander Donald B. MacMillan, veteran explorer of the Arctic, will attempt to fly back and forth between Boston and London this summer.

A swift monoplane, a Lockhead-Vega, the same design of ship in which many trans-continental speed records have been set, will be used. A Los Angeles flyer, Charles F. Rocheville, will pilot the ship.

The take-off is set for June 21.

World's Grain Exhibition

Spain Making Arrangements To Participate In Conference

Though Spain is very busy just now reorganizing its national administration, the importance of the World's Grain Exhibition and Conference to be held at Regina, July 25 to August 26, 1932, has not been lost sight of.

A few days ago the headquarters' office of the Exhibition and Conference was advised by the General Director of Agriculture of the Spanish Ministry of National Economy that a special committee of cereal agriculture had been appointed to devote itself to the definite organization of participation by Spain in the World's Grain Exhibition and Conference.

Spain has a particular interest in the forthcoming world-wide grain exhibition and conference in that it is a preponderatingly agricultural country. Its productive area is calculated at 114,000,000 acres of which, last year, nearly 12,000,000 acres were sown to wheat, 5,000,000 acres to barley, 2,000,000 acres to oats and 1,500,000 to rye.

Seventeen countries have now officially accepted the invitation to be represented at the Exhibition and Conference, namely; Italy, Peru, Yugoslavia, Guatemala, New Zealand, Czecho-Slovakia, the Netherlands, Belgium, Poland, Siam, India, Portugal, Switzerland, Estonia, the Philippines, the Argentina and Spain.

APPROVAL IS GIVEN TO EMPIRE WHEAT QUOTAS

London, England.—The Labor Government has approved the general principle of a quota for Empire wheat. This was the statement of Lord Parmoor, president of the council in the Labor cabinet, in the House of Lords. The quota would assure the wheat-growing Dominions a certain proportion of the British market.

Lord Parmoor believes the project is quite possible.

"The difficulty is one of detail which cannot be disposed of until after the forthcoming conference at Ottawa. The Dominions do not think it is impossible and neither does the government. Whether the Dominions can formulate a scheme which will be satisfactory, only time will tell," he declared.

Lord Parmoor did not believe a quota on wheat grown in Britain could be of any benefit to the farming industry, since it could not be used without adding to the burdens of the taxpayers.

The decision of the government was not unanimously endorsed by the Lords. The Labor peer, Lord Arnold, made a slashing attack on the proposal. "It is a crude and terribly unsound proposal," he stated. A quota of even 55 per cent. of the Dominions' wheat would not only be practically no increase in the recent British import of Dominion wheat, but would only represent one-fifth of the joint Canadian-Australian surplus, in the current year of 512,000,000 bushels."

It was obvious he said, the economic committee of the Imperial Conference had grave misgivings as to the effect of a quota on prices. Far from furthering Imperial unity it would become a discordant Imperial factor and also invite retaliation by other countries like the Argentine.

Lord Arnold made passing refer- to Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett's offer to the Imperial Conference and the speech of Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Dominion secretary, the language of which, he said, "would shock this House."

Rt. Rev. Bertram Pollock, Bishop of Norwich, challenging Lord Arnold's assertions from beginning to end, said if any kind of Empire preference was found to be good, then some further step could be taken. "We are not necessarily committed to a long series of further steps," he declared.

Lord Parmoor has failed to follow the reasoning that a quota meant a duty on foodstuffs or raw materials. That was never part of the government's policy and the various Dominions had made it clear they did not desire it. It was not a question of price, but of quantities, and he was unable to see why a quota should prove impracticable.

On the other hand, it was useless for home farmers to have a quota without a guarantee price, which would mean raising the price of wheat from 75 cents a bushel to $1.50 per bushel. The real treatment for the farming industry in the Old Country was an adaptation to new economic conditions, he declared.

Detect Nationalistic Spirit

British Trade Mission Finds Desire In Canada To Foster Domestic Trade

London, England.—Members of the Trade Mission which visited Canada and the United States in the interests of the Scottish woollen industry told newspapermen that they had been struck by the "intensely nationalistic feeling" in Canada.

In Canada there was a desire to foster Canadian secondary industries at all costs, coupled with a desire to buy at home, the manufacturers said. This feeling did not exist in the United States, they said. It was essential that Scottish manufacturers should have better publicity and a better selling organization in both countries the members of the mission stated.

Riots In Spain

Government Orders Confiscation Of Private Property Of Alfonso

Madrid, Spain.—Following further anti-clerical riots in Spain, in spite of the strict watch of soldiery, the government has decreed the confiscation of the private property of King Alfonso, pending an investigation and commanded provincial governors to use the strictest measures to restore order.

Meanwhile Cardinal Primate Segura, a Catholic archbishop of Toledo whose pastoral letter created a stir over a week ago, had crossed the Spanish border and was on his way through France, presumably on a journey to Rome.

