Masquerade Ball

The Masquerade Ball given by the Young Britons, Lodge in the Cumberland Hall on last Friday evening Oct., 30th, was a grand success.

The hall was artistically decorated for the occasion by the members and when filled with the happy maskers presented such a gay appearance as has seldom been seen at previous masquerades. The costumes worn were sufficient to disguise and keep the spectators guessing. There were also many beautiful dresses and the Judges must have experienced much difficulty in choosing the winners.

The attendance was a proof of the popularity of the Young Britons, especially among the younger folks of the city; for youth and beauty was there in all its grandeur, and the members of the Order of Young Britons should congratulate themselves both on the financial and social success of the masquerade on Friday evening. Excellent music was provided by Murdoch's Orchestra, composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs H. Murdoch, cornet; H. Winningham, violin; O. Parnham, piano, and M. Mariotti, clarinet.

The following is the list of those who carried away prizes:—
Best dressed lady, Mrs. Rickman, $5 in goods by S. Leiser & Co. and $7 cash.

Best dressed gent, Mr. Lord, of Union Bay, $5 in goods by J. N. McLeod, and $7 cash.

Best national character, lady, Miss Bessie Anthony, lady's hand bag, value $4.50 by T. D. McLean.
Best national character, gentleman, Mr. B. Sweeney, razor, value $2.50, by T. E. Bate.

Best sustained character, lady, Mrs. Lanton, $2.50 in goods by J. McPhee & Sons.

Best sustained character, gentleman, Mr. Lanton $2.50 in goods by Rickman Bros.

Best comic character, gentleman, C. DeKerr, pipe, value $2.50 by A. H. Peacey.

Best comic character, lady, Miss A. Hunden, $2.50 in goods by J. H. Collins.

Best Topsy, Mr. Alex Maxwell, $2.50 in goods by the Comox Co-operative Society.

Best Hobo, Robert Gray, $5 in goods by Campbell Bros.

Best clown, Mr. Pickup jr., $3 cash.

Prize waltz, Mr. and Mrs. Lanton, lady's bracelet, value $5 by P. Stoddart.

Best two step, Mr. Andrew Gibson and Miss Vera Grieve, cigarette case and match box, value $4.75 by D. Hunden.

Union Bay, Oct 29—Str. Queen conled today. Barge Baroda is coal ing here today. The hulk, Robert Kerr today with 1000 tons of coal left for Vancouver.

Ottawa, October 29—The Ottawa Socialists sent a message of congratulation to "Comrade" Hawthorthwaite on his election in Nanaimo, and arranged to give him a great reception when he arrived in Ottawa to take his seat. This action was premature, owing to Ralph Smith winning the seat.

WE WANT MONEY
YOU NEED THE GOODS

Wm. Sloan Elected by Acclamation.

Wm. Sloan was elected on last Wednesday, Oct., 28th nomination day, by acclamation, no other candidate forthcoming on the conservative side. He was declared elected by Returning Officer P. Phillipps Harrison, of Cumberland.

In the evening a smoker was given, in the Cumberland Hall in Mr. Sloan's honor, at which a large number were present of both sides of politics. Mr. J. Abrams acted as chairman. The program consisted of songs and speeches. Mr. Sloan and Dr. Quinlan being the speakers of the evening. Mr. Sloan reviewed the work done by him during the past four years and is to be complimented on the grand work done for this constituency. The rumour is current, and we hope that it may prove correct that Mr. Sloan will be the next Cabinet Minister for B. C. to fill the vacancy being caused by the defeat of the Hon. Wm. Templeman in Victoria.

Dr. Quinlan in a neat speech congratulated Mr. Sloan on his election by acclamation and gave as his reason for not contesting this seat, the uselessness of such a contest under existing circumstances; namely, the return of the Laurier Government.

Rod and Gun for Novem- ber.

Fine diversified reading is the leading feature of the November number of "Rod and Gun and Motor Sports in Canada" published by W. J. Taylor, at Woodstock, Ont. The delights of camping, canoeing, fishing, hunting and mountaineering are dwelt upon in stories which give the added touches of personal experiences to the pleasant picture of enjoyment each one presents. Particularly notable are papers on "The Deer of New Brunswick" by that veteran guide, Adam Moore; "Deer Farming for Profit," a summary of inquiries on this subject made by the United States Government and "Wild Rice Growing in Nova Scotia." Every one will enjoy reading the stories, "Running the Rapids with an amateur" by L.
W. Bingay; "Experiences as a Bear Hunter" by Dr. Heuzel;
"How I missed a Moose and Deer and shot a Wolf," by Jack Miner;
and the friendly challenge by Mr.
J. A. Shade, who believes, when all points are taken into consideration, that he has the finest moose head yet taken out of New Brunswick. This summary by no means includes the whole of the wide field covered. Diversions being made into many paths each one of which must appeal to many readers. With the various departments, the wealth of material included in this number of the magazine is surprising and includes contributions that must appeal to all lovers of out door life.

