School Sports Prize Winners

Competition for the Jubilee Challenge Cup was very keen at the school sports which were held for the second time on the exhibition grounds at the same time as the fall fair.

Canyon, Erickson, Wynndel and Sirdar brought in full teams and contested every event with the village school, many of which were so close that the judges had to have assistance to mark the winners. Lister also contested a few events and it is hoped that next year they will be there with a full team. While Creston won by a large margin after taking off their handicap, an analysis of the score leads one to the conclusion that numbers told and the ability to put fresh men into the different events undoubtedly gave the village school their victory. We wish especially to congratulate Sirdar on their showing. They showed the right spirit in an uphill fight and we are quite sure that with some training they will give a good account of themselves another year.

Canyon won the junior relay, Creston the open relay, and Erickson the tug of war. In the open relay the splendid performance of Lyda Christie gave Creston the victory, with Erickson and Canyon second and third in a close contest. The weight limit in the tug of war made this event more closely contested. The weight of the winners being 493 lbs., against 497 lbs. for the Creston team. Both teams put up a game fight and Erickson won the pull on both ends of the rope in the final.

In the jumping Lambert Spencer and Bill Ridd tied for first place and the points were evenly divided, and in the pole jump the former carried off first honors by clearing 6 ft. 6 in. with Kelsey as second. In the long jump Frances Moore cleared 13 ft. in beating the boys by 3 inches, and in the girls' high jump Mabel Glasier won easily, also beating the boys' record. In the jumping Lampert Spencer and Mabel Glasier deserve special mention for the fine performance and sporting spirit they showed, the latter by no means reaching her limit and we hope to see her another year in the same event.

Maurice Kelsey, Bill Ridd and Whitfield Abbott rendered their schools yeoman service and were in many events. The first mentioned has been awarded the Knights of Pythias cup for the boy who made the best performance, Frances Moore winning that award for girls.

These sports will, undoubtedly, become an annual event and training for this occasion should not be left to a few days before the sports take place. A spirit of sportmanship should be built up in the schools and this can only be done by playing games in the right spirit and by having them properly organised. There is no reason why inter school games both in baseball and football should not take place. The teachers will be rendering a great service to the boys and girls of the Creston Valley if besides instilling the three 'Rs' into their charges they can also show them how to be good sports in the game of life, and not to overlook the finer things of life which are just as important as book learning if we are to have this Valley, and Canada as a whole, what we would like them to be.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS ALWAYS IN THE HOME

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she always keeps a supply on hand, for the first trial convinces her there is nothing to equal them in keeping children well. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach, thus driving out constipation and indigestion, colds and simple fevers and making teething easier. Concerning them, Mrs. Saluste Pelletier, St. Dumas, Que., writes:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past ten years and am never without them in the house. They have always given the greatest satisfaction and I can gladly recommend them to all mothers of little ones." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or direct by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

It is truly a household medicine and as it is effective in dealing with many ordinary complaints it is an inexpensive medicine. So, keep it at hand, as the call for it may come most unexpectedly.

An Interesting Collection

Figureheads Of Old Warships Can Be Seen In England

At Castle's Yard, Millbank, England, is preserved the most complete collection of figureheads of old wooden warships—some of them dating back to Nelson's time—extant in England today.

Here may be seen figureheads from the Hood, Cressy, Bristol, Collingwood, and many other famous ships, carved out of timber and painted and gilded by men who were artists in their craft.

One very fine example is the Highlander that once belonged to H.M.S. Edinburgh. Another is a gigantic head of the Duke of Wellington, measuring nearly four feet from forehead to chin. The ship which this adorned was launched on the day the Iron Duke died. Another interesting exhibit came from the Fighting Temeraire, Turner's famous picture of which hangs in the Tate Gallery near by.

The Peace River

Success Being Achieved In All Branches Of Agriculture

The eyes of agriculturists are now turning to the Peace River country where the winters appear to be comparatively mild, and where wheat, oats, and timothy seed can be grown and take prizes in world competition. In this wonderful stretch of country often by the middle of April the winter grains and grasses are greening, and the first week in May sees the tulips and hyacinths in full bloom.

