THOMSON—GRIEVE

On Monday evening last, Oct. 18, the Rev. D. McGillivray united in the Holy Bonds of matrimony Mr. Wm. Thomson and Miss Vera Grieve, both of this city. Miss Mabel Coe acted as bridesmaid and Mr. William York did the duties of best man. The bride was gracefully gowned in a suit of navy blue and looked charming. The News extends congratulations to the happy couple and wishes them long life, happiness and prosperity.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

A Thanksgiving Service will be held on Sunday evening, Oct. 24th in St. George's Presbyterian Church by the pastor, Rev. D. McGillivray. Our Federal Government in its wisdom, has seen fit to appoint this day of National Thanksgiving and it is surely fitting, considering the peace that abounds throughout the length and breadth of our great empire, and especially the almost unparalleled prosperity and plenty which abounds in our own portion of the empire. Considering all this it surely behooves our people to turn out and express their thanksgiving to Almighty God for His goodness, who with us has crowned the year.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

The final of the Hospital Cup was played off on Saturday, between the Wanderers and No. 5 football clubs. A large crowd turned out to witness the game, No. 5 won the toss and decided to defend the top goal. The Wanderers kicked off and soon were hovering around their opponent's goal. Play of a give and take nature followed, No. 5 were the first to settle down and for a time Walker and his backs were kept busy. With twenty minutes gone R Barker of No. 5 met with an accident and had to leave the field. With ten men No. 5 put more life into their play and soon had their efforts rewarded. D. James doing the trick, beating Walker with a shot, close in. For the remainder of the half No. 5 had the pull, seldom getting within shooting distance. The first half ended in favor of No. 5.

The second half began with No. 5 still one man short, but for the first 15 minutes they more than held their own, and had the satisfaction of adding to their score, B. Reese beating Walker with a shot that gave him no chance to save. With 15 minutes to go, R Brown of No. 5 had his foot injured and was forced to retire from the game. The Wanderers then took the game in hand and hemmed No. 5 in, McNeil was bombarded with all kinds of shots, but for a time he kept his charge safe, dealing with some difficult shots in a very creditable manner. W Sutherland at length beat him, giving the Wanderers their first and which proved to be their only goal.

The Wanderers were soon back and at it again playing desperately to get the equalizer and were almost successful in the last minute of the game, being awarded a penalty, which McNeil saved amid great excitement.

The game ended in favor No. 5, the score being 2 goals to 1.

The game was free from rough play and very few fouls being awarded. Mr. Palmer refereed the game in a very satisfactory manner, and had the players well in hand. Com.

THE OCTOBER ROD AND GUN.
 On the eve of the big game hunting season, the October Number of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, at Woodstock, Ont., gives foremost attention to big game hunting stories. They will be found varied enough in both localities and experiences to interest all sportsmen, and many will doubtless recall incidents in their own careers corresponding with some related in such pleasing fashion in these pages. In the same way the article on "The Characteristics of a Fine Backwoods Guide" will remind numerous readers of character features shown by their own guides, and revive many pleasant memories—a rich storehouse of which is the property of every sportsman. Fish culture in Newfoundland will receive attention from every brother of the rod, and its inclusion shows that even at such a time the interests of the devotees of the fishing art are not neglected. Other reasonable pages are given, making for number one that should be the companion of every sportsman either at home or on his vacation, giving him many pleasant half hours in perusing what others have done and enabling him to fight some of his own battles o'er again.

Here is the way the papers will write up weddings ten years hence "The bride looked very well in a traveling dress, but all eyes were centered upon the groom. He wore a dark suit that fitted his form perfectly and in his dainty gloved hands he carried a small rose. His curly hair was beautifully done, and a delicate odor of hair oil of the best quality floated down the aisle as he passed. The young people will miss him now that he is married. He is loved by all for his many accomplishments, his tender grace and his winning ways. The bride commends a good salary as bookkeeper and the groom will miss none of the luxuries to which he has been accustomed. A crowd of pretty men saw him off at the depot.

We are pleased to learn that our local fair directors have sent a very good district exhibit over to the New Westminster fair. They are determined to let the balance of the province see that there is a place in existence called Comox District. Exhibits were collected by the committee from the whole of the district, including Denman and Hornby Islands, Comox, Courtenay, Cumberland, Happy Valley, Saudwick and Grantham.

We congratulate the "Saturday Sunset" on its splendid issue called the Vigorous Vancouver edition. It is really a fine production, richly illustrated and a credit to the publishers.

The way the yard sticks rattled, hardware jingled and our merchants and clerks moved around Saturday indicated a lively day for our business men; and the people that thronged our thoroughfares were delighted in the bargains they had pocketed, and the general verdict is this is the place to trade.

FOR SALE—Jersey cow, in calf also one mare good for saddle or buggy—Apply News office or to M. Perez, Courtenay.