DOCTORS SAID "CUT OFF!"

"The only thing I can do now is to take the finger completely off. It cannot otherwise be cured." So said one of the leading doctors of Toronto to Mr. W. O. Edwards, P.D.O.R.A.O.F., P.G.M.I.O.O.F., the well-known Friendly Society leader, of Peter Street, Toronto. Almost a year before, Mr. Edwards cut the middle finger of his left hand very badly and blood poison ensued. For two months the doctor had been treating him, but no good had resulted, and this was the final decision. A fifty-cent box of Zam-Buk saved Mr. Edwards from life-long mutilation which $500 would not have compensated him for. He says: "The blood poison from the finger spread up my hand and arm and caused me terrible agony. After months' treatment the doctor said there was no cure, and amputation would have to take place if I intended to save the arm. My hand, at that time, was all swollen up and discolored, and I had to carry it in a sling. I left that doctor and consulted another.

After a few weeks' treatment he also told me that operation would be necessary, and the finger would have to be opened so that the bone could be scraped. I went away to consider when I would have the operation performed, and met a friend who advised me to try Zam-Buk. That night I bathed the wound and put on some Zam-Buk. I got a little sleep for the first time for many nights. In the morning the wound began to bleed instead of the foul discharging as in the past. This was a healthy sign so I went on with the Zam-Buk. Well, to cut a long story short, in a few days I put away the sling and in a few weeks the finger was healed completely. To-day that finger is as sound as a bell and I owe it to Zam-Buk."

A WORD TO WIVES

Wives and mothers should know that Zam-Buk is the finest, safest and surest healer yet known. It is a herbal balm which acts like magic in healing sores, cuts, poisoned wounds, cracked hands,
chapped places, cold sores, eczema, ulcers, festering sores and all skin diseases. So pure is it that it can be applied to the delicate skin of babies, and yet so powerful that chronic wounds are closed and cured by it. It soothes the pain of piles and stops the bleeding. It is highly antiseptic. A box of Zam-Buk is as good as a medicine chest, so many uses it fulfils. All druggists and stores sell at 50c a box or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

Synopsis of Canadian Homestead Regulations.

Any available Dominion Lands within the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one quarter section of 160 acres, more or less. Entry must be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may, however, be made on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of and intending homesteader.

The homesteader is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of the homesteader resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Six months' notice in writing should be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of intention to apply for patent.
Coal-mining rights may be leased for a period of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2,500 acres shall be leased to one individual or company. A royalty at the rate of five cents per ton shall be collected on the merchantable coal mined.

Quality of material forms the basis of any well made range. A good design is essential, but a poor quality product lacks durability, costs too much for repairs, and proves a nuisance in every way.

In the Oxford Chancellor, the body is made of the best cold-rolled steel plates.

To this is closely riveted an interlining of asbestos mill-board.

Between the main bottom and the bottom of the stove are two air spaces which protect the floor from overheating.

THE SUN A PUZZLE.

We See Only the Outer Shells of the Great Blazing Orb.

The great ball of fire which we call the sun is not really the sun. No one has ever seen the sun. A series of concentric shells envelops a nucleus of which we know absolutely nothing except that it must be almost infinitely hotter than the fiercest furnace and that it must amount to more than nine-tenths of the solar mass.

That nucleus is the real sun, forever hidden from us. The outermost of the enveloping shells is about 5,000 miles thick and is called the chromosphere. It is a gaseous fluid, tinted with the scarlet glare of hydrogen, and so furiously active that it spurts up great tongues of glowing gas (prominences) to the height of thousands of miles.

Time was when this agitated sea of crimson fire could be seen to advantage only during an eclipse. Now special instruments are used which enable astronomers to study it in the full glare of the sun.

Beyond the chromosphere, far beyond the prominences even, lies the nebulous pallid corona visible only during the vanishing moments of a total eclipse, aggregating not more than seven days in a century.

