October Popular Wedding Month

Defoe-Ferguson and Colombo-Parento Nuptials Outstanding Saturday Social Life Features at Creston and Sirdar.

An October wedding of great interest here was that of high noon, Saturday, at Christ Church when the rector, Rev. M. C. Percival, officiated at the marriage of Miss Marguerite, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ferguson to William DeFoe, second son of Mrs. Anthony DeFoe of Castlegar, the happy event being witnessed by a company of invited guests and friends, who filled the church.

To the strains of Mendellshon's wedding march, played by Mrs. J. F. Rose, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, charmingly gowned in a princess model costume of white satin with smart white felt hat, white shoes and white silk elbow length gloves, and carried a bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums and ferns. Her only ornament, a double stream of pearls Miss Pearl Spencer was bridesmaid, wearing delicate green chiffon with flared sleeves of matching tulle, and smart felt hat of black. Her bouquet was of mauve and white asters with fern. The groom was supported by Harry Cornwall.

The groom's gift to the bride was a dressing set of rose on amber, and to the bridesmaid he gave a white gold bracelet set with rhinestones.

After the ceremony a reception for immediate relatives of the contracting parties was held at the home of the bride, and later in the afternoon the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Spokane and other Washington points, and on their return will make their home in Nelson where the groom is assistant manager for the Shell Oil Company. The bride is a very popular member of Creston's younger set and best wishes of many friends are extended Mr. and Mrs. DeFoe for future success and happiness.

Father L. Choinel officiated at a very happy event at the Community Hall, Sirdar, Saturday morning, when he united in holy wedlock; Miss Mary, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parento, with Mr. Maurilio Colombo, all of Sirdar, many friends of the contracting parties assembling to witness the ceremony.

The bride was stylishly gowned in georgette with lace trimmings, with veil and orange wreath, and carrying a bouquet of pale pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid was Miss Rose Pascuzzo, whose frock was of pale yellow georgette, with bouquet of mauve chrysanthemums. Attending the couple were two flower girls, Irene and Nora Pascuzzo, whose dresses were of pale blue organdie. The groom was supported by his friend, Joe Fiero of Nelson.

After the ceremony the immediate relatives were guests of the newlyweds at their new home at a buffet luncheon, and in the evening there was a largely attended reception at the community hall where the bride and groom received the heartiest congratulations of their friends, and a most enjoyable evening was spent with music and dancing, quite a number of those present being from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Colombo are to reside at Sirdar in the former Sid McCabe residence, which the groom has purchased. Both of the contracting parties are well known residents of Sirdar and their host of friends extend best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous future.

Secretary, Creston Board of Trade, Creston, B. C.

Dear Sir:

Kindly advise the members of your Board that we have decided to proceed with the Goat River Development under decreased head.

The date of starting work on this development will be decided on just as soon as we receive quotations on water wheel and electrical apparatus which we are now requesting the different companies to quote on. On receipt of these quotations, and the awarding of the contracts, we will then figure out our construction programme and endeavor to have the work completed at as early a date as possible.

I might state for your information that I am of the opinion we will have an open winter, and if such should be the case, and weather permitting, it is our intention to proceed with this development during the coming winter. We realize the seriousness of the unemployment situation, and, if we can carry on this development to advantage during the winter, it is our intention so to do. Further, we will give preference to employment to local help wherever possible for the carrying to completion of this work.

Yours truly,

Legs Broken; Motor Mishap

Cecil Moore and "Red" Cranna Suffer Serious Injuries When Auto Steering Gear Locks—Accident Occurs Near Moyie

The most serious motor mishap to befall Creston residents this season was that of late Monday night, at a point about three miles west of Moyie, in which Cecil Moore suffered two breaks in his right leg—one below and one above the knee—as well as a break above the knee in his left leg, and "Red" Cranna had his leg broken at the thigh. G. Cady, of Nelson, in whose car they were travelling, and who was doing the driving, suffered some badly cracked ribs. All the victims are in St. Eugene hospital, Cranbrook.

The two Creston men were accompanying Mr. Cady to Cranbrook, in which town they planned to take delivery of a Plymouth car with which to make the return trip next day. Approaching a curve in the highway west of Moyie the steering gear locked and the car went over the bank. It would appear that Cady was thrown out of the car, and that Cranna was able to extract himself, but that Moore was pinned under the auto.

Cady's injuries, while painful, were not sufficiently serious to prevent him walking to Moyie where help was summoned and the hospital and doctors at Cranbrook telephoned for. However, the getting of Moore out from under the auto was quite a long drawn out undertaking, and according to some reports it was at least four hours from the time the car went over the bank until Moore was gotten clear of the wreck and into the ambulance ready to be taken to the hospital. Reports to hand Thursday morning from Cranbrook are to the effect that both patients are doing as well as can be expected.

Cranna has only been a resident of Creston since spring, when he opened out a jewelry store at Creston, coming here from Penticton. Cecil Moore is well known locally. He was a student at Alice Sliding school as a boy. Later he operated in the neighborhood as a lumberman, and about eight years ago had his right foot cut off just above the ankle in a mishap at the Winlaw sawmill at Wynndel. Since then he has resided at Nelson, returning to Creston at mid-summer and in partnership with Chas. Cotterill opened out Central Motors in the former Bevan garage building. The sympathy of all is extended both young men in their serious misfortune coupled with the earnest hope that their recovery may be speedy and permanent.

The inspector took charge of the school for a couple of hours and then dismissed the pupils for the day. From Huseroft he went to Arrow Creek.

The Community Society held its annual meeting on Wednesday night last with retiring president, A. W. Snelair, in the chair. Both he and the retiring secretary, Mrs. H. Langston, presented pleasing reports on the past season's activities, and were accorded votes of thanks for their good work. D. J. McKee was chosen president, and Miss Curtis is the new secretary and treasurer. The season is to open with a dance at the schoolhouse on Saturday night, with Canyon orchestra music and admission of 35 and 25 cents. Greater variety will

Wynndel Fall Fair Shows Surplus

Report Submitted Indicates Fine Balance—$50 Set Aside for 1923 Exhibition—Needlework Awares 1933 Issued Early.

