More Gravelling Promised

On his return from a successful trip to Victoria, during which he took up with the new government a number of matters of importance to his constituency, Col. Fred Lister, M.P.P., was in Nelson yesterday.

The government promised to complete this fall the graveling of the road between Canyon and Camp Lister. The road is graveled for two and a half miles and two miles remain to be completed.

Favorable consideration was promised of the Arrow creek irrigation project. At a cost of $100,000 this irrigation plan would benefit the whole of the Erickson and East Creston agricultural area. Growers have subscribed about $25,000 and the proposal is that the government should guarantee the balance, under the statute providing for government assistance to irrigation projects.

Seeking some plan for filling up the empty houses at Camp Lister and bringing that area into production, Col. Lister urged the government to take action to provide water supply which is essential. Wells may be dug or a domestic system from the south fork of Burton creek may be installed, at an estimated cost of $40,000.—Nelson News.

FOR SALE—Honey, 16 cents a pound, bring your own containers. Mrs. F. Bunt, (former Gobbett Ranch) Creston.

Prize List Additions

Class 4, Section 109b—50 S.C. Rhode Island Red baby chicks, value $15, for best utility pen Rhode Island Reds.

Class 15, Section 249—Best embroidered cushion, $1.50 and $1.

Class 15, Section 250—Best embroidered library scarf, $1.50 and $1.

These prizes are donated by Donald Bradley and Presbyterian Ladies' Aid respectively.

One Box Fruit From Each Ranch

With preparations for the tenth annual fall fair under way the time is perhaps opportune to place before your readers some information concerning the coming fair and to solicit through your columns a greater degree of support, particularly from the farmers, than we have hitherto been accorded.

The prize list has been fully revised by the directors and while no notable changes have been made it covers almost every line of endeavour in the Valley. Some criticism has been made in the past concerning the amount of prizes offered. It is true that individually they are not large, from a monetary point of view, but collectively they amount to considerable, something over $500 being required each year for this item alone, in addition to the special prizes and cups donated. Up until the present the donations, gate receipts and membership fees have only been sufficient to meet our annual obligations and unless other means are found of raising funds no increase in the general scale of prizes is possible. In all classes, with the exception of fruits and vegetables, the fair has received encouraging and generous support, sufficient to justify its continuation. In the two classes referred to the support accorded us has been disappointing and it is generally agreed that the exhibit of fruits and vegetables during the past four or five years can hardly be regarded as satisfactory or worthy of a Valley producing the quality, quantity and variety of fruit that we do. I realize that just at this season of the year all fruit growers are busy harvesting and marketing their crops and that time is not always available for preparing fruit for exhibition purposes. I would, however, respectfully impress on each and every one the importance of entering at least one box of fruit and if the directors could rely on this being done, then we could guarantee an exhibition second to none in British Columbia

The main feature in outside attractions will be the school sports. Under a strong committee consisting of Messrs. Murrell and Forbes special attention is being given to this end of the programme. In addition to the cup which will be competed for by all the Valley schools a large sum has been appropriated for prizes. With the memory of the splendid achievements won by the Canadian team at the Olympic games still ringing in our ears a huge turnout is expected to witness this end of the programme. It is only from such modest beginnings that future contenders for the Olympic games can be selected.

Other attractions are being provided to occupy the attention of both young and old. In the evening the Legion are holding a dance for which the best of music is being provided. The profits from this source are being donated by the Legion to the Fall Fair and the directors wish to take this opportunity of conveying to all members of the Legion their appreciation of the splendid spirit displayed. —Com.

Lister

D. J. McKee returned at the end of the week from Kimberley. As yet the big construction programme at the concentrator is not fully under way and there is no unusual demand for labor.

Jack Duncan is again a temporary resident at Wynndel, where he is in charge of the cooking at the Winlaw boarding house.

Miss Annie Yerbury, who is on the C.M. & S. staff at Kimberley, is spending the week at her home here.

Huscroft-Lister Farmers' Institute are meeting this week to make final arrangements for their display at the Creston fair.

Lister had its first killing frost on Saturday morning, when garden stuff was rather badly hit, particularly the low spots.

Bill and Harry Demchuk and Fred Tedford are back again from Alberta where they went about three weeks ago to help with the harvest. They were in the Nanton section and state there is no shortage of help and that wages are none too good.

Lister Trading & Supply Company are this week unloading another carlot shipment of the well known Ogilvie flour and mill feeds. They also took delivery of a considerable shipment last month.

Word has just reached here of the marriage at Picture Butte, Alberta, on August 20th, of Miss Hazel Cannady and Martin Byrne, the latter a former resident here when his parents were on the old Lyon ranch. For the present they are to reside at Picture Butte.

Eighteen scholars were in evidence at the Sunday school on Sunday morning, with Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Milliner taking charge of the work

Col. Fred Lister has been a visitor at Victoria the past week, and according to press despatches one of the matters he discussed with the cabinet was the inauguration of a vigorous selling campaign to get buyers for at least the forty places on which the houses are vacant at present.

Erickson

Mrs. Hindman of Portland, Ore, has just arrived on a holiday visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Craigie.

Jas. Hobden of Minden, Ontario, is a visitor here at present with his sister and brother, Mrs. McKelvey and Geo. Hobden.

The Wealthy apple pick is about completed in this section, and early next week will see the McIntosh coming in to the packing sheds.

Miss Jean Craigie has returned from quite an extended visit with relatives at Portland, Oregon.