Summer temperatures range around 90, and though early frosts are at times experienced, harvesting is usually well in hand by the first week in September. Some splendid wheat yields were reported a year ago in the Grande Prairie and Valhalla districts running from 42 to 70 bushels to the acre.

The work done on the Beaverlodge Experimental Sub-Station is fully set forth in the report of that station which is available for distribution and may be had on application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. The Peace River country is developing very rapidly, and the agriculture practiced is very diversified. Success is being achieved in all branches including grain, dairying, poultry and bee-keeping.

Externally or Internally, It Is Good.—When applied externally by brisk rubbing, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil opens the pores and penetrates the tissue, touching the seat of the trouble and immediately affording relief. Administered internally, it will still the irritation in the throat which induces coughing and will relieve affections of the bronchial tubes and respiratory organs. Try it and be convinced.

Will Continue Confederation Train

As a result of the great increase in winter travel between Ontario and the prairie provinces, the "Confederation," the Canadian National Railway, passenger and express which now runs between Toronto and Vancouver, linking these cities with Brandon, Regina, Saskatoon and Edmonton will operate as far west as Edmonton until January 5.

and after she had taken a few doses she was relieved.

I also found it a grand remedy for cramps, and would not be without a bottle of it in the house for anything."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

OCTOBER 7

PAUL IN EPHESUS

Golden Text: "We are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God afore prepared that we should walk in them."—Ephesians 2.10.

Lesson: Acts 19.1-41; Ephesians 4.16.

Devotional Reading: Ephesians 3. 14-21.

Explanations And Comments

The Forfeited Chance, Acts 19.8, 9. —On his third missionary journey Paul came to Ephesus, where he followed his customary method of speaking first to the Jews, and then to the Greeks. For three months in the synagogue he reasoned and persuaded as to the things concerning the Kingdom—the subject of Jesus' teaching. But instead of heeding his message, the Jews hardened their hearts, and some of them even spoke evil of "the Way" (used as a synonym for Christianity: recall Acts 9.2). Paul was obliged to break with the Jews, leaving the synagogue for the lecture-room of Tyrannus, where many of them followed him. Tyrannus was probably a Gentile who had a school of philosophy. Paul may have seemed to the Ephesians to be one of the wandering professors of philosophy who were so numerous in the early Empire. In the lecture-room of Tyrannus, from eleven to four, after that philosopher had finished his lectures, Paul proclaimed unto his hearers Jesus the Christ.

Two Fruitful Years, Acts 19.10. —For two years Paul continued teaching in the school of Tyrannus, and "all that dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks." Within easy reach of Ephesus were the other cities of the Roman Province of Asia (on the western shore of Asia Minor). During these years were probably found the others of the Seven Churches of Asia of Revelation 1.4, 11.

Many of the converts who had practised magical arts came and, publicly renouncing their deeds, brought their books and burned them in the sight of all. "These were books of formulae for compelling the assistance of spiritual beings, or securing the affections of a beloved, or for inflicting pain and spiritual torment."—A. S. Peake. The act destroyed property valued at fifty thousand pieces of silver, or the customary pay for fifty thousand days' labor. Probably there were few copies of the magicians' scrolls, and to their rarity was due their valuation.

Recipes For This Week

(By Betty Barclay)

ORANGE CUSTARD (Serves 7)

- 2 cups Borden's St. Charles Milk.
- 1 cup hot water.
- 8 tablespoons cornstarch.
- 3 eggs.
- ¼ teaspoon salt.
- ¼ cupful cold water.
- ¾ cup orange juice.
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice.
- Grated rind of one orange.
- 1 cup sugar.

Mix cornstarch, sugar and salt, dilute with cold water. Add to scalded milk and hot water, stirring constantly until mixture thickens, afterwards occasionally; cook fifteen minutes. Add orange juice and slightly beaten eggs that have previously been mixed; mix thoroughly and lastly, add the lemon juice and orange rind. Cool and serve.

CARAMEL CUSTARD (Serves 6)

- 1 tall can Borden's St. Charles Milk with enough water to make 1 quart.
- 5 eggs.
- ½ teaspoon salt.
- 1 teaspoon vanilla.
- ½ cup sugar.
- ¼ teaspoon nutmeg.

