

Liberals Carry Over-whelming Majority

Defeat of Government is Decisive Result of Election

The wholesale defeat which has overtaken the Conservative government in yesterday's election is surely emphatic enough to satisfy the most ardent Liberal. While many good Conservatives even, a few days ago would have confessed to a hard-fought battle, the result was a foregone conclusion for them, yet the completeness of the turnover to the other side has taken many by surprise. In fact it has not only exceeded the expectations of the Liberals themselves, but the opinion has been freely expressed amongst the more moderate of them that the victory has been overdone, and that the very condition which they lighted, a government without opposition, is here again, only of a different political complexion.

Up to the time of going to press, the results from 40 constituencies have been definitely made known. Of these 35 Liberals are elected, 4 Conservatives, and 1 Socialist. The remaining seven are still doubtful. A glance at the following table will show the position of the candidates according to the latest available information. The names of those definitely elected have been placed in capitals.

The results shown, of course, must not be accepted as entirely final, for the soldiers' vote is still to be taken into account, and as this will probably reach up to something approaching 20 to 25 per cent. of the ballots already counted, it will be seen that some changes are inevitable. In many constituencies the majority are not very large, and in such cases the final result must be in considerable doubt until the soldiers' vote is made known. This, according to the Act will not be for another month yet, as the ballot boxes can not be opened less than ten weeks after nomination, of which six have already passed. The ballot boxes will be assembled in London and opened in the presence of the appointed officials, when the results will be at once cabled to British Columbia. The soldiers' vote in Canadian camps will be made known at the same time. The voting on the referendum questions of Prohibition and Woman Suffrage will be continued by the soldiers until the end of the year.

Deer Wore Leather Collar For Four Years

Messrs. Alsgard and E. Lawley had a curious experience a few days ago during a weekend hunting trip. They were up Mission creek some fifteen miles and managed to secure a couple of fine bucks. There is nothing so curious about that of course, as both of these gentlemen are pretty good with a rifle. When they came to examine their captures, one of the bucks was found to have a leather strap securely fastened around its neck.

Naturally they were a little puzzled to account for this, to say the least, unusual circumstance. It looked as though someone might be in the habit of tethering out these denizens of the hills. They would have been completely mystified had not Mr. Alsgard remembered a story he had happened to hear a year or two ago.

It appears that about four years ago this summer, a party had gone fishing up Mission creek near Rick's old ranch. While there, a young fawn, apparently chased by coyotes, had in its extremity sought sanctuary within the walls of the barn, bolting in through the open door. It must have run from its enemies for a considerable time for it was in the last stages of exhaustion, and gank past to the ground, unable to go another step. The fishermen, who by the way, were Harman Willits and the two Perry boys, took a notion to keep it there for a time, and fastening a strap around its neck, they tied it up in one of the stalls. They then closed the barn door and went off for their fishing. When they returned, however, the fawn was nowhere to be seen. It had very evidently recovered from its exertions broken the cord which tied it, and jumped out through the window.

That was four years ago, and the little fawn grew up into a big buck, still carrying the strap around its neck. It was shot not more than a few hundred yards from the barn where it had taken refuge in its infancy. The strap must have been pretty loose when it was first put around its neck, for although it fitted close when found, it had not yet grown uncomfortably tight. No doubt, however, in another year or two, it would have begun to cause suffering, and perhaps might have ended in choking the animal to death.

Mayor Jones Heads Poll For South Okanagan Constituency

Majority of 103 in Riding Makes Election Safe—Likely to be Increased By Soldiers' Vote

In the midst of the avalanche which has overtaken the Conservative government throughout the province, Mayor Jones has particular reason to feel proud of the decision of the electors which has placed him at the head of the poll for this riding. Of course it is not really surprising, with all due respect to his opponent, that a man like Mayor Jones who has been prominent in all public work for many years should secure a majority of the votes, but that he should do so under the undoubted handicap which the unpopularity of the government placed upon him, is convincing evidence that personally he has the approval of the large body of the electors.

