EVENTS IN THE CITY

Voting for Queen of the Carnival Now in Full Swing.

A False Alarm Gives the Department a Genuine Run.

It is pleasing to note the rapidly increasing interest displayed in the coming carnival. The voting for voting for her majesty the queen is growing warmer each hour, but as yet it is impossible to form the shadow of a surmise as to which of the fair contestants will be chosen. In order to meet the requirements of neighborings towns on the voting question, the carnival directors have decided to extend the time of voting till August 20th. Each town is at liberty to nominate as many candidates for queen as they choose, but each vote stands independent of the other. The candidates now in nomination are as follows: Miss Rose Hoffman, Miss Valdea Duford, Grand Forks; Miss Annie Pierce, Phoenix; Miss Burcell, Rossland. Nelson and Greenwood are yet to be heard from. The material for the magnificent entrance is all in readiness to be placed on the grounds, and a small army of mechanics will begin to erect the structure today. Another pleasing feature of the administration is the issuing of season tickets, which are now on sale, the price being 50 cents, admitting you as often as you like during the carnival for the entire four days. These tickets can be purchased at Woodlann's drug store. Season tickets will remain on sale till August 23rd. The directors have gone to considerable expense in obtaining from Spokane the services of a skilled modiste, who is take charge of the correct costuming of the lady who may be chosen queen.

A false alarm of fire created a great deal of excitement on the streets yesterday evening for a few minutes. The rumor that the courthouse was on fire spread rapidly, and a dense crowd started in that direction. When the department reached the corner of Winnipeg and Second, a courier from the conflagration brought the intelligence that the blaze was a bonfire in Geo. D. Clark's back yard.

Mayor Hammar left this morning for a well deserved vacation trip to Loon Lake, Wash. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hammar and the children. They will spend a month's outing at the popular Washington resort.

Mrs. G. W. Wooster and family have returned from a pleasant visit to relatives in Illinois and Kansas City. They also visited the World's Fair in St. Louis.

C. A. DesBrisay, Great Northern right of way agent, is in the city today.

H. E. Irwin and H. S. Cane, of Newmarket, Ont., and Geo. Fraser, M.P.P., returned yesterday from the west fork of the North Fork, where they inspected timber limits owned by a Grand Forks syndicate. They were well pleased with their trip. Negotiations are now pending looking to the transfer of Lequim's sawmill to Messrs. Irwin and Cane.

The Catholic Social club will have a grand opening of their new hall, near the Catholic church, on Thursday evening, August 11. Ice cream and refreshments will be served from 7 till 10 o'clock, and games of amusements will be indulged in. Everybody is invited to attend.

The baseball game between the two Granby clubs, in Phoenix last Sunday, resulted in a disastrous defeat for the smelter boys—something like 17 to 4.

J. Burtt Morgan returned from the coast last Friday, and left for Chilliwack this afternoon. Mr. Morgan is now general manager of the Chilliwack Power & Light Co., Ltd., recently incorporated for the purpose of harnessing the Chilliwack river. Mr. Morgan says there is a big local demand for power to operate the various industries in the town and the numerous creameries that dot the ranches of the surrounding country. The company expects to develop sufficient power before long to operate a tram line between Chilliwack and New Westminster, a distance of 50 miles. A by-law has just been passed by the Chilliwack council granting the company a twenty-five years' franchise, with the privilege of renewal for ten years more. The by-law also grants the company the exclusive right of erecting pole lines and operating trams within the municipality for lwenty year, and the exclusive telephone right for ten years. The company has been granted exemption from taxation for ten years.

Uncle Joe Thatcher, of the Club, will give a recherche dinner to three of his mundane friends and the man from the centre of the planetary system on Wednesday evening. Look out for wild west stories in our next issue.

The Republic Eagles will hold their annual picnic at Curlew lake next Sunday. Excursion trains will also be run from this city.

L. A. Manly, Mrs. Manly and daughter Norma are visiting in Coleman, Alta., this week.

A large crowd gathered at the Union hotel last Saturday night to witness the six-round boxing exhibition between Australian Jack Turner, 128-pound champion, and Geo. Conway, champion 115-pound colored boxer of Philadelphia. Mr. McLaughlin acted as referee, The contest was a scientific exhibition of the manly art, and both men were very clever with their fists. As the fight was only a sort of friendly display of prowess, no knock-out blows were delivered. It is probable that a match will be arranged between Turner and a Coeur d'Alene boxer, to be pulled off in this city during the carnival.

