The Misuse Of Gasoline

The number of tragedies reported in Western newspapers this fall as resulting from the careless use of gasoline and coal oil is simply appalling. Loss of life, terrible injuries to others, and destruction of valuable property is the toll which has been taken, and hardly a week passes that the total does not mount still higher.

The Fire Commissioner for Saskatchewan in a recent radio address stated that, on the average, twenty-five lives are lost annually from this cause alone. It is probable that the loss is just as great in the other western provinces.

In one small district in Saskatchewan three such disasters occurred within a few days of each other, resulting in four persons receiving severe burns, the complete destruction of one home, and damage to another. In another district two boys were burned, and in a third district a young lad was so severely burned that he died. All these accidents occurred at practically the same time.

Although gasoline may be sold in red tins or containers plainly marked as to their contents, the fact is that the gasoline is all too frequently emptied into other receptacles which are not marked, nor properly sealed. It is frequently mistaken for coal oil, and even for water.

Furthermore, many people forget, and an even larger number of children do not know, that the greatest danger from these liquids arise from their vapors. It is the vapor from gasoline mixing with the air which becomes a highly explosive article, and the lighting of a match, or an electric spark, means a fearful explosion. Even a can which has contained gasoline, but is emptied, may still retain a quantity of this vapor, and bringing such a vessel near a lighted lamp, a stove, or a lighted match may mean an explosion.

Gasoline and coal oil should not be used to light fires. To so use it is to invite disaster. Gasoline is now largely used in cleaning clothes, but everybody so using it should exercise the greatest care that there is no flame or fire of any kind near at hand. In fact, gasoline for cleansing purposes should only be used outdoors and away from all fire. If the weather is such that outdoors work is impossible, then do the work in a room in which there is no fire and which is lighted by natural daylight or an incandescent electric light. Never have a lighted lamp near. Clothes cleansed in any way with gasoline should be hung outdoors in the open air to dry and be left there until the last vestige of the gasoline fumes has disappeared.

When one stops to realize that it is the vapor from gasoline mixed with air and exploded by a tiny electric spark in our motor car engines that drives these cars along our streets and highways at high rates of speed they will gain some idea of the terrible power of this vapor and realize how great care should be taken in its use.

Possibilities Of the North

Says Hudson Bay Railway Will Open Up a Great Area

"In five to ten years the Hudson's Bay Railway will be amply justified in new towns established, power plants erected, the country utilized and the possibilities of Northern Canada developed," said James A. Green, retired iron magnate of Cincinnati, who was a visitor to Winnipeg recently.

It was the beginning of a new era, said the American visitor, which would revolutionize the whole life of the Dominion. The railway would open up a great area, of tremendous waterpower and enormous lakes with almost unlimited supply of fish of the finest quality.

It was as good a grass country as Texas, Mr. Green said, and there were thousands of square miles fit for cattle. He pointed to the future possibility of domesticating the caribou, as had already been done in Alaska, and so provide a meat supply "world without end."

Injured Woman Travels By 'Plane

Advised by her doctor to get to London as quickly as possible, a woman who had been injured at the winter sports in Switzerland, reached Paris by train, thence flew to London on an improvised cot on an airplane. She made her will before starting.

The visitor (to convict): What are you doing—sewing?

Hard Case: No, reaping.

Stores In Canada

Over Billion and a Half Of Capital Is Invested

There are 66,814 stores or shops in Canada in which merchandise is sold. The total capital investment of these establishments is $1,580,123,723, according to a recent compilation made by the Canadian Government Bureau of Statistics. The amount invested in retail stores is $914,990,830; in wholesale, $476,559,544; in stores doing both a retail and wholesale business, $188,573,349.

The total purchases of the stores were $2,321,078,297 in a single year, divided: Retail, $1,225,016,362; wholesale, $812,139,031; wholesale and retail, $283,922,904. The sales totalled: $3,030,663,185, divided: retail, $1,642,103,468; wholesale, $1,021,920,931; wholesale and retail, $366,638,786.

Many children die from the assaults of worms, and the first care of mothers should be to see that their infants are free from these pests. A vermifuge that can be depended on is Miller's Worm Powders. They will not only expel worms from the system, but act as a health-giving medicine and a remedy for many of the ailments that beset infants, enfeebling them and endangering their lives.

Land Waiting For the Plough

Millions Of Acres Of Unoccupied Lands In Western Canada

Canadian agriculture rests upon an unusually generous endowment of cultivatable lands. Of the 300,000,000 acres believed to be suitable for farming, only 60,000,000 acres are under cultivation. The 240,000,000 acres awaiting the plough are capable of sustaining many added millions of population. Despite the rapid advance of settlement in recent years there are at present in Western Canada 25,000,000 acres of unoccupied lands situated within 15 miles of the railways and available for purchase at prices ranging usually from $15 to $20 per acre.

Confidence is like a china plate; if broken it may be mended, but it invariably shows where the crack was.

Canada's Furniture Industry

B.C. Is Third and Manitoba Fourth In Number Of Factories

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics in their recent report on the furniture industry in Canada for 1924 and 1925 supply the following figures which cover the greater part of the furniture made in Canada. There are some woodworking factories, however, that do cabinet work as a sideline which are included under other classes of manufacture. Out of a total of 336 establishments, 208 were situated in Ontario, 65 in Quebec, 25 in British Columbia, 17 in Manitoba and the remainder scattered among the other five provinces.

