Many Visitors at School Opening

Fully Modern Quarters Admired—Speakers Predict Further Expansion Shortly—Valley's School Fair in Basement.

Creston's new four-room public school was officially opened by suitable exercises on Saturday afternoon. There was a representative attendance of school district citizens.

Jas. Cook, chairman of the school board, was in charge of the exercises, and was ably supported by J. E. Brown of Cranbrook, the East Kootenay inspector, and Frank Putnam, M.P.P.

In his opening remarks Mr. Cook stated the new school was in every way a credit to Creston and the other trustees, like himself, were justly proud of such an enterprise. He mentioned that the new building had cost the school district $13,185, which represents 80 per cent of the total cost, which latter was $16,485, the department of education providing only $3,297 toward the cost of construction.

The new school was completed within the time limit and for the exact contract price. The amount of money left in town by the contractors, Moncrieff & Vastaunet for labor, material and sub-contracts amounted to $9,121.

Frank Putnam was the next speaker who in very businesslike fashion compared the advantages enjoyed by the pupils of today with the school facilities of 40 years ago. He impressed upon those present the need of education and pointed out how fortunate the present generation is in being able to attend public and high school without paying any tuition up to the age of 18 years. Apparently this advanced age limit has recently been added in order to keep some of the young people busy rather than have them unemployed. He expressed a great pleasure at being present on such an occasion. He observed the new school had one weakness—it is not big enough and was of the opinion that very shortly it will be necessary to add to the present building.

Inspector Brown, who represented the department of education, also expressed great pleasure at having a hand in opening such a fine school in a fine town like Creston. He observed that the occasion gave him an opportunity to meet the teachers as well as the residents of the district. Mr. Brown's remarks were mainly on the aims and objects of education. He stressed the need of teachers concentrating on their profession and budget their time so as to be able to give extra attention to any pupils that are backward. He also stated that in a very short time examinations would be a thing of the past; that a pupils rank would be judged by his daily work. At the close of his talk Mr. Brown officially presented the key of the new school to Chairman Cook. Prior to the turning of the key all present joined in the national anthem.

Principal Marriott and Misses M. L. Wade, Gladys Webster and Helen Moore, the teachers who will be located in the new building were present to show visitors through the school and were kept busy throughout the afternoon. In connection with the opening the Women's Institute had the annual valley school fair in the basement, where tea was served all afternoon.

A feature to Chairman Cook's talk was some facts concerning the earlier educational life at Creston. He stated the first school was opened in 1899 on a site donated by the late Fred Little and Col. Mallandaine, at the foot of Fifth street, in a building now occupied by Joe Tebeau. The premises were quickly found too small and in 1903 a two-room school was built further up the hill, which now serves as quarters for the provincial police. In 1909 J. W. Dow donated a site on which the former four-room central school was erected. Since that time a one room for the increased high school attendance has been provided as well as the two-room school that formerly accommodated Divisions 5 and 6, and two basement rooms fitted up in the central school building about three years ago. And now 1935 has produced the fine new four-room school.

According to Mr. Cook the records relate that Creston's first school trustees were J. W. Dow, Col. Mallandaine and the late John Arrowsmith. The first teacher was Miss Dalbey who came here from Victoria. The pupils attending the first school were William Arrowsmith now mayor of Rossland; Jennie Arrowsmith (Mrs. E. Drifill, Kitchener); Lou Arrowsmith (Mrs. G. A. M. Young, Creston); Joy and Osman Arrowsmith of Creston and Arrow Creek respectively; Campbell Dow of Nanaimo; Jessie Dow (Mrs. T. W. Bundy, Erickson); George Huscroft, Wynndel; Vera Huscroft (the late Mrs. Lou Faulkner); Margaret McCarthy (Mrs. Chas. Paas, Calgary); Connie McCarthy, now at the coast; and the two Murphy children, who left Creston with their parents about 1903.

Wynndel

Miss Rita Wall of West Creston spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. P. Andestad.

A very fine specimen of porcupine was seen on the R. Andestad strawberry patch on Sunday.

The November meeting of the Ladies' Aid is set for Thursday, 7th at the home of Mrs. J. G. Abbott.

Ken Packman and A. Davis, who are working at Erickson were home for the dance Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Birch were Thanksgiving Day visitors at Cranbrook making the trip by auto.

On the occasion of her birthday, Saturday, 26th, Mrs. R. Uri was given a surprise party at her home.

Miss Ethel Hook and brother, Warren of Spokane, were weekend visitors with their grandmother, Mrs. J. J. Grady.

The new Anglican pastor, Rev. Mr. Herburg, is to be here Sunday, 3rd, at 3 p.m. for service at St. Michael's Church.

Mrs. Hook arrived last week from Spokane to undergo a major operation at Creston hospital, from which she is recovering nicely.

The Ladies' Aid had a quilting party at the home of Mrs. G. W. Taylor on Thursday when a very nice quilt for a needy family was turned out.

Deepest Sympathy is extended Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Rowe in the death of their 11-weeks old daughter, Evonne Mary, on Sunday, the cause of death being pneumonia.

Wynndel had its first touch of winter on Monday. A heavy gale blew out of the northeast, accompanied by snow. During the night the mercury dropped to 15 above zero for the coldest October weather ever known here.

Vera Andestad was hostess to a number of friends on Friday, the occasion being her fourth birthday. Those present were Thelma Andestad, Shirley Gregory, Lillian and Norma Gregory, Adrain Andestad, David and Maurie Hindley.

The prizewinners at the bridge drive on Friday evening were: High scores, Mrs. E. Uri and Clarence Wilson; consolation, Mrs. Slingsby and Ad. Hagen. Not many turned out for cards, which were followed by a dance by the Silver tone seven piece orchestra of Calgary.

Rev. Andrew H. Walker had harvest Thanksgiving service at the United Church Sunday morning. The edifice was nicely decorated with fruit flowers and vegetables. During the service seven children, Goldin, Bernice and Boulah Gustafson, Muriel and Doris Huscroft, Hazel Davis and Vera Packman, sang the hymn of thanks.

Loallo, Hi Reps. Review, Winners

Basketball Season Opens Auspiciously—High School Girls and Review Off to Good Start—Pavilion Improvements O.K.

There was a good turnout of the fans for the opening games of Creston Commercial Basketball League at Park pavilion on Friday night, and more than a few kindly remarks were heard of the action of the council for the good job that has been made of raising the beams in the hall. The change has made a marked improvement in the sport, as every player has a fine chance to shoot if they see fit. The removal of the beams immediately in front of the baskets has eliminated all obstacles to longer range shooting.

Although Friday night's games were not as fast as expected, play was of a high standard for the initial games, with the High Reps. downing Pharmacy 23-14; last year's champions, Creston Review defeating Creston Motors 27-16 in the ladies' division; and the High Rep. boys going down to defeat to Loallo 18-14.

In the first game the High Rep. girls won decisively over Pharmacy in 40 minutes of fast but sloppy play. The High Rep. forward line of Ruby Palmer, Nell Payne and Theo Tompkins had no trouble piercing Pharmacy defence, and Ruth Hare and Helen Staples worked exceptionally hard on the defence, breaking up the red shirt rushes effectively. Of the new comers Ruby Palmer handles herself like a veteran, accounting for two baskets of her team total, Helen Staples at guard, is exceptionally good at rebounds and loose balls. Pharmacy never seemed to get properly organized in any stanza of the game, but by next week everyone expects to see vast improvement. For Pharmacy Betty Speers and Marjorie Learmonth were outstanding. The teams: Pharmacy—M. Learmonth, Fay Tompkins, Betty Speers, Phyllis MacDonald, Crane, E. LaBelle, Y. LaBelle, Abbott, Madge Moore.

High Reps.—N. Payne, Theo Tompkins, Ruth Hare, Thelma Erickson, Beryl Palmer, Staples, Doris Hendy, Ruby Palmer.

The second game between last year's champion Creston Review and Creston Motors was a bit tiresome to watch, although good basketball was played by the printers. An outstanding feature was the record hung up by the champs in garnering six points in one minute of play. On the forward line Nora Payne, Martello, Swain and Bourdon all played glib edged ball, with Martello and Swain turning in the best basket getting performance. Each had ten points to their credit. Dot Palmer worked effectively with Sarah Clark and Ada Lewis in turn to hold down the opposition score. Motors were not thoroughly organized but put up a nice exhibition, never losing their fighting spirit. Dot MacDonald led the parade with 8 of the 16 points to her credit. Kate Payne, Liz Armitage and June Browell, while not figuring in the scoring, were always in the play. The teams:

Creston Motors—E. Avery, D. MacDonald, Brownell, Wightmann, K. Payne, Helen Moore, Helen LaBelle, Armitage. Creston Review—Swain, Bourdon, Martello, Nora Payne, Dot Palmer, A. Lewis, Sarah Clark.

The last fixture that saw the High Rep. Boys in action against Loallo, while closely contested was not all basketball. The former were inclined to be excitable but gave the apple crew a good run. Loallo handled the ball nicely and scored most of their baskets from fine combination play. The weakness to this clash was that the boys were shooting too far away from the basket, which was rather tiresome to the spectators. Maddess, Sam Nastasi, and Francis Bourdon were the pick of Loallo, while L. MacLaren, Will LaBelle and Des. Truscott starred for High School. The teams:

High School—LaBelle, Truscott, Gus, Morabito, York, MacLaren, Jim Rogers, Gordon Martin, Bill Weir.

Loallo—Maddess, Jack Young, Buff Nastasi, F. Bourdon, Sid Scott, C. Goplin, J. Dale.

Refereeing was in charge of Earl Marriott and Ben Crawford, with Doble MacDonald at the watch, and Tom Bishop of Nelson, scorer. It is announced that Universal Motors has donated a cup for the ladies' division of the league this season.

Boswell

Mrs. Michell is a Nelson visitor this week.