Gradually sift sugar into a hot skillet, shaking the skillet vigorously all the time to prevent burning. The sugar should melt about as fast as it is sifted into the pan. When it turns to an amber color (a light resin color) set on back of stove and add milk, being careful that milk does not bubble over, as is liable on account of the high temerature of sugar. As soon as the sugar is melted in the milk, add mixture gradually to eggs slightly beaten. Add the salt and flavoring to egg and milk mixture. Bake in custard cups in a moderate oven.

WHITE STAR LINE CANADIAN SERVICE

THE CRIMSON WEST

— BY —

ALEX. PHILIP

The next day, dressed in light clothing and a pair of running shoes, Donald went around Stanley Park. Wishing to condition himself, he ran the greater part of the way.

Spring comes early in Vancouver as compared with the East. In January the buds are bursting in Stanley Park. The balmy sea air, scented with earthy odours from the deep woods, seemed to Donald to possess magic properties. The blood sang in his veins. Overhead, big white seagulls screamed and soared; squirrels retreated in chattering fright as he raced down the road, and over all was the sound of the booming surf. The wind rushed past his ears, and he shouted aloud from sheer exuberance of spirits and the joy of living.

Donald covered the distance from English Bay to Granville Street at a jogging trot. The air of the gymnasium seemed close after being in the open. The big Australian fighter was in the ring with one of his sparring partners. The slap of gloves was like music to Donald's ears.

"Just in time," welcomed Andy as he led him to the dressing-room, where he quickly shifted to fighting togs and then walked over to the ring.

A crowd of boxing-fans sat by the ring-side watching the big fellow work out. Donald's entrance caused a stir. His lithe, muscular body was the attraction of all eyes.

"'Op in," commanded Andy.

While an attendant was putting on his gloves, Donald studied the big man he was to help train. He would weigh at least two hundred pounds. His shoulders were enormously broad and square, and the muscles of his arms stood out in knobs and bunches. His face was a pasty colour, as though his training had been done inside. His jaw was square and strong, his eyes a mild blue, and his nose looked as though it had stopped many a solid punch. "Strong but slow," Donald decided.

When Andy introduced him Hagin merely grunted. To the fighter Donald was simply one more punching-bag.

Donald turned to Andy. "What do you want me to do?" he asked.

"Do you mean that?" queried Donald quickly.

Andy nodded.

Hagin came to the centre of the ring, assuming an awkward crouch, his arms wound about his face. Donald circled him warily. The big man feinted with his left. Donald danced within range, and the Australian let loose a terrific right swing that would have felled an ox. Donald sidestepped, jabbed his left twice to his opponent's face, and his right missed Hagin's jaw by the fraction of an inch. A surprised look came over the big man's face. A murmur of applause came from the audience.

"Strike me pink! What a left 'and!" ejaculated Andy. Hagin scowled and tried to bring the fighting to close quarters, but was easily avoided by his lighter opponent.

Donald now took the aggressive. His left found weak spots in the big man's defence, and repeatedly he sent in stinging jabs that drove his adversary's head back with a snap. Try as he might, Hagin could not get away from that whizzing left. It is a bitter pill to be bested by one's sparring partner. So far the Australian had been given a boxing lesson. He forced Donald into a corner and made for him savagely. Donald ducked under the flail-like swings, and shot a left upper-cut to aHgin's jaw. The latter staggered weakly to the ropes. Donald was after him like a flash. Just then he saw Andy gesticulating wildly and shaking his head. Hagin lunged forward and Donald fell into a clinch. The gong rang.

"What's the trouble, Andy?" asked Donald as he reached his corner.

"Strike me lucky!" whispered Andy hoarsely, "you're punchin' me mealticket. You're makin' a blinkin' boob out of me 'eavyweight."

"You told me to knock him out of the ring," reminded Donald.

"Sure I did. But 'ow the 'ell did I know that you were a blinkin' cyclone? Strike me blind, a left 'and like that I 'aven't seen since I 'andled Young Griffo."

"What shall I do in the next round?"

"Tyke a punch and go down—'urt your 'and—anything to quit. But for 'eaven's sake don't mess up me 'eavyweight any more! If the public ever 'ears of this our big fight is all off!"

