THE CITY COUNCIL

Electric Light and Closed Hours Bylaws Discussed and Advanced

All the members, with the exception of Ald. Wolfram, were present at the meeting of the city council last Monday night.

A letter was read from the Orient Improvement club, asking the council to endorse a petition for a night train on the Great Northern from Spokane to Oroville. The council could not see its way clear to endorse the petition, the members expressing satisfaction with the present service.

The secretary of the school board submitted the school estimates for the current year. They are about $2000 in excess of last year's appropriation. They were laid on the table, to be dealt with when the estimates from the other departments come up for consideration. A communication requesting that a list of the delinquent school taxes to forwarded to the provincial secretary, was also received from the secretary of the school board. The clerk was instructed to comply with the request.

The provincial secretary made a request for the return of the permit admitting Mr. Dent to the Old Men's home at Kamloops, if the city did not wish to use the same. The council were of opinion that it would be to the best interests of all concerned if Dent could be sent to Kamloops, and decided to retain the permit pending an investigation of the matter.

The Citizens' Reform league made a request that all bars in the city be closed from 11 p.m. until 6 a.m. The communication was laid on the table.

An acconnt of $50 for advertising in Heaton's Annual was ordered paid.

A donation was granted Mrs. Kelliher sufficient to cover the taxes on her property for two years.

The chairman of the board of works reported the receipt of two cars of lumber. Some cribbing was being put in near the pump station to protect the work done there last summer. The old power house site was being cleaned up.

A complaint having been made that Mr. Averill's fence extended some twelve feet beyond the property line on Spokane street, the council instructed the clerk to notify Mr. Averill to have the same removed immediately.

A resolution was adopted instructing the clerk to notify A. Traunweiser to at once clean up the site of the old Yale hotel. The owners of the brick piles at the corner of Bridge and First streets were requested to remove the same immediately.

The chairman of the health and relief committee reported that a range had been secured for Mrs. Brouillette, and that A. C. Lund had been removed to the hospital.

By a resolution, the city clerk was made the custodian of the band instruments, with instructions to let them out to no one hereafter with out a resolution of the council.

Ald. Manly was granted leave to introduce an amendment to the electric light bylaw, and it was put through the first and second readings, after which the council went into committee of the whole, with Ald. Rutherford in the chair. The minimum fee for electric light meters was fixed $1.50 instead of $1 as heretofore, while the minimum charge for power meters was placed at $3 iustead of $1.50. The meter charges were reduced, the idea being to place all consumers on an equal basis. The new bylaw fixes the rates from 1 to 100 k.w. hours at 13 cents. The committee rose and the chairman reported the bylaw complete after which it passed its third reading.

Ald. Follick was granted leave to introduce a bylaw prescribing the closed hours for public premises. The bylaw was read a first and second time, after which the council went into committee of the whole, with Ald. Henniger in the chair. After considerable discussion, a resolution was offered making the hours from 1 to 6 a.m. during which licensed houses should be closed. Ald. Follick moved an amendment that the committee rise and ask leave to sit again. On a vote being taken on the amendment, Ald. Follick and Rutherford voted for, and Mayor Clark and Ald. Smith against the amendment. Ald. Manly did not vote. Chairman Henniger cast the deciding vote in favor of the amendment.

The council instructed the board of works to bring in an estimate at next meeting of the cost of building stalls for the fire team at the rear of the fire hall.

A Change Needed

Grand Forks theatre-goers have been afflicted with "barn-storming" attractions at outrageously high prices long enough, and it is time that a change was made. The manager of an opera house should be sufficiently well acquainted with the profession to safeguard the public against fraud by refusing to book inferior traveling companies. It is to be hoped that the lessee of the local playhouse possesses this essential requirement of theatre manager. In the past attractions that could not have secured a booking at a fourth-class theatre in a city have been foisted on the people here at a dollar admission fee. This kind of deception is worse than highway robbery; and it has so disgusted the greater number of theatre-goers that when a meritorious troupe comes to the city they usualiy play to empty houses. A bad show is worse than no show at all.

FAIR ASSOCIATION

Subscribers Will Meet Next Thursday to Discuss Ways and Means

A general meeting of the subscribers to the Grand Forks Agricultural association will be held in the Dreamland theatre next Thursday evening, April 28. Business of vital importance to the community will come up for consideration, and everyone interested in the project to hold an agricultural exhibition here next fall should attend. The question whether or not such an enterprise is to undertaken will in all probability be definitely settled at this meeting. The importance of a large and representative attendance is therefore apparent.

The committee appointed at the last meeting solicit to subscriptions report having met with with flattering encouragement, and everything appears to indicate that the program as originally outlined can be successfully carried out.

Congregational Meeting

That Rev. M. D. McKee continues as supply for Knox church pulpit, and that G. A. Gowland, John Wright, Mr. McInnes and Neil McNevin become members of the board of managers, were the chief decisions reached Wednesday night at a meeting of Knox church congregation.

Rev. W. R. Ross was in the chair; James Little, secretary, and T. A. McIntyre, treasurer, fulfilled their their offices. Almost three dozen church members were in attendance.

The financial condition of the church was described in detail, with the effect that it was decided not to extend a call to a minister at the immediate present. A deputation consisting of J. Little, G. A. Gowland and Neil McNevin interviewed Rev. M. D. McKee to learn whether or not he would be willing to continue supplying till such time as the congregation are in a position to give a call. Keenest satisfaction was expressed when it was made known that Mr. McKee's consent had been won. There followed expressions of appreciation of Mr. McKee's talents and energy.