Keeps Tab On Geese

Jack Miner Receives Many Tags From Birds Shot Up North

Regularly each year Jack Miner places metal tags on the legs of geese which sojourn in the Miner Bird Sanctuary on their migrations north and south. It is interesting to note how regular these birds are in their habit of returning year after year to the same place to rest. Jack Miner recently received 28 tags from George Cotter, of Fort George, Que., on James Bay. These tags were collected by Eskimos and were in number and date as follows: 3, 1922; 3, 1923; 1, 1924; 1, 1925; 15, 1926; and 5, 1927 (spring).

TRIALS OF INDIGESTION

Errors About This Trouble Into Which People Fall

Many people so far misunderstand the digestive system as to treat it like a machine; neglecting it until it works sluggishly, then irritating it into work again by the use of purgatives. The stomach needs help at all times, but a study of the process of digestion will show that purgatives, as commonly taken, are seldom necessary and often harmful.

To safeguard your digestion the diet must be controlled. Over-eating is always harmful, but one must assimilate enough food to supply the needs of the blood. Remember, the blood has to carry nourishment to all parts of the body and find fuel for its energy. Hence when the blood becomes weak and fails to do its work, indigestion arises. Therefore the sure remedy for indigestion is to build up the blood. If you suffer from any form of indigestion choose your diet carefully and take wholesome nourishment. Above all, start building up your blood by taking a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Then under the influence of the new blood supply, your digestive system will respond naturally, your appetite improve and your food will do you good. So begin to improve your digestion by starting to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now.

You can get these pills from your druggist or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Why Not Steel Houses

Offer Same Advantage Of Economy As Ocean Liners

If a Pullman car or an ocean liner can be constructed of steel, why not a house?

Steel cars and ships are waterproof-fireproof and comparatively free from depreciation. Costing more at the outset, they represent a saving in the end. Steel houses offer the same advantage of economy and safety.

The American Institute of Steel Construction which represents ninety per cent of the steel manufacturers in this country, has been hoping that some one would invent a steel house that was commercially practical.

Timing Speed Of Animals

Sportsmen along the Pacific coast have been using their stop watches on fish and wild beasts. A grizzly bear, pursued through a narrow canyon by an automobile, ran 45 miles an hour. The savage barracuda can swim as fast as 70 miles an hour. The seal, usually considered very speedy in the water, requires four minutes to swim a mile.

Minard's Liniment for Chilblains.

Minerals In Dead Sea

British Syndicate Secures Concession To Work Ancient Body Of Water For Mineral Contents

A concession for reclaiming the vast mineral resources of th eDead Sea, The London Sunday Times learns, has been awarded a British syndicate, and the American and continental tenders have been definitely rejected.

The syndicate which has secured the concession will be a subsidary company of the Imperial Chemical Industries, Ltd., a great chemical combine with a capital of $356,000,000, including the Brunner and Mond interests.

Expert examination, according to The Times, has shown that the Dead Sea is a practically inexhaustible source of potash and that its exploitation will probably be the making of Palestine.

Might Solve Problem

Empire Manager Agency Proposed In Old Country

The London Daily Chronicle, editorially, under the caption, "Matrimonial Agencies," says "as everyone knows, there are more women than men in this country, and in some of the Dominions there are more men than women. Here is a surplus of women, many of whom, it is whispered, want husbands, whilst men in the Dominions are eating their hearts out for lack of wives.

Sir George MacMunn, formerly Quartermaster-General in India, suggests a remedy. Why not an Empire matrimonial agency, conducted strictly on official lines, by the Council of Empire Settlement, with photographs and testimonials, previous experience not required. It seems an almost feasible plan."

Corns cripple the feet and make walking a torture, yet sure relief in the shape of Holloway's Corn Remover is within reach of all.

Resumes Career As Sailor

Prince George Takes Post On British Flagship Nelson

Our sea dogs of the British Navy stroked their whiskers in glee when Prince George resumed his active career as a sailor, for there has been reports that he might forsake the navy for the army.

The Prince, who ranks as a lieutenant, is now attached as French interpreter to the staff of Sir Hubert Brand, commander in chief of the Atlantic—a job which will pay him one shilling and six pence, or about 36 cents aday, in addition to his regular pay as an officer.

Prince George will be stationed aboard H.M.S. Nelson, Britain's newest flagship which became the fleet flagship on the anniversary of Nelson's historic victory over the Franco-Spanish fleet off Cape Trafalgar 122 years ago.

Just before starting for Portsmouth, the Prince witnessed a spectacular film fire which recalled his own experience in China on New Year's Eve, 1926, when he was attached to H.M.S. Hawkins, and with other members of the crew fought a Hong Kong fire, aiding guests to escape.

Trade depression in Chile is ascribed largely to new laws passed or planned.

Has Had Long Rest

Built by James Watt, in 1797, the "Sun and Planet" engine is in working order again after forty-two years' rest. The engine is now in the science museum at South Kensington, and was put in motion recently for the first time since 1885, when it was dismantled and moved to the museum.

An Oil For All Men.—The sailor, the soldier, the fisherman, the lumberman, the out-door laborer and all who are exposed to injury and the elements will find in Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil a true and faithful friend. To ease pain, relieve colds, dress wounds, subdue lumbago and overcome rheumatism, it is excellent. Therefore, it should have a place in all home medicines and be amongst those taken on a journey.

The first school in the Netherlands for civil aviation is being financed through the efforts of the Rotterdam Aero Club which has been assured that no competing school will be permitted.

An Oil That Is Prized Everywhere.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil was put upon the market without any flourish over fifty years ago. It was put up to meet the wants of a small section, but as soon as its merits became known it had a whole continent for a field, and it is now known and prized throughout this continent. There is nothing equal to it.

WOMEN ASK FOR FRANCHISE FOR QUEBEC PROVINCE

Ottawa.—"The Dominion Government has not the right to go beyond its jurisdiction and interfere with that jurisdiction which under our constitution has been given to Quebec or any other province."