In the next round Donald dropped to the floor as they broke from a clinch in the centre of the ring. He rose to one knee, holding his hand and making a wry face.

"Too bad," sympathized Andy as he ordered him to the dressing-room.

As Donald stepped from the ring he was intercepted by a curly-haired youth whose brown eyes sparkled with enthusiasm. "By golly, I want to know you. My name's Douglas Rennie. My, but that was a wonderfully fast exhibition you gave us-" he ejaculated, gazing at Donald with undisguised admiration.

Donald flushed. "I appeared fast," he explained modestly, "as I was against a very slow oppnoent. I know nothing of Garrieau, but he won't have to be very clever to beat the Australian."

"Garrieau is fast and carries a knockout in either hand."

"I'm sorry for Andy's man if that is the case, as any kind of a left will beat Hagin. Come to the dressing-room," invited Donald.

"You look rather blue, Andy," observed Donald.

"I am. All 'ell's a poppin'," admitted Andy.

"What's wrong?"

"I've lost me 'eavyweight. 'E's quit."

"Why?"

"Said I framed on 'im by sending you in this afternoon. Said I 'urt 'is pride."

"Pride!" echoed Douglas sarcastically. "You've been treating him too well. I never thought much of him as a fighter. You're too good a trainer to be wasting your time on third-raters."

"Maybe you are right," conceded Andy, "but look what a blinkin' mess I'm in now! 'Ere I am in the 'ole three hundred bones for training expenses, and I've put up a forfeit with the promoters for appearance. I'll lose the 'ole lot." He threw out his arms with an air of resignation and sank back in his seat.

Donald knew now that for all Andy's munificent manner of yesterday, the three dollars to "eat on" and the sorely needed dinner he had bought, had come from a generous heart, but a depleted purse. Here was his benefactor in trouble. How could he help him? He crossed the room, sat down beside Andy, and placed his hand on the little man's arm.

"Andy, take me on. I'll fight Garrieau for you."

Andy came to his feet with a jump and seized Donald by the shoulders. "If you'll do that, me lad, I'll be your pal for life. Strike me pink, did you 'ear that? I've got a real fighter at last! 'Ooray!" The little fellow was in ecstasies. "We'll clean Garrieau up," he went on excitedly, "and then I'll tyke you to the Stytes, and then to Austrylia, and. . . . "

"Hold on," interrupted Donald laughingly, "looks like you intend making a professional pug out of me. I'm doing this to help you, Andy and," flushing in spite of himself, "I'm broke."

Andy glanced over Donald's tall figure with a professional eye. "You 'ave a week to get fit, and 'as you aven't 'ardly any weight to tyke off, you should be top 'ole in that time."

"May I work out with you?" asked Douglas eagerly.

"Glad to have you," replied Donald.

A few minutes later the young men stepped to the street. Douglas seemed loth to go.

"Will you come to my home for dinner?" he invited.

Donald hesitated. It seemed ages since he had entered a private house. He glanced down at his only suit, which was rather seedy, then looked up, to find the usually roguish eyes of his companion fixed upon him seriously.

"Thanks, old man. I hope I may have the pleasure at some time, but I can't do it now."

"You said you were broke," began Douglas, hesitatingly, "can—I——"

"No, no, I'll see you tomorrow," interrupted Donald, turning abruptly and walking swiftly down Granville Street.

Lower Markets for good medium quality teas enable us to reduce the price of GREEN LABEL Red Rose Tea from 80c. to 75c. per lb. package, and to 38c. for the ½ lb.

The new prices will apply on stocks now on hand in the stores, as arranged with all the merchants who sell Red Rose Tea.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS

Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emptions, is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 5,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 8,000 feet per acre east of that range.

Applications for pre-emptions are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emptions must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

PURCHASE

Applications are received for purchase of vacant, unreserved Crown Lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price of first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mill, factory or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.

HOMESITE LEASES

Unsurveyed areas not exceeding 20 acres may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

LEASES

For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or a company.

GRAZING

Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under a Grazing Commissioner. Annual grazing permits are issued based on numbers ranged, priority being given to established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free, or partially free permits are available for settlers, campers or travellers, up to ten head.

