Canyon United Church Annual

Reports reflecting steady progress were submitted by all departments of of Canyon United Church at the annual meeting on Monday night last which was presided over bv Rev. J. Herdman, with a large turnout of members and adherents. W. E. Searle presented the financial statement which showed a small balance on hand after meeting all the year's obligations locally, as well as giving $50 to the extension fund. Mrs. Knott was elected to the session, replacing W. H. Kolthammer, whose resignation was accepted with regret. The stewards for the ensuing year are A. Halstead, W. E. Searle, T. Staples and H. Young, with Miss Muriel Knott chosen recording steward.

With the young people the United Church certainly has a strong hold at Canyon. For the Sunday School Manford Samuelson reported an enrollment of 56 scholars and a staff of five teachers. For the Trail Rangers Clifford Vance reported a membership of twelve, and the Mission Band, which is in charge of Miss Minnie Strong, has fourteen members, and last year contributed $18 to missin work. The senior young people are enrolled in "The Comrades of the Way," in charge of Jeff. Knott and this organization has a regular attendance of practically 90 per cent. of the young people eligible in the Canyon district. Meetings are held every Tuesday. The ladies' aid has a membership of 25, with Mrs. R. Hurl as president, and Miss Emma Samuelson, secretary, and the society's revenue for the year just closed was in the neighborhood of $800.

Despite the fact that Canyon is again being supplied by a Creston pastor—after a year with its own resident minister—all departments of the church effort is exceptonallywell maintained, and votes of thanks were tendered all associated with the various organizations for their efforts durin3 the past year.

Had he proceeded with the same excellent results through to Kuskanook at least twenty minutes could be saved besides some rather rough and dangerous driving. Now the new appropriation is available we hope he will put on the finishing touches forthwith.

The family will be much missed in both church and community work.

Death has removed a quite well known Canyon resident in the passing on Thursday evening last of Magloire (Peter) Demers, at the age of 52 years. Death was due the effects of an injury sustained some years ago, which had laid him off work completely for almost the past two years. He was a native of Quebec, but had also resided at Minnesota points for almost twenty years before moving into Alberta and later to Canyon where he arrived in 1913, only to leave in about three years for the Leduc, Alberta, country, where he was resident until about 1924, when he again returned to Creston Valley and worked at Creston and Kitchener until early in 1926 when he once more took up his residence at Canyon. The funeral took place on Saturday to Creston cemetery, and was in charge of Fathers Cullinan and Ehman, with A. G. Samuelson, A. Wickholm, A. Huygens, C. A. Robinson, E. Nouguier, sr, and E. Nouguier, jr., officiating as pallbearers. Besides a widow he leaves a family of three sons and three daughters, who have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

1927 Chautauqua Programs Please

Seven programmes of excellent variety and presented by talent of outstanding ability will be offered in Creston's four-day Chautauqua that opens at the Grand Theatre on the evensng of Friday, May 27th, with the same popular prices for season tickets of $2.50 for a adults and $1 for school children.

In the eight seasons Chautanqua has played Creston it is doubtsul if so well balanced an entertainment menu has been presented. Music, which is always a big favorite, is on each day's programme, and in what might be termed the "literary" features Creston is to have an illustrated talk on "British Policy in China and Through Britain with a Camera"; a demonstrated lecture, "The Potter and His Clay," in which the artist gives a demonstration of pottery making along with a timely talk on the above topic, and exhibits his well known collection of chinaware, and especially for the entertainment of the youngsters there will be Taylor, the prince of magic, juggler, ventriloquist and clown.

Those who recall the big comedy success of last year, "Cappy Ricks," will be pleased to know the same company will be back this year, with an equally delightful comedy, "Smilin' Thru," a charming play of unprecedented popularity.

Three talented concert companies will present the musical features, opening with the Schubert Male Quartette from Toronto, with a selected lot of offerings that include the opera classics, sacred, secular, musical comedy and novelty numbers as well as popular selections. And for the closing night there will be the Plantation Jubilee Singers offering a musical production that is decidedly out of the ordinary. On the second day will appear the John Ross Reed Company, whose programme consists of many colorful presentations of the world's really good music—sung to please all tastes.

From this brief outline of the offerings it is at once apparent that the 1927 Chautauqua is decidedly worth while, as well as being the only entertainment of the sort Creston is likely to have this year. Undoubtedly there will be a great demand for season tickets and as the sale of these will be limited to the exact seating capacity of the Grand it is not a bit too early to be speaking for tickets and to be booking reserve seats that are on sale at $1 for the seven programmes.

