Council Passes Accounts, $639

Half Expended on Bridge Repairs, Mostly Park Road—Exhibition Park in Great Demand by Ball Organizations.

The village council met in regular May session on Monday night with Reeve McFarland in the chair, and Councillors Henderson and Jackson in attendance. A deputation of Vic. Mawson and Joe Romano, representing the Knights of Pythias, were present asking for the use of Exhibition Park and the pavilion for Dominion Day and evening for a bigger and better children's day celebration, and were given free use of the property with the exception of piano and electric light. Village auditor, A. Spencer, was also present to discuss some matters of importance with the council.

Letters were read from the Board of Trade, and the Women's Institute asking for action, in the way of appointing a health inspector, to improve sanitary conditions generally, but more especially along the north side of Canyon street. There was also a letter from a resident in that locality complaining of the offensive odor from a toilet in close proximity to domicile. The clerk was instructed to write the owner of the toilet, objecting to informing him that he must remedy matters forthwith.

Other correspondence included a letter from Lily Campbell of Olds, Alberta, asking for a list of properties in town or in the neighborhood for sale for arrears of taxes. Creston ladies' softball club, as well as the Intermediate and Athletic Club baseball teams wrote asking for use of Exhibition park for practices. All three want it on Tuesdays and two of them would like it on Fridays. The chairman of the parks committee will meet them and endeavor to arrange a satisfactory schedule.

By-Law No. 44 was given the required three readings. It provides for the purchase of some lands in the vicinity of the new hospital site that will provide necessary lanes for the hospital. The purchase price of the land is one dollar and the sellers are E. Johnson and K. Paulson, former owners of the tourist park. Title to Exhibition Park has now been received and shows the village to be owner of a little over seven acres embraced in the fair grounds.

Accounts passed for payment totalled $639, over $300 of which had been spent on bridge repairs, principally on the Park Road structure, which is now in shape to take care of traffic for some years. In the total was $14.75 payable to Creston Transfer for the haul of garbage following clean up day. The reeve was, by resolution, authorized to sign a cheque for $1000 which had previously been promised the new hospital building fund, and which may be required before the next meeting of council.

Kitchener

Mrs. John Renzie was a Cranbrook visitor last week.

Marcel Senesael left last week for the Sash & Door Company at Hazel Creek, where he is employed.

The bridge and dance in Hunt's Hall on Friday evening, given by the Pine Kats softball club, was well attended. The prizes at cards were captured by Mrs. C. Senesael and Fritz Molander.

and consolation honors going to Mrs. B. Johnson and J. Cross. A good lunch was served at midnight, after which dancing was enjoyed, to music kindly furnished by Mrs. Elmer Blair, piano; George Priest, violin, and Dennis Bush, banjo.

John Nelson, who has been a patient in Cranbrook hospital, arrived home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Putnam of Erickson spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. C. Senesael.

Miss Jessie White had her mother, her sister, Hazel, and brother, all of Fernie, visited her on Sunday. They made the trip by auto with Louis Sheling, also of Fernie, returning the same evening.

Mrs. G. A. Hunt left on Monday for Creston, on a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. J. B. yd.

Alice Siding

Miss Alice Carr, who has been on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Carr, returned to Fernie last week.

Mrs. Herb Miller of Wase is here on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Stewart.

While fishing at Hood's bridge one day last week Jack Handley of Creston landed the biggest bass of the season, four pounds twelve ounces.

The government road crew are making good time on the repair of the local road between town and the Constable ranch. It is being scarified and gravelled, with assurance that later it will be given a coat of heavy oil.

Mrs. and Mrs. Miller of Wase are here on a visit with their daughters, Mrs. Hector Stewart and Mrs. John Miller, Jr.

Frank Martin is getting about on crutches at present. While at work stump pulling last week the cable broke and caught him on the back of his leg, inflicting a very painful injury.

Dick Smith was the victim of a painful, though not likely to be serious, accident. While combing his hair his left elbow came in contact with a pin cushion on the dresser in which was an up-standing darning needle, about a half inch of which broke off and imbedded itself in his arm. Due to the swollen condition of the arm the doctor, is, as yet, unable to locate the piece of broken needle.

Sirdar

The B. & B. crew from Nelson have arrived here to pour concrete for counter weights in connection with the new lift bridge.

A. C. Whitehouse of the department of interior water branch was a business visitor this week and proceeded to Nelson the same day.

J. S. Wilson and son, Charles, returned from a business trip to Cranbrook and Kimberley.

Clifford Neil from Laird Creek, was a weekend visitor at the home of his parents.

The water level as registered at the gauge at Slough bridge stands at 8.65. The cooler weather is slowing up the rise.

Mrs. C. Neil was a business visitor between buses during the week.

Pat McDonald of Cranbrook arrived here by auto. He is employed on the B. & B. crew from Nelson, now at the Landing.

The fall of a splendid rain was most acceptable to the ranchers here and fitted in nicely with the planting of seeds.

Fishing at the Slough Bridge is not up to expectations at the present time but this is attributed not to the lack of fish so much as to the condition of the water.

Joe Talerico was a pallbearer at the funeral of Frank Romano's baby daughter at Creston last Wednesday.

The road crew here is strengthened considerably and are working to the Sirdar side of the camp. Graveling has started at many of the bald spots.

The Canadian Bridge Company, who have the contract for the new steel span at Kootenay Landing, are expected to finish by the end of the week. Some of the crew have been already laid off on Saturday last.

H. Osborne (Jack) has leased the house on the lake shore at Kusanook from S. Byssouth. Mrs. Osborne has moved in while Mr. Osborne is staying at the road camp where he is employed as cook.

The Timmons mine at Lakeview is making much progress and the installation of up to date machinery is of great help to this end. Considerable work has been done at this property, and the prospects are bright.

Poor Baseball at League Opening

Wynndel Takes Bad Beating from Erickson—Intermediates Fare Worse at Porthill—Canyon Loses Well Played Game

Baseball—good, bad, and not so good—featured the opening of the international league season on Sunday, with good opening day crowds at both Creston and Canyon, but a slim turnout at Porthill where the day's free will offering is said to have been just $1.07.

The best game of the day was at Canyon where the Creston Athletic Club gained a 6-2 decision in a well played contest, Canyon getting all their tallies in the opening frame, and Creston annexing four in the opening round, after which spectacular ball was dished up. Herb Couling and Eddy did excellent box work for the winners and were given good support by Schade. Canyon tried out three moundsmen in Hale, Humble and Niblow, with Sid Scott doing the receiving. Some smart work was displayed by both outfielders.

At Porthill it appears to have been the old reliable merry-go-round, Creston Intermediates taking a 27-1 trimming in seven innings, at which juncture it was decided to quit and call it a day. King and Hawks worked for the winners, with Joe Dominic, Cam. MacDonald and Andrew Miller hurling for Creston, Bud Miller doing the backstopping.

A rather weird exhibition of America's national pastime was provided at Creston, where Erickson emerged winner by a 26-10 count, the winners getting almost half their points in the third frame when it looked for a time as if the inning would never terminate. Rudd started on the mound for Wynndel, only to be replaced by L. Benedetti midway in the disastrous third, with Rudd recalled to duty again in the fifth. L. Anderson hurled for Erickson and was well backed up by Claude Simpson behind the plate.

Before and throughout the game proceedings were livened up by a generous supply of musical selections by Creston band. There was a fair crowd out, the free will offering running to about $3.

For Sunday, 14th the schedule is: Intermediates vs. Canyon, at Creston; Erickson at Porthill, and Creston Athletic Club at Eastport.

Variety Concert Popular Event

Trinity Hall Crowded with Appreciative Audience—Youngsters Make Hit with "Wedding of the Painted Doll."

