BIG MAJORITY FOR MODERATION

Province Gives About 30,000 for Government Control; Grand Forks District 14

The vote on the temperance plebiscite on Wednesday was carried out in an orderly manner and without undue excitement. The weather was fine and an extraordinarily heavy vote was polled. The only surprise of the day was the large number of absentee voters from other sections of the province who cast their votes here. This provision of the new Elections act proved to be a good feature. The vote in this district was as follows:

	Gov. Con.	Pro.
Brown Creek	21	4
Cascade	26	41
Fife	26	3
Gloucester	6	1
Grand Forks	226	252
Paulson	3	...
Phoenix	7	...
Totals	315	301
Majority	14	...

These figures will, of course, be slightly altered when the vote of the electors from this district who cast their ballots elsewhere comes in.

Of the absentee vote cast in this district, 73 were cast in Grand Forks, 13 at Brown Creek, 9 at Cascade, 3 at Fife, 3 at Gloucester and 6 at Phoenix, making a total of 107. The only spoiled ballots in the riding were five in this city.

In other parts of the province government control and sale of liquor to take the place of the present Prohibition Act was endorsed by a sweeping and widespread majority as has ever marked a public contest in British Columbia. The result in the whole province gives a majority of about 30,000 in favor of a change. In Vancouver the majority was close to 10,000.

Four of the meetings which will be addressed by the prime minister take place in the constituency of Yale, where a by-election, necessitated by the resignation of Hon. Martin Burrell, takes place shortly. These meetings will be held at Grand Forks, Penticton, Kelowna and Vernon.

DATE OF ELECTION

Provincial Government Will Appeal to People December 1—Nominations November 10

A telegram received by the executive of the Grand Forks Liberal association today from Hon. J. D. MacLean, provincial secretary, says that the general election in British Columbia will take place on December 1. Nomination day is set for November 10.

SEED GRAIN DISTRIBUTION

[EXPERIMENTAL FARMS NOTE.]

The annual free distribution of samples of seed grain will be conducted as usual at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, by the Dominion cerealist.

Spring wheat (in about 5-lb. samples), white oats (about 4 lb.), barley (about 5 lb.), field peas (about 5 lb.), field beans (about 2 lb.), flax (about 2 lb.)

Only one sample can be sent to each applicant.

Applications must be on printed form, which may be obtained by writing to the Dominion cerealist, Experimental Farm, Ottawa, at any time after September 1.

As the stock of seed is limited, farmers are advised to apply early to avoid disappointment. Those who applied too late last season are particularly requested to send in their names at once, so that application forms may be forwarded to them. No application forms will be furnished after February 1, 1921.

Not a Real Emergency

An elderly Scotchwoman was arrested one day for stealing from a department store, says Col. G. T. Denison in an article in the Canadian Magazine. When the court opened the next morning the matron found the husband waiting outside, and she advised him to secure a lawyer for his wife.

"I cannot do that," he replied. "I cannot afford it."

"Your wife told me you had over two hundred dollars in the bank."

"Oh, ay, I ken that, but that was saved up for an emergency."

LIBERAL MEETING NEXT WEEK

Delegates Will Be Elected to the Nominating Convention of a Candidate for Local Member

A meeting of the Liberals in and around Grand Forks is called for Friday night, October 29, at 8 o'clock, in the Miner's Union hall, for the purpose of electing delegates to attend a convention to be held in the same place on a date to be fixed upon at the meeting. The Liberal executive wish to notify all Liberal associations from the different polling divisions in the riding to select delegates to attend the convention, the date of which will be announced later.

The object of the convention is to select in a democratic way a candidate to represent the Liberal cause at the provincial election to be held on December 1. All those interested in the cause should attend the meeting on the 29th inst.

RETURNED MEN ENTER CAMPAIGN

Committee Appointed to Formulate Working Arrangement With United Farmers and Liberals

A meeting of returned soldiers was held in the G. W. V. A. rooms on Thursday night for the purpose of organizing the returned men in support of Col. C. E. Edgett, in the by-election for Yale riding, which takes on November 22.

There was a good attendance and considerable enthusiasm developed during the meeting. The chairman, Clinton Atwood, and R. Campbell addressed the meeting, pointing out the duty and also the necessity of all returned men taking an active interest in the affairs of the country.