It is true that the votes of the soldiers both at home and abroad are still being reckoned with, but it is very unlikely that any difference will be made in the relative positions of the candidates.

Prohibition and Woman Suffrage Carried By Large Majorities

Although returns on the two referendum questions of Prohibition and Woman Suffrage are still somewhat incomplete, there are sufficient figures available to show that they have Generally speaking the contest locally, while keen and close throughout, has been free from undue personalities and unpleasant features, and now that the struggle is over it is safe to say that there remains practically no ill feeling as a result. While the Liberals will no doubt feel disappointed at their failure to elect their candidate, Mr. Rogers, who it must be said, has no reason to be ashamed of the excellent showing he has made, they can console themselves with their undisputed victory over the government party throughout the province.

With regard to Prohibition and Woman Suffrage, few people seemed to have any doubt as to the outcome of the vote here in South Okanagan which probably accounted for the fact that so little effort was made to spread the propaganda.

The following is a summary of the results in this constituency:

carried throughout the province by large majorities.

Prohibition shows a majority of something like six to seven thousand over the whole province. Vancouver and Victoria both gave majorities and indeed the places voting against were very few. There is still, however, an element of doubt as to how the subject will be treated by the soldiers, who may poll something like 30,000 votes. If this went strongly against the movement it could easily wipe out the present majority.

Woman Suffrage has apparently met with public approval in an almost surprising manner and it is likely that the final result will show something like three to one in favor.

Just as we go to press we hear with deep regret of the sudden death in the early hours of this morning of Mr. J. L. Doyle, Glenn Avenue. Mr. Doyle was down town yesterday and apparently in his usual health, but soon after midnight he was seized with heart failure and expired in a few minutes. He was a kindly old gentleman of the old school and beloved by all, and the news of his death will be a great shock. He was born in Hamilton, Ont., 73 years ago, and has resided in Kelowna about eleven years. The funeral is to take place from the house Saturday afternoon at 2.30.

As the centre span of the new Quebec Bridge was being raised in position Monday, one portion of the structure gave way, and the whole span, weighing some 5000 tons, was precipitated into the river. The loss of life is not definitely fixed, but is variously estimated at between twelve and twenty. Thus, for the second time this unlucky undertaking has met with disaster. It will be recalled that a little over eight years ago the structure which was being erected collapsed carrying over seventy men to their death. The financial loss in the present instance is estimated at about $800,000.

Hon. Martin Burrell Addresses Local Audience

Arriving Thursday from Vernon in company with Mayor Jones, the Hon. Martin Burrell, Minister of Agriculture in the Dominion House, and member for this district, addressed a meeting in the Kelowna Opera House in the evening.

After an absence of some two years, Mr. Burrell is visiting his old home at Grand Forks, and it was with a desire of meeting his constituents, and incidentally of assisting the candidature of Mayor Jones, that he took the opportunity of coming to Kelowna. Mr. Burrell has now quite recovered from the effects of his injuries received during the memorable fire which destroyed the Parliament Buildings, but is still showing some of the effects of the strenuous work which has fallen to his lot, and indeed, to all the members of the government since the war broke out.

Following a speech by Mayor Jones, in which he ran over in a brief manner the principal points at issue in the present election, the Hon. Mr. Burrell gave an interesting account of the work being done by the Dominion Department of Agriculture, and the great expansion of its activities during the past few years.

He recalled his last visit to the valley when he was called to the coast in a hurry to mediate in the matter of the Komagata Maru. He also referred to his connection with the purchase of the submarines by Sir Richard McBride, and the absolutely unfounded charges which had been laid against the then premier. Subsequent investigation had shown that not only was every one concerned perfectly clear of blame, but were deserving of the patriotic thanks of the people for averting a threatened danger.

In speaking of the injuries he sustained during the fire at the parliament buildings, Mr. Burrell said he desired to tender his heartfelt thanks for the many expressions of sympathy which reached him from the district.

He paid an enthusiastic tribute to Mayor Jones, and wished him every success in the coming election.