Dolly Tedford is on a week's visit at her home at Canyon.

Tom Kunst of Gray Creek was a weekend visitor at Boswell on business.

Pete Russel and B. Bourgeois were business visitors over the weekend.

Rev. Clyde Harvey held harvest festival service at Memorial hall on Sunday evening. The hall was beautifully decorated by the members of the Church Guild, and it was decided to forward the fruit and vegetables used for decoration to Cranbrook hospital.

Mrs. Kiley has returned to her home at Crawford Bay after a visit at Kamloops.

Herb Dodd of Creston, who is to have charge of the new school at Sanca, was a weekend visitor.

Tom Wells of Gray Creek passed through on his way to Creston, where he is a hospital patient.

Buddy Frampton, who has spent the past month at his cabin on Sanca Flats, has returned to Vancouver.

Jim Hicks of the Nelson Transfer has returned from Vancouver where he was a business visitor for a few days.

No geese, as yet, have been observed going south. They are evidently taking a different route, as the season is late.

Mr. Hambly of the Canada Smelters Company of Sanca, was a business visitor from Calgary, Alberta, at the weekend.

It is expected Mr. and Mrs. Miller and family of Kuskanook will in future, reside at Sanca, so as to be near the school.

A truckload of Silver foxes passed through last week. The owners were moving them to Kelowna from Kelliher, Sask.

On Saturday a number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bainbridge the occasion being Eric's birthday.

C. Shauh and Kenneth arrived from Lomond, Alberta. They expected to purchase property in the district and become permanent residents.

Two inches of wet snow fell at Kootenay Bay on the Fraser and Watson ranch, which is located on the summit. Considerable damage was done the apple crop.

After a driving snowstorm which swept out of the north Monday afternoon, the thermometer dropped to 20 degrees above zero during the night. Had it not been for the strong wind the heavy snow would have done considerable damage to fruit trees. Many apples have yet to be picked and it is hoped the heavy frost has done no damage.

The October meeting of the Boswell Church Guild was held at the home of Mrs. A. Kennedy on Tuesday evening. Miss Smith, president, occupied the chair with Mrs. Kennedy, secretary. Among those present were Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. West, Mrs. Shell, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Edwin Bainbridge, Mrs. Eric Bainbridge and Mrs. Gullette. The guild will have a white elephant sale at the end of November, and they will also support Mr. Pound by paying half the hall rent for services held by him. Rev. E. J. McKittrick expressed appreciation of his work here in Rev. Clyde Harvey's absence.

Sirdar

Mrs. Martin was a visitor to Creston on Saturday.

J. S. Wilson was a business visitor to Creston on Saturday morning.

Art Rutledge was at the teachers convention at Cranbrook last week.

A. Rutledge, school principal, spent the weekend at his home in Fernie.

Mrs. Talarico and Miss Sylvia were visitors at Creston during the week.

The moose seen here some days ago was again seen at the first of the week.

John Terrace of Cranbrook arrived on Thursday to make repairs on the coal chute.

A new concrete foundation is being placed for the engine at the Moore sawmill camp.

The hill leading into Sirdar from the east has been graded, all the bumps removed and a good surface made.

M. Hambly Superintendent of the Sanca Mines has arrived from Calgary and is staying at the mining camp there.

Fred Smythe and party of Nelson arrived on Tuesday with their launch having in tow a house boat to be used in hunting.

Pete Cherbo has left with his team for Destiny Bay, where he will be employed hauling logs to the Cecil Moore sawmill near there.

Sydney Rogers of Glenlily spent the weekend at his home here, bringing with him as guests, Bob Brogan and M. Dickerson of Yahl.

Gino Bugara is in charge of coal loading operations at the coal chute during the absence of James Pascuzzo, who is on a vacation.

A slight mishap to the machinery of the coal chute took place this week but was repaired before the coal loading service was impaired.

Many Valley Schools Exhibit

Pupils from Boswell to Lister Among the Prizewinners—Exhibits Numerous, and of Uniformly High Quality.

Creston Valley School fair, held in Creston's new four-room school on Saturday afternoon and sponsored by Creston and District Women's Institute, was a real success.

The work was placed by Mrs. W. Fraser and was all displayed to the best advantage. The judging was done by Principal Marchbank and D. Todd, both of the staff of Creston high school, who found it no easy task to place the awards on such a fine collection of work.

All the schools from Boswell to Lister were represented. In Grade 1, plasticine modelling, the exhibit by Joan Bainbridge of Boswell was exceptionally good, and was closely contested by May Hedstrom and Alice Boffey of Creston. Grade 3 exhibitors in art also put in some praiseworthy work, the colors being almost perfectly blended, and it was apparent the winners had no easy victory with so much competition. Victor Cellis was first prize winner, with Gloria Romano second, and Joyce Arrowsmith third.

The physical and product maps entered by all grades caused considerable comment, and visitors were specially taken with the neatness and pains taken to make a fine display. Writing, for Grade 8 was won by Phyllis Lowther and was beautifully done.

The Women's Institute is to be commended for making the school fair possible. It is not only interesting to the parents of the children, but promotes the competitive spirit amongst the pupils, which always stimulates greater interest than is ordinarily taken. The list of winners follows:

Grade 1: Writing—Kristine Hendrickson, Lister; Sylvester Schmidt, Creston; Jack Goodwin, Erickson; Number booklet—Anthony Floer, Canyon; Gordon French, Creston; Betty Gilchrist, Creston; Art, Crayon landscape—Dorothy Boffey, Gordon French, Stella Hinton, Modelling in plasticine—Joan Bainbridge, Boswell; May Hedstrom, Creston; Alice Boffey, Creston.

GRADE 2: Writing—Bernice Donaldson, Lister; Lorna Bell, Creston; Inez Gustafson, Lister; Art, crayon drawing—Sidney Bourdon, Beverley Romano, Kathleen Joyce, Modelling, cardboard box or basket—John Bullock, Ena Jones, Kathleen Joyce.

GRADE 3: Writing—Dorothy Milner, Lister; Bob Ibbittson, Creston; Mabel Chernoff, Erickson; Art, fruit in basket—Victor Cellis, Gloria Romano, Joyce Arrowsmith; Geography, booklet on any country—Gloria Romano, Edwin Dickinson, Bob Ibbittson.

GRADE 4: Writing, letter—Stella Beard, Lister; Ethel Hendren, Louise Hare, Art, color design—Bertha Gardiner 1st and 2nd; Harley Brady, Geography, map—Jim O'Neil, Stella Beard, Lister; Alice Healey, Erickson.

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

Anna Ilyinichna Yelizarova-Ulyanova, sister and close collaborator of Nikolai Lenin, died at Moscow at the age of 71.

Joseph Charlebois, artist and cartoonist, well known for his work in La Presse, Montreal, died in hospital here in that city recently.

Regular fall upswings of agricultural exports was reported by the commerce department to have lifted total United States exports 15 per cent. between September and August.

A striking longshoreman was shot to death at Port Arthur and two non-union dock workers were missing after non-union workers and a group of men engaged in hand-to-hand fighting.

The council of the international labor bureau of the League of Nations may designate Canada to occupy the seat in the bureau made vacant by the withdrawal of Germany from the league, it was reported.

Of the 10,579,818 bushels of wheat imported by China in the first four months of 1935, Australia supplied 7,831,836 bushels. Argentina supplied most of the remainder while importations from United States and Canada were negligible.

All premises used as grasshopper poison mixing stations were condemned by the Manitoba government as unsuitable for living quarters for any person. The action was taken as a result of 25 roadworkers, housed in a mixing station, being stricken with poison recently.

Purchasers of new cars in November and December this year will not be required to buy a part-time 1935 Ontario automobile license, it has been announced. Instead, these purchasers can buy their 1936 plates after Nov. 1 and these licenses will carry them to the end of December, 1936.

South Africa's 1935 maize crop is estimated at 17,941,000 bags.

A Law Every Mother Should Know and Observe

Never Give Your Child An Unknown Remedy without Asking Your Doctor First

According to any doctor you ask, the only safe way is never to give your child a remedy you don't know all about, without asking him first.

When it comes to "milk of magnesia," that you know everywhere, for over 60 years, doctors have said "PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia for your child."

So—always say Phillips' when you buy. And, for your own peace of mind, see that your child gets this; the finest men know. Made in Canada.

Safety for You and Yours
You can assist others by refusing to accept a substitute for the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. Do this in the interest of yourself and your children—and in the interest of the public in general.

Was Famous Cartoonist

Sidney Smith Creator Of The Gumps,
Killed In Automobile Accident

An automobile crash in Illinois ended the career of Sidney Smith, cartoonist-philosopher, who made "Oh Min" and "Soup's On" household phrases in many lands.

The veteran creator of "The Gumps," "Old Doc Yak" and "Ching Chow" who dropped pearls of wisdom and humor from his lips each day, was dead when they removed him from the wreckage of his car.

Smith, who was 58, ranked with Claire Briggs as probably the greatest portrayer of family life through the medium of cartoons. The daily doings of Andy and Min Gump, Little Chester and the fabulously wealthy Uncle Bim, their joys and their sorrows, have been a comic page feature for years.

More recently Smith introduced "Ching Chow," a little Oriental of few words and much wisdom. This box cartoon was made to tell readers such things as "The slave has but one master—the ambitious as many as there are people likely to be useful to him."

Smith's noted career started when he was but 18, making him one of the real oldsters of the game. The ranks of the veterans are thin, "Gus" Herri-man, artful drawer of "Krazy Kat" and Bud Fisher, creator of "Mutt and Jeff," remaining as probably the two best known among the old hands.

Among the intimate little twists Smith got out of his work was the license number 348. Long ago it appeared on Yak's auto. Then he transferred it to Andy Gump's half-pint gas buggy. Only Smith's intimates knew that 348 was the cartoonist's own motor permit number and was issued to him for many years.

