Heavy Apple Orders From Old Country

VERNON.—The June drop of apples has been very heavy in the Okanagan, and it is growing apparent that the crop will be lighter than originally estimated.

Firm orders to the old country are surprisingly heavy between 250 and 300 cars having been reported sold to the old countr. Jonathans, Macs, Newtons, Delicious, are the varieties. Macs and Jonathans sold about $1.60, with the other varieties slightly higher the basis being extra fancy.

Mixed car movement of fruits and vegetables, now about a week old, is not showing any rapid increase.

Shipping houses state that some days six cars have gone out and that on others the movement has shrunk to as low as one car.

The cars are made up mostly of lettuce, but contain in addition early cabbage, green peas bunched beets, carrots, turnips, some hothouse and a few crates of field ripened tomatoes. Cucumbers and cherries are also beginning to move.

There is an opinion in the trade that some of the early cherries would be better left on the trees until there is more to them than stones and a dash of color. When they are offered on the markets in competition with Washington Royal Annes and Bings, they elicit unfavorable comment, but so long as one shipper will move them the others can not hold back.

There is a slowing up of the movement of lettuce for two reasons. One is that the prairie centers have supplies produced at home. The other is that the rainy weather is not so good for lettuce. The movement is now mostly in mixed rather than in straight cars.

Early potatoes from the interior are expected to move between July 4 and 6. Already the coast shippers have worked the edge off the demand. The price opened at $60 per ton and, without competition from the United States, the coast shippers warred among themselves until the price has gone to $44. By the time the crop is ready here it may have reached $30. There has been no valid reason for the terrific drop.

It is becoming apparent that the apple crop will be lighter than first estimates. The June drop is very heavy.

Appriots will be ready about July 1 and will begin with an express movement out of Osoyoos and Oliver. It will reach volumes about July 15. The quality and size is excellent, and there will be about the same quantity as one year ago.

Peaches will be in greater quantity than last year and are of splendid appearance.

Ravages by onion maggots are now apparent. The opinion grows that the crop, barring accidents, will be 15 to 20 per cent heavier than last year.

Minister of Mines Speaks In the City

Wednesday evening, H. W. A. McKenzie, provincial minister of mines, addressed an audience in the Bonthron block in this city on the financial situation of British Columbia.

To start with, Dr. Kingston, member for Grand Forks-Greenwood, was called on for a speech. He complimented giving a brief outline of many things which he claimed were of benefit to the public. He also said that the government had made mistakes in some ways. He would also like to see if both the old parties could work together and improve the government, if possible.

Mr. McKenzie was the next speaker. He noted that this was the first time he had addressed a Grand Forks audience. He urged the people to buy British Columbia products, and thus keep British Columbia money at home.

The coal mining industry was slack in the province because the people wouldn't buy their own coal, thus causing many of the mines not to employ as many men as they should.

In placer mining the government issued a license so that miners could get placer mines for nothing. It was intended to encourage the industry in the industry in this manner and also to give idle men employment.

To eliminate "extravagance," government bulletins, instead of being sent out by mail, they were shipped by freight to Vancouver, and the people there had to call for them if they wanted them.

The cry had been raised that the government had too much machinery. The speaker claimed that the biggest part of the machinery belonged to contractors and not to the province.

The unemployment question had been the greatest problem, but, according to the speaker, it had been handled satisfactorily by the government.

Contracts, when advertised for, must go to the best bid, irrespective of politics. Mr. McKenzie is not the first man who has made this statement.

Mr. McKenzie informed the audience that the lumber industry in British Columbia was in a very poor condition at present. The Conservative executive met after the meeting. Not much business was transacted.

Beating Eggs

When beating the whites of eggs, break them into a plate that has been rinsed with cold water, but not dried. Add a pinch of salt. While whipping, stand by a window or an open door. The whites will stiffen quickly.

No man is hurt but by himself.—Dlogenes.

White Goods

White goods can be bleached by washing in the usual way and then soaking over night in one half gallon of clear water, to which is added two teaspoonfuls cream of tartar.

SMALL FRUITS SURVEY

Strawberries, 4% acres; raspberries, 7% acres; red currants 1% acre; black currants, 6% acres; gooseberries, 1 acre.

TRAIL ORBITERATED.

The trail left by the missing woman indicated that she had started in the direction of Indian River. Signs of her camp were found by searchers on their first trip, but heavy snowfalls had obliterated these when the second search occurred.

