LIBERAL POLICY WELDS TOGETHER EMPIRE'S NATIONS

Extracts from Premier King's speech at Vancouver:

This Liberal government in four years has done its utmost to weld together our sister nations within the empire by means of that most practical instrument of friendship and close relationships—business.

It is an axiom of Canadian Liberalism that unity is one thing we must ever keep before our eyes—one condition which we must ever have in mind when framing federal legislation.

We have adopted a policy of moderation in tariff matters, neither high protection nor free trade. We believe such a policy will tend to unite these diversified elements in our country, to cause our people to forget their differences and work for happiness and prosperity.

Our trade figures show that our efforts to secure foreign business have been successful—I was going to add more successful than we had dared to hope. In 1922 we had a favorable trade balance of $37,000,000. For the fiscal year ended last March it had reached $276,000,000. The government can legitimately claim credit for this increase. We Liberals have tried and will try to see that our foreign trade grows to greater and greater proportions.

We are convinced that our policies have brought closer together the many diverse elements in our country. We are equally convinced that the policies adopted by the Liberal government will help materially to bring together diverse elements of our empire.

Railroads Problem: "Gosh, Jack, I hope he's the gent elected to grapple with us!"

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING—

With this year's crucial election campaign now entering its final stage, the national issues at stake have been boiled down practically to the "sugaring off" point.

Perhaps never before in Canada's history have such momentous questions been before the electors—questions which will have a determining influence upon the Dominion's future for generations to come.

Leaders of the chief parties have almost exhausted their abilities in expounding their doctrines, while candidates everywhere have left no stones unturned to ensure election.

To the experienced observer one issue predominates, namely, western Canada's "forced" development.

For years, generations even, a so called misunderstanding of the needs and rights of the west has maintained in the older provinces.

The trend of development has been westward for centuries, but only during the past year or two has the west come into her own, and that chiefly to the equalization of freight rates and the recognition that western Canada, and British Columbia especially, is destined to become a commercial pivotal center of empire.

A Utopian view, in the opinion of Conservatives, and rather a large order to any but those whose business judgment and national foresight envision the Pacific province as such.

It has remained for Premier Mackenzie King and his cabinet thus to recognize the true status of British Columbia.

Opposition criticism has declared that pre-election promises count for naught.

However, already the government's policy sees prairie grain flowing westward, and nothing short of Conservative obstruction can stem the tide.

The re election of the Mackenzie King government means the immediate development and super prosperity of British Columbia and the prairies.

The defeat of the government spells the continuance of the neglect of the west through the, perhaps, unwitting disinterest of the east.

B.C. APPLES GET HIGHEST PRICE

While only about half as many apples have been exported from Canada to date, compared to the same period of 1924—57,619 barrels and 30,099 boxes, compared with 110,733 barrels and 91,751 boxes up to September 28, 1924—with the shipment of the standard fall varieties commencing it is now possible to get some idea of relative values. On the whole, prices for the Ontario product are satisfactory, but the quality of the fruit produced in the Annapolis valley this year is being reflected in old country quotations. No. 1 quality Gravensteins from Ontario sold in Glasgow last week for $5.59 to $6.56, while a similar variety from Nova Scotia was worth only $4.37 to $5.35. Ontario Wolf River brought $4.86 to $6.08 Nova Scotia Wolf River sold for $3.40 to $4.86. In other words, the Ontario apples started where the Nova Scotia product left off. In comparison with British Columbia, however, the apple from Ontario does not show up so well. Extra Fancy Wealthies from the valleys in this province were worth $3.65 to $4.86 per box, while the same fruit from Ontario ranged from $2.43 to $3.44. Of course it should be remembered that recent weather in Ontario, while better than that prevailing all season in Nova Scotia, has been unfavorable for coloring fruit. In British Columbia the season has been dry, hot and bright, an ideal condition for turning out well colored, clean fruit, when irrigation supplies the water.