Tuesday night's variety concert staged by the young people of the United Church in Trinity Hall was enjoyed by a large audience. The chair was taken by Rev. Andrew Walker, the concert opening with a chorus by the Swastika C.G.I.T., followed by a sketch by six Trail Rangers, put on under the direction of their leader, George Connell. "An Overnight Camp" was the title of the play in which Richard Avery had the leading part, and was assisted by George Dodd, Arthur Dodd, Desmond Truscott, Billy Craig and Bill Weir.

The "Wedding of the Painted Doll" was presented by members of the primary classes, which proved a very popular number. This catchy melody was sung by C.G.I.T. girls, and the several parts were acted by junior pupils, who were strikingly attired in paper costumes of contrasting colors. Raymond Cooper, as groom, Allan Comfort, the officiating minister, and Bernice Donaldson, the bride, handled their parts with exceptional skill, and they were ably supported by the other members of the troupe.

Those taking part were: Bride, Bernice

Donaldson, Groom, Raymond Cooper. Bridesmaids, Joan Langston, Jennie Kinkade, Preacher, Allan Comfort. Folly Dolls, Betty Ross, Enid Jones, Kathleen Joyce, Eileen Weston. Mamma Doll, Jean Bunt, Jumping Jack, Rose Kinkade, Buster Brown, Donald Handley, Red Ridinghood, Audrey Cooper.

The sketch, "All on a Summer's Day," was the offering of the C.G.I.T. under the direction of Mrs. Walker. It represents an afternoon gathering on a hotel verandah playing bridge. The plot centered around a newly married couple, played by Marion Cooper and Doris Hendy. As "Rafferty", Helen Staples was much at home in a humorous role, with Jean Donaldson another outstanding member of the cast. Those taking part were:

Gladys	Jean Donaldson
Dorette	Gladys Davies
Miss Parker	Eva Phillips
Miss Trimble	Phyllis Lowther
Mrs. Reed	Beryl Palmer
Mrs. Lane	Marion Cooper
Mr. Lane	Doris Hendy
Tom	Rachel Morrow
Bob Doyle	Mary Ross
Rafferty	Helen Staples

The closing feature was the play, "Mix Well and Stir," put on by the Y.P.S., under the management of Albert Avery. It kept the crowd in the best of humor from start to finish. Miss Frances Knott, as Miss Kerkins was responsible for much of the comedy of the sketch, while Miss Jean Avery, as Mrs. Doake very cleverly demonstrated 100 per cent. efficiency as a purveyor of gossip. Albert Avery and Florence Connell, as Mr. and Mrs. Grant, both carried off heavy parts with commendable skill. The cast included:

Phil Grant	Albert Avery
Mrs. Grant	Florence Connell
Mrs. Doake	Jean Avery
Mr. Doake	Percy Truscott
Mrs. Kennedy	Edith Cook
Mr. Kennedy	A. Cromack
Miss Alice Williams	Holly Bond
Miss Kerkins	Frances Knott
Burgalars	Ray Truscott, Joe Chernoff

Throughout the evening solos were contributed by Marion Cooper, Ruth Davis, Rachel Morrow, Beryl Palmer and Miss Frances Knott. There was a duet by Rachel Morrow and Gladys Davies. A violin selection by Miss Holly Bond. Elocutionary numbers were given by Lorraine Olivier and Edite Johnston, which were of particular interest as they were the numbers given by these artists at the musical festival at Cranbrook. The accompanists were Mrs. W. Fraser, Mrs. Walker and Miss Frances Knott. There was a large turnout, standing room being almost at a premium.

Wynndel

Walter Glasier was operated upon for appendicitis on day last week, at Creston hospital.

Miss Sylvia Benedetti is renewing acquaintances in Boswell this week.

Mrs. S. Benedetti is at Cranbrook with her infant son, who underwent an operation for mastoid.

Wynndel Women's Institute meets in May session at the church on Friday, 19th, at 2.30 p.m.

A welcome sound was heard here on Saturday when the J. B. Winlaw sawmill commenced operations after about a four year shutdown.

C. B. Twigg, district agriculturist was a visitor in the district a few days last week.

An extraordinary general meeting of the Co-Operative Fruit Growers Association was held in the hall on May 2nd, when a resolution to enlarge the board of directors from six to seven members, as formerly, was put to the meeting. President John Wigen was in the chair. On a ballot being taken the motion was declared lost by a small margin, 23 for, 11 against, there not being the required majority of voters. As this was the only business the meeting adjourned and a talk on fertilizers and their manufacture at Trail was given by Mr. Hopkins of the C.M. & S. staff, to whom a hearty vote of thanks was extended by those present. Orders for crates and supplies were taken.

The frosts of the past season took a heavy toll of the strawberries in Wynndel. Of the 50 acres planted last spring it is doubtful if 10 acres will be cropped. Some patches are so badly hit that they were ploughed out completely, while others are filling in the blank spaces. British Sovereigns suffered most, but Parson's Beauty and Van San are hit. The belated cause of the damage was the heavy frost in the fall after so much rain and before any snow fell. Some patches looked quite good when uncovered but with the hot sun and no April rain to draw the frost out the plants wilted. C. B. Twigg is of the opinion, even if blossoms come on some of the plants, no fruit will mature. W. Greig, E. Andestad, S. Gregory and G. Gregory have ploughed out all their berries, while John Wigen, E. Uri, J. G. Abbott and G. Taylor have ploughed out patches.

Discuss Cartel Also B.C.F.G.A.

Seriousness of 1933 Marketing Situation Outlined—90 Per Support for Cartel Would Save the Day is Claim Made.

A deputation consisting of Major McGuire, manager of the 1932 Apple Cartel, and F. C. Childs and S. Freeman of the British Columbia Fruit Growers Association, have been calling on Creston shippers with a view to enlisting support to the formation of a 1933 Apple Cartel.

The situation facing the industry is that shippers who supported the 1932 Cartel, which was created to stabilize the deal in the interests of the growers, have determined that unless sufficient tonnage is signed up to the 1933 Cartel to make the operation of the Cartel satisfactory, they are no longer willing to be restricted for the benefit of the outside tonnage.

There is no question as to the issue facing the whole industry. Either there is to be a Cartel controlling the major portion of the industry or there will be conditions of wide open competition that will mean disaster to the growers. Geographical advantages will be entirely lost under wide open conditions and it is hard to think that any grower with his own interests at stake can contemplate a return to a year of unrestricted competition.

The needs of the southern end of B.C. are well recognized by the Cartel and there is no doubt but that the particular local needs of the Kootenays will have full consideration, and it is to be hoped that Creston shippers will support the movement, which has as its objective the obtaining of better prices for producer.

Messrs. McGuire, Childs and Freeman were in Creston on Sunday and Monday for the purpose of seeing local shippers. Unfortunately not all were available, but Creston Co-Operative Fruit Exchange signified their intention of signing up provided the other shippers do likewise.

At a meeting held at Kelowna, April 25th, the executive of the B.C.F.G.A. announced that this 40-year old fruit growers' organization was bankrupt. The fruit growers at that meeting then appointed an organization committee to find ways and means with which to carry on. This committee consisted of five fruit growers and three businessmen. They immediately had to find funds to liquidate the $1100 of debt owed by the defunct organization. All growers were asked to pay $2.50 per annum through their shippers, co-operative or independent. A committee was appointed to canvass businessmen and firms throughout the Okanagan to become associate members by giving a $2 subscription, 20 per cent. of the Okanagan growers have now joined the new B.C.F.G.A., and most businessmen have become associate members.

Efforts are being made by the reorganization committee to make the growers' paper, Country Life, a real means of helping members keep in touch with the association's activities. A sub-committee of Messrs. Childs and Freeman, are with Major McGuire, who was here Monday, in the interests of the Cartel. They will visit all the fruit growing sections in order to arouse interest amongst the growers in the B.C.F.G.A., also to make efforts to induce all shippers to join the Cartel as without 90 per cent. support the Cartel will be unable to operate.

