NOMINATE MILLER

Unanimous Choice as the Conservative Standard Bearer

The Conservative convention to nominate a candidate to contest Grand Forks riding in the forthcoming provincial elections was held in this city yesterday. Between thirty and forty delegates were present, Grand Forks, Phoenix, Cascade, Carson and Fife being represented. E. Miller, the barrister of this city, was the unanimous choice of the convention. As far us The Sun can learn, the most cordial harmony prevailed among the delegates.

Last evening a public meeting was held in the Grand Forks opera house in the interests of the Conservative nominee for the local house. The meeting was largely attended, the hall being crowded. The issues involved in the present campaign were discussed by Martin Burrell, M.P for Yale-Cariboo, A. S. Goodeve, M.P. for Rossland, and Ernest Miller. the Conservative nomiuee for the local house.

On Tuesday evening the Conservative association met and elected the following delegates to the nominating convention, which was held in Orange hall yesterday morning: Geo. Chapple, Jeff Davis, W. B. Cochrane, D. McCallum, Robert Gaw, J. D. Campbell, F. Hutton, A. B. Hood, W. H. M. May, F. M. Kerby, C. A. S. Atwood, D. Whiteside, A. W. Fraser, Sam Horner, W. F. Stewart, W. K. C. Manly, E. Spraggett, with the following as alternates in the order named: James McArdle, Charles Mix, W. J. McIntyre and Ben Norris.

A meeting of the Grand Forks Liberal association was held last night in the building on Bridge street formerly occupied by the B. C. Telephone company for the purpose of appointing delegates to the general convention.

George Heatherton, secretary of Greenwood Miners' union, has been nominated as the Socialist candidate in Greenwood riding.

J. R. Jackson, of Midway, received the Conservative nomination in Greenwood riding on the first ballot.

The Liberals of the Greenwood district will nominate a candidate this evening. J. D. Spence and Alex McDonald are the names mentioned for the candidature.

A meeting of the Grand Forks Liberal association was held Tuesday euening at the city office for the purpose of electing officers.

NEWS OF THE CITY

Thanksgiving day was celebrated quietly at home by most of the citizens. As the weather was particularly charming for a day so late in autumn, numbers were tempted to go rambling on the mountain sides or driving along the many picturesque trails of which the city can boast. Three groups of the more athletic folk climbed Observation mountain and enjoyed the view of a landscape unequalled for loveliness for many miles around.

The following extract is made from a letter received by Secretary Fsed Clark, of the Farmers' Institute, from the department of agriculture: "The Dominion live stock commissioner has decided to forward a first-class consignment of pure-bred sheep to British Columbia, to be auctioned without reserve. The animals have been carefully selected and are of excellent quality. They are now on the way, and will be sold at New Westminster on November 5th. Mr. T. J. Trapp will officiate as auctioneer. The consignment consists of 17 Shropshires and 19 ewes; Oxfords, 6 rams and 10 ewes; Southdowns, 1 ram and 1 ewe; Hampshires, 1 ram and perhaps 3 lambs."

The assizes on Tuesday were practically a pair of white kids. Mr. Justice Clement presided and did not require the grand jury to make a presentment. There was only one case on the docket. Steve Basta and Joe Majseh, of Phoenix, were to appear for theft, but forfeited their bail of $100 each, and his lordship instructed a bench warrant to be issued for their apprehension.—Greenwood Ledge.

Two young lads who have been allowed too much liberty by their parents were arrested, on Tuesday, for breaking into Manly's hardware store on the previous night and stealing some ammunition and other articles. They had a hearing before Judge Cochrane on Wednesday and committed to the provincial industrial school at Vancouver. J. A. McCallum left for that city with the boys yesterday.

George and Joseph Brown were arrested at Farron last week by Provincial Constable Ritchie, of this city, on a charge of stealing some blankets from J A. Bertois' hotel in Cascade. They were tried before Justices Macdonald and Cameron at Cascade and given four months in jail.

The fruit growers of the valley are gathering a fine display for the National Apple Show, to be held in Spokane next month. It is understood that a government official from Victoria will arrive in the city next week to give instructions in regard to packing the fruit.

The New Dominion Copper company have effected a settlement at 75 cents on the dollar with the miners who had wages due them by the old Domin on company, and it reported that the payments are being made this week in Phoenix.

Judge Cochrane did not render a decision in the case of Carruthers vs. Anderson yesterday, as the disputants had agreed to settle their differehces out of court.