The October meeting of Wynndel Women's Institute was held at the hall on Thursday afternoon last, with the president, Mrs. F. C. Robinson in the chair.

A financial report on the 1932 fall fair was read, which showed a favorable surplus, $50 of which is reserved for a larger and better fair next year.

It was decided to donate $10 to Creston Valley public hospital. Further donations were discussed but these were allowed to stand over till next meeting.

A vote of thanks was given the president, secretary and directors for their untiring efforts in making the 1932 fall fair the success it was. It was decided to make out the needlework prize list for next year at the Nove ber meeting so that the work can be done this winter.

A few meetings ago Mrs. J. G. Abbott proposed that members buy their wool, get it read, then have carding and quilting bees towards making wool quilts for their homes. At this meeting it was reported that quilt making is in full swing at the homes and that all were enjoying these affairs as well as getting some warm quilts.

After adjournment a paper was read by Mrs. F. C. Robinson, which had been written by W. J. Cooper, entitled "Helps and Hints for a Better Fair." It was carefully prepared and much enjoyed by all. The Institute is much indebted to Mr. Cooper for the practical interest he has taken in all efforts to make the fall fair a success.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. E. A. Hackett, Mrs. M. Hagen and Miss O. Hagen.

What The Census Tells.

Statistics are generally regarded as dry and uninteresting, but to those who make a study of them as they relate to matters of vital importance to the welfare of the human family they become of absorbing interest. In fact, a knowledge and understanding of the statistical position of many matters are essential to a true grasp of such matters, and where it is possible to present such information to people in the form of charts and graphs they tell a story which mere words could never convey.

Within recent months the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, which, by the way, is one of the best organized and most efficient departments of the Ottawa public service, has issued a large number of bulletins presenting the facts ascertained in the decennial census-taking last year, and which are worthy of study and consideration by the Canadian people. They indicate what progress has been made, where it has been made, and wherein as a people we have slipped a bit backward, or remained stationary.

Some things stand out as worthy of note. We learn, for example, that Canada's population increased by 1,588,837 in the ten year period, 1921-31, or slightly over 18 per cent., which is 2 per cent. higher than the United States, a very healthy and substantial growth, and that the four Western provinces continued proportionately to increase in numbers more rapidly than the five Eastern provinces. Not so satisfactory from the standpoint of the nation as a whole is the disclosure that whereas the population of our cities, towns and villages increased by 1,219,936, or 28 per cent., our rural population only increased by 368,901, or slightly over 8 per cent., with the result that whereas our rural population in 1921 exceeded the urban by 83,000, the urban now exceeds the rural by over 767,000.

It is interesting, too, to learn that of Canada's total population of 10,376,786, no less than 8,069,258, or 77 1/2 per cent., are native born Canadians, while a further 1,184,830, or 11 1/2 per cent., were born elsewhere under the British flag, leaving less than 11 per cent. of other than British birth.

Classified by religious denominations, the fact emerges that Roman Catholics constitute the largest single denomination with 4,098,546 adherents, the United Church coming second with 2,016,897, Anglicans third with 1,635,321, and Presbyterians fourth with 870,482. Not one of the remaining 27 denominations listed reach 500,000.

Canada's population consists of 5,374,541 males and 5,002,245 females, and the number of males predominate in every one of the nine provinces. There are, of course, more single than married persons, because of the large number of children, but the percentage of single to married is steadily decreasing, single persons constituting only 57.35 per cent. of the population in 1931, as compared with 61.67 per cent. in 1901, while married persons increased from 34.13 per cent. in 1901, to 38.27 per cent. in 1931. The number of widowed remained about the same, but the number of divorced rose from 661, or .01 per cent. in 1901, to 7,441 or .07 per cent. in 1931.

When we turn to the bulletin on the literacy of the people, a most encouraging picture is presented. It shows that a steadily increasing percentage of our people five years of age and over can both read and write, and taking Canada as a whole no less than 92.34 per cent. can do so compared with 90.00 per cent. only ten years ago. That this progress will be continued is made evident by the statistics of school attendance which reveals the encouraging fact that, whereas the increase in population between the ages of 5 and 24 years in the ten year period, 1921-1931, was 19.60 per cent., the percentage increase at school was 25.82 per cent. Better than one out of every five persons living in Canada is attending school.

Analysing the economic position so far as agriculture is concerned, it is revealed that, were it not for substantial increases in many departments in the three prairie provinces, Canada would have had to report a decided slipping back during the past ten years. There are, for example, 336,000 fewer horses on Canadian farms than in 1921, but this is accounted for by the introduction of automobiles and tractors. The number of cows in calf or in milk only increased by 281,000, and actually decreased in the Maritime provinces; other cattle were fewer in number by 642,000, every province except Quebec and British Columbia reporting decreases; sheep increased by 422,000, but again decreases took place in all provinces east of the Ottawa River; swine, on the other hand, showed the substantial increase of 1,343,000, only Nova Scotia and Ontario reporting small decreases; poultry jumped over 288,375,000 with all provinces sharing in the gain.

The number of farms in Canada is greater by 17,574 than ten years ago, there being fewer in the east and more in the west. Farms are also becoming larger, the average size in 1931 being 224 acres as compared with 198 acres in 1921. The acreage in occupied farms increased by 22,680,000 acres, while improved land in these occupied farms rose by over 15,000,000 acres.

On the other hand, the value of farm lands decreased by $984,409,709 and farm buildings by $41,171,300, all provinces reporting drops in land values, and the eastern provinces, except Prince Edward Island, decreases in value of buildings, while Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia reported increases.