Dealing with his own department in the Dominion House, he emphasized the great importance of agriculture to the whole national structure. If it had been more important before the war, how much more important was it now when the increase of production would be needed to offset the tremendous financial obligations.

There had been a great change of attitude towards agriculture in Canada during the past few years. In 1911 when he took office, only $1,200,000 a year was devoted to that purpose. The work had been expanded and enlarged to include the whole Dominion and in spite of cuttings due to the war, over four millions of dollars a year was now being expended.

In one line of work only, the experimental farms, a vast amount of valuable experimental and research work was being done, the expense of which to the individual farmer would make it impossible. As an instance of the great benefits being derived from this experimental work, he mentioned the improvement of wheat. A few years ago the famous Red Fife had been the standard wheat, but it was found to be subject to damage from early frosts. After a great deal of labor an improved variety had been evolved, the "Marquis" which had all the good qualities of the Red Fife, but ripened a week or ten days earlier, thus escaping the frosts. In one district alone several million dollars had been saved in one season by planting this new variety.

The health of animals branch employed a staff of some 300 officers who were safeguarding the export of animals and keeping up the national reputation for freedom from disease. In the case of the terrible outbreak of foot and mouth disease in the States, the government of Canada had placed a rigid embargo on all animals likely to carry the disease. In spite of great difficulties this had been so successful that though the States had lost millions of dollars through the ravages of the disease, there had not been one single case in the whole of Canada.

Another direction in which the Department had performed good service was in the matter of egg production. It had been found that Canada was importing fourteen million dozens of

Defeat Resolution to Hold Tax Sale

Will Sue Delinquents Through the Courts

The regular meeting of the city council last Friday morning was presided over by Acting-Mayor Sutherland. There was very little business done, the main subject for discussion, the holding of a tax sale being postponed until the following Monday.

A letter was read from the Fire Brigade asking that arrangements be made in case of fire, to shut off the water from all mains except the one leading to the fire so as to give all possible pressure for fire fighting purposes.

Messrs. P. DuMoulin and J. F. Burne wrote suggesting that the council rebate the taxes against the "Hotel Syndicate" property at the corner of the park, and that the council in some way take charge of the land pending better times with a view to acquiring possession later.

The city council of Niagara Falls wrote requesting the Kelowna council to urge upon the Dominion Government, to treat officers and privates on equality in the granting of pensions for wounds received during the present war.

The chief constable's report for the month of August showed a total of six minor cases before the magistrate with fines amounting to $65 paid into the treasury.

Ald. Millie reported that the Volunteer Fire Brigade had been put to considerable personal expense in connection with the recent contests with the Vernon brigade, and he recommended that they be granted a small sum in token of appreciation.

It was decided to grant the Brigade the sum of $100.

The following accounts were passed for payment:—

At the adjourned meeting held Monday morning, the question of holding a tax sale was taken up and the following resolution was put before the council: "That the collector be, and is hereby instructed to sell by public auction in the Board of Trade building, Kelowna, B. C., commencing at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, on Monday, October 2nd, 1916, all property situated within the limits of the City of Kelowna, the taxes on which have not been paid for the year 1914 and previous years."

The resolution, however, was lost. Ald. Rattenbury and Harvey favoring the motion, while Ald. Copeland, Dugan and Millie voted against it. Acting mayor Sutherland spoke very strongly in favor of a tax sale which he considered inevitable under the present financial conditions, but as chairman refrained from voting.

Some alternative plan for getting in the arrears of taxes was then necessary, and a resolution was put forward that court proceedings be taken to collect arrears, such proceeding not to be taken before October 15, 1916.

Ald. Millie requested that the police be instructed to order the removal of certain barbed wire fences fronting on the public streets. It was decided to ascertain the powers of the council in this connection.

eggs, while practically exporting none. The Department of Agriculture had taken the problem in hand, and by an energetic campaign of education amongst farmers and poultry keepers, had so increased production that Canada was now actually exporting more eggs than she was importing. Canadian eggs had also been firmly established on the British market.