An Austrian named Wm. Kiskoin was badly cut and bruised on the hip by being run over by a slag truck at the Granby smelter on Wednesday night.

W. P. Tierney & Co. will commence work next Monday upon the extension of the C.P.R. from near Hartford junction.

Judge and Mrs. J. R. Brown moved from Greenwood to this city this week. They have rented Jas. McArdle's house.

In the county court yesterday Judge Brown remanded the case of Heubeck vs. Hartinger until the 30th of November.

Lutley & Galipeau have nearly completed manufacturing the cement blocks for Dr. Kingston's new hospital.

Be sure and see the art gallery at the W. A. Bazaar.

BIG APPLE SHOW

To Establish a Standard and Assist Growers to Market Their Product

The primary purpose of the National Apple Show, to be held in Spokane next month, is to establish a standard, to assist growers in the culture and marketing of their fruit and to create and supply the increasing demand for the apple. It is designed also to bring together the growers and the men who handle the products of the orchards in a commercial way, with a view toward the greater development of the industry. Another object is to demonstate to the people of the west the possibilities of intelligent intensive cultivation and to show to the east and north and south the value to the whole country of this development.

Prof. H. E. Van Deman, of Washington, D.C., head of the board of judges, will be assisted by H. M. Dunlap, of Savoy, Ill., presiding judge of the show last December; Prof. W. J. Green, chief horticulturist at the Ohio agricultural experimental station; George J. Kellogg, of Lake Mills, Wis., who has been an exhibitor and judge since 1854, and A. P. Bateham, of Mosier, Ore., an active advocate of the commercial points in apple culture. They will make their awards under a liberal interpretation of the scoring rules and regulations of the American Pomological society.

The management has arranged a premium list, offering $25,000 in prizes, including the sweepstakes of $1500 in the carload class, which carries with it the title of apple king of America, for exhibits ranging from a full car to 650 boxes or 210 bbls to a single plate of apples, in 20 classes, with conditions governing the various exhibits sufficiently wide to make the competitions national in character, in fact, open to the world. There will be more than two million apples, including standard varieties from the foremost commercial orchard districts in the country.

Two conventions of people interested in the apple industry are scheduled in connection with the show. One is to discuss the Lafean apple package and grading bill, now before the United States congress, and the other meeting is for the purpose of arranging for a new score card to take in the commercial values of standard varieties brought to a state of perfection in the Northwest since the adoption of the present rules by the American Pomological society, twelve years ago.

Among the other features will be a series of demonstations in the preparation of the apple as a food, by the domestic science department of the State College of Washinaton under the direction of Miss L. Gertrude Mackay, programs of concert and promenade music by two bands of 52 musicians, and a carefully selected list of refined vaudeville attractions.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Steele entertained a score of little folk at the rectory on Thursday afternoon, on which occasion Miss Mabel and Master Harry Steele were celebrating their birthdays. The merry crowd played all the kindergarten games there are, and a few others of whieh Froebel had never heard. The tea table was a most attractive picture, lighted by softly shaded candles. A birch-bark canoe, paddled by a dark-haired maid, was in the centre. Birthday cakes, baskets of fruit, and other dainty viands were temptingly arrayed, while at each plate was a souvenir—a small canoe filled with bon-bons. At 6 o'clock escorts came for the little boys and girls. The party consisted of: Mabel and Harry Steele, Helen Whiteside, Margaret Fowler, Dorothy Jost, Lilian Hull, George Hodgson, Tannis and Fred Barlee, Gladys and Francis Latham, Florence McIntyre, Helen Massie, Kathleen Kerby, Harry Kelliher.

Want Another Pastor

At a congregational meeting held in Knox church on Wednesday night steps were taken towards securing a minister for the congregation. The voice of those present was strongly against allowing the church to return to the standing of a mission. Of the estimated expense of running the church for the coming year the greater part was subscribed by those present. A meeting for further dealing with the situation is called for next Thursday night.

Sent to New Westminster

A man living alone in W. H. Creitz's house on Winnipeg avenue became mentally unbalanced on Saturday afternoon, and barricaded himself behind locked doors with a good supply of fire-arms. A close watch was kept on the house by the police until about 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, when Mr. Dewdney turned in a fire alarm in the neighborhood of the premises. The man emerged from the house and fired a volley at the red watertank on Observation mountain. Before he had time to reload the weapon Chief Savage and Special Constable Stack Dinsmore appeared on the scene and escorted him to the city lock-up. On Monday he was examined by Drs. Kingston and Truax before Judge Cochrane and committed to the New Westminster asylum for the insane.