There was, however, a marked improvement in farm comforts, conveniences and equipment, including automobiles, machinery of various kinds, gas and electric light, radios, telephones, water piped into farm homes, improvement in roads, and shortening of distances to market and railway towns.

Troubled With Her Children Having Summer Complaint

Mrs. L. E. Montgomery, Ave. K. South, Saskatoon, Sask., writes:—"I am the mother of two children and have a great deal of trouble with them having summer complaint, in fact, several times every summer they were subject to attacks.

"I have found Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry to be the most effective remedy and keep it always handy and give it immediately on the first sign of any bowel complaint.

"Thanks to 'Dr. Fowler's' I no longer dread the Summer months."

Graf Zeppelin Makes Record

Cost Of Ten Trips Reduced To Approximately $3.00 Per Mile
In completing ten trips across the Atlantic from Germany to Brazil this season, the Graf Zeppelin has made a record that astonishes even her backers. Instead of costing almost $50,000 a crossing, as had been expected, the expenses of the journey have been reduced to $16,100, it is said, or approximately $3 a mile. The present charge for passage is $476, only a third more than steamer fare, while the time of transit is reduced from 12 days to three.

Hint For the Housewife

Easy Way To Liquify Jam That Has Hardened

If jam left from a previous season has become hard and sugary it need not be thrown away or reserved exclusively for cooking purposes. Fill a large earthenware bowl with cold water, and, after removing the jam-pot covers, stand the pots in the cold water, placing the bowl in a fairly hot oven. After a time the jam will become liquid, and when it has cooled down it will be found that no hard lumps of sugar remain and the jam is as delicious as ever.

Skeleton Of Soldier

Found In Quebec

Believed To Have Been In Ground Since 1653

A skeleton believed to be that of a young French soldier killed while defending the city against an Iroquois attack on August 23, 1653, has been unearthed by workmen excavating in the heart of Old Three Rivers.

A brass platter, a leather-covered sabre sheath bearing the soldier's regiment number, a container made of bark and some small pieces of cloth were found near the bones.

HER HAND FELT DEAD

Helpless With Rheumatism

At one time she thought she would lose the use of her right hand. But "a blessing"—in the form of Kruschen Salts—put her right again. "I was sure in a bad state," she writes, "in fact, I could not do my housework, I was so bad with rheumatism in my arms and hands. I could not sleep at nights, and had to get up and heat water to ease my pain and numbness. I took all kinds of medicines. I rubbed it and plastered it—but it was still there. I thought I would lose the use of my right hand. I could not hold anything, nor could I sew a button on. My arm would go dead. I was advised to try Kruschen, and inside of three weeks I found such a change. I have kept on taking it, and am so thankful for the blessings I have received in Kruschen. Now I sleep all night—thanks to Kruschen's help and relief." —(Mrs.) J. H.

The six salts in Kruschen stimulate the liver and kidneys to healthy, regular action; assist them to get rid of the excess uric acid which is the cause of all rheumatic suffering. When poisonous uric acid goes—with its deposits of needle-pointed crystals—there's no doubt about those aches and pains going too!

IT'S LIVER THAT MAKES YOU FEEL SO WRETCHED

Wake up your Liver Bile —No Calomel necessary

For you to feel healthy and happy, your liver must pour two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels, every day. Without that bile, trouble starts. Poor digestion. Slow elimination. Poisons in the body. General wretchedness. How can you expect to clear up a situation like this completely with mere bowel-moving salts, oil, mineral water, laxative candy or chewing gum, or roughage? They don't wake up your liver. You need Carter's Little Liver Pills. Purely vegetable. Safe. Quick and sure results. Ask for them by name. Refuse substitutes. 25c. at all druggists. 64

Strange Survival Of Seeds

Flowers Grow First Year After Woodlands Are Cut

In this country and doubtless in others as well, whenever a wood on a hillside is cut down the following year that hillside is one blaze of foxgloves, though none was visible or existing when the wood was standing. When, as during the war, large woodlands were cut down the blaze of color, extending sometimes for miles, was a fine sight. Now comes the strange part. After so fine a crop of foxgloves one would expect a still finer crop the following year, but no, the succeeding year the crop is not more than half and in about half a dozen years they disappear altogether. Where do the original seeds come from? Have they lain dormant for a few centuries?—J. H. Howell in the London Times.

One Little Incident

Easy To Understand Why Prince Of Wales Is Popular

An article in the Christian Science Monitor says the Prince of Wales has replaced one retiring Selly Island farmer with two unemployed Welsh miners and has sent an expert from his Duchy of Cornwall to teach them the intricacies of agriculture. Meanwhile, since they have been taken off the dole, he is paying them from his own pocket until their first crops are harvested. It is little incidents like this one that continue to send our estimate of His Royal Highness still higher.

Employer: "I'll give you a position as clerk to start with, and pay you what you are worth. Is that satisfactory?"

Recent College Graduate: "Oh, certainly, but—do you think you could afford it?"

Dread Of Asthma makes countless thousands miserable. Night after night the attacks return and even when brief respite is given the mind is still in torment from continual anticipation. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy changes all this. Relief comes, and at once, while future attacks are warded off, leaving the afflicted one in a state of peace and happiness he once believed he could never enjoy. Inexpensive and sold almost everywhere.

A Retarding Influence

Rigid Economy When Not Necessary Does Much Harm

All over the province the high schools and collegiate institutes are trying to cut down expenses. In fact all over the province everybody is trying to cut down expenses, even those who have no reason at all for doing so. People who have their 1928 income are pinching like the rest. This reducing of expenses, this refraining from buying anything that can be done without retards the return of business activity. And yet a force like this operates inevitably and no argument can prevail against it.—Toronto Star.

MAY CONSIDER FIVE CENT BONUS FOR 1932 CROP

Ottawa, Ont.—The Federal Government is considering paying a bonus of five cents a bushel to western Canada's farmers of the 1932 wheat crop. This was definitely stated in the House of Commons by Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, when questioned on the subject by John Vallance, Liberal, (South Battleford). No indication was given when a decision could be expected.