So stated Premier W. L. Mackenzie King in reply to a deputation from the Canadian Alliance for Women's Votes in Quebec, who urged that the Dominion Government take some action toward granting the women of that province a vote in provincial elections.

"I am afraid," continued the Prime Minister, "that the Government of the province of Quebec might not appreciate any attempt by us to tell it what it should do."

This did not mean that the Dominion Government, he said, as not sympathetic to the request of the delegation; but it must be borne in mind that under the constitution of our country certain rights were given to the federal parliament while other rights were under the jurisdiction of the respective provincial governments. In federal elections, women could vote; but the Dominion Government could not proceed to interfere with the right of any of the provinces in respect to the question as to whether women should vote in provincial elections.

"I think you are in the wrong court," interjected Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice. The provinces were just as supreme within the particular ambit of their jurisdiction as the Federal Government was within the authority conferred upon it under the British North America Act.

Smallpox In Ottawa

Mild Epidemic Results In Order For Compulsory Vaccination in Schools

Ottawa. — Compulsory vaccination for all school children in Ottawa in the campaign to suppress the mild epidemic of smallpox in the city was ordered by the city board of health.

Four free vaccination bureaus will be opened immediately and no child will be permitted to attend school or other educational institution unless provided with a certificate of vaccination.

This is the first time in the history of Ottawa that such an order has been found necessary.

Since October 1 there have been 101 cases of smallpox reported in the city and suburbs, Dr. T. R. Lomer, city health officer, informed the board today. Hopewell Island Smallpox Hospital is filled to capacity with 34 cases, the largest number in the past ten years.

Tourist Trade In Canada

Amount Spent Last Year Is Estimated At $190,463,000

Ottawa.—The tourist trade in Canada over the past six years is the subject of a Bureau of Statistics survey which estimates the amount spent by visitors from other countries in the Dominion last year as $190,163,000.

Since 1926, when the estimated amount spent was $83,734,000, there has been a progressive increase each season. Tourists arriving by ocean ports spent about $5,300,000 while those arriving by automobile spent approximately $105,000,000 last year. More than 2,000,000 motor cars came through Canadian ports from the United States last year while 2,300,000 railroad tickets were purchased in the United States for Canadian ports.

Tourist hotel bills last season amounted to $25,000,000, of which the Western provinces got $5,000,000.

Would Frustrate Robbery

London.—Plans for a holdup of the clearing house for city banks were revealed today when it became known that following information received by the authorities an increased number of police officers and detectives have been stationed in the vicinity of the clearing house every morning for some time while clearings are being made.

Asking Parliament To Approve Trade Treaty

Canadian-Czecho-Slovakian Agreement Is Being Drawn Up

Ottawa.—Parliament will likely be asked at the coming session to ratify a trade agreement between Canada and Czecho-Slovakia Republic. Negotiations, it was learned, are now well under way for a trade treaty between the two countries on the basis of the mutual exchange of most favored nation treatment.

At present a provisional treaty only, for the regulation of trade relations, is in effect. This provisional arrangement, signed shortly before Christmas last, will expire next spring.

Under the terms of the provisional treaty now in force Canada extends to the products of the Czecho-Slovakia Republic the rates of the intermediate tariff. Czecho-Slovakia, in return, extends most favored treatment to a selected list of Canadian products, comprising in all 71 items of the Czecho-Slovakia customs tariff.

Proposed Flight Of Dirigible Abandoned

Visit Of Los Angeles To Canada Has Been Cancelled

Washington.—Lack of an adequate and experienced landing crew at Ottawa caused the navy department to abandon the proposed flight of the dirigible Los Angeles to Canada.

The dirigible, carrying Sir Philip Sassoon, British under secretary for air, and Assistant Secretaries Warner of the Navy, Davison of the War Department and McCracken of the Commerce Department, was to have made the trip across the international boundary for the first time to give Sir Philip an opportunity to inspect and observe the ship. He probably will be taken instead on a local flight from Lakehurst, N.J.

A crew of between 300 and 500 men is required to land the Los Angeles. This number would not be available at Ottawa during the time when the Los Angeles would have arrived, the navy said in calling off the flight.

Schwartzbard Acquitted

End Of Sensational Murder Trial In Paris

Paris.—At the end of the eighth day of one of the most remarkable trials ever conducted in Paris, Samuel Schwartzbard, young Jewish watchmaker, who assassinated General Simon Petlura, Ukrainian separatist leader, on a Paris street corner 15 months ago, was set free by the Court of Assizes.

Schwartzbard was acquitted on all criminal counts, but as condemned as is the custom of French courts—to pay nominal one-franc damages to the family of the victim.

The verdict was returned in 32 criminal counts, but was condemned as trembling voice, but smiling, announced the acquittal which was greeted with a howl of approval by the jammed court-room.

Most of the 800 spectators screamed and cheered, laughed and cried.

Carolist Movement Grows

Severe Censorship Has Been Established In Roumania

Vienna.—Reports from Belgrade say a severe censorship has been established at Bucharest on all news. Telephone communication between Belgrade and Bucharest has been cut off and only official telegrams are arriving at Belgrade from the Roumanian capital.

The Carolist movement, however, is known to be assuming a most serious character, and disappointment with the Government is declared to be increasing. Many of the Carol supporters have been arrested.

Another despatch says "violence has broken out in Bucharest."

Wheat Yield Record Broken

Lethbridge.—All wheat yields in a season of amazing returns went by the board when J. F. Cook, of Magrath, 24 miles South of this city, reported a return of 176 bushels on a piece of fallowed land measuring slightly over two acres. Mr. Cook vouches for the truth of the yield.

