Council Discusses Veterans' Land Scheme

Arrangements Made for Civic Elections

"That the Dominion government secure a tract or tracts of land in the district of Kelowna—more than 2,000 men having enlisted from this district who will desire to settle here on their return—and provision for them should be made on Indian reserve and other lands now lying idle around Kelowna."

This was the substance of a resolution passed by the city council at Monday evening's meeting, and was the outcome of a discussion raised by a proposal of the local War Veterans' Association to form a community settlement. A draft of this scheme had been sent for the consideration of the council, and if possible for endorsement.

After giving this matter careful consideration the council decided that it might be advisable in the first place to request the proper authorities to make an allotment of certain lands in the Kelowna district for the use of returned soldiers, several members expressing the opinion that the question of community settlement or separate holdings should be left to the returned soldiers to decide.

A letter from Mayor Gale, of Vancouver, in reference to the "Reconstruction" problem suggested the formation in Kelowna of a committee similar to that formed at the coast.

A letter was read from J. R. Forsyth, for the Custodian of Enemy Property, enclosing a notice requiring information from all classes of Canadian citizens in connection with such property.

Mr. S. M. Gore wrote suggesting that the council supply a free light to be placed on his verandah, pointing out that this would take the place of a street light which the council had been unable to see its way clear to instal. The request was referred to the committee.

Mrs. G. M. Windsor expressed her willingness to accept the city's offer for a further year's lease on the police offices at $25 per month.

It was decided not to hold the annual meeting of ratepayers, but that each head of a committee should prepare a report for publication.

A resolution was passed making the following grants to organizations:—

Kelowna Hospital Socy.	$376.12
Kelowna Aquatic Assn.	102.62
Okan. Ambulance League.	40.58
Prisoners of War Fund	40.58

Returned Soldiers get Enthusiastic Greeting

Fire Brigade Turn Out in Force to Greet Comrade

Perhaps the most enthusiastic demonstration which has yet been held in welcoming returned men took place last Friday afternoon when the Sicamous brought in a party of well-known Kelowna boys. The Fire Brigade turned out in full force, with both engines, while the hooters of both boat and power house, including the fire syren, summoned an unusually large crowd to the wharf.

The chief object of the fire brigade's enthusiasm was Gunner Harman Willits, a member of that body which contributed so many of its number to overseas service.

Gunner Willits went over early, transferring from the B.C. Horse, and with a detachment of artillery saw some heavy service. Wet and exposure, however, brought on an attack of trench fever, and he was sent back to hospital. He was overwhelmed with congratulations and hand shaking as he stepped from the boat, and was finally hoisted shoulder high and carried to the waiting fire engines, which then proceeded in noisy procession through the streets.

Lance-Corporal J. Paret, another of the returning party, was first with the 172nd as sergeant, and spent some time in England as an instructor, later volunteering with a draft for the trenches. He was with the Canadians in some of their hardest fighting, but he, too, was at length incapacitated by the fever and wounds and had to go back to England.

Pte. Albert Raymer found on arrival in England that he could not qualify physically for France, so he was kept in England as an instructor in munetry.

Pte. W. Mathews was one of the original first contingent, joining the colors almost immediately war was declared. He has been through the thickest of the war, twice being wounded.

Pte. H. Mallam, has also seen a good deal of service, being one of the B. C. Horse who volunteered for active service.

Jim Patterson, until lately of the Royal Flying Corps, at Toronto, also returned by the same boat.

It was formally resolved that nominations for Mayor, Aldermen and Police Commissioners for the ensuing year, and also for School Trustees, be held on Monday, January 13th, 1919, and that a poll be held if necessary, on Thursday, January 16th, 1919.

Propose Soldiers' Co-Operative Settlement

Community Farm Will Be Formed By Pooling Interests

The local Great War Veterans' Association and a local committee of business men are behind a scheme for co-operative or community land settlement for returned men, which has many features to recommend it, and which will no doubt meet with hearty support, provided the federal government can be induced to grant the needed facilities.