A committee was appointed to interview the United Farmers with the object of getting together and working in harmony in the coming campaign with the view of giving their united support to the Farmer-Soldier candidate.

At the district convention held in Penticton on the 14th inst., the Liberal party decided to throw in their united strength behind the independent candidate, and in view of this the committee was also instructed to make working arrangements with that party, and if possible get the whole united force together with the object of winning the election.

PROHIBITION IN OTHER PROVINCES

Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta Will Vote on Bone Dry Proposition Next Monday

On Monday next the three prairie provinces and Nova Scotia will vote on the question of interprovincial trade and the importation of liquor. These provinces have all adopted prohibitory laws so far as they have power and are about to vote under the Dominion statute on the question of the exclusion of liquor from outside. The Ontario vote on importation from outside the province has been postponed until next spring. There is a practical certainty of three different liquor systems and a possibility of four within the Dominion next year. Quebec retains the license system with municipal option, which imposes prohibition on large areas. British Columbia will authorize government control and sale with the prohibition of private trading. The other provinces will have prohibition of the liquor trade within the province and probably some or all of them the statutory condition, described in the United States as bone dry.

Premier Is Surprised But Will Meet the Wishes of Majority

Victoria, Oct. 21.—"There is nothing I can say except that I am very much surprised," stated Premier Oliver last night when informed of the outcome of the vote of the plebiscite throughout the province.

The premier stated that in view of the expression of public opinion on the matter the necessary legislation to repeal the existing act, and to bring into effect the principle of government control will be brought down by the government.

"The will of the people will have to be met. The government, if it had not been prepared to meet the wishes of the majority of the electors, would not have submitted the plebiscite to them," he added.

Premier Oliver refused to speak on the possibility of an early elec-

DEFINES POLICY ON TARIFF ISSUE

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King Says the Issue Is Not Between Free Trade and Protection

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie, the opposition leader in the federal house, in addressing an audience at Kamloops composed largely of C. P. R. employees, dealt with the problems confronting Canada, now that the country has embarked so deeply into questions of increased cost of commodities which have been raised by the recent increase in railway freight rates. Mr. King declared that the whole question of effective control of the operation of charges by railways was part of the wider and most vital question of the present high costs of the necessities of life.

As to the tariff issue, Mr. King asserted that the Liberal position was clearly defined in the platform of the party laid down at the August convention of last year. "It is," he said, "a policy of downward revision of the tariff in the interest of producers and consumers. It does not aim at free trade, but it does aim at freer trade, especially in those commodities which comprise the necessities of life, and constitute the instruments of production in the great basic industries of the country."

"The issue as respects the tariff is not between protection and free trade. It is between a tariff which is so framed as to serve the interests of especially favored and privileged groups, as against a tariff which will protect producers and consumers against the unfair exactions of combinations of this kind."

PLEBISCITE WAS NOT ELECTION

Attorney-General Announces Non-Voters Will Not Be Stricken Off the Lists

Victoria, Oct. 20.—The attention of Hon. J. W. de B. Farris has been called to the suggestion that if a voter fails to exercise the franchise on the prohibition referendum his name will be stricken from the provincial voters' lists and leave him without the privilege of voting at the next election.

Mr. Farris stated that this is not the case, the specific provision in the statute applying only where a voter has failed to use the franchise at an election of a candidate for the legislature.

Those wishing neat sign painting to ornament their business places should call on W. P. O'Connor, a returned soldier.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1920

Nearly everybody you meet nowadays professes to be astonished at the vote on the prohibition referendum; and yet, when the vote on the measure is taken into consideration, considerably less than one-half of the electors have any right to express surprise. The explanation lies in the fact that the average voter did not know how "the other fellow" or "the other lady"—was going to vote. It was a big victory for the moderationists, and if a wise government control law is enacted and honestly enforced, it may be the means of setting an example to other sections of the country which are grappling with the liquor question.