Smith's attorney, E. Williams, disclosed that a few hours before the fatal journey the cartoonist had renewed his contract with the Chicago-Tribune-New York News syndicate. He said it stipulated the payment of $750,000 for a five-year period.

A native of Bloomington, Ill., Smith had been a staff member of the Chicago Tribune since 1911. He began his career as a cartoonist on the Bloomington Eye in 1895.

New Gold Discovery

Several Groups Of Claims Staked In Ontario Near Manitoba Boundary

A new gold discovery in the north-west corner of Ontario, where several groups of claims have already been staked was announced by Hon. Paul Leduc, Ontario minister of mines, who said the new area "appears a favorable one for prospecting."

David Foster, prospector for a Winnipeg group, was credited with the discovery. The area, it which quartz exposures were said to exist in three places over one 300-foot stretch, is 40 miles east of the Manitoba boundary and more than 200 miles north of the Red Lake discoveries. It surrounds the Sachigo river.

On Roof Of World

Successful Truck Gardening Is Possible
At High Altitudes

Potatoes and other vegetables will grow at an altitude of over 7,200 feet in the Pamirs, "the Roof of the World," according to Professor M. Baranov, who recently conducted experiments for the Soviet Government. He declares that truck gardening is possible in the lofty mountains. The potatoes were grown from seeds, and tomato, cabbage, pepper and egg plant seeds are successfully taking root.

Efforts are being made to establish Cochin as a principal port of India.

JUDAH TAKEN CAPTIVE

Golden text: Righteousness exalteth a nation; But sin is a reproach to any people. Proverbs 14:34.

Lesson: II. Kings 24:1 to 25:21; Jeremiah 39:1-18.

Devotional reading: Psalm 107:10-16.

Explanations And Comments

The Siege of Jerusalem, verses 1-3. In the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, 586 B.C., in the tenth month according to the Babylonian calendar (which numbered its months from the spring season, the tenth month corresponding to our January), and on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came with his army and besieged Jerusalem. "The nation never forgot the month and the day on which the armies of Chaldea finally invested the city. It was felt as the day of the deepest gloom by the Israelite exiles, Ezekiel 24. It has been commemorated as a fast, the Fast of Tebeth, ever since in the Jewish Church" (Dean Stanley).

The Flight from Jerusalem and the Fate of Zedekiah, verses 4-7. When a breach was finally made in the city walls, the Israelites fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden. This gate was on the south of the city. The Israelites must have known that there was little chance of making good their escape, for the Chaldeans surrounded the city.

The Fate of Jerusalem, verses 8-10, 13-17. On the seventh day of the fifth month, Nebuzaradan, the captain of Nebuchadnezzar's guard (literally "chief of the executioners," the king's bodyguard to whom such duties belonged), came to complete the destruction of Jerusalem. The work of devastation was thoroughly done. The gold and silver vessels, and the pillars and vessels of brass of the temple were saved to be carried to Babylon, and then the sacred temple, on which such a passion of love had been lavished, was razed to the ground. The king's palace and every great house in the city were burned, and the city walls were broken down.

The Fate of the People, verses 11, 12, 22. The commander of the body guard carried off as prisoners the people left in the city and those who had already surrendered to the king of Babylon, as well as the rest of the masterworkmen (Moffatt's translation). The poorest of the people were left to cultivate the land, as vine-dressers and husbandmen.

"I am sorry," she said, "but I could never marry a red-headed man."

"Then may I propose again next year?" he asked.

"But it will be the same thing then."

"No; my hairdresser says I shall be bald in a year."

The first making of brass in North America was attempted by John Winthrop, Jr., in his iron foundry at Lynn, Mass., in 1644.

PATTERN 5458

The toque is again in high favor with Dame Fashion. She well knows how easy it is to wear. And this one in crochet meets with her loud approval for all her forecasts point to crochet as an outstanding note for Fall and Winter. The toque is so simple to make and has, as chief decoration, a cable effect that is very lovely. The muff—purse—and how we all love that—repeats the design of the toque. Its shirred ruffle and fullness give it a feminine note that will add much to your appearance.

In pattern 5458 you will find complete instructions for making the set shown; an illustration of it and of the stitches used; material requirements. ## Select Base For Ocean Hops

Nearly Two Million Dollars Set Aside
For Air Site

A 900-acre property four miles from Sydney, N.S., has been selected as the site for a $1,750,000 North American terminus of the projected ocean air service, C. H. Clendinning, chairman of the Irish Transatlantic Air Corporation, announced recently.

Owned by the Nova Scotia government, the property has been deeded to the corporation and will be developed along the lines proposed for the eastern terminus at Londonderry, northern Ireland.

Planning the "quickest practical route" for air transportation between the Old Country and North America, the chairman said the terminus at Sydney would be leased to other corporations connecting the ocean service with Canadian and United States lines. The planes, he said, would provide accommodation for 45 persons beside facilities for handling mail.

He blushed a little; and Nance said: "I'll admit that Jack is. It took pluck to leave even the cold shelter of that bus, you know. But to make a fuss over me is—just ridiculous! I'd have been a coward to watch those kiddies freeze to death and not do everything I could. You know I would!"

There was silence a moment before Matt asked: "Do you remember the last time we sat under the old pine, Nancy? You told me then that your courage had never been tested and you wondered how you'd show up in a pinch. Well, you know now, don't you?"

"I'd forgotten that," she answered softly; then lowered her voice still more, her face flushing a little. "Matt, will you tell me something, honestly? I can't ask Cousin Columbine, she looks so worn and tired; and I've got to know. It's about my feet. These papers said I'd lose them—that my legs were frozen solid to the knees. Was that the truth?"

"Yes, that was true, Nancy. I'm never going to forget the way I felt when the nurse told me an amputation wasn't necessary. I wanted to cheer, or—or cry or something. Miss Columbine did cry when I told her."

Nance swallowed, and it struck the young man that she was still frightened.

"Is there something else you want to know, Nance?"

"Only—only—well, Mark carried me upstairs when I came home, Matt. Are my feet really all right, or..."

So she'd been lying there acting cheerful and worrying about that! thought Matthew. Oh, she was wonderful!

"Of course they're all right!" he reassured her. "You could walk on them now, only the doctor said you weren't to go too fast. That's straight, Nancy. I wouldn't deceive you a time like this."

The girl sank back limply against her pillows.

"I suppose I'm a moron; but I've wanted to ask that question for days, and was too scared!" She smiled now, at her own foolishness, and added: "If all those complimentary newspaper reporters knew I was terrified at the thought of ending my days in a wheel-chair, I guess they'd be frightfully disillusioned!"

"Disillusioned!" Matt's eyes flashed with protective indignation. "Disillusioned! Why—"

"Are you plannin' to stay to dinner, Matt Adam?" called Aurora shrilly. "If so, and you're willin' to carry up three trays, you and Miss Columbine can eat with Nancy. What say?"

CHAPTER XXII.

"I am well aware, dear Cousin James," wrote Columbine Nelson on the first day of May, "how anxious you are to get your heroic young folks back; but nevertheless, I am going to ask a favor: Let them stay until Jack has time to fill out again. He looked so splendid the morning they started off for Prairie Ranch that I can't bear to send him home to you as gaunt as he is now. A few weeks of careful feeding will work wonders in his appearance; and Aurora Tubbs is itching to 'fat him up,' as she expresses it. If I may keep them until after the fourth of July they'll have a chance to see so much more of this wonderful country; and your old cousin will be far happier."

A note from Nancy added her plea: "Don't ever think that we're not crazy to see you all, but Jack is a beanpole, and Aurora's marvelous cooking ought to fix that in no time. Then too, 'Uncle Tom and Aunt Em' want us at Prairie Ranch for a few days, just to convince us, I imagine, that the plains can be warm and friendly as well as cold and cruel. A visit there will be something to remember; and anyway, Jack refuses to go home until he's husky enough to handle a pick and shovel and can straighten up the gate posts at Cousin Columbine's driveway. They trouble him a great deal more than they do her (!); but she does want the house painted, and couldn't afford to because she paid our fares out here. Aurora told me that. I guess Uncle Jethro didn't make any great pile in Leadville; and I shan't accept a penny of the 'salary' she offered as bait in that comical letter. Your wandering girl will return as poor as she started out!"

"But I'm feeling wonderful now. My feet are as good as new. The library's booming; and I still get something of a kick when any one addresses me as 'Miss Aladdin.' I've not gone back on New England, Daddy; but I'll miss the library and those 'big open spaces' we Easterners joke about. Tell Phil I'm sending him some real Indian arrow heads..."

Though the family at Edgemere was disappointed, this plan was obviously best for Jack, and they did not protest. The boy's strength returned more rapidly than Cousin Columbine anticipated; and by the middle of May they ventured to make some of the long-promised excursions to places not far distant enough to tire him.

"I'm sick to death of puttin' up picnic lunches," grumbled Aurora one bright May morning. "And why anybody in their senses should go to Cripple Creek when they could stay away, is somethin' entirely beyond me. Not a first in the whole town, Nancy Nelson! Not a growin' thing lessen you count sage; and those awful prospect holes all over the hills lookin' for all the world like open

is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's
Well-Being to Unknown
Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about "ASPIRIN."

He will tell you that before the discovery of "Aspirin" most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate "Aspirin" among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

graves in a cemetery. And here's Miss Columbine as excited over the trip as if she'd never seen a minin' town, let alone lived in one of the pesky places for months on end! Jack, you're to drink every drop of milk in this thermos bottle; and if you feel able to digest 'em, eat three bananas. They're powerful fattenin', as I ought to know if anybody does. Is it true? Eve Adam's takin' a whole roast chicken? I hope for your sakes her husband had the cookin' of it. Looks like the Adams is neglectin' everything these days to take you gallavantin'. It's a wonder they stop to milk the cows."