Early Ontario apples such as Duchess and Alexandria, are worth

EUROPE WANTS CANADIANS GOODS

The demand for Canadian goods in Europe was never better than it is today, in spite of what the apostle of gloom may say to the contrary. A recent dispatch from London says:

The high commissioner's office is informed by the trade commissioners in Great Britain that they have received the following enquiries for Canadian goods during the past week:

A London company whose head office is at Melbourne, Australia, asks to be placed in communication with reliable Canadian manufacturers of acetate of lime, who are not already represented in Australia and who wish to develop business in that market.

A Belfast agent desires to represent on commission Canadian houses exporting powdered milk.

A Bristol company is in the market for a cook suitable both for boxes and lard tubs and invites quotations from Canadian manufacturers.

A London firm wishes to get into touch with Canadian suppliers of pine needle oil.

A firm in Switzerland asks for quotations on British Columbia apples.

A Manchester company would like to hear from Canadian manufacturers of macaroni and vermicelli.

A Liverpool firm seeks quotations from Canada on five tons of nickel in pigs or cubes.

A Newcastle firm would like to hear from Canadian exporters of oats, with quotations on 1000 and 2000 quarter lots.

A Manchester firm is prepared to place an order in Canada for 100,000 dowels, size 3/4" x 30" and 3/4" x 36".

Further details of these can be obtained from the commercial intelligence branch of the department of trade and commerce, Ottawa, or from the Canadian government trade commissioner, Canadian building, Trafalgar Square, London, S. W. I.

Among the notable personages who arrived in Canada during the first week in September from Europe were Princess Patricia, Sir Thomas and Lady Grattan, and the Earl and Countess of Mar and Kellie, all of whom were on the Canadian Pacific steamship Mountroyal; James Oliver Curwood on the Empress of Scotland and Baroness Orczy on the Montclair, of the same line.

Calgary, Alberta. — The No. 4 Royalite well (Imperial), continues to amaze geologists. Its naphtha production increased July to 546,185 gallons, 73 degrees Beaume, an increase of 25 barrels daily over the June production. The production continues to increase and the flow of gas at 20,000,000 cubic feet a day is being maintained. This flow will shortly be harnessed to supply Calgary.

Preparations are under way for the holding in Montreal in June next year of the annual convention of the American Association of Railroad Superintendents. J. K. Savage, General Superintendent, Canadian Pacific, was elected chairman of the arrangements committee, and plans were made for the organization of a complete committee to go ahead with the business of making the convention a success.

A despatch from London states that in the past three weeks more than 20,000 boxes of Quebec-made cheese have arrived and been sold in London at good prices, the quality, it is said, being of the best. It is pointed out that if Quebec products are to obtain the position they deserve here it is necessary to keep continuous supplies coming, in order to make them known to the general public, rather than to make either isolated or occasional speculative shipments. Along this line, some 7,000 boxes of Quebec-made cheese went forward from here to the London market during the past week.

less than $5 per barrel. The first McIntosh sold at $7.78. Apples and pears arriving in Britain from New York state, according to cables received by the Dominion fruit branch at Ottawa, are in many cases heated and waxy.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1925

News comes from the Okanagan that Grote Stirling, Conservative candidate for Yale, is wavering in his confidence of being re-elected. This should be a pretty good indication that Col. Edgett will win by a good majority.

In every election there are always a number of electors who vote against the government merely because they say it is time for a change. This is a loose way of reasoning. In Great Britain the majority of people evidently voted against the government simply for the sake of a change. Conditions in the old country at present do not indicate that they acted wisely. The same mistake should not be made in this country on the 29th. The only sensible thing to do in order to vote intelligently is to study the records of the two parties and to vote for the one that has benefited the country the most. If this is done, and if the elector votes conscientiously, there can be no doubt of the return of the King government.