Several more churches and Catholic religious houses were burned and sacked in provincial cities, in spite of the fact that martial law had been declared in most of the larger centres.

A nation-wide check-up of police forces, civil guards and provincial governors was ordered by the cabinet. The action resulted from the government's belief that some of these officials have not been stern enough in dealing with the situation.

Twenty-nine chiefs of police or their lieutenants, several officers of the civil guards and one secretary of a provincial government were discharged for alleged incompetency.

It was reported also that some provincial governors were to be displaced.

Cardinal Segura, accompanied by his brother, Canon of the Toledo Cathedral, drove in an automobile to the French border at Hendaye, France, and continued from there to Toulouse. It was supposed they were bound for Rome.

Place Idle On Land

Plan Proposed To Establish Jobless On Manitoba Farms

Winnipeg, Man.—A scheme to establish jobless on farms has been placed before the Manitoba Government and the city fathers of Winnipeg. J. G. Alexander and J. P. Siemens, of Winnipeg, are authors of the scheme. They urge that huge sums spent on unemployment relief be used to establish families on the land.

Land suitable for farming operations is available at $1.00 to $1.50 per acre, the men claim. Their plan would give permanent instead of temporary relief and enable the jobless to produce their own food and in time become taxpayers, the two men state. It is stated that more than 1,100 families have announced their desire to become farmers if the money spent on relief can be used to aid them.

The proposed plan would permit families to occupy farms owned by the government until they can return the amount of money advanced, then they will receive title to the land.

Made In West Campaign

Develop Markets For Goods Manufactured In Western Canada

Winnipeg, Man.—Western Canadian manufacturers gathered in conference here and decided to commence a campaign to sell "Made-in-the-West" goods to the prairie folk. A plan was formulated to develop markets for articles manufactured in the Canadian West.

A distinctive identification mark or label placed on all goods was favored by the conferees. The mark would show that the articles were produced by prairie labor. Manufacturers and retailers will co-operate closely in furthering the "Made -in-the-West" campaign.

Carry On Thriving Trade

Ottawa, Ont.—When the Islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon were ceded to France after the conquest of Canada by the British, it was little dreamed the time would come when they would rank ninth among the nations of the world in total trade with the Dominion. Consisting almost entirely of liquor, Canada in the last fiscal year sold the two islands a total of $11,004,479, out-ranking Australia, Ireland, Argentina, Brazil, China, Mexico, Sweden and Denmark.

Estimated Wheat Acreage

Government Figures Based On Farmers' Plans May 1

Ottawa, Ont.—The estimated acreage of spring wheat in all Canada for this season is 22,152,300, as compared with 24,082,900 last year. This estimate was announced by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics in a crop report issued May 12. This means that 1,930,000 acres less will be under wheat during 1931 than was the case in 1930.

In Alberta the acreage is 89 per cent. of last year; in Saskatchewan, 92 per cent.; in Manitoba, 98 per cent.; in Ontario, 99 per cent.; Quebec, 100 per cent.; New Brunswick, 95 per cent.; in Nova Scotia, 98 per cent.; British Columbia, 102 per cent.; Prince Edward Island, 101 per cent. The acreage for all Canada for spring wheat is 92 per cent. as compared with 100 last year, a decrease of eight per cent.

The report explains that the figures are to be regarded only as an indication of the seeding plans of farmers on May 1. The actual acreage sown may be changed by later consideration, particularly by soil and weather conditions and by price movement.

For Armament Reduction

Canadian Womanhood and Organized Labor Support League

Ottawa, Ont.—Canadian womanhood and organized labor strongly support the League of Nations and its aims, it was reported at the ninth annual meeting here of the League of Nations Society in Canada. It was made known that a huge petition will be presented on behalf of the women of the Dominion at next year's meeting of the Naval Disarmament Conference, urging reduction of the manufacture of instruments for warfare.

Tom Moore, president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress and its representative on the society's executive, declared before the gathering far more was being spent in all countries on armaments than on social effort.

"It is necessary that we find some means by which money may be devoted to the betterment of the people instead of upon means of destruction," he added.

A number of other speakers reported the organizations which they represented supported the work of the League of Nations. Among these were Mrs. C. Field Robertson, of the Federated Women's Institute embracing 80,000 Canadian women; Mrs. J. A. Wilson, president of the National Council of Women, and Miss Agnes MacPhail, M.P., who reported for the United Farmers of Ontario.

