Boundary Falls Company Will Rebuild Two Furnaces at Its Smelter

Meanwhile the Force of Work men Is Being Greatly Reduced

The Dominion Copper company laid off 60 men at its smelter at Boundary Falls during the present week and at the Idaho and Brooklyn mines, operated by the same company, 100 men have been discharged. This has been caused by the decision of the company to replace two of its handfed furnaces with one large furuace that will be fed mechanically. When completed, the new furnace, together with the one now in operation will ingly. The government, instead of make the capacity of the smelter 1400 tons of ore a day. W. C. Thomas, the manager of the smelter, states that as the likelihood of obtaining material Henderson (one of her pupils), did rapidly is much better than it was a few menths ago, the work of tearing out the old furnaces and building the new one will be completed in a short time, and then the force of men will again be increased at both smelter and mines. The new furnace, when in operation, will materially reduce the cost of smelting at the Boundary Falls smelter, an item of considerable importance when the red metal is sold below 18 cents a pound.

School TrusteeConvention

KEEFER, B. C., Sept. 19, 1907. To the Editor of The Sun.

DEAR SIR:—The school trustees of the province are to meet in convention at New Westminster the first days of the show. Will you be refused to cancel the certificates of good enough to publish the following appeal to the people for simple iustice?

I appeal to the people to send trustees to that convention pledged to move and support a resolution to have Miss A. D. Cameron's certificate restored at once.

The government published the statement that in Miss Cameron's school, in every drawing book (29), and frequeutly on every page, there was ruling, and that in consequence no marks for that work was given to her pupils at the high school entrance examination. That is, practically every scholar was judged in Victoria guilty of cheating and punished, and the fact printed and published to every teacher in the province.

Miss Cameron demanded an investigation, and it was granted. The following facts should be sufficient for this appeal:

First-Judge Lampman decides, after a most careful investigation, that there was "no ruling" in Antone Henderson's book (one of the Second-Apply Judge Clement's dictum in the "World" case, that if the government failed to prove ruling in one of those 29 books, then the verdict should be in Miss Cam eron's favor.

Third-According to the decisions of these two judges the government failed in its case.

Fourth-On Judge Lampman's decision alone it was guilty of de-next month for the old country.

priving Autone Henderson of the marks he had fairly and honestly of earned. It was also guilty of making and publishing a false state ment about him-that he, with the others, had ruled in his book. Of the 21 children of that school who appeared in private before Judge Lampman, he tells counsel the effect of their evidence in 15 c ses wa that they denied having done any ruling. Of the others, six were Agent-General of Province in doubtful, and some admitted ruling.

Put yourselves in Miss Cameron's place as teacher and practically gnardian of the honor of those 29 children. She did what every honest, fearless teacher should do. She demanded an investigation. She succeeded at the least in proving that the government's manner in giving marks in drawing was wrong; that would be deprived of his marks, a Antone Henderson had been. He drew so well at the trial that even Judge Lampman was satisfied that he told the truth and acted accordthanking Miss Cameron and apoloof such ill-treatment towards Antone this: It suspended her teacher's certificate for three years, and gave question the integrity of the examiners of the education department, etc. When I said a few weeks ago that I was going to expose the injustice of the government's action in suspending her certificate, Col. F. B. Gregory remarked: "The fact of the matter is, they are afraid of Miss Cam-

Col. Gregory was counsel in the drawing investigation and stood shoulder to shoulder with Mr. Eberts, the counsel for the government, so his remarks should have some weight with the people.

Fifth-The McBride government teachers whom the superintendent say were victimizing one school board after another, and who were totally unfit to teach.

Sixth-The McBride government suspended for three years the certificate of Miss A. D. Cameron, one of the best teachers in the province, one who for years held many responsible positions in the high and graded schools of Victoria.

Seventh-At the time her certificate was cancelled Miss Cameron was not engaged as a teacher, but was a school trustee, and had been elected such at the head of the poll

