FRUIT PACKING HOUSE BURNED

Three Cars of Apples Are Also Destroyed When the Carson Plant Is Levelled to the Ground by the Flames

The Carson fruit packing house of the Grand Forks Co operative Growers' association caught on fire about 3 o'clock this afternoon and was burned to the ground. About three carloads of apples, ready for shipment, were also consumed by the flames. The loss is estimated at $2000. There was some insurance on the building, but The Sun has been unable to ascertain whether or not any of this insurance applied to the stock in the building. The origin of the fire is unknown. All that is certain is that it did not start from the stove, as the flames were first noticed in a different corner from where the stove was located, and they had apparently started on the outside of the building. All the papers and books were saved with the exception of one book.

Owing to the cold snap now prevailing, arrangements had been made to transfer packing operations from the Carson packing house to the cannery building in this city, and a portion of the stock had already been moved here.

THE GOVERNMENT AND ITS WORK FOR RETURNED SOLDIER

Special Correspondence of The Sun.

VICTORIA, Oct. 23.—Criticism has been levelled at the provincial government from time to time by reason of its alleged indifference to the lot of the returned soldier. Lacking either the desire to be accurate or any inclination to discover the facts, an impression has been created that the civil service act has failed utterly to redress the wrongs of an obsolete system, which had scant regard for merit and was equally indifferent to a government's obligation where the returned man was concerned.

Detecting an attempt on the part of some who still owe their allegiance to a former regime and attracted by the more recent utterances of the leader of the opposition himself, who declared from the public platform a few days ago that, as far as he could see, the only soldier who stood a chance with the present government was the officer, the Hon. J. D. MacLean, minister of education and provincial secretary, has just completed a survey of the appointments made since the civil service act went into force on July 1, 1918, up to the present time.

The result of that investigation is now authorized for publication. It reveals the fact that during the sixteen months in which the act has been in operation no less than 220 former members of the Canadian expeditionary force have been reinstated in their former or better positions in the public service of the province. The report also gives the number of the new appointments filled exclusively by returned soldiers during the sixteen months in question as 146.

Out of this number, however, it is pointed out by Dr. MacLean, only twenty two have been filled by the "officer class," which is alleged by the opposition leader to have had all the show. Even with this small number of positions going to those members of the C.E.F. who possessed commissioned rank, the official statistics disclose that no less than nine of that number entered Canada's army through the private's door. That is to say, 124 members of the civil service were either privates or non-commissioned officers at the time of donning and at the time of doffing khaki, and that nine out of the twenty two officer-members of the public service became elevated to commissioned rank during their career in the army abroad.

In the light of this information, which is accessible to any British Columbian who considers the subject of sufficient importance to direct his or her inquiry to the civil service commissioner, it will be seen that to all intents and purposes thirteen of the "officer class" only were appointed to positions, and that the remaining 133, referred to as having been appointed within the period under review, were privates or non-commissioned officers.

Our Royal Visitor

The Prince of Wales has captured the hearts of all Canada. Rich and poor, old and young, are enraptured with his easy manner and happy expression. He is so different to what many expected.

No wonder a great demand has been created for a real life-like portrait of our popular future king. Photographers and artists have failed to secure a satisfactory snapshot of the royal visitor. He was not here to pose for them. It remained for The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal to secure a portrait that would be satisfactory, and they have succeeded. Just before leaving for Canada the prince gave a special sitting to the celebrated London, England, photographer, VanDyke. The agents of The Family Herald were instructed to secure the right to reproduce it in Canada, and that great weekly is now offering it to its readers.

The Sun has succeeded in making an arrangement with The Family Herald and Weekly Star by which our readers may have The Sun, The Family Herald and Weekly Star for one year and a copy of the picture for $2.00. The demand for this picture in Canada will be enormous, and we advise our readers to take advantage of this opportunity without delay.

Charlie Salmo had a bad fall from his bicycle on Tuesday. The fall rendered him unconscious for a short time and he was removed to the hospital for medical treatment.