Senator Urges Joint Holiday

Would Have Remembrance Day and Thanksgiving Celebrated Together

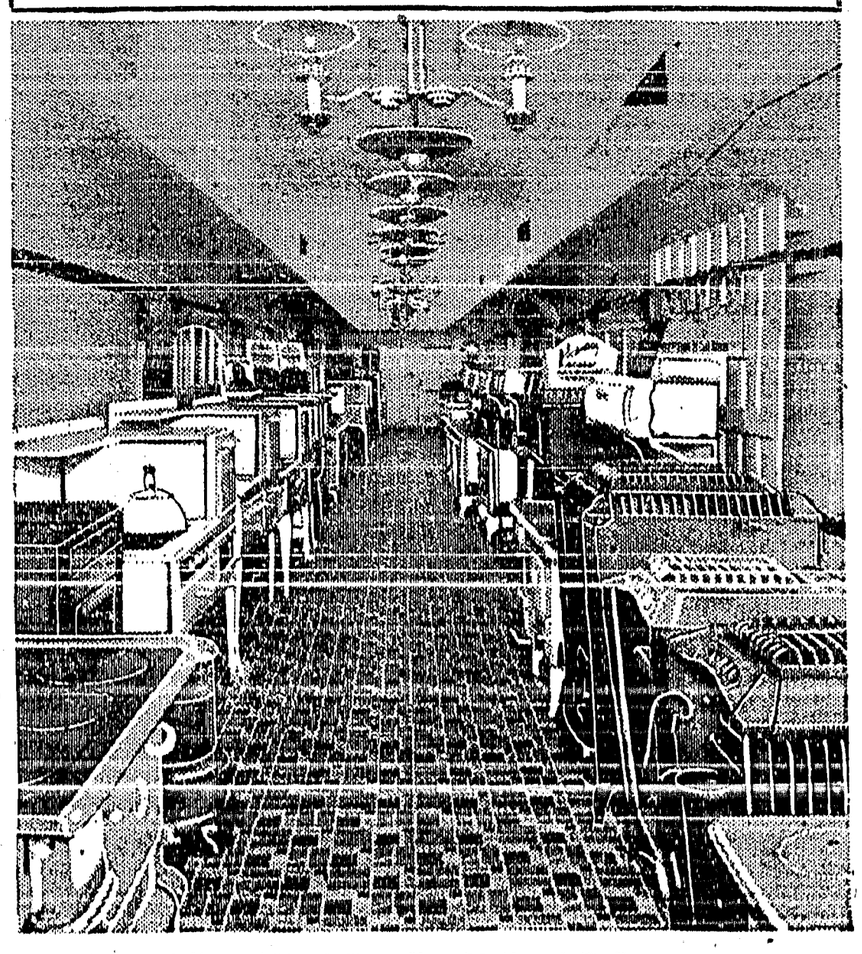
Ottawa, Ont.—Joint celebration of Remembrance Day and Thanksgiving will be the aim of a motion which will be introduced in the Senate by Hon. John Stanfield. When the Senate was considering a bill which passed the House of Commons, fixing Remembrance Day on November 11, Senator Stanfield gave notice of his suggested amendment. The bill was referred to a committee, where the proposed change will be considered.

The bill, as it passed the lower House, changed the name of Armistice Day to Remembrance Day and fixed it permanently on November 11. At the present time, it is celebrated on the Monday of the week in which November 11 falls.

Education In Penitentiaries

Ottawa, Ont.—Greater opportunity for educational expansion should be given inmates of Canada's penitentiaries, believes Miss Agnes MacPhail, lone woman member of the House of Commons, who addressed an Ottawa service club. The increase in penitentiary inmates was attributed by Miss MacPhail to the prevalent depression and unfavorable home conditions.

NOVEL DISPLAY ON WESTERN TOUR



In this specially outfitted Canadian National Railways express car now touring Western Canada, the Canadian General Steel Wares are giving actual demonstrations of coal, wood, electric, coal oil and gasoline heaters. While the car will, whenever possible, travel on passenger runs, bunks have been installed for the use of attendants when the car is being hauled by freight.

IS OPPOSED TO ANY CHANGE IN BANKING SYSTEM

Ottawa, Ont.—The banking system of Canada is adequate to the needs of this country and no reason exists for a change. This was the opinion expressed in the House of Commons by Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, prime minister and acting minister of finance.

Mr. Bennett asserted that the Canadian system embraced those great basic requirements which are essential to its success. It provided the people with a safe depositary for the money which they desired to save, and it furnished to those people requiring money adequate facilities for borrowing.

Mr. Bennett emphasized that complicated discussion which sometimes took place in respect to banks and their place in the community, must always resolve itself into a simple, single inquiry. "Has the bank, through its management, had due fegard in lending money to the fact that it may be called upon to repay that money to the source from which it was borrowed?"

"It may well be," Mr. Bennett declared, "that the time will come in this country when it is deemed desirable to expand our system as it now exists. I am not saying it will not. I am one of those who believe that you cannot today with respect to financial operations, say with certainty what it may be desirable to do tomorrow — using the word tomorrow, not in its literal sense but in relation to time as we employ the term in financial operations."