Eve Adam laughed when Nancy repeated this caustic comment.

"But who cares, my dear? We'll make up the neglected work after you leave us; and it warms my heart to see how Miss Columbine enjoys these trips. It gives her a new lease of life to visit the old scenes and talk of those times with young folks who are really interested."

Jack thrilled over that trip to Cripple Creek; but the day they visited the scene of Marsh Pemperton's colossal hoax, stood out, a high light, in Nancy's memory. This was during the first week in June, a day with soft, white clouds drifting across the sky, and air like mid-summer. Their road led past ranches where men were ploughing immense acres; then on through mile after mile of yellow pines. Seated between Mark and Matthew in the old truck (the comfort of the new sedan being given over to the older Adams, Cousin Columbine, and Jack), Nance caught her breath at occasional glimpses of distant mountains, some snow-rimmed.

"I'm all but speechless over this scenery," she confessed, while the boys smiled in amusement at her enthusiasm, "yet those two idiots" (with a backward glance toward Luke and Mary Taylor, seated on cushions in the rear), "are jabbering away as if there were no wonders to behold." What ails them?"

"Love's young dream, lady," Mark opined as he slowed down for a thank-you-ma'am. "Luke's always been more or less what Aurora calls 'sweet' on Mary; and that girl has certainly blossomed out just lately, the result, I believe, of association with Miss Aladdin."

Nance laughed; and Matt said solemnly: "With all due respect to Miss Aladdin, I've a notion that our kid brother is responsible for that change in Mary Taylor." He turned to view the unsuspicious couple seated below, and added: "At any rate, they're both oblivious to the scenery!"

Mark chuckled, and rounding a curve, announced: "Here's your pioneer cemetery, Nance—the one Miss Columbine told about. Shall we view it from here, or are you determined to climb that slope in this hot sun?"

"What did we come for?" the girl responded; and as Matt sprang down she took his steadying hand and followed. "I wouldn't miss seeing this place for anything. Aren't you all coming?"

Mark shook his head. "I'm starving. I'm going to forage in the lunch box. What do you say, folks?"

This last was addressed to Luke and Mary, to whom the lunch box seemed more alluring than the cemetery. So it was with Matt alone that Nance explored that tragic spot, looking down soberly on graves protected only by sagging fences, the marking on their wooden headboards almost obliterated—some wholly lost amid an overgrowth of weeds and bushes.

Perhaps it was the history of the place that silenced the young people. Neither spoke for a time; and then Nance stooped, laying a spray of blossoming pink kinnikinnick on one small unmarked resting place.

"Somebody's baby," she explained, flushing a bit for fear that Matt would think her sentimental; but to her relief he added:

"And all because of one man's greed. I'd hate to be responsible for such a place, Nancy; yet when my time comes I'd rather lie in this wild tangle than in a city cemetery with a neatly mowed lawn above me, and a 'perpetual care' sign over my head."

His voice was thoughtful, and with sudden inspiration the girl quoted:

"Under the wide and starry sky
Dig my grave and let me lie."

"Is that how you feel, Matt?"

His eyes lighted at her intuition; but before he could reply, Mark's laughing voice broke in upon them.

"Both poetic, and appropriate, young lady; but you two seem to have forgotten that we're on our way. The old folks have caught up with us, but they're too lazy to get out, and Jack's already explored this melancholy scene. There's still ten or twelve miles ahead if we're to eat our lunch on the shore of the Platte, as Miss Columbine has set her heart on doing. Have some cake?"

Matthew, who longed to strangle his brother for this intrusion, nevertheless accepted his portion with good grace; while Nance exclaimed: "You've saved my life, Mark! I'm almost passing out. Isn't the Platte the river we read about in history—I mean the one the pioneers were always fording?"

Electors of East Kootenay:

I wish to express my grateful thanks and appreciation of the loyal support that I received from the electors of East Kootenay.

For the five years that I have represented you I have left no stone unturned to advance your interests and I believe I have been able to render considerable assistance to the citizens in the district. This I have done gladly, and this I will continue to do in the future to the best of my ability.

It was in part at least the sufferings of the unemployed in the coal mining areas of the Crow's Nest Pass district that impelled me to adopt the course I did, namely, fight for the economic freedom of the workers of the country. This in turn resulted in my becoming the Leader of a movement along that line which demanded my presence in all parts of Canada during the campaign. Consequently I was in my riding only a very short time.

In spite of this the electors of East Kootenay, recognizing I believe the value of the work I was doing, gave me their loyal support. For this I thank them from the bottom of my heart and assure them that I shall continue to fight for those who have suffered so much in recent years.

Sincerely,

H. H. STEVENS.

The fencing of the airport is now completed. It makes a great improvement in the appearance of the field.

Master Frank Putnam of Erickson spent a few days last week with his grandmother, Mrs. C. Senesael.

M. Senesael, who is employed with the Sash & Door Company at Cranbrook was home for the weekend.

B. Johnson and son, Robert, Mrs. Art Bowness, Chas. Nelson and A. R. Barrow were Sunday visitors at Kingsgate.

R. Rigby, airport storekeeper, who has been on a two weeks' vacation at Kellogg and Spokane, has returned, resuming work on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Senesael and Miss Hazel McGonegal were Thanksgiving Day visitors with Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Putnam, at Erickson.

Word has just been received of the death in Spokane of Mrs. Gus Berg, a sister of Mrs. B. Johnson, on October 22nd. The funeral was on October 25th. The sympathy of the community is extended Mrs. Johnson in her sad bereavement.

Alice Siding

Mrs. J. H. Webster got back on Saturday from a short trip to Cranbrook.

Jas. Jenkins of Natal was a weekend visitor here, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Webster.

W. A. Pease was combining business with pleasure on a trip to Cranbrook the latter part of the week.

Miss Elsa Willis left on Monday for Kimberley, where she has secured a position and expects to remain for some time.

The cold dip should be to the liking of the hunters. It will bring the geese down from the north. So far the kill of birds and deer has been light.

Alice Siding pupils won several of the prizes at the valley school's fair on Saturday last. It was held in the new school at Creston. A number of parents were in to view the exhibits.

Alice Siding got the full force of the gale that blew in from the northeast commencing about noon on Monday and not easing off completely until early Wednesday morning. The mercury went down to six above zero Wednesday a.m. Quite a quantity of Wagener and other later varieties of apples were unpacked.

Canyon

Miss Marion Parker was a visitor with friends at Nelson a few days at the first of the week.

Lorne Craig is putting the finishing touches on his new residence on the former Zachodnik place, opposite the school.

Canyon pupils had a number of entries at the school fair at Creston on Saturday, and several from here were in town to see the exhibits.

Cliff Reynolds is at present a patient at Creston hospital where he was taken on Monday for an operation from which he is recovering nicely.

J. Daly motored in from Calgary at the end of the week for a short visit with Mrs. C. A. Robinson, who is moving to Toronto, Ontario, to reside.

Owners of livestock were busy Tuesday and Wednesday with the round-up of cattle that have been feeding on the range in this locality. It looks as if winter is here to stay just at present.

Fred Chapman, construction superintendent on the West Kootenay Power & Light Company, Limited, improvements at the canyon power plant, was in Nelson for a few days at the first of the week.

A party of about two dozen treated Mr. and Mrs. Glen Messinger to a housewarming party on Saturday night on the occasion of their taking possession of the former ranch home of Mrs. C. A. Robinson.

Canyon got its full share of the blizzard that blew through B.C. on Monday and Tuesday, and which found a considerable quantity of apples still on the trees. Tuesday morning the thermometer registered 15 above zero, but Wednesday a.m. it got down to six above zero.

Sirdar

The water as indicated by gauge at Slough bridge reads 1.35 for the week, a drop of 0.15.

Wilfred Marquis and his son of Nelson are spending a few days hunting over the flats, the guest of Frank Hamilton at Kootenay Landing.

The past weekend saw more hunters engaged on the flats than ever before. Ideal weather conditions made results good. Geese were greatly in evidence.

Heavy blasting has been going on all week at the rock cut to the east of the approach to the new bridge at Boulder Creek. The rock is being used on the fill.

Another car of fruit from the Boswell growers was loaded at Atbara at the end of the week for export. Another two cars are spotted for the same destination.

Doug Butterfield is now in complete charge of the Kitchen of the road camp here, taking the place of Dick Bovan, who has resigned. A considerable crew is stationed here at present.

Mr. and Mrs. VanAcheron and Miss Ethel of Canyon were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wilson, Sunday. Miss E. VanAcheron and Charles Wilson were motor visitors to Gray Creek on Sunday.

Bill Rochac, who is employed at the Bayonne mine, was a visitor at Creston and Sirdar for a few days, returning to Tye on Saturday. He reports about fourteen inches of snow on the higher reaches of the trail to the mine.

TO THE PEOPLE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

YOU will recall that upon numerous occasions I have advised you that it was necessary that amendments should be made to the British North America Act in order that British Columbia might be placed in a thoroughly sound position. I also pointed out that there were other matters of common concern to the provinces and the Dominion upon which new understanding and agreement should be reached but which can be adjusted under the constitution as it now stands.

I have been advised by the Rt. Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King, that a conference of the provinces and the Federal Government at Ottawa will be called sometime in November to consider these matters.

I had hoped this year to visit all parts of this province and regret that I have not been able to do so on account of pressing work. I have, however, during the past twenty years, many times visited every section of British Columbia as a Minister of the Crown and as Leader of the Opposition. With this personally gained knowledge and with the advice of my colleagues and members of the legislature who represent all parts of the province, I feel that I am in intimate touch with the requirements of our people.

During the past year, through foresight in keeping a nest egg of some two million dollars, your government was able to carry out a considerable amount of work of very useful character in various parts of the province. Approximately 300 miles of hard surfacing of roads was carried out this year.

