

WORK ON THE WHARF TO BEGIN ON MONDAY

Gang Of Men Will Be Grading Approach Getting out Piles For Structure Now Proceeding

Monday will see a gang of men at work grading the approach of the new wharf and on Tuesday Mr. Thomas, the foreman in charge of the work, hopes to have a pile-driver on the waterfront ready for operation on the structure. This morning Mr. D. J. Thomas had a talk with Mr. Dunsmit relative to the approach to the wharf and everything was satisfactorily arranged. The wharf itself is to be at the foot of Gatacre street and from there the approach will be graded to the handstand at the Green, and the road will run from there to the Esplanade, making an easy grade for wagons to and from the waterfront.

Men are already engaged getting out piles and the work will be pushed ahead as rapidly as possible. Today Mr. Thomas is getting together the tools for the men to start Monday.

ADJUSTING THE TROUBLES

Japanese and Indians Have Dispute Over Fishing Question Near Comox

There have been a couple of disputes between the Indians and Japanese near Comox over fishing rights recently, and Mr. W. R. Robertson, Indian Agent of Duncan, has been engaged for the last few days examining into the matter and straightening things out. A number of Japanese have been fishing for dog salmon under seine licenses and approached closer to the mouths of Comox and Sable rivers than the regulations permit. To this the Indians objected and the Japanese made a great fuss, pretending that the Indians were threatening their lives, when as a fact, they only threatened to complain to the authorities. However, the matter will now be adjusted and the Japanese obliged to keep within the regulations.

There is a little question something like the French shore trouble in Newfoundland on a small scale to settle. The Comox spit is used by the navy for firing practice, and some Japanese got permission from the commander of one of the warships to put up a temporary drying stage for fish for a few weeks. This and the Indians, who claimed that the land is a reserve, and while they are good friends of the men behind the gun from His Majesty's warships, they did not propose to let any of the little brown men come on land on the spit. Whether it is a reserve, or under whose jurisdiction the spit comes, is a question; but unlike the fishing troubles in Newfoundland, the matter seems capable of speedy solution, as the Japanese in any case will not need the drying stage longer than a few weeks.

KING GEORGE OF SAXONY DIES

Dresden, Saxony, Oct. 15.—The new King of Saxony, Frederick Augustus, eldest son of King George, who died early today, received the ministers and officers of the royal household later in the day, and fixed the period of mourning at twenty-four weeks. The shutters are up at all the shop windows, flags are at half mast, and the bells are tolling.

PANAMA'S NAVY GONE

Panama, Oct. 15.—The gunboats, Third of November and Medina, the last of what was Panama's navy have been sold to an American of Coquimbó, who is supposed to represent would-be South American revolutionists. Major Maude, of the British army service, who came here to search for treasure said to have been hidden a long time ago, on the Galapagos Island, has sold his yacht Cavalier, with five guns, to Ecuador.

THE RIVALS.

Montreal, Oct. 15.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and R. L. Borden, addressed crowded houses respectively in Toronto and Montreal last night.

The Conservatives have their first meeting here on Tuesday.

ALL THREE CANDIDATES AT NANAIMO

Mr. Smith's Will Be Attended By Conservatives and Socialists Tonight

On Monday He Addresses the Electors Here—Conservatives Have Opened Rooms

Mr. Ralph Smith and Lieut. Col. Gregory, of Victoria, were in town a few minutes today on their way to Nanaimo, where they speak tonight. Mr. Macpherson, M. P., will also attend. It is understood that Mr. Wolley, the Conservative candidate, and Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper will also be present as well, and Mr. Fenton and several Socialist speakers.

The local Conservatives have secured committee rooms in the front portion of the Opera House, where Mr. E. Marshall, the secretary will be in attendance daily.

On Monday, Mr. Smith holds a public meeting here in the Opera House, and will be assisted by Col. Gregory and Mr. Macpherson, M. P. His meeting last night at Chemainus was a very good one, and Mr. Smith was well pleased with the way things progressed.