Mr. Meighen says that the King government has no achievements to its credit, yet Mr. Meighen and his followers are trying to convince the electorate that the Conservative is responsible for every good law enacted by the King government. The Liberal party seems to be in the same position as the man described by an Arabian poet:

When I sent you my melons, you cried out with scorn
 They ought to be heavy and wrinkled and yellow;
 When I offer'd myself, whom those graces adorn,
 You flouted, and said I'd me an ugly old fellow.

Peddling seems to be a lucrative occupation. Two hundred and fifty of New York's East side vendors who peddle via pushcarts everything from shoe laces to watermelons, paid $5 a plate for the privilege of attending a testimonial dinner to members of their profession. The invitations were gold-inscribed, and the meal was of the best variety. Mrs. Molly Barasch, "queen of the peddlers," wore her diamond diadem and a white lace dress.

About the rarest thing in the world is a small boy who looks happy when he is dressed up.

A knowledge of pedagogy does not always get a knowledge of the fine aspects of horticulture or agriculture. For instance, the teacher in one of the junior high schools of a northern city had occasion to visit with her father the little garden the parent had planted in the rear of the factory where he was superintendent. "Daddy, dear," she said in the tone characteristic of girls who have passed the tee age, "do the cabbages grow on top of the ground or underneath the ground?"

M. Francisco was born in Italy and went to the United States in 1860. He was a candy-maker and made his home in Danville, Va. He died there recently. In his will he stipulated that the three marble slabs on which he cooled his products be used for his tombstone. So now the candy slabs contain his epitaph instead of his taffy.

Some men are in the best of spirits only when the best of spirits are in them.

Recent savings bank figures show that the Germans are beginning to save again and in the last year and a half the number of depositors has grown rapidly. During the inflation period no one in Germany thought of saving money. It was a policy of either "spend it before it is worthless," or "get-rich quick." Gradually, however, with the stabilizing of the mark value, the wisdom of economy has begun to reassert itself. Government officials and brain workers furnish the largest percentage of the depositors.

Rubber shoe strings which are said to stretch so that one can remove low shoes without unlacing them, have been put on the market by a British manufacturer.

One club of London still maintains the custom of supplying handkerchiefs with the name of the club embroidered on the corner, to members who forget to bring them.

The word penny occurs a number of times in our English version of the New Testament, especially in the four gospels, for instance, Matt. 20:2: "And when he had agreed with the laborers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard." The coin to which the name penny is given was the denarius, a Roman silver coin in circulation in the time of our Lord and the apostles. It was the principal silver coin then in use throughout the Roman empire. From the parable of the laborers in the vineyard it would seem that a denarius was then the ordinary pay for a day's labor.

Parents must look for the greatest appreciation by their children when the children are thirty or forty years old.

In Holland there has just been celebrated a curious jubilee—the fiftieth anniversary of the Dutch Society for Optional Cremation. Since this society was founded a radical change of view has taken place in orthodox Protestant circles in favor of cremation. In 1876 a petition was sent to King William III and the second chamber requesting a revision of the law regarding burials and the introduction of a special authorization of cremation. Every year the petition was renewed, but no answer was ever made to it. Only in 1913 was the first Dutch crematory at Westerveld, near Haarlem, opened, though cremation was not yet recognized by law. When Dr. Vaillant, the oldest member of the society, died in April 1914, at the age of ninety-six, it was decided to cremate his remains, thus making a test case. The state prosecuted the society but the supreme council of the Netherlands, after a long procedure, decided that cremation was not punishable. Since then the earthly remains of many Hollanders have been committed to the fires in the furnaces at Westerveld.

THE FOLLY OF USELESS EFFORT

The weeds will but the ranker grow,
 If fields too arge you seek to till,
 To try to gain men far away
 With grief your quailing heart will fill.

If fields too large you seek to till,
 The weeds will only rise more strong,
 To try to gain men far away
 Will but your heart's distress prolong.

