At least none of members of the new administration at Victoria can complain on the score of not being mentioned for a cabinet position. Of course we should have liked to see our own member in the first Liberal ministry of the province. The selections made by Premier Brewster, however, can be heartily endorsed by all sections of the province. They are all strong men, and the new government should have smooth sailing.

A STUDY IN HIGH FINANCE

[CONTRIBUTED.]

Mr. A. does not subscribe to the Canadian Patriotic fund.
 Neither does Mr. B. Mr. B.'s reason for not doing so is that Mr. A. does not, and he can not see why he should pay while Mr. A. gets off free.

Now Mr. A. does not subscribe from one of two reasons—either because he can't, or because he won't. If he can't, that is clearly no reason why the man who can shouldn't do so. That is a statement which requires no argument. It is self-evident.

If he won't—he won't, and that's all there is to it. It is a pity, but there it is, and he can't be made to do so. But more shame to him.

Mr. C. is fighting in the trenches. He is having a mighty unpleasant time of it. He is in uncomfortable quarters; he is wet, he is cold, and most of the time he is in danger of his life, and sometimes he is wounded and sometimes killed. They all describe the trenches as "hell." And he is doing all this for the sake of Mr. A. and Mr. B. and of all the rest of us, who sit comfortably at home.

Mrs. C. is left behind. She has a child or two—small kiddies who have to be fed and clothed. Expenses run on, and the separation allowance and assigned pay are not enough for her to live on—much less to live in comfort. The Canadian Patriotic fund will make up enough to enable her to live in comfort, and Mr. C. is looking to everybody to see that she gets it.

Now Mr. A. won't pay—that's one subscription less to help Mrs. C. And if Mr. B. won't pay because Mr. A. isn't paying—that's two subscriptions less. And if Mr. X. and Mr. Y. and Mr. Z. won't pay because Mr. A. and Mr. B. aren't paying—well, there's no end to it. If we all acted on Mr. B.'s reason; there would be no fund at all, and where would Mrs. C. come in?

A word in your ear, Mr. B. Never mind what Mr. A. is or is not doing—unless you can talk him over and get to subscribe. What you have to think of is what Mr. C. is doing. Don't you hear the voices of Mrs. C. and the kiddies? It is they who are asking you to do your bit at home here. Be a man, and help her. Give all you can spare, put your name down for a subscription worth while.

The Sun, at $1.00 per year, gives its readers three times more reading matter than any other Boundary paper. This fact accounts for the rapid increase in our circulation.

Besides being read by all the intelligent people of Grand Forks, The Sun goes to every ranch home in the Kettle and North Fork valleys. No other Boundary paper can give advertisers this guarantee.

THE NATION'S CALL TO "DUTY"

To-day the Canadian Patriotic Fund affords every man an opportunity to prove his patriotism.

We must see this thing through, and every factor must be utilized to win the war.

Men, you must join one of two camps—"Fighters" or "Workers."

If you cannot fight, yourself, you must help others to go by assuming the responsibility of maintaining their families

Remember this when the canvassers call on you on DECEMBER 5th, 6th and 7th.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE, OTTAWA,
OCTOBER 7th, 1916.

THE CANADIAN PATRIOTIC FUND

Grand Forks has been set to raise $12,000 for next year, and as this is more than twice as much as what has been paid in for 1916 to date, it can only be by the hearty co-operation of every person in the valley that we can pay that which, after all, is only our fair share of the fund, compared with what other places are doing. It is the wives and children of our boys at the front who want the money. It is they who will be losers if the full amount asked for is not subscribed.

From the period of October 1, 1914, to August 31, 1916, there has been collected throughout the Dominion of Canada the sum of $12,893,596, and there have been disbursed during that period $10,760,157. These collections and disbursements cover the entire Dominion with the exception of the province of Manitoba, which has a separate organization working in harmony with the general fund, and have been utilized in caring for the Canadian soldiers at the front. The entire cost of maintaining this good work in all its branches has worked out on a basis of 60 cents on every $100 collected, a remarkably low charge indeed. Owing to the enlarged demands against the fund, it is anticipated that twelve million dollars will have to be raised during the year 1917. Of this amount it is interesting to note that the province of British Columbia will require $1,800,000 to look after the dependents of the soldiers who have gone from this province. It is also interesting to know that the province as a whole is only expected to raise one million dollars in itself, the balance of the amount required—$800,000—being provided through the central fund from subscriptions secured in other parts of the Dominion. There are, no doubt, many in the district who feel that the Patriotic fund should be under the control of the Dominion government and that the money should be raised by taxation. The very good reasons given why this should not be done are too numerous to be enumerated here, and it is the duty of every person in this district to bury his prejudices and complaints and act with the one idea of doing his share towards caring for the dependents of the Canadian soldiers now in the trenches. We have but to stop and consider for a moment the comparison in dollars and cents on the part of those of us who are staying at home with the sacrifices made by those who are now wearing the king's uniform, and our duty is very apparent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lucas, of Greenwood, visited friends in the city on Saturday.

C. H. Niles made a trip to the Okanagan district during the early part of the current week.

Assuring Your Business

A policy of advertising is a policy of life assurance, and the protection thus secured is well worth its annual cost.

Old Customers die or move away—they must be replaced.

Old customers are subject to the influence of temptation—they may be induced to divide their custom—to do some of their shopping at a competitor's.

New customers to this community will shop with you—become regular customers—if they are invited to do so.

Your competitor's advertising is an influence which must be offset if you are to maintain your trade.

Not to advertise regularly to the readers of

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC:

It is no sign of weakness to follow the lead of advertising. You owe it to yourself to get the most for your money, the best goods and the best service. And if you find that your inclination is to shop where you are invited to shop rather than continue to be a customer of the shop which never solicits your good will, you need have no compunction of conscience.
