Hunting Season Satisfactory One

Sale of Hunting Licenses Larger than 1934—Geese and Ducks Quite Plentiful—Wheat Fields Attract the Geese.

The 1935 hunting season, which closed at Sundown on Sunday, has been quite an average one according to W. H. Cartwright, game guardian, who handles the territory fram Yahk to Crawford Bay, and in respect to licenses issued the year has been even more notable than 1934.

Up to the middle of the month a total of 446 licenses of all classes have been issued. Of these 265 were what is known as ordinary firearms licenses, while 154 were issued to farmers. Licenses issued to non-residents were 13, which is a gain of two over last season. During the season 346 angler's licenses were issued, and to date 19 trapper's licenses have been taken out in the area supervised by Mr. Cartwright.

While the snowfall was light and deer hard to get it would look as if the take of venison was much on a par with last season. The kill was particularly heavy in the Kitchener-Yahk section with many blacktails brought in. In other parts of the valley the hunters were not so fortunate although in all quarters a fair supply was had.

The 1935 take of geese, particularly the Canada and white front, or brant, was at least equal to 1934, and were much easier got as the birds inhabited the wheat fields on the Reclamation farm and the Reclamation Company area in large numbers, and despite the the absence of sloughs on these dyked lands there was fully as many ducks taken as a year ago. Pheasants were fully as plentiful as other seasons, but the grouse were not as much in evidence. Duck hunting was possibly the better due the very dull weather the last six weeks of the season.

On the summer kill of coyotes Mr. Cartwright reports paying the $2 bounty on 18 of these animals. The season was notable in that there were no serious hunting mishaps at any point, and the local game guardian states that the hunting regulations were splendidly observed by the hunters as a whole. So far the trappers have also had quite average luck and with higher fur prices can look forward with confidenee to a profitable season.

381 Cars Apples Shipped Dec. 15

61 Cars Exported—Wealthys in Overseas Movement—Estimated 50 Cars Still to Move—Three Months' Packing Season

Up to the middle of the month apple shipments from all points in Creston Valley had accounted for an outgo of 381 carloads, and the estimate of the fruit inspectors and shipping houses is that there are still about 50 cars to roll, which will give the valley an apple shipping business considerable in excess of 1934 when the total crop was nnder the 400 mark. Due the crop running to smaller sizes than in 1934 the 61 cars that have already gone to export is somewhat in excess of last season.

Creston Products, Limited, Creston's newest shipping house is taking a breathing spell until after the yuletide holidays, but is planning to clean up packing and shipping before the end of the year. This firm has had an excellent season with the trucks which took out a majority of the crop, although four cars were sent to export.

Long, Allan & Long, Limited have about fifteen carloads still to go out and will be resuming packing at the first of the year. Their export business showed a gain over 1934 and iucluded three carloads of Wealthys. 1935 was the first season the firm had ever sent this variety to export. The other overseas shipping was confined to McIntosh and Delicious, with the exception of a single carload of Cox Orange. But while the export trade showed an increase there was not the 1934 demand for apples in eastern Canada. Long, Allan & Long have made payments in full on all fruits up to and including pears and Wealthy apples and advances have been made on other lines. Mr. Allan is particularly well pleased with the showing made on Wealthys the price of which is at least 35 per cent. better than a year aso.

At the Exchange the stock on hand is estimated at 20 carloads, made up of Wagener, Spitz, Delicious, Spies and Romes. Of these all but about 4000 boxes are packed and in cold storage. The firm had 42 cars to export this season in which was four carloads of Wealthys. The Excha ge also handled the Boswell crop and report shipping six cars to export from that point, five of which were Cox Orange.

The Exchange packers were laid off on Thursday last and the records show that the packing staff had been on duty almost three months, as the graders commenced operation on September 13th. That the crop is in excess of 1934 is indicated by Exchange shipping records. To date they have rolled 210 cars and have 20 more to go, for a years outgo of around 230 cars. In 1934 the total movement was but 213 carloads.

HARVESTING IN SASKATCHEWAN AT 20 BELOW!

Just about the middle of December, one of the most unique and interesting annual harvests to be garnered on the North American Continent will be in full swing. No! Not wheat—but Mineral Salts. The scene will be Little Manitou Lake, Watrous, Saskatchewan. The harvesters will be the employees of the Department of Natural Resources of Saskatchewan; and the harvest itself will consist of the tiny crystals of mineral salt which form in Little Manitou Lake each year at "freeze-up." It is one of the essential conditions that the harvest be completed within a period of ten days. When the Prairie winter comes in real earnest, and the thermometer shivers down to 20 below zero, the Departmental men, warmly attired, and wearing waist-high rubber boots, gather up these crystals with specially constructed shovels, and store them in the Government warehouse at Watrous, from where they are later distributed. The medicinal qualities of this saline lake, known for many years, are becoming more and more widely recognized, and as a consequence these harvesting operations are assuming ever-increasing proportions, and the Lake is proving to be one of the Province's most important natural resources.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

OCTOBER 13

THE STORY OF JEREMIAH

Golden text: To whomsoever I shall send thee thou shalt go, and whatsoever I shall command thee thou shalt speak. Jeremiah 1:7.

Lesson: Jeremiah 1:1-10; 6:10, 11; 8:18; 26:1-24; Chapters 36, 37, 38.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 26:1-7.

Explanations And Comments

Courageous Speaking Enjoined, Jeremiah 1:6-10. In the thirteenth year of Josiah's reign (about 626 B.C.), Jeremiah, the son of a priest, became conscious of a divine call to the prophetic office. It is natural to understand that he had long meditated upon his country's sins and had felt impelled to denounce them, but was most reluctant to undertake the task. The inward struggle which took place in his sensitive and shrinking heart when something different from his ordinary consciousness made him certain that he was destined to be the prophet of woe, he tells in the form of a dialogue between God and himself.

"Ah, Lord Jehovah! behold I know not how to speak; for I am a child," He was not a child in years but he lacked experience, he feared he had not the ability to speak, he distrusted himself. In the jargon of to-day, he had an inferiority complex. "Say not, I am a child" was the answer to his troubled thoughts that came to him; "for to whomsoever I shall send thee thou shalt go, and whatsoever I shall command thee thou shalt speak. Be not afraid because of them; for I am with thee to deliver thee."

The commission which Jeremiah received was to be "over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down, and to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant." His task was to be destructive and constructive. He must strive to make the people give up their vices and weaknesses which were making for internal corruption and for political destruction, and to implant in their hearts new ideals of righteousness.

The Courageous Speaker Threatened, Jeremiah 26:8-11. During the 40 years of Jeremiah's ministry, his was the task of setting himself in opposition to all the currents of his time, for Judah believed that she would escape the impending doom, that Jerusalem was inviolable because it held the temple, that the nation could not perish. Jeremiah had to warn her that her only possible course was to surrender to Babylon. At some great feast, doubtless when the people were gathered at Jerusalem, Jeremiah uttered the warning recorded in the first seven verses of chapter 26.

The Courage of Convictions, 26: 12-15. Jeremiah's defense was that his message had come to him from God, and he urged them to amend their ways and doings, and to obey the voice of Jehovah. If they would do this, Jehovah would avert the evil which he had pronounced upon them. Prophecy, then was regarded as conditional; a change of conduct could prevent the threatened punishment.

