PRACTICAL WORK

Demonstrations in Pruning and Spraying--Lecture by Deputy Minister

Thursday was a gala day for the members of the Kettle Valley Farmers' institute. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon a practical demonstration meeting was held at R. Hughes' ranch. There was a large crowd of interested fruit growers present. R. M. Winslow, provincial horticulturist gave a few practical spraying lessons from 2 to 4 o'clock. He was followed by M. S. Middleton, of Nelson, assistant provincial horticulturist, who showed those present how to properly prune fruit trees.

At 8 o'clock in the evening a public meeting was held in the Dreamland theatre, at which addresses were made by W. E. Scott, deputy minister of agriculture, and J. C. Metcalfe, markets commissioner. C. Scott Galloway, president of the institute, acted as chairman of the meeting.

Mr. Scott, after painting a beautiful word picture of the valley, stated that there were now 4000 members of farmers' institutes in this province, and he was glad to learn that there was a good, live institute in Grand Forks. He was sorry to learn that the poultry branch of the farming industry was being neglected here. Poultry and fruit raising naturally went together, and every orchard should have 200 or 300 hens. They were profitable, and of benefit to the trees, as they destroyed fruit pests. The Kettle valley was a magnificent place for fruit growing. The severe winter of two years ago had taught ranchers a valuable lesson in regard to planting the proper varieties. The winter killing was caused by either too much or too little water late in the season. British Columbia was the best fruit-growing country on the continent, but in order to attain the highest success it was necessary for the districts to co-operate and secure a uniform pack. The fruit grown was of just as good a quality—if not better—as that raised in the western states across the international boundary line. There was an unlimited market for British Columbia fruit in the Northwest, in the coast cities, and in Australia.

"To attain the greatest measure of success in fruit growing," said Mr. Scott, "be sure you have the best nature of soil; get the best trees; cultivate cleanly; spray profusely, and prune properly. In any event, when you prune your trees, do not cut off the fruit spurs. Summer pruning is desirable to a certain extent. In picking and packing, handle the fruit gently—like eggs. Packing schools will be established by the government wherever practicable.

"At the last session of the legislature the government made a grant of $10,000 for demonstration orchards. It has not yet been definitely decided where these orchards are to be located, but they will be placed in representative fruit growing districts where they will do the greatest good to the largest number of people.

"During the past year the value of the agricultural products of the province increased $1,000,000."

Mr. Scott advised the fruit growers of this district to make displays at the exhibitions in the Northwest, in eastern Canada and in England, as this method of advertising the valley would prove the best that could be obtained. He was sorry there had been no fruit from Grand Forks at last year's shows.

The speaker related an incident which occurred at the Toronto exhibition last fall. The Ontario people were continually saying that the British Columbia apples looked very beautiful, but that they lacked the flavor of the Ontario product. Mr. Scott finally grew tired of hearing this, and he decided to put a stop to it. Two Ontario and two British Columbia apples were peeled, cut up and placed on separate plates. Then Mr. Scott selected two judges, while the Ontario people selected two more. A fifth man was chosen jointly by the two sides. These five judges returned a unanimous verdict in favor of the British Columbia apples for flavor.

"At the present time," said Mr. Scott, "the home market is more profitable than the English market. You don't grow enough fruit to supply the demand in your own province. There were carload after carload of American apples imported into Vancouver last summer." The speaker advised fruit growers to go slow in planting the Cox's Orange variety.

Mr. Scott said King Edward had honored the British Columbia exhibit at Islington last summer by paying it a visit. His majesty had shown a keen interest in everything pertaining to the province. "British Columbia," said the speaker, in concluding his address, "is the best advertised province in Canada."

James Rooke did not think the Grand Forks apple could compete with the American product in the Vancouver market on account of the high freight rates.

Mr. Metcalfe, markets commissioner, said the Kettle valley would one day be one of the finest fruit growing districts in British Columbia. There was an unlimited market in the Northwest and in this province. The market would expand faster than the supply would increase. Competition would come from Ontario and the American side, but wherever the British Columbia apple was known it was preferred to any other. It was necessary to increase the supply in order to keep pace with the demand. At present buyers would not come here because they could not secure sufficiently large quantities. "Grow more and better fruit," he said, "and keep down the cost of production as much as possible. Any red apple will find favor in the Northwest market. The most important question that confronts the fruit growers today is a comprehensive co-operative plan for shipping purposes." He thought the best method of advertising the district would be to make fruit displays at the Northwest exhibitions. He advised the farmers to pay more attention to small fruit raising.