A bonus of five cents a bushel was paid to western wheat growers last year by the government, and was paid through the board of grain commissioners.

The question and answer between Prime Minister Bennett and Mr. Vallance were short.

Mr. Vallance said he had received three telegrams from points in the west, each urging him to press for the bonus of five cents a bushel on wheat. One telegram, he said, stated if the bonus were not granted, "revolution was inevitable."

"The government has the matter under consideration," the Prime Minister replied.

Voyage Was Uneventful

Miss Cora Hind Arrives in England From Churchill

Avonmouth, England.—Miss Cora Hind, Winnipeg newspaperwoman, arrived at this Gloucestershire port aboard the Italian motorship "Juventus," 13 days and 21 hours after leaving Churchill, Man. She was the first woman to sail from Canada's northernmost seaport.

What impressed her most was the fact the pilot was dropped only two miles out of Churchill after which the ship steamed steadily between nine and 10 knots, meeting fog only on one day.

During the entire 3,078 miles, she said, the ship had sighted only four icebergs, all early in the trip and all at a considerable distance.

Age of the Earth

Toronto Scientists Place Age At Three Thousand Million Years

Toronto, Ont.—Two Toronto scientists, by means of their experiments, claim to have confirmed the age of the earth at three thousand million years.

Professor E. F. Burton, chairman of the Physics department at the University of Toronto, and Professor J. C. McLennan claim that experiments with liquefied helium in glass vacuum bottles confirm deductions from analyses of radio-active rocks.

By-Election Is Closed

Liberal Candidate Noses Out By Majority Of One Vote

Summerside, P.E.I.—Given a majority of one vote in the by-election, Dr. J. F. MacNeill, Liberal, was declared elected to represent the fifth district of Prince in the Prince Edward Island legislative assembly.

His total vote, officially announced by the returning officer, was 1,387. E. M. Downing, his Conservative opponent, received 1,386. It is understood that Mr. Downing will file application for a recount.

Labor Battalion Formed

B.C. Plans To Carry Out Road Work During Winter

Victoria, B.C.—British Columbia's first labor battalion sprang into being when provision for the segregation of young men in camps, members of non-permanent active militia, was made so that these men may be placed in a single camp in the university endowment lands area, Point Grey, Vancouver, under military discipline, with the object of carrying out road work in that area during winter months.

Request Passes For Workless

Alberta Asks Help From Ottawa For Stranded Men

Edmonton, Alberta.—Efforts to move single unemployed men, residents of Vancouver and other British Columbia cities, who have been stranded in Edmonton and Calgary and other prairie points as a result of the ban on freight train riding, are now under way.

Premier J. E. Brownlee stated no intimation had been received as to what Ottawa was prepared to do.

It is understood R.C.M.P. officials have suggested each man be required to make an affidavit as to his proper place of residence and then the required number of railway passenger cars, of the colonist type, be requisitioned by the federal government to take the men to their homes. Under this plan each man would receive a pass to travel on these cars.

Vancouver, B.C.—Mayor L. D. Taylor has moved swiftly in an effort to block Edmonton's agitation at Ottawa for the removal of the "rod-riding" ban. Fearing a flood of unemployed from the prairies on Vancouver and other coast cities, his worship wired Prime Minister Bennett, urging the ban remain.

Criticizes British Attitude

De Valera Says Britain Playing Part Of Shylock

Dublin, Irish Free State.—Great Britain is "playing the part of Shylock" toward the Free State and at the same time petitioning the United States for relief from war debts "which no ones denies are morally and legally due," President Eamon de Valera declared before the daily eireann today.

The president was making his report to the legislature on the failure of the negotiations in London which had been aimed at terminating the Anglo-Irish tariff war. He said those negotiations had failed because Britain insisted members of a suggested arbitration committee should be limited to representatives of empire nations. This insistence, he added, ruled out any possibility of arbitration.

Mr. De Valera declared the Free State was neither legally nor morally obligated to pay land annuities to Britain.

For Disarmament

Memorial To Premier MacDonald Urging Acceptance Of U.S. Proposals

London, England.—Three hundred well-known Britons signed a national memorial to Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald urging acceptance of the principle of the United States proposal to cut armaments by nearly one-third.

The memorial said the government should "as a practical step towards establishment of a status of equality in armaments declare forthwith acceptance of the principle of the proposals of President Herbert Hoover."

Among the signers were Lord Cecil, the Archbishop of York, Dean Inge, Sir Oliver Lodge, Sir Norman Angell, Maud Rayden, John Drinkwater, John Galsworthy, and H. G. Wells.

Lumbermen Pleased

Abrogation Of Anglo-Soviet Commercial Treaty Good News To B.C. Lumber Interests

Victoria, B.C.—Abrogation of the Anglo-Soviet commercial treaty announced in London, England, is good news to the British Columbia lumber industry, which has been forced to compete with Russian dumped lumber in Great Britain.

"This is the most encouraging news that has been received for some time," said Hon. N. S. Loughheed, Minister of Lands, in commenting on the statement of Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas that the Soviet trade agreement with Great Britain would be terminated.

Japanese Bandits May Release Captives

Have Come To Agreement About British Subjects Is Report

Shanghai, China.—Japanese intermediaries at Mukden were reported to have reached an agreement to effect the release of Mrs. Kenneth Pawley and Charles Corkran, British subjects, who were captured several weeks ago by bandits.

The agreement provides for payment of 130,000 yen (about $32,500), 250 pounds of opium and a supply of winter clothing for the bandits.

World Economic Conference

Date For Meeting in London To Be Decided Soon

Ottawa, Ont.—The date for the convening of the World Economic Conference in London, England, will be decided upon some time in November, it was stated on highest authority. Fixing of the date, which may be in December or January, will be a matter of agreement between the government of the United Kingdom, which extended the invitations, and foreign and other powers who will be represented at the parley.