Busy Year For Sun

More Eclipses In 1935 Than For Past 130 Years

The sun this year presents its greatest show of eclipses for the past 130 years. The moon will have passed between the sun and the earth no fewer than five times, and the moon will be in the earth's shadow twice. This according to Professor Alfred H. Joy, secretary of the Mount Wilson Observatory, is the greatest number of eclipses possible in one year. Not since 1805 have the sun's rays been obscured so often, states Reuter's correspondent in Pasadena. It will be only the second time since 1255 that there have been five solar eclipses in one year, and there will not be another such number until the year 2485.

URGE LARGE SCALE EMIGRATION PLAN TO THE DOMINIONS

Newcastle-On-Tyne, England.—The conference on emigration to the empire concluded after preparing a written case for a government-assisted emigrat'on scheme.

The brief, which a deputation will present to the government, urges a large-scale emigration scheme would help solve unemployment at home and abroad. Financial assistance would be repaid by saving unemployment relief.

Establishment of an empire development and em'gration board with statutory powers is advocated and it is suggested the annual budget should provide grants to settlers.

The plan will be submitted to the cabinet by the lord mayor of Newcastle, R. S. Dalgleish, and a deputation of members of parliament and representatives of emigration authorities from all parts of the country. Cop'es of the statement afterward will be circulated to Dominion premiers, high commissioners and agents-general, with a letter from the lord mayor of Newcastle appealing for their co-operation in an effort to bring about the biggest move ever made for the repopulation of the empire by families and communities from the United Kingdom.

New Gold Strike

Made On North Arm Of Great Slave Lake

Edmonton.—A new gold strike west of Yellowknife bay on the north arm of Great Slave lake was revealed to the world when Dr. Fred Jolliffe, of the federal geological survey, flew out of the north after a summer spent in the northwest territories.

"The strike was made September 15 several m'les from the Burwash discovery," said Dr. Jolliffe.

He refused to divulge the name of the prospector who made the strike pending the filing of his official report when he returns to department of mines headquarters at Ottawa.

Dr. Jolliffe and his party of 15 student assistants from the University of Alberta, explored an area of roughly 10,000 square miles on the north shore of Great Slave lake and found that 2,800 square miles of the district was underlined by pre-Cambian sediments and volcanics, relatively favorable for the occurrence of gold and silver deposits.

Dr. Jolliffe left Sept. 24 for Ottawa.

Stage Sham Air Raid

Fleet Of Giant Bombers Visit Island Of Malta

Valetta, Malta.—A fleet of giant bombers and other aircraft droned over Malta in a sham air raid recently, with this tiny British island outpost plunged in darkness and eerie silence.

Promptly at 9:30 p.m., every house, street and traffic light blinked out. Simultaneously, the twinkling lights of British warships riding at anchor in the harbor went off.

Thousands of citizens thronged the historic bastions of Valetta and the seafront during the raid.

Acting-Governor Luke surveyed the operations. Aerial and military authorities said they were well pleased with the island's loyal co-operation.

Coining Ethiopian Money

Rome.—Italy is already coining Ethiopian thalers, for use following the incursion of Italian forces into Ethiopia. Employees of the mint said the coins are to be used by the military and civil governors which Italy plans to install in Ethiopia, to pay off tribesmen who seek work under Italian domination.

More Wheat In Store

Ottawa.—The Dominion bureau of statistics reported Canadian wheat in store for the week ended Sept. 20 amounted to 220,862,570 bushels, an increase of 13,958,380 over the previous week. The visible supply for the corresponding week last year was 223,360,206 bushels.

A Quiet Session

Prince Edward Island's House Of Assembly Meets

Charlottetown. — Another chapter was written into the history of British parliamentary procedure when Prince Edward Island's House of Assembly, filled with 30 Liberal members, met and carried on the affairs of state without an official opposition.

It was not a house of "yes-men," however. At least two government supporters served notice on Premier Walter Lea that they were not going to be a rubber-stamp for cabinet-directed policies.

When the money bill, the most important legislation of the special one-day session, was being studied in committee under the guidance of the premier, W. H. Dennis, Prince, and H. H. Cox, King's, raised objection to Canada's smallest province providing for $3,000,000 expenditure to refund loans and carry on public works. To give the cabinet this authority two months after taking office would be going directly against the policy of retrenchment which placed them in power, the critics contended.

Absence of an official opposing party helped to speed the work of the session and at an early hour the governor, accompanied by his secretary and aide-de-camp, returned to give His Majesty's assent to the bills passed.

The house was prorogued to meet ordinarily in March, 1936.

Abolish Ration System

New Decree Is Effective In Soviet Russia

Moscow. — A government decree abolished the ration system of selling some prime food products, cutting prices in open commercial shops.

The decree constitutes an important step toward liquidation of the present double sales system whereby workers make purchases in "closed" ration shops and the general public buys in open shops.

Prices of the two have differed widely, workers getting the benefit of extremely low rates.

The decree abolished ration shop sale of meat, sugar, fish, butter and potatoes and threw all buying of these products into open shops, substituting one fixed price for the previous double price system.

The new price scale reduced beef more than 50 per cent. It now will sell from five rubles up per kilogram. Sugar will be four rubles and 52 kopecks per kilogram as compared with 6.50, and butter was reduced from 24 rubles per kilogram to 15.

To prevent speculation, it was announced, no purchaser will be permitted to buy at one time more than two kilograms of meat; two of sugar; a half kilogram of butter or three kilograms of fish.

Hours Of Labor Set

Legislation Will Be Brought Into Effect October 5

Ottawa.—Legislation for limitation of the hours of labor in certain industrial undertakings in Canada will be brought into effect on Oct. 5. Regulations for the carrying out of the measure have been drafted.

Based on a 1919 convention of the international labor organization of the League of Nations, the legislation constitutes part of the reform program brought down by the government at the last session of parliament.

Would Defend Record

If Speed Prestige Threatened Campbell Will Race Again

London. — Sir Malcolm Campbell and his Bluebird are through with breaking records unless some foreigner gives them a new mark to shoot at.

Sir Malcolm announced at a dinner in his honor that he had had his fill of blistering speeds, but that there was still a great deal of lightning in his racing car that might be coaxed out if Britain's speed prestige was threatened.

Another Leaf Competition

FILIPINO PRESIDENT

By an overwhelming majority, Senator Manuel Quezon, above, was elected first President of the new Philippines Commonwealth. Vice-President Garner, of the United States, will attend the inauguration exercises on November 15, when Quezon will take office for six years.

The Federal Vote

Results Should Be Quickly Available After Closing Of Polls

Ottawa.—Although various adaptations of proportional representation and the single transferable vote are used in some provincial elections the Dominion general election Oct. 14 will be conducted on the traditional single-vote system.

Electors will have only one choice between the contending candidates. They will mark an "X" opposite the name of the candidate they favor and the candidate with the largest number of "X's" will be elected. There are no second or third choices.

With the single-vote system in operation throughout the Dominion on election day results will be available probably for all constituencies within a few hours of the closing of the polls.

