TEN MILLIONS LAST YEAR.

The output of the mines of East and West Kootenay and Yale is carefully summed up for the past year by the Nelson Miner in this manner:

Although accurate data is not obtainable, it is safe to approximate the output of the metalliferous mines of East and West Kootenay and Yale at $10,000,000 for the year 1901. This is a slight gain over 1900, notwithstanding the shutdown of the mines at Rossland because of the demand of the muckers for the same rate of wages paid in other camps. The mines in East Kootenay, owing to the fall in prices of lead and silver, also suspended operations early in the summer. The losses of Rossland and East Kootenay are offset by the gains made in the Boundary aud Slocan. Close on to 850,000 tons of ore in all were mined, and the aggregate value, $10,000,000, shows that the ore averaged over $12 per ton, which is a pretty good average, seeing that the ores of the Boundary are low grade, probably the lowest grade of any ores in the world profitably treated by fire concentration, The fignres are as follows:

	TONS.	VALUE.
Rossland mines,	300,000	$3,000.000
Boundary mines,	370,000	2,220,000
Nelson mines,	110,000	1,100,000
Slocan mines,	80,000	2,400,000
East Kootenay mines	15,000	600,000
Lardeau mines,	2,800	350,000
All other camps,	10,000	330,000
Total,	827,000	$10,000,000

TO OUR READERS.

The publisher of The Evening Sun feels that the feeble efforts heretofore put forth on his part in this community to print a daily paper have been so well sustained and encouraged he is warranted in attempting to give the readers of The Sun a larger and better paper, believing that if it is made more deserving the improvement will be appreciated and supported by a proportionate increase of patronage. Three more employes will be added to the staff, and the paper will be delivered as formerly. The Sun will appear in its new form some day next week.

There was considerable excitement and some very uncomplimentary language used in the Grand Forks city council the night when the Winnipeg avenue and Bridge street interests clashed on the proposal to straighten the latter street.

OPENING OF HOTEL WINNIPEG.

The Hotel Winnipeg, on Winnipeg avenue, between Second and Third streets, Grand Forks, J. H. Murray, proprietor, threw open its doors to the public yesterday. It is most pleasantly fitted and arranged in all of its appointments. The opening dinner was spread last evening from 5 to 8 o'clock and was partaken of by a large number of our citizens and others, and to give an idea of the elaborateness and palatableness of the menu, it appears herewith in full. We bespeak for the Hotel Winnipeg, under the able management of Dr. Murray, a most gratifying success. The menu was as follows:

Greenwood, December 31.—Chief provincial constable McMinn publishes an announcement that he is authorized to offer $100 reward for evidence to convict the persons who on the 19th instant, near Penticton, stole 12 head of beef cattle belonging to Thomas Ellis, also another $100 upon return of the cattle. It is reported that the cattle were driven across the line to Republic.

The Boundary Mining & Milling Company will call a special meeting of the shareholders about January 25th, to consider the proposal to transfer its group of mineral claims and assets to an English company for the consideration of 50,000 paid-up shares, par value 10 shillings each, conditionally that the purchasing company provide $100,000 to pay the local company's existing liabilities, which will leave a large balance for the development of the property. It is considered very probable that the shareholders will sanction the sale of the claims under the conditions.

Boise, Idaho, December 31.—City clerk William V. Helfrich was summarily dismissed from office last evening for gambling. He committed the offense while drinking. Several arrests of persons who played with him have been made. One of these, Harry Le Roy, was today convicted and fined $100, taking an appeal. The other cases have not been heard yet.

THE RAMBLER-CARIBOO PEOPLE HAPPY.

The Rambler-Cariboo Mines, Limited, have declared another dividend of three cents per share amounting to $30,000. This is the fourth dividend of like amount which has been paid during the past year. Besides doing extensive development, the company has installed considerable new mining equipment, consisting of 2500 feet of flume and pipe line, 400-light electric plant, 60-ton concentrating mill, belt-driven air compressor, 40-ton hoist. These improvements cost the company in the neighborhood of $40,000, which was paid out of the earnings for the current year.