World Co-operation In Prospect

Events of the past few weeks have concentrated attention on the interdependence of the nations of the world, and, by their promise of a general attack on a world scale upon the major problems of the hour, have injected new hope in suffering humanity that at last a serious effort is being made to cure the ills which have prostrated the world economic system. Conversations of leading statesmen at Washington, definite assurance that the world economic conference will be held in London next month, the prospect that solution will be found in reciprocal tariff arrangements and adoption of an international monetary unit, have had immediate beneficial effect in the markets of the world, and appear to have restored some of the confidence lost in the crash of 1929 and the bitter years since.

Canada, in particular, faces the task of committing its new crop to the fertile soil with a renewed optimism and a higher courage. Assurance from Washington and Ottawa of reciprocal agreements in the offing that will tend to reopen channels of trade long made barren and unproductive by prohibitive tariff barriers, have produced a most welcome reaction in the Prairie West. Conjoined with this looms possibility of an easing of the general trade situation in Continental Europe where Canadian wheat has found continually increasing obstacles to overcome—obstacles created by local fears and narrow prejudices. The movement toward world co-operation bears with it also the harbinger of such conditions as will make effectively beneficial the Empire trade agreements consummated at Ottawa, last year. With these auspicious circumstances encouraging him, no wonder the Prairie Farmer sows higher hopes with his seed this year!

The idea that an international problem can only be tackled successfully in an international way, was long in penetrating the minds of many world statesmen. This may have been due to the fact that statesmen are proverbially hesitant of moving in advance of public opinion—and it is a fact that public opinion, since the war, nurtured on fears and desperations, has been notoriously nationalistic in sentiment in virtually every civilized country. In consequence, the nations have sparred defensively to evade disarmament, despite the general abhorrence of war; and have erected tariff barriers in the futile hope of developing self-contained national economies, despite the fact that a customs port may be more provocative than a concrete fort. The resultant stimulation of animosities has tended to retard concerted action upon the economic problems; but the strangulation of world trade with its accompaniment of widespread unemployment and almost universal suffering, has finally served to awaken general realization of the essential interdependence of nations, and recognition of the fact that the sure path to recovery lies through co-operation. Even France, with all her hoards of gold, has been forced recently to borrow $150,000,000 from England to buttress the franc, demonstrating that in this day and generation no country is so organized as to be able to live of itself alone.

Generally speaking, therefore, it may be said that the world at last has become internationally-minded; and that is a sign that common-sense is reasserting itself. In Germany alone would there appear to be a reactionary movement towards a narrower nationalism, but the movement in Germany is capable of a dual interpretation. It may be true that Herr Hitler and his Nazi army have resurrected some of the more subversive characteristics of Prussian "Junkerism" in their so-called "bloodless revolution"; but it is also true that Herr Hitler has evinced a willingness to negotiate with other nations of the world not only in matters of trade and commerce but also in matters of armaments. The new Germany, therefore, while driven along internally in a narrow nationalistic regimentation by men imbued with the "administrative ideals of a sergeant-major" (as Guedalla would say), is awake to the necessity of co-operation in the wider field of world politics and trade in the interests of world peace and world prosperity. That is to say, the rigors of the Nazi discipline would appear to be fundamentally protective of the German commonwealth against the peril within the gates rather than aimed at any imaginary peril from without. In any case, the German internal situation does not necessarily impair prospects of a successful solution of the world economic problem, nor weaken hopes of a restoration of normal trade relations among the countries of the world.

Blame the Translator

British Authority Says Cinderella's Slippers Were Fur and Not Glass

Cinderella's slippers, popularly supposed to have been made of glass, really were made of fur, according to Sir Gerald Wollaston, court king-of-arms and an authority on heraldry. He told members of the Royal Society of Arts that the slipper was made of "vair," which is heraldic fur of white and blue. The other idea, he said, came from a confusion with the French "verre," meaning glass.

Hold Meetings By Telephone

Post Office In London, England, Gives Unique Service

So that business men in widely separated towns can hold a joint conference without travelling, the general post office in London, England, has arranged for simultaneous telephone connection.

The matter is arranged simply by informing the post office that certain specified people in, say, London, Manchester, Leeds and Glasgow are required at a definite time. The general post office links them up and they can then each hear the voices of all the others and do their business as though they all sat in one room.

Impressed By Visit

British Vice-Admiral Gives Account Of Trip To Canada

Vice-Admiral Francis Wade Caulfield gives a breezy account of a six-week's visit to Canada in his report as president of the association of retired naval officers.

"A small property near Vancouver was recently turned over to me. Affairs connected with this property or settlement (called 'Caulfield' after my father, who bought it as virgin forest and started to develop it at the end of the last century) necessitated a trip through Canada to the Pacific coast, and so, incidentally, gave me the opportunity of meeting A.R.N.O. members of whom, in September, there were 24 scattered between Nova Scotia and Alaska. It was a strenuous, but splendid six weeks. The welcome given me everywhere was something not to be forgotten, and I should like to take this opportunity of once again thanking my various hosts and hostesses for their charming hospitality and the truly delightful and extraordinarily interesting time they gave me.

"One member (working on a farm for his approaching university degree) was pitching corn, another was running a ferry, another was perched on top of a sort of Eiffel Tower as fire 'look-out' in the forest area of Ontario. A fourth member owned and worked a 20 acre fruit farm. Apples! Why the branches were breaking with their load, and hardly a tree but carried 2,000, some nearly 5,000 apples; whilst a fourth a 'J.P.' in the Rocky Mountains, and friend and counsellor to the whole of his little community, in fact, his word 'went,' and little was done in his district without the knowledge and approval of 'The Commander'.

"Everyone who was dependent on pension or English income was being badly hit, the pound sterling having dropped from $4.86 to $3.80 and 'servants' were becoming a luxury. I was amazed, however, to find how comfortable and happy a family can be in a house sans servants, but fitted with labor saving appliances, cheap electricity, and a cheerful and efficient housewife.

House Had Gold Ceiling

Residence Of Former Chicago Bank Director Sold By Auction

The famous house with the 14-carat gold-ceilinged smoking room, lined with morocco leather—a house so luxuriously furnished it would have done credit to a fabulously wealthy Indian Maharajah—has gone on the auction block at Chicago.

It was the home of Frank A. Mulholland, real estate operator and a former director in the chain of twelve defunct Bain banks, who was indicted with other officials of the financial institutions.

The house, situated in exclusive Beverly Hills, was one of the show places of the section.

The building contains eleven rooms and sold along with it were the costly furnishings which included a beautiful hand-carved antique dining room suite of walnut, and French walnut love seats.

Fast Northern Trip

Constable Travels From Chesterfield To Churchill In Seven Days From Chesterfield to Churchill, a distance of 425 miles, in seven days is the accomplishment of Constable Norris Yates. This is the shortest time on record. Constable Yates, accompanied only by an Indian guide, travelled by dog team.

The feat of the young constable was accomplished early in April. The trip to Churchill is only made twice a winter to carry mail and necessities. Constable Yates was an escort to a western Canadian scientific explorer for a month last winter and spent that time completely away from civilization, living the life of an Eskimo.

Need More Cattle Steamers

Western Brokers Claim Only Six Available For Trade

Neglect of the Dominion Government to subsidize ocean tramps to enter the Canadian cattle trade is strongly resented at Winnipeg. Brokers point out that only six tramp steamers are available to this trade, that two British companies have chartered these boats and that the tramp steamer owners some months ago offered to pay half the cost of fitting up the boats to carry cattle if the Dominion Government would pay the other half.

The Dominion Government was silent on this issue. Today, as a consequence, the Canadian cattle export trade is limited only by the capacity of these steamers to carry cattle. They are scheduled to carry 450 each every three weeks to Britain all summer which will mean that a maximum for the year of 45,100 will be exported.