Another Storm Hits Japan

Typhoon Kills 48 And About 100 Are Missing

Tokyo.—A typhoon which whirled freakishly and destructively across Japan, from Kagoshima to Wendai, killed at least 48 persons, and about 100 were missing.

Several ports in the inland sea reported that fishing craft were missing, and the steamer Tonegawa Maru, with a crew of 13 and 19 passengers, also was missing.

The typhoon was the fifth death-dealing storm in three months over Japan proper.

Installing McGill Principal

Montreal.—It is expected at least 24 Canadian universities and colleges will be represented at the installation of Professor A. E. Morgan as principal of McGill University Oct. 5. Dr. Robert C. Wallace, president of University of Alberta, Edmonton, will be in attendance.

Farewell Banquet

Governor-General And Countess Of Bessborough Are Honored

Ottawa.—A farewell banquet was given by the government of Canada to the Governor-General and Countess of Bessborough.

The term of office of the Earl of Bessborough as the king's representative in Canada expires shortly.

It was an affectionate farewell at which, in addition to Sir George Perley, who presided, there was a distinguished gathering of representatives of the state, the diplomatic corps, the church, the judiciary and the civil service with their wives.

Responding to the toast proposed by Sir George Perley, the governor-general dwelt on the happy relations he had enjoyed during his four years in Canada.

Veregin Resigns

No Longer Head Of Brotherhood Of Doukhobors

Saskatoon.—Peter Veregin, for 10 years president of the Christian Community of the Universal Brotherhood of Doukhobors in Canada, stated here that he had severed all connection with the community. He declared that he stood now as a private Canadian citizen. He had no intention of leaving the country, he said.

Mr. Veregin, who has been virtual ruler of the sect in Canada since the death of his father in a British Columbia railway accident, said he had tendered his resignation about six months ago. He would not disclose any reason for his action. He is now on his way to Montreal.

Honesty Was Rewarded

Delivery Boy Returns Valuable Bonds And Gets Good Job

New York.—From the lowly plane of delivery boy of "coffee and—" at $3.15 a week, young Albert Correri vaulted to a remunerative position in Wall street.

Correri's role in "the street's" newest success story was cast when he picked from the gutter a packet of bonds valued at $160,000 and returned them to the owners. C. F. Grunwald, vice-president of C. F. Childs and Co., Wall street brokers, owners of the bonds, announced Correri would start work in the cashier's department of the brokerage firm.

Correri, who is 22, may also get a reward.

Siege Of Lucknow

Ten People Alive To Celebrate Thrilling Event

London.—Ten people in different parts of the world celebrate one of the most thrilling incidents in the modern history of the British Empire, the siege of Lucknow in the Indian mutiny.

The oldest survivor of the siege is C. G. Palmer, a resident of British Columbia; the youngest Arthur Dashwood, 78, living in London. Dashwood's mother gave him birth in the residency at Lucknow, where 17 people were herded in one room during the siege. Despite her ordeal, Mrs. Dashwood lived for more than 70 years.

RECEIVING THE KING'S CUP

TO STRENGTHEN NAVY AND AIR FORCE IN BRITAIN

London.—Prime Minister Baldwin intends to outline measures to strengthen both the navy and the air force when he addresses the Conservative party at its annual conference at Bournemouth.

George Lansbury, Labor leader in the House of Commons in an address declared Britain and other nations were on the brink of a war in which it would be "Christian against Christian, Mohammedan against Mohammedan, Jew against Jew—all praying to the same God for Victory.

"I cannot bow to that sort of thing," the leader said. "The way out is for some nation, and I want it to be Britain, to blaze a new trail."

Athens.—The semi-official Athens news agency announced information from a German source indicated arrangements had been completed at Instanbul for Greek and Turkish warships and planes to start manoeuvres in the Dardanelles and that two Roumanian torpedo boats would also participate.

It has been reported Greece is prepared to support Great Britain in any Mediterranean activity which might become necessary at the outbreak of Italo-Ethiopian warfare.

Greek newspapers hailed the arrival of British ships in Greek ports, saying that the people of Greece have come to regard the annual British naval manoeuvres in Mediterranean waters as a welcome tradition.

Mussolini Opposed

Report From Italy Of Some Opposition To War Plans

Paris. — French newspapers reprinted a story from The London Referee saying Prince Umberto, heir to the Italian throne, is opposed to Premier Benito Mussolini's conflict with Ethiopia.

(This report was described as utterly false in Rome and London by authoritative Italian spokesmen.)

There is a possibility, the story said, of General Italo Balbo, governor of Libya and Italian air hero, leading a revolt against Il Duce.

"Balbo, whose relations with the royal family are excellent, is also opposed to the Ethiopian campaign," the story asserted. "A large number of Italian superior officers share his view."

Sentry Killed By Lions

Five Belonging To Emperor Selassie Make Dash For Freedom

Add's Ababa.—Five of Emperor Haile Selassie's big lions escaped, killed one sentry, and injured five more.

In this rush for freedom they devoured several of the Emperor's pedigreed Australian sheep and killed two horses.

Colonel Mekouria, the commander of the imperial guard, seized a machine gun and shot all five beasts in succession.

Insurance Premiums Higher

British Vessels Passing Through Suez Canal Must Pay More

Singapore.—Fear of trouble developing in the Mediterranean was reflected here when marine insurance companies warned special premiums for "war risks" must be paid by British vessels returning to England through the Suez canal.

To escape payment of the war risk premiums British ships must go all the way around the Cape of Good Hope.

Gordon Bennett Trophy

Warsaw.—The Polish balloon Polonia was awarded the Gordon Bennett trophy as the winner of the 27th Bennett international races that began here Sep. 15. The Polonia, one of the 13 entries, travelled about 1,007 miles after a flight of 58 hours and 54 minutes, it was officially announced. It reached an altitude of 16,732 feet. Another Polish balloon, the Warsaw, was second.

HOME BREW

In connection with the marketing of defrosted apples a statement issued by the B.C. Tree Fruit Board covering sales up to December 7th, would indicate that the trade is no 100 per cent. doubtful of the keeping quality of these frosted apples. Of total sales to that date, accounting for just over 40,000 boxes, it is stated that the big preference was for the long-keeping Rome Beauty which made up 14,003 boxes of this total, next to which was the still later keeper, the Yellow Newtown, with Delicious a close third in popular demand. Here is how the 40,000 boxes old were made up: McIntosh, 243; Jonathan, 2,756; Wagener, 4,056; Banana, 276; Spy, 2389; Grimes, 91; Early Sundries, 633; Romes, 14,003; Delicious, 5,238; Spitzenberg, 3932; Stayman, 1718; Late Sundries, 42, Winesap, 4; Newtown, 5,229. Total, 40,601.

Penticton has hit upon a splendid plan for securing a supply of what might be termed necessities for the Christmas hampers sent out in that town under the supervision of the Rotary Club. In advance of Christmas the movie theatre is made available to the club for an afternoon show exclusively for children who gain admission by presenting canned goods, jam or any variety of food suitable for yuletide distribution. With the great variety of donations received in this fashion those in charge find it much easier to make the funds available secure the other commodities that are requisite and necessary for a Christmas hamper. The youngsters get a great kick out of helping in such a good cause and in this way, too, many a home is able to make a modest contribution that otherwise would nor have opportunity to help in a good work.