Things grow the best when to themselves
 Left, and to nature's vigor rare.
 How young and tender is the child,
 With his twin tufts of falling hair!
 But when you him ere long behold,
 That child shall cap of manhood wear!

RT. HON. W. L. MACKENZIE KING

PREMIER KING HAS SAID:

"I Promise the West Impartial Justice and Equal Treatment"

HIS famous Order-in-Council is concrete evidence that he means to carry out this policy. The Order reads:

"The committee are of the opinion that the policy of equalization of freight rates should be recognized as being the only means of dealing equitably with all parts of Canada, and as a means of encouragement of industry and agriculture, and the development of export trade."

Contrast this policy with the statement of Mr. Meighen, which his followers--the Conservative candidates--will be compelled to support by reason of the pledges of the Conservative candidates in the East. Meighen said:

"There has been a measure of relief for the West by means of equalization of freight rates, which is utterly indefensible."

There you have the policy as it will be applied to the West, of the two parties who now ask your endorsement.

The policy of the Liberal candidates is to populate the West. Population will come where it is profitable to live. Open Canada's natural trade routes to the world's markets, for the tremendous natural resources of the West. Equalize freight rates Westward, and you will have turned the key that unlocks the door to prosperity.

A definite example of what these discriminating rates are costing the West--as they affect the fruit growers of British Columbia--is found in these figures:

From Grimsby to Montreal, it is 390 miles--and the rate is 95c per 100 lbs.

From Vernon to Calgary, it is 340 miles--and the rate is $2.40 per 100 lbs.

The same discrimination is applicable to all lines of Western production. This is startlingly evident when you ascertain that in the six years previous to 1921, the West contributed $174,000,000 net profit to the Canadian Pacific Railway--while the East, with the greater population, contributed but $81,500,000--less than half.

You must decide whether the man you send to Ottawa shall be controlled by the Canadian Pacific Railway and the interests of the East--who, for narrow, selfish reasons are antagonistic to the West--or, whether you will send a man to support a leader in the person of the Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, who believes he is serving the best interests of the whole Dominion by giving impartial justice and equal treatment to the West.

Interesting Announcement

Word comes from Montreal that that great family and farm paper The Family Herald and Weekly Star has been enabled to reduce its subscription price to One Dollar a year. This certainly will be interesting news in every Canadian home where the Family Herald is known and to many who will avail themselves of the offer. At two Dollars a year The Family Herald and Weekly Star was generally admitted to be good value, in fact big value, but when reduced to One Dollar a year it will certainly be the marvel of the newspaper world.

Canada is proud of that great Weekly, and has every reason to be so, as it has no superior and few equals in the world today. The publishers announce that notwithstanding the change in price every feature will not only be maintained but improvements will follow. The publishers are fortunate in being in a financial position to do this, and Canadian homes will have the advantage. When the new rate is made known it certainly will bring a rush of subscribers to the Family Herald. One Dollar is a small amount for such a great paper.

Installation of machinery at the new annex of the Dominion Textile Mill at Montmorency Falls, Quebec, will be started by January first next. About 800 additional employees will be required to operate the plant. At present there are about 1,800 employed at the mills.

A prophecy that the Orient would become in the very near future a really large importer of Canadian wheat was made recently by Hon. Dr. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works. In predicting increased Orient trade in grain, Dr. King pointed out that imports of wheat from Canada for 1928-1924 increased by 400 per cent.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS
PRE-EMPTIONS
Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.
Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.
Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e. carrying over 5,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 1,000 feet per acre east of that Range.
Applications for pre-emption are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.
Pre-emption must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.
For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."
PURCHASE
Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes: minimum price of first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 18, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."
Mill, factory, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stamp duty.
HOME SITE LEASES
Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as home sites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.
LEASES
For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or a company.
GRAZING
Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under a Grazing Commissioner. Annual grazing permits are issued based on numbers ranged, priority being given to established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free, or partially free, permits are available for settlers, campers and trappers, up to 10 head.