At the conclusion of the meeting the speakers were tendered a hearty vote of thanks.

Joe Burns has returned to the city to complete his contract on Al. Traunweiser's ranch.

A DINNER PARTY

Local Member Complimented on His Work in Last Legislature

The complimentary dinner tendered Ernest Miller, M.P.P., in the Davis hall last Saturday night, by the citizens of Grand Forks, was one of the most enjoyable gatherings held in the city for some time. Over a hundred persons were seated around the banquet board. After an excellent menu had been served, the time up to midnight was spent in speech-making. None of the speeches were long enough to be tedious, but all were to the point. Mayor Clark presided as toastmaster.

David Whiteside, in proposing the toast, "Our Guest," said that it was an established axiom that the man who made two blades of grass grow where only one grew before was a benefactor to his race. The adage might be enlarged upon by including the man who had made two dollars come where only one came before as a public benefactor. Mr. Miller, in reply, made the most definite statement regarding the construction of the North Fork branch of the Kettle Valley line that has yet been made public. He had not been entirely satisfied with the railway bills as drafted, and had made a fight for the insertion of a clause in the Kettle Valley line bill compelling the company to build the North Fork branch during the present year. He had not relinquished his fight on this point until he had received an undertaking in writing from the company that the road to Franklin would be completed either this year or next. He did not take to himself all the credit for securing the large grant for the district. The province was prosperous, and every constituency had obtained substantial increases over previous grants.

Frank Hutton proposed the toast, "Our Dominion," which was responded to by Judge Brown. Both gentlemen made able speeches, and reviewed the vast natural resources of our country. In surveying the greatness of the Dominion, said Mr. Brown, and taking into account its unlimited resources, one cannot help but believing that the oft-repeated assertion that Canada is the country of the twentieth century will be verified.

In proposing the toast, "Our Industries," Geo. Chapple called to his aid the cap and bells so successfully that for five or ten minutes after finishing his peroration nothing but the sound of laughter could be heard in the hall. W. A. Williams responded. After reviewing the Boundary enterprises, he said the only fault he found with the people here was that they were poor boosters. We had the prettiest valley in the country here, but it was not known abroad, because the people did not know how to advertise and boost.

P. T. McCallum proposed the toast, "Our Visitors," which was responded to by A. S. Hood of Phoenix. Both speakers acquitted themselves creditably from an oratorical viewpoint.

A. Tweedle, and Judge Williams of Phoenix, handled the toast, "The Ladies," as if they had made a lifetime study of the fair sex. The latter speaker interpolated some witty conceits among his sage remarks.

"The Press" was proposed by Fred Clark and responded to by The Sun man and J. L. Meikle. The speeches on this subject will probably go down into history as famous for the things that were left unuttered.

Interspersed throughout the speech making were a number of songs, rendered by Messrs. Hay, Stendal and Wheeler. Mrs. Wheeler supplied the music during the dinner and also accompanied the singers. Before the close A. S. Hood, of Phoenix, proposed a toast to the chairman. Mr. Clark, in responding, said he wished the members of the arrangement committee included in this toast for the able manner in which they had performed their duties. The committee consisted of Messrs. F. Clark, E. Spraggett, D. McCallum, W. H. M. May, F. H. Hutton and J. D. Campbell.

SUNSET SAUNTERINGS

The Robinson & Lequime Lumber company have cut about eight million feet of sawlogs up in the North Fork country during the past winter. Six million feet of the logs have already been floated down to Smelter lake. They expect to start their mill on Smelter lake about the 25th inst.

Judge Brown has handed down a decision in the Cervio vs. The Granby company case, finding for the injured workman. In the Killen case against the same company, the arbitrator allowed the parents $300 each. In both cases costs were allowed the claimants.

The meeting last night, in the city hall, of owners of property inside the limits, to obtain an expression of opinion regarding the existing fire limits bylaw, was not very largely attended. Those present were unanimously in favor of the enforcement of the bylaw.