Canada could easily export 100,000 head it is claimed. The cost of fitting a boat is about $12 per head of cattle capacity. A boat big enough to take 500 head would cost $6,000. A boat to carry 400 head would cost $4,800.

Support Land Scheme

Regina To Participate In Provincial Back To The Land Plan

Decision to participate in the provincial government's back to the land scheme was reached by Regina city council recently, although some criticism was directed to two points in the scheme. Protested points were that the cost per family will be higher this year than last, and the change of policy of the government this year compared with that in effect last year.

Under this year's scheme the municipality participating in the plan is required to agree to undertake to contribute one-third of the expenditure per family up to $400 and, further, to assume one-third of an excess expenditure over $400 but limited to an additional $200.

Last year the cost to the city per family was $100 and some aldermen felt those who went out under last year's plan would have ground for objection to an advantage given to those going under this year's plan.

Completes Twelve-Year Task

Priest-Artist's Paintings Adorn Walls Of Gravelbourg Hospital

Msr. Chas. Maillard, priest-artist, has completed twelve years' labor in painting religious pictures adorning the walls of Gravelbourg hospital.

His "Way of the Cross," just finished, consists of fourteen life-size paintings placed around the church proper. They are rich in colours, beautiful and of aesthetic value. In addition to beautiful contrasts of colors, symmetry, order, regularity and balancing of ideas are found in his work. They come from the mind of an artist, who has painted the apologetic, dogmatic and moral doctrine of the Christian faith.

Dominion Drama Festival

Masquers Club Of Winnipeg Awarded First Place

The Masquers' Club of Winnipeg, is winner of the Dominion drama festival competition, with their play "The Man Born To Be Hanged," by Richard Hughes. The Winnipeg club received a marking of 83 per cent. of excellence from Rupert Harvey, festival adjudicator.

To the Masquers' Club will be awarded the Bessborough cup, emblematic of amateur dramatic supremacy in Canada, as well as the special trophy given for the best play in English to be presented during the festival.

As the second best presentation in either English or French Mr. Harvey nominated "Les Rantzau," by Erckmann-Chatrain, which L'Union Dramatique de Quebec Enr. Offered as their entry. This performance received a marking of 80 per cent. of excellence. The Quebec dramatic organization will receive the special trophy awarded for the best play in French, although it is notable that "Les Rantzau" took second position in the whole competition.

The second best English performance during the competition was "Back to Methuselah," by George Bernard Shaw, which the Vancouver Little Theatre Association gave. This presentation received a marking of 79 per cent. from Mr. Harvey. Only Part I. of the first act of this play was presented.

Third in the English plays came "Will Shakespeare" by Clemence Dane, presented by the Ottawa Drama League Group B). Its marking was 77 per cent.

In the French plays, "Le Baiser Dans la Nuit," presented by Le Cercle Dramatique des Etudiants de Leval, Quebec, was awarded second position. Its percentage was 66. This play is by Maurice Leval.

The third best performance in French was "Une Affair d'Or" (1st act), by Marcel Gerbidon, which Les Anciens du Gesu de Montreal presented. It gained 63 per cent. of excellence.

Not So Good

A farmer's son once decided to be a lawyer. His father drove him into town and got him a job as office boy to a law firm. Three days later the young fellow was back home again. "Well, Josh, how do you like the law?" his father asked. "Aw, it ain't what it's cracked up to be," said the boy. "I'm sorry I ever learned it."

U. S. CURRENCY INFLATION PLAN IS APPROVED

Washington.—With a roaring chorus of ayes, piling up a vote of 307 to 86, the United States House of Representatives approved the Roosevelt currency inflation plan.

The inflation rider which now has complete congressional approval, will allow President Roosevelt, among other things, to expand currency and credit by as much as $5,000,000,000 in addition to altering the gold backing of the United States dollar by as much as 50 per cent.

Action came on the inflation amendment in the House after it disagreed to all senate farm relief amendments and sent them to conference.

The inflation amendment gives President Roosevelt broad powers over the financial structure of the government. These powers could be used alternatively or together, depending upon needs to meet the financial situation.

Briefly it permits:

The Federal Reserve banks to buy $3,000,000,000 in outstanding government bonds, against which currency may be issued.

The president to issue if he sees fit, another $3,000,000,000 in United States notes.

The president to reduce, up to 50 per cent., the content of the gold dollar.

The president to change the ratio of the silver dollar and provide for the free coinage of silver.

Great Air Armada

Italian Aviators To Cross North Atlantic In June

St. John's, Nfld.—Italian aviation experts, busy preparing for the great air armada that will cross the north Atlantic in June, announced recently that two submarines and two drifters would arrive here the middle of May.

These vessels will act as convoys for the 24 airplanes of the "11th year crusade" along the northern route.

The airplanes, scheduled to leave Orbetello late in May or early in June, will fly to Chicago for the Century of Progress Exposition, touching at Amsterdam, Holland, Londonderry, Ireland; Reykjavik, Iceland; Cartwright, Labrador, and Shediac, New Brunswick.

Three advance planes arrived here last week on the liner "Rosalind," and as soon as weather permits they will fly to Cartwright to establish a supply base for the flotilla.

Re-Armament Idea Is Disavowed By Germany

Delegate To Conference Says Opinion Is Wrong

Geneva, Switzerland.—Germany, through her delegate to the world disarmament conference disavowed the "opinion that Germany wishes to avail herself of disarmament to proceed with re-armament at the highest possible level."

Count Rudolf Nadolny, the German representative, proposed the "British arms plan be changed to provide a maximum calibre of 105 millimetres for mobile guns and to abolish all tanks."

"There are still great difficulties but they are not insuperable," Count Nadolny declared after suggesting the amendment and explaining that if the German proposals are rejected, his nation should be allowed all land, naval and air armaments deemed necessary for defence by other countries.

Calgary Unemployed

Calgary, Alberta.—Unemployed to the number of 370 reported at relief jobs despite the unemployed married men's relief strike, sponsored by workless organizations in protest against lower summer relief allowances.

Muskies Menace Free States' Hydro Scheme

Government Seeks Canada's Advice On Means Of Extermination
Dublin, Irish Free State.—Canadian muskrats are believed to be threatening the Free State's great hydro-electric scheme on the river Shannon. In an unguarded moment last year the Department of Agriculture gave permission for the importation of two of the rats from the Dominion.

After a short period in captivity the animals escaped from their owner and last week it was discovered the Free State was afflicted with a pest from which it had hitherto been immune.

Half a dozen of the rats were shot by a Tipperary farmer who observed them on a Shannon embankment and mistook them for otter.

The Department of Agriculture has ordered an investigation and experts from the Department of Industry and Commerce fear stringent measures will have to be adopted to prevent the pests from damaging the hydro-electric scheme embankments.

The government has promised to introduce a bill in the dail which will make the rats illegal inhabitants of the Free State, believing the present system of licensed importation is inadequate. In the meantime the department of agriculture is to seek advice from the Canadian Department of Agriculture as to the best means of exterminating the animals.

Ramsay MacDonald Says Visit Was Successful

British Premier Pleased Over Talks With President Roosevelt

Southampton, Eng.—A cheering crowd on the dock greeted Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald on his return from his economic discussions with President Roosevelt in Washington.

Mr. MacDonald declared on landing that he was very pleased with all of his conversations with Mr. Roosevelt, which he described as most successful.

The prime minister said it was well worth while going ahead and tackling world problems which were bound to yield to co-operative good will. It was that good will which he found in a striking way in Washington, he declared.

He denied inviting Mr. Roosevelt to come to London for the world economic conference which is to open June 12, saying that the matter never was mentioned between them.

"I am very pleased with the whole of the transactions," the prime minister told interviewers. "I met a man who is sincerely interested in getting things to move in the world, and we found ourselves in most complete agreement. We had talks on how to do it of the most friendly kind."

