National Canadian Patriotic Fund

We have now entered upon the second year of the war, and the end seems as far off as ever. No one imagined, a year ago, that by September of 1915, Canada would have sent across the Atlantic nearly one hundred thousand men with as many more to follow if necessary. The magnificent enlistment, while primarily due to the loyalty of our people, has been in a large measure, made possible by the Canadian Patriotic Fund.

This greatest of all the national benefactors is now assisting twenty thousand families of men who have enlisted for overseas service. These men have gone forward with the full assurance that the people of Canada will see to it that during their absence, their wives, widowed mothers and little children shall be maintained in comfort. We hear that the drain upon the Fund is assuming large proportions, that to meet the needs of July and August $700,000 was expended, that the reserves are being materially decreased and that the national Executive Committee now finds it necessary to make a further appeal to the Canadian Public.

There are many funds, most of them worthy, but of them all the Patriotic Fund is the one we cannot allow to fail. It is the duty of the Government to arm, equip and maintain the troops. Not a dollar do the Federal Authorities give to the Patriotic Fund. This work depends solely on the patriotism and generosity of our own people. Thousands of brave men are fighting our battles, believing that we meant what we said when we told them as they went forward:—"Go and we will care for the wife and kiddies." It would be to our everlasting disgrace if our pledge were broken.

The national organization, with headquarters at Ottawa and branches or affiliated associations in every part of the Dominion, is worthy of our most generous support in the tremendous and evergrowing task that it has undertaken.

Ottawa, Sept. 1st., 1915.

MINING NOTES

Yesterday closed the best month the local mines have experienced for many a moon, here's that it continues.—News, Merritt, B. C.

A government report on mining conditions for the past month contains the following:—"Increased activity in metal mining was also apparent in British Columbia. In addition to improved conditions among the large mining companies quite a number of small mines which had ceased operations at the beginning of the war resumed work and were sending regular shipments to the smelter at Trail. Both the Granby and Trail smelter busy"

A shipment of 17 tons of ore was made last week from the Sally mine at Beaverdell, to Trail Smelter by Colonel Baker and George Hambly, says the Grand Forks Gazette. Earlier in the month James Drum shipped 40 tons from the Sally to Trail. Some 150 tons have been shipped from the property this year to date. It is operated by Mr. Drum, Messrs. Baker and Hambly working a lease on part of the Sally group. Former shipments from the Sally ran around $1.80 to the ton, but recent shipments are said to have gone considerably more than this.

Concert and Dance Farwell the Boys

Tuesday evening in the Opera House Hedley officially said farewell to the boys of the contingent who left here recently to join the forces in training at Vernon.

Seven of the boys returned Friday for a short leave of absence and it was announced at the camp that they must take the chance then or never, as the camp would be struck on the 18th. Bobby Robertson came in on the train Saturday and he has in consequence one day longer than the others who left Wednesday morning for Princeton to catch the boat and be in Vernon Thursday.

Posters announced a concert Tuesday evening given by Madam Bishop in aid of the funds for the wounded soldiers, so the occasion was ripe for a dance also and the combined events made a most successful and pleasant evening.

At the concert the attendance was not large as there was some misunderstanding as to the date and time. But what the audience lacked in size it certainly made up in enthusiasm.

To say that Madam Bishop delighted her audience is to state it very mildly indeed. They were simply entranced. From the beginning to the finish her concert was a great success and when she finally announced the last number, the audience felt as though a very pleasant sensation was about to cease in their experience.

Her program was as follows:

"Spanish song," in Spanish, by Cham-inade

"His Buttons are Marked I. N. F."

"Orange Girl Song", Scodopole

Indian songs, "Papoose" and "My Bark Canoe"

Poem by Pauline Johnson, "Canadian Born."

"Aloha Oe in Hawaiian

"La Paloma" in Spanish

"Comin' thro the Rye"

"To an Angel" by Geneva J. Bishop

The New York Herald says:—There is a dignity of bearing about her which is in perfect accord with the highly classic powers that mark the excellent style of her singing. Her breadth of tone, easy gasp of technical difficulties, faultless intonation and total lack of affectation causes her to bring to our remembrance some of the world's greatest artists, and she loses nothing in comparison with any. This is the highest compliment that can be paid her.

After the concert the room was quickly cleared for dancing and the scene which followed will long be remembered by Hedley people and those who visited from out of town.

The orchestra supplied the music and were relieved by the piano player and individuals from time to time. The crowd at no time was so large that the floor was crowded and everybody reported it one of the most pleasant occasions of the year.

Wednesday morning the boys and Madam Bishop accompanied by Mrs. Campbell, her secretary, made the trip to Princeton to catch the boat for Vernon. They were taken up in the autos of G. P. Jones and F. H. French.

J. C. Reilly, prospector, placer miner, old timer, now of the Tulameen district, who can tell more about the geology of the country than you read in books, is in town for a few days. He brought down some platinum which he disposed of to good advantage locally.