1,200 Men Given Work

Detroit.—David Widman, secretary and treasurer of the Murray Corporation of America, manufacturers of automobile bodies, announced that the company this week is rehiring 1,200 employees, mostly tool makers, and increasing its payroll about $50,000 a week in preparation for the production of 1933 models by automobile factories.

Jobless Create Problem

Providing Government Officials With Plenty Of Worry

Calgary, Alberta.—Single jobless in western Canada are in a quandary and providing government officials with a knotty problem.

Efforts to have the Dominion government provide them with transportation back to their homes brought statements from Mayor Louis D. Taylor, of Vancouver, that he feared they would all say Vancouver was their home and seek transportation for the coast city if such transportation were granted.

With 1,000 men in Edmonton without work and another 1,200 here, efforts were being made to find some means of aiding them during the winter months or paving the way for their return to their homes, checked when the ban on rod-riding went into effect at the end of September.

Civic officials here said no relief was being granted able-bodied single men. Whether any would be granted later was not ventured, pending announcement of federal relief plans for the coming winter.

No Comment From Soviets

Press Silent So Far On Annulment Of Trade Agreement

Moscow, Russia.—A despatch from London, England, reporting the annulment of the British trade agreement with Russia was published in Moscow newspaper without comment, apparently having been received too late for editorial expression.

During the Ottawa conference Soviet newspapers threatened reprisals if Great Britain sought to place restrictions on its purchases from Russia in accord with reported Canadian demands.

London, England.—There was a general recognition in the London press that the denouncement of the Anglo-Russian trade treaty was the logical sequence of the Imperial Conference at Ottawa.

Chicago.—Like Washington Irving's Rip Van Winkle, Miss Patricia McGuire, 27, who has been ill with sleeping sickness since last February 24, is going to have a lot of news to catch up on when she awakens from her long slumber.

Physicians who have attended her in her suburban home in Oak Park say there are unmistakable signs that she is awakening and her friends are wondering what her reactions will be to the many things that have happened since she fell asleep.

OTTAWA PACT IS APPROVED BY BRITISH HOUSE

London, England.—A majority of 222 was secured by the government in the House of Commons on the first vote relative to the Ottawa agreements. The vote was not on the agreements themselves but on a resolution of procedure in connection with legislation implementing the agreements.

It was taken, nevertheless, as a good indication of how the House is divided on the trade agreement and the tariffs necessary to carry them out.

To implement the agreements it will be necessary to impose 22 new United Kingdom duties on foreign goods. The normal procedure would be to pass a separate resolution for each duty. The government motion before the House was to authorize the incorporation of the whole 22 duties into one resolution.

The government motion was carried 291 to 69, and the House resumed general debate on the main resolutions.

Major C. R. Atlee, former Labor Minister, announced the Labor party did not intend to be bound by the Ottawa agreement. He added that he understood his party's views were shared by Sir Herbert Samuel, Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader of the Canadian House of Commons, and H. Scullin, leader of the opposition in the Australian government.

The Thames Riot

Matter To Come Up For Debate In House Of Commons

London, England.—Twelve hours after 10,000 jobless men and women had rioted across the Thames from Parliament Square, Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald promised to permit debate soon in the House of Commons on unemployment.

A questioning member of parliament previously had brought up the riot as a subject of discussion, and Sir John Gilmour, the Home Secretary, reported the demonstration was organized by a Communist organization.

Fifty men and four women who were rounded up during the rioting and looting that followed, were taken into ancient Lambeth police court recently under heavy guard. Outside crowds of unemployed began to assemble but police lines held them in lower Kennington Lane.

The prisoners were sentenced to pay fines of 40 shillings each (about seven dollars) or serve jail terms of 14 days to one month.

Kingston Prison Riot

Claimed Convict Helped To Quell Disturbance

Ottawa, Ont.—The Ottawa Citizen carried the following despatch from Kingston following the penitentiary riot:

It is stated a threat was made to set a fire before "Red" Ryan, at one time a dangerous bandit, took action, and then he addressed an angry mob of convicts and appealed to them not to start the blaze or do any damage. "For God's sake, men, do not do this—it will not get you anywhere. I tried it one time and it didn't get me any place," he is reported as saying.

It is stated that "Red" Ryan's appeal helped to quiet down the convicts.

"Gee, it feels good to be back at work again," said Tom, "and I must admit I've got the telephone to thank for it. I was going to have mine taken out, then I realized that if I didn't have a telephone they wouldn't be able to reach me if a job developed.

"Well, sure enough, the boss called me the other day and told me there was work for me. If I had been without a telephone the job would have been given to someone else."

PRIZE-WINNING ESSAYS

A feature to the children's section of the Wynndel fall fair was the essay competition open to Grades 7 and 8 on the subject, "Strawberry Time." Below will be found the first and third prize compositions, the former by Clara Wittman and the latter by Leah Abbott.

STRAWBERRY TIME

Strawberry season is the big time of the year in Wynndel. The season begins the second or third week in June and ends about the last of July, with an awful lot of sore knees and stiff backs, although the farmers are very thoughtful and put hay between the rows of berries for the pickers to crawl on. The hay, or mulch also helps to keep the moisture in the ground, and keeps the berries from getting dirty. The picking is mostly done by Doukhobors from the different settlements of British Columbia and Alberta. They come to Wynndel in truckloads; also by train. There are also a number of people, of all classes, who come from different parts of the country to Wynndel to help harvest the strawberry crop.

The berries are taken from the field in the carriers which the pickers use for picking. The carriers are taken to the shed and the berries are packed there in the cups, and the cups are put in the crate. There are 24 cups in a crate. The packing is done mostly by women and girls. The crates are taken by truck from the farmers' shed to the pre cooler, which is controlled by the Fruit Growers Union of Wynndel. At the pre cooler the berries are stored in compartments for some hours, and go through a cooling process. They are taken from the pre cooler and loaded in iced cars for distant shipping, as far east as Winnipeg! Also, the berries are shipped by express to points far closer.