In this regard I was criticised from certain quarters, who alleged that the money was being spent in the various constituencies for partisan purposes. These critics claimed that the expenditure should have been concentrated in the larger centres. Your government is determined that all parts of the province shall receive equal consideration.

Special provision was made in the sum of five hundred thousand dollars to assist our municipalities.

During the two years your government has been in office it has had to face two problems: (1) to meet the immediate present with the resources at our command, and; (2) to lay plans for future upbuilding.

Next month, accompanied by several of my colleagues, I shall proceed to Ottawa to go into consultation with the other provinces and the Dominion. I feel sure that we shall carry with us the very best wishes of our people as a whole for a most successful mission.

New Presbyterian Pastor Arrives

Rev. J. A. T. McLagan, Former Pastor at Innisfail, Alta., Comes to St. Stephen's Church—First Services Sunday, Nov. 3rd.

Innisfail, Alta., Province

It is learned with feelings of the deepest regret, not only by the congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Innisfail, but also by the citizens of town and country that Rev. J. A. T. McLagan has handed in his resignation and will leave next week with Mrs. McLagan and family to take charge of the Presbyterian Church at Creston, B.C.

Rev. McLagan came to Innisfail in 1929 and during the past six years has won a place in the hearts of the community not simply as a pastor of the church but also as a citizen who took a keen and lively interest in everything that was for the welfare of the community.

Rev. J. A. T. McLagan is a native of Edinburgh, Scotland, where his father was senior classical master of the Royal High School of Edinburgh.

He came to Canada in 1899 and took up farming in Manitoba and later in Saskatchewan. He later was in business and finally took up the work of the church graduating from Robertson Presbyterian College of Edmonton, in 1921.

His first charge was at Manville, Alberta, later at Wainwright and then St. Andrew's Church, Calgary and in 1929 took charge of St. Andrew's Church, Innisfail.

He had built up a large congregation during his six years in Innisfail and will be greatly missed.

Mrs. McLagan has also won a place in the community and has always taken an active interest in church work in the town and district.

St. Andrew's will hold their anniversary services on Sunday next October 27th, and the services will be in the nature of a farewell to Rev. McLagan and Mrs. McLagan.

The best wishes of Innisfail and district will go with Rev. J. A. T. and Mrs. McLagan to their new field in Creston.

Destructive Windstorm

The very heavy wind, with snow accompaniment, that blew in from the northeast commencing at noon on Monday and continuing until early Wednesday morning, with an unprecedented drop in temperatures which reached as low as four below zero on Thursday morning, has brought heavy losses to local orchardists, more particularly those who not completed picking this year's crop.

The loss on unpicked apples is placed at anywhere from 6000 to 10,000 boxes, although some are of the opinion that the apples that have not blown off under proper weather conditions, will come back and can be harvested later.

Monday afternoon and along until 4 a.m. Tuesday saw every vehicle of any carrying capacity whatsoever pressed into service to bring into the packing sheds or whatever cover was available the picked apples that were stacked in boxes in the orchards. A rough estimate is that at least 20,000 boxes were handled and every vacant building that could be located was utilized for storage. Some fear is felt for the fruit that has not been well sheltered with Thursday's below-zero temperature.

With the season about three weeks later than normal it was to be expected that some fruit would be unpicked but the situation was accentuated that with such fine weather prevailing some of the orchardists economized on box purchases banking on the empties coming back from the packing shed in time to safely harvest the final picking. The loss is heaviest on the Wagener, Spy and other winter varieties, along with a quantity of Delicious.

No serious injury is expected to the apple trees, but it is likely the severe temperature will work havoc with raspberry canes, and the more tender varieties of tree fruits, such as peaches and apricots. Similar, though less severe, climatic conditions were encountered even earlier in the season of 1919, with no ill effect to the apples or cherries.

The storm was general all over western Canada, and in the Okanagan a heavy loss has been sustained according to press reports.

Lister

Rev. C. Baase of Creston was here on Sunday taking the regular Lutheran Church service that afternoon.

Ernest Stevens arrived from Trail on Tuesday, and will be a guest at his home here until the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Phillips returned to Kimberley on Saturday after spending Thursday and Friday at their ranch here.

Rev. R. E. M. Yerborg, the new Anglican rector at Creston, is expected to have service here on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Lister was hostess at a party on Saturday evening for the young people of Lister-Huscroft, which was a most enjoyable affair. About two dozen were invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Ruppel of Langley Prairie, B.C., arrived on Sunday and are occupying the former Jacob Hornmann ranch, which was recently vacated by Tom Metalsky, who has taken the A. Daus farm.

The school children are having a great run of holidays. They had October 14th off for election; on the 18th the teachers were away at a convention; the 24th was Thanksgiving Day, and November 11th is Remembrance Day.

Lister Trading and Supply Company, Limited, store is now occupying the recent addition put to it by Anderson & Son, contractors, of Creston. Fully another 20 feet of shelf space is provided, which greatly improves the appearance of the interior.

The report is current here that Miss Fay Pendry and Ray O'Brien of Kimberley were married at Spokane at the middle of last week. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pendry, who has been employed at Kimberley for some time past.

Lister encountered the severest October weather on record on Monday and Tuesday. A heavy gale blew parts of both days and on Wednesday morning the thermometer went down to 2 above zero. Fortunately all the apples were under cover, so no loss in that connection is looked for.

Local and Personal

With excessive cold weather prevailing since the first of the week fruit shipments have been light up to Thursday.

The Grand presents "West Point in the Air" for two nights this week—Friday and Saturday—featuring Wallace Beery.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Walde, Miss A. Lewis and and H. B. Johnson were Fernie visitors for the annual dance of the Masonic lodge in that town, on Wednesday evening of last week.

An all time record for early skating has been established this year. The cold dip of Monday and Tuesday put a real coat of ice on the ponds outside the dyke. Old timers cannot recall getting their skates on in October in any previous year.

Saturday afternoon's attraction is the annual fruit and vegetable shower in aid of Creston hospital, which is sponsored by Creston Hospital Women's Auxiliary at the United Church basement, commencing at 8 p.m. Tea will be served free to all.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Gay are now occupying the new residence they have erected on the former Col. Fitzgerald place, which ranch they purchased and took possession of earlier in the year. The new home was built by Mr. Curtis and is modern throughout.

An opportunity to secure work horses will be presented in the auction sale on Tuesday, November 12th, of 20 head of horses from 1300 to 1600 pounds. The horses are being shipped in by J. S. Irving of Lethbridge, and will be auctioned by Jas. Compton, at Matt. York's shop. Terms cash.

The Catholic Ladies' League had a generous turnout for the first of the series of bridge drives on Thursday evening at the King George Hotel dining room. The high score prizes were taken by Mrs. Frank Putnam and Eric Craigie, and the consolation honors fell to Mrs. Joe Schmidt and Chas. Davis.

The long spell of Indian summer weather came to an abrupt termination on Monday when a heavy wind accompanied by snow blew out of the north east, the wind continuing until an early hour Wednesday morning. Temperatures dropped rapidly, with the coldest registered Thursday a.m., when the mercury got down to 4 below zero, for the coldest October weather ever recorded.

Controlling The Rust Menace

Very little reflection is required to demonstrate that an expenditure of ten years' intensive work by trained scientists and $600,000 of coin of the realm is a low price to pay for insurance of Western Canada's future wheat crops against the appalling loss which a few days of rust infestation can levy against the farmers of the West.

The $600,000 referred to and the ten years spent in work in the laboratory and the field, it was recently announced, is the cost to the nation to date of producing an unnamed wheat which, according to authorities, is able to withstand a rust epidemic unscathed and at the same time produce a kernel with all the desirable attributes of the best commercial varieties of bread wheat.

Coupled with this announcement was the further statement that this new wheat can be multiplied to a sufficient extent at Dominion government experimental farms and on private lands under government supervision to enable a general distribution of seed to be made to the farmers of the west in 1937.

These announcements were accompanied by a further declaration of considerable importance, namely, that the government intends to retain control of the source of supply of this valuable seed and to see to it that the farmers are not exploited by private concerns in connection with its distribution.

The statement means that the farmers of Western Canada will be able to secure in two years time a substantial supply of seed wheat that is guaranteed to enable them to grow a crop completely immune from ravages by rust, and at a reasonable price, probably at cost.

It is perhaps a coincidence that these announcements were made at a time when Western Canadian wheat crops were hit by the worst infection of rust that the west has known in history but the information should put new heart into the many thousands of farmers who this summer saw their hopes of recovery blighted when millions of rust spores descended on the most promising crop in years and slaughtered yield and grade which meant reducing price to the vanishing point.

The news given in these important announcements may well mean that 1935 will be the last time that Western Canadian farmers have to suffer tremendous loss from rust infestation. This statement is made with caution, however, for although it is not usual for severe rust infestation to follow in successive years, it cannot be stated affirmatively that it will not occur again before sufficient of the new wheat is grown to make a repetition of the 1935 calamity an impossibility.

Results of the work that has been done during the ten years' quest for a rust resistant wheat and laboratory and field trials of the strains which have been produced, however, appear to indicate that the battle against rust has been won by the scientist and agronomist.

There is additional comfort for the farmer, however, in another coincident announcement and that is that some of the five strains of rust resistant wheat which are being increased this year also show a tendency to resist other diseases, those mentioned specifically being stinking smut, leaf rust and one of the varieties is reported as "moderately resistant" to loose smut.

So that it is possible that while the experts have won their fight against rust they have at the same time scored at least partial victory in the battle against some of the other diseases to which wheat is heir. To what extent these other disease pests have been overcome while the major conflict was being waged time and experiment alone will prove. It is safe to say, however, that these apparent advantages will be followed up with the same vigor that these scientists have shown in their now successful efforts to overcome the major enemy.

Definite proof that the new wheat is all that is claimed for it exists as a result of field trials and laboratory tests which have been made during the ten years the work has been in progress and particularly this season.