Geo. A. MacLeod, of the McKinley mine, and W. H. Warrington, of the Kettle Valley lines, went up to Franklin camp yesterday.

NEWS OF THE MINES

Boundary Falls Smelter Will Blow In Within Thirty Days.

Betts and Hesperus Officials Inspect the Hardy Mountain Property.

H. Pemberton, manager of the Montreal & Boston smelter at Boundary Falls, was in the city last Saturday. He stated that the smelter would positively resume operations within thirty days.

* * *

C. J. Magee, president, and M. S. Mossler, vice-president of the Betts & Hesperus Mining company, accompanied by W. M. Thornton, H. H. Bishop and John Claney, all of Chicago, arrived in the city a couple of days ago. The party inspected the Betts & Hesperus property on Hardy mountain Saturday. The officials expressed themselves as well pleased at the progress of the work now being carried on there, and at the improved quality of the ore body. The visitors, accompanied by Manager Bert Rae, left yesterday for Phoenix, Greenwood and other camps for the purpose of inspecting the big mines of the Bounday. Mr. Thornton was formerly a partner of Marcus Daly in the banking business in Anaconda, Mont., and Messrs. Bishop and Claney are prominent lumber merchants of Chicago.

* * *

Alex Miller came down from Greenwood yesterday. He reports the Helena and Barbara as looking better than ever.

* * *

Dr. Averill has been up at his Minnie claim in Summit camp during the past week. He says the property is looking exceedingly well, and expects to commence shipping ore before long.

* * *

On the Emma, the banner claim of Summit camp, about ten men are at work at present. The ore is being shipped to the Greenwood smelter. About 600 feet of diamond drill work has been completed on the claim. The machine drills are at present being driven by compressed air, the Denoro plant being utilized for the purpose.

* * *

Air for the work of the Emma mine, Summit camp, is now being furnished by the Oro Denoro. The latter has a few men at work, and is shipping some ore.

* * *

Mark F. Madden, president of the Providence Mining company, arrived in Greenwood last week. Mr. Madden is making his regular trip into the Boundary looking after his mining interests here. He is accompanied by J. B. Heeney and M. S. Hyland, both capitalists of Chicago. Mr. Heeney is a stockholder in the Providence, but had never seen the property, his investments having been made on Mr. Madden's recommendation. Mr. Heeney is president of the E. Baggot company, the largest plumbing establishment on earth. Both gentlemen were much pleased with the appearance of the Providence and the camp generally.

* * *

A car of ore was shipped from the Mountain Rose claim to the Greenwood smelter last week. This property adjoins the Denoro on the north, and is being exploited by J. J. Campbell of Nelson.

* * *

A large body of magnetic iron ore has been opened up in one of the glory holes of the Mother Lode mine within the last week.

* * *

Only a few men are at present at work on the Denoro. The Great Northern is doing some heavy rock work on the claim, and it is expected that some important developments will ensue. This makes cheap mining.

The City Council

The city council held its regular weekly meeting in the council chamber yesterday evening. Mayor Hammar. Ald. Clements, Feeney, McCallum, Martin and McNee were present.

A communication was received from the secretary of the school board and P. T. McCallum in regard to opening up the street south of the school. After considerable discussion the matter was laid on the table.

On motion of Ald. Clements and Feeney, the clerk was instructed to notify the board of school trustees that before any action is taken towards building a fence around the school property that an estimate of the cost thereof be furnished the council for consideration, as the estimate already allowed exceed the levy for school purposes.

The usual dumber of accounts, including a $700 grant to the Grand Forks Driving Park and Athletic association, were ordered paid.

Tenders for the construction of a drain were opened, as follows: M. H. Burns, 64c per foot and $1.50 for each branch; H. B. Cannon, 59c per foot, branches included; Geo. Pound, 50c per foot, $2 for branches over four; John A. McMillan, 50c per foot, branches included; J. W. Wilson, 60c per foot, including branches. On motion of Ald. Clements and McNee, the tenders were laid on the table.