A cablegram was recently sent around the world in eight minutes.

Immigration Service Chief

J. Bruce Walker, chief of the Canadian immigration service in Europe, who declares Canada is seeking healthy and self-reliant settlers from Great Britain.

Predicts Race Around World

British and German Dirigible In Competition Says New York Writer

New York.—The New York Evening Post says a race around the world between the German and British dirigibles looms as the high point of interest in next summer's aerial dramas.

The paper quotes Howard Mingos, a writer interested in aviation, saying that two airships are under construction in England, each of 5,000,000 cubic feet capacity, to be used on a mail and passenger service between England, Egypt and India. Mingos said the Zeppelin Company in Germany is building its 127th ship which is to have a gas capacity of 3,500,000 cubic feet.

"I have just received word that the British and Germans will probably race their new ships on a flight around the world," Mingos continued. "Both ships should be completed early next summer. The world flight should require between 12 and 14 days with, say, two stops for fuel en route."

No Unemployment In Quebec

Quebec.—There is practically no unemployment in the province of Quebec, according to Louis Gupon, deputy minister of labor. "Never before has the province been through such an era of prosperity, judging by the demand for labor," he stated, commenting on conditions. In the district of Montreal conditions are very good and according to the report of the provincial employment bureau there, hundreds of men are finding work each week.

Inquires About Pension Plan

Yukon Taking Up Question With Minister Of Labor

Ottawa.—Percy Reid, gold commissioner for the Yukon, is in Ottawa to take up with the Minister of Labor, Hon. Peter Heenan, the question of applying the old age pension legislation to the Yukon.

Commenting on the visit of the gold commissioner, Mr. Heenan declared that, in conference with the premiers of the prairie provinces, he had been encouraged to believe that co-operation between them and the Federal Government in the matter of establishing old age pensions in their respective provinces would shortly produce practical results. The minister cited the example of British Columbia in refutation of the suggestions made that the scheme was unworkable.

"Whatever may be said against old age pensions and the fifty-fifty plan as between Federal and provincial contributions," he said, "the fact remains that the old people in British Columbia are now receiving their cheques, and that is highly important."

Entries From Royal Ranch

Prince Of Wales To Exhibit Stock At Royal Winter Fair

Toronto.—The Prince of Wales again will be represented in the showring at the Royal Winter Fair. A. P. W. Westervelt, manager of the fair, has just received an entry of six pure-bred horses from the "E.P." ranch owned by His Royal Highness at Pekisko, Alta. Two of the horses are Percherons — Princeton Carmon and Princton Donovan. Others include Major Summers, Somerset and Somerset Gaiety, all thoroughbreds.

Two years ago the Prince of Wales won the senior and grand championships in Shorthorn bulls with his famous white bull King of the Fairies.

Strike Still On

Some Coal Miners Are Working In Harvest Fields

Drumheller, Alta.—The situation in the Drumheller coal fields where a strike has been in progress for some days, remains unchanged from the first day. There has been no excitement of any kind. The operators are standing solidly against the miners and have refused to meet the men in joint session.

The strike has had one good feature—it relieved the shortage of labor in the threshing fields, many of the striking miners going out at $6 per day.

Approximately 1,000 miners in six mines went out on strike demanding recognition of the Canadian union.

GALLANT RESCUE OF PASSENGERS ON SINKING SHIP

Rio De Janeiro, Brazil.—The Italian liner Principessa Mafalda, which sailed from Genoa with nearly a thousand passengers aboard, more than 800 of them Italian emigrants bound for a "land of promise" in South America, lies at the bottom of the ocean off the Brazilian coast.

Rescuing vessels answering the call of the Mafalda's SOS are believed to have rescued all but some 68 out of a total of 998 passengers and a crew of 240.

The steamer sank 80 miles from Porto Segura, a port of the State of Bahia. Whether she struck a hidden reef or the hulk of a derelict, as one report has it, is not definitely known, but long before the liner disappeared beneath the waves a serious accident occurred aboard—some say a broken screw shaft, followed by an explosion of the boilers.

The story of the swift rescue of nearly 1,000 souls facing death by drowning is an epic of the sea fraught with elements of drama and heroism. Had not swiftly speeding steamers rushed to the rescue of the stricken ship the disaster might have become one of the greatest in marine history—a history written deep in the blood of thousands of lives lost at sea.

As the rescue ships hove into sight a cheer went up from the Mafalda's decks, then there was an explosion below and the Mafalda began sinking rapidly. This information was broadcast to the approaching rescue ships. The commander of the Formosa signalled to the other rescue ships that he would attempt to get close to Mafalda before she sank, hoping thereby to save everyone aboard. His task was extremely difficult because of the darkness, but his daring is hailed by the survivors as a great deed, inasmuch as his ship took a large number of passengers from the sinking Principessa's decks.

The others ships' crews labored valiantly, saving many from rafts and lifeboats.

The Mafalda was valued at 12,000,000 lire (about $670,00), and was insured, it is reported, for 8,700,000 lire. It carried freight worth about 2,000,000 lire, insured separately.

Protect Slavery Methods

Question Raised In Connection With Child Labor In Rhodesia

London.—Another outcry against slavery within the British Empire, the second within a week, has been raised in connection with legislation recently adopted in Southern Rhodesia which is said to authorize indenture of children to work in mines and the whipping of boys for disobedience.

The Westminster Gazette, which leads the campaign, points out that the legislation applies to children of any age, girls as well as boys, thereby raising grave sexual questions. The paper demands interference by the British Government. The Anti-Slavery Society also is appealing to parliament.