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27 1907

As our Socialist correspondent, in today's issue, agrees with us on the only charge we make against the Socialists in our last issue, it is useless to quarrel with him. We print the letter to refute one of his statements, viz., that The Sun is an organ, and not because we desire to tire our readers with a hackneyed Socialistic lecture. Our correspondent appears to object to the local union being termed a Socialistic body. Is it not a branch of the W. F. M.? And has not the W. F. M. endorsed Socialism as an organization? To us it appears to be a labor union that allows its members no political freedom We do not feel sore, as our correspondent intimates, because the union has branched out as middleman, although that class, according to his own words, is doomed. On the contrary, we are highly elated over the venture, for various reasons, the one appealing to us most strongly being that it may prove a means of keeping some of the money at home that has heretofore gone to Timothy Eaton. But we are afraid that the shareholders of that concern have already been made aware of the fact that the pocketing of profits is by no means the only problem that a merchant has to solve. If they have not, they can secure some valuable information on this subject from shareholders of a former institution of a like nature. The middleman has been doing business since the dawn of histary, and owns most of the world's wealth, and it will require more than a few widely scattered bands of theorists, with limited capital, to put him out of business. We agree with our correspondent when he says that everything that stands in the way of progress must go. We consider that Socialism is the greatest hindrance to progress and commercial prosperity that can be named. Every section where that chimerical doctrine has gained a foothold lags behind the rest of the country; and wherever the Socialists have gained control of the offices, local or otherwise, graft and corruption have invariably followed. The real cause of our dislike (or enmity) to the Socialists, however, is their arrogance in foisting their impractical theories on people who hold opposite views; their contempt for the them, and their dictatorial manner of conducting business wherever they hold the controlling hand. The final struggle between capital and labor" we regard as an irridescent dream. The term is only used by political demagogues and protessional labor agitators. Druggists Here in Town say They Can Supply the Ingredients

Get from any prescription pharmacist the following:

Fluid Extract Dandel on, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparil la, three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime.

The above is considered by an eminent authority, who writes in a New York daily paper, as the finest prescription ever written to relieve backache, kidney troulble, weak bladder and all forms of urinary difficulties. This mixture acrs promptly on the eliminative tissues of the kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes rheumatism.

Some person who suffer with the afflictions may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising. the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation, it is said, was established by it.

A druggist here at home when asked stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription for our readers; also recommends it as harmless.

The Other Side

To the Editor of The Sun.

SIR:--As you always seem willing to publish communications opposing Socialism, perhaps you will oblige by publishing the following from a Socialist.

In commenting, in your last issue, on a resolution passed unanimously by Grand Forks union, calling upon the police commissioners to enforce the law and suppress all forms of gambling in this city, you try to make it appear as though it were the work of the Socialists alone; and in doing so you show your unreasoning enmity towards Socialism. I would like you to understand that the resolution in question has the support of practically all the members, whether Socialists or not. Out of our 400 members of our union it would be impossible to find ten that would oppose it. You say that if we did not patronize the games there would he necessity for the commissioners to act. I admit that; but you know as well as I do that it seems absolutely impossible for some men to R. C. MCCUTCHEON keep out of a game when they see one going on. Most of our members who frequent the gambling tables want the games stopped. While you claim you are opposed to gambling, you make this an excuse to take a fling at the "wicked Socialists" by trying to prove them inconsistent and a bunch of hypocrites. The working class as a whole are certainly inconsistent, or they would not form economic organizations to fight the capitalist and then on election day vote for that very class, as represented by the Liberal and Conservative parties. I presume you have no objection to their inconsistency on election day? No doubt you feel sore at the Socialists on account of being the editor of an organ of the Liberal party, which party will

Abuse and misrepresentation of Socialism cannot avert the doom of the middle class and its political reflex and the forcing of its members into the proletariat, neither can it stop the advance of Socialism any more than the howling and violence of the working class prevented the introduction of machinery in the place of the old hand tool. Indian Village at Fair

Indian war and medicine dances. by the light of a bis zing campfi e, will be one of the very numerous strong given. night shows given at the Interstate fair this year, arrangements having already been made by the fair management to have about one hundred red men, mostly of the Flathead tibe, brought to the fair this year.

A tent will be erected on the Mid way, and the Indian dances will be held here. Hung along the walls of the tent will be a number of scalps taken at the time of the Custer massacre on the Little Big Horn, and a number of warriors who took part in the massacre, now old and decrepit, will be in attendance at the fair.

A realistic battle between a pony express rider and a band of redskins will be given every afternoon in front of the grandstand. This will be a

Like a Thief in the Night

That's how pain comes. We sit near an open window, get stiff neck or sore back. Perhaps cool off too quickly after exertion—rheumatism develops. Spend what you may, but money cannot buy anything better than Polson's Nerviline. It's penetrating power enables it to reach deep tissues—that's why it cures aches that all else can't touch. For outward application we guarantee five times more strength than in any other liniment. Inwardly it's harmless and as sure as the hereafter to ease at once. Don't accept a pert bareback riding and broncho substitute for Polson's Nerviline, busting exhibitions will also be which is the one great household panawhich is the one great household panacea of today.

This Tonic Builds Up

Many medicines stimulate, break down, leave you worse than ever. Ferrozone is different—it's a blood former, a nerve strengthener, a body builder. Pale, anaemic girls are given color and vigor. The tired and sleep-less are strengthened and restored, "Better than all tonics I found Ferro-zone," writes Mrs. E. F. Castleton of Woodstock, "I was completely run down shells were blue shed line white down, cheeks were blanched, lips white and had every sign of anaemia. Fer-rozone added to my weight, gave me strength, ambition and good health." Nothing better, try Ferrozone your self, 50c per box at all dealers.