AN EVENING WITH PIERROTS

In the quaint dress of the French clown and his companion, from which they take their names, Pierrot and Pierrette, entertained the audience at the opera house last evening with one of the brightest, most amusing and charming performances one could wish. Songs, duets and monologues, that kept the house laughing continually made the time pass delightfully and as a reward the Pierrots will no doubt find the house tonight overflowing with people anxious to hear them. It is refreshing to listen to talented people who depend on real humor and cleverness to amuse without the suspicion of horseplay or coarseness. Good, wholesome laughter is an admirable thing and as each amusing surprise was sprung one after another, shouts of laughter rose and the whole atmosphere seemed infectious with the spirit of merriment. Opening with the little explanatory duet, "The Pierrots Come, the Pierrots Go," Pierrot followed with the "Motor Car," the rattling operatic air going exceedingly well with the comical words. Then came Pierrette with a dainty little song, "Bluebell," in birdlike tones that made her an immediate favorite. A duet "Three Nice Girls," in their pursuit of a frightened young man, drew as an encore the "Quarrel," and Pierrot's "Nothing New," had as an encore "His Only Joke." Pierrette's appeals to "Sammy" in the audience and the announcement by "Our Clerical Friend," Pierrot at the church social made the hit of the evening; though it is really difficult to pick out particular spots where all is good. There are only a few of the pleasures on the programme last evening. To-night there will be a complete change and it would be a pity to miss the last chance of hearing the Pierrots. Not a little too, is due to the artistic playing of Miss Wardrope, who accompanied.

NEWS OF STILL MORE GAINS BY JAPANESE

All Three Of Oyama's Armies Are Successful and Russians are Forced Back Twenty Miles

Thirty-Five Guns Taken—Kuropatkin Narrowly Escapes From Hail Of Shell Fired Directed Against His Staff From Masked Batteries

Unable to withstand the tremendous assault of the Japanese, Kuropatkin has been forced back to a position north of the Shako river after a battle of the most desperate and sanguinary character. Absolutely no official news of today's fighting has been given out at St. Petersburg, but the correspondent of the Associated Press after relating unofficial but circumstantial reports, said to originate in high places that the public is convinced that Kuropatkin's advance has ended in complete disaster with such frightful losses that they will stagger Russia even after Liao Yang. Oyama reporting to Tokio says that fighting continues, but that the Russians are retiring and the correspondent adds "Kuropatkin evidently is crushingly defeated." The Japanese commander estimated the Russian losses at 30,000.

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

Tokio, Oct. 15.—Noon—Heavy fighting continued yesterday. The reports from the field last night indicate that all three Japanese armies made distinct gains. Gen. Oku captured ten guns, making his record for the battle thirty-five. The fighting the vicinity of Benschu continues.

OYAMA'S REPORT.

Tokio, Oct. 15.—(7 p.m.)—Field Marshal Oyama estimates the Russian casualties at 30,000. The fighting continues, but the Russians are retiring. Gen. Kuropatkin evidently is crushingly defeated.

Tokio, Oct. 15.—A report from Field Marshal Oyama on the fighting says:

"The right army on the reinforcing detachment sent in the direction of Chiato, reaching its objective on the morning of Oct. 14, Prince Kanin's column began engaging the enemy near Wosingtsun on the left bank of the Tai Tse River. At dawn on the 15th, the enemy's force that attacked at Benschu and Tunenezu Pass, began retreating. At eleven o'clock on the fourteenth, our detachment, assuming the aggressive, advanced in pursuit. The right column having received reinforcements, during the night of Oct. 13, held Cashshin Pass against a superior force of the enemy. The left column took possession of Linhuarn Mountain and a line along the northern heights. During the night of Oct. 13, the first line of the left column appeared to have occupied Hakoa heights. The fighting in the direction of the right army was progressing very favorably the morning of Oct. 14. The centre army, since the morning of Oct. 14, has taken possession of a line of eminences located north of the line extending from Tung Shankow to Huchisakuchiatzu and continues its advance to attack the enemy.

Definite reports have not been received from the left army but the main force, the right column at 11 o'clock in the morning of Oct. 14th, appears to have seized heights north east of Huanghuatien while the centre column, earlier in the day, occupied the heights south of Shahapa. A portion of the latter force attacked the enemy's infantry holding Kunciwotzu and capturing ten guns. The enemy fled northeast in confusion. Since the morning of Oct. 14, five companies of Russians have been posted between Linchenpao and Talientukun and one company is at Saizaintun. Our left is engaging them. During the morning of Oct. 14, two battalions and a battery of Russians attacked us at Manchiyuantzu. We succeeded in repulsing them.