With some White Leghorn pullets that commenced laying at the age of four months and ten days, Mrs. Angus Cameron not only beats the showing made by the Smith pullets at Lister, but the Erickson pullets appear to have established a record for the whole of the Kootenays, at least.

Kitchener

Kitchener school re-opened Tuesday with Miss Ford of Kelowna in charge and a good turnout of scholars. Miss Ford comes with splendid recommendations.

Kitchener has three representatives at Creston high school this term in Clara Hunt, Claude Simpson and Wesley Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy and daughter of Cranbrook were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. Johnson a few days this week.

Miss Mildred Andeen has returned to Cranbrook where she is again attending high school.

A number from Kitchener were at Creston for the Rod and Gun Club dance at Creston. Among them were Mrs. C. Anderson, Miss Beatrice Molander and L. Anderson, M. Senesael, A. Ellis, H. Redmile and C. Foisy.

Mr. and Mrs. Molander and family were Moyie visitors on Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson have left for the prairie, combining business with pleasure.

The Impatient West

Twenty-five years ago the population of the three prairie provinces was considerably less than one million people; today it is well over two million people. Nevertheless Western people talk of the slow growth in population, and are severely critical of the Government at Ottawa, irrespective of its political complexion, and the immigration policies which have prevailed.

Twenty-five years ago Manitoba was largely an undeveloped province, while the Provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta were yet to be born, this vast territory being known as the North-West Territories, lacking a fully autonomous form of government, and without many of the institutions, services and conveniences enjoyed by the people in other parts of the Dominion. Today these three provinces are as well organized, as up-to-date, as well served in most respects and better in some, than the older provinces.

Twenty-five years ago, with the exception of the main line of the C.P.R. and a few north and south branch lines, this western country lacked railway facilities. Today the whole country is criss-crossed by numerous main lines east and west, and by branches radiating out in all directions, while hundreds of additional miles of branch lines are being constructed every year. In this short space of time, Saskatchewan, the central of the three provinces, has out-distanced every province except Ontario in railway mileage.

During these twenty-five years the production of the West has doubled and trebled and re-trebled; hamlets have become villages, villages have grown into towns, towns have developed into modern cities; municipal systems have been created which compare favorably with those of older lands; courts of justice have been organized; thousands of schools have been erected, high schools, collegiate institutes and universities established; great elevator systems have been created; the telephone has been carried into the most humble rural home.

The old ox-cart, the wagon, the buggy, has given way to the automobile; the single furrow plough and yoke of oxen has been superseded to a large extent by the tractor and gang plough; the winding trails leading across the prairie, up hill, down dale, and through the valleys to the far distant little railway station, calling for days and nights on the road to market a load of grain, have been converted into well built earth roads, graded to a standard, with bridges and culverts eliminating the old mudholes. Tens of thousands of miles of these good market roads have been built in the last ten or fifteen years, and millions of dollars thereby saved to the people of these provinces.

But are the people satisfied? Not a bit of it. When the well designed, properly graded and constructed road, with good drainage, bridges and culverts replaced the old rutted trail and ungraded road, the people were enthusiastic and more than satisfied. But the best of earth roads makes hard going after days of rain, and roads which were regarded as eminently satisfactory even three short years ago, are now roundly criticized and condemned because they are not all-weather roads.

The West is impatient. In many respects it is an excellent quality. The West is not and never will be content with less than the best. And what it wants, it wants immediately. It is impatient at delay. Take this matter of roads. If other provinces, states and countries can have gravelled roads and paved roads, why can't the West have them? Well, the West can have them if the people of the West are prepared to pay the price. But Ontario and Quebec, and the States to the south, and the countries of Europe did not enjoy hard-surfaced highways when they were only twenty-five years old, and when their populations were small, and their accumulated wealth not great. These things came to them gradually. But the West is impatient. We are living in an age of rapid improvement, and the West must have everything others have irrespective of its numbers or wealth.

It is not sufficient that in twenty-five years the West has created great provinces out of virgin territory, and supplied its people in that short space of time with institutions, public services, and conveniences which other and older, and wealthier lands took hundreds of years to provide. Thus it is that in Alberta the U.F.A. Government, under Premier Brownlee, the Liberal Government, under Premier Gardiner, in Saskatchewan, and the Bracken Farmers' Government, in Manitoba, are all under fire because they have not gravelled or paved many thousands of miles of roads, although in order to do so the public debts of these provinces would have been enormously increased and the taxes imposed made much heavier.

And no sooner are roads gravelled than a new demand is made. In Manitoba complaint is now made that these gravelled roads are too dusty, and the Government of that Province is called upon to remedy this condition. In Saskatchewan, a proposal is calmly made that there should be paved roads provided, running from the United States boundary through the province to the northern edge of settlement, and that at least two other paved roads should be constructed hight across the province from east to west,—a good thousand miles of paved highway at a cost of many millions of dollars.

And along with the demand for more roads, better roads, gravelled roads, oiled roads, paved roads, is coupled the demand for reduced license fees for automobiles, and the rebatement to municipalities of a goodly portion of the money now collected; in a word, for reduced taxation on the people. It is a peculiar situation. All Governments being urged to spend millions more and to collect very much less.

Yes, the West is impatient, and, at times, apt to be a bit inconsistent, too.

A new type of wheel having two tires, one within the other, and said to be adaptable either to motor or trolley cars was exhibited recently. The outer tire is of solid rubber, the other, inside it, is of pneumatic and is incased in a steel frame next to the hub. This arrangement is said to take the strain from the outer tire while the inner one acts as a shock absorber. Punctures are also eliminated.