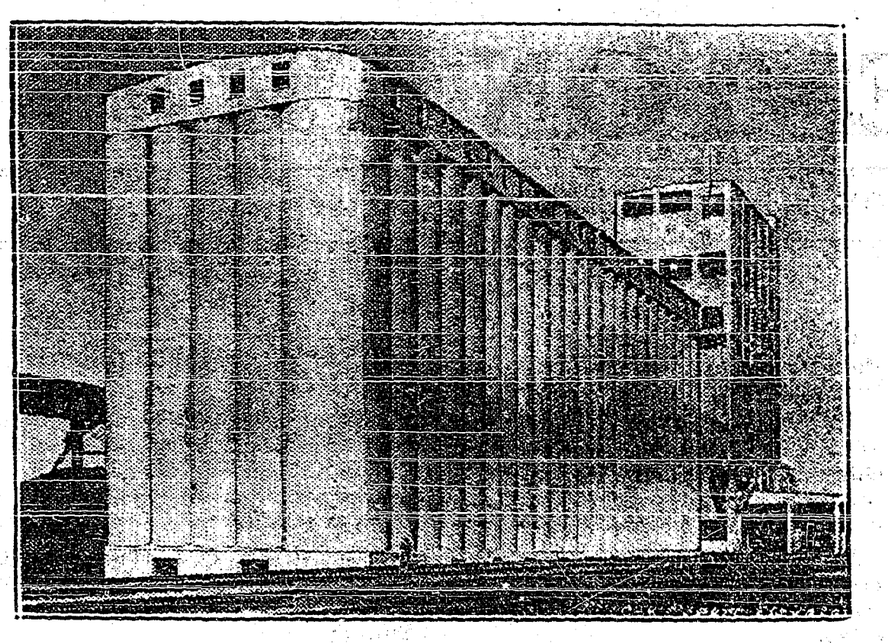
Operations of the Alberta Wheat Pool's Prince Rupert Terminal



The Alberta Wheat Pool has loaded twenty-two ships with wheat from the 1926 crop at Prince Rupert and expects to bring the total up to twenty-four before the crop movement is ended this spring.

The Alberta Pool terminal at Rupert has already handled 5,188,000 bushels and the total will reach 5,788,000 bushels within a few weeks. This is a larger total than was anticipated last fall.

The Prince Rupert house was built and is owned by the Canadian Government, has a capacity of 1,250,000 bushels and is probably the fastest handling terminal on the coast. It is under lease to the Alberta Pool for a term of two years. Joseph Bennett is superintendent of this elevator.

Through the Pool's extensive operation, the ocean freight differential has disappeared and grain is shipped to Europe from Prince Rupert at the same rate as from Vancouver.

Of the twenty-four ships already loaded or committed, six carried grain to the Orient and eighteen to Europe.

Previous to the Pool leasing the Rupert terminal, no wheat had been shipped from that port.

Smart Little Ones Go Simply Clad

Dressing the tiny Miss of two to eight is no less an art than providing lovely clothes for her mother or older sister. One of the prettiest and simplest frocks any little girl could have is pictured here, and one which busy mothers can make up in a very short time, for it just has a group of shirrings either side of the front and in the centre back. A simple chain stitch of colored silk floss is worked over each row of gathers, lending a bright touch, and holding the fullness firmly in place. Shirrings are again seen on the wrists of the full sleeves and pockets, while two-piece bloomers make this a most practical dress. No. 1434 is in sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8 years. Size 4 requires 2¾ yards 36-inch material; or 1⅝ yards 54-inch. 20 cents.

Our Fashion Book, illustrating the newest and most practical styles, will be of interest to every home dressmaker. Price of the book 10 cents the copy.

RHEUMATIC MISERY

Relief Can Only Come Through Better Blood—Liniments of No Use

In no other disease does the blood become thin so rapidly as in rheumatism. Not only does it become thin but it is loaded with impurities—rheumatic poisons. Without the proper treatment these poisons increase, the inflamed joints swell and the patient becomes a cripple. Most treatments simply aim to keep down the pain, hence with every unfavorable condition a renewed attack follows.

To cast out rheumatism the blood must be enriched and the rheumatic poisons driven out with the natural secretions of the body. This can best be done through a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which have a specific action on the blood, giving it new richness and redness. Thousands have tried this treatment with beneficial results. That every sufferer from rheumatism who does not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is neglecting the most hopeful means of recovery is shown by the statement of Mr. David Carroll, Pictou, N.S., who says:—"For years I was troubled with rheumatism. The pains were not continuous, but they always returned, and kept getting worse. I tried so-called electric belts and many medicines, but did not get more than temporary relief. Only those who have suffered from this trouble will realize what I suffered at times. I had begun to despair of getting better when a friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In a short time I could feel this medicine helping me so I gladly continued taking the pills and soon found that every trace of the trouble had disappeared and there was a great improvement in my general health. It is now two years since I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I have not had the least twinge of the trouble in that time. That is why I confidently recommend the pills to other sufferers."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

PETER AND THE RISEN LORD

Golden Text: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead."—I Peter 1.3.