At present there is a great deal of speculation as to what government control really means. A great many people seem to think that it means a government liquor depot in every city and village in the province, where anybody who has the price can go and buy as much liquor as he wants, and as often as he desires. Such a law would not be an improvement over the public bar, and would not long be tolerated by the public. Government control should mean, and we have no doubt that when the law is framed it will mean, that the government actually controls the liquor traffic. Each electoral district, for instance, should be allowed one vendor in its largest city or town, with perhaps more in the large coast cities. The quantity to each person should be limited, and people who have no control over their appetites for drink should be debarred from purchasing any. A record should be kept of each person's purchases, and no one should be allowed to acquire more than what he or his family might reasonably require. The prices should be moderate and the same to everybody. No reduction in price for quantity should be made.

The next six weeks will be strenuous political in British Columbia. The federal by-election in this constituency takes on November 22, and the provincial general election is scheduled for December 1, according to a wire received by the Liberal executive in this city today from Victoria. It is time for the candidates to make their appearance on the rostrum.

One of the most interesting open air markets in the world is held five days a week in Hatton Garden, London, where shabby men, nearly all of them Russians with long shaggy beards with worn overcoats, buy and sell hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of loose diamonds. Although they look like men who have scarcely a penny to their names, single transactions run into large sums. They ask no questions; they keep no books; they know diamonds; and they trust one another. One of them will not lend another fifty dollars, but without a receipt he will give him fifty thousand dollars' worth of diamonds for a possible customer.

Since the war began and the Panama canal was opened to commerce the United States has redistributed more foreign merchandise than it ever did before in the same length of time. Both events occurred in the same month, and just how much affected trade can not be learned from figures; but the value of the foreign merchandise that the States re-exported advanced from $35,000,000 in the year that ended on June 30, 1914, to $161,000,000 in 1920. America re-exported more merchandise in 1913 than in any other year before the war, but it was worth only $37,377,791, or less than one-fourth as much as the amount that was re-exported in the last fiscal year.

The bagpipes are by no means merely a picturesque survival of a barbarous age. One hundred and fifty pipers performed individual feats of heroism during the world war, and a piper of the Scottish Borderers won the Victoria Cross by standing on a parapet during a gas attack at Loos and piping his battalion together with Blue Bonnets Over the Border. There is something that quickens the blood in such tunes as Blue Bonnets and The Campbells are Coming; there is something profoundly stirring in the wail of the pibroch. So long as there are fighting Highlanders, we need have no fear that the "Campbells" will cease to come.

Evidences multiply that the span of life is lengthening. The fireless cooker has postponed indefinite the age at which a chicken becomes a fowl.

Certain industrial associations urge the creation of a new national department of public works, to absorb the department of the interior.

Prohibition is going to take a lot of trade away from the embalmers. After a man has licked up raisin' jack and moonshine for a few years he will be pretty well embalmed before he dies.

About the only time a princess helps her mother around the house is when she helps her mother tell Father where he gets off.

This would be a better world if the money that is spent on Tango lessons was spent for Grammar lessons.

The average married man would rather have his wife pick his pockets than have her pick his neckties.

Most any man tell you that all the good luck goes to those who do not need it.

Other people hate a selfish man almost as much as he loves himself.

No man is quite so respectful to the woman who uses paint as he is to the other kind.

Liberal Convention Passes a Resolution

The Liberal convention in Penticton last Friday adopted the following resolution:

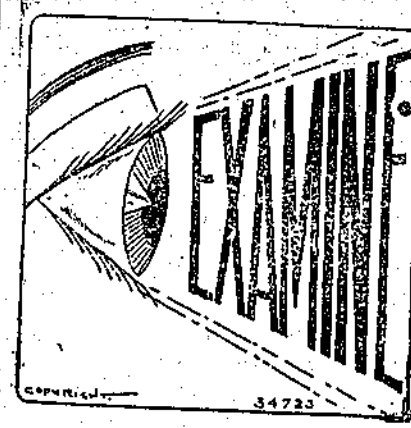

Whereas, Public interest demands that early opportunity should be afforded the people of the Dominion for the return to power of a parliament that would be representative of the popular will, and the control of public affairs by a responsible ministry; and

Whereas, This great national end is being frustrated by the usurpation of the rights of the people by the present administration in matters pertaining to government; and

Whereas, The leader of the Liberal party and those who are with him on his present tour of western Canada, have been urging the union of all progressive forces as the only sure means of effecting the defeat of the present administration; and

Whereas, Col. Edgett has been nominated as a candidate in opposition to the government and is standing not as the representative of any class or group, but as a candidate opposed to the present administration; be it

Resolved, That in the opinion of this convention the interest of Liberalism will be best served by the Liberals of Yale joining with other representative forces in their effort to insure the defeat of the government candidate, the convention hereby pledges its support to Col. Edgett.