Decrease In Fish Catch

Production In Canada During July Less Than Last July

A decrease in the total catch of sea fish on both Canadian coasts was recorded during July last as compared with July, 1927. In July last, the total catch amounted to 87,072,800 pounds, valued at $2,712,332, as against 87,451,900 pounds valued at $3,166,634 during July, 1927.

On the Pacific coast, the catch of halibut during the month under review was 3,608,200 pounds; while the catch of the preceding year was 3,712,400 pounds.

COMPLETELY RUN DOWN

Symptoms That the Blood Is Thin Should Not Be Neglected

Weak, run-down, lacking strength, energy and ambition, nervous, sleepless, poor appetite, digestion disturbed—these are the symptoms named by a great majority of people who have been benefitted by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These tonic pills correct the condition described and if you have any of these symptoms you should give these pills a trial. Their great value in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mrs. James A. Tibbetts, Halifax, N.S., who says:—"I was completely run down in health. My blood was thin and watery, and my nerves so bad that I did not sleep well at night. My appetite was poor and the least exertion left me weak and trembling. When I went out I would have a severe headache, and would have to lie down as soon as I got in the house. A friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I soon found they were helping me and by the time I had taken the sixth box I felt like a new woman, and have enjoyed good health ever since. For this reason I can highly recommend the pills to anyone run-down or troubled with their nerves."

Not only do Dr. Williams' Pink Pills help the nerves. Their main function is to enrich and increase the blood, and as the blood supplies the whole body, new life is given to the entire system. Better sleep, steady nerves, improved appetite, increased vigor—all these can be yours by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Begin them today. Sold by all medicine dealers, or by mail post paid, at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

It immediately relieves the restricted air passages as thousands can testify. It is sold by dealers everywhere.

Building Model Farms In Reclaimed Areas

Government Schemes To Stimulate Land Sales In Sumas, B.C.

To stimulate the sale of British Columbia Government land in the Sumas reclamation area, Provincial officials are about to establish there three model farms, with buildings and complete equipment, to be sold as going concerns. The proposal, as outlined by Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, is that three complete farm units shall be created on choice Sumas land at Government expense. In every way they will be models of modern agricultural methods, with houses, barns and machinery. It is believed they will be sold without difficulty, but the main purpose is to attract farmers to the district and to encourage the establishment of first-class farms of similar character there.

Defective Vision In Children

Willie can now have a new alibi when he fails to pass his school examinations. According to W. A. Blocker, chairman of the convention committee for the Guild of Prescription Opticians of America, eyestrain and defective vision is retarding 2,100,000 school children in their studies.

Travelling By Airway

2,000 Passengers Fly Across English Channel nI Five Weeks

Statistics just published show that Britain is rapidly becoming airminded. Every week for the last five weeks more than 2,000 people have taken the once perilous air journey across the English Channel. This is an increase of more than 500 over the highest figure for last year.

During the busiest air week last year less than 1,500 people took advantage of the quick service from London to Paris. London now has air trips to 73 European cities. There are nine scheduled services each day to Paris, the first at 6 a.m. and the last at 4.30 in the afternoon.

More than 50 per cent. of the cross-channel passengers are women and they have included the extremes in age, babies travelling from time to time as well as the septuagenarian, octogenarian and once a man of 90.

RECORD CROP IS BEING GARNERED IN THE WEST

Winnipeg.—The rush to move what is estimated as the largest wheat crop in the history of the Canadian West is on in earnest with many thousands of bushels of grain being marketed daily. The rush is earlier than ever before, railway officials said.

With threshing reported general all over the West, cutting completed in Manitoba, and more rolling stock and general equipment massed at strategic points on the prairies than ever before, indications are that the whole operation of taking off the crop and marketing it will be completed in record time.

Cutting is reported as practically completed in Saskatchewan and well advanced in Alberta. Interior elevators are swept clean and ready for the pouring-in of the new grain. Stocks in the lake head terminals have been reduced to 4,531,000 bushels.

Reports of wheat yields are favorable on the whole and at most points the grading is high.

British Government Might Buy Wheat From Pool If Ramsay MacDonald Becomes Premier

Winnipeg.—If Rt. Hon. J. Ramsay MacDonald again becomes premier of Great Britain, his government may buy its wheat requirements from the wheat pool.

Mr. MacDonald on arrival in Winnipeg had lunch with representatives of the pool. It is understood he discussed the question, in which he has shown a lively interest. He is anxious to know at first hand the prospects of such a step eventually being taken.

The question of direct relations between the British Government and Canadian co-operative marketing agencies has been increasingly discussed in recent years. It is favored by many as an important step in Empire relations, but on the other hand is looked at askance in some quarters as savoring too much of socialism.

Famous Watch Maker Dead

Robert Ingersoll, Originator Of the Dollar Watch, Passes Away At Denver Sanatarium

Denver, Colo.—Robert H. Ingersoll, watch manufacturer and originator of the well-known dollar watch, died here at a sanatarium where he had been a patient since June 17.

Mr. Ingersoll was 69 years old and was born on a mortgaged farm in Michigan. Ingersoll and his brother Charles, capitalized Ingersoll's idea that watches could be made cheaply. The firm of Robert M. Ingersoll and Brother manufactured and sold more than 70,000,000 dollar watches.

Industrial Disputes

Ottawa.—Time lost in industrial disputes in July, 1928, was slightly less than during June, 1928, but almost double that during July, 1927. Eighteen disputes were in existence at some time or other during the month, involving 2,449 work-people and resulting in a loss of working time of 23,793 days.