Milk Probe Finished

Ottawa, Ont.—The parliamentary milk probe is virtually ended. Only in the eventuality of a desire for enlightenment on the milk situation to be explained by some particular witness will any further evidence be taken. After its 25th sitting the committee gave out this official intimation. An immediate report to parliament is probable.

Ottawa May Erect Building

Ottawa, Ont.—A large office building in Ottawa is planned by the government to relieve unemployment. It would be west of the Confederation building on Wellington Street. It is proposed that the new structure, which would cost $5,000,000, would be paid for by "transient notes," to be paid off in annual payments, instead of the more costly plan of issuing debentures.

March Exports To U.S. Down

Ottawa, Ont.—Agricultural products exported to United States in March totalled $416,780, as against $453,823 for the corresponding month last year, according to a report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. For the nine months ending March, farm products exported to United States were valued at $2,517,705, as compared with $7,731,674 for the corresponding period in 1931-32.

CREATED BRITISH AIR FORCE

Great Britain has lost one of the greatest minds behind the creation of the British Air Force with the sudden passing of Sir William Geoffrey Salmond, commander-in-chief of the Air Defence of Great Britain. He was to have become Chief Air Marshal this month, in succession to his brother, who was to retire.

Obligations Will Be Covered By Debentures

Shareholders At Annual Meeting Of C.P.R. Approve Issue

Montreal, Que.—To permit the liquidation of short term loans amounting to $30,000,000 and other maturing obligations, shareholders approved the issue of additional consolidated debenture stock at the annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company here.

In his address to the meeting Edward W. Beatty, chairman and president, said despite unfavorable conditions the operations of the company showed it had come through in excellent physical condition and with its financial structure on a conservative basis.

Working assets at the end of the year were $52,811,144, while current liabilities were $14,311,257, a ratio of 3.7 times.

Mr. Beatty, Senator Frederick L. Belque, W. A. Black and Lord Shaughnessy were re-elected to the board of directors, their present term of office having expired. The address of Mr. Beatty was adopted without discussion.

Railway Making Profit

B.C. Road Announces Revenues Exceed Expenditures

Vancouver, B.C.—The Pacific Great Eastern Railway is one of the brightest spots in British Columbia industry, according to reports just submitted by Robert Wilson, executive assistant to the board of directors. Revenues will exceed expenditures for the first six months of the current year, it is prophesied.

Mr. Wilson declares this will be the first time revenue has topped expenditure in the first six months of any year the road has been operated.

Statement for March shows a profit on operation of $879, as compared with a loss of $13,465 in March of last year.

Surtax On U.S. Goods

French Minister Of Finance Is Ready To Take Action

Paris, France.—The ministry of finance has prepared to impose shortly a 15 per cent. surtax on U.S. goods.

The decree, it was learned, is ready for signature, to be issued when the U.S. dollar approaches 20 francs, which officials expect.

This surtax already is effective on British and Japanese goods because of depreciated exchange.

It cannot be increased without parliamentary authority, which Premier Daladier was reported contemplating.

American residents in France and tourists, who already have lost a large part of their incomes, have been badly hit by the 15 per cent. fall in the dollar. Many of them, unable to hold out longer, are beginning to flock back homeward.

Movements of both the dollar and the pound sterling have been complicated by the weakness of the franc, but it was hoped France will be helped by measures the government is considering to defend French commerce and further slashes of the budget by the senate. This, the ministerial press indicates, the cabinet supports.

Weakness of the franc was attributed to concern over the repercussions of commerce of the unbalanced French budget and the necessity for borrowing abroad.

A general race to wind up pending commercial pacts before the convening date of the world economic conference in London, England, June 12, was discussed in some quarters.

Prorogation Of House

Early Closing Of Ottawa Parliament Is Anticipated

Ottawa, Ont.—Possibility of an early prorogation of the House of Commons was seen in the course of an interchange on the subject between Prime Minister R. B. Bennett and Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, leader of the official opposition.

The question arose when Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance, asked for a second interim supply of 1-12 of the total, in order to carry on day to day requirements of government, and meet the May 15 salary list.

Mr. Mackenzie King suggested that, as the opposition had no desire to further prolong the session, it might be possible to prorogue before the middle of May and that interim supply would not be necessary.

Sugar Tax Passes House

After Liberals Made Demand For General Retrenchment Scheme

Ottawa, Ont.—The two-cent sugar tax passed the House of Commons after demands from Liberals for a general retrenchment scheme to trim the costs of government. Official Ottawa, said Hon. James Malcolm, former minister of trade and commerce, should take a lesson from private business and cut its overhead. He instanced the 34 research laboratories operated in various government departments and, at the same time a national research council equipped to handle the same work.

BAN OATH OF ALLEGIANCE TO BRITISH CROWN

Dublin, Irish Free State.—Hope that he soon would have the pleasure of proclaiming Ireland a free republic was expressed by President Eamon de Valera in a hushed Dail during the closing debate which followed the enactment of a bill removing the oath of allegiance to the British crown.

The president added that he was resolved to wipe from the existing constitution "everything inconsistent with the sovereign rights of the Irish people."

This utterance was the most definite of the kind de Valera ever had made.

"We are going to remove from the constitution every badge of inferiority," the president declared. "The people will be consulted before the republic is declared."

Holding aloft a copy of a draft constitution submitted by an Irish delegation to Great Britain in 1922 which was amended by the British, de Valera said the would take from it every clause Great Britain "forced" them to accept.

The abrogation bill was re-passed by the Dail Eireann by a vote of 76 to 56. Previously twice rejected, it becomes law through invocation of article 32a of the constitution, setting a time limit on the upper chamber's veto.

The action was taken on the motion of President de Valera himself, made in Gaelic, the Irish national language.

Conviction that the British government would consider the Anglo-Irish treaty setting up the Free State broken, the moment the first person took his seat in the dail without subscribing to the oath, was expressed by Grattan Esmonde, supporter of former President William T. Cosgrave.

President de Valera replied he did not believe the bill's passage was a violation of the treaty and added it was his intention to continue pressing for removal from the constitution of any "symbols" regarded as inconsistent with the position of the Free State. One of these "symbols," the oath, he said, was being removed and others would disappear through legislation in the near future.

Thirty Professors Lose Positions In Germany

Dismissed From Berlin and Cologne Universities Under Hitler Regime

Berlin, Germany.—Opening of the summer semester at German schools and universities under the auspices of the Hitler regime has been marked by the dismissal of 30 professors from Berlin and Cologne universities.

Meanwhile the students' federation of the former institution has inaugurated a boycott against Jews remaining on the staff, contending that "the German student resents having the principles of knowledge and thinking set by Jews."

It is the duty of every German student, the federation declared, "neither to enroll in courses nor to hear lectures given by Jews."

Dismissal of the 30 professors, 21 from Berlin University, and nine from the Cologne school, was announced by Bernhard Rust, Prussian education minister.

To Prosecute Gold Hoarders

Time Limit For Surrender To U.S. Treasury Has Expired

Washington.—United States government has said it intends to proceed against gold hoarders, but it has yet to reveal its course of action. Indications are that many hoarders are waiting for treasury officials to show their hand.

The time limit for returning gold has expired, and it is understood the treasury is checking a list of hoarders compiled by banks. Last week there was approximately $700,000,000 in gold and gold certificates still out, the bulk of it believed to be in hiding in this country.

PRESS PHOTOGRAPHERS BID MACDONALD BON VOYAGE

Home to Mother by telephone

Mary lives too far away from her home city to see her mother very often, but every Mother's Day, at least, she sends her voice home by long-distance telephone.

"It's almost like chatting with Mother across a table," says Mary, "and we both get so much pleasure out of the talk. I wouldn't miss it for worlds."