Lesson: John 20. 1-10; 21. 1-23.

Explanations and Comments

1. Mary Magdalene's Discovery at the Tomb of Christ, John 20, 1, 2. —A stone had been placed over the entrance of the tomb in which the body of the crucified Saviour had been laid (Mark 15, 46, and the stone had been sealed (Matthew 27, 66). The stone was probably a cylindrical one which could be rolled aside in a groove at the base of the opening of the tomb. Early on Sunday morning Mary Magdalene came to the tomb with the others, as the "we" in the next verse indicates. She found the stone removed. At once she hastened to tell Peter and John (John always refers to himself in his Gospel as "the disciple whom Jesus loved"). "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid him," she cried.

"The Catholic, who cannot find the grace in these Easter days to have the stone rolled back, whether it be pride, greed, or pleasure, that keeps him tombed in his own selfishness, is certainly wasting the graces of Easter." — Catholic Standard and Times.

II. Peter and John at the Tomb of Christ, John 20.3-10.—The two disciples ran to the tomb. John reached there first and, looking in reverently and wonderingly where the Saviour's body had rested, he beheld only the linen cloths in which it had been wrapped. Then impetuous Peter rushed into the tomb and saw a wonderful thing; the linen cloths which had enveloped Christ's body were rolled up and the napkin, which had been about his head, was in another place. Leisurely and orderly had been Christ's departure. Had others carried off his body, the grave clothes would not have been left. Then John also entered the tomb, and the sight sufficed him; he believed that Christ was risen. "A heart full of love for Christ requires but little proof to find in him a living Lord. The apostle of love was the first person to believe in the risen Christ, and he it was who afterwards recorded that beatitude which fell from the lips of his living Lord, a beatitude the blessedness of which he was the first to know and in which we all now share, 'Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.'"—C. R. Erdman.

Make Mendicancy An Art

Beggars in France All Carry Manual of Instructions

Mendicancy is an art in France, and Gallic beggars have a "Manual for the Use of Beggars" to instruct them in the art.

The book, which includes a "sucker list" of good prospects, emerges from the pocket of a beggar when a Paris judge admired his knowledge of humanity.

"Why, it's an art," exclaimed the beggar, drawing forth the textbook in explanation.

Most of the chapters are devoted to technical instruction, such as how to operate at baptisms, marriages, funerals and the methods of attracting sympathetic attention.

There is instruction in how to seem blind, simulation of certain ailments, faking of suicide attempts and the concealment of legs or arms for displacement by false ones.

Record Building Activity

Indications are that building in Canada will be more active than it has been for several years. For the first three months of the year there is proposed construction amounting to $208,132,000, which is actually 44 per cent. higher than the total in sight at the corresponding period of 1926. The lead is taken by residential contracts, which is a natural result of the upward trend of business that has been noted for many months past.

Alliance Not Desirable

Cordial Understanding Betwees Britain and U.S. More Desirable Says American Ambassador

Alanson B. Houghton, United States ambassador, seconded the recent suggestion by Sir Esme Howard, British ambassador to the United States, that an Anglo-Saxon alliance would not better the relations between the United States and Great Britain.

"We must not hope to seek to develop those wholly natural relations between the British and American peoples into anything like an alliance," Mr. Houghton said, in an address at a luncheon given before Manchester Chamber of Commerce.

"The idea may be tempting; nevertheless, I believe it to be wholly false. To bring the English-speaking peoples together into an armed and exclusive group prepared if need be to enforce its collective will by force, would, if it were possible, tend neither to promote peace nor to assure our mutual security.

"It's only result would be to unite all the rest of the world against us. It would turn this earth once again into an armed camp. In the end precisely what we sought to avoid—war—would result, and out of such a war we may be sure that neither honor nor safety nor profit to any people could possibly emerge.

"The peace, happiness and well-being of the world," he added, "depends largely upon a sound and cordial understanding between the British and American peoples."

Cliff Dweller's Burial Grounds

The lost burial grounds of the Casa Grande (Ariz.) cliff dwellers, probably a thousand years old, have been found by an expedition from the Southwest Museum, Los Angeles, California. A funeral urn of beautifully shaded red on buff coloring and containing bone fragments and ashes of the dead was the first finding of the expedition. It revealed that two forms of burial—cremation and earth internment—were used by the cliff dwellers.

Mrs. Sophie Salway of 135 Wilson St., Woodstock, Ont., (picture above) said: "I had had an operation and was expecting to have to undergo another. I was in a very poor state of health—was weak, it seemed that all my strength had left me. I could not do anything. It was quite necessary that I have a good tonic to make me strong enough for my second operation so I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it soon had me well and strong, and I came thru the operation without any trouble. Untold Wealth in Dead Sea

Is Fabulously Rich in Mineral Salts Says Chemists

The Dead Sea, so salty that fish and seaweed cannot live in it, has prospects of coming to aggressive life as a chemical production centre.