Church Bazaar

The Holy Trinity branch of the Woman's Auxiliary will hold a bazaar on Wednesday and Thursday, November 10th and 11th, afternoon and evening. Hand embroideries, sofa pillows, centre pieces, handkerchiefs, knitted and crochet goods, and many other useful articles will be for sale. The ladies will serve afternoon tea; also supper from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

A NEW VARIETY

A Washington Man Has Grown a Coreless and Seedless Apple

Correspondence of The Sun.

SPOKANE, Oct. 28.—Coreless as well as seedless are the apples produced on a single tree of unknown variety in an eight-acre orchard at Moran Prairie, five miles north of Spokane, owned by B. K. Short, a rancher. The largest of the fruit is three inches in diameter, the coloring being a yellowish green, streaked with red. The apples have deep pink cheeks, and the flesh is firm and of excellent flavor. The tree is between 12 and 15 years old, and is growing in sub-irrigated soil at an altitude of 2225 feet. Short does not claim credit for developing the coreless-seedless apple, declaring it is a freak of nature.

Seven of the new apples were brought to the offices of the National Apple Show in Spokane and quartered in the presence of Ren H. Rice, secretary-manager; Prof. August van Holderbeke, formerly state commissioner of horticulture, and several growers from various parts of the northwest, but none was able to classify. the fruit. Prof. W. S. Thornber, horticulturist of the State College of Washington, has been delegated by J. J. Browne, regent, of Spokane, to make a thorough examination of the tree to determine its origin.

Short has engaged three watchmen, each to work eight hours a day, as guards in his orchard, to prevent injury to the tree. He intends to graft the scions on other trees the coming spring. Expert pomologists say if the process is successful he will have made a discovery of greater commercial importance than any yet credited to Luther Burbank and other plant wizards. They add that while tue seedless apple is no longer a novelty, the production of a coreless one, long sought by growers throughout the world, is a distinct triumph in apple culture.

Our local contemporary need not worry about the political course of The Sun. Unlike the editor of the Gazette, the proprietor of this paper is not under bonds to support any party or candidate blindfolded. When the candidates are all are all in the field we can pick the man who will be able to accomplish the most good for the province and district, and we there will be no hesitancy in doing so.

There is some satisfaction in knowing that Neepawa (where the butter comes from) endorses local option. But this is not what the editor of the Gazette told the hotel men in this city a few months ago.

NEWS OF THE CITY

Fruit from this valley will be sent to form part of the provincial government's display at exhibitions in Great Britain.

The fruits and vegetables at Lawson's store, on Second street, are replenished every day with a fresh supply.

You can depend on everything you get at Lawson's being fresh and good.

A writer of a "Ladies' Letter" in a Melbourne weekly heaps half a column of derision on whiskers. She wonders any woman can abide a man with a face like a broken sofa cushion. "Although a loyal subject and devoted to my king," she cries "I think King Edward should take those nasty germ-harboring whiskers off his face and set his subjects a better example." Horray! God save the king!

Society

The following social item is clipped from a Chilliwack exchange: "A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Calbick, Yale road, Monday afternoon, when their eldest daughter, Miss Letitia J. Calbick, and Mr. Henry W. Sweyne were united in marriage by Rev. E. Manuel, in the presence of friends and relatives. The bride was charming in a gown of white net over silk, with veil and orange blossoms, and carrying white chrysanthemums. The bride's sister, Miss Mildred Calbick, was prettily dressed in white organdie and carried pink and white carnations. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. G. Sweyne, of New Westminster. After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Sweyne left for the coast cities, returning to Chilliwack before going to Grand Forks, where they will reside. The bride's travelling gown was of navy broadcloth, with hat of navy satin. The bride, whose home has always been in the valley, will be missed by a large circle of friends. The groom was for some time connected with the Co-Operative association, leaving here about two years ago." Mr. and Mrs. Sweyne arrived in Grand Forks a few days ago, and have taken up their residence on Fourth street.