In the Okanagan Kelowna Growers Exchange appears to be the only co-operative selling agency that proposes to extend a measure of relief to growers who lost apples picked and in the orchard at the time of the late October freeze. Whatever aid is given will be at the the discretion of the directors the president of which has made it quite clear that it will be limited entirely to whatever profits the Exchange will make on 1935 operations. In connection with the freexe, Vernon appears to have suffered the least due, as the News points out, the fact that in the North Okanagan there are few apples later McIntosh Reds, all of which were in storage before the cold dip came. At Penticton the Co Op. Growers take the stand that their plant was plenty big enough and that if the orchardist failed to have his apples in their warehouse the blame was on the grower, not the selling agency.

December 20. We call attention specifically to the date because just one month hence Creston village will be called upon to place in nomination the names of men they would like to see serve as councillors for periods of three, two and one year. In January a full board of three members will be chosen, but after that but one councillor will be elected each year, as is the case with school boards. Like all its predecessors since incorporation in 1924 the outgoing council has failed to please everybody and a month's notice is not too long to enable those who are shoutiug time for a change to line up new talent. With polling set for January 26th it is hoped the council will see to it that the balance sheet is out in good time next month. With no liquor profits available for the past three or four years and no raise in the oldtime 12 mill tax rate, financing the village is becoming the more serious each year and the ratepayers, as well as those who will have the governing of the town in hand, should know exactly how Creston stands financially.

All the candidates in the federal election in Kootenay East last October budgeted too low in connection with campaign costs according to the official returns in this matter that have been made to Chas. Edgar of Fernie, returning officer. But while they all underestimated running expenses all of them seem to have kept costs well under the proverbial thousand dollars a week which was about what it cost in the old days in the Kootenays. B. O. Ivorson, C.C.F. nominee, set an all time low for even a losing candidate, with a total campaign cost of but $521, of which $455 was contributed by 12 parties. Considering he was never in the riding after the real fight commenced Hon. H. H. Stevens' total expenditure of $1448 looks quite generons, but is not at all out of line with the expenditures of R.R. Bruce, Liberal standard bearer, who made it a short fight and a merry one, to expend $2889. Mr. Stevens' official agent states 8 persons contributed to his campaign, but Mr. Bruce's statement shows only one contributor. As to deficits, Mr. Ivorson spent $80 more than was contributed. Mr. Stevens' cver-expenditure was in the neighborhood of $200, and Mr. Bruce exceeded his available funds by about $300.

Local Flowers for Holiday

Creston-grown mums, carnations snapdragon, ferns and house plants for the Christmas trade and all other times, are now available in quantity at the greenhouse of James Moores on Little Avenue.

Coming here from Coleman, Alberta, about three years ago, Mr. Moores has gradually developed his trade until now he is operating two greenhouses each 60 x 16 feet, and a smaller one 20 x 12 feet. The latter he is devoting principally to the growing of snapdragon, while one of the former is exclusively for mums and carnations, both of which show fine quality and are in all the leading shades.

The other large greenhouse is planted principally to tomatoes for which there is a considerable local demand. In these quarters he is also developing bulbs for the spring trade. The greenhouses are steam heated and by maintaining a temperature of 55 degrees Mr. Moores is turning out plants and flowers that are splendidly adapted to local climate.

Hospital Sells Gift Acres

There was a small attendance at the December meeting of the directors of Creston Valley Hospital on Wednesday, with President F. V. Staples in the chair. The financial statement showed 321 hospital days compared to 440 in October. Collections showed improvement and included wood. Owing to increase of space to be heated this winter much more wood is needed than formerly, and it is hoped that additional supplies will soon be available. The president announced that the hospital ten acres on the flats had been sold for cash to J. G. Abbott of Wynndel. The thanks of the board for gifts were accorded to J. G. Abbott, Canyon Auxiliary, N. Husband, G. Jacks, C. O. Rodgers and Wynndel Women's Institute. Due in part to the favorable weather, work on the Nurses' home is progressing well, and it is hoped that it will be ready for occupation within six weeks. The chimneys and interior plaster have been finished. One coat of exterior plaster has also been put on, and stucco will be applied in the spring when danger of frost has passed. The first donation to be received for the Nurses' Home since construction commenced was the proceeds of an entertainment put on by hospital enthusiasts aged nine and seven. An electric percolator and toaster, and all the bedroom wall plugs have also been donated.

A Tense Situation

As the Italo-Ethiopian war progresses, and with economic sanctions imposed by the great majority of the members of the League of Nations gradually tightening, the situation in Europe becomes increasingly grave.

The danger of what, a few months ago, appeared to be little more than a colonizing venture of Mussolini in North Africa at the expense of one of the black races, developing into a world conflagration of even greater magnitude than the Great War of 1914-18 with far greater losses and more fearful consequences to civilization seems more imminent with the lapse of time.

While incidents reported from Europe indicate almost daily fluctuations of this world peril there can be no gainsaying the fact that once again all Europe is an armed camp with all nations breathlessly watching the trend of events and the more powerful ones ready to assume the offensive or defensive as circumstances may require or politico-national exigencies may warrant.

One day despatches contain news which reveal a dreadful maelstrom into which the nations are being sucked willy-nilly, with or without their desire. Two or three days later the news is more assuring. The crisis of the moment has been bridged. People breathe a little more easily and await the next hair-raising development, reasonably sure that it will soon appear.

And so it goes from day to day. A situation develops which brings tension and alarm. Ominous threats are uttered. Diplomats hastily exchange notes and conversations, threats are withdrawn or modified or "explained". The tension eases. The peril has been averted momentarily at least, but the black shadow remains and will continue to exist until it is either dispelled entirely or becomes a terrific substance.

It hardly seems conceivable that when Mussolini put his threatened invasion of Ethiopia into execution he could have been aware of what was to follow. He must surely have assumed that the League of Nations would be split asunder when its members were faced with the question of carrying out their obligations to prevent or punish violation of the territory of another member or that some of the stronger members would be willing to put a telescope to a blind eye rather than fulfil their duties and run the risk of precipitating a situation which might lead to a general conflagration.

If that was the viewpoint of the dictator of Italy he guessed wrong. If he thought he could bluff the dominating powers of the League, again he guessed wrong. It would have been the easy way out for the League to have begged the question and to have found excuses to permit Mussolini to have his way in North Africa, knowing that the imposition of sanctions might lead to a very dangerous situation. They did not, however, but took their solemn pledges seriously and decided to implement them. Action followed decision.

The peril lies not so much in the mere fact that the League has imposed economic sanctions and is making them effective but in the possibility of some of the members weakening in the face of threats, or of abandoning the position they have taken because of danger from other quarters or because it may become advantageous to do so.

And Mussolini himself is in a dire predicament. He has now gone too far in his adventure to recede without imperilling his position among his own countrymen. In fact, recession would spell disaster for him at home. On the other hand he cannot expect to carry his campaign to a successful conclusion with a great majority of the nations cutting off his supplies, but defeat in Ethiopia would terminate his career as Italian dictator. On the horns of this dilemma, it can be assumed that Mussolini will leave no stone unturned to disrupt the accord which exists among the nations who have combined in imposing punitive measures against him.