Western Prize Winners

Women Capture Several At Handicrafts Guild Exhibition

Montreal.—Western Canada was represented among the prize winners at the Canadian Handicrafts Guild Exhibition now being held here.

Among Western prize winners were: Pottery, special prize, Miss Doris Corday, Sunderland, B.C.

Prizes were awarded the following for general designing: Mrs. J. H. Stewart, Luseland, Sask.; Mrs. Button, Keeler, Sask.; Mrs. R. Wood, Grande Prairie, Alta., and Mrs. F. S. Ansely, Vancouver, B.C.

Wolves In Fort William Area

Fort William, Ont.—Lured south by abundance of wild game, packs of wolves are reported to have invaded the forest country west of Fort William, Indians and trappers of the Lake of the Woods district state that the marauders are fast depleting deer and other small game and in isolated instances have attacked trappers. The wolves, who are said to be of the Alaskan variety, have been seen in widely separated areas.

Donation None Too Large

EDITOR REVIEW:

SIR,—In connection with the recent tag day handled by the Women's Institute, the proceeds of which were evenly divided between the Queen Alexandra Solarium, the Crippled Children's hospital and the Children's Aid Society Home at Vancouver, there has been some adverse criticism of the action in giving assistance to the latter organization on the assumption that it is an out and out government institution and is not in need of charity.

That the Institute's gift of $20 was quite in order will be clear to all after reading the following report on the Society which has been supplied me by a former Creston resident, now at the coast, who has looked into the situation and who writes:

"The Children's Aid Society of Vancouver is incorporated under the "Infant Act" the business and object of the Society being: The protection of children from cruelty and caring for and protecting neglected, abandoned or orphaned children, and the enforcement by all lawful means of the laws relating thereto. The number of directors is 35, chosen from the citizens of Vancouver.

"The Society owns three homes surrounded by a few acres of land at 2613 Wall Street, Vancouver. One home, called the Magee Cottage, a fire proof building erected at the cost of $37,000.00, was a gift to the Society by Mr. Magee through his will. A three storey dwelling house is being converted into a receiving home, and the large home, a frame building, houses the great majority of the children, as many as 150, but the number is being gradually decreased. This building is a frame construction, is old, and of course as is the case with all frame buildings, subject to fire. A watchman is on guard all night. As far as I know the building has not been condemned by Dr. Underwood, the Health Officer of Vancouver, who is the responsible party in such cases.

"All this property belongs to the Children's Aid Society, Vancouver and is in no sense a Government institution, nor has the Government any control of the finances or the internal workings of the Society.

"The Government paid $3.00 per week for each child committed from an unorganized district to the Society up until 1st of April, 1927. Since the 1st of April, 1927, the government grant has been $4.00 per week for each child.

"Municipalities pay the Society for the maintenance of children committed to its care and private citizens have been very liberal with their donations in the past and considerable revenue is derived from tag days in the City of Vancouver."

As the Children's Aid Society has already taken care of at least two families of young children from Creston district it would look as though the donation of $20 was not only due the Society, but was far from being too generous.

Domestic Pacy

Things appear to be going from bad to worse at a rapid clip at Fernie. Some time ago Editor Wallace had occasion to set forth some calamity howling that was indulged in by members when the board of trade decided to approach the council for a generous but judicious expenditure to improve the downtown street lighting. But just listen to this from the last issue of the Free Press;

"We hate to admit it but the facts are before us and we have to concede that Fernie has for a citizen one of the meanest and most contemptible creatures that ever crawled on the face of God's footstool and we believe that 9 out of 10 people could name him. Not long ago a Fernie boy who was born and brought up here and whom everybody knows and likes, and who has worked with credit both to his employers and himself in this town for the past four years, had an opportunity to better himself by accepting a position in another town. He did so, his employers here recommending him and the citizens generally wishing him every success in his advancement. But at this stage enters the devil. An anonymous letter is received from Fernie by his new employers making a dastardly attack on the young man's moral character and saying everything possible to injure him in an effort to have him discharged. For pure hellish meaness can you beat it?

Penticton must be real prosperous. Still another jewelry store is opening for business in that town.

At Bonners Ferry winter apples are offered at 50 cents a sack when picked by the buyer. Delicious are $1.

The life-wish of two men who, for 65 years, had been inseparable friends, was fulfilled recently when they died within an hour of each other in Sydney, one at the age of 95 and the other at the age of 85.

The Farm Servants' Union and the Farmers' Union of Mid and West Lothian, Scotland, have just agreed to reduce wages of farm servants from $9.50 to $8.75 a week for men, and from $6.25 to $6 for women.

Ten "Moth" aeroplanes have been ordered from the De Haviland Corporation of England at a cost of $50,000 to the Canadian Government, according to announcement from the department of national defence. The light aeroplanes will be used for the encouragement of Ottawa flying clubs.

The steamer Larch, which went to Hudson Straits with the government expedition to establish aerial bases for the purpose of studying navigation problems there, returned to Halifax bringing the crew of workmen who had the task of erecting three aeroplane and exploration bases.

The St. Louis Post Despatch says a movement is on foot to make the first order of business when congress convenes in December the award of a congressional medal for valor to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh for his Paris flight and to provide him with pay of $4,000 a year for life as a retired army officer.

No Tampering With Exhibits

Management Of Chicago International Grain and Hay Show Take Preventive Measures

Following suggestions sent to them from various parts of the continent, the management of the Chicago International Grain and Hay Show have put into force a plan whereby any tampering with grain exhibits at the 1927 show will be practically impossible.

In a statement from the Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture it is noted that the ideas in this regard sent into the show management by M. P. Tullis, Sask., Field Crops Commissioner, have been followed out practically in their entirety.