Similar beneficial work had been achieved in connection with the wool industry, and in several other matters coming within the scope of agriculture.

All matters relating to fruitgrowing had been organized into a separate branch, and much had been accomplished for the encouragement of the industry. Amongst other things, the Fruit Marks Act had been strengthened so as to compel American competitors to live up to the stringent requirement placed upon the Canadian growers.

The Agriculture Instruction Act, which Mr. Burrell himself had had the honor to place upon the statute book was briefly outlined. Under the act,

FEDERAL MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE VISITS KELOWNA

a sum of ten million dollars spread over ten years was set aside by the Dominion Government to assist the provinces in the furtherance of agricultural instruction. Under this arrangement, British Columbia received last year $47,000 to supplement the appropriation of the province, this year the amount would be $63,000, next year $69,000 and for five years succeeding a like amount. The term "agricultural instruction" was given a broad interpretation, and included not only agricultural instruction in the rural schools, which was receiving close attention, but also the work of demonstration farms, several of which had been established in the Okanagan.

He praised the tendency in the Okanagan to develop in the direction of dairy farming, and believed the day would come when dairying would be the main industry in the valley. In this connection he recommended that farmers adopt modern methods of testing and weeding out of unprofitable "boarders."

He was glad to see that the provincial government were giving more attention to agricultural matters, and had decided to devote a separate portfolio to the industry.

At the present time, he said, the war overshadowed everything, and made all other subjects look trivial in comparison. He was happy to feel that when the test of nationality had come, Canada had not been found wanting, and the government and the people were fully prepared to carry on to a successful finish no matter what the sacrifice might be. He referred especially to the noble self-sacrificing devotion to the women of Canada.

The war had placed enormous burdens upon the financial resources of the country. It was a magnificent achievement that an army greater than that of Napoleon or Wellington had been raised and sent over the seas without a single loss of life. Not only that, but the whole cost of equipment and every gun and every horse had been paid for by the loyal people of Canada. It was a striking testimony to the genius of the Finance Minister, Sir Thomas White, that all this had been achieved without any inflation of the currency or any great dislocation of national business.

He referred to the gigantic nature of the task which faced the empire at the outbreak of the war, and to the fact that in the two years which had just passed, Great Britain had achieved in organization of her people and resources what it had taken Germany thirty years to do.

He pleaded for fair and clean politics, and bitterly condemned the mud-slinging and abuse which had been in evidence lately.

In conclusion he endeavored to fore-shadow something of the conditions which would present themselves when the war was over, and the men who had gone overseas to fight for the empire returned with minds broadened by contact with their brothers in the Old Country. They would undoubtedly put a stream of new influences into public life.

The applause which greeted Mr. Burrell at the conclusion of his remarks testified eloquently to the great esteem in which he is held in this district by members of all political parties.

The following morning Mr. Burrell and Mayor Jones left for Naramata where a meeting was held at which Mr. H. H. Stevens, Dominion member for Vancouver, and Mr. L. V. Rogers also spoke.

"BE PREPARED" KELOWNA TROOP

Troop First! Self Last!

Edited by "Pioneer"

Tests passed during the week have been the Rescuer's by Troop Leader Keller, and the Swimmer's by Patrol Leader Buck, Second J. Groves, Scouts T. Taylor and F. Whitehead, Acting Second Stillingfleet, and Patrol Leader G. Groves, with the exception that P. L. Groves has to swim 50 yards on his back, and Acting Second Stillingfleet has to complete his 2nd Class tests before the Swimmer's badge can be awarded him. The water has now gone down to 64° and there was quite a breeze and rough surface on the lake Monday when the latter four passed their tests. There are very few scouts in the troop who could not win this badge, and it is too bad that more have not tried for it before this. Next year every swimmer in the troop must endeavor to obtain this badge before we go to the Camp early in July. We congratulate the above members of the troop on their success and thank Mr. J. F. Burne very much for acting as official examiner.