Briefly outlined the plan is this: that a number of returned men, soldiers' widows, and other dependents who are entitled to land grants under the soldiers' settlement arrangements, should pool their interests and with the help of the government acquire a tract of land (of the adjacent Indian reserves is suggested), and establish a co-operative agricultural settlement.

For the purpose of working out the details of this scheme and laying it before the proper authorities a committee of citizens and business men comprising Mayor Sutherland and Messrs. E. R. Bailey, Grote Stirling, M. Hereron, W. G. Benson and P. B. Willits are working with the War Veterans, who have also appointed a committee consisting of Geo. Kennedy, J. C. Anderson and James Inglis.

The attractive points in connection with this scheme as presented by the committee are:—

1. That many of the men are not physically capable of taking up land by themselves, especially bush land, though they keenly desire to settle on the land;
2. That such agricultural pursuits can be thus taken in hand which will, in various ways, provide work for the partially disabled;
3. That mutual assistance will be facilitated, and, should a man be injured or lose his health, his holding will be more easily negotiable, and in the event of his death his dependents would be better provided for;
4. That the money loaned would be, under the supervision provided, more secure;
5. That army life has had the effect of making many men desirous of working together with their fellows, rather than as isolated units;
6. That provision is made for the interests of soldiers' widows and other dependents, and of men who are: Incapacitated, not adaptable to farming, prevented by other occupations from actually settling on the land, or desirous of taking up University courses before settling down on the land.

7. That it would tend to smooth away the difficulty of providing men with areas of land of exactly the same value. Differences of value disappear in the pooling.

One of the greatest attractions of this scheme is that the climate of the Okanagan is specially suited to men who have passed through the exacting conditions of the great war; whose health has been to a greater or less extent affected by gas, rheumatism, &c. And, moreover, the industries which flourish in the district, are such that many opportunities are offered for light work and winter work.

In the immediate vicinity of Kelowna there are several Indian reserves, some with no Indians left; some with no Indians left belonging to them; and others with but two or three; and these could be transferred to adjacent reserves.

There is a reserve just north of Kelowna containing 640 acres, with a creek running through it, which would provide irrigation. It is partially cleared and the soil is good, and there is nothing to hinder a start being made at the end of the winter. Two others lying across the Okanagan Lake from Kelowna, of about 3,000 to 4,000 acres, have adjoining them a tract of partially cleared land of some 1,000 acres which could be acquired from a company, and together they would form an admirable site for further development as the men return. For this land an irrigation system from the neighbouring creeks would be required. On one of these creeks the adjoining land just mentioned is recorded.

The construction of the system would provide work for a good many returned men for a year or more, whilst others could be busy with the clearing, fencing and preparation of the land itself.

Besides these reserves there are other tracts of land available for extension which could be purchased, and some of which lie under the main systems of existing irrigation works.

The scheme so appeals to the G.W.V.A. that it appears likely that returned men in considerable numbers will be desirous of coming under it, but as it is advisable to make a commencement without delay a start could be made by those available on a small area, extension following as required.

The land could be allotted on an acreage basis per man, and be placed in the hands of a Veterans' Association governed by an executive elected from their numbers, with a representative of the government to advise and co-operate in directing. The executive would be guided by stringent rules governing methods of procedure, and one-third should retire each year. Funds for development purposes would be borrowed from the government and would provide wages for the veterans who work on the land. The profits derived after deductions for amortization charges, would be allotted to those whose interests have been pooled.

The value of each tract of land, with water on it, would have to be ascertained and the acreage per man arrived at. For instance, where land is worth $250 an acre, and the total sum per man $5,000, the basis would be twenty acres per man. Again, where the value

Friedrich Ebert, Socialist Premier of Germany, declared in an interview that he did not know of any legal method by which the surrender of Count William Hohenzollern could be forced.

Strike Epidemic Breaks Out in Germany

An epidemic of strikes is reported from Germany, in some cases for higher wages, and in others for the so-called famine subsidy. The Krupps directorate have notified their workers that many foremen and most of the 200,000 workers must be dismissed, as there is only work for about 12,000 men. Vorwaetz demands that the government at once undertake public works that will keep the great plants going.