Persons familiar with the area in which the woman was lost declared at the time there she could not survive. She carried only a silk tent and two weeks provisions in concentrated form.

CHIRPINGS FROM ROCK CREEK AND DISTRICT

(From The Sun's Correspondent) Mr. and Mrs. Larsen of Riversdale received word last Friday that Mrs. Larsen's daughter, Mrs. Peterson of Seattle had passed away on Sunday. She had been operated on in the Harbor View hospital and was getting along nicely and expected shortly to leave for her home, when the end came very suddenly of an acute heart attack. Mr. and Mrs. Larsen motored to Seattle on Monday. The funeral took place on Wednesday. She leaves to mourn her loss, her mother, two sons and two daughters and one brother, Henry Davis, all of whom have the sympathy of the whole district. The late Mrs. Peterson stayed as a guest with her mother last summer at the Riverside hotel for two months and made many friends while here, and she seemed to have greatly benefited by the visit. Little Bobbie Peterson, who was the guest of his grandmother for the summer holidays, was the youngest child of Mrs. Elsie Peterson.

Mrs. Eric Jackson of Trail and Miss Gladys Jackson of Midway were visitors to Kettle Valley on a visit to see friends on Friday.

George Johnson of Rock Creek was married to Miss Emery of Westbridge on Sunday, June 27, at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Shaw of Greppanier Beach, Summerland. The bride and bridegroom will take a month's honeymoon trip to see the principal coast cities. On returning, they will take up their residence on Mr. Johnson's farm near Rock Creek. The people of Rock Creek extend to them many congratulations on their marriage, and wish them long life and much happiness.

The town of Molson, Wash., was visited by a most disastrous fire on Saturday morning. The big grain elevator and the Farmers' warehouse were burned to the ground. Both buildings were situated on the Great Northern railway track. The elevator was partly filled with grain and its great loss. Luckily the town was saved. Had the wind changed nothing could have saved it.

Frank Burdick of upper Rock Creek came into town on Saturday and was among the numerous residents who attended a ratepayers' meeting which was held in the Institute hall.

Andy Johnson of near Bridesville motored down to Rock Creek on Saturday to hear the discussion at the school meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Larsen motored to Osoyoos on Tuesday morning and brought home some fine cherries; so now there will be delicious cherry pie on the menu of the Riverside hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Porter of the Myncaster district were visitors to town on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McLennan of Johnson creek motored down to Rock Creek on Saturday, where Mrs. McLennan attended an Institute meeting.

Allen Eddy of the Bridesville district came down from the mountain on Saturday evening to attend the school meeting.

Charles Bek of the Myncaster district, was seen in town with some of his neighbors on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pitman of Rock mountain, with their son, motored to Rock Creek to attend the Institute meeting on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Courtenay of Bridesville motored to Rock Creek on a business trip Monday.

Bryan Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wilson of upper Rock Creek, with Jerry Harper of the Myncaster route, motored up the Kettle river on Monday to see if it was possible to catch some fine big trout from some of the lakes and rivers up there.

Mrs. S. T. Larsen of the Riverside hotel has got her son, Henry Davis of Seattle, visiting her for a few months. As a boy, he was brought up and attended school at Midway, where he has yet many old school chums. His father owned a ranch near Midway. Mrs. Larsen is also fortunate in having him visiting with her at this time of the year, as he is a first class chef, having been chef and worked on the Great Northern railway dining Pullman cars for several years, so that he could manage the hotel cuisine, if necessary, for a few days when the rush of the sea-

Rev. Robertson Dies in Pulpit at Coast

Rev. J. R. Robertson, B.A., B.D., one of the pastors of Knox Presbyterian church in this city, collapsed and died immediately as he was bringing to a close his farewell sermon Sunday morning as pastor of St. James' United church, in Vancouver. He was preaching from the text:

"Thou art Christ, the son of the living God."

Mr. Robertson was asking his congregation to give to the new minister the same friendship and cooperation that they had given to him, when the attack came. His voice weakened. He swayed, then fell to the floor.

For an instant the congregation sat stunned, then there was a rush to help the fallen pastor, Norman Robertson, his son, was the first to reach him, followed by members of the choir, but even in that short time he had passed beyond human aid.

Rev. Mr. Robertson was to have filled an appointment; to preach at the United church, Salt Spring Island.