ENTRANTS FAIL TO FINISH COURSE IN WRIGLEY SWIM

Lake Shore, Toronto.—Lake Ontario was victor in the third Wrigley's marathon swim. Its chilly waters saw the defeat of some of the world's most famous swimmers and none of the 199 starters had sufficient stamina to finish the 15-mile struggle.

Georges Michel, French conqueror of the English Channel, who last year finished second in the 21-mile marathon, was taken from the water at 10:12 p.m., after completing 12¼ miles of the course in 11 hours, 12 minutes.

He had been the sole survivor since 6:42 p.m. when Ernest Vierkoetter, of Germany, the 1927 champion and Louis I. Mathias, of Long Island, N.Y., had fallen victims to the cold.

Vierkoetter was forced out after leading most of the way and completing two-thirds of the course. Michel was then the only swimmer left in the race.

The Frenchman, his flagging energy being constantly renewed by stimulants which consisted mostly of brandy, was swimming slowly and unsteadily under the glare of floodlights early in the night.

At 8:45 p.m., nearly ten hours after the 15-mile race started, the French swimmer had about four miles to go.

Halifax, N.S.—The Nova Scotia Legislature has been dissolved. This was announced by Premier E. N. Rhodes, here, following a session of the executive council.

A provincial general election is set for October 1, with nomination day on September 24.

In it the premier reviews the activities of his government, which assumed office following the election of June, 1925. He compares the present condition of Nova Scotia with that in which the province found itself prior to his taking over.

It was during Premier Rhodes' regime that the Legislative Council was abolished, and the manifesto is introduced by a reference to this.

Bonners Ferry Hears of Project

BONNERS FERRY, Sept. 8—At a meeting at the courthouse last Friday evening, full details of the proposed plan to reclaim the entire Kootenai Valley by diverting the Kootenai river were gone into. The meeting was scheduled for the city hall, but the large crowd demanded greater seating capacity, so all repaired to the district court room of the courthouse.

A. B. Ashby was elected chairman and Geo. Crocker secretary. Among those present, who are interested in the reclamatiou of the valley, were A. Klockman, A. J. Kent, J.H. Guthrie, C. D. Simonds, and several other drainage commissioners of the Valley. Howard S. Amon, who has been taking a leading part in the plan to divert the river, was also present and answered numerous questions asked by the drainage commissioners.

A. Klockmann pointed out many important weaknesses in the present drainage system. He also pointed out the many advantages of Kootenai Valley reclaimed land, saying that if it could be drained 100 per cent. it would be the most fertile valley in the United States, if not in the world.

"I have traveled all over the United States and much of Europe," said Mr. Klockmann, "and I have failed to find agricultural land with more merit or better prospects for the future than the Kootenai Valley.

"Our reclamation costs are low, compared with other projects. The Columbia Basin project will cost, according to government engineers, $165 an acre to get the water on the land. Our costs have not exceeded $70 an acre, even in the most difficult district.

"Our taxes are also low. In the Yakima Valley, for instance, the taxes are $8 to 10 an acre on irrigated land. We don't really know what high taxes are.

"They say that the diversion of the Kootenai river will cost a million dollars. What is a million dollars if we can reclaim the entire valley, and make it absolutely safe for homebuilding! In these days a million dollars is nothing."

Mr. Klockmann said he knew of Mr. Amon and was fully satisfied that his connections were gilt-edged.

Mr. Klockman added that Mr. Amon had formerly been in partnership with John Sherman, a member of the city council and that Mr. Sherman could vouch for him.

When called upon Mr. Amon said he had been dealing direct with the Canadian government and his original plan called for diverting the the Kootenai river at Porthill in order to reclaim 40,000 acres of bottom land along the river in British Columbia. He said the matter of going further and diverting the stream just below Bonners Ferry had been presented to him and he thought it would be worth while to consider the project as a whole and thus reclaim the entire 70,000 acres in the Valley from Bonners Ferry to Kootenai lake.

The plan calls for the expenditure of $100,000 at the Narrows, which is the outlet to Kootenai lake. The outlet would be widened from the present 600 feet to a full 1800 feet, Mr. Amon said, in order to give a better run off of the flood waters.

An important feature of the project and one which has given local citizens more concern, perhaps, than the reclamation feature, is the proposal that the municipal power plant at Moyie Falls be taken over by the reclamation company to be developed and used in constructing the dikes and in pumping water after the dikes are built. Mr. Amon said the company would guarantee to give Bonners an electric power rate 39 per cent. lower than the present rate; that power would be furnished in the Valley at one cent per kilowatt, and that 100 horsepower of electricity would be donated for the operation of a rock crusher to furnish material for building roads in the Valley.

A. J. Kent said he favored the plan because it would eliminate the present congestion of the flood waters, which in places along the river are confined to a channel only 700 feet wide. He pointed out that the break in the dike in Drainage District No. 5 occurred where dikes were on both sides of the river, and also the break in the dike in District No. 6, which was saved by heroic efforts, came at a similar point.

Those present voted to appoint Mr. Kent to get in touch with the War Department and secure information as to the proper procedure in getting government co operation. It was also voted to appoint a committee of three to conduct further investigations. Chairman Ashby announced that he would appoint this committee later.

The attorney general's department has spent about $400 in some necessary improvements at the local courthouse. Vancouver Province: Major Mallandaine, manager of the Goat Mountain Waterworks Company at Creston, is in the city on business. Mr. Mallandaine has played an important part in the development of British Columbia. He is probably the only survivor in the West, at least, of that historic occasion when Sir Donald Smith, later Lord Strathcona, drove the gold spike in the building of the C.P.R. at Craigellechie, November 7, 1885, linking the East and the West and cementing the bonds of the Dominion.