UNFAVORABLE TO RUSSIA

At the Russian front, Tuesday, Oct. 13, by way of Mukden, Oct. 15.—The Japanese offensive began Tuesday

along the whole line. The heaviest work was on the Russian extreme right where the fighting for the possession of the Hua Pass and the Tunin Pass did not cease until midnight. The Russians succeeded in capturing the latter, though at fearful loss. The position at Poliasoutzi, still further the Tai Tse river, held by the Tomsk regiment, was furiously assaulted and the regiment lost heavily. The Tamboff regiment extricated itself from a seemingly hopeless position and succeeded in extricating its retirement. The Russians stuck to most of their positions heroically Tuesday, except at the Schilli River. On the morning of Wednesday the Japanese renewed their attack preparing the way for their infantry with an artillery bombardment. At noon, the Russian right began to fall back, but the attacks upon the Russian centre and left weakened perceptibly. The artillery fire slackened in the evening, but the rifle fire continued with little intermission throughout the night. The Japanese today (Thursday, Oct. 13), renewed their attack and the battle proceeded with varying success; but on the whole, favorable to the Japanese, as the Russians continued to give ground. The Russian wounded are being sent north to Harbin.

KUROPATKIN'S CLOSE SHAVE.

According to special despatches received here, Gen. Kuropatkin had a narrow escape during the fierce fighting of Wednesday night and Thursday for the possession of Tangle hill and the double horned mountain east of the railroad. With his staff he was personally directing the fight at this point. Orderlies were constantly galloping up with reports from other parts of the field and carrying despatches to and from the telephone and telegraph stations which were working behind the hills. This evidently attracted the attention of the Japanese, who cleverly unmasked some batteries, the shells of which burst all around the distinguished group, compelling General Kuropatkin to shift his position hastily and seek shelter. It is understood that Gen. Kuropatkin before the battle commenced again, designated Lieut. Gen. Sakharoff and then Lieut. Gen. Bicklering to succeed him in command in the event of his being disabled.

FRIDAY'S VICTORY.

Field headquarters of the second via Fusan, Korea, Oct. 15.—Fuller Japanese Army, Oct. 13, 5 p.m., division reports give increased importance to the victory achieved yesterday by the left army. Twenty-four Russian guns were captured when the retreat began, together with many rifles. The Russians lost heavily in counter attacks, the Japanese loss being much smaller. The advance continued all day, the Russians retiring before it.

General Oku reports four officers killed, thirty-one wounded and two missing for the engagement of Oct. 10, 11 and 12.

STILL FIGHTING.

London, Oct. 15.—A news agency from Tokio today says that as a result of Friday's sanguinary fighting the centre column of the Japanese left army succeeded in partly occupying Shahapu. The Russians' main body fell back to mountainous districts east of the railway. The Russians around Benschu have fled northeasterly. The Japanese last night, the despatch adds, engaged three Russian reserve divisions under the personal command of Gen. Kuropatkin. The fighting in this quarter was resumed this morning. Vital importance is attached at Tokio to the fighting at this point. TEN MORE GUNS.

Tokio, Oct. 15.—Gen. Oku captured ten additional guns yesterday. Heavy fighting continues.

KUROPATKIN FALLS BACK.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 15.—Unofficial reports from the battle-field are more encouraging this morning. There has been no rout, but there is no question that the Russians have fallen back twenty miles. According to private advices dated Mukden at 6.30 last night Gen. Kuropatkin checked the Japanese advance yesterday at the Shakhe river. He crossed the river and is holding a line along the north bank extending from west of the railroad eastward to Benschaputze.

London, Oct. 15.—The Japanese victory south of Mukden, according to the Standard's Tien Tsin correspondent, has made a deeper impression on the Far East than any victory of the war.

CAPTURE TUMIN PASS.