In field plots the new wheat showed up clean and bright while alongside it the other standard varieties of commercial wheat were sick with the disease. Laboratory and commercial tests have proven conclusively that the new wheat has milling and baking qualities equal to that of Marquis and Reward.

The tests have demonstrated equally conclusively that the new wheat has the requisite length and strength of straw, yield, earliness, appearance of kernel and weight per bushel possessed by the best of the present day commercial varieties.

In other words the new wheat fills all the requirements of the type of hard spring wheat which has made Western Canada famous in the world's bread markets and has the additional ability to withstand rust, and perhaps to withstand some of the other diseases which periodically take toll of the Western grain farmer.

Eighty per cent. of the new radios in England were bought on time. Ninety per cent. of the world's nickel supply is produced by Canada.

Empress Of Ethiopia

Claims She Is Descendant Of Queen Of Sheba

Through all the worries and anxieties brought upon him by Italy's threatened conquest of Ethiopia, Emperor Haile Selassie's most devoted companion and counsellor has been his wife, Empress Waizeru Mennen. Gifted with uncommon intelligence, astuteness and foresight, the 41-year-old Empress urged the Emperor not to yield to Mussolini's threats but to defend the kingdom to the last.

Emperor Haile Selassie is Waizeru's fourth husband. Maybe that is why she is called the "Queen of Kings." They have three sons and three daughters. They have been married 23 years, and it is said they have never had a quarrel. The Emperor like most of the higher-caste Ethiopians, is monogamous. Waizeru is his only wife.

"Waizeru" means literally "Lady of Quality." She is the daughter of a famous provincial prince, and has a very dignified and aristocratic bearing. She was educated by private tutors. The "Queen of Kings", who is fat, not fair, and 40, claims to come from the same Hamitic stock as the famous Queen of Sheba who ruled Ethiopia 3,000 years ago. She also claims descent from the glamorous Cleopatra. She is addressed by her ten million native subjects as "Your Serene and All-Just Majesty". She signs herself "The Conquering Lion of Judah hath conquered."

The Empress speaks no language except the ancient Amharic, which is of Semitic origin. All attendants who approach her shield their mouths with their white shamma (shawl).

Dionne Quintuplets Bowl

Smartly Designed Bowl Is Offered As A Gift

A surprise gift offer which will interest every parent, every child and, in fact, everyone who has ever heard of the world-famous Dionne Quintuplets, has been announced. The article offered is a cereal bowl created in honour of the five little sisters and called the Dionne Quintuplets Birthday Bowl. Made of shining lifetime chromium, it is six inches in diameter, smartly designed in modern lines, and embossed inside with a charming sculpture of the "Quints". On the rim are engraved the names of the babies—Emile, Annette, Marie, Yvonne, and Cecile. Besides being an ideal cereal bowl for a child, it makes a distinctive olive and celery dish or bon-bon dish.

Readers can obtain this delightful gift by sending two Quaker Oats trade-marks, plus fifteen cents to help cover postage and handling charges, to The Quaker Oats Company, Saskatoon, Sask.

Heaviest Air Passenger

United Air Lines Carried Judge Who Weighed 400 Pounds

When County Judge A. W. Dulweber applied for a ticket at the United Air Lines office at Omaha the booking clerk was in a quandary. The judge weighs four hundred pounds and is probably the heaviest in the world. The clerk did not wish to offend him, but at the same time wondered if he could book him on board an aeroplane on only one ticket. The company were pleased to take him without extra charge, however, as the judge was undoubtedly the biggest passenger they had ever carried, and they wished to mark the occasion.

A Strange City

Queer Place In Derbyshire, England Has Only Eight Houses

A strange city may be found in England within two miles of Chesterfield's famous crooked spire. It is another Derbyshire curiosity. Down a winding bridle-path is Tipton City—the queerest and smallest city in the world. It has only eight houses and 25 inhabitants. It is the city of nothings, for there is no church, no chapel, no public-house, no shop, no post office. No electricity or gas is found there—they use oil lamps. How or why it became a city nobody knows, but it is believed to have been founded on the ashes of a Roman camp.

Soviet Aviation Authorities Try Out Parachute Kite

A passenger and freight-carrying "parachute kite," which Soviet aviation authorities said they believed would be able to ascend into the stratosphere, had its first successful trial lifting four tons of cargo.

An ordinary freight parachute, with a dome 65 feet in diameter, was used. The load was attached with short ropes leading from one side of the parachute. The other side bulges upward, giving the lifting power. Longer ropes, running from the bulging side, also were attached to a load which, for passenger-carrying purposes, would consist of a gondola. By manoeuvring the longer rope, the crew, experts said, could steer the parachute and control its ascent and descent.

The whole combination load was called a "parachute train" in the official description by Prof. I. Gromkhovsky, chief of the experimental institute of the Commissariat of Heavy Industry which is sponsoring the trials. Gromkhovsky said he believed the parachute could carry explorers into the stratosphere and described flying in a parachute kite as the safest mode of air travel since the parachute is always opened, assuring a safe descent.

Transmits Sound And Vision

Television In Germany Covers Distance Of Nearly 50 Miles

A great advance in television service has been achieved by a transmission from Witzleben to Gildenhall, Germany, a distance of nearly 50 miles. The transmission, both for sound and vision, is stated to have been very good. Dr. M. Hadamowski, head of the German broadcasting service, was seen and heard by the men of the labor camp at Gildenhall, whom he addressed. Afterwards, news pictures were transmitted with results reported to be equally satisfactory.

Only Four Feet Wide

Philadelphia Is To Have Narrowest Building In U.S.

A building being erected at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, will, it is believed, be the narrowest in the United States. It will be only four feet wide. The site of the building is all that is left of a corner plot from which the city sliced most of the ground in order to widen a street. The new building will be constructed of stainless steel, and half of it will contain a restaurant which will have a front which can be removed in summer.

THE NEW FORD V-8 FOR 1936

Why do we say The New Ford V-8 for 1936?

What is new about it?

Of course, the newest engine in the low-price car field is still the V-8 engine. Since Ford made it available to all car users (keeping it as economical as cars with fewer cylinders) the Ford V-8 has been the newest engine on the market, and remains the newest for 1936.

You may buy a car on minor "talking points"—some specially advertised feature "with the car thrown in"—but, after all, it is the engine you buy when you buy a car. Hence we put the engine first.

Other new points about the car make a long list.

Its lines are much more beautiful. The hood is longer and sweeps forward over the distinctive new radiator grille, giving the car a length and grace that are instantly impressive. The fenders are larger, with a wide flare. Horns are concealed behind circular grilles beneath the headlamps. New steel wheels.

Ford upholstery—always of sterling quality and excellent taste—is rich and enduring. The appointments of the car have a new touch of refinement. There is no question about the increased beauty of the Ford V-8 for 1936.

In more practical matters, many improvements have been made—Steering is made easier by a new steering gear ratio. The cooling system circulates 4½ gallons of water through a new, larger radiator. Natural thermosiphon action is assisted by two centrifugal water pumps. New style hood louvres permit a rapid air-flow around the engine.

Easier, quieter shifting of Ford gears—The gear shift lever now travels a shorter distance.

The two qualities you want in brakes—Brakes that stop the car with ease and certainty. Ford Super-Safety Brakes of the long-tested, fool-proof, mechanical design.

Safety—as always—in the electrically welded genuine steel body. Safety Glass all around at no extra cost. Hundreds have written grateful letters because this glass has protected the safety of their families.

A car you can drive without strain all day, if you like, in city or country. Steady, holds the road, responds to the driver's touch like a well-trained horse. You don't have to "push" or "fight" the Ford V-8—driver and car easily get on terms of good understanding with each other.

An engine has much to do with the roominess of a car. Very much indeed. A long engine uses up car space. The compact V-8 engine permits much of the ordinary engine space to be used by passengers.

It really is a great car in every way, this 1936 Ford V-8—the finest, safest, most dependable Ford car ever built. Get complete details at your nearest Ford dealer.

The Vegetable Marketing Board has dropped the price of onions to $15 ton nett to grower.

At Kingsgate 37 out of a possible 40 electors cast their ballots on federal election day.

According to the Rossland Miner the payroll at Trail smelter last year was $8,500,000.

At Salmon Arm the Observer reports the sale of McIntosh Reds as slow. The crop is badly scabbed.

Of 907 names on the voters list at Summerland it is claimed only 49 failed to vote on October 14th.

The News reports that practically a 100 per cent. vote was recorded at Nakusp on election day.

A second barber shop has opened for business at Kaslo. L. F. Riley of Trail is the new tonsorial artist.

According to the Herald it will be early in November before apple picking is completed at Penticton.

At Vernon hunters say there is one pheasant available this season where ten were to be had a year ago.

Due to an outbreak of bitter pit Yellow Newton apples at Summerland are not being wrapped just at present.

At Kimberley the sports are so busy it was needful for the ski club to have its annual meeting Sunday morning.

The open season on ducks opened at Bonners Ferry on Sunday, and will last about four weeks. The bag limit is ten.

For the first nine months of 1935 building permits at Penticton total $86,440. This is the best showing since 1931.

The Baptist Church at Cranbrook celebrated its 35th birthday one night last week. 125 attended the birthday celebration.

Election results brought great rejoicing at Kaslo. Howard Green, Conservative member elect for South Vancouver, is a native son of Kaslo.

With the completion of new plants at Summerland and Kelowna the Okanagan now has cold storage for 1,250,000 boxes of apples.

U.S. postal authorities are asking for tenders on lots suitable for a new postoffice at Bonners Ferry. Lots not smaller than 129 x 170 feet are desired.

Of the million and a quarter storage capacity of the Okanagan, Kelowna has 465,000 boxes, Vernon 300,000, Penticton 205,000 and Summerland 120,000.

The Tree Fruit Board reports that 50 per cent. of the 1935 McIntosh Red apple crop has been marketed. About 10,000 boxes of Wealthys are still on hand.