Born at Coldspring, Ont., 60 years ago, Mr. Robertson was highly educated and had gained a high place in the Presbyterian church before union. He won his bachelor of arts degree in Manitoba university and bachelor of divinity degree in Manitoba college.

In 1899 he was ordained and came immediately to British Columbia, where he had pastorates in Grand Forks, Revelstoke, Nanaimo, Victoria and in Vancouver at Windsor United and St. James' church.

By the time church union was effected, Mr. Robertson had held practically every office possible, including that of president of the Synod of British Columbia.

After union, Mr. Robertson was similarly honored by being elected to many of the same offices he had held in the Presbyterian organization and was secretary of the international theological conference, which met on Tuesday at Victoria. He was chairman of the home mission committee and served on the board of directors of the Burnaby girls' home.

In 1901, in Victoria, Mr. Robertson married Christina Muir, native daughter of British Columbia. Besides his wife, he leaves three children, Margery Grace, Jean Frances and J. Norman Robertson.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Canadian Memorial church, the body lying in state there from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Rev. W. B. Williams, chairman of Vancouver Presbytery, officiated, assisted by Rev. G. O. Fallis, president of British Columbia conference; Dr. J. S. Henderson, Rev. W. H. Smith, Rev. A. E. Mitchell and Rev. J. H. Muldrew.

The pallbearers were Rev. F. E. Runnalls, Rev. Samuel Smith, Rev. E. D. Braden, Harry Smart, Cliff Urquhart and H. Purdy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Johnson of the main Kettle river came in to town on Saturday to see what was going to be decided on at the meeting in regard to the taxpayers.

Jim Lindsay of the Myncaster route was a Saturday visitor to see how things were going on in the old placer mining camp of Rock Creek.

Across Canada and Back

A three week tour of Canada by Canadian Pacific train de luxe from Montreal and Toronto to Victoria and return by two routes touching at the major cities and beauty spots of the centre and west of Canada is again being brought to the attention of Canadians and others by an announcement recently issued by Dean Sinclair Laird of MacDonald College, who for the last six years has personally conducted these tours. The outward run takes in the northern shore of Lakes Huron and Superior to Port Arthur and passes thence through Winnipeg, Regina, Moose Jaw, Calgary, Banff, Windermere, Nelson, Penticton, Vancouver and Victoria. A hundred miles of this trip between Banff and Windermere is by automobile through some of the most magnificent scenery in the world. Health Service OF THE Canadian Medical Association Edited by GRANT FLEMING, M.D., ASSOCIATE SECRETARY

TYPHOID CARRIERS typhoid fever. It is because this danger is a very grave one and because outbreaks of the disease keep occurring which are traced to carriers, that health departments, as part of their service for the protection of the public against disease, keep known carriers under supervision. The carrier state may be intermittent, that is, the germs are only passed out at intervals. The condition may persist for years during which time the carrier continues to be a possible source of the disease. There is no certain way to rid the carrier of the germs which he harbors. Typhoid fever has been brought under reasonable control where water, milk and food supplies are safeguarded. It seems possible that this disease may be eradicated if, in addition to these measures, carriers are controlled. It is obvious that the health department is justified in supervising carriers and forbidding them to engage in any occupation which has to do with the preparation of foods. This type of activity of health departments needs to be better understood by the public as essential to the protection of the public, so that the public will cooperate with health departments in their service. Questions concerning health, addressed to the Canadian Medical Association, 184 College Street, Toronto, will be answered personally by letter.

In Other Words Doris used to embarrass her mother every time she called on her friend by asking for something to eat. She was requested not to do so again. The next time they called on that friend, just before lunch time, Doris piped up: "Mrs. Smith are you hungry?" "No, Doris," answered the hostess. "I'm not hungry."

Obeyed to the Letter "Now," said mother to Frank, "if they pass the cake a second time, you must say, 'No, thanks, I've had my fill, and don't you forget it.'"

Conscientious Yegg Sty-Eyed Stymie—Gus sure is a conscientious guy—he just returned $2,000 that he had stolen from the bank. Beary Blarney—What's the grand idea?

When Words Fall Son—What does the word "chauffeur" mean? Father—That is the name given to the driver of a motor car.

Each to His Own Husband—Would you like to go to the movies tonight, dear? Wife—I'd love to, darling. Husband—Right! I'll go to the club.

Only Way to Get It Saphead—I say, Gwendie, what would I have to give for just one little kiss? Gwendie—Chloroform.