Enforcing Marketing Act

In an interview with E. F. Laws, district representative of the Committee of Diretion, who has been in Creston for a few days this week, he stated that the large majority of the fruit and vegetable growers of the province were solidly behind the Produce Marketing Act. In the course of his duties Mr. Laws has found it necessary to take proceedings in the courts against two shippers in Kaslo, and one against the Doukhobor Community at Brilliant. In all of these cases fines were imposed.

It is the firm determination of the Committee of Direction to enforce the Produce Marketing Act, the administration of which they have been entrusted with, and in this they are fully supported by the attorney general who has issued instructions to the police to see that the provisions of the act are carried out. The act was brought into being by the growers themselves and was intended for their protection. Mr. Laws will be in Creston frequently during the shipping season and desires to be of as much assistance as possible to the shippers of the district.

Speaking as a member of the executive of the B.C.F.G.A. Mr. Laws said that a very representative meeting was held in Vernon last week to deal with the Anti Dumping Clause of the Customs Tariff Act, and it was agreed that a vigorous campaign be carried on to obtain the necessary alteration in the Customs Tariff Act to make the clause legal as regards commodities carrying a specific duty under which heading apples come, and to which the Anti Dumping Clause does not apply.

Farmers' Marketing Tour

Canadian National Railways' Tour To Great Britain and Denmark, 1928

It was not far from Craigie Mains to Hobsland, the home of Mr. Thomas Barr, the Ayrshire cattle breeder, where, incidentally, we learned that our leader, Mr. Arkell, had spent part of his honeymoon!

It is safe to say that none of us had ever seen a finer herd than that which was shown to us, fine, big, heavy, deep-milking cows, every one a picture of what an Ayrshire ought to be. The 75 cows in milk average between 900 and 1,000 gallons, with one yielding 1,800 gallons, testing 4 per cent. Most of these cows were daughters of champion bulls. Mr. Barr does a great deal of business in Canada, and at this year's Royal Show a large proportion of winners was from stock of his breeding.

In the opinion of the dairymen members of our party, Mr. Barr's byres were the best they had seen. Part of the barns are floored with concrete, part with brick, Mr. Barr maintaining that brick flooring is healthier in winter and results in the avoidance of trouble in the knees and joints of the cattle. It is interesting to note that some of the fields on the farm have been in grass for 70 years.

Mr. Montgomerie's Lessnessock farm at Ochiltree which we next visited, is best known to Canadians because its name is a prefix to the names of many animals which have helped to make Canadian Ayrshire history. This farm is not far from Mauchline, where the poet Burns had a farm of his own.

Last year 100 Ayrshires were shipped to Canada by Mr. Montgomerie. His herd now supplies tuberculin-tested milk by contract to the hospitals belonging to the Municipality of Glasgow, testing 4 per cent. and running up to 4.6 per cent. This herd provides one of the most outstanding examples of grading up milk and butter fat yield. In 1903 he had 40 cows averaging 554 gallons of 3.69 per cent. butter fat over 36 weeks. In 1921, 52 cows averaged 720 gallons of 3.9 per cent. butter fat over 39 weeks, and in 1927, 52 cows averaged 920 gallons of 4.16 per cent. fat over 44 weeks.

It was a delight to see his fine herd of milking cows and the barns and byres which presented an object lesson in clean milk production. An interesting development was the "dehorning" of the calves of Lessnessock, a step which is being watched closely by other breeders. Mr. Montgomerie applies a preparation to the calves when they are a few days old which prevents the horns from growing.

The farm of Lt.-Col. Norman Kennedy, D.S.O., breeder of the famous Doonholm herd of Aberdeen-Angus cattle, lies in the very heart of the Burns Country, on the "Banks and Braes of Bonnie Doon," one mile from the poet's birthplace at Alloway. It was a revelation to see selected members of this wonderful herd which has such an enviable record of high awards to its credit at the shows of the Royal Agricultural Society of England, the Highland and Agricultural Society of Scotland; Smithfield, Edinburgh and Perth Spring shows and sales. Outstandingly interesting as were the animals themselves, they were rendered doubly so by the able exposition of the points of the Aberdeen-Angus breed by Mr. James Cameron, formerly agricultural editor of the Glasgow Herald and one of the foremost judges in Scotland, besides having judged at Smithfield and in the Argentine.

We were not allowed to leave Doonholm until Lt.-Col. and Mrs. Kennedy had extended to us the hospitality of their beautiful home on the banks of the Doon, where in the fine grounds we were shown the five trees which were planted by the father of Robert Burns as gardener to the estate.

Interested as we were in these three famous farms, we were glad that opportunity permitted us to visit, if only for a short while, the home of Robert Burns. The wee clay cottage remains almost as it was in Burns' day, even to the furnishings—the kitchen table, the grandfather clock, the straight-backed wooden chairs, the plate rack and china, the hangings and the bed where the poet was born, the barn adjoining, and the cattle stalls. A small home and a humble one, but to be entered with reverence by all who believe in the dignity of labour and the independence of man. Behind the cottage we visited the museum of Burns relics, the Auld Kirk where Tam o' Shanter watched the witches dance; and, not far distant, the "Auld Brig o' Doon," where his mare Meg lost her tail; and the Burns Monument.

'Our excursions from Glasgow gave us little time to see the city itself, although all of us took opportunity to stroll along the famous Sauchiehall Street. Broad, with handsome shops on both sides, this fine thoroughfare is full of interest, and mirrors in its bustle and activity the vigorous spirit of this great industrial city.