We shall be commencing the regular meetings for the season very soon, and we sincerely trust that we shall be able to get in a very good season's work, profiting by the mistakes and successes of the past. What we shall be able to accomplish, rests with each individual scout in the troop, and with heavy responsibilities on the Patrol Leaders and Seconds, who are the making of any troop. Seven scouts to each patrol, including the leader, is now the rule with us, and we are giving you below a roll of our strength in patrols. You will note that the Kangaroos are one over the strength, but only one other patrol, the Otters, is up to full strength. It is very important, therefore, that any boys who intend to offer themselves as Recruits should do so at once, in order that we can adjust our patrols and commence the season's work all together.

Our roll at present is as follows:—

British Columbia holds the record for sending proportionately more men to the allied armies than any other division of the Empire of Great Britain. In one month 1,200 men came up the Fraser River from points on the old Cariboo trail, to join the regiment there. Wallachin, a town on the trail, sent forty-seven men to the front out of sixty-seven eligible citizens of the town. Vancouver has sent over 12,000 men out of its population of 100,000. Prince Rupert has gone over this ratio. Every settlement in British Columbia has its soldiers in the ranks.

REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories, and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,500 acres will be leased to one applicant.

In surveyed territory, the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the right applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns shall be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 an acre.

The coffee, cocoa, and tea duties levied under the British war taxation scheme have been readjusted so as to secure uniformity of burden among the users of the beverages made from the articles. Coffee and cocoa are to pay 4½ pence a pound and tea shilling a pound. These are heavy rates of taxation, whether equitable or not. The total is paying part of the war cost as well as the fellow who drinks beer.

TOWN AND COUNTRY NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Stevens, of Long Beach, California, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Edwin DeHart.

Miss A. Mary Gibbs returned from a two week vacation Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. and Miss Gowen left yesterday morning for Okanagan Centre and Vernon, visiting friends.

Miss Ruth Wanless, who has been relieving at the telegraph office, left for Penticton Monday, Miss Pennell resuming her duties.

Mr. W. B. Poliwka, of Quebec, was a visitor in town this week on a tour through to the western coast. He spoke of Kelowna as being one of the prettiest places he had touched at.

Corporal Plant who has been stationed at Field for some time past is in town this week on leave, having signed up with the Forester battalion at the coast.

Mr. Harry Orchard, of the "Courier" staff received a wire last evening intimating the accidental death of his brother by shooting. He left this morning for Kamloops.

A camp of engineers and surveyors in connection with the new C.N.R. line has been established during the past week near Mill Creek behind Leslie Dilworth's place. They are engaged in putting the finishing touches to the layout of the grade and making some improvements here and there.

A party of some thirty Chinamen is being brought up from Vancouver this week to work in the cannery. This step has been rendered necessary owing to the impossibility of getting sufficient peelers to handle the fruit coming in.

Two deserters from the 172nd A company at Vernon were arrested last Friday in Kelowna by provincial constable Graham. They were in hiding near Dr. Boyce's summer camp apparently making for the Penticton trail. On the authorities being notified a sergeant and guard were sent down and they were taken back to camp Sunday morning.

Messrs. H. W. Brodie, general passenger agent of the C.P.R. at Vancouver, and J. C. Irons, general agent of the Canadian-Australian Steamship Co., were in town yesterday, having motored down from Vernon. They went on by car to Penticton where they will meet Sir Thos. Shaughnessy, who is to be in the valley this week.

An innocent desire for a drink on the part of a team left standing in Water street near the Opera House Tuesday, is likely to prove costly for their owner. Probably sighting the water trough with its crystal fountain through the corner window of the Oak Hall, they started leisurely to make a bee line for the cooling draught. Oblivious of the heavy wagon with its spreading rack to which they were hitched, they took a short cut over the sidewalk at the corner. The wagon rack caught the copper work of the window frame and dragged out the big sheet of glass which formed the front window of the Oak Hall. The glass fell with a terrific crash but the team seemed not to notice it, but continued on to assuage their thirst. The damage will probably amount to nearly $150. The incident serves to show how dangerous a practise it is to leave even the quietest horses untied in the street.