The tenth annual ball given by Gateway Lodge No. 45, I. O. O. F., in opera house last Wednesday evening, was a pronounced success, about fifty couples being in attendance. Dancing was the order till 12, when an adjournment was called for supper, this was served in a very excellent manner by the L. O. T. M. in the banquet hall of the new Davis block. After supper was through the dance was again proceeded with, and kept merrily on till the early morn. The Phoenix orchestra provided first-class music for the occasion.

Victor A. Davies has accepted a position with the South Kootenay Power Co., and will be stationed at Rossland, for which city he leaves on Monday. Mr. Davies has been a resident of this city for the past three years. During this time he took a very prominent part in musical affairs, having formed and lead the Victor orchestra, and was also leader of the band till its demise.

Frank Fincham, for the past two years an employee of the South Kootenay Power Co. in the sub-station here, left on Thursday for Greenwood, where he has been transferred to a higher position in the company's employ. Mrs. Fincham will leave about the 16th of April.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Duffy and family left on Monday for Bakersfield, Cal. Mr. Duffy intends to return to this city in three months, but his family will probably remain in California indefinitely.

THE CITY COUNCIL

Objection to Fire Limits By-law Consumes Most of the Time

All the members were present at the regular bi-weekly meeting of the City Council last Monday night.

On the recommendation of the board of works, the owner of the building on First street, formerly occupied by Mr. Long as a barber shop, was instructed to move the same off Mr. Morrison's property.

Jeff Davis here addressed the council in regard to the cutting down of the fire limits in the city, claiming that the same covered too big a territory. Mr. Davis spoke at some length, setting forth, from his standpoint, the reasons why the said limits should be reduced. This matter was brought up by the removal of the frame structure which Davis & Co. had erected at the corner of Bridge and Second streets during the construction of the handsome block, and which Mr. Davis now wished to use as a store house. He had been granted permission to remove same if he complied with the fire-limits by-law, which requires a nine-inch brick wall around the building.

Mr. Wilson had started to remove the building to the lots back of the Davis block, but an injunction was issued, stopping work on same. However, Mr. Davis secured other labor and had the building put on the new location. The council felt that Mr. Davis had over-ride them in this matter, and that if he had wished to offer any suggestions or plans in regard to the curtailing of the fire limits in the city, it was his place to have done so before removing the building at all. It was finally moved by Ald. Manly, and seconded by Ald. Rutherford, that a meeting of all the property owners inside of the present fire limits be called for Friday evening, April 8th, to ascertain their views as to whether the limits were too large or not. The meeting is called for 7:30 in the city hall, and all owners of property within the limits are requested to be present and express their views on this matter.

Ald. Rutherford reported that it had developed since the last meeting that the Grand Forks Townsite company claimed the ownership of the old post house and the matter was discussed and laid over till next meeting. In the meantime the council decided to take up the matter of a new isolation hospital with E. Miller, M. P. P., and the provincial government.

Ald. Rutherford drew the attention of the council to the quality of cement used in sidewalks. One contractor had stated to him that an outsider had tendered so low on some of this work that it was impossible for him to keep up the quality of sidewalk which the city required. It was explained by the city clerk that those laying sidewalks first had to have permission of the city to do so, and at all times the city could appoint an engineer or superintendent to look after the city's interests, and that a certain standard had to be maintained in the laying of cement sidewalks.

The opinion of the ratepayers affected appears to be strongly in favor of the enforcement of the present fire limits bylaw. Any alterations in it that would permit of the construction of fire-traps within its limits, and thus raise insurance rates, would not only be an unfortunate thing for the community, but would do an injustice to the men who have shown their faith in the city by erecting substantial brick and stone blocks. The people who claim that the limits are too large lack faith in the expansion of the city. The council will make more friends than enemies by enforcing the bylaw.

Called on Houston

A writer in the Vernon News tells the following story of the late John Houston:

Your tribute to John Houston will be appreciated by his friends. If you care to devote any more space to the subject, possibly you may like to use the following:

In 1896 John Houston published in the Nelson Tribune some strictures on the management of the Pacific Division of the Canadian Pacific. While apparently trifling, these remarks deeply irritated the division officials, and a few weeks thereafter Supt. Marpole, Geo. McL. Brown and E. J. Duchesnay, being in Nelson, set out to "see" Mr. Houston about it. The interview was a stormy one—evidence given in a justice's court next day showed that some one threw a pair of shears and that an unabridged dictionary was one of the arguments used. Mr. Houston was arrested, charged with assault, and, I believe, fined five dollars.