Real Foundation of Modern Business

The so-called practical man of business, the financier, the farmer, during the many decades of the past has been inclined to regard the scientist as hopelessly impracticable, a dreamer, a faddist. Within more recent years marked change in this respect has taken place, and today the scientist, the chemist, the laboratory research worker, is recognized as among the most practical and essential of the world's workers.

To the great universities of the world, and to Governments must be credited in large degree the recognition now accorded to the scientist, while many of the world's foremost industrial concerns now regard their research departments as being among the most profitable departments of their great enterprises.

A recent article by Dr. E. E. Free in "Chemical Markets," New York, declares that science earns for the United States more than thirty billion dollars a year, or nearly half of the national income. It has, he says, doubled the productivity of agriculture and more than quadrupled that of mining. Continuing, Dr. Free wrote: "Surely the business men of America ought to be convinced by now that it is worth while to exhaust every one of science's industrial resources; yet the surprising fact is not only that these resources are unexhausted, but that only a small fraction of them have been put to work. Not a tenth of the facts that scientists know are being used. The rest of them lie idle in the heads of professors or in the unread pages of scientific books."

Som years ago a gentleman named Dudley became a chief chemist of one of the large American railways. He devised methods of testing coal and coke and lubricating oils, and saved millions of dollars for his road. He helped the steel people find out how to make more lasting rails. He invented cheaper and better paints. He suited the available water supplies to the engines, and saved millions of boiler tubes from being burnt out or corroded. It is estimated that the scientific improvements devised by Dr. Dudley and his successors on other railways have saved more money than all the railroad wages ever paid in the United States.

Sometimes a scientific problem solves itself as if by magic. The origin of the potash industry is an example. The salt miners of Germany a generation ago were bothered greatly by some bitter, evil-tasting stuff mixed with the salt they were trying to mine. This bitter stuff had to be taken out, but if they piled it up anywhere the rain always washed some of it down into the rivers where it spoiled the water and poisoned the fish. Then a great chemist, Dr. Justus von Liebig, happened to hear about this worthless stuff. He found out there was potash in it. He knew that crop plants need potash—that it could be used as a fertilizer. He suggested this to the farmers of Germany. Now the potash industry is one of the greatest in the world. The useless, bitter stuff became the chief assets of the mines.

Tons of sulphuric acid and arsenic used to be blown out of the smoke stacks of copper smelters, sometimes killing animals and crops on neighboring farms. A scientist built an electric apparatus which collects these poisonous particles out of the smelter smoke. The apparatus is now in use all over the world, and the sulphuric acid, instead of floating out to damage the farms, is used in chemical industry, while the arsenic has become the chief reliance of the scientists who are fighting the boll-weevil, which threatens the destruction of the cotton plantations of the southern states.

In like manner we have the story of the botany professor who cleared the western United States irrigation ditches of a weed that was choking them and compelling the farmers to employ a man night and day to clear the intake of the pipe line. "Suspend a few crystals of copper sulphate in the ditches, in little canvas bags," he advised. The weeds died and disappeared in a week. This scientist know that copper was especially poisonous to that kind of weed. His practical knowledge increased the wealth of the whole irrigated region.

In Saskatchewan a clay-working industry was having trouble with its raw products. One of the professors of the University of Saskatchewan was called in, and as a result of his knowledge, investigations and tests, he found that the correct mixture of clays was not being made. He found a remedy, and the industry is now on a paying basis and expanding its operations.

The battle against rust in wheat and other parasites, the removal of moisture from wheat without impairing its milling and baking qualities—these and other important subjects are receiving the attention of the scientists of Canada, and their solution will mean hundreds of millions of dollars to the farmers of the Dominion.

All of which only goes to demonstrate that every industrial interest in Canada, whether it be in the manufacturing class or in the work of production from the farm, the mine, the forest or the fisheries, should strongly support the present move for larger and more extensive research work in this Dominion. And of all classes, the farmer will probably prove to be the greatest gainer.

Honor For Lost Fliers

Monument On French Coast Dedicated To Memory Of Nungesser and Coli

A monument honoring the memory of Captain Charles Nungesser and Captain Francois Coli has been dedicated at Etretat, where the French airmen left the coast of France on their ill-sarred attempt to fly to New York more than sixteen months ago. It bears the inscription:

"To the First Who Dared."