Mussolini unquestionably knows that there is unrest against British rule in India and Egypt and that the Moroccans and Tunisians would welcome an opportunity to throw off the French yoke. If by stirring up trouble in these countries he could divert some of the energies of these two great powers into other channels it would be of distinct advantage to the Italians.

For it is quite conceivable that the outbreak of strife in these countries would be the precursor of troubles and warfare in other countries and might develop into the long-prophesied conflict between the Christian countries of the world and the nations which bow their heads to Mohammed.

While it is difficult to forecast what combinations might result from a split in the ranks of the nationals now engaged in preventing the culmination of Italy's act of aggression, because of the many diverse interests involved and the ramifications interposed among them, the situation is fraught with perils which may well cause apprehension even among many peoples who at the moment appear remote from danger.

A Reasonable Request

And while the Government is paying the farmers for all the pigs they don't raise and all the corn and wheat and cotton they don't plant why don't they pay the radio song-crooners for every radio song they don't croon? And why not pay the gals who lecture and do parts in radio drama for keeping off the air, asks the Chicago Tribune.

Wear a beard or pay a dollar is the law in Anaconda, Montana, this winter. The annual whisker marathon, first event in Anaconda's "winter sport carnival", has started. Every man in the town must let his beard grow or pay the city a dollar for an exemption permit.

An Alsatian pup saved its life by offering to "shake hands" with its would-be executioner. Sentenced to death because it was thought to be vicious, the dog captivated C. J. Wollett, stock inspector at Sydney, Australia, and he arranged to return it to the owner. 2128

Inaugurates New Service

Japanese Department Store Has Opened Free Marriage Bureau

Not content with merely imitating the merchandising practices of the West, a large department store in Osaka, Japan, has instituted a new native service for customers. A free marriage bureau has been opened in the store. There men and women who desire to marry may register and furnish pertinent information about themselves.

Marriage in Japan usually is arranged by families, rather than by the individuals concerned, through go-betweens who receive a commission for their services. The new bureau will take over the work customarily done by the go-between.

There is a business reason for the establishment of this free service. The couples who meet through the bureau will purchase their wedding outfit at the store.—New York Times.

Radio Inquiry

Parliamentary Committee May Hold Investigation

A parliamentary committee may be established when the house meets in January to investigate radio broadcasting in Canada, particularly the administration of the radio commission, it was learned recently.

It was understood every phase of broadcasting would be probed including the possibility of regulating broadcasting by a general manager instead of a commission of three.

During the campaign Mr. Mackenzie King took exception to certain broadcasts under the name of "Mr. Sage" and promised reform of broadcasting regulations to stop abuse of public men. It is probable the "Mr. Sage" broadcast will be investigated.

Islanders Are Delighted

China Clipper Ends Isolation Of Residents Of Guam

Residents of Guam Island hailed arrival of the mail-laden China Clipper as ending the isolation of this tropical Pacific isle. The craft had left Alameda, Calif., four days previously.

The graceful sky liner, nearing the end of its first flight over a trans-Pacific air mail route, arrived at Guam from Waka Island at 3:07. The 1,300-mile distance was covered in 10 hours, three minutes.

Two hundred pounds of mail was unloaded and speeded to the post-office for delivery, while Capt. Edwin Musick, skipper of the flying boat, and his eight-man crew were welcomed by officials.

Recipe For Youth

Live In Present Is Advice Of Famous Humorist

George Ade, the humorist, tells how to be young at 70. "Live only in the present," he said. "That's the secret. I caught myself reading the obituary notices recently before I turned to the sport page, and that is a sure sign of ossification," Ade mourned. "But I won't let myself become a mossback and a has-been so I keep the old bean in touch with the latest news, the latest plays, the latest movies, and the latest books."

No Substitute For Butter

It Is A Concentrated Energy And Heat Producer

Butter is one of the foods which has been widely used for many centuries, but whose true nutritional merit has only recently been brought to light, according to Laura C. Pepper, of the Dairy and Cold Storage Branch, Dominion Department of Agriculture. Recognizing the importance of adequate amounts of fats in diet and the valuable contributions made to health by butter, modern scientists uphold the generous use of this superior fat.

Palatability and high food value are the two qualities which earn for butter the distinction of being "the fat for which there is no substitute." Fats recommended for their tasteless properties hold little or no interest for the woman who prides herself on her cooking. She knows it is butter that makes cream sauces look and taste so rich; it is the butter used in cakes and cookies that evokes praise from friends; and, similarly, it is butter that insures excellent flavour and colour in many dishes prepared for the family table.

As for food value, butter is a concentrated energy producer, yielding 2¼ times as much heat in the body as the sugar and starch foods. This is a strong argument in favour of using plenty of butter, particularly during cold weather when the body requires extra heat. Butter is easily digested and readily and completely assimilated by the body; it contains small quantities of lime and phosphorus, and in addition has a high vitamin content which distinguishes it from other fats. It is an exceptionally good source of Vitamin A, which builds up resistance to disease and promotes normal health and growth. Butter is also one of the few foods which provide Vitamin D—the sunshine vitamin—so necessary for the development of bones and teeth.

Now Linked By Wireless

Lone Island Of Grand Cayman Connected With Jamaica

An island paradise where time for centuries has stood still, heard a belated warning of the march of progress, when wireless communication was established between Jamaica and Grand Cayman, one of her dependencies.

Lying about 300 miles northwest of Jamaica, Grand Cayman is the "whitest" island in the West Indies, more than 4,000 out of a total population of 5,000 being from English stock. Many of the original settlers came to Jamaica about the time Charles II. was put on the throne, and when his governor began to make trouble for them here, they moved to Grand Cayman. Others are descendants of English pirates and shipwrecked seamen who were the terrors of the Caribbean more than 200 years ago. Piracy that brought uncertain rewards was abandoned for the easier trade of wrecking—luring ships ashore by false beacon fires.

A religious people, they habitually prayed ships would be caught on the coral reef bounding the island, and a story is told how a congregation who ran out into a storm to loot a wreck were hailed by the parson: "Brethren, wait for the benediction, and let's all start fair."

But to-day the Grand Caymans are described as the happiest and most lawabiding people in the world. So peaceful have they become, it is said the only sin they commit is in dropping their h's.

Until Governor Sir Edward Denham of Jamaica formally opened the wireless service, the only communication with Grand Cayman was by boat.

Finish First Half Hoop Season

High Girls Unbeaten—Honors Even in Men's Division—Both Last Season Leaders Trailing —No Games During Holidays

MENS DIVISION

| | Played | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Cardinals | 6 | 5 | 1 | .85 |
| Loallo | 4 | 3 | 1 | .66 |
| Imp. Groceteria | 4 | 2 | 2 | .50 |
| High School | 6 | 2 | 0 | .00 |

LADIES DIVISION

| | Played | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| High School | 6 | 6 | 0 | 1.00 |
| Review | 6 | 3 | 3 | .50 |
| Pharmacy | 6 | 2 | 4 | .33 |
| Creston Motors | 6 | 1 | 5 | .16 |

There was a large crowd out for Friday night's Commercial League basketball games at Park pavilion. The girls game was fast, but the two boys' fixtures were rather poor. Wynndel squad was the second string team and were not fast enough for Loallo. In the second men's game Cardinals won from High School 45-15. In the girls' section Review nosed out Pharmacy 22-21.