At Penticton the musicians' organization is asking the town council to charge a license of $75 a year on orchestras that come in from other points to play at dances.

Looking Forward

Never in the history of the country have the actions and policies of an incoming government been subjected to such close scrutiny as will be the decisions and doings of the new Mackenzie King, Liberal regime, which was returned to power with such overwhelming support from all parts of the country on October 14.

The reason for this assertion is not far to seek. Canada is apparently just emerging from a prolonged period of agricultural and world-rooted economic depression. During this period pocket books have been hard hit. Much misery has prevailed as the standard of living for a very large percentage of the population steadily declined. The cost of operation of all governments, federal, provincial and municipal have necessarily mounted to meet the demands for assistance from all classes of citizens, bringing in its train increased taxation at a time when people could ill afford it. Some of the expenditure has been met as it was incurred. Much of it has been pushed ahead for future liquidation.

As a result, all governmental units are faced with the difficult problem of operating economically so as not to bear down harder than necessary on individual resources and at the same time maintain a growing list of public services which the people have become accustomed to expect, and these conditions the governments are expected to cope with while an accumulation of indebtedness is being paid off. It looks like a herculean task.

The fact that such a large proportion of the population has felt in varying degrees the intensity of the six depression years has in itself stimulated a much greater interest in the affairs of the country, the province and the municipality than the people evinced in years of comparative plenty.

In good times the citizens are prone to take but a cursory interest in their own public affairs and usually only just around election time, but when times are hard and unfortunate conditions strike right into the home, people bestir themselves and become vociferous. And that is exactly what happened on October 14 and for many months prior to that date.

And now that the people have spoken their mind quite definitely it is safe to assume that, for a time at least, they will follow up their decision, by continuing to take a keen and watchful interest in what their representatives at Ottawa do. The interest so recently stimulated is not likely to be immediately extinguished now that the die is cast, and one of the reasons for this is the fact that even if the so-called prosperity corner has been turned, there is still a long climb ahead before the peak is reached.

For some time to come the upward struggle will be difficult. The road will be rocky in places and thorned bushes line the path. The inevitable temporary setbacks will be experienced and doubtless there will be some who will become impatient.

Whatever measures the new federal government may have in mind to smooth the highway and make the journey easier must await the necessary preliminary discussions and decisions and subsequent announcements and they must be put into operation before a final verdict as to their effectiveness can be pronounced.

It must be borne in mind that it took several years after the big avalanche of the fall of 1929 before the floor of the depression valley was reached. It is only reasonable to suppose that it will take as long, perhaps longer, to reach the summit as it required to touch bottom. Past experience has taught this lesson for those whose memories are long enough.

Canada, however, has come through this trying period in better condition than many other less fortunate nations. She has preserved her democratic institutions. The fortitude and courage of her people have proved a bulwark during the difficult period. Her financial integrity and credit have been preserved unimpaired. Her people have not starved nor frozen. Materially, she has not sustained such severe shocks as have been the lot of citizens of many of the other countries of the world.

With these assets to sustain the people in their progress towards recovery, plus such assistance as a stable government is able to give within its limitations, Canadians have every reason to look forward with hope towards the future.

And stable government, too, will be able to play an important role in the forward move to better things and improved conditions. It is true there are many who are disappointed that the political party of their choice was not successful at the polls on October 14, but even they will join the majority in expressing approval that the winning party was returned to office in sufficient strength to ensure a government that will be unhampered by the necessity of temporizing at a time when stability and a straightforward course is essential if a maximum of progress is to be enjoyed.

Even so, all eyes will be turned on Ottawa during the next few months.

Spain lists its population from the United States at 1,012.

England is going back to the land under scientific protection.

South Rhodesia will establish an air force reserve.

Lincoln, England, has just opened its 1,000th municipal house.

Fifty-Foot Yacht Makes Safe Voyage Across The Pacific

Three months out from Yokohama, with auxiliary engines disabled three days after departure, the 50-foot schooner-rigged yacht Romance arrived at Victoria after weathering almost continuous head gales across the Pacific.

The yacht was skippered by Captain Ernest Green, former master of the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia, and carried a crew of two, the skipper's 18-year-old son Philip, as engineer, and John Hunter, former Victorian, able seaman.

"I've spent 40 years at sea, part of that time on old square-riggers, but these waves seemed like huge mountains with the snow coming off," said Captain Green, telling of the worst blow on Sept. 21.

"The Romance rode them beam on with bare poles, taking them in beautiful fashion and shipping no water. But when I saw one comber coming that must have been 50 feet high, I truly thought we were done for and uttered a prayer. But we made it. Then we put on two oil bags, one at the fore rigging and the other at the main. And the effect was instantaneous; the seas calmed and we breathed easier.

"The Romance is as safe as an Empress, though it may not be as comfortable. The French government thinks so well of it that French officials in Indo-China asked the builders for specifications. With more power this type of craft would be ideal for service in those waters."

Captain Green chose the old-time sailing ship track over 40 north latitude and sighted only one craft, a Japanese vessel, on the trip from the Yokohama breakwater.

The voyage was the culmination of a lifetime ambition of a seadog who retired last year and who made the crossing many times as master of the 17,000-ton Empress of Asia until he reached the retirement age.

The World Rulers

Author Thinks 200 Men Are Masters Of Human Conscience

A thesis that five men "master the consciences of the mass of humanity" and that the world is "managed or mismanaged" by about 200 out of a population of more than 2,000,000,000, is presented by "the Unofficial Observer" in a book published in New York.

In a volume entitled "Our Lords and Masters," the anonymous author asserts that "of these 10 score potentates, barely 25 men rank as world rulers in their own right."

In the sphere of social behavior the five he lists as masters of human conscience are: King George V., Pope Pius XI., Leon Trotsky, the Emperor of Japan and Mahatma Gandhi.

Among the more mundane political potentates he lists as the eight outstanding world rulers: Right Hon. Stanley Baldwin and Sir Samuel Hoare, of Great Britain; Andre Tardieu of France; Joseph Stalin of the Soviet Union; Benito Mussolini of Italy; Adolf Hitler of Germany; President Roosevelt of the United States and Mustapha Kemal Ataturk of Turkey.

Population Of World

Estimated It Will Be Six Billion By The Year 2100

It has been estimated that if the present rate of increase continues the world will have no fewer than 6,000,000,000 people to feed, clothe and house by the year 2100—less than 170 years in the future. The number mentioned is regarded as about as many as the old earth can comfortably cater for unless its soil is taught to yield more bountiful crops than it does at present. To-day the world population is only about 1,900,000,000.

SHIRT BLOUSE BECOMES MORE POPULAR EVERYDAY IN JERSEY, VELVETEEN, CREPE SILK, SATIN CREPE, RAYONS, ETC.

By Ellen Worth

Here's a snappy shirtwaist blouse that even a novice at sewing can make. The buttons down the front flatter the youthful figure and have a rather slimming effect for the more mature figure. Inverted pin tucks give a pleasing flat effect to the sleeves; long sleeves finished with tailored cuffs or short cuffed sleeves.

And last but not least—you'll find it so inexpensive to make it. Bottle green wool jersey as the original is very smart for school, college, office or ordinary day wear. Style No. 480 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust. Size 36 requires 2 yards of 39-inch material for long sleeved blouse.

Patterns 15c each. Address mail orders to: Pattern Department, Winnipeg Newspaper Union, 175 McDermot Ave. E., Winnipeg.

Let the new Fall and Winter Fashion Magazine assist you in assembling your family's fall clothes. There are designs for every type and every occasion. And of course one of our perfect-fitting patterns is obtainable for every design illustrated. Don't delay! Send for your copy to-day!

Diamond Mines In Canada

American Geologist Believes There Is Hidden Wealth In This Country

A geologist and an industrial diamond expert voiced the belief that beneath the soil of Canada lie diamond fields far richer than those of South Africa.

Professor A. S. Furcron, of Western Reserve University, and D. W. Carter, head of a diamond tool company, agreed that authenticated diamond discoveries in the United States support the Canadian theory.

They said the glaciers of thousands of years ago carried to this country many precious stones together with millions of tons of Canadian rocks and minerals.

Carter asserted he subscribes to a theory that northern Canada was a jungle before nature began forming gems in South Africa. "Therefore," he added, "Canada would contain far greater deposits of riches than the comparatively new dark continent."

MILITARY ACTION IS NOT PROPOSED AGAINST ITALY

London.—Sir Samuel Hoare, foreign secretary, issued an appeal for an honorable settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian controversy and said Great Britain had no intention of acting alone to halt the campaign in East Africa.

Sir Samuel outlined in detail the progress of the quarrel between the two countries in opening debate in the House of Commons on the international situation.

Sanctions to be taken against Italy were economic and not military, he said. "We have never even proposed to the French consideration of any military measures."

Certain countries failed to realize, said Sir Samuel, that "most of us regard the league as a bridge between Great Britain and Europe and that if this bridge is gravely weakened or broken, co-operation between us and the continent becomes difficult and dangerous."

He said they "did not realize the sincerity of our hope and faith in the new order of international relations. They failed to understand our belief in the league as an instrument, not only for stopping war, but also as an instrument for removing its causes."

The foreign secretary emphasized that Britain's interest in collective security and world peace was the motive for her firm stand at Geneva. "No thought of imperial interest save a natural concern, which a world-fung empire must feel for preservation of world-wide peace, has entered into our minds."

Towards the end of his speech Sir Samuel said: "The league, let us remember, is a great instrument of peace. Let critics remember this fact when they say that we ought at once to close the Suez canal and cut Italian communications."

Such action, taken alone, would destroy Britain's contention that "this is not a quarrel between Great Britain and Italy." There would never be collective agreement for such action, he declared.