The rival weekly, the "Miner," came out in an extra next day with big headlines and much sensation. Mr. Houston contented himself with the following item, which appeared at the bottom of the local column:

"R. Marpole, Supt. Pacific Division C. P. R., Geo. McL. Brown, Dist. Passenger Agent, and E. J.

Duchesnay, Division Engineer, were in Nelson Tuesday and called at the Tribune office."

The apparent suggestion that such "calls" were an everyday occurrence at the Tribune office and unworthy of special comment, made all Kootenay laugh. His rival's bluster fell flat.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly practicing physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its name on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't tamper with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. J. C. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take the advice received and be well.

Would You Provide for the Care of Canada's Needy Consumptives?

THEN SEND YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE MUSKOKA FREE HOSPITAL FOR CONSUMPTIVES

MUSKOKA FREE HOSPITAL FOR CONSUMPTIVES. MAIN BUILDING FOR PATIENTS.

A national institution that accepts patients from all parts of Canada. Here is one of hundreds of letters being received daily:—

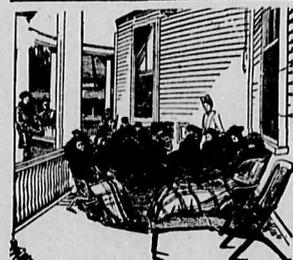

John D. McNaughton, New Liskeard, Ont.: A young man not belonging here, and suffering from, it is believed, consumption, is being kept by one of the hotels here. He has no means and has been refused admission to our hospital. The conditions where he is offer him no chance. Could he be admitted to your Free Hospital for Consumptives? If not, could you inform me where he can be sent, and what steps are necessary to secure prompt admittance? NOT A SINGLE PATIENT HAS EVER BEEN REFUSED ADMISSION TO THE MUSKOKA FREE HOSPITAL BECAUSE OF HIS OR HER INABILITY TO PAY.

Since the hospital was opened in April, 1902, one thousand five hundred and twenty-four patients have been treated in this one institution, representing people from every province in the Dominion. For the week ending November 20th, 1906, one hundred and twenty-five patients were in residence. Ninety-six of these are not paying a copper for their maintenance—absolutely free. The other twenty-nine paid from $2.00 to $4.00 a week. No one pays more than $4.00.

Suitable cases are admitted promptly on completion of application papers.

A GRATEFUL PATIENT

I was at your Sanatorium ten months, and I was sent away from there as an apparent cure. I am now working in the city, and I am feeling fine. I was most thankful for the care I got from the doctors and staff, and I must say that I spent the time of my life while I was there.

A woman always jollies a man along when she wants to make a fool of him.

Ignorance isn't bliss to those who don't know a good thing when they see it.

A girl always says "Don't" when a young man tries to kiss her, because she knows that her mother would expect her to put up some kind of a bluff.

WINGS

The hand of man, emerging from the mist

Of primal ages, was a hairy fist, All blood bedabbled; for the hand had killed

Before it learned to sow and reap and build.

So each new tool was but a weapon, fit to add new terrors to the blow of it; The first rude axe was formed for bloody deed,

Split skulls before it served the builder's need,

And thus through ages runs the tale: by worst

Of uses is the new found tool accurst, Yet we believe what prophet's words record,

That into plowshares man shall beat the sword.

For centuries we stood upon the edge Of space and yearned, while sparrows from the hedge

Took flight and taunted us "That I had wings!"

'Mid stormy music," thus the psalmist sings,

"Then would I fly away and be at rest."

And lo, the wings are ours, a gift, the best

The genius of our race has forged; a tool

Fit for our eager age. What says the fool,

The war-brute! "This is mine, for brawls and strife,

As hawk-wings are the hawk's—for taking life!"

Well, claim them, War-god! Use them till the race

Will kill for you no more. What narrow space

Holds man today apart from brother man,

A range of rocks, a river, or a span Of channel, and our wings shall over-leap

These dwarfish landmarks. Then what king shall keep

His folk from merging with humanity As waters intermingle in the sea!

Sail forth, winged Argonauts of trackless air,

And as upon your homeward course you fare

Bring heav'nly treasure. Neither gold nor steel,

Nor gross and earthy wealth weight your light keel;

Man's Brotherhood, bring that as Golden Fleece

On sun-blest wings, bring harbingers of peace.