Mukden, Oct. 14.—(Delayed in transmission.)—News has been received here to the effect that one of the Russian eastern columns has overcome the desperate resistance of the Japanese and captured Tumin Pass, which opens a direct road to the right flank of the Japanese main positions at Yen Tai mines. If the report is true, Gen. Kuropatkin's plans have succeeded and the Russians have taken the Japanese in flank and rear. One more effort, it is asserted, and the Japanese must retreat with heavy losses from the Shakhe river, or run the risk of being cut off from the army between the Shaku and Schilli rivers and be annihilated. But, it is added, it must be remembered that flanking movements are double edged and cut both ways. In any case, the decisive moment appears to have arrived.

FOR REINFORCEMENTS.

London, Oct. 15.—The London Times' Russian correspondent says that military activity is everywhere noticeable in Southern Russia. Every effort is being made to send off the regiments of the Eighth army corps with the minimum of delay. The military transport authorities estimate that the through carrying capacity of the Siberian railway during the next two months will be 35,000 men and the necessary stores per month. On that basis Russia will be able by April to detrain in Manchuria the last contingents of 150,000 men from European Russia or 200,000 men if the transport of general supplies could be temporarily reduced. In the meantime the railway system of Southern Russia is disorganized by the division for war traffic of locomotives and cars so that only about 150 grain laden cars are now delivered daily at Odessa, whereas the grain traffic ought to be in full swing.

WINNIPEG HOSPITAL.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 15.—The city council has granted an additional ten thousand dollars to the general hospital in which there are now 288 patients.

William Tung Peters, oldest member of the New Brunswick bar, and for a number of years a resident of Winnipeg, died yesterday without warning. He began legal practice in 1843 and lived for years in St. John.

The plant of the new government bridge across the Nanaimo river have been received by Government Agent Thomson.

David J. Brewer, justice of the United States supreme court, went to Kansas and entered upon the practice of law at 22.—He is now 67 and hale and hearty.

FIRE PROOF BUILDINGS.

At the convention of fire chiefs at Vancouver this week, attention was called to greater precautions being necessary to guard against fires in tall buildings, and the suggestion was made by one of the delegates that buildings be divided into separate compartments that could be closed like the bulkheads in a ship to cut the fire off from spreading to other portions of a burning structure. Elevators at present prove one of the greatest menaces in case of fire, they act like the smoke stack of a furnace and give an enormous impetus to the flames. For many years we have heard about fire-proof buildings, terra cotta and iron being used instead of timber and wire instead of laths; but somehow when a fire comes along the so-called fire-proof building seems to burn with its weaker brother. Even fire-proofing of wood has been tried by impregnating the pores of the timber with so-called fire-proof liquid. But all to no purpose. Eventually some method may be secured to prevent fires from devastating a well built city whose brick and stone structures are supposed to offer the least possible scope for a fire. But so far, the plans of men have not gained the desired result.

FRUIT GROWING.

As a fruit producing country the orchard area in British Columbia is spreading with great rapidity; for within the past few years the growth of the industry is truly enormous. Districts which have heretofore been content to import their fruit from outside are becoming more and more self-contained in this important article of diet, for fruit is now looked upon more as a necessity than a luxury. Hitherto, to a large extent, the Kootenay country, engrossed chiefly with mining and kindred industries, has consumed fruit that has been shipped in, and we have seen it stated within a short time by one of the fruit inspectors that Rossland alone is now getting a car-load of fruit a day from the States, that being a nearer source of supply under present means of communication than from the famous Okanagan country in our own province. However, we notice in a Rossland despatch this week that a number of business men of that city have turned their attention to the subject of home grown fruit and intend purchasing land along the Columbia river near Christina lake with a view to planting orchards. This is an excellent move, and no doubt each year will see larger areas in the mining country devoted to fruit raising, giving more variety to industrial life and keeping at home money that is sent abroad. In many places of the kind there is enough land to grow all the fruit required for local consumption; while for export purposes we have both in the interior and at the coast large districts that grow as fine fruit as can be produced anywhere. Each year sees our exports growing with increasing rapidity and within the past two or three years the number of new trees planted is sufficient to more than double our output as soon as the orchards come into bearing.

Colonel Charles Chaille-Long, of Maryland, scientist, soldier and diplomat, will shortly receive from the general assembly of his native state a gold medal of rare beauty and costliness in testimony of his services to science and valiant conduct in Central Africa and Egypt.

