

BUILD TO SPOKANE

W. H. Warrington Says Kettle Valley Line Survey Will Be Done in April.

Company Also Considers Extension to the Fraser River.

"We expect to have the survey for the Kettle Valley line from Republic to Spokane completed April 15th," said H. W. Warrington, chief engineer of that road, in a recent Spokane interview.

"The road will be 140 miles long, and will cost $3,500,000. The route is down the San Poil river, from Republic to the Columbia river; across the Columbia by a steel bridge below Hellgate; then up the river on its south side to the mouth of the Spokane, and up that stream to this city. The climb out from the canyon of the Spokane will be made at La-Pray's bridge, 23 miles below the city. The road will get on the prairie to reach the Crescent and the Welch farming country, in the western part of the county. It is probable that the Spokane river would be crossed just below Fort Wright, near the old Lake Shore bridge.

"Two surveying parties, each with 14 men, are in the field. One is headed by A. W. Davis and the other by James Coyle. Grades are excellent. We do not expect that any will exceed 1 per cent. Construction down the San Poil is easy.

"Our people, who include Messrs. Stratton and Holland, of the Dominion Permanent Trust company, of Toronto, are waiting for a detailed report from me before coming to any conclusions. The present stretch of line, 45 miles long, from Grand Forks to Republic, is paying operating expenses, but in order to make the line a success, it must be extended, and the natural extension is to Spokane. The road will traverse a rich agricultural district, and will give access to a fine stretch of country on the Columbia river. Our people will probably put some money into it themselves, and I expect that they will look to England for the rest.

"Our company is also looking forward to an extension from Grand Forks north and west through McKinley camp to Vernon, and then on to Spence's bridge, on the main line of the C. P. R., in which connection it will give a road from the coast to the Kootenay country almost as short as the route which J. J. Hill proposes to build from Midway to the tittlewater.

"The first section of 50 miles up the North fork of the Kettle river would connect Grand Forks with the new mining districts of McKinley camp. The next section of 100 miles would carry the road to Vernon, at the head of Okanogan lake, on a branch of the C. P. R. Another extension of 150 miles from Vernon through the Nicola coal fields would connect the system with Spence's bridge, 300 miles from Grand Forks.

"Our present line from Grand Forks to Republic is being operated at a minimum of expense. We have one train crew of four men that makes a round trip daily with a mixed train. There is a station agent at Grand Forks, another at Republic, and myself. Our shop crew consists of three men, and there are from 8 to 20 section men."

SUNSET SAUNTERINGS

Kenneth M. Stephen, bookkeeper of the Hunter-Kendrick company at Greenwood, leaves next month for Grimsby, Ont., where he will engage in business on his own account. Mr. Stephen has spent the past five or six years in the Boundary, having resided in this city prior to moving to Greenwood, and has earned the esteem of all classes of citizens. Mrs. Stephen will precede him, as she will start for the east this week.

"Harold Nelson was a scholarly 'Hamlet,' he was superb as 'Paul Kauvar,' but in 'Richelieu,' his favorite character, he closely attains to greatness." This is what a Winnipeg critic wrote after witnessing Mr. Nelson's splendid production of "Richelieu," which is to be seen here on Friday, March 31st. Mr. Nelson has made almost a life-long study of the character of "Richelieu," and his convincing portrayal of the clever, crafty cardinal reveals the student as well as the actor. It is a drama telling a story of absorbing interest, indeed develops in strength as the plot unfolds, until a powerful climax is reached. Mr. Nelson has never before played "Richelieu" under the same favorable circumstances as this season, for his manager, Mr. C. P. Walker, has furnished him with a scenic production of metropolitan completeness. The costuming is both elaborate and historically accurate; indeed, no detail has been overlooked. Those who go to see Mr. Nelson and his well-balanced company in "Richelieu" may confidently anticipate an excellent performance.

W. J. Murphy, the painter, left today for Nelson, where he remains during the summer. His family will reside in this city for the present.

Mr. Harold Nelson will shortly return here with an elaborate revival of his greatest play, "Richelieu." The great French cardinal, as depicted by Mr. Nelson, will long live as one of the dramatic treats of the day.