At the base of the column, which resembles an obelish, are marble figures, three times life size, representing the two flyers. The monument has been erected on the cliffs at Etretat at the point over which Nungesser and Coli in their 'plane "White Bird" passed on May 8, 1927, before they disappeared in the west. On the front are engraved the words:

"Nungesser and Coli, May, 1927."

WEAK AND NERVOUS

A Condition Always Due To Thin, Watery Blood

Thin blood and weak nerves generally are found together. Red blooded people seldom complain of nervousness. The reason is that the blood feeds the nerves and keeps them toned up to do the work nature intended. When the blood is thin and weak it fails in this important function and nervous troubles follow. The following case will interest those who need a tonic for the blood and nerves. Mrs. D. Veno, Union Square, N.S., says:—"With a feeling of gratitude I write to tell you what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for me. I had become badly run down, and reached the stage when I could not do my housework. I was not only weak, but my nerves seemed completely shattered. The least noise would startle me and I was subject to nervous headaches. Worse still, I could not sleep at night. Perhaps I would get an hour or two sleep, and then lie awake for the rest of the night. I had reached a stage when I actually feared I would lose my mind. Up to the time I decided to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, nothing I had taken seemed to do me any good. I got a few boxes of these and soon there was no doubt they were the medicine to help me. As I continued the use of the pills I gradually grew stronger, ate better and could sleep at night, and now I am as well and strong as a woman could wish to be. I hope some other weak, nervous person will be benefitted by my experience."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

To Serve One Customer

Paris Store Opened For Sultan Of Morocco To Shop

Si Moulay Hemada, Sultan of Morocco, wanted to buy a thing or two and he insisted on doing his own shopping. His wish was a command to the Printemps store in Paris and for an hour, in the early evening, during the Sultan's recent incognito visit to France, everyone of the hundreds of clerks stood behind counters, scores of floorwalkers were at attention, and managers and French secret service men peered from behind piles of goods, while the young ruler, with his Grand Vizier, wandered about, buying everything that pleased his eye, leaving it for the Grand Vizier to foot the bill.

Do not allow worms to sap the vitality of your children. If not attended to, worms may work irreparable harm to the constitution of the infant. The little sufferers cannot voice their ailment, but there are many signs by which mothers are made aware that a dose of Miller's Worm Powders is necessary. These powders act quickly and will expel worms from the system without any inconvenience to the child.

ASPIRIN

To break a cold harmlessly and in a hurry try an Aspirin tablet. And for headache. The action of Aspirin is very efficient, too, in cases of neuralgia, neuritis, even rheumatism and lumbago! And there's no after effect; doctors give Aspirin to children—often infants. Whenever there's pain, think of Aspirin. The genuine Aspirin has Bayer on the box and on every tablet. All druggists, with proven directions.

Physicians prescribe Aspirin; it does NOT affect the heart

FEDERAL AID FOR HIGHWAYS SHOULD CONTINUE

Regina. — That federal aid for highways should be continued with additional aid to the various provinces was the view of the delegates attending the 15th annual convention of the Canadian Good Roads Association who dealt with many other matters of interest during the sessions here. Elimination of level crossings, building cement bridges and roads, the financial responsibility of urban municipalities in road development, gasoline taxes and winter roads all had their place on the agenda.

Hon. O. L. McPherson, minister of public works for Alberta, was unanimously chosen president of the association and other officers were elected. Seven invitations were presented for next year's meeting place and, while, no decision was arrived at Prince Edward Island would seem to be in favor with the delegates.

When the subject of Federal aid for highways was under review the discussions arising from this topic were crystallized in the following resolution:

"Resolved, that in view of the very marked and acknowledged benefit which comes to Canada as a whole because of the large investments being made in the highway construction and maintenance by various municipal and provincial bodies, such benefit being of a far reaching nature and affecting many branches of Dominion government service; and whereas the Federal government has collected in excess of $200,000,000 during the past 10 years which can be directly or indirectly traced to highways; and in view of the fact that the Federal government recognized its interest in highways by a first grant of $20,000,000, which has been expended; and, in view of the increase in highway travel throughout Canada, this association, in annual convention assembled, reaffirm its oft-stated belief in Federal aid to highways and that additional aid should be granted at the earliest possible moment to the various provinces and the executive committee is hereby instructed to make every reasonable effort to have this resolution made effective."