Chance to Make Good "Hello, is this the Better Business Bureau?" "Yes." "Well, how'd you like to come down and make ours a little better?"

Going It Mother—I'm afraid Robert is burning the candle at both ends. Father—Huh! That boy has cut the candle in two and lit up all four ends.

Two Charwomen Chat "One thing, Mrs. Waggs, my husband will never go to jail for embezzling money." "How do you know, Mrs. Taggs?" "Nobody would trust him with a dime, Mrs. Waggs."

The Usual Procedure Diner—You haven't given me my usual two pieces of steak. Waiter—That's right, sir. I'll bring it right back to the cook to cut it in half as he usually does.

Self-Made "He says he's a self-made man." "That's just like him—always taking the blame for everything."

Cleaning Carpets To make rugs look like new, scrub with a stiff brush moistened in diluted ammonia and then rinse with the garden hose while hanging on the line.

Cookies When making cookies for the children, use different shapes of cutters. They can be purchased in the shapes of animals and flowers.

Birthday Cake Marshmallows can be used as holders for the candies of a child's birthday cake. Each party guest will be delighted if his piece of cake holds a marshmallow and a candle.

Rust Rust can be removed from fabrics by using lemon juice and salt. Then hold over a steaming teakettle. The steam will aid greatly in removing the spots.

A Soft Skin The skin will be fine and soft if a healing astringent cream is applied regularly. By doing this, chapped dry skin and blemishes are healed. The astringent closes the pores and makes the skin silken smooth.

The Skin To whiten the skin, peel a cucumber and chop it into the form of a poultice. Bind it to the face, allowing the juice to remain until dry.

Sticky Pots Drop a teaspoonful of soda into the sticky pot then fill with boiling water and place in the oven for awhile. It can be cleaned without scouring.

The Dog Have the water lukewarm for washing the dog. After drying, play with him until he is thoroughly dry before letting him lie down to rest. This will prevent his contracting rheumatism.

Grease Stains Grease stains can be removed from silk by applying a mixture of one ounce of castile soap shredded, one teaspoonful of saltper, two ounces of ammonia and one quart of water.

Blackheads A treatment for blackheads is to use soap and water freely. Gently massage a thick lather on the face and when it has dried rinse off thoroughly. The larger blackheads can be pressed out with the fingers, using care not to bruise the flesh. Then sponge the skin with witch hazel. This treatment should be used daily.

Sandwiches Stale, left-over sandwiches can still be used. Make a pancake batter and add either a little sugar or salt. Dip each sandwich in this batter and then fry to a golden brown.

Show Them A Mountain And They'll Do The Rest Edward Feuz (left) holds that "the climbing urge" is a heritage of all white races, he the objective high furniture for an infant; a tree-top for a schoolboy; or the pinnacle of success or the summit of a mountain for an adult. He ought to know, for he makes his living as a mountain guide in the heart of the famous Canadian Rocky Mountains, with headquarters at the Canadian Pacific Railway's hotels at Banff and Lake Louise, and has more "first ascents" to his credit than any other man in the country. His brother Ernst (right) is also an experienced guide and mountaineer. Both are natives of Interlaken, Switzerland, and have winter-homes in the little Swiss guide village of Edelweis, in the Columbia Valley. They are shown scanning the peaks adjoining the Banff Springs Hotel.

What the Rural Weekly Press of B. C. Can Offer THERE are fifty-five regular weekly newspapers in British Columbia. They are published in a widely scattered field in communities with populations of from 300 to 400 to one of 10,000. Sixteen are published in communities of less than 1000 population; fifteen in communities of 1000 to 2000 population; seven in communities of 4000 to 5000; four in communities over 5000 to 10,000. These weeklies appeal to 145,000 of British Columbia's population. The news in these newspapers is mostly all local, because that is what interests the readers, and the advertisements for the most part tell what local merchants are doing. The country editor knows the people he serves; they are farmers, lumbermen, miners, fishermen, prospectors, laborers, all. It is estimated that the average farm family spends $2000 every year for things which are not necessary to raise crops. The total sum that is spent by farmers in the United States for those things with which to live well is the appalling sum of thirteen billion dollars. Seventy-two per cent. of all automobiles sold go to people living in towns and communities of less than 5000 population. Using the same proportionate figures to estimate the buying power of the rural population of British Columbia served by the weekly newspapers of the province, and we have something like 70,000 automobiles purchased by residents of the province in towns and communities of less than 5000 population, and $6,000,000 spent every year by these rural families for things which are not necessary to raise crops. If one is inclined to think that only a few people, and an insignificant few at that, live in country communities served by the weekly newspapers let him study these figures or consult the last census statistics. How It Works