Hedley Golf Club Annual Competition

The Annual Merrill Cup Competition is now on. The links are again occupied, having been vacated during the warm days of the summer.

Following are the rules governing the competition.

1. Opponents shall arrange their matches by mutual consent if possible. If unable to come to an agreement, the match committee will name a time and date when they shall play, and any player who fails to appear for play at the specified time shall lose his game by default.

2. Each pair of players shall name an umpire if needed, and his decision shall be final. In cases where the umpire is in doubt on a question of rules, he shall refer the point in doubt to the match committee.

3. Each match shall consist of two rounds of nine holes, the rounds to be played consecutively. If both rounds are not played off on the same day the players shall arrange the time for the second round, but no player shall practice between the time of finishing the first round and starting second.

4. All players must hand in their score cards, duly countersigned by their opponent, with as little delay as possible.

All winners of the first round must have their score cards handed to the Secretary not later than October 11th, 1915.

Following are the players with handicaps:

Barnes, H. D.	10	Knowles, B. W.	14
Dalton, C. P.	10	Collin, R. S.	8

The Ohio State Mining Co., a strong and active concern organized in Ohio with head offices in Columbus, has bought the Interstate group of patented property on Copper Mountain, and the stamp mill south of town. This information is submitted to The News by the new company's secretary Earl C. Bates, of Columbus. Mr. Bates announces that they have fullest confidence in the ability of that property to make good when they start to mining, which, he says, "will no doubt be in the near future."—Chesaw News.

George Riddle, who had the misfortune to get on the wrong side of his auto when the latter hit the ditch recently, is now well on the road to recovery. The biggest trouble now is swollen limbs, which are rapidly yielding to the care and attention of the doctor.

Tommy Rotherham, our local photographer, has on display in his window some of the finest pictures ever produced in this locality. In addition to the pictures of the contingent which left recently to join the forces in training at Vernon, he has some photos of Hamilton's garden. The picture itself is exceptionally good but Tommy has added, with the deft touch of an artist, the coloring necessary to bring out the effects of the mass of flowers which the garden presented late this summer when the asters and gladiolas were out in all their beauty. What nicer souvenir could you select to send to your friends, to show them some of the glories of our beautiful Sunny Similkameen?

Re-Inforcements For the Princess Pats

The Universities of Canada have now for some time been working loyally together to reinforce that gallant regiment the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry. Three Companies have already gone overseas, numbering nearly 900 men and a fourth Company is now under formation at Montreal.

The University Companies are now known throughout the length and breadth of Canada, so that there is a continuous flow of men of the right type to Montreal. Not only do such men find entry to a famous regiment but they are rapidly equipped and trained and sent without delay overseas to England, where they are comfortably billeted in huts at an excellent camp near the sea on the South Coast of England. Moreover the men secure the great advantage of good comradeship with congenial spirits of similar tastes and antecedents.

The first Company under a notable Officer, Captain Gregor Barclay, has been declared by regular Officers of experience to be second to none compared with any Company of any army in the world.

The second Company was raised over-strength in seven weeks by Captain G. McDonald and Captain Percy Molson. Both companies are now in France.

The third company sailed eighty over-strength because the Newspaper publishers of Canada were good enough to make known, through their columns that the Company was being formed. This resulted in such a rush of recruits that it was necessary to apply to the Militia Council of Ottawa for a special authority to increase the strength from 250 to 330 men. Each man before embarkation writes to a friend who is a likely recruit and tells him of the advantages of the Universities Company, so that even before the men have disembarked a fresh company is assembling on the McGill Campus at Montreal.

Recruits are examined locally by an Army Medical Officer and are attested by a magistrate in the nearest city, after which an application is made for transportation, which is speedily furnished from Montreal.

This system is effective and rapid, and free from red tape. There are in nearly every City, representatives of various Universities who are always ready to help forward the good work, and to give information to men anxious to enlist.

The Regulations respecting enlistment pay and separation allowances are precisely the same as those for other Canadian troops.

At Montreal, the University lend buildings for barracks, and the Campus for Drill ground. Affiliation with the McGill Officers Training Corps is a great benefit, and interesting tactical work is carried out on the slopes of Mount Royal.

There is competent instruction in tactics, musketry, bayonet fighting and trench making. The C. P. R. is kind enough to lend their gallery for shooting practice. A machine gun is available and signalling, now of immense importance, is also taught.

All information can be obtained from Capt. A. S. Eve, 332 Sherbrooke St., West, the headquarters of the successive companies.

The newspaper have proved themselves to be the most efficient means of raising recruits, and every reader who cannot himself go to the Front can help in the present struggle by calling the attention of his friend to this opportunity.

REGISTER!

While there is at the present no indication or prospect of a provincial election, there appears to be some activity among individuals who are seeking to get the rolls made up. In any case it is a very good and necessary thing to have your name on the register of provincial voters. One can never tell just what might happen, and with the administration leaning towards the prohibition party, who are trying to force a plebiscite, it is well to be prepared to exercise your franchise should occasion arise.