Wilhelmina Weber was operated on for throat trouble on Wednesday. She is recovering from the effects of the operation.

Robert Campbell returned Wednesday evening from a week's visit to the coast cities.

APPLE SEASON NEARING THE END

One Hundred Carloads of Fruit Shipped Out of Grand Forks Up to the Present Time

The fruit shipping season from this point is now drawing to a close. About all the apples in the valley have now been picked, though there is a considerable quantity yet to be sent out. Up to the present time about one hundred carloads of fruit have been shipped from Grand Forks this fall. This is a pretty good showing, when the exceptional dryness of the past summer is taken into account.

If winter should set in now, a large quantity of potatoes in this valley will have to shift for itself out of doors until next springs. There has not been enough help in the valley this fall to harvest the crops. We need one of the Dominion-provincial employment offices here.

There are many mining men in this district who believe that the Granby smelter in this city will eventually resume operations, but few are credulous enough to place any faith in the rumor that the company will experiment with a costly concentrating plant in the Boundary as long as the smelting plant here is intact.

Judge Brown held a session of the county court in Greenwood on Tuesday. About the only case tried was Luciana vs. Gri, for $30 garnisheed and paid into court and a counter claim for $250; judgment for plaintiff on both claim and counter-claim. J. H. Ryley, of this city, appeared for plaintiff.

The Hadden ranch was this week to a Russian from Sandon named Suzyshyn. The deal was made through Geo. C. Egg. The consideration was $3000.

On Sunday you can set back your timepiece an hour. We have saved enough daylight during the past six months to illuminate the long, dark evenings during the next six months.

SUGAR SHORTAGE DUE TO PROHIBITION

A New York authority seriously states that prohibition has resulted in this consumption of enormous quantities of sugared soft drinks, and the increase of sugar consumption in the United States has increased 500,000 tons in nine months.

Fruit and vegetable growers must take a note of the possibilities to supply fruit juices and growing sugar beets. The day of barleycorn is passing and fruit juice and sugar beet should be welcome successors. They cost more to produce but the head does not react after them as it did in the aftermath of the extract of golden barley. Prohibition may hurt the rye and barley industry, but it certainly more than makes good in making necessary production of sugar cane, sugar beet and all kinds of fruit. This is not a prohibition lecture, but a call to produce sugar beet in British Columbia and encourage the establishment of by product factories in every fruit growing district. We have suffered this year through sugar shortage, but if the trouble is as above stated we will soon make good the loss.

Seed Grain Distribution

The annual distribution of samples of seed grain is being conducted at the Central experimental farm, Ottawa, by the Dominion cerealist.

The following kinds of seed grain will be sent out this season:

Spring wheat (in about 5-pound samples), white oats (about 4 lbs.), field beans (early ripening, only for districts where the season is short—about 2 lbs.) flax for seed (about 2 lbs.), and flax for fibre (about 2 lbs.).

Only one sample can be sent to each applicant.

Applications must be on printed forms which may be obtained from the Dominion cerealist at any time after September 1.

As the stock of seed is limited, farmers are advised to apply early to avoid disappointment. No application forms will be furnished after February 1, 1920.

The Visit of the Prince

The Prince of Wales' visit to Canada is about to end. The thousands who have seen him want to see him again. He has certainly won the hearts of all Canada. The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal with characteristic enterprise have secured a real life like portrait of the Prince. 16x22 inches, that should be in every Canadian home. It is a very pleasing portrait and bears a copy of the Prince's autograph. The Family Herald sends a copy of this portrait free to all Family Herald subscribers for 1920. The subscription price of that great family paper is $1.25 a year, big value in itself, but with the Prince's portrait certainly is the greatest value ever offered. The Family Herald and Weekly Star will be kept busy booking orders, as the demand has set in with a rush. People who are not subscribers to the Family Herald and Weekly Star have no idea of the treat they are missing.