Creston Review showed their oldtime form as they rode over the druggists for two periods, playing badly in the third, and coming back strong to win in the fourth by a 22-21 score. Nora Payne was at her best, putting up the best game of the season so far. She worked hard, taking the tipoff and racing in for rebounds, converting them successfully to garner eight points. Martello was on again, piling up nine points. Palmer and Lewis played steady at guard, breaking up the renshirt rushes successfully. The Review was much rougher than their opponents, having 16 penalties to Pharmacy four. The losers played fast, clean basketball, but their hard luck in shooting was one factor against them. Speers made ten of the 21 points, with the rest of the baskets divided between E. and Y. LaBelle and Abbott. The latter was the pick of the pill pounders bringing the ball down the floor and feeding the forwards Teams:

Phrmacy—Abbott 3, Speers 10, E. LaBelle 3, Y. LaBelle 3, Crane 2, Tompkins, P. MacDonald, Learmonth, Moore. 21.

Review—Bourdon, Swain 5, Martello 9, N. Payne 8, Palmer, Lewis. 22.

The second fixture, Loallo vs. Wynndel, was a win for Loallo 41-9. The losers were no match whatever for their more experie ced opponents, and their unfamiliarity with the floor and crowd was a real handicap. For the winners F. Bourdon played inspired ball. He was responsible for 20 of the 44 points scored by his team. Jim Dale handled the floor play to perfection and put up a brilliant game along with Buff Nastasi. Loallo had nice combination and were real sporty towards the visitors. Wynndel lacked practice and shooting and were inclined to be rough. Gib Payette and Elmer Hagen were the pick of the losers. Teams:

Wynndel—Al. Cooper, Fred Hagen. John Markin 1, Taylor, W. Markin, G. Payette 4, Elmer Hagen 3. W. Martell. 9.

Loallo—Dale 3, Scott 2, Young 2, A. Nastasi 1, Maddess 9, F. Bourdon 20, S. Nastasi, 41.

The final clash between High School boys and Cardinals was also one sided and uninteresting to watch, ending up with a score of 45-15. High School was completely outclassed by their stronger and faster opponents. Des. Trutcott missed several setups by bouncing the ball each time before passing. Wilf. LaBelle had tough luck with his shooting. Jim Rogers played nice ball but Cliff. York was wild in his passing. Cardinal play was almost perfect combination. Ben Crawford was playing in oldtime form at guard, chalking up 11 points. Tony Morabito was a little too slow for the balance of the team. Hurford played a fast game but was loose at ball handling. Teams:

High School—Goplin 7, York, A. Morabity, LaBelle 4, Truscott 2, Avery, Weir. 15.

Cardinals—Cobus 8, Crawford 11, T. Morabito, Hurford 6, Corrie, 20 45.

These games wind up the first half of the league season. Play will be resvmed the second Friday in January.

German Boy Planted Riding Switch Left By Customer

Thirty-five years ago a Dr. Dick of Diamond Creek, Victoria, was out riding near Heidelberg, Germany. He left his riding switch behind at a smithy's where he was having his pony shod. The smithy's lad recognized the switch as a grape vine cutting. He planted it in his cottage. Now it has grown to a full vine 35 yards long extending over the fence across a line and along the eastern wall of a hotel.

Liner Gangway Blocked

Passengers At Southampton Held Up By Thousands Of Bees

Thousands of bees held up passengers about to embark on the liner Moldavia at Southampton, England. The bees settled down comfortably at the foot of the passenger gangway and defied attempts to move them. A hose was tried, but this merely incited the bees, and caused them to buzz in clouds, scattering onlookers. Eventually order was restored, and embarkation proceeded.

To Shorten Ocean Trip

Irish Free State Plans Ship-to-Shore 'Planes

London will be brought within three days of New York when civil aviation plans which are being devised by the government of the Irish Free State come into operation—possibly next year.

The scheme aims at a service of high-speed aircraft of the Douglas type, to intercept the big Atlantic liners off the west coast of Ireland and to speed the passengers to London, with the saving of a full day of travel time.

With ships of the type of the Queen Mary and Normandie the Anglo-Irish air ferry will make London and New York a matter of a mere week-end trip.

From Galway on the west coast of Ireland to Southampton by liner is at present a full day's journey, with an additional two hours to London. The new air link would bring Galway within three hours of London.

It is proposed to use amphibian machines.

From Dublin the idea is to form a new air link not only with London but also with Paris, Brussels, and Berlin.

Alberta's Coal Reserves

Alberta's coal reserves total 40,200,000,000 tons and lie buried in 1,717 square miles of provincial soil, Sir Montague Barlow, one-man commission investigating collieries, was told. Dr. J. A. ### HARVESTING IN SASKATCHEWAN AT 20 BELOW!

Just about the middle of December, one of the most unique and interesting annual harvests to be garnered on the North American Continent will be in full swing. No! Not wheat—but Mineral Salts. The scene will be Little Manitou Lake, Watrous, Saskatchewan. The harvesters will be the employees of the Department of Natural Resources of Saskatchewan; and the harvest itself will consist of the tiny crystals of mineral salt which form in Little Manitou Lake each year at "freeze-up." It is one of the essential conditions that the harvest be completed within a period of ten days. When the Prairie winter comes in real earnest, and the thermometer shivers down to 20 below zero, the Departmental men, warmly attired, and wearing waist-high rubber boots, gather up these crystals with specially constructed shovels, and store them in the Government warehouse at Watrous, from where they are later distributed. The medicinal qualities of this saline lake, known for many years, are becoming more and more widely recognized, and as a consequence these harvesting operations are assuming ever-increasing proportions, and the Lake is proving to be one of the Province's most important natural resources.

Persian Garden

PATTERN 5439

Even though you have nothing on hand but tiny scraps of wool, you can fashion this lovely afghan. And the wool may be of different weights. Each block—4½ inches square—can be done in different colors. And what a jeweled effect you have when done! It does indeed look like a colorful oriental tapestry. Doing each block in different colors, too, makes the work more fascinating for each is an adventure. Besides an afghan you can make lovely pillow tops or chair sets. Can't you see what a lovely and inexpensive Xmas gift these would be?

In pattern 5439 you will find complete instructions for making the afghan shown as well as pillow tops and chair sets; an illustration of the block and of the stitches needed; material requirements.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

OCTOBER 13

THE STORY OF JEREMIAH

Golden text: To whomsoever I shall send thee thou shalt go, and whatsoever I shall command thee thou shalt speak. Jeremiah 1:7.

Lesson: Jeremiah 1:1-10; 6:10, 11; 8:18; 26:1-24; Chapters 36, 37, 38.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 26:1-7.

Explanations And Comments

Courageous Speaking Enjoined, Jeremiah 1:6-10. In the thirteenth year of Josiah's reign (about 626 B.C.), Jeremiah, the son of a priest, became conscious of a divine call to the prophetic office. It is natural to understand that he had long meditated upon his country's sins and had felt impelled to denounce them, but was most reluctant to undertake the task. The inward struggle which took place in his sensitive and shrinking heart when something different from his ordinary consciousness made him certain that he was destined to be the prophet of woe, he tells in the form of a dialogue between God and himself.