Dr. Henderson, the veterinary surgeon, has purchased Frank Royer's thoroughbred trotter, Sapolio.

The sixth annual ball of Greenwood Miners' union will be held in Masonic hall, Greenwood, on March 17th.

P. Burns & Co., the meat merchants, are today moving into the old Palace market, on the corner of Bridge and First streets. The building has been repainted and otherwise improved, and it now presents a very attractive appearance.

The local aerie of Eagles is spreading out its wings socially, and has extended an invitation to the Ladies of Maccabees to attend a card party and social next Monday night. The invitation has been accepted, and every effort is being made to make the entertainment a big success.

DOINGS OF THE CITY

Mayor Hammar Receives a Threatening Letter From Unknown Party.

Gateway Lodge Will Entertain Phoenix and Republic Visitors Thursday.

Mayor Hammar last Saturday received an anonymous letter threatening that his property would be burned. The epistle bears a Grand Forks post mark, and is signed "A Friend." The local Sherlock Holmes are endeavoring to ferret out the perpetrator of this outrage, and claim they are making satisfactory progress. If the guilty party is caught, he should be made an example of.

Gateway Lodge No. 45, I.O.O.F., will entertain their visiting brethren from Phoenix and Republic next Thursday night in their hall. A special excursion will be run from Phoenix, the train returning at 1 a.m. The first degree will be exemplified, with a joint team from the three lodges.

Miss Cosgrove, the milliner, has returned from Spokane, and in a few days will have a select stock of the latest spring styles of millinery goods on display at the McLean building, Bridge street.

Mr. Dougal Maginnis, the well known rancher of this city, is reported to have disappeared suddenly from Vancouver last Wednesday afternoon. On the following day he was found at Blaine, on the international boundary, wandering about bareheaded and apparently of unsound mind.

Ottawa still holds the hockey championship of the world, having defeated Rat Portage in two of the three matches played by the scores 4-2 and 5-4, Rat Portage having won the first game by 9-3. The losers have the satisfaction of scoring 15 goals to the winners' 12, only they didn't spread them judiciously. The contests excited considerable interest in Grand Forks, and between $200 and $300 were wagered on the result. Two local hockeyists, one a bookseller and the other a bank clerk, are wearing respectively $25 and $10 smiles these days; while a bookkeeper, who also thinks he is a hockeyist and an all-around sport, has a face 45 dollars long, for that is how much he is reputed to be behind on the game, so to speak. The Sun man candidly confesses he is about 'steen Grand Forks imported perfectos on the result, and is forced to find solace still in the old clay dab.

Three carloads of blister copper were shipped from the Granby smelter to the Nichols refinery in New York last week over the Great Northern railway.

A recent dispatch from Reardan, Wash., states that a party of surveyors for the Kettle Valley line went to the Spokane river from that place last week to continue a survey for the extension of the road from Republic to Spokane. The survey has been made to a point about eight miles below the Reardan bridge on the Spokane river.

A well-attended meeting of Greenwood Typographical Union No. 358, embracing the Boundary district, was held in Phoenix last Saturday evening, when the following officers were elected and installed for the ensuing six months: President, Harry W. Falconer, of Greenwood; Vice-President, Chas. J. Elliott, of Greenwood; Secretary-Treasurer, G. A. Evans (re-elected), of Grand Forks; Sergeant-at-Arms, Brock Hilliard, of Phoenix; Executive and Auditing Committee, Chas. J. Elliott of Greenwood, and W. B. Willcox and Brock Hilliard of Phoenix.

Mr. A. B. W. Hodges' new electric automobile arrived in the city last Saturday, and Mr. Hodges and a party of friends exhibited it to the unsophisticated populace by frequent drives through our dusty thoroughfares. Mr. Hodges acted as chauffeur, while his guests were kept busy in keeping their hats on straight. As far as The Sun knows, the machine is giving general satisfaction, although it doesn't climb 12 per cent grades as easily as its auto.

Mr. Chas. Hay and daughter, Miss Ethel, left yesterday on an extended trip through the Northwest territory. They will visit the Macleod district in Alberta, where Mr. Hay has two sons engaged in ranching.

Dr. Kingston, of this city, made two professional visits to Orient, Wash., last week.