Each state or province will send a duly credited representative according to the plan which has been put into operation, who will be responsible for entries from his section of the continent. The corn racks will be more tightly fitted this year, while locks will be provided for the grain racks.

The exhibits will be taken from their separate containers by the representative in charge of them when judging is being conducted.

British Airman Retires

Germans Put Price On His Head During War

Air Commodore Charles Rumney Samson, known familiarly in England as the "Captain Kettle of the air force," has retired. With his retirement there ends the most adventuresome career in the royal air force. He has purchased a house in Wiltshire, England, and will pass the remainder of his life in quiet contrast to his first 44 years. During the war, Commodore Samson was such a terror to the Germans that they put a price of $5,000 on his head, dead or alive.

Discover Ancient Tree

Cedar Stump In British Columbia Is Many Centuries Old

Through the co-operation of Mr. C. P. Riel, of the Seal Cove Lumber Company, Limited, Prince Rupert, B.C., and the Dominion Archaeologist of the National Museum of Canada the huge red cedar stump which stood on top of the kitchen midden on Ritchie Point, near Seal Cove, in the northern end of Prince Rupert, British Columbia, was in October of this year, cut across so that the rings of annual growth can be counted. A preliminary count shows 325 rings without including the heart rot or the closely crowded outer rings. A more complete count is yet to be made and an effort will be attempted to find a more complete section of the stump where the great number of rings known to exist may actually be seen, and counted. The Indian deposit is now known to certainly be over 325 years old, and to have reached its present height before 1500 it must be known to be older since the first and last rings of growth were too rotten to count on the section examined. Then, too, the heap must have taken time to form before the tree began to grow. How long ago the cedar fell is not known; probably nearly twenty years, and this must be added to arrive at the age of the heap.

The co-operation of the Lumber Company gives the Dominion Archaeologist the best opportunity for real exploration by excavation that he has had since 1914. It is thirteen years since he has had funds sufficient for profitable excavation.

Northern Manitoba Gold

American Mining Engineer Is Impressed With Possibilities Of the North

Northern Manitoba and the district which extends into it from Ontario promises to be one of the greatest gold fields in the world's history, C. F. Hermann, mining engineer, St. Louis, Missouri, stated on a visit to Winnipeg recently. Mr. Hermann spent a month investigating the Herb Lake area.

Herb Lake has a great future, the engineer thought, adding that the area across Canada's northern stretches would probably take the place of the Rand when that great African field was worked out. He had never seen gold so widely spread over a large area.

Too much money, he declared, had been spent on promotion and not enough in actually developing the ground. He strongly advocated the pick and shovel method of developing a mine.

"If the people who like to speculate in mining would spend some money in developing instead of buying properties, often sold by unscrupulous promoters, they would come out better in the long run," he said.

German economists say the prosperity peak of the country has been passed.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

NOVEMBER 6

AMOS PLEADS FOR JUSTICE

Golden Text: "Let justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream."—Amos 5.24.

Lesson: Amos, Chapters 5 and 7.

Devotional Reading: Proverbs 21. 1-7.

Explanations and Comments

I. A Lament Over Israel, verses 1-3.—"Hear ye this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house of Israel." A "lamentation" is a technical term applied to poetry of a mournful tone, a dirge such as was chanted over the dead, as in David's lamentation over Saul and Jonathan (2 Samuel 1.17), or in the face of any calamity, such as Ezekiel uttered in Ezekiel 19. This lamentation in Amos has "the proper form of elegiac poetry in Hebrew, being composed of poetical verses in each of which a long line is followed by a short one."

Amos has been called "the first Doomster of Israel." "The virgin of Israel is fallen," he cried, "she shall no more rise; she is cast down upon her land; there is none to raise her up." "The point of the figure, the virgin of Israel, is probably in that it represents Israel as free and untrammelled by the yoke of any foreign nation."—John Merlin Powis Smith.

So sure is the prophet of her fall that he speaks as if it were already accomplished, and her condition were hopeless. "'How is it possible,' said the people, 'that the virgin daughter of Israel can be fallen, when everybody is rich; or that the kingdom can be undermined, when the nation is prosperous? Is it not a nation's function to develop trade? Are not empires constructed for the purpose of increasing foreign commerce, and developing the home market? And now that trade with our great foreign markets and in our home market is at it's height, this prophet comes and tells us that Israel is fallen, she can rise no more!' His countrymen judged by externals; Amos judged by principles. Amos saw and understood causes; the people recognized only results. Amos saw injustice and iniquity practised and he reasoned thus: 'God is a God of justice. It is His will that justice should be done. Sooner or later God's will will be done, and our people must suffer. Although He Spoke many decades before the destruction of Samaria, the consequences, which He saw, came to pass. The virgin of Israel did fall, and she has risen no more."—Rabbi Levy.

His prophecy was fulfilled, Zechariah, the son and successor of Jeroboam II., was murdered after a reign of only six months; his successor, Shallum, reigned one month; Menahem, Pekahiah, Peka and Hoshea had brief reigns, and then, in 722 B.C., Samaria was conquered by Assyria, and the people carried off into exile.

"Wrongdoers escape punishment too often. Human justice, being human, is far from being perfect. And yet there are more persons who do not escape man's punishment than who do. It may be delayed, but it comes to them finally in one form or another. But suppose they do escape man's punishment; what of facing their own conscience, as David was forced to do? And if they escape that, what of facingtheir sins and weaknesses in their children? There is no escape. I know there often seems to be, but sometime, in some form we all have to face our sins."

Some Notable Yields

Sixty Bushels Of Wheat and One Hundred and Twenty Bushels Of Oats To the Acre

All crop records for the Longheed district were broken recently by Malcolm McKinnon, who threshed more than 3,000 bushels of wheat off a 50-acre field, which is 60 bushels to the acre. Mr. McKinnon has an average of 55 bushels to the acre from his entire crop.

