AWARDS CONTRACT ON NEW SCHOOL BUILDING

School, Fort Coquitlam—The school board has awarded the contract for the new James Park school to A. L. Larsen, a Coquitlam contractor, whose tender figure was $11,817. Mr. Larsen's tender was not the lowest one received, but the lowest of all tenders submitted by local contracting firms. The lowest tender was submitted by Davis & Saunders, their figure being $10,400, but this was thrown out because a certified cheque was not enclosed with the tender.

The Coquitlam Construction company who were awarded the original contract for the new school, but waived all rights to it on account of the trouble cause, submitted the figure of $13,073.41 on T. H. Bamforth's plans on which the latest tenders were called. The highest of all figures was that of $14,872 submitted by Chas. Davis, of Coquitlam.