"Ah, Lord Jehovah! behold I know not how to speak; for I am a child," He was not a child in years but he lacked experience, he feared he had not the ability to speak, he distrusted himself. In the jargon of to-day, he had an inferiority complex. "Say not, I am a child" was the answer to his troubled thoughts that came to him; "for to whomsoever I shall send thee thou shalt go, and whatsoever I shall command thee thou shalt speak. Be not afraid because of them; for I am with thee to deliver thee."

The commission which Jeremiah received was to be "over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down, and to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant." His task was to be destructive and constructive. He must strive to make the people give up their vices and weaknesses which were making for internal corruption and for political destruction, and to implant in their hearts new ideals of righteousness.

The Courageous Speaker Threatened, Jeremiah 26:8-11. During the 40 years of Jeremiah's ministry, his was the task of setting himself in opposition to all the currents of his time, for Judah believed that she would escape the impending doom, that Jerusalem was inviolable because it held the temple, that the nation could not perish. Jeremiah had to warn her that her only possible course was to surrender to Babylon. At some great feast, doubtless when the people were gathered at Jerusalem, Jeremiah uttered the warning recorded in the first seven verses of chapter 26.

The Courage of Convictions, 26:12-15. Jeremiah's defense was that his message had come to him from God, and he urged them to amend their ways and doings, and to obey the voice of Jehovah. If they would do this, Jehovah would avert the evil which he had pronounced upon them. Prophecy, then was regarded as conditional; a change of conduct could prevent the threatened punishment.

Busy Year For Sun

More Eclipses In 1935 Than For Past 130 Years

The sun this year presents its greatest show of eclipses for the past 130 years. The moon will have passed between the sun and the earth no fewer than five times, and the moon will be in the earth's shadow twice. This according to Professor Alfred H. Joy, secretary of the Mount Wilson Observatory, is the greatest number of eclipses possible in one year. Not since 1805 have the sun's rays been obscured so often, states Reuter's correspondent in Pasadena. It will be only the second time since 1255 that there have been five solar eclipses in one year, and there will not be another such number until the year 2485.

Making Ten-Year Tour

Bicyclists From Sumatra Do Not Believe In Speed

Two Sumatran cyclists who do not believe in the modern craze for speed have arrived at Bombay on a ten-year tour of the world. They started from their home in Sumatra in July, 1931, and have taken over three-and-a-half years to complete 5,000 miles on their bicycles. They made fairly long stops in Indo-China, Siam and Burma and in various parts of India in order ot learn the language and study the people and their religion.

Out Of Politics

Henry Ford said in an interview published in The Detroit News that he is not interested in any "Ford for president" boom, or in politics generally. Discussing the business outlook, the motor magnate said: "I am not a prophet but I have the feeling that business and wage trends will be up, and I do not believe the political campaign of next year will have any appreciable effect on business, one way or the other."

URGE LARGE SCALE EMIGRATION PLAN TO THE DOMINIONS

Newcastle-On-Tyne, England.—The conference on emigration to the empire concluded after preparing a written case for a government-assisted emigrat'on scheme.

The brief, which a deputation will present to the government, urges a large-scale emigration scheme would help solve unemployment at home and abroad. Financial assistance would be repaid by saving unemployment relief.

Establishment of an empire development and em'gration board with statutory powers is advocated and it is suggested the annual budget should provide grants to settlers.

The plan will be submitted to the cabinet by the lord mayor of Newcastle, R. S. Dalgleish, and a deputation of members of parliament and representatives of emigration authorities from all parts of the country. Cop'es of the statement afterward will be circulated to Dominion premiers, high commissioners and agents-general, with a letter from the lord mayor of Newcastle appealing for their co-operation in an effort to bring about the biggest move ever made for the repopulation of the empire by families and communities from the United Kingdom.

New Gold Strike

Made On North Arm Of Great Slave Lake

Edmonton.—A new gold strike west of Yellowknife bay on the north arm of Great Slave lake was revealed to the world when Dr. Fred Jolliffe, of the federal geological survey, flew cut of the north after a summer spent in the northwest territories.

"The strike was made September 15 several m'les from the Burwash discovery," said Dr. Jolliffe.

He refused to divulge the name of the prospector who made the strike pending the filing of his official report when he returns to department of mines headquarters at Ottawa.

Dr. Jolliffe and his party of 15 student assistants from the University of Alberta, explored an area of roughly 10,000 square miles on the north shore of Great Slave lake and found that 2,800 square miles of the district was underlined by pre-Cambian sediments and volcanics, relatively favorable for the occurrence of gold and silver deposits.

Dr. Jolliffe left Sept. 24 for Ottawa.

Stage Sham Air Raid

Fleet Of Giant Bombers Visit Island Of Malta

Valetta, Malta.—A fleet of giant bombers and other aircraft droned over Malta in a sham air raid recently, with this tiny British island outpost plunged in darkness and eerie silence.

Promptly at 9:30 p.m., every house, street and traffic light blinked out. Simultaneously, the twinkling lights of British warships riding at anchor in the harbor went off.

Thousands of citizens thronged the historic bastions of Valetta and the seafront during the raid.

Acting-Governor Luke surveyed the operations. Aerial and military authorities said they were well pleased with the island's loyal co-operation.

Coining Ethiopian Money

Rome.—Italy is already coining Ethiopian thalers, for use following the incursion of Italian forces into Ethiopia. Employees of the mint said the coins are to be used by the military and civil governors w[illegible] Italy plans to install in E[illegible], to pay off tribesm[illegible] seek work [illegible] domination.

More Wheat In Store

Ottawa.—The Dominion bureau of statistics reported Canadian wheat in store for the week ended Sept. 20 amounted to 220,862,570 bushels, an increase of 13,058,380 over the previous week. The visible supply for the corresponding week last year was 223,369,206 bushels.

A Quiet Session

Prince Edward Island's House Of Assembly Meets

Charlottetown. — Another chapter was written into the history of British parliamentary procedure when Prince Edward Island's House of Assembly, filled with 30 Liberal members, met and carried on the affairs of state without an official opposition.

It was not a house of "yes-men," however. At least two government supporters served notice on Premier Walter Lea that they were not going to be a rubber-stamp for cabinet-directed policies.

When the money bill, the most important legislation of the special one-day session, was being studied in committee under the guidance of the premier, W. H. Dennis, Prince, and H. H. Cox, King's, raised objection to Canada's smallest province providing for $3,000,000 expenditure to refund loans and carry on public works. To give the cabinet this authority two months after taking office would be going directly against the policy of retrenchment which placed them in power, the critics contended.

Absence of an official opposing party helped to speed the work of the session and at an early hour the governor, accompanied by his secretary and aide-de-camp, returned to give His Majesty's assent to the bills passed.

The house was prorogued to meet ordinarily in March, 1936.

Abolish Ration System

New Decree Is Effective In Soviet Russia

Moscow. — A government decree abolished the ration system of selling some prime food products, cutting prices in open commercial shops.

The decree constitutes an important step toward liquidation of the present double sales system whereby workers make purchases in "closed" ration shops and the general public buys in open shops.