On the farm of J. A. Munroe at Alsask, Saskatchewan, wheat on summer fallow yielded 60 bushels to the acre and graded No. 1 Northern. Wheat from fall and spring ploughing yielded 35 bushels and graded No. 1; oats 120 bushels to the acre.

This is a condition (or disease) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a breakdown, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. # PAINTED FIRES

BY NELLIE L. McCLUNG

It was in Feburary that Mrs. St. John decided to take immediate action. Helmi would be free in March. It would be intolerable to have the girl under her feet all the time, with the uncomfortable feeling that she might upset everything. Helmi had a terrible temper. Mrs. Wymuth's stories of Helmi's outbreaks had been elaborately embroidered; indeed, the stories of Helmi in the Wymuth edition were positively exciting. And, true to type, Mrs. St. John began to find reasons for her desire to get rid of Helmi that had in them no selfish taint. It was better for the girl to go to a fresh place, new scenes, new resolves—the land of beginning again.

By the time she had resolved the idea in her mind a week, Mrs. St. John felt it was truly Big Sister impulse which prompted her to help Helmi to escape; the only disconcerting feature of it being that she could not tell anyone—which cheated her of the praise which was her due. But a calm sense of virtuous and heroic resolve permeated the region of her heart. She would do the noble thing, and she only hoped Helmi would be grateful. She would do it handsomely, too, and would give the girl an outfit of clothes that would surprise her. That tan suit which never fitted her properly—darn these home dressmakers! Her plaid motor coat — leather ones were newer anyway, and she really should have one to match the new car—and then a plain black travelling dress, severe as a nun's, black, straight and plain with stiff collar and cuffs.

She thought of everything, and prepared a perfect flight for Helmi. She took her for a drive and explained it all, overcoming Helmi's objections by telling her that she was to be kept another year. The plan was this: She would bring the "Merit Class" to see a picture at the "Grand." She had done this, so it would excite no suspicion. When they were all seated and the picture was absorbing everyone she would whisper to the girl next to her that she had suddenly remembered that she must meet a friend at the afternoon train. Helmi would come with her. Her story after that would be that she left Helmi sitting in the car while she went to greet her friend who was passing through. When she came back Helmi was gone. She thought, of course, Helmi had grown tired of waiting and had gone back to the theatre, and when she went back in the darkness she did not notice her absence, believing she had found a seat in some other part of the building, she having arranged with the door-keeper for their return when they went out.

The play was over and they were getting into the car when they missed Helmi. Mrs. St. John ran into the drugstore and phoned to the Home. Was Helmi there? No, she asn't. Then she told her story, rather breathless and incoherent in her excitement. Mrs. Wymuth at once suspected flight, and notified the police. Helmi could not be out of the city, for she had no money. Mrs. Wymuth expressed the belief that she had returned to her haunts but a diligent search of the Chinese section of the city failed to find her.

It was two hours later that the conductor on Number Four walked through the train with a telegram in his hand:

"Finnish girl has escaped from Friendly Home, wearing gray coat green tam, plaid dress, laced boots. Send her back on Number Seven."

Signed, "F. Brooks,
Chief of Police."

Conductor Bryce walked slowly through the train, furtively appraising his passengers. A woman with two children, a deaconess, an old lady reading "The Christian Guardian," two young girls whom he knew.

Conductor Bryce shook his head. Then he went through the Pullmans and spoke to the porters, giving them the wire to read. They also were puzzled.

"Only one flapper got on, Sir, at Winnipeg, all the rest were older women—you know, stoutish,—with suits and veils and black bags. The flapper is some swell—shiny black valise, heavy like stones—she's no Finn girl running away. She's in the stateroom, Sir, No. A.

Nevertheless the conductor hurried to the stateroom and knocked. The door was opened by a rather languid looking young girl, in a plain black silk dress, with white collar and cuffs. In her hand she held a Blue and Gold Book. She raised her eyebrows in polite and rather haughty interrogation.

"Oh, I beg your pardon, I just wanted to see if the drawing room was occupied," said the conductor, "Will you show me your railway ticket, please. The porter will get the other one."

From a shiny new patent-leather purse which lay carelessly on the seat she drew a long ticket, which she handed to him without haste.

"You will go right through to Bannerman," he said, handing it back to her.

The girl bowed her head and resumed her reading.

The conductor went back to the porter. "Why didn't you tell me, you blockhead?" he said, "That girl is a swell. Can't you tell a thoroughbred when you see one? She had already shown her ticket to the other conductor. I felt foolish."

"Didn't I say she as a swell—didn't I? I said she wa'nt no Finn girl clearin' out,—didn't I say that—I'll bet I did, and I'll bet you heard me, too. I'll bet I did say it. Didn't I say she had a big valise and heavy—I'll bet I did."

"Shut up," was the conductor's reply.

The lady in "A" was no longer languid. She was regarding her new wardrobe with great interest and satisfaction. On a holder hung a handsome tan suit with silk embroidery; on another a motor coat. Numerous blouses and other articles lay on the seat beside her. In her black purse were four ten-dollar bills, and in her heart was a great joy. A song came to her lips:—

"Keep on sowing when you've missed the crops,
Keep on dancing when the fiddle stops,
Keep on faithful till the curtain drops,
And you'll get there in the morning!"

And so journeyed Helmi once more into the unknown—young, strong and unafraid!

CHAPTER XI.