One of childhood's choicest queries has ever been and ever will be: "How does it work?" and it seemed a wholly enthralling idea to two young passengers, who recently traveled from Nottingham, England, to Lemberg, Sask., when Engineer Fred Munt, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, invited them into the cab of his huge "2800" type locomotive. The young travellers were Walter and Willie Wilson, aged 12 and 10 years, who journeyed alone from their grandmother's home in the Old Country to join their mother. They crossed the Atlantic in the Canadian Pacific liner Montclare and the Dominion on C. P. R. lines, making many friends and seeing many absorbing sights en route. Pictures show the interested pair and their kindly tutor in a brief explanation of the mysteries of the gauges of the great engine. And what boy, either in Canada or England, would not envy them?

Finds Ideal Marketing For Fruit

The ideal system of marketing fruit has been found by F. M. Black, former chairman of the Okanagan's committee of direction.

He found it in Italy, where he spent four or five weeks on the eight months' trip abroad, from which he has just returned to take up residence in Vancouver.

The Fascists have solved all the difficulties that rent the Okanagan from frof end to end during the controversy over central selling. All Italy is organized by induitres. Fruit is a subdivision of agriculture.

the employs on one side and the markets on the other have each their association.

Representatives of the two sit around a board and manage the thudstry.

Disputes are referred to the ministry of corporations.

When his offices fall, the issue goes to the labor courts and the court decision is final.

But the greatest delight to Mr. Black was that the entire output of fruit for the nation is marketed by one board, representing the whole industry. Bootlegging and wild shipping are unknown.

It is a mistake to believe that Fascism will fall when Mussolini is removed, said Mr. Black. Two months ago Mussolini announced that he believed his work was done and that he wished to retire.

When he does retire the Fascist council will submit seven names to the king and from that seven the king will choose his premier, Mussolini's successor, he explained.

"Mussolini had to exert dictatorial power in the days of the revolutionary phase, but the revolution was accomplished with less bloodshed and disturbance of private life and business than probably any such drastic revolution in history. Nowadays the council is the governing body and Mussolini the executive.

"Fascism in Italy does not depend on one man. It is an organization in which many potential leaders have been trained. There are good men waiting to take the present premier's place, whether his proposal to retire now or later is acted upon."

Success of the bargain trips over week-ends and holidays which the Canadian Pacific has put into effect this year was further attested by the great popularity enjoyed during the recent Victoria Day holiday and in week-ends following. CANADA THE WORLD'S GREATEST PLAYGROUND

Wide Variety of Recreational Attractions Canadians Fortunate in Holiday Advantages Their Country Offers

HE majority of Canadians probably do not realize what a wonderful choice of vacation opportunities this country offers. How many of us in any one province have first-hand knowledge of the wide range of attractions of our neighbouring provinces? Many no doubt have gone abroad to seek a holiday, forgetting that our own Dominion is unequalled in the exceptional variety and range of its recreational resources. Surely a country which attracts visitors from other countries by the tens of millions must have recreational features of interest to its own citizens.

one of the chief attractions in the parks, but game animals and birds are rigidly protected and their fearlessness never fails to interest visitors.

Summer Resorts Numerous and Varied

Throughout the Dominion there are many summer resort districts which offer a wide range of attraction and variety of accommodation. On the Atlantic coast, in the provinces of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, are typical sea-shore resorts, where salt-water bathing, sailing and deep sea fishing are the principal attractions. The rugged beauty of this coast and the picturesque charm of the fishing villages, at the head of every inlet, cannot fail to enchant the summer visitor.

Quebec's summer playgrounds are of the most varied nature including, as they do, sea-shore, mountain, lake and forest resorts. Along the lower St. Lawrence, summer colonies have been established at many points. North of the St. Lawrence and Ottawa rivers the Laurentian mountains, clothed with pine forest and dotted with lakes, constitute a vast summer and winter playground. The Eastern Townships, which adjoin the international boundary, also have a number of well-established resorts, on picturesque lakes and rivers. Ontario has perhaps the largest number and greatest variety of developed summer resorts of any of the provinces. The Thousand Islands, Lake of Bays, Muskoka lakes, and Georgian Bay are known throughout America, but there are in addition equally attractive, only slightly less known, districts. Accommodation includes everything from campsites to palatial hotels, and cottages may be rented, in any district.