Scientists who investigated for the Hebrew University have completed a report for Dr. Chaim Weizmann, its president, who is now in the United States, showing this historic salt lake to be as fabulously rich in mineral salts as it is in Biblical lore.

The chemists recommend that in connection with the harnessing of the Jordan River for power, now under way, steps may be taken to utilize the treasures of this inland sea. Ways and means to carry out the recommendations are under consideration.

The Dead Sea, 793 feet below the level of the Mediterrasean, contains 25 per cent. saline element in comparison with 4.6 per cent. in ocean water. It is so heavy that animal bodies will not sink in it. The report says it contains in millions of tons, potash, 2,000; magnesium bromide, 980; magnesium chloride, 22,000; ordinary salt, 11,000, and calcium 2,000.

The chemists estimate there is enough bromide to last the entire world 35,000 years at the present rate of consumption, and enough potash for 1,000 years. They also believe that production near the ancient site of Sodom and Gomorrah would be cheaper than anywhere else in the world because of the intense heat, which causes rapid evaporation. The Jordan River pours 6,000,000 tons of water daily into the sea, but its level never rises.

Legend incorrectly has it that the sea poisons the air so that plants cannot even grow near it nor birds fly over it.

A Strange Plant

Compass Plant of Texas Responsible for Saving Many Lives

A plant found in the prairie of Texas has bees responsible for saving the liven of many persons who have become lost during storms. It was first brought to the attention of the scientific world by Gen. Benjamin Alvord. Known as the compass plant, it received its name from the strange property exhibited by its leaves of presenting their faces to the rising and setting sun.

The compass plant is a perennial, and during its first year bears radial leaves only. In its second year it is a flowering herb, with four or five leaves measuring from twelve to thirty inches in length.

It is found mainly in the prairies of the Mississippi valley and its peculiar powers were well known to hunters and settlers long before Gen. Alvord discovered it. When lost on dark nights they would search for it, and by feeling its leaves obtain their bearings.

Farmers Enjoy Low Freight Rates

Speaking recently in the Senate, Hon. C. P. Beaubien said that farmers in Western Canada enjoy the lowest freight rates in the world. In Canada it costs 12 cents per bushel to move grain 791 miles, while in the United States it costs 22 cents per bushel to move grain 708 miles. The average rate per bushel on all grain in Canada, he stated, was about 15 cents, whereas in the United States it was 30 cents and still higher in the Argentine.

Sell Airplanes on Installment Plan

London Dealers Keep "Samples" for Customer's Selection

Enterprising aeroplane dealers have entered the installment plan field alosgside the furniture houses and real estate agents.

In London under the new order of affairs, two-seater machines, fully equipped, may now be bought for £230 down (roughly $1,150) and twenty-four monthly installments of £24 15s.

The installment plan ship has an eighty horse-powered engine of the latest type and can do 100 miles an hour.

A prospective purchaser may inspect "samples" in the downtown shops, pay down his cash, go to Stag Lane aerodrome, in the Edgware Road, on the outskirts of London, and flit away in his new craft with all the pride of the shopper who gets what he wants when he wants it.

Spelling Mistake Furnished Clue

Anonymous letters written to the villagers of Consignat, near Guerat, France, using threats and making fantastic accusations, have caused a reign of terror for the past two years. Many a farmer has, after receiving one of these letters seen his barns in flames. A young woman has now been arrested is connection with the case. In a letter dictated to her, she made a spelling mistake similar to one which occurred in one of the anonymous letters.

Little Helps For This Week

Add to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness charity.—2 Peter i. 7.

O brother man, fold to thy heart thy brother,
Where pity dwells the peace of God is there;
To worship rightly is to love each other,—
Each smile a hymn, each kindly word a prayer.
—John Greenleaf Whittier

As the rays come from the sun, and yet are not the sun, even so our love and pity, though they are not God, but merely a poor, weak image and reflection of Him, yet from Him alone they come. If there is mercy in our hearts, it comes from the Fountain of Mercy. If there is the light of love in us, it is a ray from the full sun of love.

—Charles Kingsley.

"The Confederation"

Name Given to New Canadian National Train Commemorates Canada's Diamond Jubilee

An important extension of Canadian National Railways passenger train service between Eastern Canada and the Pacific Coast, is announced by H. H. Melanson, general passenger traffic manager of the System. Under a new chedule which becomes effective on June 24th, from Toronto, and June 27th from Vancouver, trains No. 3 and No. 4, now operating between Winnipeg and Toronto only, under the name of "The National" will operate between Toronto and Vancouver on a 93-hour schedule westbound and 91 hours and 10 minutes schedule eastbound. It It was announced also that in honor of Canada's diamond jubilee, the trains under the new service will bear the title of "The Confederation."