Susan F. Anthony at 31 years is more alert physically and mentally than most women a quarter of a century younger. The veteran woman suffragist has benign sympathy not unmixed with scorn, for the fadist, who for many years have advocated a multiplicity of rules for the maintenance of health among members of her sex. She has never swung dumbbells, eschewed corsets, pattered over wet grass in her bare feet, taken to vegetarian diet or been kneaded and rubbed by a masseuse. Miss Anthony smilingly declares that she has never known a day of real illness.

How Many People In Ladysmith?

A canvass of the city is being made for subscribers to the Daily Ledger. It has been suggested by some of the business men that it would be of interest and value to the community to know how many people live in Ladysmith and immediate vicinity. This means all of the actual residents within half a mile of the postoffice in Ladysmith, exclusive of Chinese.

Each subscriber to the Daily Ledger will be handed a card and asked to write down a guess of the number of people our census, which will be taken with reasonable accuracy will show.

Envelopes will be given with the card. Write down your guess, sign your name, put the card in the envelope and seal it up; either hand it to the canvasser or leave it at the Ledger office. All guesses must be in during October; none will be counted after that date.

The census will be computed by the 15th of November. The envelopes will then be opened and the following prizes given:

1. To the person who guesses nearest to the exact number of people living within one-half mile of the postoffice (exclusive of Chinese) $20.00 in gold.
2. The person coming second nearest, $10.00 in gold.
3. The person coming third nearest, $5.00 in gold.

If two or more persons tie for any place the money will be divided.

This contest will be absolutely fair. No person in any way connected with the canvass will either give out any information or be allowed to compete.

FORTUNATE BEGGARS

There are various instances on record of London street beggars having amassed fortunes, varying from £1,500 to £3,000.

Many years ago, a woman who had stood with a broom in her hand for about a quarter of a century in the neighborhood of Charing Cross, died worth nearly £3,000.

But the most extraordinary instance of good fortune in this way was exhibited in the case of a man, a black, who for nearly thirty years swept another crossing at Charing Cross.

Another woman, who for many years swept a crossing in the Kent road, left at her death £1,500 to a clerk in the Bank of England.

Elsie—Let's play house. I'll be the lady.

Ethel—All right. I'll be another lady callin' on you.

"I have been very much interested in these experiments with tetrahedral kites," said the man with gold glasses.

"Yes," answered Mrs. Cumrox, complacently, "but I have about concluded that the surest way to get rid of all such things is to boil the drinking water."

ICELAND'S RAILWAY.

Iceland's sulphur mines, which are believed to be very rich, are now to be exploited by an English company.

The company having bought mines at Tingoe intend to connect them by rail to the harbor of Husavik for export purposes.

Alexieff's elevation in power is a mystery which excites no surprise in Russia, says a St. Petersburg letter.

"Speaking of channel swimming," said Mrs. Slipshod, always to the fore in the discussion of events of the moment.

A SERMON ON KISSING.

It must require no small amount of courage on the part of a Church of England clergyman to preach a sermon on "kissing."

Rev. A. Pullmann, of Berea, O., was a delegate to a conference of his church not long ago in Cleveland.

INCORRIGIBLE.

On the promenade deck of the Teutonic, on his way to America, John Redmond, the Irish Nationalist leader, was interrupted one night by the musical clang of the ship's bell.

"That bell," said Mr. Redmond, "reminds me of a story. It is a story of one of those hard drinkers; those men of six and seven bottles, who were a feature of the rosy past."

"The guests leaped up in consternation. They said it was late and they must be going. They were amazed at the hour."

"But their hard-drinking host roared at them to resume their seats. 'Struck!' he said. 'What if it has? It can't strike less. Drink on. Drink on!'"

ARE ROYAL SPORTS.

Both the king and queen of Italy are fond of sport; the queen especially so. She is an excellent shot and a wonderful climber.

WHY HE WORE IT.

"Amazing are questions," said Gen. H. C. King, of New York, to a New York Times' man.

"In London, one afternoon I was standing near a museum guardian who wore a military uniform, with a helmet from which a chin strap hung."

"Would you mind telling me what that strap under your chin is for?" "That," the attendant answered wearily, "is to rest my jaw when I get tired answering questions."

Lord Halsbury, the oldest member of the British cabinet, is in his 81st year, is still hard at work and his work agrees with him.