The hurried change of clothing in the motor-car, the jumble of directions, and the excitement of her departure left Helmi breathless, but the quiet seclusion and security of the drawing-room soon restored her. She was here, the train was moving, as far removed as clothes could be from what she had been wearing in style, color and texture. Her plaid dress, tam-o'-shanter, thick gray coat and coarse shoes were all safely in a valise in the back of Mrs. St. John's car and would within the next twenty minutes be smouldering in her furnace.

Helmi was dressed in a black silk, severely plain dress with a real lace collar primly held in place with an oxidized silver bar, a close hat of brilliant sweet-pea shades, under which her golden hair showed becomingly. Her coat was of dark, blue cloth of raglan cut with leather trimmings, her shoes the pointed style so popular that summer. Mrs. St. John had eased her conscience by supplying Helmi with delightful accessories of travel, a handsome black suit-case fitted with ivory toilet articles, two of the latest magazines, a new novel, a box of chocolates, even a bunch of violets and a half-embroidered doily.

A wiser woman would not have supplied such expensive things for a girl who had to seek some employment in some other woman's kitchen, but Mrs. St. John had simply provided Helmi with the sort of things she would have liked herself had she been in Helmi's place. Besides, she had felt rather repentant for the stingy little Christmas present, the white and silver shop worn book, which she had given to Helmi, and it was her desire to make amends now by showing Helmi how lavish she could be.

Leads In Beam Wireless

System Has Been Brought To Perfection In Britain

Britain's perfection of the beam wireless system is one of the outstanding proofs that she leads the world in radio and telegraphic communication," declared John McMillan, general manager of the Canadian Pacific Telegraphs, Montreal, who was in Vancouver on a tour of the Western lines.

"That marvelous station at Rugby has been working to Montreal perfectly for almost a year as well as working to South Africa, Australia, and India," he continued. "The importance of this station is shown by the fact that it can communicate with any part of the empire or any separate Dominion at the same time.

Forced To Abandon Help For Russians

Soviets Withdraw Concessions and Famous Explorer Loses Heavily

Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, famous explorer and humanitarian, has been weaned from his early sympathy with the Soviets by the treatment which he recently received at their hands. Dr. Nansen who was appointed High Commissioner to Russia by the League of Nations, devoted his Nobel Prize award of 120,000 Swedish crowns, with $100,000 he had collected, to efforts to improve the condition of the Russian peasants.

With the object of teaching them modern farming methods, he obtained from the Soviet governments in the Dnieper and Saratof regions concessions of land, upon which he founded model farms, with the latest equipment in machinery and tools. The Nansen stations soon began to pay their way, but the peasantry instead of regarding them as useful object lessons, saw in them a scheme to deprive them of their own lands.

When Dr. Nansen began to exploit a sandpit on his property on the Dnieper the local authorities inflicted such a heavy fine for not asking previous permission to work the pit that he was obliged to cease work on his farms temporarily to come to some arrangement. The Soviet authorities took the suspension as an excuse for withdrawing the concessions, and Dr. Nansen lost not only his money but several years of hard work, as well.

Japanese Earns Title Of "Swiftest Girl Alive"

The fleetest girl in the world hails from Japan. Miss Fumiko Terao exchanged her kimono for running shorts, and earned her right to the title of "swiftest girl alive" when she won the 100 meters sprint in the All-Japanese Sports Carnival held recently near Tokio.

Her time is 10 4-5 seconds. Charlie Paddock's time for that distance is only two-fifths of a second faster, and Paddock is called "the fastest human."

Fumiko has beaten all men runners of her own country and all the best women runners in the world.

Asked to give a sentence with the word "cauterize" in it, a youngster wrote: "I knew ma was angry as ssoon as I cauterize."

"I was trying to reach a fourleaved clover!"—Polo Mole, Paris.

Don't dose a Child's Cold

CONTINUAL dosing upsets children's delicate stomachs.

Vicks is applied externally and therefore cannot disturb the digestion. It acts in two ways:

(1) The body heat releases the ingredients in the form of vapors which are inhaled.

(2) At the same time Vicks "draws out" the soreness like a poultice.

Little Helps For This Week

Strait is the gate and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life. — Matthew vii. 14.

This world is but the rugged road
Which leads us to the bright abode
Of peace above;
So let us choose the narrow way
Which leads no traveller astray
From realms of love.
—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

I see not but that my road to heaven lieth through this very valley.
—John Bunyan.

The denial of self leads to the narrow way.

Man Making Strange Tour

Walking On His Hands From Dublin To Belfast

Claiming to be a Canadian and an ex-soldier, a man recently passed through Dundalk, Ireland, walking on his hands. He had come from Dublin and said he intended to proceed to Belfast on his digit-and-finger hike. His hands were encased in sandals, and he had with him a goat harnessed to a little four-wheeled cart, which contained a camping a camping outfit and cooking utensils. He aroused so much interest in Dundalk, that the Civic Guards had to be called out to regulate the traffic for more than two miles along the Newry Road.

The BABY

Why do so many, many babies of today escape all the little fretful spells and infantile ailments that used to worry mothers through the day, and keep them up half the night?

If you don't know the answer, you haven't discovered pure, harmless Castoria. It is sweet to the taste, and sweet in the little stomach. And its gentle influence seems felt all through the tiny system. Not even a distasteful dose of castor oil does so much good.

Fletcher's Castoria is purely vegetable, so you may give it freely, at first sign of colic; or constipation; or diarrhea. Or those many times when you just don't know what is the matter. For real sickness, call the doctor, always. At other times, a few drops of Fletcher's Castoria.

The doctor often tells you to do just that; and always says Fletcher's. Other preparations may be just as pure, just as free from dangerous drugs, but why experiment? Besides, the book on care and feeding of babies that comes with Fletcher's Castoria is worth its weight in gold!