No more Canadian troops will be sent to Siberia General Mewburn stated in an interview.

'tion of the land' is $50 per acre and the cost of an irrigation system $100 per acre, the amount per man would be 33 and one-third acres. But no feelings of hardship amongst the men could arise, as the land would all be pooled as the scheme expanded, and become the property of the men's association.

With regard to the lands across the lake which would require the construction of an irrigation system. Complete plans for such a system were got out by the company owning the adjoining tract of land, and it is understood that this system could, without difficulty, be extended to serve the reserve. The money would have to be borrowed from the government, and when expended would represent a portion of the value of the irrigated land allotted to the Association for a definite number of men. This irrigation scheme did not include the construction of reservoirs at the headwater, but with the inclusion of the reserve this would become necessary.

Copies of this draft scheme have been forwarded to the Hon. Arthur Meighen, minister of the interior and the Board of Trade and city council are each lending their aid to secure the release of the Indian reserves for settlement purposes.

The members of the local War Veterans' Association are meeting Saturday to discuss their land settlement scheme and also to elect delegates to attend a provincial convention to be held at Vancouver.

Former Kelowna Girl Is Influenza Victim

It was the sad experience of Mrs. Geo. Patterson, who left Kelowna early last week in response to an urgent telegram announcing the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Rosa L. Henning, to arrive too late to see her alive. Complications following an attack of influenza were the cause of death, which occurred last Thursday at Seattle.

Up to two or three years ago Miss Rosa Patterson was one of Kelowna's best known young ladies. She was a pupil at the High School, and was later on the staff of the telephone exchange. She was married to A. W. Henning who was here with the firm of Grant Smith & Co., the contractors who built this section of the Kettle Valley Ry. She was twenty-four years of age, and leaves one little girl.

Mr. Roy Sweeney has generously given to the local War Veterans' Association a free lease of fifteen acres of land at Okanagan Mission to be used in any way to benefit the funds of the Association.

The prize drawing contest in connection with Trenwith's store came to an end on Christmas Eve, the winning numbers being declared as follows: First, 412, for the doll; second, 1239, for the reading lamp; third, 3581, for the express wagon.

Five hundred and seventeen ships have been added to the British navy since August, 1914. The new vessels include seven battleships, five battle cruisers, twenty-six light cruisers, seventeen monitors, 230 destroyers and 232 mine sweepers and special service craft.

The former German empress will hardly live to see the new year, it is stated. Her ailment, heart disease, has grown considerably worse during the past exciting weeks. Previously, for several months, she had suffered from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy. The condition of the former empress has had a serious effect on her husband, who also is seriously ill. It is feared that his ear trouble will spread to the brain. Also, his nervous condition is bad.

Discuss Organization of District Y.M.C.A.

A meeting was held in Vernon last week in the interests of the Y.M.C.A. movement for town and country work.

The meeting was addressed by Mr. C. D. Thornton, secretary for the Town and Country Work Department of the National Council of Y.M.C.A. (Western Division), who stated that the object of this movement was for the organization of men for community service, replacing of leadership lost by the war; provision for an enlistment of returned men in community activities; conservation of boy life; increased production and better social conditions. It was a work where personal force was primary, equipment secondary, and in which groups of men under local volunteer leadership carry out a program giving emphasis to the religious, educational, social and physical development.

It was proposed to have a district of this nature for the cities of Egderby, Armstrong, Vernon, Kelowna and Penticton, each city having its own local board consisting of three or more men, who would be organized with committees on boys work, recreational work, religion, education, community service and finances, and each local board to have members elected to the district committee whose duty it would be to supervise the work and employ a trained secretary, who would reside in the district and give his entire time to the work. His duties would be to organize the boys into groups or clubs, each such group being organized with its own officers of boys, thus teaching self-government and appealing to the sense of ownership. The men of the community are organizing into a group for the purpose of training in Christian leadership, in a study of community problems and of initiating and supervising agencies for improvement of community life and such other activities as are required for the individual needs of each city.