The chairman of the police commissioners reported that the commissioners had considered it necessary to engage a police officer for the West ward, and recommended that a salary of $75 per month be paid him from the first day of August. On motion of Ald. Clements and Martin, the report was adopted.

The chairman also recommended that authority be given the police commissioners to have a ten-foot high fence constructed on a line with the alleys running parallel with Main street, from Second to Third streets. On motion of Ald. McCallum and Feeney, the report was adopted.

On motion of Ald. Freeney and Clements, the mayor's remuneration by-law for 1904 was reconsidered and finally passed.

J. Barron, traveling correspondent of the Denver Mining Reporter, who is making a tour of Boundary camps, is in the city.

Heavy teaming of all kinds done by J. W. Jones.

IN A CITY BANK

That's Where the Much-Discussed Licenses Are Now Lodged

And the Grand Forks Locators Can Now Dig for Coal and Bore for Oil.

Messrs. John McIntosh and Andrew Hackett returned to the city Sunday evening from Victoria. He brought back with him the fifty-six licenses permitting the Grand Forks coal barons to prospect for coal and oil in Southeast Kootenay. The licences were deposited in the Royal bank yesterday, and a special guard was placed over the safe.

Mr. McIntosh, when seen by THE SUN man last night, felt highly elated over the successful termination of his mission to the capital. He stated that he had also brought back with him the licenses for the Spokane syndicate.

Mr. McIntosh intimated that intimated that ihside of ten or fifteen days there would be capitalists in Grand Forks looking for Southeast Kootenay coal lands.

Mr. McIntosh will leave for Spokane today or tomorrow.

CITY NEWS

The C. P. R. is keeping right on making improvments in this city, notwithstanding the prospects of more strenuous competition in the near future. The latest addition to the equipment is an up-to-date stock yard near the station, large enough to hold six carloads of cattle and a few cow-punchers, and supplied with feeding racks, etc.

Arthur E. Rainey is indiposed and confined to his room. Dr. Northrop is in attendance.

Arthur S. Williamson left Phoenix last week on a long vacation trip to the old country. While away he will visit his old home at Lerwick, Shetland islands, Scotland, as well well as Paris, London and other places. It is twelve years since Mr. Williamson left his native heath, and he expects to be absent about two months. He has been employed in the grocery department of the Phoenix branch of the Hunter-Kendrick company for nearly five years. Mr. Williamson had for a traveling companion William Hanna, formerly shift boss at the Granby mines, who went to visit his old English home at Barrow in Furness. It is said that an interesting event will occur there when Mr. Hanna arrives. They sail from Montreal on she 12th inst., on the steamer Bavarian, direct for Liverpool.

Mrs. A. B. W. Hodges and daughters, Misses Marion and Daisy, left yesterday for the World's Fair in St. Louis.

Supt. A. B. W. Hodges, of the Granby Consolidated, went up to Phoenix yesterday.

Nicely furnished rooms, with or without board, at the Winnipeg hotel.

Port Arthur will never fall. It is getting too much free advertising.

It is rumored that Messrs. McIntosh and Hackett will have coal to burn next winter.

Everybody in Grand Forks interested in East Kootenay coal is, of course, grateful for the coal licenses, and their fireplaces will undoubtedly be in the same condition next winter.

The perversity of things is aptly illustrated by the fact that the coal and oil licenses reached Grand Forks just when the people were sighing for perpetual licenses to prospect for snow and ice.

We believe it was Lincoln who said that you can't fool all the people all the time. But the Ottawa government appears to be doing the fooling business anent the general elections pretty successfully.

SUNSET SAUNTERINGS

George Clark and Dr. C. M. Kingston spent last Sunday at Christina lake.

W. A. Coplen, superintendent of the mining department of the Spokane Interstate fair, which opens October 3, returned to Spokane last Friday, after spending a day in this city. The mining department this year will make awards on the best mineral exhibits in the various branches. This will be pleasing to exhibitors who have wished for something of this kind for several years. The nature of these awards has not been determined, but Mr. Coplen has already chosen for judges two of the best men who could be secured for this work. C. M. Fassett, the assayer of Spokane, is one of these. L. K. Armstrong, publsher of Mining, is the other. Both of these are thoroughly conversant with the mining resources of every district in the northwest. Their judgment is reliable and their awards will be respected by all mining men. A third judge will be secured.