Canada's trade connection with Glasgow is close. Glasgow has always favoured the removal of the embargo that was placed on Canadian cattle, and the proportion of cattle licensed out for stores was greater than at any other port. Glasgow, along with the rest of Scotland has also formed a high opinion of Canadian hams and bacon.

It was with special interest, therefore, that we visited the Glasgow Corporation's Merkeland Wharf at which cattle and pigs are landed. There are no finer facilities in the British Isles. The accommodation is for 4,600 head, and includes three sales rings, a large number of killing booths and excellent cold storage for carcasses before removal direct to buyers, butchers' shops or to the meat markets in the east end of the city.

And now, as guests of the Corporation of Glasgow, we were to attend our last official luncheon in Great Britain. We took our seats in the great banquetting hall, the Lord Provost, Sir David Mason presiding.

ECZEMA BROKE OUT IN PIMPLES

Had to Keep Hands Out of Water. Cuticura Heals.

"Eczema started with an irritation and soreness between my fingers. Later it broke out in small pimples which were red and full of water, I had to keep my hands out of water, and could not do my regular work. The itching and burning certainly kept me awake at night.

"A neighbor recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I sent for a free sample. After using it I discovered the trouble was disappearing so I purchased more, and my hands were perfect after using one cake of Cuticura Soap and half a box of Cuticura Ointment." Record Breaking Air Mail Cargo

18,000 lbs. Of Mail Carried By Fleet Of Planes

A fleet of 18 airplanes, each laden with a half a ton of mail, landed at the municipal airport at Chicago recently and established what is believed to be a new record for shipments by air mail. The fleet, chartered by a Lansing, Mich., manufacturing firm which sent out almost 350,000 pieces of mail in their record-breaking cargo, carried approximately 18,000 pounds.

The Lansing Company's postage on the shipment amounted to more than $13,000.

Bicycles Popular In Holland

Bicycles are popular in Holland, where there is one to every 2½ inhabitants. This is attributed to the fact that there are practically no hills in Holland. The importance of the machine is recognized by the authorities in that they provide separate bicycle roads running parallel to the other roads.

PAUL WRITES TO HIS FRIENDS IN CORINTH

Golden Text: "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!"—Psalm 133.1.

Lesson: 1 Corinthians 1-4.

Devotional Reading: Ephesians 4. 1-6.

Explanation and Comments

Exhortation To Unity, 1 Corinthians 1.10-13.—Through members of the household of Chloe, Paul learned that there were contentions among the members of the church at Corinth. It has been inferred that Chloe was a business woman of Ephesus who had sent slaves to Corinth in the pursuance of her trade, and that on the return of the latter they had brought back this news to Paul, who was then at Ephesus. If they had belonged to Corinth, it is argued, Paul would hardly have exposed them to reprisals by this disclosure in his letter. After his salutation and words of thanksgiving (verses 1-9), Paul takes up this report and appeals to his readers to be of one mind. "I beseech you, brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus," he wrote—a name which should be a reminder to them of their oneness as His disciples—"that ye all speak the same thing," that you agree in calling Christ your Leader, "and that there be no divisions among you."

A sadly needed bit of counsel this for our day! It is said that in one of the great cities of England a quarrel arose among the firemen, and at the first fire which they were to fight instead of putting out the flames they turned the hose on one another. This is a picture of what many Christian groups are doing today. The remedy is given by the Persian poet Sa'di:

If the litigious knew the taste
Of friendship with the Friend,
Think you that their life would waste
In quarrels without end?

"That ye be preferred together in the same mind and in the same judgment," continued Paul.

"Nothing doth so much keep men out of the church and drive men out of the church, as breach of unity."—Bacon.

There were three parties in the church at Corinth, Paul had learned, which were called by the name of the leader which each admired the most and regarded as most important: the adherents of Paul, those of Appollos and those of Cephas, or Peter. Then there was also the party "of Christ," which may have arisen as a protest against calling any man the leader of the church. To use the name of Christ as a watchword of a party must have seemed a terrible thing to Paul.

"Is Christ divided?" Paul questioned. Is Christ made a part of the whole instead of the whole? By this question Paul expresses his horror at the thought of degrading Christ to the level of his human messengers. "Was Paul crucified for you? Or were ye baptized into the name of Paul?" he continues. By the crucifixion of Christ they were saved, by baptism they were dedicated to Christ's service; it was inconceivable that they could put others on a level with Christ.

One may say, I am of Paul; another, I am of Apollos; but let neither forget that both Paul and Apollos are disciples of Christ, and remember the words of Christ Himself: "I pray for them; that they all may be one, as thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they may be one in us."

The Oil Of the People.—Many oils have come and gone, but Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil continues to maintain its position and increase its sphere of usefulness each year. Its sterling qualities have brought it to the front and kept it there, and it can truly be called the oil of the people. Thousands have benefited by it and would use no other preparation.

Alberta Elevator Construction

250 New Elevators Have Been Built In Province This Year

Approximately 250 new elevators have been constructed throughout Alberta this year, it is estimated by local grain men. The total capacity of these elevators would be about 18,000,000 bushels, it was stated. Complete figures for elevator construction in the province were not available, but grain men stated that extension of facilities had been progressing rapidly in all parts of Alberta. The capacity of the elevators varied from 35,000 bushels to 140,000 bushels. The Alberta Wheat Pool alone has 110 more elevators this year than in 1927 and practically all the public grain elevator companies have increased their storage capacity.