No one has ever satisfactorily explained how the highly attenuated matter composing both the prominences and the corona is supported without falling back into the sun under the pull of solar gravitation. Now that Arrhenius has cosmically applied the effects of light pressure a solution is presented.

How difficult it is to account for such delicate streamers as the prominences on the sun is better comprehended when we fully understand how relentlessly powerful is the grip of solar gravitation.

If the sun were a habitable globe and you could transport yourself to its surface, you would find yourself pulled down so forcibly by gravitation that you would weigh two tons, assuming that you are an ordinary human being.

Your clothing alone would weigh more than a hundred pounds. Baseball could be played in a solar drawing room, for there would be some difficulty in throwing a ball more than thirty feet.

Tennis would be degraded to a form of outdoor plugging.

From these considerations it is plain that gravitation on the sun would tend to prevent the formation of any luminous streamers and to pull down to its surface masses of any size.

BARNUM'S OLD LION.

How the Great Showman Turned His Death to Account.

Among the features of the parades of the Barnum circus there was formerly one that never failed to attract attention. On the top of one of the wild beast cages lay an enormous lion. He was not confined in any way, and nervous people watching the parade would shudder at the sight and contemplate the terrible possibility of the lion springing into the midst of the crowd.

But the venerable old king of beasts had reached the lionine dotage, and stiffened muscles and blunted claws rendered him harmless. He was as mild as a kitten and to the winter quarters, where he was allowed to roam at will, sometimes had to be protected from the onslaughts of irreverent and mischievous puppies.

One night he wandered from the quarters. In the course of his travels he chanced on a barn where a meek-eyed cow was placidly chewing her cud. A faint flicker of the slumbering jungle spirit stirred his pulse, and with a crushing blow of the huge fore paw, the cow was slain; then, lying down beside his victim, he went to sleep and dreamed of the time when he was a charge little whelp playing with his brothers under the bright sun of his far-off African home.

In the morning the owner of the cow, a stalwart fellow with the blood of Irish kings in her veins, entered the barn with milk pail in hand. She was filled with wrath at the sight that met her gaze. With a keen edged ax in her hand and grim determination in her eye she fearlessly approached the sleeping lion and when she men sent out to search for her arrived he lay cold in death. Barnum promptly paid for the dead cow and the lion to appear on exhibition. The women who in mortal combat had slain a lion?

The steamer Iroquois which ran aground on Jack's Point on Monday night last in a dense fog was successfully floated at 8 o'clock last evening. During the last two days divers have been at work unjamming up all the port holes that were under water and when this work was completed, two large pumps on the steamer Mand were a going and the sunken steamer was hoisted to the surface and at high tide slipped off the rock into deep water. The Iroquois was towed alongside Hirst's wharf by the tug Jolliffe, and her cargo taken off. She will be towed to Victoria this morning for repairs and a general overhauling. The steamer is a little damaged apart from that sustained through being submerged for a couple of days.

In Great Britain today there are said to be a million and a half of unemployed people in the United Kingdom, and on these seven and a half million others are depending for food and clothes.

As we go to press the Presidential campaign of 1908 in the United States is practically at an end, and the various political parties have made their claims. Of course none of the smaller parties will carry any of the States and their campaign managers are all too well aware of this. The Republicans and Democrats are both sure of victory and have given out inflated statements showing the States they expect to carry.

Annual Banquet.

The Pythian Sisters held their Annual Banquet in the K. of P. Hall; on Wednesday, October 28th, 1908. On account of various attractions the gathering was not as large as usual, but those present enjoyed the hospitality of the Sisters to a very great degree. The tables were burdened with a great variety of delicacies and were also very prettily decorated, showing that the Sisters are artists at entertaining. After all had satisfied the inner man, Mr. John Thomson called the gathering to order and disposed of a long list of toasts, which were responded to by various members of the company. Representatives from the different fraternal societies in the city were present—and expressions of fraternal good-will were freely exchanged. Towards the small hours the company joined hands in singing "Auld Lang Syne," and after three ringing cheers for the Sisters, and also for the Chairman, everyone went home hoping that an invitation would reach them in time for the next Pythian Sisters' banquet.

Beesly Deceived.
The Husband—You want to know where I was so late last night? I was at the office balancing my books.
The Wife—It seems to me that you balance your books very often. That excuse is about threadbare.
The H—H'm! If you don't believe me, why don't you consult a fortune teller?
The W.—Not much. I consulted one once, and she told me a pack of lies.
The H.—Indeed! What did she tell you?
The W.—She told me I would get a rich, handsome, kind, attentive and truthful husband.