These trains operate with the latest type all-steel equipment, including tourist and standard sleepers, dining cars and radio-equipped observation library cars, and have proven very popular with passengers between Toronto and Western Canada points since their inception. On the new schedule, the trains will carry a mountain observation car between Kamloops and Vancouver, and will thus provide passengers with the opportunity of seeing the beauties of the famous Fraser River canyons en route.

An important change in the routisg of "The Confederation" across the prairie provinces is also announced. Under the new schedule these trains will operate via Brandon, Manitoba; and Regina, Saskatchewan, thus giving through service to these important cities in the west.

Orders Frogs From Hawaii

Two thousand pairs of frogs who have been harmonizing under the Hawaiian moon will be given a trip to the Orient if an order from a Japanese frog fancier can be filled. Why the Hawaiias variety of croaker is desired is not stated, but natives claim the edible hind legs are made unusually large and muscular by surf-riding.

A Use for Everything

Australia Making Millions Out of Jack Rabbit Pest

Australia once upon a time frantically wondered what it would do with the jack rabbit pest. These ferocious creatures ate up all the crops in sight. A government bounty was put on them. Then it was found that rabbit hides were good for material to build felt hats. Last year the pelts of 78,000,000 jacks brought $12,500,000 into Australia. There seems nothing so useless on earth but that it has real value. Some day we expect some genius will discover a use for moth holes.

Bees can't talk, but they often get back at one with a stinging retort.

? --- Times One Pound

Multiply one lb. by the number of sheep you have. The answer is the extra wool you get by machine shearing. Have you 15 sheep? Why not begin now to get 15 lbs. more wool every season? Have you 500 sheep? You'll lose 500 lbs. of wool every time you shear with the old, slow and tedious hand blades. Machine shears evenly — gets longer staple wool which brings better price, sheep injured less. Anyone can use machine.

A BROKEN DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition (or disease) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a break down, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its causes (they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same; the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—vigour, vital strength and energy to throw off these morbid feelings, and as night succeeds the day this may be more certainly secured by a course of

CRESTON, B.C., FRIDAY, MAY 13

Domestic Pack

Figures issued by the B. C. forest service, lands department, for the year 1926, show that the loss due to preventable fires totalled $2,352,115. If this total loss, says the report, had occurred in the business section of some city and local interests had suffered to the extent through human carelessness the result would be disastrous. Last year 1570 fires were due to human agency. The forests of B.C. regulate the pulse of provincial life and constructive activity, and the greatest care should be taken to preserve one of the principal sources of industrial progress in the province.

According to facts given out by the Canadian Bureau of Information at Ottawa, in proportion to population British Columbia pays more for its privilege of talking than any of the other provinces of the Dominion. This, of course, applies to the telephone variety especially. In this province there are now 100 telephones in use to every 589 of the population. Saskatchewan has 100 to every 832; Alberta 100 to every 929, and Manitoba 100 to every 952. This supremacy has been maintained, not only as for the west, but also in comparison with the east. In 1924 B.C. had 100 telephones working to every 606 head of population, while in Ontario the figures were 100 to 647 people, and 100 to every 1613 of population in Prince Edward Island, which is the least talkative of all sections of Canada.

The Year's Shipping

Now that the last of the annual meetings of local fruit selling organizations have been held exact figures on the 1926 fruit crop are available, and when one recalls that about the time the serious after effects of the 1924 blizzard were discovered it was asserted that it would not be until 1927 that Creston Valley would come back, the jump from 43,383 boxes of apples in 1925 to a crop of 159,031 in 1926 is at least encouraging, particularly for 1927—if the observations of those in authority materalize.

For the benefit of those who store up these annual crop figures in the archives for future reference we give the total output of all the Valley points—Sirdar, Wynndel, Creston, Erickson and Canyon—for 1926, as follows:

	Boxes or Crates
Apples	159,031
Pears	6,432
Crabapples	4,207
Plums and Prunes	8 632
Cherries	4,019
Strawberries	24,407
Raspberries	8,030
Loganberries	264
Blackberries	203
Black Currants	666
Gooseberries	911
Red Currants	253
Tomatoes	5,540
Cucumbers	2,401

With the exception of pears and apples last year's crop compares more than favorably with the banner year of 1924 in which season the apple outgo was 220,000 and pears 6765 boxes.

According to reliable figures the fruit output of Creston Valley now accounts for more than one third of the output of all West Kootenay, and including Grand Forks, in all the tree fruits. This district ships more than two-thirds of all the strawberries from the Kootenay-Boundary, and fifty per cent. of the raspberries from the same territery.