Discussion arose on a motion of G. G. Coote, U.F.A. member for MacLeod, Alta., asking the House to declare that "there should be established in Canada a nationally-owned central bank." At some length Mr. Coote advocated the establishment of such a bank, declaring that it could take over many of the duties now discharged by the department of finance, administration of the Finance Act, probably the issuance of Dominion notes and supervision of the Post Office Savings Bank. He expressed the view that intelligence and effective control of credit in Canada could best be obtained through some such central institution.

Interview By Television

Mrs. Philip Snowden Gives Interview Through New Medium

London, England.—While Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden, Chancellor of the Exchequer, was confined to bed for a few days under doctor's orders, the Daily Herald quoted Mrs. Snowden in what it described as "the first interview by television in history."

Both the interviewer and Mrs. Snowden were visible as well as audible to each other, one in the Herald's office and the other at 11 Downing Street. Asked about the chancellor's health, Mrs. Snowden told the reporter: "He has had rather a setback this week, I'm afraid. But I do not think it is serious. However, it has temporarily deprived him of the use of his legs to some extent."

Mr. Snowden virtually rose from a sick bed a short time ago to place the budget before the House of Commons. His physicians today told him to return to bed.

"Our conversation was absolutely free from interruption or noise or static of any kind," he continued, "and now that I have had this good result, there is a possibility that I might be using this quite often in the future."

DOMINION OF CANADA CONVERSION LOAN

Which We Recommend

Ask Any Branch Manager

To the Holders of WAR LOAN AND VICTORY BONDS

A Statement by the Minister of Finance

IN THE dark days of the War, Canadians loaned to the Government of the Dominion many hundred millions of dollars to enable the operations of the Allies to be carried to a successful conclusion.

When Canadians loaned their money to the Government, they received bonds which were promises to repay them the sum loaned with interest at the rate of 5% or 5½% per annum. On the 1st of October next, $53,000,000 of these bonds become due; on the 1st of November, 1932, the maturity will be $73,000,000; on the 1st of November, 1933, $446,000,000; and, in 1934, $511,000,000 must be provided for.

It would not be prudent, either in the interest of the security holders or the country itself, to wait until these loans become due before providing for their payment or conversion. Action must be taken well in advance of the due dates to protect the credit of the country. The Government believes this an opportune time to afford Canadians the opportunity to exchange the bonds, which they own maturing in the next few years, for new bonds of the Dominion of Canada carrying interest at the rate of 4½% per annum, which is a very attractive return. Prior to the maturity date of the present bonds, those who accept this offer will, of course, continue to be paid interest at the rate as provided by the bonds they exchange.

Canadians who have always shown confidence in their country are earnestly invited to exchange the bonds they now own for bonds of the new issue. By so doing, they will render less difficult the task of providing for the future finances of the country, will enhance its credit and will greatly assist the Government in the present period of worldwide readjustments.

No money will be asked for and no new bonds will be sold at this time. It is proposed to limit the present conversion to $250,000,000, but the Government has the right at its discretion to increase the amount if Canadians indicate a general desire to continue their investments in the securities of their Dominion. The subscription books will close on the 23rd of May.

I earnestly seek the active support of my fellow Canadians in making this conversion, which is one of the largest financial operations our country has undertaken in recent years, creditable alike to Canada and its citizens.

Minister of Finance.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MAY 24

JESUS PREPARING FOR THE END

Golden Text: "This do in remembrance of Me."—Luke 22.19.

Lesson: Luke 21.1 to 22.23.

Devotional Reading: Isaiah 53.1-6.

Explanations and Comments

The Preparation For Keeping the Passover, 22.7-13.—While the city of Jerusalem was making ready to celebrate the Passover Supper, the day of unleavened bread, and the chief priests and elders were planning how they might put Jesus to death, Jesus bade two of His disciples, Peter and John, make preparations for their keeping of the feast. "Where?" they asked Him, and Jesus directed them to enter Jerusalem, and when they met a man bearing a pitcher of water to follow him. Water was carried by women in jars upon their heads, and a man doing this work would be a solitary and unusual figure. To the owner of the house to which the man would lead them, Jesus bade them say, that the Master asked where was the guest chamber in which He should eat the Passover with His disciples. The owner would show them a large upper room where they were to make ready for the Passover. The disciples followed His directions.

The Prelude To the Lord's Supper, 22.14-18.—When the hour was come (when evening was come, Matthew), Jesus sat down (reclined on a couch) with His disciples to partake of the Paschal Supper. "With desire have I desired [intensely have I longed] to eat this Passover with you before I suffer." Why? For His own sake. There was comfort for His own heart that He should be able to manifest His love. With tender, solemn thought He had looked forward to it, and He desired the support of their fellowship for what lay before Him. For their sake also. The final act of suffering would be a great trial to the disciples. They were to know something of the sorrow of desolation, and Christ was eager to prepare them for the dark future. If they were assured of His deathless love they would find comfort when the shock of His death came. They could look back on this feast and on these words, and gather strength to suffer and to wait. And so it is for us also who are His disciples. Our feast of love not only represents the desire of the Lord to give Himself, but represents the joy of the gift to us.