Three years ago British Columbia was importing eggs. This year that province has already exported over 200 carloads.

CHAPTER I.

Jangling his keys on their big ring, the sheriff led John McLean down several steps, then through a long, narrow hall to the rear of the jail. From a distant corridor came the sound of a raucous voice attempting to sing one of the popular ragtimes of the day.

"Some fellow's still got a 'hang-over,'" observed the sheriff as he paused before a cell, consulted a number, then searched for the key. As the door swung open a sleepy voice was raised in mock solemnity.

"What ho, varlet! Why dost thou open the dungeon door? Has the king granted a reprieve?" His eyes blinking, the inmate stepped into the bright light of the hall. A dull red suffused his pale face as he saw the tall figure behind the sheriff.

"Hello, Dad! Nice morning," he smiled in a weak attempt at joviality, but the smile faded as he sensed a change in his father.

"My son arrested in a low gambling den!" the father said bitterly. "Donald, you have disgraced the family name. Your drinking carousals and gambling can have but one end. I have been too easy with you. For your own good I'm going to turn you loose. Until such time as you can return to me rid of your bad habits, and have proven yourself a man, you are not a son of mine. I—I'm done with you."

Donald's father turned abruptly on his heel and strode swiftly down the passage. It had been a tremendous test of his will power to make this short speech, and to resist the almost overmastering desire to take his boy in his arms.

The young man stood with mouth agape, a stupefied look in his eyes, and stared after the retreating form of his parent. The sheriff broke the silence. "We'll go upstairs, Don!"

On the upper floor the desk sergeant handed the released prisoner his watch and money, taken from him, as is the custom, the night before. The sheriff motioned to a seat.

"Sit down. I want to talk to you."

Donald listlessly obeyed.

"Sorry, boy, but I had to do it," the sheriff said in a kindly voice.

"What are you going to do?"

"I don't know," Donald admitted dully.

"How much money have you got?"

Donald stood up and drew from his pocket a few crumpled bills and some loose change, then threw out his arms in an eloquent gesture. As he stood with the slanting rays of a late December sun shining on his black hair, he presented a wonderful specimen of man. Six feet in height, of a deceptive slenderness, his rather tight-fitting grey suit set off the graceful lines of a suppple body. His shoulders were wide, with the gentle slope that denotes agility as well as strength. His fine white skin and long black lashes would have given his features an effeminate touch but for the manly mould of his face, with its square jaw, broad forehead, and deep, wide-set eyes.

The sheriff's appraising eyes glowed with admiration as they rested on the young man. To the casual eye Donald appeared of slight build, but his old friend knew of the steel-like muscles of those arms and the strength of the long, straight legs.

The mind of the older man flashed back at a football game in Donald's High School days, with the State championship at stake.. Donald had been sent into the game at the eleventh hour, and with defeat staring the home team in the face he had torn through the opposing lines like a madman for agonizing gains until his dark head flashed across the line to victory.

Donald came embarrassedly to his feet.

"Well, I guess I'll be moving."

"Here, boy, take this," the sheriff said awkwardly, thrusting a roll of bills into Donald's hand.

The young man's face flushed. It's awfully good of you, Jim, but I——"

"It's all right, Don," interrupted the older man, summoning a smile. "I'm just giving you a loan."

Donald looked at him soberly. "I'll pay you back when—I—I—earn it."

His face very serious, the sheriff placed a hand on Donald's shoulder.

"Now, listen, Don. Your father and I talked here in the office for an hour before he bailed you out, and we agreed that the best thing was to let you go on your own. No, I am not going to give you a lecture, for you are not wholly to blame. Having a rich father is not the best thing for a young fellow, but because you got fired out of college should not make a husky boy like you lose his grip. You just step out and buck the line like you do in football and you'll sure make a touchdown." He gripped Donald's hand. "Good-bye and good luck, Donnie!" he added feelingly.

Donald crossed the street to the Hancock House and sank moodily to a chair in the corner of the lobby. His confinement in the jail and the preceding festivities had robbed him of a night's rest, and he suddenly realized that he was very tired and sleepy. Forgetting the change in his circumstances, he engaged an expensive room on the first floor and immediately went to bed.

Upon awakening Donald switched on the light and lay for awhile trying to adjust himself to this new situation. Serious meditation, however, brought him no nearer a solution of his problem. A cold bath, followed by a brisk rub down and clean linen, removed all the remaining traces of his night of wild revelry.

The news of John McLean's break with his son spread rapidly through the small New England city. On his way to the desk to order his baggage to be sent to the dock, Donald was beset by several friends who were loud in voicing their sympathy. Extricating himself as quickly as possible, he made his way to the elevator. Quick steps sounded behind him, and, turning, he looked into the smiling face of his boxing instructor, Spike Ryan.

"Hello, Kid, how they comin'?" grinned Spike.

"Come upstairs with me, Spike."

Once inside the room, Donald turned to his visitor. "If you start any of this sympathy stuff I'll hand you that famous 'one-two' punch you taught me."

"Sympathy be damned," chuckled Spike. "Dis is your lucky day. I come here to congratulate you, to give you de glad hand."

"Why all the joy? Most of my friends seem to think it is my funeral."

"Say, Donnie," Spike said earnestly, "I bin watchin' ya pretty close for de past year, an' ya sure bin hittin' her up an' y'd have taken de count of ten an' be sittin' wid de stew-bums. Ya bin fightin' an exhibition wid life wid soft twelve-ounce gloves, an' de both of ya fightin' under wraps an' pullin' y'r punches. From now on de fight will be on de square an' to a finish wid bare knuckles. De guy in de other corner will hand ya some awful jolts, an' y'll have to do some pretty fast work wid y'r dukes an' pins to keep away from de slumber swat. But, Donnie, ya got de goods in ya. Nearly four years in an engineerin' course in de college gives ya a better start than most of us guys. I'm backin' ya to win."