An annual budget of approximately $3500 would be required for the district composed of the said cities, and it would be necessary before the trained secretary of the Y.M.C.A. would commence that there be sufficient pledges to ensure two years' work for such secretary.

It was decided to endorse the movement; but as it was felt the number present was not sufficiently large to adequately represent the city, it was decided that nothing further be done until such time as the other cities had also endorsed the plan and to await the date of the convention of delegates from the interested cities.

Orders for Local Scouts

WE PREPARED Kelowna Troop Troop First; Self Last

Edited by Pioneer, Dec. 24, 1918.

We heard from Mr. Zimmerman of Summerland last week, and two teams, possibly three, are anxious to come up and play basketball just as soon as the "Flu" ban is lifted. That means that there will be at least 15 visiting Scouts whom we should like to billet around the different local homes. The visitors will come up on a Friday morning; the matches will be played that evening, or if there are three teams one match will be played in the afternoon, and they will return home on Saturday afternoon's boat. We should like to hear from any of our scouts or their parents or friends immediately who will be able to billet one or two of our visitors for this occasion. Telephone any of the leaders or the scoutmaster. We have to make all arrangements some little time ahead. After the matches we shall send down teams to Summerland for return matches. Any scout in our troop who hopes to get on a team must attend practices regularly.

Before these matches with Summerland we hope to put on a match between two good local teams, and also to persuade the ladies to put on a match the same evening. We shall announce the date as soon as the "Flu" ban is lifted.

The scoutmaster has just had a letter from Assistant Scoutmaster Keon, saying he expects to be back in Vancouver immediately. We hope that he will be able to get down to work with us again.

S. M. Atkinson, formerly of Penticton, but who is now attending St. Mark's Anglican Theological College in Vancouver, sends us his best wishes for Christmas and the New Year, which we heartily reciprocate.

The following appears in the November Headquarters Gazette, and we believe refers to none other than Mr. Leggatt, who was our first Scoutmaster:—

"Incompetent German Scouts. Captain W. Leggatt, M.C., formerly a member of the 19th Greenwich Troop, after eighteen months imprisonment escaped from Germany and recently paid a visit to his old troop. In speaking to the boys he described how on the first day of his escape he was hiding in a thicket and some German Boy Scouts came along. They had apparently been sent out to track the escaped prisoners, but fortunately for the escaped ones, the trackers did everything a scout should not do. A scout should see and not be seen, and hear and not be heard. These German Scouts shouted and took up positions in the open road so that the prisoner in hiding knew where they were and what they were up to. The scouts noticed a board up by the thicket saying 'forbidden to enter' and so instead of surmising that was probably the very place a prisoner would hide in, they left it severely alone. Captain Leggatt said that if these scouts had been trained as good English ones are, he would not have stood a chance of getting out of Germany."

Officials of the department of agriculture predict that the definite removal of the three years' embargo on the importation of apples into Great Britain is going to be a fine thing for Canadian apple-growers. In Nova Scotia there are 200,000 barrels of apples still in cold storage. These can be readily exported to Great Britain.

Out of the fifty-three municipalities which found it necessary to apply to the provincial board of health for the inhibitory ban as a preventive measure against Spanish influenza, there are still some fourteen points at which the epidemic is considered sufficiently serious to require precautionary action still.

Influenza Ravages London Districts

Many dead in London are still without prospect of burial. The situation is most serious in the districts of Hackney, Bethnal Green, Homerton and Poplar. In many houses at Hackney bodies have been awaiting burial for ten days. Undertakers have so many orders on their hands that they can guarantee no date for funerals. At Homerton undertakers displayed the notice: "No further orders can be taken until further notice." The cemetery authorities are doing their best to meet the difficulty by allowing Sunday funerals. Meanwhile the "flu" continues although less severely.

Is Your Blood Poor?
If it is, You Need Vinol

Anaemic, run-down, nervous, devitalized conditions result from poor or thin blood. A glance at the formula of Vinol, printed on the label, will show that it contains the very ingredients necessary to make good blood. It soon creates a healthy appetite, improves digestion, and helps you to get full benefit from your daily food, and builds you up.