The Institution Of the Lord's Supper, 22.19, 20.—And He took bread, and when He had given thanks, He brake it. It was unleavened bread, especially prepared for the Paschal meal. Because He broke off the pieces of bread (which was in the form of hard, flat, round cakes and was always broken, never cut), the ordinance is called the "Breaking of Bread." From the Greek word for thanks, "eucharistesas," comes our word "Eucharist." And Jesus said, "This is my body which is given for you." And as Jesus took the cup, He said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, even that which is poured out for you."

The Startling Announcement, 22.21-23.—It was a startling statement that Jesus made when He said, "But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth Me is with Me on the table." "It was the dropping of a Lyddite shell into their midst, destroying the whole atmosphere of peace.—Dean Brown.

"For the Son of Man indeed goeth, as it hath been determined," continued Jesus: "But woe unto that man through whom He is betrayed!"

Industrial Manitoba

Industry Gradually Taking Priority Over Agriculture In the Province

Bearing upon the recent statement of J. M. Davidson, of the Industrial Development Board of Manitoba, that industry is gradually taking priority over agriculture in the province, it is pointed out that Manitoba is rich in natural resources, having more than $600,000,000 in ore reserves, 137,000 square miles of timber, and 20,000 square miles of water surface. The province is also extremely rich in metallic and non-metallic minerals. With an annual production of more than $105,000,000, moreover, Manitoba's 130 industrial plants have a yearly pay-roll of $35,000,000.

Canada and Newsprint Production

More Newsprint Made In Canada Than Any Other Country

More newsprint paper is made in Canada than in any other country. In 1930, Canada manufactured 2,504,000 tons, 36 per cent. of the world production of newsprint paper. The tonnage was practically double that turned out in the United States, which was the nearest competitor to the Canadian mills with an output of 18 per cent. of the world total. Great Britain and Germany each manufactured about nine per cent. and Newfoundland and Japan four per cent. each. These six countries accounted for about four-fifths of the world supply of newsprint which totalled 6,975,000 tons last year.

Though Canada's production totalled 36 per cent. of the aggregate for the upwards of 20 countries producing newsprint, her proportion of the export market was even larger.

DRAPERIES MADE NEW

"When we resumed housekeeping a month ago I found my draperies had become creased from packing. I hung them out on the line, hoping to remove the creases. Then I forgot them. The result was they became badly faded and sun-spotted.

"I was heartsick until the happy thought struck me to dye them. I just dyed them a deeper green, and as I used Diamond Dyes they look gorgeous and new. I have never seen easier dyes to use than Diamond Dyes. They give the most beautiful colors—when used either for tinting or dyeing—and never take the life out of cloth as other dyes do."

Divorce By Legislation

The ninth application for divorce in the last 50 years was recently before the legislative council of the Isle of Man. As the island has no divorce law, a special bill must be passed for each case. After the council has passed the bill, it must be passed by the House of Keys, sent to London for royal assent and finally promulgated from the open-air Tynward Court.

Miller's Worm Powders not only make the infantile system untenable for worms, but by their action on the stomach, liver and bowels they correct such troubles as lack of appetite, biliousness and other internal disorders that the worms create. Children thrive upon them and no matter what condition their worm-infested stomachs may be in, they will show improvement as soon as the treatment begins.

By a new decree all tooth pastes must be analyzed, approved and registered by the government before they can be sold in Argentina.

Unearth Ancient Treasures

Valuable Discoveries Made In Kish By Oxford-Field Museum Expedition

Jewelry worn at the Court of Nebuchadnezzar, magnificent sculpture of the Sassanian period and royal tombs over 5,500 years old have been discovered by the Oxford-Field Museum Expedition excavating at Kish, near the site of old Babylon. Dr. Stephen Langdon, Professor of Assyriology, Oxford University, director of the expedition, has sent a report to Sir Charles Marston, author of Essays on the Old Testament, who states that the jewelry is said to be worth several thousands of pounds.

The expedition is working on three separate strata covering three periods of history. Sassanian sculpture, dating from about 250 A.D., was found on the top layer above the great Temple of Nebuchadnezzar. The find of treasure from the Nebuchadnezzar period is sensational and includes solid gold ornaments.

"It will be of great interest to know just what has been found because the time of Nebuchadnezzar is one about which we are learning a great deal from recent discoveries, and excavation is supporting the old Biblical narrative to an extraordinary extent," Sir Charles says.

Below the Nebuchadnezzar Temple have been found a further series of Sumerian royal tombs. These are about 5,500 years old and the expedition is just beginning to explore them. Written tablets and cuneiform writings have been recovered which will probably shed light on the history of those times. Sir Charles adds: "It is especially interesting to know that the date of the floods has now been fixed at 3,400 B.C., so that these tablets are probably older still."