A Harvest Thanksgiving service will be held in St. Andrews' church Okanagan Mission, on Sunday afternoon next, at 3 p.m.

A session of the County Court is to be held in Kelowna to-morrow (Friday) at which Judge Swanson will preside.

Mr. Frank Knapton left Sunday for Vancouver, where it is his intention to enlist in the Engineers. He has lately disposed of his boot repairing business to Mr. C. Lark, who was formerly in the same business a little further down the street.

On and after October 1st, 1916, W. R. Trench & Co., P. B. Willits & Co. and W. M. Crawford & Co. will close their respective stores at 6.30 each evening, except Thursday and Saturday evenings, when the stores will remain open as heretofore.

Mr. H. E. Turner, a prominent Manitoba member of the I.O.O.F., of which he is Provincial Grand Representative, is at present on a visit to his niece, Mrs. J. W. Jones. Mr. Turner is very well pleased with this district after a long sojourn on the prairies.

An accident took place last Saturday afternoon which though alarming at the time happily had no serious consequences. A runaway three-horse team belonging to Mr. G. H. Guest collided with a rig in front of Casorso's butcher shop. In the rig was seated Mrs. J. Morrison, of Ellison, but although very much frightened she luckily escaped unhurt.

A verdict of accidental death was returned by a jury at Penticton to-day touching the death of L. C. Woodworth, of Summerland, who was shot near his place yesterday. The evidence was to the effect that he was on his way down to the creek near his house when he slipped and fell, the rifle he was carrying discharging a bullet through his head. Mr. Woodworth, who is a well-known rancher of the south end of the valley, was a large shipper of cattle and horses. He was a brother of C. M. Woodworth, the well-known Vancouver lawyer. He leaves a wife and three children.

Fruit Growers' Assn. to Advertise B.C. Fruit

How to spread abroad the fame of British Columbia fruit in the markets of the prairie provinces and the west generally, is the problem which is at present exercising the minds of the members of that energetic organization, the British Columbia Fruitgrowers' Association, and it was in furtherance of this object that a meeting of the executive was held in Kelowna on Tuesday afternoon. There were present at the meeting, which took place in the Board of Trade building, the President of the Association, Mr. T. Abriel of Nakusp, Mr. J. E. Reekie of Kelowna, Mr. C. E. Barnes of Waltham, Mr. Geo. Heggie of Vernon, and the secretary, Mr. R. M. Winslow. Mr. W. E. McTaggart, prairie markets commissioner also attended.

In order to raise funds for an aggressive advertising campaign, the association has now practically completed an agreement with the principal shippers of B. C. to make a contribution of one dollar per car towards the fund. As the carload shipments for the last year or two are getting well into the thousands this will accumulate a considerable sum and with this it is proposed by a variety of means to push forward the sales in the west. The weekly newspapers and agricultural journals will be largely used to achieve this end. The co-operation of jobbers and retailers will also be enlisted to make the campaign still more effective.

In Alberta, the jobbers have shown themselves willing and anxious to help on the plan, and it is expected with their aid to make the campaign a very comprehensive affair.

The week of October 16th to 21st has been fixed upon in Calgary as Apple Week, and between those dates, which will coincide with the Calgary

Escaped Prisoners From Vernon Still At Large

Nothing has yet been heard of the twelve men who escaped last week from the internment camp at Vernon, by digging a tunnel nearly a hundred feet long from the camp kitchen to the house of a German resident nearby. Parties of the B. C. Horse have been around the district all the week and a diligent search has been made, but so far without result.

The tunnel through which the prisoners escaped was not discovered until a large bread box was moved in the kitchen, when the opening beneath it was disclosed. The earth was distributed under the floor of the kitchen which stands some height from the ground.

exhibition, a large number of stores will carry window displays of B. C. fruit. Many ingenious contests and competitions are also to be organized to help out the general effect.

Mr. Winslow spent several days in town this week, interviewing the various shippers, and also attending to the many duties which claim his attention as head of the fruit inspection department.