Frank Taylor has been found guilty for the second time at Colville, Wash., of killing B. A. McIntire last July in Bossburg, during a saloon quarrel. McIntire was well known in the Boundary country, having resided in Grand Forks and Greenwood, and was a bicyclist of some local note about five years ago.

J. A. McCallum spent last Sunday in Greenwood and at the Coro-Canadian mine.

Fred Knight returned to Greenwood last Saturday evening.

Wm. Murray, formerly a well-known rancher near this city has returned to Grand Forks, after residing for the past two years in California, and will re-locate here.

Jack Carraher, one of the pioneer ranchers of the valley, has returned to this city from a five months' sojourn in California.

C. E. Lane, head electrician at the Granby smelter, has returned from Phoenix, where he has installed electrical machinery in the Granby mines.

Mrs. J. H. Featherstone, formerly a resident of this city, but now of Spokane, is visiting Mrs. Jeff Davis.

H. A. McGowan, of Danville, and Miss Rochette, of Minneapolis, Minn., were married in Republic last Saturday by Rev. H. W. Ferguson.

STILL IN DOUBT

Provincial Government Is Afraid to Announce Railway Policy.

McBride Will Go to the Country Backed by C. P. R. and G. T. P.?

Nothing definite has been decided upon further regarding the railway policy of the Provincial government, and the news from the coast on this question continues to be of a very hazy nature.

The caucus of Conservative members which met last night was to have given attention to further details of the transportation problem of British Columbia, but this important question to the people of the interior was not touched upon at all.

The most unexpected news comes in a despatch which states that "the Province is to be divided into two preserves for the benefit of the C. P. R. and the G. T. P., and in return these two great corporations are to keep the McBride government in power. The C. P. R. is to be aided with cash bonuses for building feeders between the international boundary line and the 51st parallel. All above the 51st parallel is to be G. T. P. preserve, and the aid for building the railways is to be in the shape of land grants.

"It is framed up that the McBride party will go to the country on this as a policy, and that the two railways will furnish the campaign fund. It is a nice scheme, but it will not work."

Fraser, Shatford, McGowan and Price Ellison are said to be unalterably opposed to the C. P. R. project, but the general impression is that they would not carry their opposition to the length of defeating the government.

In the event of the C. P. R. proposals being adopted, no more will be heard of a coast to Kootenay line for a good many years to come, and as the C. P. R. wants five years in which to commence construction, it is probable that several years would elapse before any start would be made on the construction of the line from Midway to Spence's bridge.

Mrs. M. J. Taylor and daughter, Miss Lily, entertained about fifty of their friends at a very pleasant progressive whist party last night. A choice program of vocal and instrumental music was also rendered, and refreshments were served.

Jack McGill was severely burned at the Granby smelter last Friday by stepping into a slag pot full of molten slag, producing a painful though not dangerous wound. He is recovering rapidly from the effects of his injury.

The theatrical attractions open to those going to Spokane on Thursday's excursion are the Louise Brandt company in "Quo Vadis" at the Auditorium, and Creator and his famous Italian band at the Spokane theatre on Saturday night. The most attractive attractions, however, for those visiting Spokane are not usually advertised in the newspaper—till the next day.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1905.

A carpenters' union in Oakland, Cal., has just refused to admit several Japanese carpenters into their ranks, because they are not voters in the country. In view of the fact that Western labor unions have of late adopted Socialism or have otherwise become partizan political bodies to a great extent, it is proper that citizenship should be an essential of any member belonging to a union with these political objects. And in a border country such as British Columbia, or for that matter in the entire West with its ever floating population, such a step is impractical. It will be remembered that two years ago, when John Riordan ran for the Provincial legislature on the Socialist ticket, and "endorsed by the labor unions," he received only 55 votes in Grand Forks, for the simple reason that most of his supporters were aliens, without votes in Canada, and, therefore, had no claim to a representative in parliament. Workingmen or anyone else of foreign birth who have resided long enough in another country to become citizens of it, and who do not take sufficient interest in that country to take out their naturalization papers, are presuming indeed in seeking to choose its lawmakers. It then comes down to the question whether politics shall be kept out of the unions, or membership shall require citizenship; and of these alternatives the former seems the more satisfactory in order that we may meet and mix with our fellow-men on terms of equality, irrespective of nationality.