Drewsville, N. H. "My daughter was anaemic, had poor blood and suffered from indigestion and bilious attacks. As Vinol helped my son, I gave it to my daughter—she soon improved in health, and it has built her up and restored her health."—Mrs. N. Burnell.

Bradford, Pa. "I have used Vinol for impoverished blood. I was broken out with a rash and run down so it was hard for me to keep about my work. Other medicines did no good, but Vinol enriched my blood and improved my condition very rapidly."—Rose Lasky.

For all run-down, nervous, anaemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol.

KELOWNA CREAMERY, LTD.

Printed Butter
Wrappers

According to the new Dominion Government regulations all farmers who sell butter either to the stores or privately, are required to have it properly covered in a wrapper on which MUST appear in prominent letters the words "DAIRY BUTTER."

The fact is also emphasized that all butter in such packages must be of the full net weight of sixteen ounces, and in default of same a fine of from $10 to $30 for each offence is imposed. Whey butter must be so labelled even when mixed with dairy butter and dairy butter retains its label though it be mixed with the creamery product.

You can be supplied with neatly-printed wrappers for your butter at the Kelowna Record Office, for the following prices:

100	PAPER & PRINTING INCLUDED	$1.50
200	" "	2.00
500	" "	3.15
1000	" "	4.50

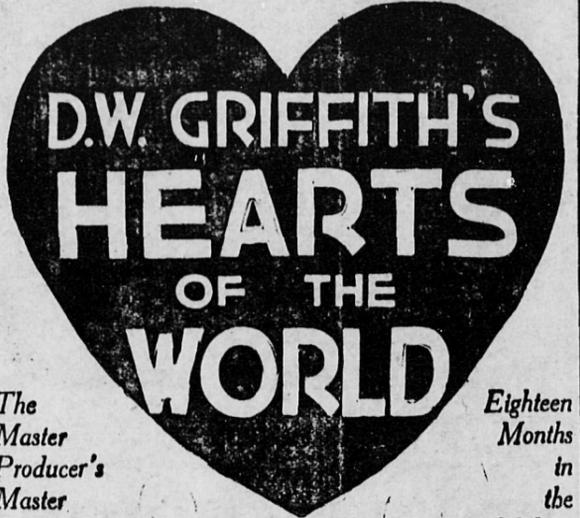

These prices include Both the Paper, which is the best obtainable for the purpose, and the Printing of same. Please note this.

Owing to the extraordinary rise in the price of butter parchment (which has gone up over 100 per cent) we have been reluctantly obliged to raise our prices slightly. Nearly all this paper was previously manufactured in Belgium, and needless to say this supply has been entirely cut off. Unfortunately there is no guarantee against further increases, indeed, they are more than likely.

Three hundred members of the National Women's party, carrying torches and banners, paraded near the White House, Washington, on Monday, and publicly burned copies of President Wilson's speeches at the base of the statue of Lafayette. Plain Horse Sense.
If a merchant or a manufacturer is willing to spend good money for advertising, to ask you to try his store or his product, it stands to reason that he must have something worth offering. Otherwise you would not go back, or you would not again purchase the product, and the first sale would be the last. In that case advertising would NOT pay. It only pays when it brings continuous patronage, and to do that there must be real value given. That is the reason advertised stores or products are almost invariably good. It will pay you to patronize the advertisers.

The foreign affairs committee of the French Chamber of Deputies is considering a bill which would make Versailles the capital of the proposed society of nations. It proposes to put the buildings at Versailles at the disposal of the states giving them the privilege of extra territorial right and to make Versailles the permanent centre of the proposed society of nations.

Labor unions throughout the United Kingdom are agitating for forty-four hours a week. This would mean eight hours a day for five days of the week and four hours on Saturday. The National Transport Workers' Federation has presented to all the municipal and privately-owned tramways a demand for a working week of forty-four hours at the present weekly wages.