Larkin, Canadian High Commissioner, will preside at the dinner, which will be held at the Savoy hotel.

Does Not Need Warships

South Africa Protected By British Fleet, Says General Smuts

Capetown, South Africa.—Speaking to an audience which was predominantly of Dutch origin, General Jan Christian Smuts, leader of the opposition in the assembly, was vigorously applauded in a memorable speech on the secession question.

General Smuts at one point declared: "If we were not within the empire we would have to go to America or France, or some other big country to protect us because we are not safe. One warship could bring us to our knees. But today we are not considered in a kraal. We are in a friendly circle with a powerful British fleet to help us if any injustice is planned toward us.

"We need not spend millions on a fleet," General Smuts continued, "but can concentrate on projects of development so necessary to a young country. The British Empire is not a bond tying us, but she is a helping hand."

Will Analyze Frosted Wheat

Scientists At University of Saskatchewan Have Started Work

Saskatoon, Sask.—Now that four Canadian scientific laboratories, including that of the University of Saskatchewan, have determined that milling and baking qualities are not lessened by toughening or dampening of grain, scientists here, in collaboration with the investigations carried on elsewhere in Canada, are turning their attention chiefly to frosted wheat.

With painstaking effort as to detail, the Saskatchewan University laboratory, under general supervision of Dr. T. Thorvaldsen, professor of chemistry, and direct supervision of Dr. R. K. Larimer, has begun work with the object of determining the actual damage done by frost to the milling and baking quality of wheat.

Expresses Sympathy For Florida Sufferers

King George Cabled Condolences To President Coolidge

London.—That King George takes a keen interest in world affairs is evidenced by the cable sent by him to President Coolidge, expressing his sympathy to the people of the U.S. for the sufferers in the Florida hurricane.

The message read: "I desire to express to you and through you as kind intermediary to the American people, my sincere condolences upon the disaster which has recently overwhelmed Porto Rico, the Virgin Islands and the state of Florida as a result of the recent hurricane and my sympathy with all those that have suffered from its effects."

The explosion demolished the old citadel, on a rocky hill overlooking the town. All houses around the citadel were destroyed.

Women and children were among the dead and injured. Nine soldiers of the Spanish garrison at the fort were killed. The government appropriated 25,000 pesatas ($4,125) for relief of the families of victims.

Attending University Of British Columbia

Percy Williams Will Take Freshman's Course In Vancouver

Vancouver. — Percy Williams, Olympic 100 and 200 metre champion, will attend the University of British Columbia here for one year. After that he will take the business administration course at the University of Washington. This was decided at a meeting of members of the committee in charge of Williams' affairs here, which Williams attended.

Williams spent two days in Seattle and returned home in order to discuss all angles of his situation with his friends here. He had been invited to attend the Washington institution.

"He is remaining in Vancouver for the year because he feels that it would be unfair to those who welcomed him so wonderfully and who have been so good to him to leave," a member of the committee said.

Zeppelin To Start October 10

London. — Germany's new trans-Atlantic dirigible, Count Zeppelin, will start its first flight to America not later than October 10, says an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Berlin. Anglo-French Naval Pact

United States Government Rejects Agreement In Note Sent To Both Powers

Washington, Sept. 26.—An unqualified rejection of the so-called secret Anglo-French naval accord as a basis for renewed discussions on naval arms limitations is understood to be contained in the United States replies to Great Britain and France which were forwarded to Paris and London.

A separate note for each government was sent the American embassies for transmittal to the foreign offices.

It had been expected one note would be sent to both governments. Although it was learned the notes are not identical in form they are understood to be similar to each other in their essential facts.

It is understood both notes comprise a lengthy discussion of the American stand on naval disarmaments with respect to cruisers and submarines. This subject has been the centre of disagreement between the United States and Great Britain and is held to have caused the failure of the 1927 Geneva conference.