For Scalds Or Burns.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is a standard remedy for the prompt treatment of scalds and burns. Its healing power quickly soothes the pain and aids a speedy recovery from the injury. It is also an excellent remedy for all manner of cuts, bruises and sprains, as well as for relieving the pains arising from inflammation of various kinds. A bottle in the house and stable saves many a doctor's and veterinary's fee.

Purchases by Canadian financial houses made up a total of $147,306,386, while American firms bought to the extent of $59,787,000 and British, $4,100,000.

More than 21,000,000 acres in Argentina were planted to wheat last season.

"I rather think we are! But you see, a family usually has a daddy, and a mother, and more little children. Sonny, and Nick, and their father and mother are a family, so—so you see, you couldn't have Mrs. Hastings for your mother. Do you understand?"

"Not—'zactly. Who—who can I have? Could it be Julie?"

Halliday stifled an impulsive smile, and answered: "I'm afraid not; but —" He seemed to hesitate; then said: "Martha, do you remember a lady who used to live here—a—a very pretty lady, in a blue gown?"

The child looked up, her eyes suddenly wide with distrust.

"She hurted my kitty. She hurted him so hard he runned away."

Halliday drew a deep breath. He had hoped the child had forgotten.

"She will never hurt your kitty again, dear. Would—would she possibly do for a—mother, little girl?"

"No," said Martha. She slid off Halliday's knee as if this monstrous proposition had put something intangible between them. "No," she said again, looking up soberly, "she isn't a mother. She won't do."

Tears smarted behind Halliday's lids. It was all so pitifully true! Then, meeting his eyes, the child's innocent heart surmised that he was hurt, and she flung herself upon him, clasping his neck in a passion of overwhelming love.

"It doesn't matter—much," she comforted. "It doesn't matter hardly any. I've got you, Daddy."

"Yes," said Halliday huskily, and smiled. "There's not the least doubt in the world that you've got me!"

And next day he went to Boston to see his lawyer.

CHAPTER XVIII.

It was on a day some five weeks later that Nick came back from a morning spent in the office of a native lawyer, and with a sigh of relief dropped into a chair on the hotel veranda. The lawyer had proved slow, and plodding, and exact, to a degree that had made the impatient New Englander long to take him by the collar and shake him up; and the day was hot.

Nick threw down his panama hat, and mopped his forehead, thankful for the fact that though the tropic sun is hot, the shade is cool. And another week ought to finish up the business. As he sat there looking out on the grove of palms that had become familiar in the past weeks, he felt torn between a desire to take the first boat home, and a longing to claim his vacation now, and see more of the island and its people.

Gay had urged him to stay as long as he could be spared; and only the day before had come a line from John Maxwell saying not to hurry back. "Take another month, boy, and see all there is to see while you've got the chance. Simeon Bartlett is taking excellent care of your family, and I know that good wife of yours really wants you to have a taste of freedom. I wonder, Nick, if freedom is all it's cracked up to be! You can tell me about it when you come back!"

Nick wondered, too. Although he had enjoyed almost every minute of the time, he had, all the way along, missed Gay's companionship. The sight of each new beauty brought the wish that she were there to share it. He wanted her comments on all he saw. He missed her understanding silences. For if a young marriage proves the right marriage, there is none so happy, perhaps because there is less adjusting to go through with. Youth understands its kind—has fewer habits to overcome—fewer prejudices.

Nick was hardly conscious of his surroundings that morning. He was thinking that in Bakersville it was spring. Gay's last letter had told of pussy willows, and venturesome robins. The snow was gone. There had been a tremendous thaw and the river road was flooded in low places. It had been exciting. The bridge at Lower Falls was threatened for a day; and Uncle Sim had hired Sam Hilton to take them in his car to "see the sights." The boys were tremendously worked up, and begged constantly to get into the bath tub and "play flood."

Nick felt a twinge of keen regret that he had not been there to share in the excitement. "I believe I'm as much of a kid as Sonny," he mused quietly. "I have a sneaking love for floods, and circuses, and fires. Freedom! I'll tell Mr. Maxwell's it's not everything. I'd give it up this minute for a sight of Gay and the kids. I believe I'm homesick. I know I am. I don't feel a bit like conquering the universe!"

He laughed softly, visioning the Nick of five years before.

"What a kid I was—and what a dead game sport Gay was to start out with her stuff in a handkerchief like a regular tramp. And the years since —never a complaint when there was no wherewithal for new clothes — not a regret when little Nick followed so close on Sonny's heels. Oh, I know how some women would have cut up! Flora Symmes made Johnny feel like a criminal when that second kid of theirs was coming—and then loved it to pieces after it arrived! Well—I'm for home. I'll wind up this business and take the first boat back. I may be an idiot not to see more, but——"

Nick's reverie was interrupted by the arrival of an automobile, from which stepped a lady in a gown of familiar blueness. He arose dazedly, his thoughts jerked back to Jamaica and the present. When the lady turned he was at her side.