The Sun accepts with becoming modesty its regular bouquets of compliments, the last of which was for the publication on Friday last of the long-looked-for railway policy of the Provincial government. We do not spread ourselves a great deal; but what space we do use, we use. We long ago got over trying to print a paper to please everybody, because it cannot be done; and the result is that knocks have reached us just about as frequently as compliments. Such conditions naturally have given us no opportunity for developing a swelled head.

Less than four months ago the Conservative papers of the Boundary very assertively stated that, if elected, Duncan Ross, the Liberal candidate, would not or could not secure any Dominion aid for this district, and that the district didn't need anything anyway. Now these same papers are lauding our member for having secured a customs office for Phoenix and better mail facilities for both Phoenix and Greenwood. Score two for Duncan.

An Ontario farmer offers a good suggestion that the two months' holidays during the summer be shortened in the country districts and given during the winter instead, when the roads are almost impassable, and the father has to hitch up his team to take the children to and from school, or let them wade through the snowdrifts for perhaps three or four miles.

Matters back East seem to run along similar lines to those used out here, for, according to an Ontario paper, there are astonishingly large number of people who appear to think that it is the business of a newspaper to jump in and lambast everything in sight at the request of any modest individual who has not nerve enough to move a hen off her nest.

The once mighty John L. Sullivan is to appear in Spokane on April 10th, and do a turn at a variety theatre there. The Review gives a list of 100 pugilists he vanquished during his career, but does not mention the gent that put John L. out of business, and on the hike, so to speak—Hi' Ball.

It would seem that Canada was well represented at the inauguration of President Roosevelt at Washington a week ago Saturday, for it was a Canadian who led the music and a Canadian who led the rough riders, the two principal features of the affair. These were honors enough for any one day.

The Miners' union of Michel has passed a resolution expressing appreciation of the efforts of those members of the legislature who recently voted for an eight-hour law for smelters in British Columbia; and it is properly in order for other labor unions to get busy and do likewise.

We had half hoped to land as chauffeur of the new automobile; but, judging from the artistic manner in which Superintendent Hodges handles the machine, it looks as if we will have to continue to exert our agility in guiding the destinies of this select family journal instead.

A Spokane minister declared from his pulpit last Sunday that there are 10,000 immoral people in that city. With a 10,000-bunch of sinners running loose in a total population of about 50,000, it's going to keep a lot of people there good and busy proving that they are not "it."

Just for the purpose of proving it was only fine spring weather we have been enjoying the past month, and not the real summer article, a flurry of snow arrived on Saturday night, which lasted just long enough to give Old Sol a couple of good licks at it.

A Hard Task.

"Don't you think you could learn to love me?" he said, looking at her wistfully.

"I'm sure I couldn't," she answered decidedly. "I'm a perfect dunce. When I was at school I never could learn anything."—London Punch.

Synopsis of Regulations Governing the Disposal of Dominion Lands within the Railway Belt in the Province of British Columbia

A LICENSE to cut timber can be acquired only at public competition. A rental of $5 per square mile is charged for all timber berths excepting those situated West of Yale, for which the rental is at the rate of 5 cents per acre per annum.

In addition to the rental, dues at the following rates are charged:—Sawn lumber, 50 cents per thousand feet B.M.

Railway ties, light and nine feet long, 1 1/2 and 1 1/2 cents each. Shingle bolts, 25 cents a cord. All other products, 5 per cent, on the sales.

A license is issued so soon as a berth is granted, but in unurveyed territory no timber can be cut on a berth until the licensee has made a survey thereof.

Permits to cut timber are also granted at public competition, except in the case of actual settlers, who require the timber for their own use.

Settlers and others may also obtain permits to cut up to 100 cords of wood for sale without competition.

The dues payable under a permit are $1.50 per thousand feet B.M., for square timber and sawlogs of any wood except oak; from 1/2 to 1 1/2 cents per lineal foot for building logs; from 12 1/2 to 25 cents per cord for wood; 1 cent for fence posts; 3 cents for railway ties; and 50 cents per cord on shingle bolts.

Lease for grazing purposes are issued for a term of twenty-one years at a rental of two cents an acre per annum.