INCREASE IN EXPORT TRADE

August Figures Show Increase of $28,000,000 Compared With Same Month of 1918

During the years of conflict Canada's export trade was converted from an unprofitable to a profitable undertaking, and her ambition is to maintain the position gained.

It is encouraging to note from the return of the department of trade and commerce for August last that the marked improvement in trade is being maintained. The total for the month amounted to $202,236,078, being an advance of $29,780,053 compared with the corresponding month of last year.

The largest increase was in exports of surplus domestic merchandise, which went up from $90,153,888 in August, 1918, to $716,564,792 in August this year, an increase of $26,410,904. In addition to this there was a growth of $1,664,192 under the heading of foreign merchandise exported, making a total growth of over $28,000,000 in exports.

During the month Canada imported merchandise for consumption amounting to $81,357,485, being an increase of $1,704,959 compared with August, 1918.

This growth in trade should inspire Canadians to rally to the call of the new Victory loan, one of whose main objects is the provision of money for continuing credits to European countries which are the great buyers of Canada's surplus produce. Without these credits Canada would not possess such good markets for her exportable surplus foodstuffs.

Mrs. J. H. Ryley and son Noel, of Queen's Bay, arrived in the city yesterday for a short visit with Mr. J. H. Ryley. They may decide to make their home in the city in the future.

Victory Loan 1919 Will Be Launched Next Monday; B. C.'s Objective $25,000,000

Vancouver, Oct. 21.—[Special to The Sun.]—The final appeal to British Columbia will be made on Monday next, October 27, when the sixth Victory Loan will be launched.

Gen. Currie states that the Canadian army never failed to capture its objective. British Columbia's objective is $25,000,000. Are we to fall down where the soldiers at the front would have succeeded? British Columbia's answer must be, "No." It is a war loan—1919 is a war year.

For four and a half years four Canadian boys stood the test at the front, and their job is done. Let us demonstrate to them that we can do our part as they did theirs.—W. H. Malkin, Provincial Chairman.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1919

The Sun today prints a long article from its Victoria correspondent dealing with the treatment accorded the returned soldier by the provincial government. In the matter of public service appointments we do not think the returned men have any grounds for complaint, and the administration's land settlement program, as far as it has been carried out, appears to be reasonably satisfactory. This scheme, however, should be extended to include other districts in the province. The returned soldiers of the Boundary say they were promised, some time ago, a community soldier settlement area in the Kettle valley, and they are now becoming rather impatient for the soldier settlement board to take the initiatory steps to fulfill that promise. There are a large number of returned men in this district who would like to go on the land, and as they have lived here for a number of years, they do not like to move to other sections of the province in order to do so. The only way in which the government can retain the good opinion of these men is for the land settlement board to carry out its promise to them.

In the Ontario elections on Tuesday, the United Farmers obtained a landslide, securing 42 members to the Liberal's 28 and the Conservatives' 26, the balance being Laborites and Independents. The result means either a coalition of the farmers with one of the old parties or another election. On the temperance question a majority of the people of Ontario appear to have been sane. If the bar is to be abolished, we might as well also do away with the 2½% slop and the drug store monopoly. In British Columbia we both of these evils, but not prohibition. We have been informed by some of those who patronize the prescription and drug store method of acquiring jags, that when the liquor reaches the ultimate consumer it contains at least 50 per cent water. This makes a nice profit for the drug store vendors, especially as the price is usually two or three times higher than it was when it could be obtained in the open market. Apparently, not all the profiteers are engaged in the dry goods and food business.

Kerensky is remembered because of his dramatic rise and fall, if for no other reason; but the annals of the great war contain the names of many other men whose careers were meteoric. Generals Brusiloff and Korniloff, French and Smith-Dorrien, Nivelle, Cadorna, Kluck, Moltke and Falkenhayn, at one time or other among the most prominent men in Europe, lost prestige so suddenly that in a little while their names were virtually forgotten.

The city council appears to be having a great deal of trouble this year with the water-work reservoir. If any citizen would like to inspect the files of The Sun, he will find that some of the articles printed in the paper at the time the reservoir was being built seem to be rather prophetic at the present day.