Our Canyon City, Lister and Huscroft district readers will find consolation in a recent remark attributed to Hon. W. H. Sutherland, minister of public, works, in which he is reported to have said "one lumberjack or miner is worth half a dozen touriats; we are going to improve the provincial highways, and if tourists care to use them we will be only too glad to see them."

One of Canada's Assets

Every citizen is, or should be, interested in all things pertaining to the development and prosperity of Canada, whether he views it from a broad patriotic and national standpoint or the more selfish one of how his individual business and welfare is affected. Anything any citizen can do to advance national interests and progress is, therefore, to be expected of him.

It is generally recognized that it is in the interests of a country to develop its export trade to a point beyond the volume and value of its import trade; in other words, to create what is known as a favorable balance of trade. Export trade is made up of those articles produced or manufactured in Canada and sold in other countries; import trade consists of produce and goods of other countries brought into Canada and sold to its people. That is, Canada must send its money abroad to pay for imports, while on the other hand, foreign money is paid to us for goods we export. In practice, of course, exports really pay for our imports; hence the strength of developing exports in excess of imports.

There is, however, one exception to this general rule. Money itself when imported adds to the wealth of the country much the same as exports of produce and goods adds to it. And it is immaterial the form in which such money may come.

Of late years a new industry has developed on the North American continent, although it is an old industry in France, Switzerland, and some other lands. We refer to Tourist traffic, which has long been a source of great income to France and Switzerland. Tourist traffic has, with the advent of the automobile and the building of good roads, become one of the major industries of Canada, and, unlike most imports, the more tourists we can import the richer Canada is made. It follows that everything in reason should be done by Canadians to encourage an increase in such traffic.

Tourists come to Canada for a variety of reasons. They are glad to get away from the excessive heat of the south in summer; with the development of so many large cities in the United States those who can afford to do so are anxious to flee to the woods, to the lakes and river resorts; some come for the purpose of hunting and fishing; some with the idea of investigation of Canada's resources and possibilities and investment therein. All in their travels look for comfort, pleasure and beauty of surroundings.

The mountain scenery and winter sports of Switzerland are that country's drawing cards. Canada can offer just as fine mountain scenery as Switzerland, and an infinite variety of other natural beauty which the land of the Swiss lacks. Canada's national parks are without exception among the finest in the world.

But to get to the main point of this article. Tourists travelling our provincial and country highways, en route hither and thither, desire to follow the most attractive and beautiful roads. Bare, treeless levels do not attract, but winding trails and roads through little valleys and park-like country make a powerful appeal. It is in these districts, too, that a profusion of wild flowers flourish, making the whole countryside beautiful and a constant surprise and joy to the visitor.

But these wild flowers are in danger. People exclaim at the beauty of a certain patch and forthwith proceed to break off the blooms or even tear the plants up by the roots. In a few short hours they are withered and thrown away. Had they been left undisturbed they would have given pleasure to scores of passing tourists, adding to the attractiveness of the route along which they bloomed. Not only so, but they would have reappeared next year and by scattering seed far and wide would have greatly increased in number. The serious thing is that through destruction their beauty was lost, not for one season alone, but for all time, and the loveliness which marked a spot this year is bereft of its charm in future years.

The moral is: Stop this thoughtless picking of our prairie and forest wild flowers. Try to realize that these wild flowers mean not only beauty to our country but that they attract visitors and have an effect in adding to the material wealth and prosperity of the Canadian people.

To the troubadour of old, we are indebted for most of our knowledge of the customs and thought of Mediæval Europe. His songs, 2,500 of them, have been preserved. They deal with drama, romance and fable.

Destroy Machine-Carved Glass

Craftsmen Fear Machinery Will Ruin Hand Cutting Trade

Bohemia's famous glass-cutting industry is greatly agitated over the adoption of modern machinery to replace the proces of cutting by hand, which has been the source of livelihood of thousands of families.

Fearing ultimate destruction of their handicrafts, 1,000 trade glass cutters, representing an ancient guild of craftsmen, invaded a half dozen factories and summarily demolished large stocks of machine carved glassware. Intervention by the police failed to pacify the rioters and the disturbances are spreading through the glassware belt.

Production of a carload of machine-cut glassware requires less labor than a single hand cut vase, the revolting glass-cutters declare. They claim the foreign markets still demand hand-cut wares and announce their determination to halt further invasion by technical appliances calculated to destroy their profession.

Making Animals Feel at Home

Lions and tigers in Bronx Zoo will have an opportunity to become acquainted with scenes of their childhood. Painted backgrounds purporting to picture the plains of Africa and the jungles of India, are being installed in the outdoor cages. Similar backgrounds were installed in the reptile house several years ago.