Coal lands may be purchased at $10 per acre for soft coal and $20 for anthracite. Not more than 320 acres may be acquired by one individual or company.

Royalty at the rate of 10 cents per ton of 2,000 pounds is collected on the gross output. Entries for land for agricultural purposes may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, the Commissioner of Immigration at Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district within which the land is situated, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.

A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry. A settler who has received an entry for a homestead, is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:—

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land to each year during the term of three years.

It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

(2) If father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of the Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such persons as a homestead, the requirements of the Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of the Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for a patent should be made at the end of three years before the local agent, sub-agent or a homestead inspector.

Before making an application for a patent, the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, with his intention to do so.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior,
Ottawa, February 4th, 1905.

WHY GO EAST

Over the sun-burned, sage brush and alkali plains, when you may just as well take a delightful, cool and comfortable ride through the heart of the Rocky Mountains in view of the grandest scenery on the American continent?

This you can do by traveling on, the Rio Grande system, the far-famed "Scenic Line of the World," the only transcontinental line passing through Salt Lake City, Glenwood Springs, Leadville, Colorado Springs and Denver enroute to eastern points.

Three daily express trains make close connections with all trains east and west, and afford a choice of five distinct routes of travel. The equipment of these trains is the best, including free reclining chair cars, standard and tourist sleepers, a perfect dining car service, and also personally conducted excursion cars, each in charge of a competent guide, whose business is to look after the comfort of his guests. No more pleasant and inexpensive means of crossing the continent can be found than is provided by these excursions.

For additional details address J. D. Mansfield, Gen. Agt., Rio Grande Lines, No. 124 Third Street, Portland, Ore.

FOR NELSON'S CENTENARY.

A Great Fund of One Million Shillings Is to Be Raised.

Of all the names on England's roll of fame none stands higher in the popular estimation than that of Nelson; and the centenary, of his death which falls to be commemorated next year will undoubtedly evoke a strong outburst of admiration for the great naval hero, of whom Tennyson sang:

Thine Island loves thee well, the famous man,
The greatest sailor since the world began.

To mark the occasion the directors of the British and Foreign Sailors' Society have resolved to appeal to the English-speaking public throughout the world for assistance in raising not less than a one million shilling memorial fund, which Mr. John Cory, president of the society, will inaugurate with a gift of five thousand shillings. One notable feature of the scheme is the distribution of Victory souvenirs to subscribers.

Many of the old naval ships have necessarily been broken up, and many persons feared H.M.S. Victory, after her recent accident, would follow her unfortunate consort; but the King is credited with having commanded that she should be preserved as the one floating monument of the heroic past. The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty gave to the above society the whole of the old material taken from H.M.S. Victory. The society has also secured the whole of the remaining copper, weighing several tons, left from Nelson's flagship, the Foudroyant, wrecked in 1807, and will therefore be in a position to present some million Nelson Victory souvenirs to the boys and girls of the Empire.

The Royal Albert Hall is secured, and other suitable centres will be taken both in India, the colonies, as well as in the British Isles, for a great Nelson celebration, at which the presentations will be made simultaneously on October 21, 1905. It is felt the souvenir, which can be worn if desired, will be the more appreciated if the recipient makes a little self-denial from the pocket exchequer or collects in the home circle of relations and friends not less than 5s. for the Nelson Centenary Fund.

Suitable mementoes of the centenary will also be awarded to all subscribers of smaller amounts above one shilling.

Every town giving £50 and upwards through its mayor or provost will receive a piece of oak from the Victory, with a suitably inscribed brass plate, for town hall, museum, or reading room, and any public school giving the same amount will receive a like memento.

The following are some of the objects for which the fund is to be raised:

Nelson free beds in connection with Jack's Palace.

Nelson free scholarships to assist naval reserve men to rise in the profession.

Nelson endowment and extension of Jack's Palace.

Nelson reading rooms in various parts.

Nelson sailor's rest in King's Lynn, close to his birthplace.

Nelson memorial in Malta.

Nelson award for heroism.

Learning to Stay Dead.

"The old fashioned villain appears to be disappearing from the plays."
"Perhaps the hero has killed him so often that he finds it harder to come to life."