Is YOUR Name on the List

If you are desirous of voting at the provincial election that will be held some time before the snow flies, and your name is not already on the voters list, it now seems pretty certain that Monday, May 15th, will be the last day you will have opportunity of enrolling as a voter.

In order to qualify as a voter you must have been resident in British Columbia six months, one of which shall have been spent in Creston district—or any other part of the Creston-Nelson riding.

Or if your name is on the list of some other provincial constituency no time should be lost in signing the necessary papers and having your name transferred to the polling place in which you desire to vote.

Previous to other provincial elections both the old parties were active in rounding up citizens and getting them to sign the regulation blue registration papers, but just at present there is no such activity, and unless individuals have been looking after their registration personally it would look as if there are many citizens who have not yet had their names officially inscribed on the voters list.

Too, it must be remembered that there is no connection between the lists used at the Dominion election in 1930, and any provincial list. We mention this so that residents who voted in 1930 will not run away with idea that their name will also appear on the provincial list of voters.

If you were here and voted in the election of 1928 your name should be on the list, but so there will be no disappointment it will be well to phone the registrar of voters, F. H. Sackson, and know for sure. And if your name is not on the list again be reminded that your last opportunity will be on Monday next—and you must appear in person before the registrar.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Band; A Town Asset

Editor Review:

Sir,—The advantages and influences of a band are, indeed, great and far reaching. Many a half-asleep, stagnant town has been roused and stimulated into a live, prosperous community, largely as a result of a band.

During summer months band concerts on the public squares certainly do attract considerable trade not only from the townspeople, but from the district surrounding. This is well proved by the fact that whenever once established the town band should find hearty support from local merchants, also the citizens.

Still, further a band properly supported will engender pride of citizenship, provide much advertising to the town, and serve as a strong influence to keep young people at home instead of breaking away to other fields.

The individual advantage and influences are equally great. If you have ever played in a band yourself you know the keen enjoyment you derive, the good times you have had, and the pleasant associations you have formed. Better, still, look at it from a standpoint of training. Band work is splendid discipline as it calls for strict attention to the task in hand, and more or less quick thinking.

Better still, it promotes good health, as any physician will testify that performers upon wind instruments rarely suffer from lung trouble. Playing a wind instrument forms the habit of deep breathing which is one of the requisites of good health.

Measured from the standpoint of both the individual and the community there is, perhaps, no form of activity that yields greater returns than a well conducted band. A good band brings good fellowship and prosperity to a town or community and beneficial results to each person. Of course, it stands to reason it takes money to keep a band together until it can put itself on a self-sustaining basis.

The band in Creston is receiving free tuition. The young boys are being taught music and also an instrument, and a few of them will soon be able to take their place with the older members. I may add that we are having a good response from the citizens for donations to enable us to buy new music. Later we will publish a list of the subscribers and thank them for their support.

W. G. HENDY, Bandmaster.

Do Well at Festival

Creston was again represented at West Kootenay musical festival held at Trail at the end of the week, with competition somewhat keener than at Cranbrook. In piano duet under 13 years, Marguerite Grant and Edith Johnston ranked sixth in a class of nine competitors. Mr. Anderson, the adjudicator, in his remarks pointed out that the latter's playing was a little too weak for the leading part, which resulted in a loss of marks. In piano class, under 13 years, Marguerite stood fifth in a class of nine. This being her first appearance at a musical festival it was but natural her playing would not be as smooth as on ordinary occasions, in addition to which she suffered from loss of memory, this making it necessary to use the music thus robbing her of five points. In the piano class, under 14 years, Edith stood third, and was but two points behind the winner. A delicacy of shading and nice a feeling of phrasing was particularly stressed by the adjudicator. In elocution, under 12 years, Edith ranked third. In open elocution Mrs. J. E. Johnston was placed second in a class of seven, being but two points behind the winner. In the two festivals this month Creston pupils of Mrs. Johnston took two first prizes, one second and two thirds—a showing that Mrs. Johnston in particular, and Creston citizens in general may well be proud.

Every Authorized Ford Dealer has pledged himself to the carrying out of this policy. Throughout the entire life of the car, the constant endeavor will be to help you get the greatest possible use over the longest period of time at a minimum of trouble — expense.

Children Uprooted Trees

Jealous Because They Were Left Out Of Arbor Day Ceremony

Jealous children who were not chosen to assist in an Arbor Day ceremony took their revenge at Ladysmith, South Africa. The town fathers and leading citizens assembled on the sports ground and entertained a number of school children. Lectures on trees were delivered and after the speechmaking the children were entertained with music and refreshments. The mayor and magistrates then each planted a tree, assisted by certain children. Next morning the trees were found uprooted and stripped of their foliage.

Trip To West Indies

Summer Cruises On Fast Cunard Liner Mauretania

Five summer cruises from New York to the West Indies have just been announced for the fast Cunard liner "Mauretania." The duration of each cruise will be 12 1/2 days, the steamer leaving New York on a Saturday and returning Friday two weeks later. It is considered this will make the cruise very suitable for those whose vacations cover only two weeks.

The itinerary for these cruises will be much the same as that covered by the "Mauretania" so successfully this last winter. The ports will include Port of Spain, Trinidad, La Guayra, Venezuela, South America, Willemstad, Curacao, Colon, Panama and Havana, Cuba.

Two nights and one day will be spent in Panama, allowing passengers time to cross the Isthmus to the old city of Panama and view the various locks on the way. The same period will be spent also in Havana, with bathing, racing, basketball, golf and jai alai to attract the visitor.

Practically a full daylight day will be spent ashore in each of the other ports.

Cruise sailing dates are July 8th, July 22nd, August 5th, August 22nd, and September 9th.

Commenting on this unusual cruise programme, Arthur Randles, general passenger manager of the Cunard and Anchor-Donaldson Lines in Canada, said, "We have had so many inquiries this year for summer cruises to the West Indies that we have decided to schedule a programme which a few years ago would have been impracticable. Apparently thousands of people who cannot get away in the winter are anxious to visit the places in the West Indies which they have read of and heard so much about, but which up to now have not been accessible in the manner arranged for winter vacationists, that is, by cruises in large Atlantic liners on the all-inclusive expense basis. Because of the tremendous number of inquiries received at our offices we decided to look into the question of climate thoroughly. We obviously did not want to send pleasure cruises to the West Indies in summer if there was any doubt as to whether such voyages would encounter pleasant and comfortable weather.

"To this end we obtained official weather and temperature reports for the entire year at various West Indian ports which the 'Mauretania' touched at this winter. We found that these statistics bore out completely what our agents in these ports had represented, that the variation in temperature between summer and winter was practically negligible.

"During the day the islands are swept by constant trade winds, so that a sultry day, such as we experience in New York is practically unknown. The nights are invariably cool and comfortable.

"Summer seas prevail throughout the entire itineraries practically guaranteeing complete absence of motion, the highly desirable feature of cruising at sea without the discomfort of rough weather.

"The cost of sea cruising was never so economical from the passenger stand-point than it is today. The rate for these cruises is less than what an ordinary summer vacationist spends at home or in a Canadian or American resort."

Aircraft In Demand

British civil aircraft have proved so popular that the De Havilland aircraft factory has been forced to work a full staff both night and day. ### Explanations and Comments

Jesus Publicly Claims To Be the Messiah, verses 1-10.—We have come to the solemn entry of Jesus into the Holy City in a triumphal procession for which He deliberately planned. We have heard Him caution some one not to report a miracle He has wrought, or charge the disciples to "tell no man that He is the Christ." And after the feeding of the five thousand He escaped to the hills when the people sought to make Him king. He has constantly feared that popular enthusiasm would hinder His mission. Now, however, another purpose is impelling Him to seek publicity, to court the enthusiastic worship of the people, to let the world know that He is the Messiah. He no longer dreads interruption to His work. His hour has come.