Strawberry season, as a rule, is a very busy season for all in Wynndel, and usually ends with a long and grateful sigh from one and all. CLARA WITTMAN.

Strawberry season comes in June, one of the most beautiful months of the year, with the lovely green, and the roses in bloom. The strawberries come on very gradually, and we just get a few each day for about a week, and it is hard to express how much we appreciate mother's first shortcake, with the lovely, juicy strawberries piled high.

Most of the picking is done by the Doukhobors. They come in by truck, and it is an exciting time for us when they come all decked out in their gay costumes. As a rule they are very good pickers. The Doukhobors pick in carriers that hold six cups, or one-fourth of a crate. Every time they pick a carrier they get punched six cups on a ticket. When this ticket is full they have it ok'd by the owner of the strawberries; that is, he puts on his name, ok, and amount of ticket, which is $1.25. They can get them cashed anywhere.

The packing is done by local women. The same cup that the pickers pick in is used. The packing consists of looking through and picking out anything that is not fit for market, such as bird pecks, soft berries, and one's without stems. The crate contains 24 cups and should weigh, when packed, 20 pounds. The packers get 12½ cents a crate, and $2.35 per ticket. Plenty of help is required, especially after a rain. The man who carries the berries in punches the tickets. Usually a small boy helps in the shed, emptying and refilling carriers, to be taken to the field again. He also provides empty crates for the packers, and takes the full ones away, nails them up and they are taken down to the station or pre cooler by a truck driver, who comes up three times a day in the busy season. Too much rain spoils the crop, but an occasional shower is the rancher's delight.

On the whole strawberry season is a wonderful time, and its a great part of the farmer's living, and we young ladies make a little money for ourselves which is very useful. I like to see the strawberries come, but I like just as much to see them go. LEAH ABBOTT.

Senior Basketball 5-Team League

All are Girls' Aggregations—Two from High School, Three from Town—Also a Junior Group Composed of School Teams.

1932-33 Creston basketball executive held its first meeting on Wednesday last. The executive consists of two members from each of the teams in the senior league. At present there are five teams in the league, two from the high school and three from the town, as well as four boys' teams, one from the high school and three from town. Besides these there is a junior league composed only of school teams.

Each team is made up of not more than eight players. The reason for this is that the executive wishes as many teams as possible to enter the league, and when a team is limited to eight it gives each player a large percentage of the play.

At the meeting Miss Nancy Downes was chosen president, and Mrs. Levira, secretary-treasurer. The league has a surplus of about $30 from last year and with this money it is buying a new ball for games, and is providing new baskets. The fees for this year are $1 per member and all fees are to be paid to the team representatives by November 4th.

This year there is to be a set charge of 10 cents to all league games, and 25 to outside games. Passes will be issued to all players. The practice schedule is as follows: Tuesday, 7 to 8—Ex-High School Girls; 8 to 9—Dominoes; 9 to 10 Meds, Thursday 8.30 to 9.30, Centipedes; 9.30 to 10.30 MacDonald.

In event of the hall being in use on nights when league games are scheduled, teams interested are advised to get in touch with the schedule committee, Mr. Marriott and Mr. Levira.

A Well Kept Dairy

Along with its abundant supply of pure water Creston is equally fortunate in having a milk supply of quality from Creston Dairy which on the occasion of the inspection by provincial dairy farm inspector, D. H. McKay, earlier in the month, scored a standing of 223 points out of a possible 250.

A look over Dr. McKay's official report shows that Creston Dairy got top marks on the health of cows, their food, housing, cleanliness of milking, milk room, handling of milk, and on construction, location, ventilation and lighting of stables. About the only feature that is lacking is steam heat for the milk room.

Creston Dairy was acquired about ten years ago by R. A. Comfort who at the inception, got along with a herd of eight cows. Today he is handling about 20 animals, seven of which are purebred Jersey, and the balance are Jersey-Ayrshire. The new barn and stables erected in 1927 are much superior to those usually found in a place this size. They are 32 x 70 feet, with steel stalls, running water, sanitary floors and every other convenience to assure the absolute purity and cleanliness of the milk and cream product. In addition to over 100 tons of hay, the dairy herd annually consumes 20 tons of silage, 25 tons of mangolds and a considerable quantity of millfeeds.

In the handling of the dairy Mr. Comfort has been fortunate in securing competent help in Carl Christensen, who handles the milk and cream delivery, and whose affability and courtesy has done much to popularize Creston Dairy with its many customers, along with Hans Jensen, who is responsible for the care of the herd. Both are Danes, and come naturally by their liking for dairy work.

Steam Engine For Aeroplane

New Type Of Flying Machine To Be Tested

Harold C. Johnston, proprietor of an Akron, Ohio, welding shop, opened the doors of his small plant and disclosed a steam aeroplane engine which he tuned up to 1,500 revolutions per minute.

Johnston a builder of his own aeroplane designs, said he had spent nine months in developing the engine after a "plane accident more than a year ago had caused him to seek a way of eliminating the fire hazard in aviation.

Weighing only 168 pounds, exclusive of the propeller, the engine will develop 62 horse-power.

The engine is to be installed within a few weeks in a small plane and flown to the Pacific Coast.

"My husband says it's my prettiest dress"

"I want to tell you how I got acquainted with Diamond Tints," says a cordial letter from a Windsor woman. "I was in the drug store and saw some attractive Diamond Tint packages. The druggist told me they were for tinting light shades without boiling. He said they were made by the Diamond Dyes people. I have always used Diamond Dyes for dyeing dark colours and know they are the best dyes made. When I saw Diamond Tints I thought of a 2-year old dress which I had to quit wearing because it was so faded. I got a package and gave my dress the simple rinsing called for. It came out the loveliest shade—a lustrous, shimmering yellow. I have laundered it several times but have never had to retint. It certainly holds the colour. I'm perfectly delighted with my new dress, as I call it, and my husband says it's the prettiest one I have."