As indicated at the White House it is expected the notes will reiterate the United States stand on naval disarmaments as outlined at the 1927 Geneva conference.

Will Make Second Attempt Next Year

American Pilot Stranded On Flight To Stockholm Via Greenland

Copenhagen.—Bert Hassell, American flyer, who arrived here from Greenland with his trans-Atlantic companion, Parker Cramer, announced he would make another attempt next year to fly from the U.S. to Stockholm by way of Greenland. They were accompanied by Prof. William H. Hobbs, leader of the University of Michigan Greenland expedition, which had brought them to safety.

CAMPAIGN IS ON FOR ELECTIONS IN GREAT BRITAIN

Yarmouth, Eng.—The first open move in a nation-wide campaign for the forthcoming British general election, when Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin and his government appeal to the British voters for another five-year mandate, will be made here when 2,600 Conservative delegates, a record gathering of its kind, go into conference to hammer out a party platform.

Within a month from now Conservatives, Liberals and Labor, by means of their annual conferences will determine the issues upon which they will wage the biggest party struggle in this country since the Great War.

The most intense fights are expected on tariff questions, the extension of protective measures by means of "safeguarding" of industries by special import duties.

British political strategists are getting ready to adopt new means and methods of appealing to the public.

Close watch is kept on the rapid development of wireless and talking movies. "Talkies" are being made of Baldwin and other political leaders; motor cars and trucks with the latest broadcasting apparatus made ready for swift campaigns through the country districts. The hunt for party songs is on, and again the Conservatives are in the lead with song sheets already issued.

One ditty delicately alludes to the "flapper" vote, that uncertain bloc of five million newly-enfranchised young women for whom all parties are angling, all claiming flapper support, and none too certain of it.

Cement Firms Protest

Producers Will Contest Move For Removal Of Duty

Ottawa.—Contesting the application of the Canadian Council of Agriculture for removal of the import duty on cement, representatives of the cement producers in Canada continued the survey of facts relating to the industry before the tariff advisory board.

In the brief of the Canadian Council of Agriculture, which was filed recently, it was claimed that the prosperous condition of the industry did not justify continuance of the existing import duties. In opening the case for the producers generally, Professor J. Jackson, Toronto, categorically denied the claims of the applicants. He sought to prove that the cost of production did not leave 57.5 per cent. of the sales to provide overhead and profits, as maintained in the brief of the council of agriculture.

Decline In Unemployment

Stockholm.—Unemployment is on a steady decline in Sweden. Latest government figures, just released, show that the number of people out of work who applied for aid in July was 9,500 as compared to 11,169 in June, or a decrease of about 14.9 per lent.

Support For Gov. Smith

Rain Damages Ontario Crops

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.—Heavy rains and continued cold weather are alarming farmers of this district. Scores of acres of grain are said to be rotting in the fields, and potatoes planted on low ground are being ruined by excessive moisture.

Enters Novel Plea

Detroit.—A plea that he was walking in his sleep when he shot and killed his wife, Amelia, has been entered as a defense for Chester Kutzlub, 48, on trial here charged with murder.

A well attended service marked the harvest home festival at Trinity United Church on Sunday evening. The edifice was artistically decorated with fruits and vegetables, much of which had won prizes at the fall fair. In the morning a large number of adults turned out with the Sunday school scholars for the rally day service. A short address by the pastor on "Mrs. Apple Tree and her Family" was followed by a paper by Wm. J. Truscott on "The Christ of the Andes." The subject of the occasion was Peace.

George, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murrell, met with a disastrous accident on Wednesday afternoon, in which he had the thumb and first two fingers of his left hand blown off. It would appear that he and Roland and Andrew Miller had come accross some caps used in blasting operations, and not realizing their explosive force young Murrell tried setting one off by placing it on a stone sitting in in his left hand whilst he used his right hand to hit the cap with another stone, and in the explosion that followed the thumb and three fingers were so badly shattered that they had to be removed by Dr. Henderson, to whom the boy was taken by some neighbors who happened to be passing along in a car just after the mishap. The two Miller boys suffered some minor injuries to their legs but are not seriously hurt. Much sympathy is felt for the lad who is a keen athlete for his age, as well as active in Boy Scout circles, and a general favorite with all.