Sir Samuel's speech was followed by vigorous opposition attacks upon government policies, led by Major Clement Richard Attlee, Labor, and Sir Herbert Samuel, Liberal, which furnished a keynote for the election, expected to be fought out largely on international issues.

Sir Samuel urged that the short breathing spell before the application of economic sanctions against Mussolini's government be used in another attempt for peaceful settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict.

The foreign secretary, addressing commons on its ressemblance, asked if an eleventh hour chance cannot be used to make unnecessary further progress along "the unattractive road of economic action against a fellow league member, an old friend and a former ally."

Sanctions Approved

Durban, Union of South Africa.—Three resolutions designed to hinder Italy's campaign in Ethiopia were passed at a meeting of 800 persons in the city hall. The resolutions called upon the government to prohibit the export of meat to the Italian army, to cancel the Italian shipping subsidy and to put in force any further economic sanctions within their power.

Will Attend Naval Conference

Rome.—Informed quarters here believed Italy's participation in the naval conference planned for London in December was virtually assured. Although no official statement has been issued, it is understood Italy is unlikely to refuse to attend.

Arctic Route

Moscow.—Steam navigation from Europe to the far east by way of the Arctic ocean has been put on a practical basis, Otto Schmidt, head of the Soviet northern sea route department, reported to Joseph Stalin.

Money For Warships

Glasgow, Scotland.—The government of Yugoslavia awarded a contract for three destroyers costing $500,000 (about $2,500,000) to the Yarrow Shipbuilding Company.

Important Measures

Alberta Premier To Take Steps To Relieve Hardships In Province
Edmonton.—Forecasting important measures to relieve farm debt burdens and hardship in Alberta, Premier Aberhart warned that no one need think that all he had to do was to sit back and wait for basic dividends to come.

At an official luncheon tendered the new Social Credit government by the city of Edmonton, Premier Aberhart said: "You will shortly hear of a way that farmers can get out from under their heavy mortgage load."

The premier pleaded for sympathy and co-operation and promised that not a single step would be taken by the government without the best expert advice.

May Repudiate Pacts

Sir Herbert Samuel Refers To The Ottawa Agreements

London.—Sir Herbert Samuel, leader of the Liberal opposition, in the House of Commons, interpreted the election defeat of Prime Minister R. B. Bennett as repudiation of the Ottawa economic agreements by the people of Canada.

During a discussion of the international situation, Sir Herbert said the agreements reached at the Ottawa imperial conference of 1932 were one of the main causes of the present unrest.

The world had taken those agreements, he said, as an indication the British Empire was to be made into a closed system.

Uncover Plot

Soviet Authorities See Plans To Disrupt Rail Traffic

Moscow.—Soviet authorities announced that police at Kiev had uncovered an important counter-revolutionary plot involving plans to disrupt rail traffic in certain sections of Russia.

Twenty persons were arrested at Kiev, all said to be followers of Leon Trotsky, exiled Soviet leader and proponent of world revolution. They will be accused before the Kharkov tribunal of fostering plans to sabotage the Soviet Union's already seriously handicapped communications system.

Goes To The Front

Rome.—Dr. Filippo Tommaso Marinetti, poet and author and Italy's "Father of Futurism," sailed for East Africa to join troops in East Africa as a captain. News of his sailing caused amusement in military circles, because although Marinetti is acknowledged to be a good soldier—he holds two Great War medals for valor—he is more famous as a bizarre artist.

Return To Homes

Helena, Mont.—Earthquake-shocked citizens of Montana's capital began returning to their homes reassured by scientists that the crashing shocks which wrecked homes and damaged business houses probably were at an end.

Burglars Caught

Winnipeg.—A South Winnipeg confectionery proved a jinx to burglars. At two a.m., two men who had forced a door were found in the store and arrested. The door was repaired. At four a.m., police caught two more burglars busily packing up stolen goods.

Waterways Treaty

St. Lawrence Project Awaits Ratification From Washington

Ottawa.—Defeat of the Bennett administration and inauguration of a ministry headed by Liberal Leader King will make no difference in the status of the St. Lawrence waterways treaty with Washington, it was said here.

The treaty will remain pigeon-holed until ratified by the American senate by a two-third vote. Then the new government would be forced to consider it and have it either passed by parliament or defeated.

Although Premier-elect King has never made public his views on the treaty, two of his provincial lieutenants, Premier Hepburn of Ontario and Premier Taschereau of Quebec, have opposed it, the former most strenuously.

Cost Of War

Italy Is Paying Heavily For Operations In Ethiopia

Geneva.—Statistics of the Bank of International Settlements sent to the League of Nations indicated the cost to Italy of the Ethiopia war.

The figures showed during the first 10 days of October the bank of Italy lost 206,000,000 lira in gold. Experts estimated if this figure is taken as an average, about 453,000,000 lira, or over 10 per cent. of the Italian gold reserve at the end of September, has been withdrawn in the past three weeks.

Boy Actor

Freddy Bartholomew Becomes Legal Ward Of Aunt

Los Angeles.—Freddy Bartholomew, 11-year-old screen actor, became the legal ward of an aunt, Miss Myll'cent Mary Bartholomew, and in the superior court hearing gave his opinion on what happens to boys who tell lies.

Attorney Felix Cunningham, representing Miss Bartholomew, asked the child actor if he understood what it meant to swear to tell the truth and then what happens to boys who do not.

"They probably go to hell," said Freddy candidly.

The boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Llewellyn, now in England where Freddy was born, opposed the guardianship petition.

Miss Bartholomew testified she had had exclusive care and custody of Freddy for eight years and had carefully explained the reason for the trip to Hollywood to his parents. She said the young actor had a contract to work 40 weeks each year in pictures at $1,000 a week.

Heavy Taxation

Hearst Claims Nearly Ninety Per Cent. Of Income Goes To State

Hollywood, Calif.—William Randolph Hearst, in a letter to the Hollywood editors of Variety, declared that high California taxes have compelled him to close his places in this state "and live almost entirely in New York."

Pouncing upon the recently enacted California income tax, the publisher expressed fear a large number of people "with considerable incomes" are planning to reside elsewhere, and foresaw an opportunity for development of the motion picture industry in states with easier taxes.

"The California income tax goes to 15 per cent.," the letter said. "Add to this the federal income taxes and the New York taxes, plus many other taxes, and I find that over 80 per cent. of my income will go in taxes—in fact it may be nearer 90 per cent."

PAYS A TRIBUTE TO THE GOODWILL OF CANADIANS

London.—The Earl of Bessborough, speaking at a dinner tendered him by the Canadian club, urged that more people travel between Great Britain and Canada and paid warm tribute to Prime Minister R. B. Bennett and Prime Minister-elect Mackenzie King.

The earl, who has just completed a term as governor-general of Canada, recalled with approval the suggestions made by Premier Baldwin at the Ottawa imperial conference of 1932 for exchange of civil servants between Whitehall and Ottawa.

The former governor-general paid tribute to the goodwill shown him by Canadians. He owed a great deal to the assistance of Lady Bessborough.

"If any of the many kind things said about us in Canada are true, the credit is due entirely to my wife," he said.

Mr. Bennett, he declared, was respected by people of all political parties in Canada. The earl described Mr. Bennett as a prodigious worker, of phenomenal memory and great ability, with a particular knowledge of financial and legal questions.

"During my time in Canada—one of unexampled depression—difficult problems presented themselves continuously, some of them of great urgency. However burdened or exhausted by the care of office, I always found Mr. Bennett in our personal relations most patient and considerate, ever ready to give his best in any questions that arose—a staunch and loyal friend for whom no pains were too great to help his friends."

"His Majesty's government has no more devoted servant and in the cause of empire no more convinced adherent."

The former governor-general recalled that when he arrived in Canada, "the first thing that Mr. Mackenzie King said to me was that if there was anything the opposition could do to assist me he was entirely at my disposal. In the year that followed he was as good and better than his word. Our personal relations at all times were of the most delightful character."

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, Canadian high commissioner in London, was given an ovation by the gathering. He paid tribute to the great public services of the Earl of Bessborough in Canada.

"He lived up to the highest ideals of British public service and exercised an influence steady in effect and helpful in guiding Canada through one of the most depressing periods in history."

He also paid tribute to Lady Bessborough and said "the crowning achievement of the Bessboroughs was the production of a young Canadian." (A son was born to Their Excellencies at Montreal in 1931).

J. H. Thomas, dominions' secretary, likewise commended the earl for his remarkable public service and devotion.

Referring to the ovation paid Mr. Ferguson, he said: "We are not unmindful of the changes which must necessarily occur, but I would be wanting in my duty if I did not say publicly how every Canadian and every Britisher is proud of the great service rendered by the high commissioner to his country."

(Mr. Ferguson is expected shortly to place his resignation in the hands of the Canadian government, following the defeat of the Conservative party in the general election.)

To Run For Parliament

Ramsay MacDonald Will Be Candidate For Re-Election

London.—J. Ramsay MacDonald, lord president of the council, will again run for parliament in Seaham, it was announced. This ended rumors the former prime minister would soon accept a peerage, or would run in another seat. Seaham is regarded as a Labor stronghold, but Mr. MacDonald retained it by a majority of almost 6,000 in 1931, shortly after he had formed a national government and suffered expulsion from the Labor party.

family arrived in Creston Wednesday morning. The pulpit has been vacant since the departure at the end of August of student pastor H. Esler.

Ideal weather prevailed for the opening of Creston's new four-room public school on Saturday afternoon, and a large number of residents of the school district were out to inspect the new premises. School was held in the new quarters for the first time on Monday, the removal of desks and equipment taking place on Thursday and Friday.

From an unusually reliable source it is learned that the tenders on Creston's new postoffice, which were opened at Ottawa on October 14th, showed that A. H. Green & Co. of Nelson had submitted the lowest bid, but there is no information as to whether the contract has been actually let. This detail would be up to the new government which took office about a week ago.