"Welcome to our city!" he said, smiling.

Angela stared.

"Am I a wizard? I was just wishing you'd appear. In fact, it was you I came to see. I hope you appreciate the honor."

His bow of exaggerated gallantry brought appreciative grins from the bell boys who were looking on.

"Going to stop long?"

"Not long." She threw him a sweet glance from her lovely eyes. "I've a scheme. I'll tell you at dinner. Just now I must have a bath. That awful railroad! Why didn't someone warn me what it was, so I could have come by auto?"

Nick laughed, went inside, registered for her, and demanded that she have a room facing the water. Angela was one of those people who always do get rooms on the ocean side. Later, when she came down to join him, she wore a simple white gown that made her look like a little girl. Watching her descend the staircase, Nick remembered that Gal had said she was "all of thirty," and inwardly scoffed at the idea.

"Is your work over?"

They were dining on the veranda, and a breeze from the water stirred a curl against Angela's soft cheek. Nick watched it a moment, fascinated, then answered: "Almost. Another week or ten days will see it through."

"And then?"

"Home," said Nick; yet as he spoke he glanced regretfully at a glimpse of water between palms.

Angela saw the glance.

"So soon? Isn't it foolish not to see more now that you're here?"

It was foolish. Nick told himself that he had known it was foolish even when he made his resolve an hour earlier.

"Perhaps," he answered. "But I ought to get back. This is a business trip on my part, you understand."

"But they'd let you stay, wouldn't they? In another month you could learn so much about the island. Or you could run down to Panama—through the canal to Ancon, or——"

"Don't!" begged Nick, as if thrusting aside temptation. Her words had brought up the old magic. It would be wonderful to see those things. Yet ——

"You could stay longer, couldn't you?"

He came back to earth at the question.

"Why, of course. It's merely a matter of conscience. I feel that I mustn't impose on Mr. Maxwell just because he's good enough to let me stay. And besides, I've a family to consider."

"But surely Mrs. Hastings wouldn't begrudge you this wonderful opportunity!"

"I should say not! Perhaps that's the very reason I feel that I should get back to her! That sounds enigmatic, but it's the truth. However, it would do no harm for me to take an extra week. What ought I to see most?"

Angela leaned forward. There was a gleam of victory in her eyes which Nick did not see because she had discreetly lowered them. When she looked up it was gone, and only their innocence remained.

"I've had you in mind a lot lately, Nick," she said. "I know you're not likely to take this trip again, and I want you to make the most of it. You remember my friends the Myers whom you met at Bakersville? They're about to start on a cruise in their gasoline yacht. They'll go into places the big liners don't touch, and see unusual things. They've asked me to join them, and—and bring a friend along. I wonder if you'd care to be that friend?"

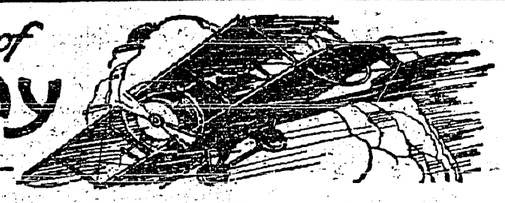
The ADVENTURES of CAPTAIN JIMMY and his Dog SCOTTIE



WHAT CAME BEFORE: Captain Jimmy and Scottie are flying over China. They are lost in the darkness between the lines of two fighting armies, with men from both sides in their 'plane. Suddenly one of the Chinese attacks Captain Jimmy.

For a moment I was paralyzed. My fierce attacker raised his weapon to strike. Then before I could move, a thin spare form hurled itself at my assailant, careless of the dangerous knife point. It was one of the three men we had rescued from the tree on the day before. I held my breath, amazed that the timid, shrinking Chinese should display such nerve. Springing to help him I hit the big fellow on the chin with all my strength.

By this time the 'plane was in a spin, and we were so near the ground that there was no way but to land. I had lost all sense of direction for the moment, and had no way of telling whether we were over enemy territory or not.

Scarcely had the wheels stopped rolling before an excited Chinese sentry showed up and challenged us.

"Ask him where we are?" I directed the interpreter.

"Him say much bad Chinese bloy—him belong enemy!"

"Tell him I belong to enemy, too." I said.

"He say, you clazy—you make muchee noise—wakee Colonel—getee velly mad—shootee bang—all done."

By which I gathered we were in the enemy camp, that the Colonel would hear the 'plane, get mad at being disturbed, and have us shot. Not a very encouraging prospect.

Then a Chinese sergeant and a squad of soldiers appeared out of the inky darkness. When he saw the three deserters from his camp he raised a terrible rumpus. First he accused us of stealing his men, then after a long pow-wow with the three, they evidently convinced him that they had been taken prisoners, and we had helped them to escape. Anyway he took them back—and probably they were far better off in their own army than among the enemy.