MAKE CARE OF BABIES EASIER

Stomach disturbances and constipation are responsible for much of the peevishness of babies and young children. When the baby is cross or irritable the mother should not resort to so-called soothing mixtures to correct the trouble, for in the majority of cases these mixtures simply drug the child into an unnatural sleep. What is needed is a gentle laxative that will sweeten the stomach and regulate the bowels. Such a remedy is found in Baby's Own Tablets. They are easy to take and guaranteed to be entirely free from opiates and narcotics. Concerning them, Mrs. Jos. Tousaignant, Ste. Sophie, Que., writes:—"I would like all mothers to know that I feel there is no other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets. I always keep a box in the house and their prompt use never fails to restore my little ones to health." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"Moto-Balloon" New Invention

Observation Post Can Be Quickly Transformed Into Semi-Dirigible

A "moto-balloon," capable of remaining immobile in the air as an observation post, though unattached, or of being transformed into a semi-dirigible within a half hour was launched at Milan, Italy, recently. It was christened the "A-P," after its inventor, Colonel Averlo, and his assistant, Passone.

It consists of a special type of captive balloon with the body replaced by a metallic tubular apparatus equipped with a 400-horse power motor and containing room for a crew of several men. It is capable of flying four hours at a speed between 30 and 40 miles an hour at an altitude of 6,500 feet.

The largest refrigerating plant in the world recently was opened in Buenos Aires. It is capable of handling daily 5,000 sheep and 10,000 cattle.

Canadian Farmer Tells His Experience

"Les" Booth, widely known Ontario farmer, and a sick man for 20 years, suffered daily, only half alive. Now strong, robust, vigorous, credits new found health to Tanlac

Though popularly known as "Les," Mr. Booth's correct first name is George. His home is at 271 Perth St., Brockville. For the past three years he has enjoyed vigorous health but what he endured before then is best told in his own words. "For twenty years my arms, shoulders, back and hips, ached with rheumatism," said Mr. Booth. "Often I had to quit work entirely and I remember one bad spell that kept me in bed for six months.

"My case got to be so chronic that the help ran the farm. I was practically helpless. Even my wrists and hands would swell up so that I couldn't write my name. I dreaded bedtime, for I got no rest, but lay there in agony, waiting for morning. Nervous spells would seize me and I would tremble all over like a leaf. I couldn't get any benefit from my food and had to force myself to eat. My weight was far below normal.

"Three years ago I decided to give Tanlac a good trial, for nothing else had helped me. I could scarcely believe such results were possible as those Tanlac soon showed. The aching stopped, my appetite came back and I could eat heartily. My nights became more restful, too, and I slept soundly. I gained 16 pounds which I still retain, and I now work hard outdoors from 8 to 10 hours a day. I never have an ache. It's hardly believable! If folks want to know what Tanlac can do, tell them to write to Les Booth, or to come and see me. I'll tell 'em."

If your health is broken from overwork or neglect, profit from Mr. Booth's experience. Try Tanlac, nature's own body builder, made from roots, herbs and barks. Your druggist has it. Over 52 million bottles sold.

Farmers Appreciated Better Seed Cars

Attendance at 28 Manitoba Points Reached Total of 4,418

Final report on the work of the Manitoba Better Seed and Poultry Cars which were operated by the Manitoba Provincial Extension Department of Agriculture in conjunction with the Canadian National Railways, during February and March, shows that a total of 4,418 people visited the cars and attended the lectures at the 28 points visited.

These figures indicate an average attendance of 157 persons at each point, a satisfactory result in view of the fact that the Better Seed Cars were being operated for the first time and of the weather conditions which prevailed at some points. Of the total attendance 1,057 were children of Grade 8 and over.

In addition to lectures and a display of noxious weeds common to the districts in which the cars operated, practical demonstratioss in the cleaning of seed were given and farmers were provided with lists showing the screens which should be used to produce the best results. Live poultry were used in the poultry car which also had accommodation for lecturing purposes.

The staff consisted of George Black; R. Whiteman; F. B. Hutt, and at various times visits were paid by N. C. MacKay and H. E. Wood of the Extension Service Department and by officers of the Agricultural Department of the Canadian National Railways.

Canadian Alfalfa Seed

The superior quality of northern grown seed is nowhere more strikingly shown than in the success obtained with Canadian alfalfa seed. For a long time it was found difficult to grow alfalfa successfully in many parts of Canada, but the development of an ample supply of hardy strains of seed has, to a certain extent, solved the problem of winter-killisg and the Dominion's alfalfa crop increased from 238,000 acres in 1920 to 858,000 acres in 1926.