WORTH KEEPING.

"He asked the firm for a rise in his salary." "Did he get it?" "Yes. They consider him the most valuable man they have. You see, when he petitioned for more money he did so on the grounds that he had just discovered that the firm could get along without him."

"MAGNETIC CLOUD."

A strange phenomenon was experienced by the British ship Mobician in the Atlantic on the 1st inst., while on a voyage to Philadelphia.

FOR SCHOOL LIBRARY

About the end of the month, people will have another opportunity of enjoying themselves and incidentally of showing their interest in the welfare of the public school, for under the supervision of the teachers an entertainment is being arranged in aid of a school library. This is an excellent move and should be encouraged as such a library is an invaluable aid in school work and greatly appreciated by both pupils and teachers wherever they are fortunate enough to possess a collection of good reference books and other books of a useful nature.

Mrs. Wm. Thomson entertained a few friends at her home on White St. last evening.

COAL MINE AFIRE.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 15.—One man is known to have lost his life and it is feared others may have perished in a fire which broke out today in the Enterprise mine. The flames spread with such rapidity that Stanislas Ossowitz, assistant pump runner was caught and burned to death. An exploration of the mine to ascertain whether any other men were caught, is impossible at this time as flames are shooting from the mouth of the slope. Seven hundred men and boys are rendered idle.

The middle aged man who resided in the tall white house with the green blinds simply sat and looked and looked and looked at the middle aged wife of his bosom, and she sat and looked and looked and looked at him. Neither said a word. She had painstakingly planted his liver pills and he in turn had taken her sweet peas.

There really wasn't anything to say.—Town Topics.

Joseph Chamberlain is not a graduate of any university or of any of the large public schools. At the age of 16 he was a full fledged business man. At 38, so rapidly had his fortune grown, he was able to retire from commercial life and devote himself to the study of politics.

HEARD AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.

Teacher—"Willie, please give me a sentence in which the verbs 'to set' and 'to sit' are used correctly."

Willie—(after a brief deliberation) "Great Britain is a country on which the sun never sets, and on which no other country ever sets."

"Yes," said the fireman, "There were two men in the building playing chess, and one of them is in the ruins yet. We couldn't get him out." "Why, how was that?" "He insisted that it wasn't his move."

"What are you studying now?" asked Mrs. Cumrox.

"We have taken up the subject of molecules," answered her son.

"I hope you will be very attentive and practice constantly. I tried to get your father to wear one, but he couldn't make it stay in his eye." —Washington Star.

AN AUTHOR INTERVIEWED

"No particular time. I've been trying to rise all my life, but never got any higher than the housetops, when the bailiff was at the door."

"What is your morning exercise?"

"To keep one mile ahead of the bill collector and climb a tree when I see 'em comin'."

"I understand you are known all over the country?"

"Yes, everywhere they would give me credit."

"What do you think of the outlook for American literature?"

"I never look out. It isn't always safe."

"Did you ever write a popular novel?"

"No, thank heaven!" — Atlanta Constitution.

PLAYED HIS OWN DIRGE.

A student named Anton Czernewicz shot himself in dramatic fashion, after playing the piano at a student's concert at Temesvar, Hungary.

Czernewicz, who was a fine musician, had been in the best of humor all the evening, and had played a piece which was much applauded, when he suddenly turned the instrument again and began playing the Dead March in "Saul."

The audience amused at the freak, allowed him to play to the end, when he rose and declared that he had abandoned his life as no longer living.

Mounting the chair, he then snatched a handful of gold from the students, and begging them to accept the money as a memento of himself, quickly produced a revolver and shot himself dead.

WINS LAURELS.

Miss Mary E. Pretty, who broke the world's record several days ago by writing 23,000 words on a typewriter in a day, has lost her laurels. The new champion is Miss Olive R. Cameron, one of her fellow-clerks in the Interior department at Washington, who received a long record to copy. In seven hours she had written 23,000 words. About a year ago, she wrote an average of sixty-five words a minute, now she averages one hundred and twenty-eight words a minute. Miss Cameron uses three fingers on her right hand and two on her left. She does not use the "touch" system, which consists of writing without looking on the keys and her record is considered the more notable because she must alternately glance at the paper from which she is copying and at the keyboard.