Prices of the two have differed widely, workers getting the benefit of extremely low rates.

The decree abolished ration shop sale of meat, sugar, fish, butter and potatoes and threw all buying of these products into open shops, substituting one fixed price for the previous double price system.

The new price scale reduced beef more than 50 per cent. It now will sell from five rubles up per kilogram. Sugar will be four rubles and 52 kopecks per kilogram as compared with 6.50, and butter was reduced from 24 rubles per kilogram to 15.

To prevent speculation, it was announced, no purchaser will be permitted to buy at one time more than two kilograms of meat; two of sugar; a half kilogram of butter or three kilograms of fish.

Hours Of Labor Set

Legislation Will Be Brought Into Effect October 5

Ottawa.—Legislation for limitation of the hours of labor in certain industrial undertakings in Canada will be brought into effect on Oct. 5. Regulations for the carrying out of the measure have been drafted.

Based on a 1919 convention of the international labor organization of the League of Nations, the legislation constitutes part of the reform program brought down by the government at the last session of parliament.

Would Defend Record

London. — Sir Malcolm Campbell and his Bluebird are through with breaking records unless some foreigner gives them a new mark to shoot at.

The Federal Vote

Results Should Be Quickly Available After Closing Of Polls

Ottawa.—Although various adaptations of proportional representation and the single transferable vote are used in some provincial elections the Dominion general election Oct. 14 will be conducted on the traditional single-vote system.

Electors will have only one choice between the contending candidates. They will mark an "X" opposite the name of the candidate they favor and the candidate with the largest number of "X's" will be elected. There are no second or third choices.

With the single-vote system in operation throughout the Dominion on election day results will be available probably for all constituencies within a few hours of the closing of the polls.

Another Storm Hits Japan

Typhoon Kills 48 And About 100 Are Missing

Tokyo.—A typhoon which whirled freakishly and destructively across Japan, from Kagoshima to Wendai, killed at least 48 persons, and about 100 were missing.

Several ports in the inland sea reported that fishing craft were missing, and the steamer Tonegawa Maru, with a crew of 13 and 19 passengers, also was missing.

The typhoon was the fifth death-dealing storm in three months over Japan proper.

Installing McGill Principal

Montreal.—It is expected at least 24 Canadian universities and colleges will be represented at the installation of Professor A. E. Morgan as principal of McGill University Oct. 5. Dr. Robert C. Wallace, president of University of Alberta, Edmonton, will be in attendance.

Farewell Banquet

Governor-General And Countess Of Bessborough Are Honored

Ottawa.—A farewell banquet was given by the government of Canada to the Governor-General and Countess of Bessborough.

The term of office of the Earl of Bessborough as the king's representative in Canada expires shortly.

It was an affectionate farewell at which, in addition to Sir George Perley, who presided, there was a distinguished gathering of representatives of the state, the diplomatic corps, the church, the judiciary and the civil service with their wives.

Responding to the toast proposed by Sir George Perley, the governor-general dwelt on the happy relations he had enjoyed during his four years in Canada.

Veregin Resigns

No Longer Head Of Brotherhood Of Doukhobors

Saskatoon.—Peter Veregin, for 10 years president of the Christian Community of the Universal Brotherhood of Doukhobors in Canada, stated here that he had severed all connection with the community. He declared that he stood now as a private Canadian citizen. He had no intention of leaving the country, he said.

Mr. Veregin, who has been virtual ruler of the sect in Canada since the death of his father in a British Columbia railway accident, said he had tendered his resignation about six months ago. He would not disclose any reason for his action. He is now on his way to Montreal.

Honesty Was Rewarded

Delivery Boy Returns Valuable Bonds And Gets Good Job

New York.—From the lowly plane of delivery boy of "coffee and—" at $3.15 a week, young Albert Correri vaulted to a remunerative position in Wall street.

Correri's role in "the street's" newest success story was cast when he picked from the gutter a packet of bonds valued at $150,000 and returned them to the owners. C. F. Grunwald, vice-president of C. F. Childs and Co., Wall street brokers, owners of the bonds, announced Correri would start work in the cashier's department of the brokerage firm.

Correri, who is 22, may also get a reward.

Siege Of Lucknow

Ten People Alive To Celebrate Thrilling Event

London.—Ten people in different parts of the world celebrate one of the most thrilling incidents in the modern history of the British Empire, the siege of Lucknow in the Indian mutiny.

The oldest survivor of the siege is C. G. Palmer, a resident of British Columbia; the youngest Arthur Dashwood, 78, living in London. Dashwood's mother gave him birth in the residency at Lucknow, where 17 people were herded in one room during the siege. Despite her ordeal, Mrs. Dashwood lived for more than 70 years.

RECEIVING THE KING'S CUP

TO STRENGTHEN NAVY AND AIR FORCE IN BRITAIN

London.—Prime Minister Baldwin intends to outline measures to strengthen both the navy and the air force when he addresses the Conservative party at its annual conference at Bournemouth.

George Lansbury, Labor leader in the House of Commons in an address declared Britain and other nations were on the brink of a war in which it would be "Christian against Christian, Mohammedan against Mohammedan, Jew against Jew—all praying to the same God for Victory.

"I cannot bow to that sort of thing," the leader said. "The way out is for some nation, and I want it to be Britain, to blaze a new trail."

Athens.—The semi-official Athens news agency announced information from a German source indicated arrangements had been completed at Instanbul for Greek and Turkish warships and planes to start manoeuvres in the Dardanelles and that two Roumanian torpedo boats would also participate.

It has been reported Greece is prepared to support Great Britain in any Mediterranean activity which might become necessary at the outbreak of Italo-Ethiopian warfare.

Greek newspapers hailed the arrival of British ships in Greek ports, saying that the people of Greece have come to regard the annual British naval manoeuvres in Mediterranean waters as a welcome tradition.

Mussolini Opposed

Report From Italy Of Some Opposition To War Plans

Paris. — French newspapers reprinted a story from The London Referee saying Prince Umberto, heir to the Italian throne, is opposed to Premier Benito Mussolini's conflict with Ethiopia.

(This report was described as utterly false in Rome and London by authoritative Italian spokesmen.)

There is a possibility, the story said, of General Italo Balbo, governor of Libya and Italian air hero, leading a revolt against Il Duce.

"Balbo, whose relations with the royal family are excellent, is also opposed to the Ethiopian campaign," the story asserted. "A large number of Italian superior officers share his view."

Sentry Killed By Lions

Five Belonging To Emperor Selassie Make Dash For Freedom

Addis Ababa.—Five of Emperor Haile Selassie's big lions escaped, killed one sentry, and injured five more.

In this rush for freedom they devoured several of the Emperor's pedigreed Australian sheep and killed two horses.

Colonel Mekouria, the commander of the imperial guard, seized a machine gun and shot all five beasts in succession.

Insurance Premiums Higher

British Vessels Passing Through Suez Canal Must Pay More

Singapore.—Fear of trouble developing in the Mediterranean was reflected here when marine insurance companies warned special premiums for "war risks" must be paid by British vessels returning to England through the Suez canal.

To escape payment of the war risk premiums British ships must go all the way around the Cape of Good Hope.

Gordon Bennett Trophy