PAY TRIBUTE TO BRITAIN FOR AID GIVEN IN CHINA

Vancouver. — Mail advices from Shanghai give details of the testimonials sent the British Government by the non-British residents of the big Oriental city as a tribute to the prompt action of Britain in sending troops to protect the settlement.

The text of the vote of thanks was as follows:

"We, the undersigned, non-British residents of Shanghai, wish to express our appreciation to His British Majesty's Government for the prompt and adequate measures taken for the defense of Shanghai. Though we realize that, quite naturally, the despatch of troops was primarily for the defense of its own nationals, all foreigners residing here, of whatever nationality, have benefitted equally. If the British troops had not arrived when they did, we should now all be in an extremely uncomfortable and dangerous position, if we had not actually been forced to leave the place. It is certain that the women and children would have had to be evacuated, and the settlement would probably have shared the fate of Hankow and Kiukiang.

"The opinion is heard freely expressed on all sides that Great Britain, by the courageous stand she has taken in this crisis, has again given the lead to the whole civilized world."

"Amplifying the above, were the following expressions:

"The events of the last few days have brought home forcibly to all of us the immense value of the timely and adequate steps taken by the British Government for the protection of Shanghai. The mere fact of the arrival of the British forces has prevented an earlier outbreak of terrorism in the settlement itself.

"It has, for some time, been clear to most of us that but for the British troops we would not have been here today.

"Of whatever nationality or creed, we must admit that when others stood aloof, the British Government acted, in spite of all obstacles. We all know of the political struggles going on in nearly every country in the world today. We know that the British Government is daily harassed and criticized by forces at work to undermine and to destroy. These forces are at work everywhere, here and in our own respective countries.

"It is seldom that most of us out here find an opportunity of doing a good deed, but here is an excellent chance of adding our mite to a big cause; to silence, if but for a brief spell, the stupid braying of ignorance, cunningly employed by dangerous forces."

It is interesting to note that there were 2,350 signatures of members of 32 different nationalities.

FIX RAIL RATES THAT WILL HELP CANADIAN TRADE

Ottawa. — The order-in-council under which the Board of Railway Commissioners are conducting an inquiry into freight rates required the commission to fix just and reasonable rates that would encourage and develop Canadian trade.

However, A. Fraser, K.C., counsel for the Canadian National Railways, insisted this did not for a moment suggest that the present rates were unjust or unreasonable when they received the approval of the board.

Conditions were constantly changing, Mr. Fraser said, and what was fair and just at some period in the past might need adjusting now. This was what the board was now called upon to consider.

Some discussion arose between Deputy Chief Commissioner Vien and counsel as to exactly what were the limitations of the powers of the Governor-General in council to issue instructions to the board as to the lines upon which they should proceed in the adjustment of rates. It was agreed that the commissioners were the sole judges of what would be fair and just rates, subject to appeal to the Governor-General in council and His Excellency's powers of review were wide, almost to the degree of being arbitrary.

It wos further agreed that an order-in-council might be set forth giving certain principles for the guidance of the Railway Board, but if those principles could be shown to be in conflict with the provisions of the Railway Act the order-in-council would have to go.

Intends to Attempt Trans-Atlantic Flight

French War Ace Plans to Make Trip in September

New York.—Captain Rene Fonck, French war ace, has arrived from France. He expressed sorrow over the death of Lieut-Commander Noel Davis and Lieut. Stanton H. Wooster in Virginia, and announced that regardless of how many fliers might precede him across the Atlantic, he would attempt to fly from New York to Paris in September.

Captain Fonck said the 'plane he will use will be completed at College Point, L.I., in July and will be a duplicate of the biplane which was burned up with a loss of two lives when taking off last September.

Despite tragedies the backers of the Bellanca 'plane, which recently established a new world's endurance record, have announced they are practically ready to hop off for Paris.

This 'plane, in which Clarence D. Chamberlain and Bert Acosta stayed in the air almost 52 hours, is the most serious contender in the race.

The accident to the Davis machine has not slowed up preparations for its flight.

Now an Even Greater Car Scoring an even Greater Success

YOU know how General Motors all the resources of the original Pontiac were used to make ever introduced into Six the finest car the field of low-priced sixes. You know the wildfire success that resulted.

But do you know that the present day Pontiac—at its new low prices, is a new and finer six—an even greater car that is scoring an even greater success?

It offers the added appeal of new Fisher bodies—longer, lower, roomier and finished in new and striking combinations of enduring Duco.

It embodies important mechanical refinements—tilting-beam headlights with foot control, new transmission and brake levers, oil-tight universal joints and a clutch even smoother in action.

It provides in full measure those basic Pontiac qualities that took all America by storm—those qualities of stamina, economy and long life which were developed by over three years' testing on the great General Motors Proving Ground!

Small wonder that the tide of public preference is turning to the Pontiac Six—as never before to another six in the low-priced field! PF.2820