ALL MERCHANTS UNDER LICENSE

Revised System of Collecting Luxury Tax Will Be in Force After the First of November

Ottawa, Oct. 18. — Under the revised system of collecting the luxury taxes in Canada, which comes into effect on November 1, every merchant will be under license. The special stamps will be available for all merchants by the last day of the month.

The method to be followed, it is explained, will give the inland revenue department a complete check on all transactions and the collections by means of stamps, and will make the operation of the Act much more simple.

Every merchant is to be supplied with a special machine for cancelling the stamps by perforation, and merchants will be charged a nominal license fee of $2. They will not, however, be required to pay anything for the perforation machines. Supplies of the stamps will be available at all banks, and also at the various local customs offices, so that it will not be necessary for merchants to stock up for long periods in advance.

It is pointed out that in the case of merchants who persist in ignoring or evading the law regarding the collection of luxury tax on goods sold by them, it will be within the power of the department, under the new regulations, to refuse to renew the license of such merchants, and they would thus be unable to continue in business.

No Increase in Price

Notwithstanding the enormous increase in the cost of production, over three times previous to war prices, that great weekly, the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, have decided to accept renewals and new subscriptions at the old rate ($1.50 a year) from all who remit before December 1st, 1920. This should be good news to readers of that big weekly. The Family Herald has been vastly improved and is beyond doubt the greatest value in newspapers.

No Free List

A traveling entertainer, says the Argonaut, was very proud of possessing a genuine Stradivarius violin, and so informed the editor of the local paper of the town in which he gave one of his concerts. But the report of the concert the next morning did not mention the Stradivarius violin, and the entertainer hastened to tell the editor of his disappointment.

"If old Stradivarius expects any advertising in the columns of this paper," the editor replied, "he will pay ten cents a line for it."

A Disappointing Monarch

The obituary notes of Mrs. "General" Tom Thumb have generally omitted the incident that attended Barnum's success in inducing Queen

Victoria to allow the lilliputian "general" to be presented to her.

The little wife was allowed to accompany her lord, but was not permitted the honor of being received. In a gap in the conversation the nasal comment of Mrs. Tom Thumb, who resented the discrimination, sounded from the background:

"My, but ain't she shabby for a queen!"

Most Accommodating

"Do you want a lawyer to defend you?" Punch represents a magistrate as asking a prisoner arraigned before him.

"Not particularly, sir," said the prisoner.

"Well, what do you propose to do about the case?"

"Oh, well, your honor, I'm quite willing to drop the whole matter, as far as I am concerned!"

Thirsty's Ramblers

Chicago, Oct. 20. — "You are in an awful mess, Thirsty," said Judge Stewart to a colored dice expert, arrested for gambling.

"Yessah, this is awful," agreed Thirsty.

"Could you shoot yourself out of it if I gave you the chance?" enquired the court.

"Yessah," responded Thirsty. "I hoots dose fool ramblers dizzy."

"Let's see," commanded the court.

Thirsty knelt, caressed the dice softly and rolled them.

"Says eight, judge," he announced. "Babies, if you was ever good to me, eighter from Decatur. Judge, your honor, I'se eight shootin' bound."

He shot them out again.

"I see seven," ruled the court. "One dollar and costs."

"Yessah, judge, dese is money dice. They don't play no exhibitions."

He Wanted It Rubbed In

A wealthy western congressman, says the Argonaut, much against his will, erected a magnificent mansion in Washington to please his wife and daughter. The congressman was of plain tastes and had no liking for the social activities of the national capital. One day an old friend visited him. Wearing a face of the deepest gloom, the owner of the stately home escorted his caller throughout the place. The visitor was admiring and enthusiastic, but the host said little or nothing. When the inspection was finished and the two had returned to the library on the first floor, the visitor said:

"Well, Jim, you certainly can't say that you haven't everything that you want."