The appointment of new members on the board of management was necessitated by the resignations of D. Whiteside, P. T. McCallum, A. S. McKin and Fred Clark. The remaining members were John Hay and Peter McNevin, who, together with the newly elected quartette, form the present board. A vote of thanks for faithful work was tendered the resigning members, and many tributes of esteem and confidence were paid.

The economic importance of the "dry farming" movement to the sub-arid west, and its practical value to individual farmers of this district can hardly be overestimated. In the first place, more than nine-teuths of the agricultural products of the Inland Empire in Washington and British Columbia are grown under the conditions of limited rainfall, under which the methods of so-called "dry farming" must be carefully practiced if the best results are to be obtained. In the second place, these methods are the most skillful and require the highest degree of intelligence of any class of farm operations known to agriculfural science. Success or failure lie so close together and are determined by such comparatively small changes in methods as to make a thorough understanding of the best of the highest importance. The fifth session of the Dry Farming congress in Spokane next October will bring together more experts in "dry farming" practice than have ever been upon a public platform at any one time or place before. The exposition in connection with the congress will afford a means of showing to the world what has been produced as a result of the application of the best methods of "dry farming" to our conditions. Government officials and agriculturists who have visited the broad fields of the Inland Empire are united in the opinion that in no other part of the country are the methods of scentific tillage so well developed and so intelligently practiced. A display of the products serves the two-fold purpose of instruction as to what ideal tillage may accomplish and exhibition of the wonderful possibilities in this section of the west. Therefore every farmer and bvsiness man who is in any way identified with the develment of this wonderful country has a personal interest in this exposition.

The theatre is not the proper place for children, and it is doubtful if any right thinking person ever really enjoyed a professional juvenile performance. There was such a show given in this city a couple of years ago. The children were cute, cut up funny antics, read their lines and sang their songs lispingly or in an inarticulate manner, and even provoked laughter; but the fact constantly flitted through one's mind that their environments were not of a healthy nor elevating character, and that their homes or the public school would have better suited them. No parent of normal mind would permit their children to be continually travelling through the country and staying up till midnight or later seven days per week, and for this reason they are not be blamed if they fail to appreciate the mirth produced by budding histrionic artistes of the juvenile type. In large cities humane societies look after such people, but this is, of course, an impossible task in the country.

John D. McNaughton, New Liskeard, Ont.: A young man not belonging here, and suffering from, it is believed, consumption, is being kept by one of the hotels here. He has no means and has been refused admission to our hospital. The conditions where he is offer him no chance. Could he be admitted to your Free Hospital for Consumptives? If not, could you inform me where he can be sent, and what steps are necessary to secure prompt admittance?

Since the hospital was opened in April, 1902, one thousand five hundred and twenty-four patients have been treated in this one institution, representing people from every province in the Dominion.

For the week ending November 20th, 1909, one hundred and twenty-five patients were in residence. Ninety-six of these are not paying a copper for their maintenance—absolutely free. The other twenty-nine paid from $2.00 to $4.90 a week. No one pays more than $4.90.

Suitable cases are admitted promptly on completion of application papers.

Tonight---A Treat

On the boards of the opera house tonight we will see the first Belasco attraction ever to visit British Columbia. Belasco's name stands for the best in New York and the East, and the reports from surrounding cities claim it is the finest play acting ever seen in the West. The C. P. R. is running a special train to take the company away after the performance, as their next night is at Revelstoke, then Vancouver, and if we are to witness any more of the Belasco plays in the future it will depend upon the patronage we give this one tonight, which costs Mr. Belasco over $245 to bring in here for the one performance. There are good seats yet to be secured at all three prices and judging by the interest taken, it will be the most meritorious attraction of years.

Strike at Greenwood

Last Monday morning the employees of the British Columbia Copper company at the Greenwood smelter and Mother Lode and Oro Denoro mines quit work, demanding that the company employ members of the Western Federation of Miners exclusively. The strike was the result of a vote taken on Friday and Saturday among the members of Greenwood Miners' union, who were dissatisfied with the outcome of the verdict of the conciliation board, which was favorable to the company. The company, it is reported, has posted a notice offering all men work if they care to take it.

April Rod and Gun

The manifold delights of the days with the rod and line, the season for which is now near at hand, finds some able exponents in the April number of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Woodstock, Ont. The immense advantages of Algonuin park for fishing vacations, and descriptions of some of its many wonderful lakes is given prominence in a beautifully illustrated article, the writer having had the privilege of accompanying the hardy rangers on some of their rounds. The veteran angler, C. W. Young, gives an account of some new waters along the line of thr new Transcontinental in northern Quebec, and many a fisherman will hope that during the coming summer he may possibly repeat Mr. Yyoung's delightful experinces. The wanderings of a fishing party lost in the Rockies are well told by E. M. Allworth, the story illustrating the difference between fishing in the north and in the west. Mr. Allworth and his party had to walk home from the mountains to their prairie home. A defence of the catfish will be read with interest. Two good bear stories, one of duck hunting, a tale of a good dog and game bird hunting by motor car add variety and give increased interest to an excellent number. Not merely no fisherman but no sportsman should be without its bright, informative companionship.