He seized Donald's hand, and his battered face filled with tenderness as he looked up at his friend. "Good luck, boy. Keep a stiff upper lip, an' don't forget that old John Barleycorn's a bum second." At the door he turned: "How ya fixed for kale, Donnie?"

"You get out!" smiled Donald.

Spike grinned as though pleased at the rebuff, and closed the door.

For some tiue after Spike's departure Donald sat lost in meditation. The philosophy of the ex-pugilist, presented in the vernacular of the prize-ring, had affected him deeply. "Ya bin fightin' an exhibition wid life, but from now on de fight is on de square," Spike had said. True enough, he thought, life had been soft and easy with him. But now it was going to be "on de square." His strong mouth set in a straight line, and involuntarily he squared his shoulders.

Donald left the hotel by the side door to avoid meeting several friends who had gathered in the lobby. He had an hour to wait for the sailing of the boat for Bangor. Unconsciously he walked towards the hill. An overwhelming sense of loneliness swept over him as he stood before his home, looming huge and white in the bright starlight of the winter night.

At the first sound of his master's step on the pavement a big collie dog rushed forth and flung itself bodily on the young man, whimpering in sheer joy. Standing on hind legs with paws on his chest, he tried to lick Donald's face. The noise was apparently heard within the house, for a shade was raised and Donald's mother peered out into the night. Silencing the dog's joyous whines as best he could, Donald crouched low behind the hedge until the blind was lowered.

THE MOLARS

Consider for a moment the military "machine" in greatest prominence; the officers carefully groomed; next the sub-officers; and in the background, the rankers—who bear the brunt of battle.

Now then, consider the masticating "machine." In the forefront, the incisors and canines, well kept—next behind the bicuspids, and to the rear, the molars—you catch the simile? Twelve is their mustering strength, six upper and six lower, though this number is variable, since frequently the third molar is missing, while again a fourth molar occasionally presents.

Now, a word about their roots. You have perhaps, had the "nerve" removed from one of these molar teeth, which operation proved very tedious, necessitating your return two, three or four times for treatments—until you wished that you had had the "old tooth" taken out.

It is precisely because of the difficulties attending the management of these teeth, when badly diseased, that you should be on your guard to notice any trouble in its beginning and have it checked.

But of course you can have them "pulled."

Well, take your lawn-mower. Strip it of one or more of its blades. With what efficiency will it do its work? Diminished indeed. Suppose then, that you lose a molar, or two, or three, or six, or ten of them—how much masticating efficiency is left you? Very little, and what prospect for good health? Poor enough!

So if you would live long and healthfully, guard well these ranks and see to it that they remain unbroken.

Sores Flee Before It.—There are many who have been afflicted with sores and have driven them away with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. All similarly troubled should lose no time in applying this splendid remedy, as there is nothing like it to be had. It is cheap, but its power is in no way expressed by its low price.

Little Helps For This Week

In nothing be anxious; but in everything, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.—Philippians iv. 6 (R.V.).

Why therefore should we do ourselves this wrong,
Or others,—that we are not always strong;
That we are ever overborne with care;
That we should ever weak or heartless be,
Anxious or troubled, when with us is prayer,
And joy and strength and courage are with Thee.
—Richard Chenevix Trench.

"In everything," says Saint Paul, "let your requests be made known unto God." For this everything, nothing is too small. That it should trouble us is enough. There is some principle involved in it, worth the notice even of God Himself; for did He not make us so that the thing does trouble us? And surely for this everything nothing can be too great. —
—George MacDonald.

More Maple Sugar

Official statistics show an increase of nearly 4,000,000 pounds in the production of maple sugar in Canada in 1928, compared with 1927. The estimated production for 1928 was 13,798,000 pounds valued at $2,269,686. Quebec is the principal maple sugar producing province in Canada although rivalled closely by Ontario in the production of maple syrup.

MANY MOTHERS RECOMMEND THEM

Baby's Own Tablets Are Fine For Nervous, Sleepless Children

From Canada the fame of Baby's Own Tablets is spreading over the world. Mothers recommend them to other mothers and wherever they are tried nothing but words of praise are heard for these pleasant tasting little tablets that promptly relieve the minor ailments of young children.

"Baby's Own Tablets are one of the best remedies for children's ailments I have ever used," says Mrs. Arthur T. Allen, of Auburn, Me. "My little girl was nervous and could not sleep. I tried the Tablets and she was relieved at once. She was also troubled with constipation and nothing seemed to help her. I had used the Tablets but a short time before her bowels were regular. All mothers should keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house, for they are a valuable remedy."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all druggists or will be mailed on receipt of price, 25 cents per box, by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

It May Be Urgent

When your Children Cry for It

Castoria is a comfort when Baby is fretful. No sooner taken than the little one is at ease. If restless, a few drops soon bring contentment. No harm done, for Castoria is a baby remedy, meant for babies. Perfectly safe to give the youngest infant; you have the doctors' word for that! It is a vegetable product and you could use it every day. But it's in an emergency that Castoria means most. Some night when constipation must be relieved or colic pains—or other suffering. Never be without it; some mothers keep an extra bottle, unopened, to make sure there will always be Castoria in the house. It is effective for older children, too; read the book that comes with it.