Economic Conference Agreements Will Affect American Exports

Export of food products from the United States to the United Kingdom will probably be affected to the tune of $130,786,065 annually by the agreements reached at the Imperial Economic Conference between the United Kingdom and the Dominions, says the Journal of Commerce, New York.

Pointing out the effect of the agreements on United States products is problematical and probably impossible to forecast with any degree of certainty. The paper states a compilation of export values of the foodstuffs affected for the past five years led to the above valuation.

Human Skeleton Discovered In Gravel Pit In Ohio

An old legend that two men lost their lives in 1840 while walking through an unexplored forest to New Knoxville, Ohio, has been revived with the finding of a human skeleton in a gravel pit near that town.

According to the story, the men starved to death and their bodies, found months afterward, were buried near the spot where the bones were found.

A Lost Island

Scientists Searching For Tiny Dot Of Land In the Pacific

Sarah Ann, much to the consternation of the astronomical world, has disappeared and, it is feared, drowned. Just a pin-point freckle on the broad face of the Pacific, Sarah Ann was—and maybe is—the tiniest sort of an uninhabited island.

This Cinderella of the sea was last reported alive, some 15 years ago. Then of no value to anyone and avoided by ship captains, she has become today a spot of great importance. If she can be located, many scientists want a date five years from now.

The reason for the sudden popularity arises from efforts to calculate the course of the 1937 eclipse.

It has been found that on June 28, 1937, the sun will be eclipsed totally by the moon for about seven minutes. In all the Pacific, Sarah Ann was the only reported spot of land suitable for observation in the 5,000-mile long, 120-mile wide band of totality.

Unless Sarah Ann can be found, it is possible a coral reef may be built up to island status for the seven minutes.

Testing Wheat Samples

Meeting Held In Winnipeg Of National Research Council

The question of testing samples of hard red spring wheats, received for exhibition at the World Grain Exhibition to be held at Regina next year, was dealt with at the annual meeting of the associate committee on grain research of the National Research Council held in Winnipeg.

L. H. Newman, Dominion cerealist and chairman of the awards committee of the world show, introduced the question. After full discussion, it was decided milling and baking tests need only be applied to the limited number of exhibits remaining after other recognized methods of judging had been applied.

Various technical reports were delivered at the final session of the annual meeting and it was decided to meet in Winnipeg again in April, 1933.

Explanations and Comments

The Duty Of Obeying Civil Authority, Romans 13:1-7.—The Jews of Rome were notoriously bad subjects. "Many of them held, on the ground of Deuteronomy 17:15, that to acknowledge a Gentile ruler was itself sinful; and the spirit which prompted Pharisees of Jerusalem to ask, "Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not?" had, no doubt, its representatives in Rome also. As believers in the Messiah, "in another king, one Jesus" (Acts 17:7), even Christians of Gentile origin have been open to the impulse of the same spirit; and unbalanced minds, then as in all ages, might be disposed to find in the loyalty which was due to Christ alone, an emancipation from all subjection to inferior powers." Paul counseled the Christians of Rome to obey the higher powers—those in authority, the civil rulers—and then he laid down the principle that the fact of the authority's being established argues that it was ordained of God. Therefore, he argues, he who defies the power is defying what has been instituted by God, and shall be judged accordingly.

"The cruel abuses in governments are no necessary part of them, and do not invalidate their divine character any more than the abuses of marriage rob it of its sacredness. Any government is preferable to anarchy, just as poorly enforced marriage laws are better than none. Man abuses all God's gifts."—James Stiffer.

Sowing and Reaping, Galatians 6:7-10.—God's law of the spiritual harvest is that one reaps what he sows.

"Wild oats" take something out of the soil of a man's life that no system of crop rotation can restore."

He who tills the field of his evil nature, is doomed to perish; but the one who tills the field of his spiritual life shall reap eternal life. "The heart sows unto the Spirit whenever in thought or deed his prompting is obeyed and his will made the law of life."—Findlay.

"Folks that get weary in well-doing generally haven't done much at it, when you come to hunt up their records. The weariness is usually at the beginning, and sorts out the workers from the shirkers."

Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all men, and especially to the followers of Christ, whose faith makes them one household, or family.

Many children die from the assaults of worms, and the first care of mothers should be to see that their infants are free from these pests. They will not only expel worms from the system, but act as a health-giving medicine and a remedy for many of the ailments that beset infants, enfeebling them and endangering their lives.

Pigeon Racing Popular

An idea of the popularity of pigeon racing in Great Britain can be gathered from the fact that there are 10,000,000 trained homing pigeons in the country and prize-money amounts to $1,250,000 annually. During one season each of the four British railways groups will carry about 2,500,000 pigeons in special coaches to various parts of the country for liberation.

"Did she? I expect she told you merely what was the truth. I went to see her because she had assured me that she could stop your marriage with Formarin—could interfere in some way to prevent it. That was why I went to France. . . . But when she told me her blackguardly scheme—how she had planned and plotted to conceal the fact that Formarin's wife was alive—and why she had done it, I would have no hand in anything that followed. I'm no saint"—a brief, ironical smile flitted across his face—"but there are some methods at which even I draw the line."

"So—that was why you stayed away?"
"That was why. I wanted you, Jean—God only knows how I wanted you!—but I couldn't try to force your hand at such a time. I couldn't profit by a damnable scheme like that."

Jean's eye's grew soft as she realized that beneath all the impetuous arrogance and dominant demands of the man's temperament there yet lay something fine and clean and straight—difficult to get at, perhaps, but which could yet rise, in answer to a sense of honor and fairness with which she had not credited him, and take command of his whole nature.