According to the United States bureau of education, the boy who stays in school until he is eighteen years old has earned by the time he is twenty-five years old $2000 more than the boy of the same age who left school at fourteen; and also he is getting $900 a year more pay. In other words, the additional four years at school are equivalent to an investment of $18,000 at 5 per cent interest. Moreover, the earnings of the boy stayed in school until he was eighteen will continue to increase rapidly, whereas the salary of the boy who left school at fourteen will never be much larger.

TO THE HOUSE OWNER

To the man who owns his house the success of the Victory loan, 1919, is of vital interest. Real estate values keep pace with the prosperity of the country, and the relation of the loan to general business is close and important.

Canada produces far more food than Canadians can consume, far more manufactured goods than they can use. The surplus can not be sold in the United States, because the Republic has an excess of the same staples as Canada and competes with the Dominion in the markets of the world.

For many years before the war, the chief market for Canadian surplus products was in Great Britain and the same condition exists today. Indeed the available supply of all sorts of goods is particularly lean overseas because of five years of war. The demand for Canadian grain and other products is greater than it ever was.

Financial difficulties intervene. Not only is ready money scarce in Europe, but the state of sterling exchange is such that it is unprofitable to transfer funds to this side of the Atlantic for the purchase of the goods required. Last year from the proceeds of the Victory loan $200,000,000 was advanced to Great Britain for the buying of our exportable surplus. Every dollar was spent in Canada. The producers got cash, the British consumers got the grain, and Canada became a creditor of the soundest and most dependable nation in the world.

Owing to this arrangement there was no slackening in Canadian production, the labor market remain firm, and business continued brisk. From the proceeds of the Victory loan now offered for public subscription, a considerable amount will be applied to continue these British credits and thus ensure steady production in Canada. The man who owns a house can best maintain the value of the property by buying all the Victory bonds he can carry.

Looking After the Children's Eyes

Several weeks of long winter evenings are ahead of us. With the use of artificial light, it is a trying time for the eyes. If slight defects already exist, a dim or unsteady light will greatly aggravate the situation. This is particularly true among children, whose vitality and power of resistance is much lower than grown-ups. Inflamed lids, styes, headache and watery eyes are almost sure indications of some sort of eye trouble. If your child has trouble with his eyes, bring him in and let us examine his eyes.

On What Effective Service Depends

Effectiveness of your telephone service depends upon the co-operation of those concerned. If the person calling consults the directory and calls by number, it will very probably be found that the response by the operator is prompt and efficient. If the person called answers without delay, the satisfaction of telephone service is then made complete. Consideration and courtesy are two main points of co-operation.

THE GOVERNMENT AND ITS WORK FOR RETURNED SOLDIER

It is interesting to note, moreover, British Columbia's progress in other phases of repatriation. This province, for instance, has set the pace for the British empire in its community soldier settlement undertakings. Although dubbed "economically unsound" by the federal authorities, the original proposal evolved on board the Empress of Asia on her long trip from Liverpool to British Columbia was not allowed to languish in official pigeon holes. The provincial land settlement board saw its possibilities and purchased large tracts of land at Courtenay and at Creston—other areas will be acquired later—in order that every practical element with definite economic possibilities could be put to the test. It is, of course, pioneering work; but popular consent already has given a unanimous favorable verdict.

Appropos of clearing work in its relation to this class of settlement—in itself a prime economic factor in the working out of such an ambitious project—it is interesting to observe the official figures just issued for publication by the Hon. E. D. Barrow, minister of agriculture, particularly in view of the fact that alarming reports are abroad hinting abnormal capital charges to be borne without hopes of results commensurate. The reverse, in fact, is the case. Director W. S. Latta, of the provincial land settlement board, is the authority for an official rejoinder to the suggestion above referred to. He deals with the clearing operations at Merville—Courtenay's chosen name for its settlement—and shows that actual clearing has been carried out by the soldiers themselves at a substantially lower figure per acre than estimates given to the government for similar work by outside contractors.