When in the neighborhood of Bethphage and Bethany Jesus sent two of His disciples to secure for Him a colt that had never been ridden. Should their right to the colt be questioned by the owner, all they would need to say was that the Lord hath need of him and would return him. It all happened as Jesus said. The colt was found tied in the street at the door of a house, the disciples were challenged as they unlocked him, and upon replying as they were directed they were allowed to lead the colt away. They threw their loose outer garments upon the colt as a seat for the Royal Rider.

"I beheld the procession descend the mountain bringing him," said the Egyptian to Ben Hur. "I heard them singing. They were beautiful with palms in motion. I looked everywhere among them for a figure with a promise of royalty—a horseman in purple, a chariot with a driver in shining brass, a stately warrior behind an orb shield, rivaling his spear in stature. I looked for His guard. It would have been pleasant to have seen a prince of Jerusalem and a cohort of the legions of Galilee. Instead of a Caesar helmeted and sworded, I saw a Man, riding an ass' colt."

"The manner of His riding into Jerusalem was in keeping with all Jesus' appearing among men. The keynote of it was struck at the very beginning on that first Christmas morn, when the King came as a helpless Child, loaded with disabilities of place and family and position in the world. The stable and the manger and all the other conditions of that birthday of Jesus in Bethlehem are only object-commentaries on the essential nature of His character and work. His life was consistent from the manger to the cross. He was the same Prince of Peace in His triumphal entry into Jerusalem as in His humble entry into Bethlehem."—Hugh Black.

Quebec Town Lowers Taxes

Rigid Economy Has Provided Montreal Suburb With Surplus

Among the Quebec municipalities that have maintained balanced budgets through the difficult years of the current economic depression is the town of Mount Royal, a suburb of Montreal. Mayor T. S. Darling of that municipality is not only in a position this year to announce a balanced budget but also a reduction in the tax rate from twelve to eleven mills.

Revenue for the year is estimated at $100,838 against estimated expenditure of $98,995. The estimated surplus and the tax rate reduction have been made possible, Mayor Darling said, through reducing the town's expenditures on non-essentials, and keeping maintenance costs to a minimum.

In its 21 years of existence Mount Royal has not wasted much money on election costs. Mayor Darling has been elected by acclamation for 21 consecutive one-year terms.

The city is divided into 12 zones for the contest and prizes will aggregate $250. Each contestant will also receive 12 tomato plants from the committee. Zone canning centres will also be established to save the garden products.

Points will be awarded each month for such results as family co-operation, planning, arrangement and maturity; development of growth, when ready for eating, freedom from weeds and apparent yield; appearance, proper thinning and use of thinnings, freedom from insects and disease, care of surplus; straightness of rows, utilization of space, condition of crop and use of products in the home.

Cash prizes will be awarded in each district with a grand prize for the city title.

CHAPTER X.—Continued.

For a moment, groping about to retrieve his blunder, Buzzard hardly knew what to say or do. There had been no mistake; he had seen that incident with his own eyes when he glanced through the window to find where Alan was. He debated whether to draw back from his statement or to plunge ahead and tell the rest of it—Joyce's momentary battle, the shudder that swept her whole body when she put the scarf into the stove, and the quick blinding tears that she dashed away.

He thought: "Better not get any deeper into this. I'd only blunder again. Better back out entirely."

He stammered: "I might have made a mistake. I might—uh—it might have been the wrapping paper. I just merely saw her put—uh—something into—and I jumped to conclusions. Must have been the wrapper. Why would any person want to burn up a gift like that? Let's forget it."

His tones carried no conviction. He realized it himself. Alan disbelieved him; Alan knew Joyce had burned the scarf he gave her.

Cursing himself hotly, Buzzard looked out across the purpling river. He had meant only the best, and he had dealt Alan a savage pitiless blow. After a little time Alan said to him:

"You'd better go up, Buzzard; she may be waiting for us."

"Aren't you going?"

"No—not now; I don't much care."

... I don't want supper."

"NOW I FEEL FULL OF PEP"

After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

That's what hundreds of women say. It steadies the nerves... makes you eat better... sleep better... relieves periodic headache and backache... makes trying days endurable.

If you are not as well as you want to be, give this medicine a chance to help you. Get a bottle from your druggist today.

W. N. U. 1903

Something in his voice warned Buzzard not to urge him. As he turned away, Alan said, in the tones of a man who has made some hard and abiding decision:

"When you've had supper, come back down here; I'll help you with that work; we'll do it now, so we can get away early. I was thinking—for this evening—something else. But that's out now."

At three o'clock the next morning Buzzard lifted the plane out of the Big Aloooska. With Alan directing him, he headed due north.

One hundred and thirty miles away, nearly four hundred miles from Fort Endurance, a small tribe of Tinnets lived along the western fringe of the Thal-Azzah. They were a timid, skulking, inoffensive band, shouldered into a region where other tribes scorned to live. Dave MacMillan had been their friend and they brought him their furs; and Alan, during his years at Endurance, had sent a protective patrol to them twice a year.

Joyce had found out where they were spending this summer; and Alan had a mission with their old headman, Mugwa-Etthen.

When the timber country began yielding to lakes and semi-muskeg, he got out his glasses and started searching ahead for their camp. At a height of five thousand feet he could sweep a region of more than two hundred thousand acres. The eyes of an eagle, the wings of a bullet-swift curlew, and that big-barreled Browning machine gun—through luck and driving purpose and a faith in his dubious plan, he had smashed through obstacles till now he held the power and heavy odds over those bandits.

The sure knowledge of this was about all that was left to him. His work in the Mounted, his life here in the North, were both gone; and Buzzard's cataclysmic words last evening had showed him that his secret hope toward Joyce had been a fool's hope, a fool's wishful thinking.

How low he must have fallen in her estimation, that she should burn his gift to her! At first it had seemed a little cruel of Joyce to do that. But then he looked at the incident with relentless honesty, and he could not blame her. Once he and she had planned to marry. People had spoken of it; it had been generally accepted along the River. She had liked him, loved him. What must her feelings have been as she watched his relations with Elizabeth, and saw him engaged to another girl and coming no more to the Big Aloooska? She must have felt shame, a burning shame, at being jilted. Month after lonely month of that—it had been an outrage to her girlhood. Nothing she could do to him could be so heartless as what he had done to her.

Through the propeller disk he at last sighted the Indian camp, a cluster of brown leather tents beside a lake where the band was passing the summer near their fish weirs. Buzzard roared over the camp and banked to alight. Old Mugwa-Etthen, a gaunt and wrinkled old savage, stalked up and gravely bade them welcome.

After this flood season of heavy rains, Alan knew there were a few areas in the watery wilderness of the Thal-Azzah where a party of men could camp. He himself had only a hazy idea where those areas lay; but this old headman, Mugwa-Etthen, who follows the Caribou, had lived his life along the border of that great marsh and knew it better than any man alive, and could probably give him a pretty definite idea where to look.

Very wisely, Joyce had kept from letting the nomad bands know anything about the police defeat. The Shagalahsa maintained order in so huge a territory largely through their reputation of never failing, and the news of their stinging defeat would do incalculable harm. Joyce had not even told old Mugwa-Etthen.

After pledging the headman to silence, in guttural Tinnets Alan began sketching the story of the robbery and battle. As he told of the bandits escaping in the Aloooska, he noticed that the old chief suddenly became all interested.

Alan looked at him keenly. "Something's up," he thought. "I've stumbled onto something." He demanded: "When I was two three breaths ago you start like hit buck. Why?"