You are cordially invited to attend Prof. Hepburn's assembly Friday evening. This one closes his term. Ladies free. Mr. Hepburn will organize another term of twelve lessons, one to be given every Tuesday evening, with a dance to follow at the close of the lesson. Join now and get the full benefit of the entire course. Gentlemen $10, ladies $6. A private lesson will be given to those who are unavoidably absent from the class.

A number of complaints have recently reached this office against people who allow their stock to run at large. Yesterday T. Dudley, who lives just off Winnipeg avenue, had a fine cherry tree ruined by a horse that should have been engaged in a more profitable occupation. A few more fines might check this nuisance.

MAN'S MOST CRITICAL AGE

Very often the vital resources are small at forty-two, but if not then, between fifty-seven and sixty-two years of age there is a strange slowing down and loss of vitality. It is important that the transient period of decay should be checked; strength must be imparted to the tired brain; the weakened nerves must be fortified. The wise man will use Ferrozone, whose potency is particularly applicable to these critical periods. Ferrozone quickens the whole being, imparts vigor and power, pushes back the onset of senility in a very manifest way. It's because Ferrozone gives strength, vitality and vigor that it is useful to old men. Try it. Price 50c. H. E. Woodland, druggist.

Lincoln, even as a young man, was always ready and resourceful on the platform. In the new book, Lincoln in Story, it is related that in 1836 Lincoln made a telling speech in an election campaign for the State Legislature of Illinois. George Forquer, an old and respected citizen, who had changed his party, and almost simultaneously had been appointed to a fat office by his new friends, was present. Just at this time Mr. Forquer had completed the finest house in Springfield and over it erected a lightning-rod, the first in that region. At the conclusion of Lincoln's speech, Forquer took it upon himself to reply, commencing thus: "This young man will have to be taken down, and I am sorry the task devolves upon me." He then proceeded to answer Lincoln's argument in an able and fair but patronizing manner. At length Forquer ended and Lincoln had the floor to reply. "The gentleman has seen fit," said he, "to allude to my being a young man, but he forgets that I am older in years than in the tricks and trades of politicians. I desire long life and I desire place and distinction, but I would rather die now than, like the gentleman, live to see the day that I would change my politics for an office worth $3,000 a year and then feel compelled to erect a lightning-rod to protect a guilty conscience from an offended God."

Of Miss "Bee" Drew, John Drew's daughter, it is said that one day in her childhood she asked her father how often a certain paper, "The Daily ——," appeared. "The paper is called the 'Daily,' isn't it?" Mr. Drew asked. "Yes," said the young girl. "Then mustn't it of necessity appear every day?" "I don't quite see that," said Miss Drew. "It is plain enough. Why don't you see it?" her father asked. "Because," she answered, "if 'The Daily ——' must appear every day, then 'The Century' must appear every century."

First Farmer—Blessed if I think the agricultural department is any good at all.

Second Farmer—What's the trouble?

First Farmer—Well, I wrote to 'em to find out how high wheat was goin' up to, an' I couldn't git no satisfaction at all.—"Tit-Bits."

Once, when the late Bishop of Canterbury, who was an almost fanatical advocate of the temperance movement, was Bishop of Exeter, he travelled some distance into the country to attend an agricultural function. On his return, his rest was disturbed by a newsboy shouting, "Remarkable statement by the Bishop of Exeter!" To gratify his curiosity, he despatched a servant to purchase the paper. This was found to contain his morning's address, but over his remark—jocosely made, of course—"I have never been drunk in my life," the sub-editor had placed the bold cross head, "Remarkable Statement by the Bishop of Exeter!"

On one occasion when Mr. John M Dunlop, now a prominent official of a large banking institution in Montreal, was crossing the Atlantic, a noted punster was exhibiting his skill in the smoker by making puns from the names of his fellow-passengers. A discussion arose, and the punster declared his ability to squeeze a pun from the name of anyone on the ship. "Wait a bit," exclaimed Dunlop, "I'll wager you the smokes that you can't work it on my name." Quick as a flash came the response: "Oh! that's easy; just 'lop' off the last three letters and it's 'dun.' Dunlop bought for the crowd.