Col. Latta states that the actual cost of clearing 147.7 acres, which includes blasting, docket, work, burning, etc., leaving the land ready for leveling and plowing, has averaged $210.24 per acre. And it must be remembered that Merville's rainfall is in the neighborhood of sixty inches per annum, that fact alone accounting for heavy timber and rank growth; but also for deep and craggy soil. Rough clearing in respect of 72.8 acres, he pointed out, cost $91.04 per acre.

Each farm—referring in this instance to Farms No. 32 to 40—has ten to twenty acres cleared, eight to ten acres rough cleared, all well dug, house site cleared, and consists of 52 to 57 acres. These farms now can be offered to the allotment holders at prices ranging from $65 to $90 per acre, or, in other words, from $3700 to $4800 each—less the rebate to British Columbia soldiers of $500. If the purchase price in accordance with the provisions of the land settlement and development act.

It should be noted also that leveling, plowing and fencing are being

"I Hope
Every City and
District Will Win
My Flag"

When Edward, Prince of Wales—eager, bright eyed, smiling and sincere—arrived in Canada in August, and when he voiced his great admiration of the wonderful achievements of Canadians, on the fields of battle and at home, once again we were thrilled with joyous pride.

He asked concerning Canada's reconstruction programme, and when he was told of the Victory Loan 1919, he graciously consented to the use of his Coat of Arms on a flag, which is to be the prize of honour for districts achieving their quota in the loan.

In dedicating "The Prince's Flag" at Ottawa on Labor Day, His Royal Highness said in part:—

"It is a great joy to me to be associated with the loan, which is the bridge between war and peace, and which is finishing off the job."

"I hope every city and district will win my flag."

Striking, and beautiful in design, this flag will form not only a unique memento of Victory Year, but a lasting and outstanding souvenir of the visit of His Royal Highness—a visit which will remain as one of the most memorable events in Canada's history.

The reproduction above shows the design of the flag. The body is white, the edge red; in the upper left hand corner is the Union Jack, and in the lower right hand corner the Prince of Wales' Coat of Arms.

The flag is made in two sizes, 4 feet 6 inches by 9 feet for small cities, towns and villages, and 7 feet by 13 feet 6 inches for cities of over 10,000 population.

Canada has been divided into canvassing districts by the Victory Loan Organization. Each city forms one district. Other districts have been determined according to population.

Each of these canvassing districts has been allotted a certain amount in Victory Bonds to sell. To win the Prince's Flag, therefore, a district has to sell its allotment. That is the one and simple condition.

Anticipating that many districts will buy far beyond their allotment, the organization decided that for each twenty-five per cent. excess of the quota one Prince of Wales' Crest be awarded. Thus the workers in a district doubling its quota will be the proud winners of four small crests for their Honour Flag. These crests will be sewn to the flag. The Prince's Crest—the three ostrich plumes—is shown at the top of the coat of arms.

To every organization with fifty or more employees, where seventy-five per cent. of the enrollment invests a total of ten per cent. of the annual payroll in Victory Bonds, a supplementary Prince of Wales Flag in smaller form—48 inches by 34 inches—will be awarded.

The allotment for each district has been carefully considered, and is based on a conservative estimate of the purchasing power of the district.

Your district can sell its allotment and thus win the Prince's Flag, provided each person does his or her share.

You will gladly do your part and encourage your neighbour to do his.

Remember YOUR purchase may be the one that decides whether or not your district is to be the proud possessor of the Prince's Flag.

proceeded with and that the cost of this work will be charged up when complete. A four to five roomed house, costing $800, is being erected on each farm. Five at least of the allotment holders already have moved in. Furthermore, it is estimated that these houses could not be built under any other favorable conditions for less than $1000 each. Then again, Col. Latta points out, at least 65 per cent of the cost of both houses and farms represents labor done entirely by returned men, including the allotment holders themselves.