Drawing a crude map of the Thal-Azzah with his bony forefinger, the

HAS LOST FAT FOR THREE YEARS

68 lbs. Gone Altogether

A woman writes:—"For nearly three years I have been taking Kruschen Salts every morning in hot water, and have lost 68 lbs. of fat. My weight before taking them was 196 lbs., and it is now 128 lbs. Compare the difference—it is marvellous. My mother and sister are also taking Kruschen and lots of our friends, and think they are wonderful. As regards diet, it is not necessary to do one little bit of dieting; in my case I have never denied myself anything since I started taking Kruschen Salts. I walk every day, and do not eat many potatoes or much sugar. I don't think I shall ever be grateful enough to Kruschen Salts for the great help they have been to me, and shall never stop taking them, or recommending them to people I think need them."—(Miss) K. T.

Taken every morning, Kruschen effects a perfectly natural clearance of undigested food substances and all excessive watery waste matter. Unless this wastage is regularly expelled, Nature will eventually store it up out of the way in the form of ugly fat.

old headman sprang his astounding news.

Ten suns ago, he said, Tukeok and another young buck had gone westward into the Land of Many Waters to locate rat colonies for autumn trapping. One evening they heard the boom-boom of fire-sticks far away southwest. Slipping up, timid, cautious, they saw some strange men shooting waxies for food. They saw a tent, a camp on an island.

For several minutes, fighting down a wild elation, Alan forced himself to crouch there, asking questions, fixing that map and that spot unforgettably in his mind.

At the wigwams he rejoined Bill.

"Come on! Let's be getting into the air! An hour and a half from now we'll be saying it with a machine gun. When we flew up here we brought our luck along!"

From his height of three thousand feet, reading the country spread below him, Alan could follow the crude finger map without once being in doubt. . . . That should be the great blue-water lake which Mugwa-Etthen had described. It should have islands in the center of it. On one of the islands near the north edge of the cluster the bandits should be camped, if they had not moved on.

"Swing north!" he shouted at Buzzard. "Those islets there to themselves. . . ."

The machine swerved and thundered closer. One by one Alan started to search the five. On the first one, nothing. On the second, nothing. But on the third . . . He started suddenly as he caught that center one in clear focus. Below them on that center island, conspicuous to their sky patrol, stood a solitary dirty white tent.

After a few moments Alan had presence of mind again. He leaned forward and shouted instruction:

"Drop down to a thousand feet. Fly over that island again, slow. Want to study it carefully before we start things."

Buzzard dropped down, swung around. As the plane sailed over a second time, Alan drew the island up to him studying the tent sharply, he saw a movement of the flap-front and distinguished a man's face, upturned, peering at them.

One bandit there at least! But the others? . . .

A guess shot into his mind: those others had probably gone hunting for caribou over east at the foule.

As though that watcher there below realized what this ominous circling meant and had become panicky, a puff of white, a single puff, burst from the flap-front. Confident the man was alone and the others were gone, Alan decided to take this bandit alive. He needed information

DOCTORING YOUR DAIRY HERD

Cows aren't machines. They can get sick or hurt. But Minard's Liniment makes it easy to care for their ills. Mrs. Thos. Turner of Lario, B.C., found one of her herd with a lump in her udder. "I rubbed it with Minard's Liniment," she says, "and it soon got better." Minard's is best for Cuts, Bruises, Colic, Distemper, etc., and equally good in stable or in house. Well named "King of Pain".

about the others, and information about that pack of furs to clear Dave MacMillan.

While Buzzard circled at a safe distance, he tore a page from a memo book and printed a message:

"If you shoot again, we'll splatter you and that island into the lake with our machine guns. Stand out in the clear. No weapons on you. Don't try any crooked move after we light."

He wrapped the message around a monkey-wrench and handed it to Buzzard. From wartime practice of dropping "eggs" on ammunition dumps and second-trench Flammenwerfer and camouflaged batteries of Krupp 79's east of Verdun, with no aerial sights except two nails and a string along the fuselage, Buzzard was a good judge of speed, altitude and the right split-instant to release. Whirling over the island, a few hundred yards up, he planted the missile within a dozen paces of the flap-front.

As they looked back they saw the man run out to it, read the message, hesitate a moment, and then raise his left arm, waving something white.

A pistol-shot off the island the plane lighted. Buzzard stayed in the machine, Alan and Bill got out the canvas canoe, slipped automatics into their pockets, took rifles prominently in hand and went ashore.

While Bill searched the bandit for a hidden revolver, Alan looked at him curiously. He was a strange character to find in this country. Slant-eyed, his skin olive, he looked as though he had oriental blood in his veins. The rag he had waved in token of surrender was a sling. His right arm dangled limp at his side.

Alan demanded, "Are you the fellow we hit in that fight?"

"Chink" Woolley nodded.

"Are those other men out hunting?" Alan asked, "or where?"

Woolley batted his eyes slowly, as though taking thought. "Huntin', yes," he managed.

"Which way?"

"North-east."

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Alice Michalco

YOU HAVE COME BACK

You have come back; the garden ways
Are bright as in those other days
When violet
And mignonette
And larkspur flowered to win your praise.

You have come back; the old house
glows
Again as gracious as a rose.
Through every room
Like rare perfume
The magic of your presence flows.

You have come back, and O, my dear,
The wonder of your being here
Brings back anew
Old dreams we knew
And love we lost in yesteryear!

Cause Of Suicides

Masculine Vanity Said To Be At The Bottom Of A Large Percentage

A study of suicides in the United States as disclosed in cold insurance company statistics led Dr. William Muhlborg to conclude that masculine vanity was at the bottom of a large percentage of these tragedies in the last three years.

"The thing that drives men to take their own lives, it seems," he said, "is their inability to swallow the pride they have enjoyed building during their prosperous years. It is not the haunting fear of seeing his children go hungry, or his wife weaken under the monotony of housework, so much as it is the agony of visualizing his neighbor's glee when his 12-cylinder super-sedan is sold, and the family withdraws from the country club."

Friendship Tours Organized

"Friendship Tours," organized overseas, will bring parties of British women to Canada and United States to attend the International Congress of Women and the World's Fair at Chicago in July, according to word received at the Canadian National Railways Passenger Department, Montreal. Information indicates that about 200 British women will join the tours.

Little Helps For This Week

"This God is our God forever and ever; He will be our guide even unto death."—Psalm 48:14.

Be still my soul; thy God doth undertake
To guide the future as He has the past;
Thy hope, thy confidence let nothing shake,
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.—J. Borthwick.

He has kept and folded us from ten thousand ills when we did not know it. In the midst of our security we should have perished every hour but that He sheltered us "from the terror by night and the arrow that flieth by day"—from the powers of evil that walk in darkness, from snares of our own evil will. He has kept us even from ourselves and saved us from our own undoing. Let us read the traces of His hand in all our ways, in all the events, the changes and chances of this troubled state. It is He that folds and feeds us, that makes us to go in and out,—to be faint or find pasture, to lie down by the still waters, or to walk by the way that is parched and desert.—H. E. Manning.

Age Of Technocracy

Machine Power Shown To Be Much Cheaper Than Man Power

The Montreal aldermanic relief committee has set out to determine just what are the differences between man-power and machine-power in labor, and here are some of the results:

1. One mechanical truck loader and operator equals 52 men.
2. Loader fills a truck in five minutes; the gang requires from 40 to 60 minutes.
3. Cost per truck; Loader, 60 cents; gang, $20.40.
4. Cost per truck; Loader, 12 cents; gang, between $2 and $4.

These preliminary data will be checked in a more extended experiment on a pipe-laying job next. The test grew out of the demand that labor-saving machines be done away with and unemployed laborers substituted.

Reciprocal Trade Agreement

Tariff Concessions Between Great Britain and Germany Over Limited Field

Reciprocal trade and tariff concessions between Germany and Great Britain were announced recently. The quota for British coal exports to Germany has been nearly doubled and in return the United Kingdom makes tariff concessions over a limited field.

The announcement of arrangements of increased trade with Germany follows upon an earlier statement declaring a new trade agreement with Denmark by which Great Britain's market in Denmark for her industrial products will be greatly increased in return for increased quotas granted to Danish dairy and agricultural products.