So much for the three captives, but our own position was extremely dangerous. Something had to be done quickly, or soon we would all be marched to headquarters.

"Tell the sergeant that I brought this 'plane to give General Ming," I said. "Tell him to march two soldiers ahead and keep the road clear."

Then I turned the searchlight on and taxied along the road behind the two soldiers. After a few minutes the road straightened out for a stretch of a quarter of a mile or so. Now was our chance!

In an instant I snapped off the searchlight and opened the throttle full. With a roar the 'plane fairly leaped forward and rushed down the road on the two soldiers who fled in panic.

Bang—Bang—went the rifles of the soldiers who followed us, and a few bullets ripped through the wings; but we were gathering speed rapidly. A moment more and we were in the air, free as a bird.

Gas was running low, however, so we headed back for our own lines, with the help of our searchlight we picked out a railway line. Spiralling down, we bumped to a stop on the rough ground and scrambled out. While the unknown Chinaman who had tried to knife me followed cautiously.

Guess who it was. The last person I ever expected to see—Colonel Tien of General Lu's Army. A fine chap—that Colonel Tien. Three times I had to knock him out to make him behave.

Then he explained that he thought I was trying to take him over to the enemy camp. In that case I could understand why he was so desperate for it would have gone hard with Colonel Tien to be caught by the enemy.

Far to the north of us a locomotive whistled. A little clump of bushes grew beside the railway track, and toward these we pushed and tugged our 'plane, to get it out of sight. Another few minutes more and a freight train rounded the curve stopping not over two hundred yards from our hiding place.

Little Helps For This Week

"And ye shall seek, Me, and find Me, when ye shall search for Me with all your heart."—Jeremiah xxix. 13.

We think what joy it would have been to share
In their high privilege, who came to bear
Sweet spice and costly gem
To Christ in Bethlehem.

And in that thought we half forget that He
Is wheresoe'er we seek Him earnestly;
Still filling every place
With sweet, abounding grace.
—Phoebe Cary.

Thank God, the Christianity of today is coming nearer to the world's need. Live to help that on. Thank God, men know better by a hair's-breadth what religion is, what God is, who Christ is, where Christ is. Who is Christ? He who fed the hungry, clothed the naked, visited the sick. And where is Christ? Where? "Whoso shall receive a little child in my name, receiveth me." And who are Christ's? Every one that loveth is born of God.—Henry Drummond.

Flexible Wood For Walls

Can Be Applied As Easily As Paper and Much Cheaper

Planning to redecorate a room? How would you like wood panelling as a change from wallpaper or painted walls? If you would, don't forsake your trusty paper hanger. He can hang the wood.

A new type of wood has been introduced on the market. It is a thin sheet of choice and genuine cabinet wood mounted on fabric, which is as flexible and practical as canvas. In pine, mahogany or walnut, or in special grained grades, the new wood product can be installed over any surface, metal, plaster or tile. Its possibilities plainly are multifold. The producers assure us that two coats of shellac and wax will give it a finish to rival the finest of cabinet woods and add the interesting note that the whole job can be accomplished at one-tenth the cost of the old-fashioned wood work.

And the paper hanger can go hang—the wood.

Not Quite Sure

During one of the many controversies between President Lincoln and General McClellan, the general arose in anger and asked: "Sir, do you think me a fool?"

Lincoln calmly replied: "No, but then I might be mistaken."

An Unknown Quantity

Greatness Of Canada Is Hardly Grasped By Most Canadians

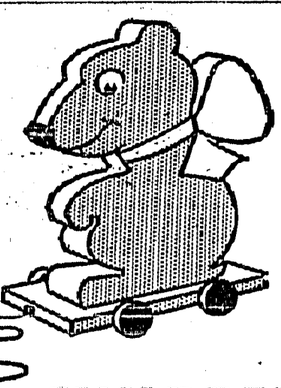
It took 5,000 men under General Wolfe to capture what was then Canada in 1759.

It will take 15,000 men and women in 1931 to take the census of what is now the Dominion of Canada.

In 1759 Canada's greatness was an unknown quantity to Canadians.

In 1931, Canada's greatness is still an unknown quantity to most Canadians. They do not grasp the enormous wealth they have. They do not know how to get the best markets for the tremendous produce of Canada. They do not even know how many people Canada has.

The Dominion census this year will correct that. It will find how many people there are, what they do, what they own, and it will be the basis for a regular encyclopedia of Canadian affairs.



CHILDREN CRY FOR IT—

CHILDREN hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. And this pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes; just as bland and just as harmless as the recipe reads.

When Baby's cry warns of colic, a few drops of Castoria has him soothed, asleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more valuable in diarrhea. When coated tongue or bad breath tell of constipation, invoke its gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels. In colds or children's diseases, you should use it to keep the system from clogging.

Castoria is sold in every drugstore; the genuine always bears Chas. H. Fletcher's signature.