In the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta many attractive resorts are located along the shores of the lakes and rivers. The Canadian Rockies are world famous for scenic beauty and contain some of the most highly developed tourist resorts on the continent.

British Columbia, with varied and splendid scenic attractions, is a tourist wonderland. The province has majestic mountain ranges, and extensive lake areas, stately forests, an imposing coast line, and many attractive resorts in settings of exceptional natural beauty.

Government Bureau Free Information Service

For a number of years the Department of the Interior at Ottawa has been engaged in the promotion of the Canadian tourist industry, more especially the development of tourist travel from the United States to Canada. It is also endeavouring to influence Canadians to spend their vacation in the Dominion. The National Development Bureau of that Department will gladly furnish interprovincial road maps and other information for the use of those planning a Canadian tour, and where necessary will refer enquiries to provincial and local tourist organizations. Applicants should be as specific as possible as to the section of Canada in which they are interested, in order that available information may be supplied.

Recreational Areas Easily Accessible

It is so easy to travel in Canada that an interprovincial tour is a recreation which every Canadian vacationist may well and profitably undertake. All the developed and much of the undeveloped part of the Dominion is easily accessible by train, boat, or automobile. Canada is served by two of the world's greatest railway systems and a number of smaller lines. The equipment and service are of the highest standard. Steamers built especially for pleasure cruising afford many pleasant trips along the coast and on the extensive inland water system of lakes, rivers and canals. A cruise from the head of the Great Lakes to the Maritime Provinces is nearly equal, in distance, to an ocean voyage. Good roads lead to practically all scenic and sporting territories. Canada's road system includes many thousands of miles of surfaced highways, well equipped with direction signs and danger signals. Tourist accommodation, from campsites to hotels, is available almost everywhere.

National Parks Cover Large Area

National and provincial parks in Canada cover nearly 25,000 square miles. They are areas which have been withdrawn from exploitation and are being preserved in their virgin beauty and wildness, for purposes of pleasure and recreation. The largest national parks are in the Rocky Mountains section of Alberta, a region of unsurpassed scenic splendour admirably equipped by nature for all forms of sport and recreation. There are also important parks in British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec. Accommodation ranges all the way from large modern hotels, to log cabins and tents. Fishing is

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

That advertising through the printed page has the necessary attractiveness and efficiency of performance that brings profitable results.

History has shown that continuous advertisers have found success, while non-advertisers have always been lagging behind.

Lack of advertising is killing many a business that should show increasing business instead of decreasing business.

People have been educated to the fact that well advertised products are the quality kind and they won't buy any other.

Continuous advertising of quality creates a buying demand which assures the advertiser quicker turnover.

Any business in this day and time cannot stand still. Progress and competition demand that it move ahead or go out of business.

Continuous advertising of quality and service builds and keeps the confidence of the public. Without the confidence of the public, no business can move ahead.

Continuous advertising is the modern way of building better business. It proves to the public that the advertisers are proud of what they have for sale.

Anything worth selling is worth advertising.

Advertising is the most effective selling help that can be found, because continuous advertising paves the way to bigger sales.

Every business, having something to sell, should advertise continuously so the public may know who they are, where they are, and what they have for sale.

Do not use a linen cloth in cleaning mirrors or window glass, as it sheds lint and causes streaks.

Power of The Rural Weekly Press

Listen to what John H. Perry, President of the American Press Association, has to say on the influence of the country weekly:

"The force that controls this country of ours, in the long run, is the rural editor. In his capacity as spokesman for hundreds of thousands who live and earn their living on the farms and in the villages and towns.

"It is not necessary to take the writer's word for it. Ask any politician whom you know. He will tell you the truth. Ask any representative of the interests—big city bankers, for instance, or presidents of great railroad or industrial corporation.

"The politician, if he is above peasant size, will tell you that he worries little about what the city papers say; but let even half a dozen country weeklies in his home state or district open on him, and he will pull down the lid of his desk at the state capital and takes the next train home to see what it is he has done to make the farmer sore.

"The Big Businessman, if he is big enough to be entitled to the designation, will tell you that his business is gold or bad depending on how the country people like the way it is run, and that what those country people are thinking he finds out by reading or having others read for him, what the country papers are saying."