"Yes, I can," replied the millionaire sombrely; "I want a parrot!"

"Why a parrot?"

"I should like to hang him over the front door, so that every time I enter this place he can yell out, 'There comes that old fool again!'"

YOU ARE IN GOOD COMPANY WHEN YOU ADVERTISE IN THE GRAND FORKS SUN

MR. BUSINESS MAN, have you ever thought that advertising puts you in good company? It is an old saying that a man is known by the company he keeps. When you join the ranks of the advertisers you join the ranks of the biggest and most successful merchants and manufacturers in the world.

How many large concerns can you name in any large city in the country? Name them and you will notice that all are big advertisers and all are leaders in their lines. Ask your friends to name the most successful merchants they know in the big cities, and in each case the name of a great advertiser will be mentioned.

The same rule is true of smaller cities and towns. The successful merchants are the advertisers. The advertiser stamps himself as one having confidence in himself and his wares, as one proud of his calling and seeking publicity and the test of patronage.

Dunlop Means "Original"

When you hear a bicycle owner say his tires are the original, not the imitation, he means that all other wired-on bicycle tires took Dunlop Tires for their model, because Dunlop was first in the field.

The Pneumatic Tire Industry rests on the name "Dunlop." And next in importance to your realizing that fact is the necessity for realizing this one: Dunlop Tires from the first—1894—were made by a patented process.

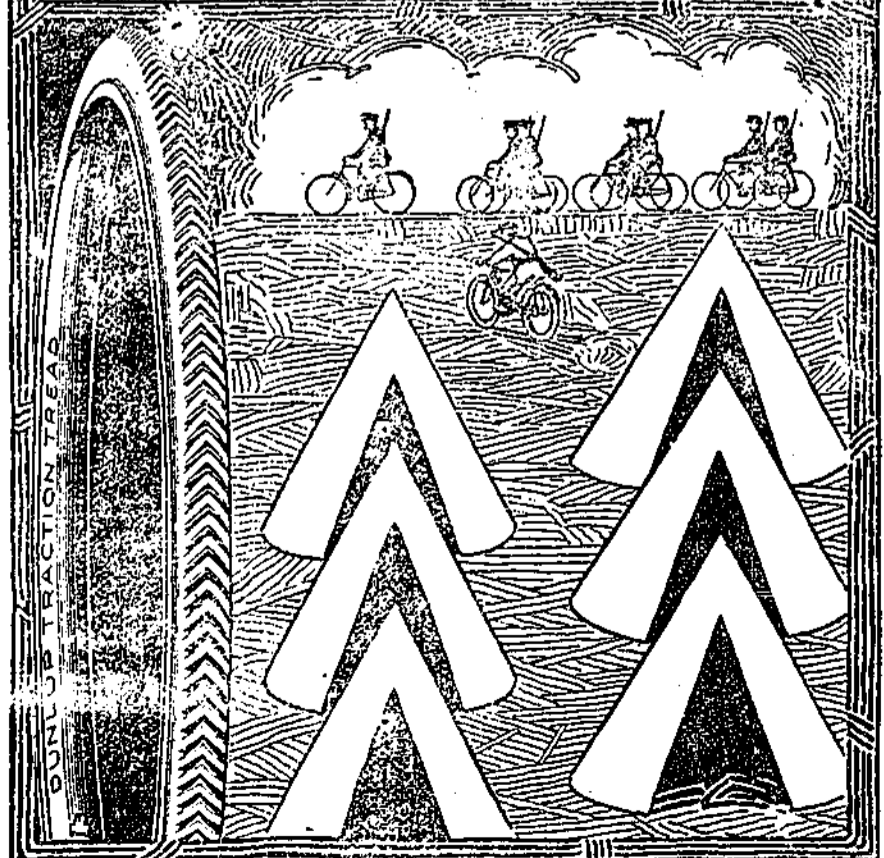

We found the way to make them right—a way that would impart to them such road mastery, such superiority of toughness and resiliency that they would sell eight times faster than any other make of bicycle tires. Eighty per cent. of all bicycle tires sold in Canada are Dunlop.