By way of honoring Rev. and Mrs. T. G. MacLeod before their leaving, a number of their friends took them by surprise on Friday evening and spent an hour or two at he manse. A feature of the occasion was the presentation of a purse to Mrs. MacLeod, the gift of the ladies and girls of the congregation. A most enjoyable evening was spent, and many good wishes for Mr. and Mrs. MacLeod's future welfare were expressed. Mr. MacLeod preached preached his farewell sermon in Knox church on Sunday evening from the text, "There Shall be no More Sea." Every available seat in the church was occupied. Of memorable eloquence was the discourse upon the passing of mystery, separation, restlessness and turbulence. Mr. MacLeod left for Creston on Thursday.

The boys and girls of Division V of the public school made the most of Saturday's autumnal beauty by spending the day picnicking upon Smelter mountain. Laden with baskets of tempting things to eat, the merry crowd set off at an early hour. Arriving upon the heights, dinner on the grass was enjoyed heartily. Later a part of the crowd played all the juvenile games there are, while the others explored the mountain to its topmost peak. As the shadows lengthened the tired merry-makers returned from their jaunt, and at the Yale bridge dispersed for their homes.

The Ladies' Aid of Knox church will meet at Mrs. A. D. Morrison's home on Monday afternoon, and will be occupied in making articles for a bazaar to be held before Christmas.

Man usually indulges in a lot of self-praise when he has greatness thrust upon him.

Thare is no such thing as the biggest half, in spite of the fact that most of us want it.

You can rely on the friends you buy—if you have enough money to keep them bought.

Many a man has lost his life in trying to collect the living he thought the world owed him.

A man never realizes how silly his love letters are until he hears some of them read in court.

There is many a good-hearted fool. The trouble is a man doesn't do his thinking with his heart.

Some young men seem to think it better to have loved and lost than never to have lost at all.

A happy married life depends on marrying our opposites. It doesn't do to be too evenly matched.

It sometimes happen that two women are apparently good friends because they are bitter enemies.

Of course, you are no better than your fellow man, but somekow he is always just a little worse than you are.

No woman who cares for appearance can afford to weep unless she has a dainty handkerchief to use as a tear mop.

Death loses some of its sting for a woman if she knows there will be good singing and a big floral display at her funeral.

It is said that necessity knows no law, but if she is the mother of invention she should acquaint herself with the patent laws.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good." It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cures. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 31 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 50 stamps. Address Dr. R.V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

PERSONAL

W. M. Doull, of Montreal, president of the South Kootenay Power comdany, inspected the company's substation in this city on Tuesday. He was accompanied by Lorne A. Campbell, of Rosslond, manager of the company.

A. B. W. Hodges, manager of the Granby smelter, returned home on Tuesday from Fernie, where he had been to arrange for a larger coke supply, made necessary by the increased capacity of the smelter.

Frank Fritz, the well known prospector, has returned to the city from Moresby island, one of the Queen Charlotte group. He reports mining operations active in that section of the province.

Geo. Chapple and a couple of visiting men from Spokane returned early in the week from a few days' fishing at Christina lake.

Judge Clement visited old acquaintances in the city on Thanksgiving day, on his way to the fall assizes in Greenwood.

Col. Lowery, editor of the Greenwood Ledge, was a visitor at The Sun office on Wednesday.

NEWS OF THE CITY

Mr. James B. Fleming, M.A., formerly of Glasgow, Scotland, entered, on Tuesday morning, upon his duties as principal of the high school.

Can you whistle, ladies? If so, come and win a prize at the W. A. Bazaar.

Be sure and see the art gallery at the W. A. Bazaar.

Largest in British Empire

In an interview with a Nelson News reporter this week A. B. W. Hodges, manager of the Granby smelter, said: "Your weekly ore shipments should tell you what we are doing. We are now handling more ore at our smelter than ever ever before, and are doing so with only seven furnaces as against eight formerly in use. The eighth, however, is ready for operation, which means that the work of enlarging the plant, which has been in progress for some time, has been completed. With this last furnace ready for operation we have the second largest smelter in the world, the largest being located at Anaconda, while we have had the honor for some time of having the largest smelter in the British empire."

The Union Show

The big union show in the opera on Thanksgiving evening was an immens success. The hall was crowded, every seat being filled. The revolving pictures were handled perfectly, and the comical farce comedy, entitled "John Hopkin's Ghost," created intense mirth. The interest of the show was heightened by the donated of a fine fat turkey, purchased from Elmore's market, which was won by ticket No. 038,-218, held by John Holtz, of the North Fork addition. Next Monday night a prize consisting of $5 in gold will be given to the person lucky enough to hold the winning number.