"I'm glad—glad you didn't come, Geoffrey," she said gently. "Glad you couldn't."

"I don't know that I'm glad about it," he returned with a grim candour. "I simply couldn't do it, and that's all there is to it. But I've come now, Jean. I've come because I want you to give me just the right to look after you. I'm not asking for anything. I only want to serve you—if you'll let me—just to be near you. If Formarin were free, I would not have come to you again. I know I should have no chance. But he's not free. Does that give me a chance, Jean? If it doesn't, I'll take myself off—I'll never bother you again. I'll try Africa—big game shooting—with a short laugh. "But if it does—"

He paused and waited for her answer. The intensity of longing in his eyes was the sole indication of the emotion that stirred within him—an emotion held in check by a stern self-control that seemed to Jean to be part of this new, changed lover of hers. Surely, in the months which had elapsed since she had fled from him on Dartmoor, he had fought with his devils and cast them out!

She held out her hands to him.
"Geoffrey, I'm so sorry—but I'm afraid it doesn't. I wish—I wish I could give you any other answer. But, you see, it isn't marrying—it's love that matters. And all my love is given."

He took her hands in his and held them gently with that strange, new restraint he seemed to have learned.

"I see," he said slowly. Then for a moment his calm wavered. The underlying passion, so strongly held in leash, shook the even tones of his voice. "Formarin is a lucky man—in spite of everything! I'd give my soul to have what he has—your love, Jean."

His big hands closed round her slight ones and he lifted them to his lips. Then, without another word, he went away, and Jean was left wondering sorrowfully why the love that she did not want was offered her in such full measure, hers to take at will, while the love for which she craved, the love which would have meant the glory and fulfillment of life itself, was denied her—shut away by all the laws of God and Man.

CHAPTER XXXVI.
Reunion

Jean leaned idly against the ancient wall which bounded the stone-paved court at Beirnfels and looked down towards the valley below.

Spring was in the air—late comer to this eastern corner of Europe—but, at last, even here the fragrance of fresh growing things was permeating the atmosphere, strips of vivid blue rent the grey skies, and splashes of golden sunshine lay dappled over the shining roofs of the village that nestled in the valley.

But no responsive light had lit itself in Jean's wistful eyes. She was out of tune with the season, Spring and hope go hand in hand, the one symbolical of the other, and the promise of spring-time, the blossom of hope, was dead within her heart—withered almost before it had had time to bud.

The months she had quitted England had sufficed to blunt the keen edge of her pain, but always she was conscious of a dull, unending ache—a corroding sense of the uselessness and emptiness of life.

Yet she had learned to be thankful for even this much respite from the piercing agony of the first few weeks which she had spent at Beirnfels. Whatever the coming years might bring her of relief from pain, or even of some modicum of joy, those weeks when she had suffered the torments of the damned would remain stamped indelibly upon her memory.

During the last days at Charnwood she had been keyed up to a high pitch of endurance by the very magnitude of the renunciation she had made. It seems as though, when the soul strains upwards to the accomplishment of some deed that is almost beyond the power of weak human nature to achieve, there is vouchsafed, for the time being, a merciful oblivion to the immensity of pain involved. A transport of spiritual fervour lifts the martyr beyond any ordinary recognition of the physical fire that burns and chars his flesh, and some such ecstasy of sacrifice had supported Jean through the act of abnegation by which she had surrendered her love, and with it her life's happiness, at the foot of the stern altar of Duty.

Afterwards had followed the preparations and bustle of departure, the necessary arrangements to be made and telegraphed to Beirnfels, and finally the long journey across Europe and the hundred and one small details that required settlement before she and Claire were fully installed at Beirnfels and the wheels of the household machinery running smoothly.

But when all this was accomplished, when the need to arrange and plan and make decisions had gone by and her mind was free to concern itself again with her own affairs, then Jean realized the full price of her renunciation.

And she paid it. In days that were an endless procession of anguished hours; in sleepless nights that were a mental and physical torment of unbearable longing such as she had never dreamed of; in tears and in dumb, helpless silences, she paid it. And at last, out of those racked and tortured weeks she emerged into a numbed, listless capacity to pick up once more the torn and mutilated threads of life.

Looking backward, she marvelled at the wonderful patience with which

Claire had borne with her, at the selfless way in which she had devoted all her energies to ministering to one who was suffering from heartsickness—that most wearying of all complaints to the sufferer's friends, because so difficult of comprehension by those not similarly afflicted.

Nick's "pale gold narcissus!" To Jean, who had clung to her, helped inexpressibly by her tranquil, steadfast, unswerving faith and loving-kindness, it seemed as though the staunch and sturdy oak were a more appropriate metaphor in which to express the soul of Claire.

She heard her now, coming with light steps across the court. She rarely left Jean brooding long alone these days, exercising all her tact and ingenuity to devise some means by which she might distract her thoughts when she could see they had slipped back into the past.

Jean turned to greet her with a faint smile.

"Well, my good angel? Come to rout me out? I suppose"—teasingly—"you want me to ride down to the village and bring back two lemons urgently demanded by the cook?"

Claire laughed a little. Many had been the transparent little devices she had employed to beguile Jean into the saddle, knowing well that once she was on the back of her favorite mare the errand which was the ostensible purpose of the occasion would quite probably be entirely forgotten. But Jean would return from a long ride over the beloved hills and valleys that had been familiar to her from childhood with a faint colour in her pale cheeks and with the shadow in her eyes a little lightened. There is no cure for sickness of the soul like the big, open spaces of the earth and God's clean winds and sunlight.

"No," said Claire, "it's not lemons this time."

It was true. Claire wore a little fluttering aspect of excitement. The colour came and went swiftly in her cheeks, and her eyes had a bright, almost dazzled look, while a small anxious frown kept appearing between her pretty brows. She regarded Jean uncertainly.

"Well—yes, it is something," she acknowledged. "I had a letter from Lady Anne this morning."