A Small Favor.

Farmer (to lady)—Have you seen my bull? Lady—Mercy no! Where is he? Farmer—He got loose. And if you should see him, will you please keep on that red coat and run this way?—"Life."

True Enough.

Forks—That's a queer sign for a barber—"Hair cut while you wait."

The equipment of these trains is the best, including free reclining chair cars, standard and tourist sleepers, a perfect dining car service, and also personally conducted excursion cars, each in charge of a competent guide, whose business is to look after the comfort of his guests. No more pleasant and inexpensive means of crossing the continent can be found than is provided by these excursions.

Old Age.

PROFESSOR JOWETT, the great master of Balliol College, had wise words to speak on the crucial topic of growing old. He wrote to a friend:

"The later years of life appear to me, from a certain point of view, to be the best. They are less disturbed by care and the world; we begin to understand that things really never did matter so much as we supposed, and we are able to see them more in their true proportion, instead of being overwhelmed by them. We are more resigned to the will of God, neither afraid to depart nor overanxious to stay. We cannot see into another life, but we believe, with an inextinguishable hope, that there is something still reserved for us."

It is worth while to remember his hints for old age, full, as they are, of a practical wisdom:

Beware of the coming on of age, for it will not be defied.

A man cannot become young by over-exerting himself.

A man of sixty should lead a quiet, open-air life.

He should collect the young about him.

He should set other men to work.

He ought, at sixty, to have acquired authority, reticence and freedom from personality.

He may truly think of the last years of life as being the best, and every year as better than the last, if he knows how to use it.

The Upheaval of the Celt.

Someone has been yelling forth the virtues of the Celt. The upheaval of the Celt is a periodic event, and is in some way distantly related to the Australian drought cycles and the spots on the sun. Personally (says a writer in an Australian paper) I have always found that you can make a fast friend and sworn ally of the Celt by simply remarking in an affable manner, "Good night, Sergeant!" The Celtic chest swells immediately, there is a more dignified atmosphere about the movements of his hind legs; and after passing that remark three nights running you are free to commit any crime in the calendar—murder, arson, abduction; anything, in fact, but the crime of tearing "me uniform." Yes, the Celt is a very fine fellow as long as you address him as "Sergeant"—unless he is a sergeant—then I am always careful to address him as "Inspector." That, however, has to be done with discretion—if done too often or too suddenly the Celt is liable to burst.

CATARRH IS CERTAINLY CURABLE

In fact it is one of the most curable diseases if fragrant, healing Catarrhozone is used. No matter how long you have suffered with catarrh you can be perfectly cured by inhaling the antiseptic vapor of Catarrhozone, which strikes at the foundation of the trouble and establishes such a healthy condition in the system that catarrhal germs simply can't exist. "I suffered from catarrh of the nose and throat for years," writes S. H. Downie of Plattsville. "My nostrils were always stuffed up and I had a most disagreeable hacking cough. Catarrhozone cured me completely," Catarrhozone never fails. Two months' treatment $1.00, trial size 25c. H. E. Woodland, druggist.

THE TORONTO

DAILY NEWS

AND THE

GRAND FORKS SUN

..FOR ONLY...

$2.25 a Year

A radical change from old methods and prices has been made by the Toronto Daily News. The eyes of the newspvper world have been upon The News for the past few months, during which time several departures have been made which have given that paper a widespread reputation for enterprise and originality. This latest move is to place The News at the price of $1.00 a year by mail. Only a deep-founded belief in the future success of The News could lead the publishers to make such a reduction in price. But just as the dollar magazine has taken hold of the people, so, we venture to predict, The News will secure a vast and ever-increasing circulation, based not only on the popular price at which it is sold, but mainly upon the intrinsic merits of he paper.

We have arrangements concluded which enables us to club the Toronto News with our own paper at $2.25 a year in advance. Such a combination presents many unique features —our semi-weekly giving you all the home and district news, and the big 12-page daily keeping you in touch with events all over the world. Send us your subscription to The News, or if you would like to see the paper first, write us and we will secure a sample copy.