THANKSGIVING

There are no people on the face of the globe who have more occasion to be thankful, than the British-born, whether in the British Isles or any of her colonies.

At this season of the year when harvest is assured, when winter's winds are forestalled, when plenty abounds and the only cloud is the cruel European war, in which we are more than conquerors, we should give thanks.

Thankfulness is an inner feeling which cannot be contained and gives expression in an outward demonstration or manifestation. Let us be thankful.

There will be the Annual Thanksgiving Service in St. John's church next Sunday when there will be an opportunity for public thanksgiving. The church should be crowded.

PROHIBITION

While there is considerable discussion on the question of prohibition, there is little to indicate just how a plebiscite would decide in the province at the present time.

That the parties for and against are both out for a decision is sure, however, but the man who thinks he can guess just how the vote would go, at this stage of the game, might have a guess to come.

In view of the fact that the present liquor laws of the province are modeled and have been amended to suit the exactments of the Prohibition party, and in line with their policies, and that these laws are actually and perfectly enforced, and contain in themselves the necessary redress in the interdiction clauses; what more can be desired? If temperance and sobriety are the aim of the Prohibition party, surely they cannot hope to secure them under better auspices, or through a more perfect medium than their own laws, the present laws, properly enforced.

And, if further amendments to the present act are required, surely the present provincial government has shown itself enough the friend of the Prohibition party, to give the latter reason to suppose that their further prayers will fall on sympathetic ears.

But, much as we favor prohibition, we believe it would be unwise and disastrous to force the issue at the present unsettled era in the history of the province.

Editorial Quotations

There is the big fact more vital than any other in regard to the war, that Germany has suffered irreparable losses. Germany now lacks the reserves to keep her armies at their present maximum. High tide has been reached. As weeks grow into months Germany will become absolutely and relatively weaker. She has done wonders, even as France under Napoleon did wonders, but no nation can continue forever to squander its blood like water.—New York Globe.

And now comes a scientist who tells us that there is very little difference between the savage and the civilized man after all; that the mental capacity of one is quite equal to that of the other; the only difference lying in the direction in which we exert that capacity. Two years ago we might have poo-hooped Dr. Alfred Goldsborough Mayer's statements, but we accept them today in the light of what the swiftly passing events of the war have brought us. Germany has stood as one of the highest types of civilization; we would have hesitated a year and a half ago to compare her people with the Fijian. The only reason we might hesitate today is because the comparison would be too insulting to the Fijians.—Colonist.

Then Think!

Now that you have commenced to read this article, just keep right on to the end, and then you will have absorbed meat of the cocconut.

What has this town ever done for you? It has fed you, and clothed you, and housed you, and given you employment, and kept the wolf from your door for these many years. It has done more. It has furnished you recreation, and enjoyment, and has guided you safely over many of the stones that beset the pathway of life.

It has praised your good deeds and has thrown the mantle of charity over your questionable ones.

It has been, and is, YOUR HOME. But what have YOU done for the TOWN?

You are making you money here but where are you spending it?

Are your buying goods from the local dealer, who pays and otherwise contributes liberally to the upkeep of the community and your home, or are you sending your money away to some catalogue house that wouldn't lend you a five cent piece to save your soul from purgatory?

And now you have reached the point where we want you to stop and think, and think hard, and to a sane, sensible and patriotic purpose.

Arise, arise, highland and lowlanders, Arise, to the call of your country and King; Sound the wild pibroch, its notes will them gather; For the sons of Auld Scotland it ever would bring.

Arise, to the call, your country needs you;

She is fighting a fight with her back to the wall.

Think of your sires that died for her glory;

But to you is the honor the grandest of all.

Arise, and defend her, the Mother that bore you;

Sons of Auld Scotland, she needs you today.

Her shores they are threatened, by aerial disaster;

Her ships they are sunk in harbor and bay.

Our navy is mighty, but our foes will not fight her;

Their ships by some fortress are hidden away

But with undersea fighting, with mines and torpedoes /

With the dread of the sea our seamen they slay.

Arise, in your wrath, ye sons of Old England;

You! colonies stand by the old mother tree;

And drive from the ocean, the flag of the tyrant,

And roll back her armies, ye sons of the free.

Sound the wild pibroch, its notes will remind you

Of victories won over foes in the past. Dream not of peace, till those foes have surrendered,

And the flag of Old England, is triumphant at last.

Synopsis of Coal Mining Regulations

COAL mining rights of the Dominion, in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-west Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,500 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal sub-divisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If coal mining rights are not being operated such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10.00 an acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior.

FRENCH AEROPLANES ON BEACH, SHOWING HANGARS

These little planes are like great wasps, darting back and forth, inflicting stinging injury and revealing the enemy's entrenchments. There is quite a contrast between the aerial fleets of the warring factions, as there is in the navies. France easily has the lead in aerial warfare, and it is a notorious fact that the boasted submarine blockade has fizzled out and the great German fleet has turned out to be one colossal frost.
